People Who Weigh and Compare

Know and get the best. Cottolene, the new vegetable shortening, has won a wide and wonderful popularity. At its introduction it was submitted to expert chemists, prominent physicians and famous cooks. All of these pronounced a natural, healthful and acceptable food-product, better than lard for every cooking purpose.

The success of Cottolene is now a matter of history. Will you share in the better food and better health for which it stands, by using it in your home?

Avoid imitations—countless—worthless. Stick to COTTOLENE.

BIG CROP OF CRANKS

Two More of Them Locked Up in New York.

Both Called on the Police for Money.

One Fought Desperately; the Other Demanded $100,000, $25,000 of Which He Wanted in Pennies.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—A tall slim man with a pair of dark blue eyes, in which there was a glare of insanity, entered the East Thirty-fifth street police station yesterday. He approached Sergeant Fagan, who was at the desk, and said: "How are you, sergeant?" The sergeant replied: "Well, what do you want?"

"I want $5,000 from you and I am going to have it. Do you understand? I mean business."

The sergeant at once saw that he had a crank to deal with and determined to be wary.

"Well, I am sorry I have not got it," said the sergeant. "You never give a fellow a chance to get it. If you come a little later I will have it for you."

Was Getting Angry.

The man looked very disappointed and was getting angry and restless when the sergeant said: "Wait, I'll tell you what I'll do. I will send a man up to the bank with you."

The sergeant rang the bell for the man on hall duty to come down stairs and he was ordered to call Policeman Rose, who is the largest man in the squad. Policeman Rose came down and the sergeant winked at him and said:

"Rose take this man up to the bank and get him $5,000. It's all right."

The man appeared satisfied and followed the big policeman immediately. The policeman took his unsuspecting prisoner to the Yorkville police court.

Suddenly the man on perceiving several policemen in the building made a break toward Third avenue. Rose followed, and overtaking the man, jumped on him.

Fought the Policeman.

A terrific struggle followed between the men. The policeman's strength was taxed to its utmost in trying to drag the man to the Yorkville police court building and then up stairs to the court room. There he was placed in the prisoners' pen.

Policeman Rose then related the facts to Justice Grady, who ordered him to make out a case of insanity against the man.

He proceeded to the pen to find out the prisoners' name and address, opened the door cautiously and saw the man sitting on a bench. He went in and questioned him.

Bit the Officer.

Instead of replying the man gave a yell, jumped upon Rose, and seizing Rose's hand between his teeth, bit it.

The two men tumbled about the floor and were fighting when Policemen Burns and Harrington, of the court squad, rushed to Rose's assistance. After some difficulty Rose managed to free himself, and the man was again locked in the pen.

The prisoner gave his name as John Beitholz, a Swede, 31 years old, of the Windsor hotel, at Canal street and the Bowery. On him were found $8, a razor and a knife.

WANTED $25,000 IN PENNIES.

New York's Police Superintendent Visited By a Crank.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—The latest crank walked into police headquarters yesterday afternoon straight from a lodging house in Pelt street.

"I want to see the superintendent," he said to Sergeant Mangin.

"He is very busy. Won't I do?" said the sergeant.

"No, I am after the superintendent. I want the money he owes me. Why don't he pay it?"

The Officers Caught On.

"Oh!" said the sergeant, catching on; "all right! Come right in," and he led the man into the superintendent, taking good care to keep close at his elbow.

The superintendent looked up from his desk and took in the situation at a glance.

"What can I do for you, my friend?" he said.

"You can pay me the money you owe me," said the fellow. "Why don't you? I've waited long enough."

"Let me see; how much is it now?" queried Mr. Byrnes, looking his visitor over with a searching glance.

Wanted $25,000 in Pennies.

"It's $75,000," he said, "I told Mrs. Bell to give them to you, but now you've had it long enough.

"Two years ago is a long time. There's $25,000 interest on it now. I want them in pennies!"

"Pennies are pretty scarce," pondered the superintendent, "but maybe we can manage it. Frank, you take this man into the detective office and get him his $100,000. See that they give him the $25,000 in pennies and the rest in bills."

The sergeant and the crank walked over the bridge arm in arm. The crank is in an iron-barred cell now, waiting to be paid.

Still Another Crank.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—Harlem developed its crank late last night. The crank stood on Harlem bridge at 10 o'clock brandished a revolver and yelled: "Captain Brooks owes me $50,000 and I mean to have it. He borrowed it twelve years ago to speculate with." The police were soon on hand and after a desperate struggle he was locked up.

Another Crank Sentenced.

BOSTON, Nov. 1.—Wm. D. T. Pattyson, an alleged religious crank, who was charged with disturbing the meetings in the Bromfield street M. E. Church by insisting upon presenting his views to the exclusion of other services, has been sentenced to three months in jail. He appealed.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 1.—Michael Kozak, a Slavish banker and steamship agent, has left town taking with him about $15,000 of his depositors money.

Silver Bill Reaches the House—Senate Not Idle.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—Yesterday's proceedings marked the transfer of the final struggle over the silver repeal bill from the senate to the house. The bill itself did not reach the house until 12:30 o'clock, the time before that being spent in some caustic debate upon the naturalization bill. The New Mexico statehood bill was reported and the bill giving the brick ship to Illinois was passed.

When the silver repeal bill was presented it was laid on the speaker's table. Later on, at 1:30, Mr. Livingston (dem., Ga.) created a diversion by asking that the silver bill be taken up at once and debated. This disclosed the purpose of the silver men to demand time, for Mr. Bland objected, and the bill went over until to-day. The discussion of the bankruptcy bill consumed the remainder of the afternoon, and the house at 5:15 o'clock adjourned.

Senate Busy.

The senate did not indulge in idleness after its long and weary campaign on the silver question. It met at noon and did not adjourn till a quarter before five. Between those hours it considered and finally passed the very important measure known as the New York bridge bill. It is a house bill with various amendments reported by the senate committee on commerce.

WANTED A CHILD-WIFE.

An Italian's Scheme Frustrated By the Courts.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 1.—The Italian child-marriage case which caused a sensation in "Little Italy," a week ago last Sunday, was heard before Judge Spink in the municipal court yesterday afternoon.

The evidence showed that Cattrina Gatti, 14 years of age, who had been imported by her mother to be married to Antonio Rezullo, 40 years of age, who in consideration thereof had paid the passage money for the whole Gatti family, was beaten by her mother because the marriage was frustrated by the child's complaint to the neighbors. There was also evidence that the mother had threatened to kill Cattrina for breaking up the match.

Judge Spink ordered the girl committed to the care of the society for the prevention of cruelty to children.

Convicted of Bribery.

PATERSON, N. J., Nov. 1.—Freeholder John E. Foalks and Thomas Howard, county light and bridge inspector, were found guily of conspiracy to bribe in the court of oyer and terminer last evening. Both were members of the building committee of the board of freeholders, and were committed upon the testimony of Architect F. W. Rumpf, who alleged that he gave the accused $300 each to secure him the contract of furnishing the plans for the proposed new court house.

Could Not Convict the Lynchers.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Nov. 1.—Some time ago Lee Walker, charged with attempting a criminal assault, was taken from the jail by a mob, hanged, burned and cut to pieces. A. J. McLendon, the sheriff and a number of deputies were indicted for permitting the jail to be stormed. Phil Bode and three others were indicted for murder. After exhausting a venire of 500 men without securing a single juror the attorney general nolle prossed all the cases.

No Deceit Proven.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—In the action of Richard H. Wright to secure $50,000 damages from James B. Duke and other members of the firm of W. Duke Sons & Co., for alleged fraudulent representations by which Wright sold out his interest in the firm in 1885 for $38,750, Justice Patterson of the supreme court has given judgement for the defendants.

Favor Capital Punishment.

LUCERNE, Nov. 1.—The Lucerne council in 1892 ordered the execution of the Italian, Gatti, as a protest against the cessation of capital punishment in Switzerland. Monday the council took similar action by voting 73 to 48 in favor of the execution of the murderer Keller, who killed his female servant. Keller was guillotined yesterday.

Union Pacific Affairs.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—The Union Pacific receivers will ask for authority to pay interest on the following bonds: monthly installments on the three year notes under which Drexel, Morgan & Co., are the trustees; Kansas Pacific consolidated 6s; do Denver extension 6s, Atchison & Pike's Peak 6s, and Central Branch 7s.

Choy Sing in Trouble.

CHICAGO, Nov. 1.—It is claimed that Choy Sing, the proprietor of the Chinese theater in the Midway Plaisance, has smuggled nearly 500 Chinese laborers into this country, and, as a result, he was arrested. He was unable to give bond and was committed to jail.

WAR SHIPS FOR BRAZIL

Ten Vessels Purchased in the United States.

Fitting Out Several of the Fighters in New York—Some Complaint About the Matter, But the Government Has no Right to Interfere.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—The Times this morning says that six more United States merchant steamships have been purchased by the government of Brazil for use as warships—the powerful El Rio, of the Morgan line, and the Advance, Finance, Alliance, Seguranca and Figilanca of the recent United States and Brazil mail steamship company.

These last purchases gives to the Brazil government ten new vessels.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—The situation in Brazil is still the most interesting matter in the state and navy departments and the secrecy with which officials, who may or may not know anything that is going on, surround themselves lends additional force to the belief that great things are about to happen.

So far as the report that the New York is going to Rio is concerned, Secretary Herbert absolutely refuses to discuss the subject. He says that he has given out all he intends to make public at this time. His subordinates are quite reticent, while at the state department the word "Brazil" from a newspaper man acts as the cue for a chilly reception.

There are many rumors concerning the selection of a successor to Admiral Stanton as commander-in-chief of the south Atlantic station, and the names most prominently mentioned are commodores Ramsey, Kirkland and Meade.

DESTROYER LEAVES NEWPORT.

Brazil's New Purchase to Be Fitted and Manned in New York.

NEWPORT, R. I., Nov. 1.—The Destroyer sailed for New York this morning in tow of the tug Scandinavian. C. H. Bushnell, vice-president of the Ericsson company, has been in town all day. He says there is how no secret about the sale of the craft to the Brazilian government.

Five men, it is calculated, will be all that are necessary to man her on her down trip.

There are in the possession of the Ericsson company ten projectiles, six new and four old ones. The new ones were ordered by our government, but never paid for, so the ship people have paid the bill and claimed the projectiles without protest. They will have to be loaded to be made serviceable for fighting. There is regret expressed by the naval officers that the net trials have been brought to this untimely end, but there seems little reason for the abuse of the government for not purchasing the vessel.

BRAZIL'S NEW FLEET.

Complaints About the Fitting Out of the War Ships in New York.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—El Cid has been so far fitted for the reception of her armament that she will go to the pier of the Morgan iron works to-morrow to receive her guns.

The Morgan line steamer El Rio, which has also been bought by the Brazilian government, arrived at her pier last night.

It is understood that complaints have been made concerning the fitting out and arming of the new Brazilian fleet, but there is no law which could prevent the sale of vessels by citizens of the United States to a friendly power, but the shipping of men is a different thing and may come under the "foreign enlistment act," so-called.

It is, however believed that the new fleet of Brazil will be able to get away from these shores without any trouble.

Reading Railroad Earnings.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 1.—The September statement of the Philadelphia & Reading railroad shows gross receipts during the month, $1,946,595; gross expenses, $1,019,298; leaving a profit from operating of $927,297. Net receipts from other sources, $35,786; making a net profit of $963,113.

Bequests to Religious Orders.

HARTFORD, Conn., Nov. 1.—By the will of the late John Morrison of this city, just admitted to probate, the Universalist church at Thompsonville is left $2,500, and the church of the Redeemer of this city $2,500. Five hundred dollars is left to the Old People's Home of this city.

Cleaned Out the Bank.

BOSTON, Nov. 1.—The Banca Nazionale Italiana, located in an Italian grocery store on North street, was robbed yesterday of $1,000 in Italian money and $46 in United States coin comprising the entire capital of the institution.

Increase of Working Hours.

SUSQUEHANNA, Pa., Nov. 1.—Beginning to-day, the extensive locomotive works of the New York, Lake Erie & Western railroad at this place will be in operation 28 hours per week instead of 24 hours as heretofore.

Damage By Recent Cyclones.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—Reports of the havoc done by the recent hurricanes in the North Atlantic ocean continue to be received by the hydrographic office of the navy department.

A MILLION FOR STOCKHOLDERS.

21,477,212 Paid Admissions and 2,052,188 Deadheads at the Fair.

CHICAGO, Nov. 1.—With the grand total of 21,477,212 paid admissions the world's fair was officially closed. Though these figures represent the paid admissions during the time allowed by congress in which the exposition should be kept open, yet it is calculated that at least 1,000,000 tickets will be purchased before the beautiful white city is dismantled and leveled to the ground. When the fair closed Sunday night the total paid admissions up to that time were 21,269,089. When the receipts were counted after the final day it was found that the total was 21,477,212. The total number of admissions on passes was 2,052,188, making a grand total of 23,529,400.

After every debt of the world's fair has been paid there will remain $1,000,000 and perhaps more to be distributed among the stockholders. Treasurer Seeberger made this pleasant announcement. Since its organization to Monday morning the exposition company has paid out $30,559,849.01, or three times as much as the managers expected to spend when they commenced building the fair. The gate receipts during the exposition period proper were little over $10,000,000. To Monday $3,300,000 had been collected from concessionaires by Mr. Blackmar's department, and nearly $700,000 were paid before he took hold. The returns from concessions was one of the big surprises of the fair. Nobody was reckless enough to predict that that sum would be realized. The Paris exposition got but $800,000 from that source, while the centennial managers, being better traders than the Frenchmen, got $1,200,000.

Prendergast Hung in Effigy.

CHICAGO, Nov. 1.—Before the police could disperse them, a crowd of twenty or thirty boys had hung Prendergast in effigy last night. They gathered at the corner of Hill and Wells streets and drew up on a tree an object bearing a close resemblance to a man. A placard on the coat read: "The man that killed Harrison—Prendergast." There was considerable noise and excitement at the corner as the boys gathered. They had prepared the effigy before hand, and bore it down the street with rope attached. No police were around, and the boys were dancing in glee for some time before the officers arrived. No arrests were made.

Plankinton's Bank.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 1.—William Plankinton says that early in December he will pay, as assignee for the Plankinton bank, a dividend of 15 or 20 per cent., and that that will be the only dividend paid this year. He says he still regards with favor the efforts to re-establish the bank on a new basis, and will be glad to hear of the success of the plan at an early date. As assignee he is compelled to finish his work as soon as possible.

Superintendent Matthews' Condition.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—The condition of Frederick L. Matthews, the superintendent of construction of the Postal Telegraph building, who was shot by James Bradley, was reported at the Chambers street hospital as slightly improved. It is not thought now that Mr. Matthews will die. The physicians at the hospital say, however, that he is dangerously wounded.

New Postmasters.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—The following fourth-class postmasters were appointed:

New York—F. F. Mulks, Brookton; G. B. Fitch, Higginsville.

Pennsylvania — H. A. Ashton, Knoxville; John Head, Wade; William Gregg, Warsaw.

Republican Campaign Committee.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—W. B. Harrison, of Michigan, ex-superintendent of the railway mail service, has been selected as treasurer of the republican congressional campaign committee. Representative Caldwell, of Ohio, is chairman.

Called to Rome.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 1.—Father David Fennessey, the well known president of St. Mary's college, St. Mary's, Marion county, has been called to Rome to accept the vice-generalship of the congregation of the Resurrectionist fathers.

The Fireman Killed.

HONESDALE, Pa., Nov. 1.—Two coal trains collided head on near Rowland station last night. Both engines and 20 cars were thrown from the track. Peter Haddock, a fireman of Port Jervis, was killed.

Mills Resume.

TONAWANDA, N. Y., Nov. 1.—The Tonawanda Iron & Steel company will start work on their plant in this city to-morrow, after being shut down for nearly three months.

Presidential Appointment.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—The president has nominated John W. A. Strickland to be assistant appraiser of merchandise in the district of New York.

Father Sorin Dead.

CAMDEN, S. C., Nov. 1.—There was a killing frost here last night.

HER ELEGANT CAPE.

HOW ONE WOMAN MADE A SAVING OF $9.90.

Hints for Those Who Like to Dress Well—No Need of Looking Shabby, Even Though Times Are Hard—The Secret Told by One Who Knows.

Those fashionable capes with a triple collar, are looked at with longing eyes by many a woman. But times are hard and economy is both a virtue and a necessity.

One woman solved the problem most satisfactorily by coloring her old drab cloth circular a rich, handsome brown, with a package of diamond dyes, thus actually getting a ten dollar cape for ten cents.

The druggists report a greatly increased sale for diamond dyes this fall, and say they have completely superseded the old-fashioned methods with logwood, fustic, indigo, etc. On each envelope is printed full directions, so plain and explicit that any one can use these dyes with perfect success.

For nearly a score of years diamond dyes have been helping women to dress well at small expense, and it is natural that their great success should have brought many short-lived imitations upon the market. These would claim to make fast colors, but the light fades them; they adulterated their dye to make the package look large, but actual use proved they could color less than half as much as the diamond; and offering a large profit, they secured agents or peddlers to sell them, but a woman never bought them a second time.

Diamond dyes come in nearly 50 colors, specially prepared for wool, silk and cotton, a 10c. package coloring from one to ten pounds of goods. No other dyes are so strong, nothing else so simple, and none so fast and true in color. No woman can afford to risk her goods with imitations, especially when the original diamond dyes are admittedly far superior.

Postmaster General's Statement.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—Postmaster General Bissell has completed and sent to the secretary of the treasury his estimates of appropriations required for the postal service for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1895. The estimates aggregate $90,399,488, as against $84,952,834, the amount of the present appropriations. The estimated revenues for the coming fiscal year aggregate $84,427,748, leaving an estimated deficiency for that year of $5,971,736.

Confirmed By the Senate.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—The senate has confirmed the following nominations: Charles Belmont Davis, of Pennsylvani, to be consul at Florence, Italy, William W. Quinton, of New York; Thomas S. Bratton, of South Carolina; Deane C. Howard, of Massachusetts; Alexander S. Forster, of Maryland, and William H. Wilson, of Missouri, to be assistant surgeons in the army with the rank of first lieutenant.

Settled Out of Court.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 1.—The suit of Charles A. Hardin against the Adams express company for $50,000 has been settled out of court. It is understood that the express company people exonerate Hardin from the charge of stealing the express package containing $35,000 and will take him back into the service of the company. Hardin will now push his suit for damages against the Wells Fargo company.

Denied By Hornblower's Friends.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—A statement was recently published in Washington that Mr. Hornblower, the nominee for the vacancy on the supreme court bench, never had a case in the United States supreme court, or that he never had any experience in constitutional cases. This statement is denied by Mr. Hornblower's legal associates.

BOSTON, Nov. 1.—The case of Mrs. Mary J. Henderson, as principal, and Sarah E. Butler, as accessory before the fact, in alleged criminal malpractice in causing the death of Mrs. Eileen Perkins, the adopted daughter of Mrs. Butler, has been given another continuance till Nov. 8, bail being fixed at $10,000.

Riegel Now in Jail.

EASTON, Pa., Nov 1.—I. Riegel, of Portland, Northampton county, who fled a few weeks ago after, it is alleged, squandering his wife's inheritance of $18,000 and losing his own fortune, has been lodged in Easton jail charged with appropriating $150 from a Knights of Pythias lodge at Portland.

Silver in London.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—The price of silver in London as reported to the treasury department is $0.6857 per ounce with the tendency downward. The bullion value of the silver dollar is to-day lower than it has ever been before, being $0.529.

Want an Extension.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 1.—Assignee C. S. Sweetland, who is endeavoring to straighten out the affairs of Wilbur, Jackson & Co. and Sheldon & Binney, banking houses, which assigned recently, will ask the creditors to agree to an extension.

Change at Harvard.

BOSTON, Nov. 1.—Dr. William Townsend Porter, professor of physiology at the St. Louis medical college, is to succeed Dr. William D. Howells, as associate professor of physiology in the medical department of Harvard university.

Long Bicycle Ride.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Nov. 1.—Fred C. Graves, of the Springfield bicycle club, reached Springfield at 5:28 1-2 o'clock last evening, having ridden on his bicycle from this city to Boston and back in 17 hours, 28 minutes and 30 seconds.

The worriment revealed in the talk of the Republican organs is evidence that they recognize their candidates' chances as growing beautifully less. And the way they attack the editor of The Press shows their pitiful lack of argument against the Democratic candidates, as well as the lack of it in favor of their own. It is n't The Press that is running for office, and it is a compliment to the Democratic candidates that the Republican organs are forced to resort to blurring.

So pressed are the Republican organs that they hold up as a reason against voting for James Martine that The Press declined to infold in its pages circulars advertising anti-race-track meetings! This is certainly desperate. Because The Press refuses to violate one of its fixed business rules, never to give the value of its circulation to persons who are not willing to rest content with its regular columns or to pay for the advertising space it has for sale—because of that forsooth, a man should vote the Republican ticket! Do n't the Republican organs credit their readers with common sense?

An inspiring spectacle is the noble manhood of Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes. His intellect is as logical and discerning, in spite of the passage of more than four-score years, as it was when he penned the Breakfast-Table Series and charmed the nations. His poetry is as pure, his wisdom as golden. It is a rare delight to see such faculties stay unabated. To the youth of the day there is no more noble example of mankind. America may well and proudly point to Dr. Holmes, and say There indeed is a manhood most sublime! White though his locks with the passage of so near a century, creased though the plump flesh of his kindly face—he is not old, but just as young and vigorous as when he wrote that poem of the heart "The Boys". All America—yea: all the world—loves him, and cherishes the sentiments which bubble so briskly and daintily from his pen.

That pen has lost none of its virile cunning, and now it is writing about the helpful wife. The greater the man, the more keen is his appreciation of woman. And Dr. Holmes was never so happy and felicitous as when the gentler sex was on his heart. Have we not his description of the Frogpond Courtship in the Boston Common to attest this? What more delightful romance ever stirred the soul of man than his story of the astronomical lesson as studied by these sweethearts! But that was in the Doctor's early lover days. The present finds him soberly thoughtful on the virtues of the faithful helpmeet. And so he says:

Ofttimes, as I have laid swinging on the water in the swell of the Chelsea ferryboats, in that long, sharp-pointed, black cradle in which I love to let the great mother rock me, I have seen a tall ship glide by against the tide, as if drawn by some invisible towline, with a hundred strong arms pulling it.

Her sails hung unfilled, her streamers were drooping. She had neither sidewheel nor sternwheel; still she moved on, stately, in serene triumph, as if with her own life.

But I knew that on the other side of the ship, hidden beneath the great hulk that swam so majestically, there was a little toiling steam tug with heart of fire and arms of iron, that was hugging it close and dragging it bravely on, and I knew that if the little steam tug untwined her arms and left the tall ship it would wallow and roll about and drift hither and thither, and go off with the refluent tide, no man knows whither.

And so I have known more than one genius, high-decked, full-freighted, wide-sailed, gaypennoned, that, but for the bare toiling arms and brave, warm, beating heart of the faithful little wife that nestled in his shadow and clung to him, so that no wind or wave could part them, and dragged him on against all the tide of circumstance, would soon have gone down the stream and been heard of no more.

Rare old Doctor Holmes! All men should arise and call thee blessed, for this valiant tribute to that overworked and unappreciated gentler sex which robs life of desolation and bathes in perpetual sunshine the weary heart of the toiling world.

A long head had Benjamin Franklin. In 1791 he left $5 000 to the city of Boston. He directed that the money should be invested, and that at the end of 100 years the principal and interest to the extent of $500 000 should be expended for public improvements and the balance be placed at interest for another 100 years, and then be divided between the city of Boston and the State of Massachusetts. Dr Franklin figured that at the end of the first hundred years the amount available would be $655 000 and at the end of the second hundred there would be $23 000 000 on hand. The fund has been well handled, but at the present time amounts to only $425 000. It has been decided that the provisions of the will shall be conformed to as nearly as possible, and about $325 000 of the above mentioned sum will be expended as soon as the trustees can agree as to the uses it shall be put to. The balance will continue to draw interest, and no one who reads this paragraph will ever know whether it eventually amounts to twenty three millions or not. It is certain, however, that if it is not invested in boom enterprises, or in any of the other ways not approved by Boston conservatism, it will amount to a very large sum, and if Boston is in existence in 1991 or thereabouts, the money will come in very handy. The mite of the poor printer boy who over a century ago tramped through Jersey in search of a job has become a thing not to be despised.

HALLOW E'EN IN THE PARK.

Short Pants, Short Dresses and Great Times in Roome's Old Barn.

Ye Lythefome maide; ye callowe youth,
Nowe tread ye Merrie meafure;
Forgotten quite be alle, in footh,
But playfulneff and pleafure.
All Hallow'f.E'en muche talke averff
That otherwife were prated,
Concerninge pantf and daintye fkirtf,
Fo muche abbreviated!

—Medieval Roundelay.

If the various saints whom we have honored today could have made it convenient to drop in at the old barn on the Roome property, over back of the Park Club, last night, it is altogether likely that they, with the possible exception of St. Anthony, would have been surprised. A happy party of unconventional young people had possession of the barn and spent the evening in knocking all the accepted traditions of Hallow E'en into infinitesimal fragments. In the first place—now do n't faint—the boys all appeared in knickerbockers, and most of these, being either borrowed or else relics of a remote childhood, fitted very close indeed, and many a downward glance told eloquently of the wearer's anxiety. And then secondly—you may faint this time—the girls came out in short skirts, real short, and, of course, indescribable, and wore their hair down just as they did in the good old days of juvenility when they ran around and climbed trees and jumped fences and made mud pies. A 16 candle-power band played "Two Little Girls in Blue" and the young people and the knickerbockers and the skirtlets and the flowing tresses danced all the dances they knew and some they did not know. Then there were some chaperone (in long dresses) who, disposed at convenient intervals about the barn, watched the merry-makers, tried to keep warm, and wondered what time it was. Everybody said they enjoyed it ever so much, though, and all went home at a late hour, laid away the abbreviated garments and hoped that they had n't caught their death of cold. Those present were: (In short trousers) Carl Brown, Howard Turrill, Philip Jacques, Edward Bushmore, Charles Faber, William Faber, Henry Wells, Frank Thompson, Charles Cook and Samuel Case; (in short dresses) the Misses Grace Brown, Kate Miller, Blanche Miller, May Goodwin, Hallie Vandeventer, Grace Barlow, Alice Barlow, Marion Henderson, Cornelia Faber, Edith Clapp, May Shreve, Emma Haviland, Gertrude Haviland, Alice Thompson, Daisy Elsberg and Etta Rodman. The chaperones (in long dresses) were Mrs. Vandeventer, Mrs. Reed, Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Henderson.

HALLOW E'EN SURPRISE.

Young People Have a Jolly Time at the Welgman Home.

A genuine surprise was given Miss Lillie Welgman, last evening, at her home on East Front street, when a large number of her young friends took possession of the house at 9, all bent on having a good time.

The committee having the affair in hand, Miss Lena Weber and Miss Katie Sutterlein, had done everything in their power to make it a complete surprise, and they succeeded admirably.

Music for dancing was furnished by the veteran musician Sam Frazee, and that, together with games, singing, etc., helped to pass the evening very pleasantly.

At midnight a sumptuous collation was served, and dancing was then the feature until daylight had almost made its appearance, when the guests started for home all declaring that they could not have had a better time.

Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Kurtzhals of Westfield, Mr. and Mrs. Snider, Mrs. Badin, Mrs. Wm. Bieter, Mrs. Charles Smith, Mr. and Mrs. George Feller, Mrs. M. Weber, Mrs. Chas. Glaentzer, Mrs. Fred Stine, the Misses Mamie Walsh, Annie Angerbauer, Dora Thorn, Annie Fiering, Laura Badin, Matilda Moraller, Carrie Bieter, Dora Ottinger, Minnie Bechtel, Minnie Scheidecker, Lizzie Scheidecker, Annie Feller, Minnie Lang, Lizzie Mehl, Carrie Mehl, Lizzie Scheline, Mamie Mehl, Messrs. Albert Allen, John Hewitt, Willett Swick, John Swick, Adam Angerbauer, George Scheline, F. Scheline, and many others.

Chrysanthemums Dance.

The Chrysanthemum Circle held their first reception last evening, at the home of their president, Miss May Flanagan, West Fifth street. The young ladies forming this circle demonstrated their ability to entertain their friends in royal style, and those present all agreed that it was a delightful affair. Those present were the Misses Mamie, Maggie and Nora Casey, Sarah and Kate Carney, Kate Mack, Tessie and Alice Keeley, Julia Fields, Mary Galbraith, Fanny Rafferty, May and Marguerite Flanagan, Kate Daly, Mary Giese, F. Monahan, Mary, Louise and Annie Madden, Maggie Flynn, and M. A. Loftus; and the Messrs. Chas. Wardle, Michael Winn, John S. Traynor, John Gallagher, Michael Mack, Michael Whalen, John Keely, John F. and Thomas P. Daley, Charles Daley, John Powers, Michael Flynn, William Kiely, James Casey, Caspar Waclow, M. J. Cashen, John Hibbitts, James Flynn.

Refreshments were served in abundance.

A Darling Party.

A charming Hallow E'en party was given by Miss Mabel Darling, at her home, 943 Prospect avenue, last evening.

The time was pleasantly passed in dancing and playing games.

Those present were the Misses Welch, May Moffatt, May Crosby, of Westfield; Cora and Ella Gardner, Henrietta Cuming, Bertha Wheeler, Lily Livezy, Carrie Williams, Adelaide Runyon, Messrs. Fitz. Sterling, Wm. Taylor, M. Townley, of Westfield; Frank Duke, of New York; Messrs. George Rockfellow, George Fuller, Louis Olitt, Harry Runyon, Joe Fuller.

Refreshments were furnished during the evening.

—Benjamin Sutton is arranging for a concert to be given soon for the benefit of Muhlenberg Hospital.

THE REINHART DANCE.

Hallow E'en Passes Merrily, in an Atmosphere of Autumn Gold.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Reinhart, of Netherwood, gave a Hallow E'en dance for their daughter Miss Kathrine Reinhart last night. The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion, the prevailing color being yellow. The guest were chiefly from the younger set as Miss Katherine Reinhart is not yet out.

The dancing continued until after midnight when the spirits of Hallow E'en disappeared for another year.

Among those present were: The Misses Reinhart, daughters of C. S. Reinhart, the artist, of New York, Miss Carrie Vail, Miss Edith VanBoskerck, Miss Florence Waring, Miss Lulu Holly, Miss Mary Whiton, Miss Gertrude Andrews, Miss Nancy Lawson, Miss Ethel Finch and Miss Marion P. Bowen, Messrs. Fred. Walz, William Runyon, Gerald Lowe, Edward VanBuren, Lawrence VanBuren, Harry Bushnell, Sherwood West, Arthur West, George Schoonmaker, James Middledith, Harry Talmadge, Wesley Abbott, Edward Finch and Howard Corlies.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Like every other Plainfield marksman, Judge Coddington has gone gunning.

Miss Palmer, of Richmond, Va., is visiting Mrs. J. W. Reinhart, of Netherwood.

Frank E. Stover, of East Ninth street, is out after a siege of ten days with the quinsy.

Miss Genevieve Daniel, of Plainfield avenue, gave a small Hallow E'en party last night.

The many friends of the Misses Demler of Washingtonville, observed Hallow E'en at their home last evening.

Mrs. C. D Taylor, of Dunellen, has been summoned to the bedside of her father, who is very low in Paterson.

Mrs. Nicholas Kelly, of West Fourth street, Sunday evening presented her husband with a bouncing baby girl.

T. Calloway, a member of the New York Stock Exchange, and wife, are the guests of J. B. Drayton, Franklin place.

Mrs. Anna A. Wyckoff of 612 New street has returned from a pleasant visit with relatives and friends in New York city.

One of the many enjoyable Hallow E'en parties given last evening was at the home of the Misses Winckler 32 Park place.

The Misses Holmes, of 104 Grandview avenue, were among those who entertained their friends with Hallow E'en frolics last evening.

The latest style of carriage is admired on the Plainfield streets. It is the property of Edward S. Hooley, and arrived from New York Monday.

A number of friends gathered at the home of Miss May McLaughlin, Somerset street, last evening, and participated in the festivities of Hallow E'en.

Miss Dena Shann, daughter of S. C. Shann, formerly of North Plainfield and now of Newark, has been visiting friends on Grandview avenue as the guest of H. M. Clark.

The associate clerks of Charles DeGraw, at Edsall's, heartily congratulated him yesterday, on the occasion of the anniversary of his birth, in a way he will long remember.

J. Wm. Kline, of Sycamore street, has received the sad news of the death of his sister, Mrs. Louis Aikle, which occurred at 9:30 yesterday morning at her home, East Fifth street, New York city.

By invitation of W. S. Timmis, a number of friends enjoyed a Hallow E'en party, at his home, 74 Watchung avenue, last evening. Several vocal and instrumental solos were rendered, and dancing was enjoyed.

A Hallow E'en party arranged by the Misses Carpenter and Miss Beeker, was held at the residence of J. W. B. Lewis, 1261 East Front street. Dancing and games occupied the attention of those present, who afterwards enjoyed a bountiful supper. The ladies were dressed in colonial style.

William C. Smith and wife, of Grandview avenue, North Plainfield, arrived home Tuesday evening from a three-weeks trip to Topeka, Kan., stopping off at Chicago to witness the Columbian Exhibition. They were accompanied east by the family of John DuBois, who have come here to live. Mr. Smith reports times very hard in the west, and says that in Topeka, a city of 33 000 inhabitants, he noticed only one new building of any magnitude going up.

Fire Over the Brook.

A small fire occurred in Frank Bowley's drug store on Somerset street last night about 9. A hanging lamp back of the prescription counter fell and the burning kerosene charred the floor beneath the lamp, but beyond that it did no damage. The fire was put out before the arrival of Warren engine, which responded quickly to the alarm.

Released Till the Judge Comes Back.

For a long time the boys who hang about the entrance of Music Hall show nights have made a nuisance of themselves by begging passes of patrons and by playing tag in a very boisterous manner. Last night the police arrested two of the offenders, but dismissed them until the Judge comes back.

Pulled Molasses Taffy.

Miss Ethel and Miss Bessie Bower gave a Hallow E'en candy pull last night at their home on Watchung avenue. About fifteen of their young friends pulled the sticky molasses, and all enjoyed it hugely.

The American Catarrh Cure

Is the result of twenty-six years' study and treatment of the disease. One bottle convinces the most skeptical. It is always ready for use, needing neither douche nor atomizer. COMIC OPERA AT CRANFORD.

The Alcwas Society Successfully Opens Its Second Season with "Iolanthe".

The Alcwas Society, a company of clever actors and sweet singers who delighted Westfield and Elizabeth last winter by their admirable performances of "Patience", "The Mikado", and "Pirates of Penzance", began their second season last evening at the Cranford Opera House where Gilbert & Sullivan's charming "Iolanthe" was capitally presented with the following cast, before a crowded house:

The Lord Chancellor	William Holmes
The Earl of Mt. Ararat	R. P. Moore
The Earl of Tolloller	Ogden W. Ring
Strephon	Jas. F. Fisher
Private Willis	H. M. Jackson
Train-bearer	George Taggart
Queen of the Fairies	Jessie Robertson
Iolanthe	Clara Rowlee Keppel
Celia	Sadie J. Brown
Leila	Susie Wagner
Fleta	Tutie Jackson
Phyllis	Hattie Diamant

Chorus of Dukes, Marquises, Earls, Viscounts, Barons and Fairies.

"Iolanthe" is perhaps the daintiest effort of its authors, by no means an easy opera to perform satisfactorily, and the fact that everything on the stage went as smoothly and gracefully as any professional troupe might hope to make it go, reflects the greatest glory upon the players and their manager. The costuming was superb, the mounting of the highest order, and the enthusiastic applause of the large and fashionable audience must have been very grateful to all concerned.

Plainfield was represented by William Holmes as the Lord Chancellor and George Taggart as his train-bearer. Mr. Holmes sang and acted in his usual finished style and made a decided hit albeit the role of the Lord Chancellor did not give him the opportunity his talents merit, and a blunder of the orchestra effectually spoiled his first entrance. George Taggart played the train-bearer at short notice and, with a very wonderful make-up, danced and strutted the small part into dignified prominence.

Mr. Fisher as "Strephon" and Mr. Ring as "Tolloller" displayed pleasant tenor voices and acted thoroughly well. Mr. Moore, familiar as a church singer hereabouts, did ample justice to Mount Ararat. Of the ladies the chief credit belongs to the sweet "Iolanthe" of Miss Keppel and the dainty "Phyllis" of Miss Diament, both petite, true, intelligent singers and charming actresses. The minor parts were perfectly played and the chorus thoroughly trained, the Fairies especially singing most tunefully and exhibiting an array of pretty faces and graceful presences that were very fetching.

Charles Day conducted the music, and H. M. Jackson, the manager and inspirer of it all, deserves the heartiest praise for the great success of his efforts.

It is understood that the Society will revive "The Mikado" at an early date and then turn their attention to something new for springtime.

OPENING BALL.

St. Mary's T. A. B. Society Have a Pleasant Time at Their Hallow E'en Dance.

St. Mary's T. A. B. Society gave their grand opening ball last evening, at their hall, corner of Fourth and Liberty streets, and it proved to be a success both socially and financially.

About 100 couple were present and tripped the light fantastic until the "wee sma' hours" to the strains of O'Reilly's orchestra.

Many people were present from Elizabeth, Newark, Bound Brook, Somerville and other places.

The committee having the initial dance in charge was composed of P Mack, chairman; C. Guinee, secretary; P. Reville, treasurer; and W. Shannon, D O'Keefe, J. Kiely P. Lawlor and P. Nugent, and they deserve great credit for the good order that was maintained during the evening and for their efforts in seeing that all had a good time.

Tribute to the Late Hon. Nathan Harper,

By the Board of Governors, Muhlenberg Hospital.

The Board of Governors of Muhlenberg Hospital desire to record this minute, on the occasion of the death of Hon. Nathan Harper. This Hospital was one of the many works of benevolence of our city, to which he was ready and glad to give aid and encouragement.

He was for several years, in the early part of its history, a member of this Board, cheerfully giving his time and counsel to the furtherance of its work. The clearness of his perception and the calmness of his judgment, were found to be of great value in our deliberations, while his well-known character in this community, as an honest and wise man, was of great assistance in laying the foundation upon which this institution is built, and on which it has met with so much success, and been the instrument of such great usefulness to very many of our needy and suffering fellow men. WM. R. COCK, Secretary.

Flannery's Onion.

That onion now on exhibition at Uncle John Flannery's, Scotch Plains, and grown in the garden of John Archbold on the mountain, is not exactly out of sight, nor is it out of smell. Its measurement is 16 inches, and its weight 1¾ pounds. Charley French offered $24 for it and wanted to use it for seed, but Uncle John said "Oh, no: we will save that for election night, and then slice it, no matter who is elected, for there will be a deuce of a smell in any event".

Pink Tea for the Building Fund.

The Rev. J. W. Mitchell, pastor of the Emmanuel Baptist church, is desirous of having his new house of worship on Richmond street, enclosed before winter sets in. In this event, Mr. Mitchell says, he feels confident of completing the building without outside assistance. At present he is a little financially crippled, and in order to see his way clear will give a pink tea and supper in the basement of Reform Hall, Thursday evening.

DRUGGED AND ROBBED.

MARKETMAN TOTTEN'S EXPERIENCE IN NEW YORK.

He Took a Drink in Greenwich Street, to Brace Him up Against Tooth Extraction, and Knew Nothing of Events Till He Found Himself Destitute and Sore Wandering the Streets Bewildered.

Richard Totten, of East Front street, went to New York last Monday, to buy produce for his store.

He started in the forenoon, reaching the city about noon.

One of his errands was to have a dentist extract a tooth, which had been giving him much pain, and thinking he could transact his business better after this was done he began to hunt for a dentist.

Being a little nervous about the matter, he stopped in a place on Greenwich street, where wet goods are dispensed, and purchased a little stimulant to brace up on.

That—said Mr. Totten—is the last he remembers, until midnight, when he found himself wandering around City Hall Park.

His overcoat, watch, money, railroad ticket, and everything of value, were missing.

It was for some time difficult for him to recall any previous actions, and then everything seemed hazy. That he had been used rather roughly was evident, for there were bruises on his face and body.

He finally went to a firm in Washington Market, where he buys goods, and secured enough money to reach home.

His mother and sisters were much worried about him, on account of his not coming home on time, and the story of his escapade caused much excitement in the family.

He is sure he was drugged and robbed in the Greenwich street saloon.

HYMENEAL.

Williams—Force.

The richness of Autumn's floral treasures added to the beauty of a charming home wedding, in the Mansion House, Bound Brook, yesterday, when Miss Minnie L., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Force, was married to Will F. Williams of this city.

The ceremony took place in the large double parlors, in front of a bank of chrysanthemums. The windows were draped with ropes of chrysanthemums and ivy, making a very pretty effect.

The bride was radiantly beautiful in a gown of old-rose and green changeable silk, which was a striking contrast to the conventional black worn by the groom. On her departure with her husband for their wedding trip, this was exchanged for a traveling dress of blue cloth.

The entry of the wedding party into the parlors were to the joyous music of the march from Lohengrin, sounded from the piano strings by the bride's sister, Miss Mabel Force. At just 4:10 the Rev. Cornelius Schenck united the twain. The responses of the bride and groom were remarkably clear and distinct. The ring was placed by the groom on the bride's finger, and hearty congratulations were bestowed by all. A jubilant march was played by Miss Mabel Force as a signal for the feast. The fifty or more relatives passed into the huge dining room and were seated at four large tables. Each napkin contained a chrysanthemum boutonniere. The scene was an enlivening and happy one, and time passed merrily.

The feast was just such an admirable one as should be expected from Mine Host Force's excellent cuisine. Colored waiters served in faultless style.

In the parlors upstairs were the wedding gifts. They filled three large tables, and among them all was not one duplicate.

At 6 the wedded pair boarded a Royal Blue train for Washington, amid the customary showers of rice and sincere good wishes. They will return in one week, and make 19 Craig place their residence.

The bride has a large circle of friends in this city and vicinity, and the groom is the popular and efficient head clerk in Mulford Estil's bookstore.

Police After Poor Coal Thieves.

Police Captain Grant and Sergeant Kiely were called to the railroad track near Plainfield avenue, this morning, to investigate the coal thefts that are taking place there constantly. Many coal trains stop at this spot and the residents about there find it easier to take the coal without paying for it than it would be to purchase it at $5 a ton. They knock the coal from the tops of the cars to the ground and when the train moves away they come with baskets and pick up enough fuel to keep them supplied through the winter. Tons of coal have been stolen from the company in this way. The captain secured the names of many of the offenders and they will be brought into court—when the Judge comes back.

Dunellen Doings.

Miss S. Schlief is visiting among friends on Staten Island.

John P. Apgar is erecting a new building on Front street to accommodate a steam engine and boiler to run his planing and turning mill.

David S. Campbell started a night school recently, but it was patronized by only a few, and those evidently did not care to be enlightened.

The usual offer of a bottle of Mumm's Extra Dry Champagne has been offered by the proprietor of Taylor's Hotel, for the first person reaching the place in a sleigh this coming winter. Last year the prize was won by a Plainfield sport.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

THAT HOSS JOKE.

Mr. Patterson Had No Case, Even If the Complaint Was Intended Seriously.

Councilman Fisk will not be called upon to appear before the City Judge on the charge made against him by City Accountant Patterson. The charge was that Mr. Fisk violated a city ordinance by leading or driving a horse on the sidewalk in front of Mr. Patterson's residence. The whole thing was intended as a practical joke, but when Mr. Patterson informed the Corporation Counsel of the facts of the case Mr. Marsh told him that he had no case. The City had not the power to make it a penal offense to lead or drive a horse across a sidewalk, when the object was merely to reach adjoining private premises. The City never attempted to exercise such a power. He advised Mr. Patterson to stop the proceedings and discontinue the case.

Mr. Patterson at once saw the matter in its true light, and told the officer not to serve the warrant. He also requested the Corporation Counsel to have the case discontinued. He said that there could be no trouble about that, as the City Judge was informed that it was only a practical joke before he issued his warrant.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—Twenty tough tramps are encamped near Westfield.

—The Bricklayers and Masons Union will meet in the Steile building, this evening.

—The first lesson in shorthand will be taught tomorrow evening at 7:30 in the Y. M. C. A. rooms.

—Three bicyclists from Camden arrived in town this morning, and after a short rest proceeded on their way to Newark.

—Edward C. Perkins of this city was appointed receiver yesterday for the firm of Thomas M. Dwyer & Co., importers of liquors at 40 Barclay street, New York city.

—A large tent in the rear of Alfred T. Slauson's residence on East Ninth street, which was kept there for the children to play in, was stolen last night by some mischievous boys.

—A genuine live owl is the latest acquisition to the City Hotel menagerie. Since "Jennie" one of the pet squirrels, died, "Dick", her companion, has been almost frantic with grief.

—Several young lads amused themselves last night by upsetting baskets of oyster shells down the steps leading to VanName's store on Park avenue, to the great annoyance of the proprietor.

—The sociable which was to have been given by the Christian Endeavor society of Warren chapel tomorrow evening has been postponed for one week, on account of the death of one of its members, William Creveling.

—The various officers on the Boards of Registration, yesterday, had hard work to keep from falling asleep. In some of the wards and districts but few names were added to the original lists, and the officers had comparatively little or nothing to do.

—A committee from the International Association of Machinists are busy preparing a programme for the first of a series of musical and literary entertainments that they intend giving during the winter, which will be held in Red Men's Hall, West Front street, Wednesday evening, Nov. 8.

Disagreed.

The case of Maggie Nolan against Frederick Westphal's sons, to decide the question of ownership of some property, was tried before Justice Mosher this morning at 10. The evidence was submitted to the following jury: Frederick Wenser, Oscar Terry, Lorenzo Townley, J. J. Shotwell, Henry Palmer and William Kiely. They were out until noon, and failed to agree on a verdict, 5 standing for the plaintiff and one for the defendant.

George DeMeza was counsel for the plaintiff, and Runyon & Moffett represented the defendants.

Samaritan Simpson.

While Dr. M. S. Simpson was walking along Fourth street last night a little after 7 he came across a poor woman suffering from a fit of epilepsy.

He called two negroes to his assistance and with their help carried her to a neighboring house where she stayed all night.

When she had recovered sufficiently to be able to talk she said her name was Cahill. This morning she was in a dazed state and Dr. Simpson notified Captain Grant of her condition.

Live Birds Election Day.

There will be open sweepstake shooting at live birds, on the grounds of the Climax Gun Club, Tuesday, Nov. 7, beginning at 1 p. m. 250 first-class birds will be furnished, and Manager Chas. Smith gives assurance of a good afternoon's sport. The grounds are only 5 minutes walk from the Fanwood station.

UNSUCCESSFUL HIGHWAYMEN.

One of Three Tramps Stunned, Shot at and Then Arrested.

WESTFIELD, N. J., Nov. 1.—Three tramps stopped a team last night belonging to W. A. Brown, of Wertfield, driven by John Kenny, who had with him two laborers. The tramps threatened to kill the occupants of the wagon if they did not hand over their money.

One of them tried to climb into the wagon, but was stunned by a blow. He managed to get into the yard of James Moffet, whose daughter fired a pistol at him as he was trying to enter the house to hide.

He was captured by Mr. Moffet after a hard fight and was taken on the train to Elizabeth by two constables. He gave his name as James Lynch. His confederates escaped.

With Ely's Cream Balm a child can be treated without pain and with perfect safety. It cures catarrh, hay fever and colds in the head. It is easily applied into the nostrils and gives immediate relief. Price 50 cents.

My catarrh was very bad; for 30 years I have been troubled with it—have tried a number of remedies without relief. A druggist advised Ely's Cream Balm. I have used only one bottle and I can say I feel like a new man. I make this voluntary statement that others may know of the truth.—J. W. Mathewson, lawyer, Pawtucket, R. I.

THE BUSYBODY.

Jim Gillis of Tuolomne, who told Mark Twain the story of "The Jumping Frog," is still living at Jackass Hill, Sonora, 63 years old, but spry.

The Turkish court pianist, Dussap Pacha, receives £600 a year for his services, but he is temporarily suspended every time he plays a tune the sultan does not care to hear.

Fred Dubois, the sinuous and sinewy silver leader from Idaho, used to be a newspaper man in his very young days. He is a member of the National Capital Press club now.

According to foreign papers, Prince Bismarck is allowing his beard to grow, not being able to handle his razor, and in the hope that it will help to prevent the pains in his face.

Ivan Michel, a Russian, who is clerk to the senate committee on foreign affairs, is familiar with 26 languages and has a stock of information almost encyclopedic upon European finances and diplomacy.

Lieutenant Cornelius Ryan has been 32 years on the police force of Hartford. There were 27 men in the department when he joined it on Oct. 3, 1861; and he is the only one of that number now on the force.

Roswell P. Flower is always well dressed, yet his friends say he has never had a suit made to order. He never wore a dress suit till he became governor of New York, and the single dress suit he possesses is ready made.

Francis Parkman, the venerable New England historian, who recently celebrated his seventieth birthday, is still at work, though he has practically lost his eyesight and also suffers from insomnia and rheumatism.

Bishop Potter of New York is one of the most earnest supporters of the Burial Reform association (for securing modest and inexpensive funerals), and he has already directed that his own funeral shall be in accord with its tenets.

Colonel Robert G. Ingersoll expresses the opinion in a preface to the lecture which Philip G. Peabody of Boston delivered before an antivivisection society of London that "the vivisector is of less value to the world than the animal he destroys."

George Gould is far more popular in New York than his father ever was. He is a thorough American and does not conceal his contempt for the Anglomaniacs. He is domestic in his tastes, being devoted to his wife and two children. He has no political ambition.

A cousin of Herbert Spencer lives in San Francisco and pursues the peaceful occupation of selling newspapers and stationery as a clerk in a little store. His name is Mofra Spencer, and, he is 70 years old, but he has not yet read any of his famous cousin's books.

Congressman Everett of Massachusetts has an old bachelor's disregard for the niceties of his wearing apparel. He wears trousers of distinctly high water characteristics, the tops of his congressional gaiters being in evidence as he wanders through the aisles of the house.

THE MONITOR.

The United States bureau of education was established in 1867.

In China a boy begins his schooling at 5 years of age and is at his study nearly 12 hours a day, seven days in a week.

The college of St. Francis Xavier in New York has for the first time opened its doors to women. No degrees, however, will be given them.

The Mohammedans have a great university at Fez, which is attended by 700 students. The Koran furnishes the chief course of study there.

At Lasell Seminary For Young Women, Auburndale, Mass., during the coming year the Rev. Samuel W. Dike will give six lectures on sociology and the home.

New York city has a commission at work to consider the reorganization of its school system. Its chairman is E. Ellery Anderson. One change likely to be taken under advisement is that of having paid instead of unpaid commissioners of education.

College presidents receive salaries ranging from $620 to $10,000, with an average of $3,047; the salaries of the higher class professors run from $5,500 down to $540, with an average of $2,015, and the lower grade of instructors get from $400 to $4,500, the average being $1,470.

THE INVENTOR.

Hairpins are now made by automatic and very complicated machines.

A Spaniard has succeeded in extracting from grasshoppers a fatty substance, which, he claims, can be made into the finest soap extant.

A method of repairing asphalt pavements is by softening the worn spot by a series of hooded burners, agitating the asphalt and mixing with it new material, after which the pavement is smoothed and burnished.

An apparatus for drawing the sinews from the legs of poultry or game, comprising two forked blocks into which the knee and claw are inserted after the leg is broken, the blocks being forced apart by a screw, is new.

A New England firm is introducing an automatic gas lighter for street lamps, which works on the principle of an eight day clock. It is explained that the only attention the lighter requires is a weekly winding of the clock movement, and that it lights the lamp at the required time and extinguishes it at daybreak.

THE BRAKEMAN.

A locomotive requires fuel and labor to the value of $3,000 in the course of a year.

The Big Four will heat all its passenger cars with steam from the locomotive this winter.

Street car conductors in Hannibal, Mo., are forbidden to aid women in getting on or off cars except when requested.

The test of oil burners made by the Pennsylvania on some of its locomotives did not prove satisfactory, and the engines are being reconverted into fuel burners.

A new edition of the railroad map of Pennsylvania has just been issued from the department of internal affairs. The map shows every railroad line and postoffice in the state.

The Wagner Car company has recently introduced gas burning in the buffet stoves in the sleeping cars and finds it a grand success. It removes the very offensive odor of oil, which was formerly used.

The reader of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer $100 for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address

VIEWS ON THE REPEAL

An English Bimetallist Who Sees Trouble Ahead.

Predicts Hard Times in All Parts of the Globe—The Action of the Senate Causes Little Attention Abroad. Opinion of the German Minister of Finance—No Effect in Paris.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—Moreton Frewen, the English bimetallist, who is at present the guest of Alan Johnstone, second secretary of the British legation, was asked to-day for an expression of opinion concerning the effect upon business which will follow the repeal of the Sherman silver purchase act. He said:

An English Bimetallist's Views.

"We must watch the result; a very few days now will decide, if the price of silver bullion falls, as I expect will be the case, that drags down the exchange rates with the far east, which are already at the snapping point, and we shall have a panic in London before the new year; a panic you will feel in every corner of this continent."

"Then you don't favor the view that the repeal of the act will bring buying orders from London to Wall street?"

Export Trade Already Paralyzed.

"No sir; London will be a seller for a long time time to come. We are in great trouble in Australia and in India. Our export trade with China, Singapore and South America are already paralyzed by the fall in the rates of silver. London has been praying that you will stop you silver purchases, thinking that then your stock market will recover, so that she may send you home your securities realized at higher prices. We are in no position to buy; the great English manufacturing fortunes have suffered terribly."

"What is your view of our currency needs; how can we secure an expansion of our currency; would an increase of the gold in the treasury enable us to increase safely our silver or paper issues?"

Would Ruin Prices.

"Not at all. That point was very scientifically dealt with by Senator Jones. If, for example, you borrowed $500,000,000 of gold in Europe and brought it to the treasury and issued more paper or more silver, looking to the gold to secure the convertibility of your silver or paper, what would occur? The increased volume of your currency would merely raise prices here; your imports from Europe, attracted by those higher prices, would swell in volume, the balance of trade would turn against you, and the gold would go abroad once more.

"When we in England have financial troubles, times are bad and prices there are depressed, so that your exports to England fall off and your imports remaining the same, gold leaves you. To borrow gold in England and to bring it here inevitably turns the balance of trade against this country. It would turn it in the face even of a great harvest, so that the gold begins to flow back again to the nearest ship."

COMMENTS ON REPEAL.

How the Action of the Senate is Regarded Abroad.

BERLIN, Nov. 1.—The United Press representative called last evening upon Dr. Miquel, the Prussian finance minister, and asked him what he thought of the repeal of the silver purchase act.

"Tell your countrymen," he replied, "that, in my opinion, from the American standpoint, the repeal of the silver purchase act was an absolute necessity. No matter whether one is bimetallist or monometallist, everybody ought to see that it is perfectly impossible for the United States to have a financial balance and continue the purchase of silver in the face of a continual fall in the price of the metal. The repeal of the purchase act will facilitate the regulation of an international currency, if such a currency becomes practically possible. The best thing for a definite settlement of the silver question will be the nationalization of silver mines and the nationalization of silver production."

French Bourse Not Affected.

PARIS, Nov. 1.—The repeal of the Sherman act was discounted here and had no appreciable effect on the Bourse. Scarcely an American stock it held here. La Liberte predicts a universal demonetization of silver and says that the repeal of the Sherman act, accentuating the depreciation of silver, makes more urgent France's withdrawal from the Latin union.

The South Pleased.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—Special dispatches from several southern states says that bankers and business men generally received the news of the repeal of the Sherman act with a feeling of relief. They all express the belief that the action of congress will result in an improvement in business.

No Effect in Vienna.

VIENNA, Nov. 1.—The Vienna bourse was not effected by the news of the repeal of the American silver purchase act, the belief prevailing that the consequent drain of gold to America will not be serious.

Regarded With Indifference in Rome.

ROME, Nov. 1.—The repeal of the American silver purchase act is regarded with indifference on the bourse here, and it will exercise little influence on the financial situation in Italy.

Large Record of Vaccinations.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—The largest number of vaccinations known in the history of the health department was made last week. The total number of people inoculated was 14,233. Of these 13,111 had been vaccinated at least once. The remaining 1,122 had never been treated with virus.

Miss Garland's Funeral.

Another Letter to Women.
May 25, '92, Syracuse, N. Y.
"Dear Madam:
"I want to tell you what your Vegetable Compound and Sanative Wash have done for me.
"I was so bad with falling of the womb and Leucorrhœa that I could not stand.
"I had doctored so much without benefit I was entirely discouraged. I expected to die.
"One evening I read in the 'Herald' about your medicine. I got some, and took 2 bottles of the Compound, and used one of the Sanative Wash.
"I am now well and strong, am never troubled with either of the complaints. If more women would use your Compound, there would be less suffering in the world."—Mrs. Ida Casler, 126 Olive St.

There's nothing SO GOOD AS Cottolene

The new vegetable shortening. Wherever introduced, it drives lard from the kitchen, and indigestion from the household. It has been tried by every test, and has met every requirement. It is as much superior to lard as the electric light is to the tallow dip. The only question now is, will you give your family the benefits which its use bestows?

There's nothing LIKE Cottolene

In composition, in healthfulness, in flavor, or in economy. Its success has called out a lot of imitations and counterfeits made for the sole purpose of selling in the place and on the merits of Cottolene! Avoid them all. They are made to sell and they are a sell. Get the genuine COTTOLENE.

RIOTING AT THE FAIR

Exciting Scene Outside the Ferris Wheel Gates.

The Company Resists the Order to Close and Fair Guards, Visitors, Police and the Wheel Employes Get Into a Protracted Fight.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—Resistance to the Midway closing order by the Ferris wheel company led to exciting scenes, free fighting, a small riot and numerous arrests outside the wheel gates last evening.

The trouble began when World's fair guards tried to stop the sale of tickets to visitors.

Visitors Broke the Lines.

A crowd of people who wanted to ride in the wheel, many of them having paid 50 cents at the exposition gates for that purpose only, gathered in front of the guards and broke through the lines at weak points.

As soon as they set foot on the platforms they were safe because that was the company's property.

Fights were set in by employes of the company wherever there was room to squeeze through, the favorite place being the office door of Superintendent Rice.

Invited a Riot.

This entrance finally was barred by guards who invited a riot by attempting to clear the people from the west side of the wheel.

Col. W. Rollins was the first wheel employe to be arrested. A visitor got on the platform and bought a ticket from Rollins who was the nearest off to the guard house, but was soon released.

Visitors Pulled and Hauled.

In another hour an immense number of people had gathered and the guards as well as the exhibition company were roundly abused. Men and women made a rush for the platform at intervals and the guards tried to pull them back, while the Ferris men, to the number of 50, pulled the patrons under the turnstiles into the enclosure, where the admission fee was collected.

Several visitors were arrested.

The fight of the day, which developed into a riotous demonstration, occurred in front of the superintendent's office. Guards without any orders were standing on the platform and defied the special Ferris policemen to put them off. Chief Engineer Charles Kreider pushed one of the guards off the platform and was pulled into the midst of guards and visitors.

The Riot Begins.

The fight began when the guards seized Kreider to drag him to the guardhouse. J. H. Hunter, the company's electrician, pulled off his coat and jumped into the thickest of the melee, hitting out right and left at the guards. He tried to get Kreider away from his captors and the crowd helped him, but there was no organized plan of attack. Guards drew billies, slung shots and swords and forced the would-be rescuers back.

Krieder was hit over the head with a billy and Hunter received a cut in the face. Fist blows were freely exchanged but Krieder was led away a prisoner. He returned a free man soon, however.

Word of the trouble was sent to the nearest police station and a squad of officers in uniform and civilian dress came on the scene. B. B. Strong, a guard, attempted to keep one of the city detectives off the platform, but he regretted it.

Drew His Revolver.

The officer pulled his revolver and threatened to shoot if the guard did not keep his hands off. Then the police officers pounced upon the guard and bore him off to the station amid the cheers and jibes of thousands. So it continued with more or less exciting episodes until the wheel closed for the night.

Ferris' Statement.

President Ferris, who arrived at the wheel late, said: "We have a contract with the exposition company, giving us exclusive control of the grounds 60 days after Nov. 30 next. We can keep on carrying passengers or tear down the plant as we please.

"I don't know what animus is behind this shameful outrage on our rights and the rights of visitors except that we have refused to pay $75,000 to the exposition, because of a claim for damages we have against them. You can say positively that the Ferris wheel will continue to turn until Nov. 20 from 8 a. m. to 10 p. m., guards or no guards, and even if the exposition company closes the gates of the park."

Why the Victoria Was Lost.

LONDON, Nov. 2.—The minutes of the admiralty in the Victoria-Camperdown court martial confirm the findings of the court. Capt. Charles Johnstone, of the Camperdown, is criticized somewhat severely. The report says that the Victoria capsized owing to her watertight doors not being closed. Otherwise she would have remained afloat until reached port under her own steam.

More Green Goods Circulars.

BOSTON, Nov. 2.—Police Commissioners Whiting, Lee and Clarke has received green goods circulars, in which they were instructed to send telegrams, no letters, to James Barlow, Easton, Pa. The commissioners turned the circulars over to the superintendent of police.

SEVEN WERE DROWNED.

A Portland Car Plunges Through an Open Draw Into the River.

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 2.—Portland's second street railway catastrophe within a year occurred yesterday morning when an electric car from Milwaukee, an east side suburb, to this place, plunged through the open draw of the Madison street bridge and sank in the Willamette river.

There were 18 or 20 passengers aboard when the car started to cross the bridge and all but seven of them saved their lives by leaping from the car on the brink of death. Five corpses have been recovered from the river and a man and boy are missing.

The dead are:

Charles Beckman, bookkeeper, of Sellwood.

John P. Adderson, cabinet maker, of Milwaukee.

Joseph Startler, laborer, of Oak Grove.

Alexander Campbell, saloon keeper, of Milwaukee.

Theodore Bennick, cabinet maker, of Milwaukee.

Paul Ober.

Charles S. Albee, aged 14.

A dense fog prevailed at the time of the accident and the motorman claims that although the brakes worked all right, the wheels slid on account of frost on the track.

NOT ON BAD TERMS.

Ambassador Bayard Denies a Report Concerning Mr. White's Retirement.

LONDON, Nov. 2.—Thomas F. Bayard, United States ambassador, was interviewed last evening as to the reports mentioned in the Chronicle that he and Henry White were on bad terms.

Mr. Bayard denied that his relations with Mr. White had become so strained that Mr. White's retirement was considered necessary.

He justified Mr. Roosevelt's appointment as a natural one. He said Mr. Roosevelt was a conspicuous man of diplomatic experience, and always had been identified with the democratic party.

Mr. Roosevelt denied positively that he gave $10,000 to the Cleveland campaign fund in 1892. He described the story to that effect as "perfect nonsense."

WEEKS LEAVES NEW ORLEANS.

Detectives Hurrying the Absconding Lawyer Back to New York.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 2.—Weeks, his wife and detectives Reilly and Vongerichten left this city at 7:50 last night over the Louisville & Nashville road.

Weeks and his wife occupied a parlor car, and the detectives took turns in guarding him.

He remained in his room all day, and no one, not even the local chief of police, was allowed to see him. No newspaper man has seen him since the United Press representative spoke to him on his arrival and secured the statement from him that he intended to throw himself upon the mercy of the court and plead guilty.

SHELLED COAST VILLAGES.

Spaniards Keep Up the Cannonading at Melilla.

MADRID, Nov. 2.—Several meagre dispatches from Melilla were received last night. The Spanish cruiser Alfonso the Twelfth shelled the coast villages from Melilla to the Chafarinas islands yesterday. The commander then ceased firing in response to the tribesmen's request for a parley.

The cruisers Conde de Venadito and Isla de Luzon have been shelling the Riffian trenches in the neighborhood of Melilla all day. A heavy cannonade has been heard at Melilla from the direction of Frachana, but nothing is known of the action there.

REPEAL IS NOW A LAW

The Act Signed By the President the Moment it Reached Him.

Final Struggle With Silver in the House—Futile Efforts of a Few to Cause Further Delay—Bland Stuck to His Old Hobby—The Vote as Corrected Was, Yeas, 193; Nays, 94.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—There is a feeling of relief both among the friends and opponents of the silver repeal bill now that the measure has been disposed of.

No Delay By the President.

The president signed the repeal bill at exactly one hour and thirty-five minutes after its passage. It was brought to the white house by Representative Albert J. Pearson, of Ohio, chairman of the house committee on enrolled bills, who had made the trip from the capitol on a cable car.

Mr. Pearson reached the white house about 4:35 p. m. and was immediately admitted into the president's office while the president was examining the figures of the revised vote on the final passage of the measure.

Secretary Carlisle and Attorney General Olney were present when the president attached his signature.

Carlisle Saw the Final Act.

Mr. Carlisle had come over to the white house to see the final act in the repeal legislation while Mr. Olney had dropped in to consult the president on a matter affecting his department.

When Mr. Pearson presented the enrolled copy of the bill to the president, explaining what it was, Mr. Cleveland immediately took up his pen and wrote these words in the lower left hand corner:

"Approved November 1, 1893. Grover Cleveland."

And the bill became a law.

To-day the act will be entered upon the official record at the white house and the engrossed copy of the measure will be sent to the state department for permanent keeping.

END OF THE FIGHT.

Closing Scenes of the Silver Struggle in the House.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—The final legislative touches were put upon the silver purchase repeal bill in the house yesterday. It was taken up soon after the reading of the journal and was, after a series of abortive attempts at obstruction and after a half hour's discussion—the time being parcelled out to some half dozen speaker—asteered to a final vote by Mr. Wilson (dem., W. Va.) who had charge of it.

A motion by Mr. Bland (dem., Mo.) to refer it to the committee on coinage, with instructions to report back the amendment which he had indicated (reviving the free coinage act of 1837) was voted down—yeas 109, nays 176, and then the senate substitute was concurred in—yeas 193, nays 94.

Mr. Allen's Humorous Remarks.

The close of the long contest was enlivened by a short speech from Mr. Allen (dem., Miss.). He rose at the top of the main aisle and said that he desired to make a few personal remarks. Having thus obtained attention he proceeded, in his droll, humorous, ironical way, to thank his followers in the house for having enabled him to accomplish what he had desired (laughter). He thanked them for the support they had given him in the vote just taken. The president had thanked them and Gen. Tracey had thanked them, and now he desired to thank them (laughter). He and his followers had made a manly fight and had gone down, and now they should make the best of it (laughter).

The conference report on the bill suspending the operation of the law requiring a certain annual expenditure on mining claims was laid before the house and, after discussion, it was agreed to—yeas 199, nays 3.

Mr. Cooper (dem., Ind.) introduced a bill to make greenbacks and treasury notes liable to state and local taxation, and it was referred to the committee on banking and currency.

The house then adjourned until to-day at noon.

Corrected Vote.

The yea and nay vote on the motion to concur in the senate amendments, substantially on the passage of the bill, was announced by the speaker as yeas 191, nays 94. The count by official reporters made the vote 192 yeas, to 94 nays. Afterwards, Mr. Somers, by unanimous consent, was permitted to have his vote recorded, which made the totals, yeas 193, nays 94.

To Wed a Chinaman.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Nov. 2.—A sensation has been caused here by the marriage engagement of Miss May, daughter of Mrs. Florence I. W. Burnham, to Yung Kwai, a young member of the Chinese legation in New York.

Dr. Karl Akin Kills Himself.

VIENNA, Nov. 2.—Dr. Karl Akin, an Hungarian savant, well known in the United States, killed himself yesterday in Fiume. He was without money or food and had no friends in the city to help him.

CHICAGO'S FINAL TRIBUTE.

She Lays to Rest the Remains of Her Late Mayor With Befitting Honors.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—The funeral of Carter Harrison was a memorable event in the history of Chicago. In the presence of a multitude, and amid evidences innumerable of poignant grief, the casket containing the body of the murdered mayor was borne to its final resting place yesterday afternoon.

There were probably five thousand people still waiting admission to view the remains in the city hall when the arrangements necessitated that the doors should be closed. Preparations for the removal of the body were then commenced. The casket was lifted from the bier, and the lid closed. On top were placed the Maltese cross with the inscription "Father," and the pillow of lillies with the name of "Papa" which were the tributes of the daughters and sons of the murdered man. In the meantime the various societies and organizations whose representation in the parade had been accepted were forming on the lake front and the street adjacent thereto. At 9:30 o'clock the doors of the building were again opened, and with heads uncovered and reverently bowed the guard of honor passed down the steps. Behind them, borne by eight sturdy members of the police and fire departments came the casket. The heads of the thousands of spectators were bared as the casket was borne down the sidewalk and placed upon the funeral car.

A Monster Cortege.

The procession included substantially everything, official and civic, in Chicago, and was imposing in the extreme. Fifty thousand mourners preceded or followed the casket, and a million of people looked on with bowed heads from sidewalk, windows and house tops along the route of over six miles.

It was nearly noon when the second division of the procession reached the church of the Epiphany, almost under the shadow of the dead mayor's home. The members of the family, Miss Howard, the late mayor's finances, and her brothers, and a few intimate friends had been driven to the edifice in advance of the arrival of the procession, and shown to seats in pews immediately facing the altar. To the rest of the edifice were admitted the immediate neighbors of the deceased, the honorary pallbearers, the governor and staff, the members of the city council and the dead mayor's cabinet. As the edifice seats less than eight hundred, however, there was not room for a sixtieth part of those who tried to gain admission.

The Sermon Brief.

The sermon was brief, but eloquent. It paid tribute to the life and public services of the dead man, who had been a member of the congregation for many years, and deplored his assassination. When the preacher concluded the choir sang the anthem "Who Are These That Are Arrayed in White Robes." The rest of the service, save the "committal," was then proceeded with. At the conclusion "Lead Kindly Light" was rendered by the choir. Then the casket was again borne from the church and the march to the tomb was resumed. At North avenue, about two miles distant, the foot portion of the procession disbanded, and the mounted escort and those in carriages continued on to Graceland cemetery. Here, amid the solemn rendering of the committal service, the remains were placed in the receiving vault.

Miss Howard Breaks Down.

A sad scene was that which occurred when the chief mourners moved out of the church to the carriages. Miss Howard, who had endured the strain of the service with remarkable fortitude, gave way completely when the stress was removed and broke into violent weeping when the portals of the church had been passed. Sympathetic friends assisted her to a carriage and she was driven to the Harrison residence. Miss Howard will return to the south to-day.

Fainted in Church.

Preston Harrison was overcome in the church during the service and lost consciousness for a few minutes, but was revived by stimulants.

Encouraging Slave Traders.

ZANZIBAR, Nov. 2.—The captain and crew of the French slave dhow that was captured by the British cruiser Philomel in April last have been acquitted by the court at Reunion, to which the prisoners were sent for trial by the French consul here. The acquittal of the prisoners has caused a genuine sensation here, as it practically gives immunity to the slavers who carry on their business under the French flag.

One Oat and a Dram of Hay.

LITTLE FALLS, N. Y., Nov. 2.—George Pendleton Wilcox, who married the sister of Francis E. Spinner, ex-treasurer of the United States, is dead. He was an eccentric character, and tried to demonstrate that a horse could live on an oat and a dram of hay a day. He was wealthy, and a frequent contributor to the newspapers.

New Postmasters.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—The following fourth-class postmasters were appointed:

Connecticut—G. E. Taylor, Wilton.

New York—R. L. Cannon, Hillsdale; W. F. Ross, Conewango Valley; E. F. Hawkins, Yaphank.

Pennsylvania—M. D. Boyd, West Town.

Move to Keep Peace.

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 2.—It is likely that the muddle in the affairs of the Southwestern passenger association will be straightened out by the removal of the association's officers and offices from St. Louis to Kansas City.

Why Italy is Not Interested.

ROME, Nov. 2.—Finance Minister Grimaldi said in an interview to-day that the repeal of the Sherman act would have no effect upon the Italian treasury because there was very little money in it.

78,000,000 Passengers.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—The Chicago city railway company transported about 78,000,000 passengers between May 1 and October 31.

B. & O. Borrows $3,000,000.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 2.—The Baltimore & Ohio railroad company has borrowed $3,000,000 foreign capital to be used by the road as its necessities require.

ARE WE OLD AT 45?

DEATHS DUE SIMPLY TO OLD AGE REPORTED AT 50.

Few Business Men In These Days Enjoy Long Life—Infirmities and Maladies That Are Neither Natural Nor Necessary.

Deaths due simply to old age are reported between the ages of 45 and 50.

Men and women are growing old before their time.

Few business men enjoy a ripe old age.

And yet what are habitually regarded as the infirmities and maladies of old age are not a necessary feature of it. Gout, rheumatism, feebleness, kidney trouble, melancholy and depression are due to poor blood and an impaired nervous system.

For years and years, patient, modest thinkers tried to learn more about these diseases. Their quiet discoveries achieved wonderful results. Paine's celery compound was discovered by Prof. Edward E. Phelps, M. D., LL. D., of Dartmouth college. It is the utmost that medical science has yet done to relieve nervous troubles, rheumatism, gout and diseases of the kidneys and the liver. It makes people well.

Physicians regard the celery compound as a true remedy for diseases of the kidneys, it has so repeatedly cured where everything else has failed.

To neglect plain signs of dyspepsia, kidney trouble or nervous breakdown is to allow trouble to acquire a momentum that nothing may be able to check. Paine's celery compound should be taken at once. It never fails to give relief.

SENATE CONFIRMATIONS.

A Big Batch of Nominations Approved Yesterday.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—The senate yesterday confirmed, among others, the following nominations:

State Department.

Edwin F. Uhl, of Michigan, to be assistant secretary of state.

Consuls.

John D. Hall, of Connecticut, at San Juan, Puerto Rico.

Doctor H. Somner, jr., of Pennsylvania, at Bombay, British India.

John R. Meade, of Connecticut, at Santo Domingo.

David N. Burke, of New York, at Malaga, Spain.

Robert P. Pooley, New York, at Sierra Leone, Africa.

Postmasters.

New York—Palmer K. Shankland at Jamestown.

Vermont—John D. Hanrahan at Rutland.

Maine—William R. Ker at Calais.

Connecticut—John D. Stuart at Lakeville, William H. Camp at Canaan.

REFORMATORY OUTRAGES.

The Elmira Investigating Committee Finishes at Dannemora.

DANNEMORA, N. Y., Nov. 2.—The Elmira reformatory investigating committee concluded the taking of testimony at this place yesterday afternoon. The evidence of a number of transferred men from Elmira, who had asked for interviews, was taken at the afternoon session. They told of their experience in the paddle room and several claimed to have been slapped in the face, knocked down and kicked by Brockway.

The committee will meet at Auburn prison Nov. 10, when a number of prisoners there, who were transferred from the reformatory, and witnesses from Buffalo and other places in the western section of the state will be examined.

The witnesses from New York city will probably be examined at Elmira. The committee will go to Elmira after finishing at Auburn and the prosecution's side will be closed there. Then Superintendent Brockway's side will be presented.

BANK STOCKS AT AUCTION.

Madison Square Securities Bring in Some Cases Almost Nothing.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—At the real estate exchange yesterday, by orders of Receivers O'Brien and Cannon, of the Madison Square bank, the stocks held by the bank as collateral for money advanced were sold, together with the "wild cat" securities which wrecked the institution.

In the whole 48 lots sold there was but one, namely 157 shares of the East river bridge company, that brought par. This was knocked down on the first bid of 100. Bonds of the Prescott & Arizona railroad, to the face value of $408,000, were sold for less than one cent on the dollar.

The stock of the Madison Square bank itself fluctuated considerably, one lot of 30 shares selling for $7, while another lot of 25 shares brought $18.

The 48 lots of stocks which had an approximated face value of nearly $750,000 only brought $27,092.

TO STOP PURCHASES OF SILVER.

Telegrams Sent to All the Mints After the Repeal Was Signed.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—Secretary Carlisle expressed himself as highly gratified at the passage of the repeal bill. He received the news a few minutes after the passage of the measure in the house.

Acting superintendent Preston of the mint bureau, after consultation with Secretary Carlisle, telegraphed to all the United States mints not to make any further purchases of silver.

At the present time the amount of Sherman notes outstanding is $152,519,000. With silver purchased, but not yet delivered, this amount may be increased $700,000, which will swell the Sherman notes to $153,219,000.

BRITISH OCCUPY BULUWAYO.

Matabele Defeated in Several Fights and Lobengula Put to Flight.

LONDON, Nov. 2.—Official dispatches from Cape Town confirm the reports that the chartered company's troops have defeated Matabele in several fights, have put Lobengula to flight and have occupied Buluwayo.

The official account says, moreover, that Major Goold Adam's column also was engaged with Matabele and after the capture of Buluwayo, joined Major Forbes' troops.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

For New Jersey Tomorrow: Fair, Cold Wave at Night.

REGULAR DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS.

UNION COUNTY.

For Senator—James E. Martine, of Plainfield.
For Member of Assembly—J. Herbert Winans, of Rahway.
For Sheriff—John S. Sauer, of Elizabeth.
For Coroner—Edward B. Kelly, of Summit.

SOMERSET COUNTY.

For Senator—Henry M. T. Beekman.
For Member of Assembly—George H. Cramer.
For Coroners—John F. Brady, of Bridgewater; Edwin F. Farrow, M. D., of Bedminster; Fred. C. Sutphen, M. D., of Bernards.

Every borough vote for George H. Cramer is a vote to re-elect a man who has done his duty well.

Voters who appreciate the worth of having a fellow-townsman in the Senate will vote for James Martine.

Remembering its own firebug experience, Plainfield can heartily sympathize with its neighbor New Brunswick in her affliction of epidemic incendiarism.

Do people of Plainfield who know what it is to be at the mercy of the monopoly king John Kean, Jr., want him to represent New Jersey in the U. S. Senate? A vote for Foster Voorhees means a vote for John Kean, Jr.

Democrats owe it to their own dignity and self-respect to rebuke at the polls the Republican sentiment that their party is an association of anarchists, socialists and gamblers. This is how Mayor Gilbert stigmatized the Democrats, and the Republican county convention endorsed it by applause.

Somerset's Senatorial candidate, Henry M. T. Beekman, is a representative Somerset county man. His home is with his aged mother in North Branch; he supervises the cultivation of the farm, and is also engaged in the milling business at that place with ex-Sheriff Tunison. He is acquainted with the needs and desires of Somerset county people, and should be voted for by those desiring a faithful representative.

Shall Grover Cleveland have the support of two Democratic Senators from New Jersey during his full term as President; or shall he have but one during his last year? This is a question which comes home to every Democratic voter in Somerset and Union counties. The election of James Martine and Henry Beekman means two trustworthy votes in the State Senate for the successor of the irreproachable and truly honorable John R. McPherson.

Not a murmur of disapprobation, in Democratic or Republican circles, has been raised against the Hon. George H. Cramer, who is presented for re-election for Assembly in North Plainfield's district. Somerset has an old-established custom, in both parties—one that is seldom varied from—namely, to give an Assemblyman two years in the office. Mr. Cramer made for himself so good a record last year that he will not only carry the Democratic vote this year, but will be supported by every Republican who still holds to the old rule. Mr. Cramer's past insight into legislative affairs will be of great advantage to him in the coming session, and he will receive even greater recognition than before.

Thompson's Race-Track Record.

[From The New York World, Dem.]

Lewis A. Thompson, the Republican candidate for Senator in Somerset county, has made a record as a friend of race tracks and race-track gambling. He was Senator Keys's predecessor, and when a member of the Senate in 1890 he voted on the bill legalizing bookmaking, which was passed that year and vetoed by Gov. Abbett.

The principal section of that bill was the following, which was amended into it on motion of Senator McDonald:

That all racing associations in this State, incorporated under the laws of this State, shall have the right to make books and engage in what is commonly known as bookmaking within the enclosure of their grounds, on any day when races take place by authority of such association, and not otherwise; provided, however, that this right shall be limited to fifty-five days in each year and shall not be exercised by any corporation that is in default of the payment of the tax imposed by this act.

Senator Thompson voted for this amendment, and the bill was afterwards passed by the Senate as amended. The House also passed the bill as amended, but Gov. Abbett refused to sign it after Dr. Everard W. Kempshall of Elizabeth and other churchmen went to Trenton and demonstrated against permitting it to become a law.

Mr. Beekman, Mr. Thompson's Democratic opponent, is an anti-race-track man.

Candy Show, Next.

The opening of the World's Candy Exposition, in the Lenox Lyceum, Madison avenue and 59th street, will be an event, next Monday evening, in which New York will be interested, and in which Plainfield people who visit New York should be interested also. The exhibition will be novel and important. It will be full of candy and candy making, and will be, in its liberality to visitors, equal to the food shows that have been so popular. Admission to everything will be 25 cents, with a box of bon-bons to every lady purchasing a ticket. The doors will be open daily from 2 until 10:30 p. m., and the exposition will close November 25.

Possible Frightful Cause of the Late Rebellion.

The various petitions bearing the signatures of the seceding members of Holy Cross Church are convincing evidence to those favored with a sight of these imposing documents that Rector Murphy is not in the least a "ladies man", and has wasted no time in propitiating the fair sex. What is it some one said about "a woman scorned"?

THE HOSPITAL FAIR.

ALL PLAINFIELD WAS THERE, AND MONEY WAS FREELY EXPENDED.

The Women Ran Things as if They Had Wings, and All Said the Result Was Real Splendid—From a Painting Bizarre to a Paper Cigar You Can Get What You Want at This Famous Bazar.

The first afternoon and evening of the Muhlenberg Hospital Fair at the Casino have shown results gratifying to the managers. As to the artistic success of the fair, there was little doubt of that from the first, and not enough can be said in praise of the effects of the tables and their decorations. Along the walls of the Casino the tables are placed at short intervals, each draped in white muslin and decorated with the large red cross of the hospital. On the tables is a fast diminishing variety of salable articles of every description, comprising not only things that one really wants, but even things that no one could find any use for. It may be mentioned that the latter class sells more readily than the former, as most people have a prejudice against buying useful articles at a charity fair. Nevertheless, all the goods, whether useful or not, are attractive and some are artistic. Among the most attractive tables, and one that proves very popular, is the one where the Sub Rosa girls sell everything you can think of, made of paper, from a lamp shade down to a cigar—at least one supposes the cigars are made of paper, as very few were sold. The deficiency in the cigar trade, however, was more than made up by the sale of the other paper things, and the secret society maidens with Mrs. George Wharton Edwards at their head wrung many a hard-earned dollar from the pocket of susceptible youth. A blotter painted and contributed by Mr. Edwards sold at a high price shortly after the fair was opened. Mr. Edwards was very generous in his contributions to the fair, as a large water color by him, marked $100, testified. The picture is called "On the Dunes". The figure is that of a young pleasant girl gazing over the dunes, and the coloring and treatment are in Mr. Edwards's best style.

The flower and candy table is one of the prettiest of all the pretty ones. It takes up the whole of the front of the stage, and is loaded down with attractive sweets and covered with flowers.

An ingenious idea is embodied in the doll table. On this are some thirty or more dolls dressed and sent in by the various hospitals, a list of which is given below. Each hospital dressed its doll in the uniform worn by the nurses at that institution, and the collection of frocks and caps attracts many interested spectators.

In an oriental retreat Miss Elizabeth Stewart told the fortunes of the fortunate who went to her to have their palms read, while Mrs. Haviland took charge of the Lady of the Lake booth, in the opposite corner of the Casino.

While the attendance was good yesterday, there was no crowd at any time. The prospect of a dance tonight will doubtless bring many more to the Casino, and a very large attendance is expected. The following is a list of the tables, with their chairmen and assistants:

Fancy Goods Table—Chairman, Mrs. Charles E. Brooks. Assistants—Mrs. Frederick Mead, Mrs. William Kaufman, Mrs. Robert L. Burnett, Mrs. Van Buren and Mrs. Chas. Ames.

Odds and Ends Table—Chairman, Miss Mary Tweedy. Assistants—Miss Musgrave, Miss Erskine, Miss White, Mrs. Cokefair and Miss Tweedy.

Sub Rosa Table—Chairman, Mrs. George Wharton Edwards. Assistants—Miss Jessamy Harte, Miss Marion Dumont, Miss Maude VanBoskerck, Miss Lizzie VanBoskerck, Miss Florence Huntington, Miss Fay Hawley, Miss Corlies and Miss Lawrence.

Fancy Goods Table—Chairman, Mrs. William E. Lowe. Assistants—Mrs. Fleming, Mrs. Finch, Mrs. Herring, Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Simpson.

Book Table—Chairman, Mrs. Beers. Assistants—Mrs. Lapsley, Mrs. Goddard and Mrs. Henry E. Bowen.

Flower and Candy Table—Chairmen—Mrs. Cox and Mrs. Huntington. Assistants—Miss Talmadge, Mrs. Howard Tracy, Mrs. Daniel Ginna, Mrs. Tracy, Miss Hawley and Miss Streull.

Fancy Goods Table—Chairman, Mrs. G. W. Endicott. Assistants—Mrs. William S. Marsh, Miss Anna Haviland and Miss Sortell.

King's Daughters Table—Chairmen, Mrs. Foster and Mrs. Haviland. Assistants—(Representatives of each Circle of King's Daughters will act as assistants.)

Fancy Goods Table—Chairman, Mrs. Saunders. Assistants—Mrs. B. A. Hegeman, Mrs. Charles Reed, Mrs. E. Woltmann and Miss Woltmann.

Cushion Table—Chairman, Mrs. Runkle. Assistants—Mrs. Charles Fisk, Mrs. Pliny Fisk, Mrs. William Wadsworth, Mrs. J. K. Myers and Miss Ritchie of Trenton.

Art Table—Chairman, Mrs. James Scott. Assistants, Mrs. William Roome, Mrs. T. H. Tomlinson, Mrs. Walter Stewart, Miss Tomlinson, Mrs. Stimson.

Doll Table — Chairman, Miss Florence Tweedy. Assistants, Miss Lillian Erskine, Miss Schipper, Miss Cock, Mrs. Schipper, Miss May Tracy and Miss Moran.

Grocery Table—Chairman, Mrs. Pond. Assistants, Mrs. Arens, Miss Verdon. Mrs. G. H. Frost, Mrs. A. B. Green, Miss Lillian Fritts, Miss Emily Sandford and Mrs. McElroy.

Lemonade Table—Chairman, Mrs. Lawson. Assistants, Mrs. Randall, Miss Margaret Tracy, Miss Abbott and Miss Whiton.

Refreshment Tables—Chairman, Mrs. Woodruff. Assistants, Mrs. Stover, Mrs. Case, Mrs. Slawson, Mrs. W. H. Miller, the Misses Bush, Miss Schoonmaker, Miss Thorne, Miss Woodruff and Miss Bowers.

BOUNCED FOR HIS MANHOOD.

Editor Runyon Had No Use for a Reporter Who Respected His Pledge of Honor.

The inconvenience of a newspaper man acting as officer of a club is demonstrated in the case of Henry Swift Thomas. Mr. Thomas has been a faithful worker on the Courier. Up to last night he was also secretary and treasurer of the Crescent Wheelmen. Last night Mr. Thomas resigned his position as an officer of the club. The reasons for his resignation are as follows:

When the Crescent Wheelmen were agitating the question of fusion with the Board of Trade, all the city newspapers made notes of the facts, and when the final action was taken by the Wheelmen The Press published a full and exclusive account of the proceeding. It seems that the club passed resolutions at that meeting to give nothing to the papers about the matter until the Board of Trade had acted upon it. The Press not being a member of the club was not bound to respect this injunction of secrecy when a member gave the facts away. Mr. Thomas as secretary and treasurer of the club was bound to reveal nothing, and refrained from printing any reference to the matter in The Courier. When Editor Runyon read The Press and found that the news of the action had not been published in his paper, he waxed very wroth, and, calling Mr. Thomas to him, dismissed him forthwith from the staff.

Here, then, was a man who because he had honor enough to carry out the injunction of a club as an officer of that club was discharged by his employer. But virtue and ability bring their own reward, for Editor Runyon has since found it to his best advantage to ask Mr. Thomas to return to the staff, as he finds he cannot get along without him. He had to resign from office, however, to be unpledged in the future.

THE JUDGE GOT BACK.

And Found a Grist of Prisoners Awaiting Him.

There was a fine crop of wrong-doers in the City Court this morning that had gathered while the Judge was chasing cotton-tails yesterday.

Arthur Chambers, colored, was arrested for using indecent and abusive language to Mrs. Yettman, also colored. He was given his choice of a $5 fine or 30 days in the county jail.

Maggie Benford was sent up for 30 days for beating William Kenny with a barrel stave. With Maggie safe in jail William need fear a beating no longer.

The two boys that made a disturbance in the Music Hall entrance the night that Uncle Tom's Cabin played there this week were discharged until Saturday morning at 9 o'clock when they were to hear their sentence, but Officer Corsa came along with another complaint against John Benford for persistant riding on coal trains, and John was sent up for 30 days, so Charlie Hurst, the other boy, will hear what the Judge has to say on Saturday alone.

Four coal stealers were brought before the Judge. They were Ida Brown, colored, and John Stites, Mary Stites and Mrs. Bergen, white. All but Mrs. Bergen pleaded guilty, but the Judge postponed sentence until Saturday at 9 a.m. as there are some other offenders that will be up for the same offence at that time.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

J. Aug. Smith and W. T. Kirk are back from Chicago.

August Trust and his pretty bride are home from the World's Fair.

Richard Murphy of 1328 Watchung avenue is improving after a month of illness.

Miss Lizzie Bellis, of Flemington, is visiting friends and relatives in this city and the borough.

Miss Etta Shurts, of Somerville, is being entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Hodge, Somerset street.

Miss Gertrude Walz of LaGrande avenue is visiting her aunt, Mrs. F. A. Barnaby, in the new Hotel Regent, Clinton avenue, Brooklyn.

Stephen H. Burr, formerly superintendent of the First Baptist Sunday-school, and his daughter, Miss Anna Burr, of Brooklyn, visited Wm. White yesterday in the borough. Their many friends were glad to see them.

ON THE TANBARK.

GRATIFYING PROGRESS OF THE PLAINFIELD RIDING CLUB.

An Afternoon Class for Young People to Be Formed Tomorrow—Cross Country Paper Chase Election Day—Exhilarating Sport of Last Night's Evolutions.

Last night was spent very enjoyably in the Riding Academy. From 8 to 10:30 about twenty members of the Plainfield Riding Club dashed, pranced, galloped and drilled upon the tanbark, under the guidance of their peerless leader, John I. Holly. The building was pleasantly heated, and band music was provided. The improvement of the order, attention and riding is very gratifying to Mr. Holly, and reflects much credit on his patience and discipline.

The club has become quite familiar with the requisite formulations of forming twos and fours, wheeling, marching by flank, and keeping the proper distances; and more fancy of school riding was indulged in than usual, making a most creditable exhibition.

Mr. Holly's mount was a chestnut sorrel, a new horse, more full of fire than good keep. Its new home will soon change its condition.

Mr. and Miss Opdyke, of Watchung avenue, were particularly well mounted. Miss Corlies's gray looked unusually well, and Miss Corlies will, if she keeps on improving, have a reputation here for equestrianism equal to that held at Durland's by her mother. Mrs. Pentz. Miss VanBoskerck and Miss Holly also seemed to enjoy the ride more than usual.

H. Boardman, T. VanBoskerck, William Pentz, Fred and Ferd Ruttman, W. J. Roome, J. P. Munn, H. Johnson, O Waring, A. Streuli and William Battfield, all rode the same horses as previously.

Besides the paper chase across country, Election Day, starting from John I. Holly's, many November rides are arranged for. Tomorrow afternoon from 3 to 5 a ride will be given in the Academy to young people, with the view of organizing an afternoon club. All those interested are invited to attend.

The Tabernacle Brought to Plainfield.

Chapter, No. 1, of the Epworth League, will meet in Vincent chapel tomorrow evening. After he business of the League is transacted, Dr. Barnes will give the first of a series of Bible talks on the Tabernacle, illustrated by a model. Everyone is invited.

Handsomely decorated Japanese lamp shade with every $1 purchase to customers asking for it. No reasonable offer refused for the balance of our Flower Pots, and we have some very pretty ones left. We are constantly adding new goods and the hard times have forced prices way down. Remember we aim to undersell by fair competition. Lamps are about one half what they were last year, and ours are bargains indeed. See our $1 50 full decorated 1 or $2 25 centre draft lamps, and we will make the sale; common chimneys all sizes 5c. You can't buy crockery even in New York as low as we can sell it. In toys, stationery, games, soaps, etc., there is no better display in the city than ours. In tinware, woodenware and general housefurnishings we can suit you. We sell brushes of all kinds, whisks, hair brooms and feather dusters. We have glassware and a thousand useful articles on 5 and 10c counters. Our display of fancy china cups and saucers will surprise you; prices from five cents to $1. If you have never used Royal tooth powder, ten gross sent to one New York house in ten days; just try it, and you will be delighted with the result. You are not afraid to risk ten cents for a good thing are you? 10c. buys the "Royal." Call and see the rotary shuttle in the Standard sewing machine. This machine is almost noiseless and its work wonderful. We sell the Standard.

THE HUNTER BOLD

NOW LOOKS FOR GAME, THROUGH MEADOW AND THROUGH BOG.

He Sees at Last a Little Bird, But Kills Instead His Dog—The Bird Lives on, the Dog Is Dead, the Hunter Frames His Lie—Till a Rail Fence Fires His Shot Gun Off—You'll Meet Him By and By.

[Latest News from the Jersey Game Fields, by Special Grapevine Telegraph.]

TEWKSBURY TOWNSHIP, Nov. 2—With the rabbit season opened, the farms of this section are overrun with Plainfield marksmen. This seems to be favorite hunting-ground for the bon ton marksmen of the town. The old-timers have been prowling about here with varied success. Irv Stelle knocked over a yearling calf in mistake for a cotton-tail, and Judge Coddington had to hold court on the spot and acquit his fellow-hunter to save him from durance vile. The Judge has had his hands full keeping the tall young newspaper chap who insists that he is a huntsman, from assassinating the grangers for dubbing him "Stilts". The only game struck so far has been a quiet draw poker down at the farm, and the Judge scooped that. The Court says if it knows itself it's gwine to lay low 'till Bre'r Fisk, the cherubic councilman, forgives him that hoss joke.

GERMANTOWN, Nov. the Two Times—"Dutchy" Smith is in it as ever. He and Tim McCarthy, Charley Dodd, Warren Squires, Ed Campbell, Joe Stapford of Brooklyn, and Billy Bender of Tremley Point, have been poking their guns into the cactus plants and sage brush of Hunterdon. Twenty rabbits was their catch of yesterday, and they are hot on the trail of a herd they chased over towards Pickles Mountain.

SOUTH RIVER SAND HILLS, This Morning—Pete Emmons is here loaded in both hands. With his right he fires at the coons and cotton-tails. With his left he essays snap shots of the critters he misses. He says he's bound to identify by photograph whatever others get that rightfully belongs to him cause he fired first. The ex-Councilman uses a 12-bore.

LESSER CROSS ROADS, Today—Fred Sandford, John Haberle, Jonathan R. Doty, Jack Porter, R. O. Elliott and A. C. Compton have taken possession of North Branch for a week. The covers to the cracker barrels in the village store have been nailed down.

FINDERNE, Twice of Nov.—Joe Field and his Somerset county friend Mount Corle are getting the best shooting of them all, in Joe's game preserves, on his Centennial Farm, near Bound Brook.

PLUCKAMIN, Same Day — Dunellen's contingent, Joel Giddis, George Hoff, John Hoff, Chris Hoff and Pax VanArsdale, are getting ready to go home discouraged and empty-handed, unless they can find some chickens roosting far from the watchdogs, in which case they may pluck 'em in. It's a case of Hoff and Hoff.

WASHINGTON ROCK, Over Night—Like Patience on a monument, William Winges of Dunellen has been sitting here since the season opened, watching the amateurs shooting his fences and orchard to pieces. He does n't gun himself, but is waiting for a rainy day to go fishing.

BLAIRSTOWN, Thursday—Ell Odom is here, frequently ejaculating his surname because of the failure of his ammunition to connect with the quarry.

GERMAN VALLEY, the Same—The Stout Sextette is devastating the haystacks, and in a day or two a freight car full of fresh meat will reach Plainfield for the families of John Goff, Billy Pierson, Lew VanDyke, Bob Rushton, Frank Day and R. H. McCullough.

GREENBROOK, After Wednesday—Pool Voorhees, Chairman of the North Plainfield Town Committee, is stirring out the cotton-tails, aided by Friday Vail.

FRANKLIN PARK, Before Tomorrow—E. S. Elliott is making a brave hunt for the rabbit that Jack Haberle and States Titsworth drove into the stump of a tree here one year ago.

ANYWHERE ALONG SECOND MOUNTAIN, the 2th—Henry Voehl is piloting a big party hereabouts, prepared to bring down anything less than ba'r.

NOTES.

Joe Cutter and Lebbeus Manning are killing, or attempting to kill, birds and rabbits near Mechanicsville.

Louis Schutt and Allen Coddington, of the borough, will bring home as full a game bag as any who leave these parts. Their grandfathers, Elias and Aaron Allen, of Washington Valley, corral all game that comes their way during the summer, and save 'em for these two sure-shots.

Ed Varity and Billy Lowe are killing birds and cottontails along the Passaic.

Jack Bowman and Ed Thorn will shoot a match against Jack Benner on his grounds for all the game that is brought there.

Joe Gavin shot a large hawk on his father's farm before 6 yesterday morning.

Jed Smalley shot away Rutgers Cadmus's chestnut forest—but he brought home his rabbit.

Frank Hand, the blacksmith, for the first time in his life was carrying a 12-pound gun around all day, and killed only a neighbor's cat.

States Titsworth is piloting a party about Piscataway, and Clark Watts is prowling about G. Demler's for partridges.

Proved To Be the Best.

Tested and proved by over thirty years' use in all parts of the world, ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS have the indorsement of the highest medical and chemical authorities and millions of grateful patients who have been cured by distressing ailments voluntarily testify to their merits.

ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS are purely vegetable. They are mild but effective, sure and quick in their action and absolutely harmless.

Beware of imitations, and do not be deceived by misrepresentation. Ask for ALLCOCK'S, and let no solicitation or explanation induce you to accept a substitute.

Al Pope and Harry Marshall spent opening day on Bill Kelley's farm at Oak Tree. They shot three bob-whites and one gray squirrel. John Osborn carried the game bag.

George VanNest and William Beekman were at Annandale, and slept over night in a freight car so as to be up bright and early. Tho' they missed everything that they shot at, they brought home four rabbits. A colored man in Clinton can tell how they got 'em.

Frank Linke and Henry Windham spent the day in a corn field down near Hillside cemetery and killed three rabbits.

Joe Blatz and Richard A. Boyce each killed four rabbits near Stony Hill.

Jim Babbit and Bill Jackson shot away corn stacks and stray cattle beyond the Short Hills.

Walter Laine and Bob Guttridge say if they do n't shoot anything they will at least bring home pockets full of chestnuts.

The "Two Ikes" will paint scenes of rabbits and gray squirrels as they appear with the fortunate gunners when they return to their homes.

Fred Belcher, of Irvington, and Martin Adelman, of Newark, were down on Powers's farm at South Plainfield, and met with great luck. They will gormandize on rabbit for a week.

Jim Johnson, John Collins, John Smith, Hezekiah Hand, Bill Traynor, Bob Walpole, old Dan Baker, Boss Drake, and Pop Layton, all of Scotch Plains, were at Glenside, and met with good bad and indifferent luck.

THE WHIRRING WHEEL.

A Cycling Spiel Arranged for Next Thanksgiving.

The Crescent Wheelmen at their meeting last night made arrangements for a 20-mile handicap road race to be held on the Park Avenue Driving course Thanksgiving Day. The committee in charge consists of J. A. Haynes, Clarence E. Teel and W. H. Rogers.

The restriction as to entering the race is that the contestants shall all ride "Credenda" wheels. The first prize is a "Credenda" wheel offered by Rogers. The club will give a gold medal for time prize, and Rogers will give other prizes as follows: Second prize, fine field glass; third prize, a rifle; fourth prize, a pair of pneumatic tires.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—The Y. M. C. A. shorthand class will have their first lesson tonight. Membership is open.

—Ed Martin of 418 East Third street is looking for the owner of a fine hound that followed him home.

—Justice Nash issued a summons this morning in the case of Larue against Burke, on contract, returnable Nov. 8.

—The Fire Department officials will witness the burning of a temporary house at Plainfield avenue and Fourth street tomorrow evening at 7:30, as an advertisement for a patent extinguisher.

—Those choice Late Rose potatoes, at 75 cents a bushel, of which Hilberg & Schraeder have a carload at the freight house, are finding ready customers. Tomorrow closes the sale.

—At Edsall's dry and fancy goods house great inducements are being offered. Edsall says his buyer has recently made some very important purchases, and according to his system of business the patrons receive the benefit of these extraordinary low prices. Over thirty special items are advertised in another column as a sample. Edsall says he can certainly make it to the interest of all to trade at his house.

Lynch Leads.

The individual bowling tournament on the alleys of the C. Y. M. L. continued last night with the following results:

$5 For a Plainfield Lot.

Wm. E. Taylor, New Jersey's great auctioneer, will be here again election day, and is going to sell the balance of Taylor & MacDonald's lots to the highest bidder, no matter what the price may be—only $5 down, no taxes, no insurance, and no auctioneer fees, as he is selling his own land.

$100 Reward, $100.

The reader of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer $100 for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address

IN BOWER OF PALMS

AND AUTUMN BLOOM, TWO HAPPY HEARTS THEIR PLEDGES PLIGHTED.

With Subtle Balms and Rare Perfume the Atmosphere the Senses Delighted—Scotch Airs Were Played for Groom and Maid, and All Was Sweet as Marmalade.

In a bower of palms and white chrysanthemums, Miss Josephine Pierson was married last evening to Malcolm McKenzie. The ceremony took place in the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church. The bride is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Israel C. Pierson of Watchung avenue, and the groom son of Mr. and Mrs. John D. McKenzie of Central avenue.

The witnesses were a throng, and the wedding was as pretty as ever graced a Plainfield altar.

The ceremony was performed promptly at 6:30 by the Rev. William R. Richards, D. D. Some time before the hour set for the ceremony the body of the church was entirely filled by the wedding guests. Admission was by card only.

The ushers, Messrs. Charles M. Hay, Frank Beattys and Rollin P. Grant and the Rev. George Kennedy, were kept very busy seating the multitude of people who flocked to the church.

The wedding party arrived on time. In the procession the four ushers came first, then the maid of honor, Miss Mabel Pierson, sister of the bride. The bride came up the aisle escorted by her father. Clarence McKinzie, brother of the groom, was best man. Miss Jessie Utter presided at the organ, her selections included several Caledonian melodies in compliment to the groom, who is a scotchman. The front of the church was filled with palms and ferns. A single bunch of huge white chrysanthemums relieved the solid green bank. The bride wore heavy white silk, trimmed with duchesse point-lace. She wore a tulle veil, and carried lilies of the valley. The maid of honor wore pale green crepe de chine, and carried white chrysanthemums and maiden-hair ferns. The groom wore flowers from the bride's bouquet, and the lapels of the ushers' coats were decorated with large white chrysanthemums.

After the ceremony a limited number of the guests reassembled at the home of the bride, 733 Watchung avenue. The house was exquisitely decorated with white, pink and yellow chrysanthemums, ferns, palms, smilax and autumn leaves. The entire floral decoration was in charge of William H. Brower & Son, of New York and Plainfield. Supper was served by Marcel, and the music, which was a feature of the evening, was by a string quartette, led by P. Ludwig Conde of Plainfield. The selections were chiefly Scotch airs.

The bride and groom left at 9 for Washington, where they will spend the honeymoon. Their home will be New York. Among the guests at the reception were:

Mrs. James A. Edgar, Miss Edgar, Rev. Dr. and Mrs. W. R. Richards, Miss Baker, Mr. and Mrs. John D. McKenzie, Mr. and Mrs. John Jay Cisco, Mr. and Mrs. John Van Horne, Mr. Brown, Hon. and Mrs. Robert A. Davison, Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Lovell, Benjamin H. Baylis, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Newhall, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Woodruff, Chancellor and Mrs. Henry M. MacCracken, Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Bowen, W. A. Brewer, Jr., Mr. and Mrs Ayers McKinzie, Mrs. Roome, Mrs. Harbagh, Fred E. Booth, Mr. and Mrs. J. Hugh Petrie, Miss Kate M. Booth, Miss Sadie Booth, Mr. and Mrs. S. P. MOUNTAINEER DEBATERS.

Young People of Washingtonville Organize a Lyceum.

A number of the young people near Washingtonville have formed themselves into the Lyceum Debating Society. Meetings are held the first and third Wednesdays in every month, in the schoolhouse in the Valley. Last evening the society met and listened to an able address by John F. Regger, a teacher in the school, on the World's Fair.

A banjo duet by Miss Mamie Steiner and Miss Ida Lewis was enjoyed. Following this, a "question box" was conducted by Miss Mamie Steiner, Frank Dodge and Theodore Bartell, which was very interesting.

The members of the society are: The Misses Ida Lewis, Belle Lewis, Mamie Steiner, Maggie Miles, Edith Miles, Jessie Coddington, Nettie Beeching, Lena Smalley, May McLaughlin, Etta Blatz, Anna Spier and Rose Spier, and Messrs. Robert Clark, Edward Clark, John Steiner, Herbert Schutt, Harry Coddington, Lewis Schutt, William and Herbert Woodland, Herbert Steiner, Henry Rogers, Robert Clark, Sr., George Beeching, Frank Dodge, Willie Kitchen, Harry Drake, William Morrison, Alfred Coddington, Theodore Bartell, Robert Rogers, Richard Rogers, and George Spier.

The next meeting will be held November 15, for which an elaborate programme is being prepared.

Thatcher Gets Out Now.

Herbert Thatcher has received a letter from his brother John Thatcher, who is in Chicago. The letter states that he is recovering from his injuries received by the horse car, and is able to attend business with the aid of crutches. His many friends will be glad to hear of this.

Next Year They'll Gather Here.

Thanks to the efforts of the Rev. J. W. Richardson in the meeting just concluded in New Brunswick, the next session of the New Jersey State Baptist Association will be held in the First Baptist church of Plainfield.

With Ely's Cream Balm a child can be treated without pain and with perfect safety. It cures catarrh, hay fever and colds in the head. It is easily applied into the nostrils and gives immediate relief. Price 50 cents.

My catarrh was very bad; for 30 years I have been troubled with it—have tried a number of remedies without relief. A druggist advised Ely's Cream Balm. I have used only one bottle and I can say I feel like a new man. I make this voluntary statement that others may know of the Balm.—J. W. Matheweon, lawyer, Pawtucket, R. I.

Mello's Friends Scheming in New York.

The Plan as Reported is to Sink Peixoto's New Vessels Off Sandy Hook—Planning as to How the Destroyer is to Be Gotten to Brazil.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—There is reason to believe, if the rumors in circulation are true, that the friends in this city of Admiral Mello, the leader of the Brazilian rebels, are preparing to give loyal Admiral Mauritz a surprise when the steamer El Cid attempts to leave this port on Nov. 10 equipped as one of President Peixoto's cruisers.

Although it is denied by the firm of M. Moran, of No. 12 South street, that within the past few days they have parted with any of their powerful steel built tugs, it is understood that Mello's representatives here are anxious to buy a couple of them.

May Ram Her Down.

The object of the purchase of such powerful and swift sea going craft it is believed is to encounter the El Cid and ram her down off Sandy Hook, provided she sails away with the Brazilian flag flying astern. If the El Cid, however, clears with the stars and stripes under escort of the powerful armored cruiser New York, no effort will be made to destroy her.

An apparently accidental collision between El Cid and some strong harbor craft is a possibility until Peixoto's dynamite cruiser is on the high seas.

At the office of the Morgan line this morning it was stated positively that the El Rio would not be parted with. Flint & Co. had no information to be given to the public as to their recent purchases for the Brazilian government.

Off on an Important Mission.

Antonio A. de Castilho, consul general in New York for President Peixoto's government, sailed on the steamer Wadsworth last evening for Pernambuco, Brazil.

Although it is stated that de Castilho is in poor health, it is considered significant that he should leave his post in these times, so critical for his country.

Men acquainted with Brazilian affairs gave it as their opinion to-day that de Castilho is going to Brazil on some very important mission, probably with regard to the purchase of ships for a navy. He has been of considerable note in his country's affairs, and his familiarity with maratime affairs will enable him to tell President Peixoto the exact strength of the vessels Flint & Co., have purchased or expect to purchase.

Mello Must Hurry Matters.

It is the general belief here that Mello must make a decisive move before the arrival of Peixoto's new fleet, or otherwise his cause will surely be lost.

DESTROYER NOT SEAWORTHY.

Plans to Get the Peculiar Craft to Brazil.

NEWPORT, R. I., Nov. 2.—Yesterday afternoon a receipt for Ericsson's Destroyer was turned over to the commandant of the torpedo station, all the projectiles having been transferred to her by tug.

There has been much conjecture here as to how the peculiar craft is to be gotten to Brazil, and now the suggestion comes that when she goes into dry-dock the work will be immediately begun of building an outer hull, which will be carried sufficiently high to give a good free board, which will make her a better sea boat and which may be partially shot away in action without injury to the craft itself.

STEAMSHIP BURNED AT SEA.

(Special to The Press.)

NEW YORK, Nov. 2—The officers of the Alexandria Steamship Company in this city received word today that their ship the City of Alexandria had been burned last night on her way to Havana.

The crew, it is known, escaped. There were no passengers.

FOUND DEAD IN A POOL.

Lewsty Rockton Evidently Fell There in an Epileptic Fit.

When Milkman Thoms was out hunting yesterday he had a gruesome experience. Coming through a field in the rear of the residence of Mr. Herbst near Terrill road he came upon the body of a man lying half in and half out of a puddle of water. The body was identified as that of Lewsty Rockton, son of Lewis Rockton the Fanwood florist who lives on Terrill road not far from where the body of his son was found. The dead man was about 38 years old and subject to fits. He left home Tuesday afternoon and was not heard from until his body was found by Thoms yesterday afternoon.

The body was removed to his home and Terrill & Cole took charge of the remains. The sister of the dead man, who was in New York visiting, was immediately sent for.

To Inspect Other Corps.

Mrs. Charles Westphal and Mrs. M. C. Dobbins, of the Woman's Relief Corps of this city, left town this morning for Long Branch and Asbury Park. They will inspect the corps at these places, returning home Saturday.

They'll Tell of the Time They Had.

At the regular meeting of Franklin Council, No. 41, Jr. O. U. A. M., this evening, H. G. Adams and D. S. Dunavan, delegates to the recent State Convention in Trenton, will make a report.

Broken Jumping a Post.

Harry Page of West Third street while jumping a post, yesterday, fell and broke his left wrist. Dr. Long was called and attended the boy.

Read and Reflect.

The great mass of mankind lose their health through inattention to catarrh of the head and throat. This insidious disease was considered incurable until the discovery of the American Catarrh Cure, or sale by L. W. Randolph, 21 West Front street. Price $1.00.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

V. L. FRAZEE,

THE PEOPLE'S GROCER,

151 WEST FRONT STREET

Superior:

That's the word. We have earned it in the manufacture of our Winter Overcoats. The wise man of our designing and manufacturing works has had his wits about him—hence perfect, incomparable Overcoats. New fabrics of tasty and genteel weaves. You should see them. Prices range from $10 to $25. They'd cost at least 30 per cent. more if you'd buy them from anyone else than the makers.

We are selling more Boys Overcoats and Reefers than any other store in the city. The prices are far below current rates for good qualities.

STOUTENBURGH & CO.

Clothing, Hats, Furnishing Goods,

799 801, 803, 805 Broad Street,

NEWARK. 10 25 8t

There Is No Use Talking!

If we didn't talk we wouldn't say anything, and some times we don't say much when we do talk. The most eloquent things after all are figures. And we are putting some prices on goods that it will be well worth examining, even if you are in a big hurry.

An Instance.

Thin tumblers 48c. dozen. You will want Underwear pretty soon—maybe tomorrow. Men's white and colored shirts and drawers 38c.; ladies' ribbed vests and pants 27c.; men's natural wool shirts and drawers 68c.; child's white and natural wool shirts and drawers 15c. up. A good dress that 45-inch all-wool suiting will make, cost the manufacturer 45c. to make and all we ask for it is 32c.

Have you ever tried us on Hosiery? We offer: Child's fast black ribbed hose 10c.; child's fast black ribbed hose 12c; ladies' fast black hose 10c; ladies' fast black full regular hose 15c.; ladies' fast black full regular hose 23c.; men's full regular half hose 12c.

HOUSEFURNISHING DEPARTMENT—Offers special attractive prices on Granite Ironware and in all kinds of Housefurnishing Goods.

Infant's silk caps 25c.

BLANKETS AND COMFORTABLES—Hasn't been very good weather for them and a big difference it makes in the price. White cotton filled comfortables $1; white cotton filled comfortables $1.25.

Cream cheese cloth quilts our own make, $1.35.

OVERGAITERS

LOOK—For 50c. we fit you with an overgaiter just as good as you ever bought for 85c., and our 75c. and $1 grades are far finer than those sold by the regular shoe dealers.

SPECIAL FOR 10 DAYS.

Just to introduce this 50c. overgaiter we will sell you with any shoe that you purchase from $1.25 up a pair of these elegant overgaiters at 25c.

WHITE OF PLAINFIELD.

THREE LOVES.

There was one I dearly loved whose heart
Seemed to mine a counterpart.
The notes were false or my ear was wrong,
And so an ending of that song.

There was one who loved me well whose soul
Fitted to mine as oar to thole.
A gale sprang up, as a gale well may,
And tomorrow was turned to yesterday.

There was one I loved whose radiant face
Made me run a perilous race.
There is one I love and one loves me
With a love that spells eternity.
—Walter H. Pollock.

Air Ventilation and Coal.

A thorough and scientific examination made by an English chemist on the effect of air and ventilation on coal gives the following results: First, the danger of spontaneous firing of coal in large lumps is very slight, but is much greater with smaller coal and greater still with dust, the increase of danger being due to the larger extent of surface exposed to the air in proportion to the mass of the coal. Second, air dried coal which contains more than 3 per cent of moisture is dangerous, but if it contains less the danger diminishes, the moisture contained being a measure of the absorbent power of the coal for air, and the more absorbent the coal the more dangerous. Third, the danger is somewhat increased by the presence of pyrites in large quantity. Fourth, newly won coal should be shielded from the air as much as possible to prevent the chance of rapid heating, and for the same reason it is best not to stack it in large heaps, since these retain the heat. Fifth, all external sources of heat, such as steam pipes, l[illegible]ers and hot flues in the neighborhood of [illegible] coal, add very greatly to the risk, spont[illegible]eous heating becoming vastly more rapid when it is assisted from without. Of course these conclusions have special relation to coal that is stored or shipped in cargoes.—New York Sun.

Anonymous Gifts.

The Princess of Wales once had a tiny white dog sent to her by the parcels post in a wicker box. Fond as the princess is of all her pets, "Fussy," for so he was named, remains her prime favorite, and very often does she wonder who the thoughtful donor could possibly have been.

One of Albani's finest parures of diamonds and turquoises came from a lady to whom she had never spoken. During the whole year of the run of "The Dancing Girl," Mr. Tree was supplied nightly with a buttonhole, and during "Captain Swift" with more than he knew what to do with, and both he and his wife have been recipients for some time past of beautiful gifts of china and other pretty things sent anonymously to the theater. Nor was the famous Bully Boy forgotten, since boxes of macaroons and other dainties were frequently sent to him by ladies who appreciated the pathetic glance of his rolling eye and the stolid wag of his tail.—London Gentlewoman.

ADJOURNMENT BALKED

Senate Does Not Agree to the House Resolution to Close To-day.

Anxious to Retain Control Until the Urgency Deficiency Bill is Disposed Of—House Chinese Repeal Measure Passed—A Motion to Permit the Ways and Means Committee to Finish Their Tariff Bill Before Congress Meets Again Causes a Rampus and Upsets Anjournment.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—The senate spent its entire session yesterday, after the morning hour, in the discussion of the house bill, passed on Oct. 16, to amend the act of May 5, 1892, prohibiting the coming of Chinese persons into the United States.

Chinese Repeal Bill Passed.

All the amendments that were offered to it were either withdrawn or rejected; and the bill was passed in the exact form in which it came from the house.

It extends for six months, from its passage the time in which certificates of residence may be applied for which certificates are to contain photographs of Chinamen, and it defines what is meant by the terms "laborer" and "merchant." It makes various other modifications of the original act.

In the morning hour the bill for the relief of the sufferers from the recent cyclone on the Sea islands and along the coast of South Carolina and Georgia was got up by Mr. Hoar (rep., Mass.,) but its progress was effectually blocked by an objection to its third reading, which was barred under the rules except by unanimous consent.

The objection was made by Mr. Cockrell, (dem., Mo.,) and was sustained by the vice-president.

No Action on Relief Matter.

Then a motion to refer the bill to the committee on appropriations was made by Mr. Gorman, and the debate on that motion lasted till the close of the morning hour, when the bill went over without action, and with Mr. Gorman's motion pending. Other measures that were up and were disposed of were:

Allowing the Columbian museum at Chicago to accept or purchase articles for its own exclusive use free from customs duties. This was a house joint resolution but it was razeed by the senate so as to include merely that one provision.

House bill appropriating $172,000 for a steam revenue cutter for service on the great lakes.

Final Adjournment Balked.

The final adjournment resolution of the house was referred to the committee on appropriations and so the adjournment question has not been settled with the ease expected. The resolution is held by the senate committee presumably to enable the senate to retain control of the situation and perhaps to enable it to exercise some pressure on the house in the matter of the urgent deficiency appropriation bill, on which no agreement has yet been reached.

The senate at 5:45 adjourned until to-day.

HOUSE IN A DEAD-LOCK.

Tariff Subject Caused a Muss and Upset Adjournment Plans.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—The house took a step toward final adjournment when it met at noon yesterday by adopting a resolution looking to a termination of this special session at 3 o'clock to-day (Friday).

Mr. Holman (dem., Ind.), Mr. Clark (dem., Mo.) and Mr. Terry (dem., Ark.) pleaded for a recess instead of an adjournment, but they were overruled by a large majority. And then Mr. Wilson undone all that had been done towards winding up the session by introducing an apparently harmless little resolution permitting the ways and means committee to finish and report their tariff bill before congress should meet again.

Started Filibustering.

The republicans objected to the permission to report; Mr. Catchings brought in from the rules committee a special dispensation, but still without success, for the republicans filibustered persistently.

During one of the intermissions between roll-calls, Mr. Catchings gave a threat of the purpose of the majority to carry through their resolution by entering a motion to reconsider the vote by which the final adjournment resolution had been passed.

A call of the house was then ordered when 214 members answered "here."

The question recurred on the motion by Mr. Catchings that the ways and means committee be given permission to sit during adjournment. Again no quorum voted and Mr. Wilson moved a call of the house, when 216 members responded.

Dilatory Tactics.

Mr. Wilson then offered a resolution directing the sergeant-at-arms to bring in the absent members. This allowed Mr. Reed to get in more dilatory tactics and calls for a division, tellers and roll-calls followed on every motion made by the democrats.

Mr. Bland (dem., Mo.,) then made a motion to adjourn, when a unanimous "aye" arose from the republican side and a deep, rolling "no" came from the democratic side.

Reed Wants No Tyranny.

Mr. Reed created much amusement by saying that the chair (Mr. Tracey, dem., N. Y.) must not make any mistakes in his rulings. There should be no tyranny in the house (laughter).

The original motion of Mr. Catchings as well as the resolution directing the absent members to be brought in were then side-tracked, and the motion to adjourn was given right of way. The motion was lost.

The question then recurred on Mr. Wilson's resolution ordering the sergeant-at-arms to bring in absent members and to revoke all leaves of absence and it was agreed to—yeas, 156; nays, 12.

Members Wouldn't Come In.

At 6:10 o'clock Mr. Mallory made another motion to adjourn, which was voted down by the few members remaining in the house. Many of the members were at dinner in the restaurant and declined to be disturbed.

Mr. Tracey so far forgave Mr. Reed for his cutting little speech, while the former was in the chair, as to remark jokingly, that if the member from Maine (who was mainly responsible for the deadlock) should leave the house he would be brought back in chains.

Headed Off at the Depot.

When it became evident that it would be necessary to resort to the usual parliamentary methods to secure the presence of a quorum to do business in the house, a messenger was sent to the railroad stations to warn departing members that they must not leave the city. At the Pennsylvania station he found Representatives Fellow, Fitch, Dunphy, Magner and Cooney ready to leave for New York. He delivered his message, and they promised, he said, to return to the capitol. But all the same, they took the first train for New York. Upon being informed of this, Deputy Sergeant-at-Arms Hill sent a telegram to Wilmington, Del., directed to Col. Fellows and company, reading something like this:

Threatened to Shackel Them.

"If you do not return to Washington by first train, you will find me in New York to-morrow with shackles for each one of you."

When another motion to adjourn was made by Mr. Mallory at 6:25, the speaker refused to entertain it, and the house continued doing nothing while the sergeant-at-arms scoured the city for members.

Runaway Members Brought Back.

At a quarter past 7, the sergeant-at-arms appeared at the bar of the house with several representatives whom he had succeeded in arresting. Some gave hunger as an excuse for their absence, and one or two, illness. They were all excused after a motion to deduct one day's pay from each was defeated.

At 7:40, Speaker Crisp took the chair relieving Mr. Dockery, and Mr. Reed offered a compromise amendment to Mr. Wilson's motion which was agreed to.

Mr. Catchings thereupon moved to lay on the table his motion that the vote by which the house agreed to adjourn to-day at 3 o'clock, should lie on the table; and it was so ordered, and the house at 8:50 adjourned until to-day at noon.

It is the general belief this morning that an adjournment will be reached this evening.

HE WON'T GO TO CHINA.

Consul Hoge Recalled While on His Way to His Post of Duty.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 3.—Col. J. Hampton Hoge, recently appointed United States consul to Amoy, China, who was to have sailed hence on the Gaelic last evening, received an intimation by telegraph just before starting for the steamer that he had been removed from office by President Cleveland on account of certain charges that had been made against him, the nature of which the despatch failed to state.

Col. Hoge, on being interviewed, expressed great surprise at his recall, and stated his intention of proceeding to Washington at once to investigate the cause for the same.

The Charges Against Hoge.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—The charge against John Hampton Hoge, of Virginia, United States consul at Amoy, China, is said to be that he is not a fit person to be entrusted with the interests of this country abroad, and these allegations are now under investigation by Secretary Gresham. It is believed the charges preferred affect his integrity and his reputation for sobriety.

Good News Killed Him.

BELGRADE, Nov. 3.—Col. Djuritch, ex-minister of war, dropped dead yesterday upon hearing that the king had promoted him to the rank of general. Appoplexy was the cause of death.

THIRTY-FIVE DROWNED

City of Alexandria Burned Off Cuban Coast.

First Reports Placed the Loss of Life at Sixty, But This Proved an Exaggeration—The Fire Followed an Explosion in the Hold.

HAVANA, Nov. 3.—Yesterday a small boat in which were the second officer and eleven other persons from the City of Alexandria entered the harbor here and reported the loss of the steamer. They say that an explosion occurred Wednesday afternoon on board the steamer and that shortly afterward she was burning fiercely. The cause of the explosion is unknown.

Orders to Abandon the Vessel.

The fire gained such headway that Captain Hofman, seeing it was impossible to save the vessel, gave orders to abandon the ship.

The steamer had 400 hogsheads of rum aboard, and this, when it caught fire, caused immense masses of flame to ascend from the hatchways, the hatchways having been blown off.

There was great excitement aboard, but the officers soon succeeded in restoring order.

As soon as the fire alarm was sounded the crew went to their fire stations and the stewards began to carry provisions to the boats.

The Sea Was Calm.

There was comparatively little sea running, and but little difficulty was experienced in lowering away the boats, when the bell forward tolled the signal, "Abandon the ship." The scene of the burning of the steamer was only 25 miles from Havana, and the officers in command of the several boats, the captain, first officer, purser and chief engineer, had little fear of not reaching that port or some other place along the coast.

First Reports Exaggerated.

In the first moment of terror several men are said to have jumped into the sea. Those who arrived in the small boat said that 60 had been drowed, many of them through the upsetting of a boat. Later reports, however, show that none of the small boats upset and that many of those at first reported as lost reached Bacuranao in safety.

About Thirty-five Drowned.

The number of persons drowned is now believed to be 34 or 35. Among them were Herr Leibinger, a cabin passenger, whose home is in Germany, and several Cuban stevedores.

When the news of the disaster reached here a number of tugs were sent to the burning steamer to render whatever assistance they could. Two of these tugs returned, bringing 19 survivors from the vessel.

Minnie Palmer Files Her Reply.

LONDON, Nov. 3.—Minnie Palmer has filed her response to the petition of her husband, John Rogers, who applied to the British divorce court some time ago for a divorce. She holds that the British courts have no jurisdiction in the case, as she and her husband are American citizens and are present in England only in pursuit of professional duties.

Confident of Returning Health.

HAMBURG, Nov. 3.—Prince Bismarck presented a huge tankard of beer to the voters of Friedrichsruh. It was kept at the polls during the parliamentary election and Bismarck took a sip from it when he went to record his vote. "Schweninger will not allow me to take more," he said, "but I shall do better soon."

Republican for Mayor of Chicago.

CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—At a caucus of republican aldermen held at the Great Northern hotel, Geo. B. Swift, alderman of the eleventh ward was selected as mayor pro tem by a vote of 20 to 14, for Alderman Madden. The republicans have a majority of eight in the city council.

From an Asylum to Death.

ELIZABETH, N. J., Nov. 3.—Daniel McIntosh, aged 21 years, who had just been released from the Morris Plains asylum, escaped from his home here yesterday. He wandered on the Central railroad track and was struck by an engine and instantly killed.

Strike on the Big Four.

CAIRO, Ill., Nov. 3.—The engineers, firemen and yard switchmen of the Big Four railroad are out on strike because of an order announcing that a heavy cut in wages would be made. All traffic is suspended.

Lobengula's Defeat.

LONDON, Nov. 3.—Despatches from Cape Town this morning give details of the Matabele defeat. The despatch says that a thousand of Lobengula's impi were killed and wounded, and that the king with his retreating followers are now surrounded.

Children Bury Old Liberty in Flowers

CINCINNATI, Nov. 3.—The children of the public schools of this city formed in line yesterday and marched by the car on the river front upon which rests the Liberty bell. It took nearly five hours for the procession to pass, at the end of which time the car and bell were hidden from sight under a mountain of fragrant flowers, thrown by the children as they marched by.

WANTS OUT AGAIN.

Lysaight Claimed to Have Forfeited a Conditional Pardon.

AUBURN, N. Y., Nov. 3.—An unusual proceeding was held in Justice Rumsey's court of oyer and terminer in this city, last night. It was the trial of James Lysaight, alias James Burns, of Rochester on a charge of intoxication. Lysaight on May 13, 1889, was sentenced to Auburn prison for 15 years. On January 13, of this year, the prisoner received a commutation from the governor and he was discharged. A special provison was prescribed that if he should indulge in intoxicating liquors during a period of five years from the time of his discharge he must be returned to the prison and serve out the remainder of his term.

In June last he was arrested in a Rochester saloon for stealing a watch. He was taken to the station house and charged with grand larceny and intoxication. Before conviction for either offense he was brought back to prison on the strength of the special clause in the commutation.

Tuesday of this week, John H. Keefe, an attorney, of Rochester, commenced habeas corpus proceedings before Justice Rumrey. He argued that the man had not been recommitted to prison and he moved for a discharge of the prisoner. The court denied the motion and changed the order of things by directing that Lysaight show cause why he should not forfeit his commutation.

A trial to determine whether he had violated the conditional pardon resulted last night in the jury rendering a verdict that the man had been drinking on the evening in question, but that he was not intoxicated. The question of the illegality of the special clause whereby Lysaight was returned to prison will be heard to-day.

TRIED TO PLUNDER A TRAIN.

But an Engineer is Equal to the Situation.

CLEVELAND, Nov. 3.—A dozen tramps boarded a special freight as it left the Lake Shore yards about midnight. They commenced to set the brakes, which retarded the speed of the train and when the conductor and brakemen appeared they were seized and bound.

The engineer, comprehending the situation, uncoupled his engine, ran to a switch and back into the yards for help. A squad of officers were loaded on the engine and sent back to the train. On their appearance the tramps fled. Several cars filled with valuable merchandise had been broken into, but the thieves were unable to make away with their plunder.

The Buzzard Outlaws.

LANCASTER, Pa., Nov. 3.—Mart Buzzard, one of the men charged with robbing Isaiah Schaeffer and murderously assaulting him at Groffdale last week, has made a confession, the details of which are withheld, implicating his brother, Abe Buzzard, the notorious leader of the Welsh mountain outlaws, who was recently pardoned from the Eastern penitentiary, since which time he has been traveling through the country as an evangelist. Abe was arrested. Schaeffer, who it was thought was out of danger, has had a relapse, and is now in a critical condition. Physicians are probing for the ball.

Clue at Last.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—The detectives of this city have obtained information as to the identity of the fiend who attempted to kill Governor Roswell P. Flower with an infernal machine in September, 1892. It will be remembered that the governor received a letter of warning, and it now appears that the machine and letter were both sent by some party. The infernal machine was mailed first but the letter which was afterwards written reached Governor Flower first. After sending the machine the fiend doubtless became alarmed and wrote the note of warning.

Treasury Appointments.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—Secretary Carlisle has appointed P. C. Petrie of New York city assistant inspector of hulls of steam vessels at New York, and Thomas F. Morris of New York chief of engraving division of the bureau of engraving and printing, at Washington. He removed John F. Barstow, assistant inspector of hulls of steam vessels at New York.

George Bock Sentenced.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—George Bock, the dangerous crank who wrote threatening letters to scenic artist Gus Volz, and when arrested tried to kill Police Captain O'Connor, has been sent to Blackwell's Island for six months in default of $300 bail.

California Grape Juice.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 3.—C. J. Wetmore, chief state viticulturist, reports that the vintage of the present season will be about 18,000,000 gallons, or about 3,000,000 gallons in excess of last year's yield, and it will be of good quality generally.

Armour Gives $50,000.

CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—Philip D. Armour has given his personal check for $50,000 to the Armour institute and authorized Dr. F. W. Gunsaulus to spend the whole amount at Jackson park for scientific apparatus and collections for the institute.

Coughlan's Matrimonial Affairs.

SOURIS, P. E. I., Oct. 3.—The English lady who claims to be the wife of the actor Charles Coughlan is now on Prince Edward Island and expects to go to New York in a few days with her adopted daughter Gertie.

SIX DEAD; OTHERS HURT

The Boiler in a Car Stable Explodes and Hurls Wreckage in Every Direction—People Killed Across the Street from the Wrecked Stable.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—A boiler in the stables of the Dry Dock, East Broadway & Battery surface railroad company, at 14th street and avenue B, exploded yesterday afternoon and tore out of the building, causing death and destruction. The section of the building in which the boiler was located collapsed.

The boiler flew across the street and struck a double tenement just below the first story. The side of the building was crushed in.

Three men were instantly killed three have since died and nearly a score are injured, several seriously.

The explosion came with the quickness of thought and probably no one will ever know its exact cause. But few people were passing along 14th street at the time. One horse car with a solitary passenger stood in front of the building.

Smashed in a Tenement.

There was a mighty roar, a crash of falling bricks and broken timber.

Like a shot the boiler was lifted out of the stable and flew across the street. It struck the tenement directly opposite with a force that shook the whole block. Windows were smashed every where in the vicinity. Screams from the score of wounded rang out wildly. Women with children in their arms rushed in a panic to the street.

Fireman John J. Henry, of engine company No. 5, was passing up the street a block away. The shock lifted him from his feet. He turned, and seeing what had happened sent out an alarm.

Before the engines came a second alarm was sounded and then came hurry calls for ambulances by the dozen.

Wounded Dropped Everywhere.

Men staggering with wounds that in some cases were fatal, ran through the street and dropped everywhere.

There were three who never moved. They had met instantaneous death. Thomas Hassan was standing in front of the railing of a house just across the street from the stables. A corner of the boiler struck him on the skull and sent him flying 20 feet in the hall. He never breathed again.

Patrick Quinn was in the rear of the stable. A piece of flying tube struck him on the head and crushed it in. He never moved from where he had fallen.

Samuel McMullen was standing in the street. A piece of stone, weighing fifty pounds struck him and killed him instantly.

Two little Gallagher children, Annie, aged 7, and Michael, aged 5 years, were playing in the street in front of their house directly opposite. Fragments of brick struck them and they fell bleeding from a dozen wounds.

Storekeepers Injured.

John Rhul has a liquor store directly opposite, and on the west side of the hallway John Peters had a little grocery. The end of the boiler struck the upper corner of the liquor store. Rhul's bar was demolished. The lower section of the building was carried away, and with it fell the whole front of the second story. Rhul was standing at the rear end of his bar, away from the window, when the crash came. A piece of timber struck him in the back and knocked him down. Grocer Peters was also in his store at the time, when a mass of brick fell on his leg carrying away some of the flesh. A Chinese laundry was wrecked. Next door William Dart has a barber shop. Dart was shaving a customer at the time and was knocked down and seriously injured.

William Sheehan, the driver of the horse car that stood directly in front of the stables, was struck by a large rock. He had his ear torn off and his skull fractured. His injuries are fatal.

One Man's Miraculous Escape.

The two car horses standing in front of the building were killed and the side of the car was demolished. The lone passenger in it escaped uninjured.

Thomas Lowell, 49 years old, was standing near the front of the stable with William Eagan, an employe of the company, when the debris showered about them and they were dragged out with their skulls fractured and chests crushed in. They were dying when sent to Bellevue.

The fortunate feature of the whole calamity was that no fire attended it.

Horses Killed.

When first the work of tearing away the ruins began the groans that came from beneath them told the rescuers that some one was there and if the men, who worked hard and well, needed any stimulation, that was sufficient for them. After an hour had gone by a mass of broken lumber was carried away and the dead body of a horse was disclosed. A piece of rope was tied to it and it was dragged to the street. The removal of the horse resulted in another horrible discovery. Directly under the spot where the horse had lain the men found the mangled body of John Gillispie, an hostler.

Seven injured horses were shot by the S. P. C. A. officers, and a dozen dead bodies of these faithful animals have so far been taken from the ruins.

FACTS FOR VOTERS

Issued by the Democratic City Executive Committee of Elizabeth, and Showing the Legislative Record of the Republican Candidate for Senator.

At the very outset of a Democratic administration, which the people have placed in power over the nation to reform the extravagance of Republican sway, we find our opponents, in spite of their defeat on all the general issues with which they have formerly managed to control the country, now working with malignant cunning on a single public question, so as to secure from Democratic voters such a support of their entire ticket that they may be able to point to a Democratic reverse, prominent enough to be of national importance.

In this county, the nomination of James E. Martine for Senator, and John S. Sauer for Sheriff, on a broad Democratic platform, fills all the requirements of the hour, and their election would guarantee to the people all needed legislation and care for the maintenance of law and order and the suppression of vice and crime of every description, wherever located. We trust no Democrat or independent voter will allow himself to be deceived and join in a movement which would practically be a rebuke to our distinguished senators, who have just led so conspicuously in the fight, which has resulted in the first great victory on the lines laid down by the Democratic party last fall. No independent candidate asks your vote to record a condemnation of the absence of moral considerations in local legislation; but an unyielding Republican partisan seeks to steal the livery of heaven—the better to serve the party of his allegiance. Do you doubt this statement? Look at the legislative record of Foster M. Voorhees. When a member of Assembly in 1888, he voted to take from a Democratic Governor his lawful prerogative to appoint various State officers and transfer this power to a Republican caucus. In this raid upon the rights of the executive, nothing was spared (which was worth appropriating), to satisfy Republican greed.

Acts to deprive the Governor of his right to appoint Riparian Commissioners, Commissioners of Fisheries, Sinking Fund Commissioners and others, were all passed over the veto of Governor Green.

Mr. Voorhees voted steadily for this usurpation, in regard to which the Governor declares "There is no possible excuse for this legislation unless it is the desire on the part of the dominant party to secure to itself the appointment to such positions as it can control by legislation."

In 1889 Mr. Voorhees was the Republican leader in the Assembly, and vigorously opposed the wise and prudent measures for the control of the State's finances and the regulation of expenditures under which all necessary obligations have been met, and a liberal surplus established in the State Treasury. Mr. Voorhees declared this impossible; and, preferring extravagance to retrenchment, introduced Assembly Bill No. 473, which provided for a State Tax, imposing a charge of three quarters of a mill on real and personal property. The rise of Democratic power in the Assembly sealed the fate of this measure, which the experience of the past four years has shown to be entirely unnecessary.

To unsound financial views and partisan greed for temporary advantage, must be added an utter disregard for the inalienable rights of the people, as shown in his action on the Sunset Election and Personal Registration Bills.

Assembly Bill 164, 1888, provided that the polls should open at 6 a. m. and close at sunset. This was one of a series of bills which were passed by the Republicans that session for the purpose of disfranchising workingmen, the scheme being to have work continued in shops and factories on Election Day full time, and thus by the early closing of the polls to render it impossible for many operatives to get in their vote. This measure was vetoed by Governor Green, and subsequently passed with Mr. Voorhees's aid. Assembly Bill 165 provided that every person should personally register, and was designed to shut out workingmen in large cities. This bill was also passed over the veto of the Governor, Mr. Voorhees taking a prominent part and voting for the bill on all occasions.

A long list of acts desired by laboring men might be cited, which received such opposition from Mr. Voorhees as might be expected at the hands of an accomplished corporation lawyer. It is enough to mention that Mr. Voorhees voted against the following bills:

Assembly Bill No. 91—"An Act for the protection of employes."

Assembly Bill No. 93—"A supplement to a general act relating to factories and workshops and the employment, safety, health and work hours of operatives."

Assembly Bill No. 119—"An act in relation to the inspection of steam boilers and the examination of engineers for the better protection of life and property against accident by steam boiler explosions."

Assembly Bill No. 147—"An act for the protection of life and limb."

Assembly Bill No. 34—"An act prohibiting agreements in restraint of trade and providing a penalty therefor."

1889.

Senate Bill No. 37—"An act for the protection of employes."

Assembly Bill No. 482—"An act to regulate the hours of labor of employes of cable traction and steam railroads."

Assembly Bill No. 237—"An act to extend and regulate the liability of employes to make compensation for personal injuries suffered by employes in their service."

Senate Bill No. 280—"To establish a Bureau of Labor Statistics."

Senate Bill No. 110—"Supplement to an act to limit the age and employment hours of children, minors and women, and to appoint an inspector for the enforcement of the same."

1890.

Assembly Bill No. 134—"An act to provide for the weekly payment of wages."

Assembly Bill No. 402—"An act to require an impression, stamp and brand upon all goods, wares, merchandise or other article manufactured for sale by convict labor in any penitentiary, reformatory, prison, school or other establishment in which convict labor is employed."

The non-partisanship that is being evoked, to support this pronounced party adherent, in an apparent pose of deserving independent support, is hard to understand. Let us hope no one can be induced to abandon well settled convictions, by the deceitful attitude which some persons are assuming as to the local character of the present campaign. Remember that upon the election at this time of James E. Martine, may possibly depend the choice of a Democratic Senator of the United States.

HAS TO SAY THIS TO KEEP HIS JOB.

This Story Entirely Different from What He Told His Friends About Town and at the Club.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE PRESS:—In an article printed in your columns yesterday, you stated that I was discharged by Mr. Runyon as reporter for The Courier, because I failed to furnish a story of the action of the Crescent Wheelmen. You are entirely wrong. I was not discharged nor was there any disagreement between Mr. Runyon and myself regarding the matter. Mr. Runyon expressed a desire that I should free myself of such arrangements as conflicted with my work as reporter for his paper. In order that I might not be again placed in a position conflicting with my business, I resigned as Secretary and Treasurer of the Wheelmen. Your aspersions upon Mr. Runyon were untrue and absolutely unjust. H. S THOMAS.

Plainfield, Nov. 3.

[Does Mr. Thomas forget what he trembilingly told his fellow members at the Wheelmen's meeting Wednesday night? That story is in the possession of The Press, but we hope Mr. Thomas will spare himself the pain of forcing us to publish it.—Ed.]

HE'S A HUSTLER FROM PLAINFIELD.

Something About the Brooklyn L's Oldest Conductor, Now a Despatcher.

In a recent issue the Brooklyn Times published the likeness of an energetic-looking young man from Plainfield, and said:

This is a pretty good picture of Peter J. Collins. If Mr. Collins had sat for his photograph with the blue cap he used to wear perhaps the thousands who know him would recognize the likeness more readily. Mr. Collins wearing the derby hat indicates to the railroad man that he is above the cap degree; in other words, he can wear the derby while on duty. Mr. Collins was the first conductor appointed on the Brooklyn Elevated Railroad system, and he had the honor to conduct the first train over each of the lines in turn as they were opened. Mr. Collins is now a train despatcher at one of the most important points on the system—the foot of Broadway. He was appointed in recognition of his faithful work as a conductor. Until he was promoted Mr. Collins was the oldest conductor on the road. When he used to bang open the car doors and energetically yell the name of the stations everybody remarked what vim he had.

Mr. Collins earned a reputation as a good conductor and now he is turning his attention to a wider field. Up in East New York he is known as a very shrewd politician and is at the head of the Brownsville contingent of the Democrats of that section. Mr. Collins is a warm admirer of Police Capt. Henry French and he has labored hard in that popular gentleman's cause. Two thousand independent Democrats swear by Mr. Collins and they are talking of nominating him for Supervisor of the Twenty-sixth Ward. If he would put as much vim into helping run the county's affairs as he used in running trains then Mr. Collins would surely make things hum. Mr. Collins was born in New Jersey, and his home is in Plainfield. He has been in the railroad business ever since he was big enough to board a train.

THE BANJO ON TOP.

Gentle Woman May Enjoy This Bi Club Show.

The home of the banjo, in this country at least, was in the darkey quarters of the south, in the cabin of "the old folks at home". Later it took its place in the low-down music halls, but now it is the fad of the fairest of the fair, who essay it with more or less success.

Brooks and Denton have done more than any other professionals to put the banjo where it now is—on top. Hitherto they have been heard in Plainfield only at the smokers of the Bicycle Club, but, in response to many requests, the club has arranged for a public concert to be given in the club-house next week Saturday night. This will give the gentler sex a chance to hear them. But we will give the ladies a tip: have your corset strings loosely drawn, for Marshall P. Wilder will be there, also, and you must leave room in your "diagram" for a laugh which will shake you from centre to circumference. This might be dangerous with a tight corset.

THE PATRIARCH.

Twas n't Boomed Right.

224 persons drifted in and out of Music Hall last night, some really interested in the anti-race-track meeting, others merely seeking a place to keep warm. The 224, by actual count, included the clergymen ou the stage. Three men from out of town spoke against race-track legislation. The meeting was liberally advertised in the two Republican organs exclusively. That the audience was so small does not speak well for their advertising influence.

DEATH OF BONES AND TAMBO.

GEORGE THATCHER TALKS OF THE DECLINE OF MINSTRELSY.

Plainfield's Veteran Old-Timer Says the Modern People Have No Taste for Minstrels of the Original Plantation Character—How the Changeable Whim of the Public Rules.

Probably no distinctive branch of the theatrical profession has suffered such a marked decline as minstrelsy. Blackface entertainments were once in nearly universal demand, and a good minstrel show was certain to attract immense audiences and make money for managers.

Now the reverse is true. Theatrical capitalists hesitate amd meditate long before they put their money into such ventures; the few companies now upon the road give entertainments which have largely lost their old-time plantation character, depending on acts and people that have no more to do with the true nature of minstrelsy than a song and dance in a Shakespearian tragedy.

Managers say they have been obliged so to change the character of minstrel shows owing to the demands of the public for novelty. While this may be true, it must be acknowledged that such novelty has been the dagger which has pierced the heart of the burnt cork entertainments. It may have served the supposed appetite of the moment to present "minstrels" gorgeously arrayed in silks, satins and diamonds, and in white faces, and framed in a setting whose garishness could only result in one thing—a most unpleasant picture to the mind of the true lover of the theatre. These spectacular features died an early death, as they deserved, for they had no place in such an entertainment; the public would not tolerate them, and with their demise minstrelsy was practically disrobed and has disappeared under cover. How long it will stay hidden is problematical. The tastes of a new generation may bring it to the surface.

There lives in Plainfield a man who has been one of the best known and one of the most successful black-face artists and minstrel managers, George Thatcher, now one of the owners and principal actors in "Africa". He talked interestingly about the decline in minstrelsy to a reporter a few nights ago. Said he:

"Minstrelsy died hard. It died in a fruitless effort to elaborate itself. In its day there was no more entertaining or popular performance before the people.

"Then the hand of farce-comedy came into the minstrel performance and stole away many of its most entertaining features and brightest lights. With the decline of minstrelsy came the rise and popularity of farce-comedy, which is now certainly having a remarkable run in the favor of the public.

"I have been identified with minstrelsy since 1863, when I first blacked my face in my native city of Baltimore. I was for four years a member of the old SanFrancisco minstrels, that famous company of jolly souls which numbered in its ranks the four greatest men who ever hid behind burned cork—Billy Birch, Dave Wambold, Charley Backus and Billy Bernard. But fortune shone on them through the medium of public favor only for a limited time, and then their popularity began to wane. The fickle public taste demanded a change. The great performers were at their wit's end as to what change to suggest. It was while searching for new ideas with which to revolutionize their performance that the hand of death entered their ranks and took away from the black-faced semi-circle forever Wambold, Backus and Bernard, and the SanFrancisco minstrels after that lived only in the history of their past merry making.

"Shortly after this Haverly inaugurated new features in having a large number of people in the first part, and songs, dances and drills performed by large numbers of men. His widely-quoted expression of 'Forty—count them—forty' seemed to give minstrelsy new life.

"Then Primrose, West and myself added another innovation in having a portion of the people in the first part appear in white faces and fancy costumes. Then came the farce comedy. Bright, clean fun, good singing, graceful dancing and pretty faces constitute the bouquet which is today the most attractive to American theatregoers; yet they want a sequence of ideas, a connection of incidents, or in other words a continuous story or semblance of a plot into which humor, singing, dancing and nearly all kinds of stage diversion can be happily and consistently introduced.

"In the amusement business no staid lines or rules can be followed to insure success. The thing to be studied is the whim of the public. The manager who caters to the public's ideas instead of his own is the one who will find fame and fortune."

HOPE CHAPEL'S SUCCESSFUL SHOW.

Pleasant Evening Passed Under the Auspices of the Ladies Aid Society.

The entertainment in Hope chapel last night for the benefit of the Ladies Aid Society was a brilliant success. The chapel was crowded to its utmost capacity, and a good sum was realized to help the treasury of the Society.

The farce at the end of the programme kept the audience in roars of laughter. The cast was exceptionally good, and Miss Lizzie Duveir as "Katrinea" won great applause. The recitations and musical selections were all well received. After the entertainment coffee and cake were served to the audience. The following is the programme:

Piano Solo.....Miss Firstbrook
Vocal Duet—"I Live to Love Thee".....Messrs. Tallamy Brothers
Recitation—Selected.....William Newcorn

TOPICS OF THE TOWN.

FREE-LANCE COMMENTS ON PLAINFIELD MATTERS.

That Election Day Paper Chase—Women and Smokers—A New Musical Club—Gossip That Will Be Discussed in Home and Club.

It may be remembered by readers of these columns that the Bicycle Club gave a smoker some time ago, at which was present a representative gathering of men of the town. It may also be remembered that the boxing match which was to end the programme was itself ended suddenly by one of the contestants slipping and striking his head against a chair. The man was slightly stunned, so the match was called off.

Of course the affair came to the ears of the women, and equally of course the facts were picturesquely ornamented.

It was at a meeting of one of the numerous women's clubs of which Plainfield boasts that the matter first came out.

This club, which is a well-known organization and has presumably for its object the improvement of its members' minds, meets in the early part of the week. In the interval between the Saturday night on which the smoker took place, and the following meeting of the club the horrors of that boxing match had multiplied even as do the cholera bacilli in fly time.

It was reported with bated breath that a terrible battle between the boxers had taken place. It was told how the floor had flowed with blood, while the audience, raised to a pitch of brute excitement, egged on the contestants. In short, these misguided women perturbed themselves egregiously about something of which they knew nothing, to the great ill fame of their husbands and everyone else who attended the innocent smoker.

The members of these women's clubs take themselves and their clubs very seriously, and woe betide the unfortunate male who dares question their usefulness. The clubs are innocent when they confine themselves to their legitimate functions, but their gossip is hardly improving.

One of the pleasantest things that the young people have to look forward to in the immediate future is the paper chase to be given from the Holly farm election day.

All who are to take part will meet at the Holly home on Park avenue, at 3. The hounds will be given the usual start, and everyone will follow, some on horseback and the rest in carriages. The course of the run will be in the road most of the way, so that carriages will be able to keep up with the procession.

After the chase is over, all will return to the house for a jolly supper.

The affair will of course be very informal, but if everyone has as thoroughly enjoyable a time as did the guests at the hunt breakfast given by William Palmer Smith last December its success is assured.

The frequenters of the Crescent Riding Academy who have been fortunate enough to be invited will doubtless turn out in the saddle; but I fancy that the collection of horseflesh, with one or two notable exceptions, will hardly compare with the clean-limbed hunters that followed the baying hounds on the Netherwood cross-country chase.

The Hospital Fair is over, and the receipts are much larger than anyone expected. Few people can withstand the temptation to buy at a bazar of this kind, and the temptations in this case were exceptional. It was the prettiest thing of the kind ever seen in Plainfield, and it was largely due to the wisdom of the managers in choosing the Casino as an abiding place. When a dance was promised to the girls who helped at the tables some doubt was expressed as to the crowd that would claim the floor as soon as dancing began. With admission at a quarter, a fine floor and good music, many people expected that outsiders would take advantage of the opportunity to have a good dance. But these people were mistaken. The few outsiders who did come in were manifestly uncomfortable, but there was little difference in the set dancing from that seen at the Assemblies. This all goes to show that the saying about birds of a feather is true, and that in this extremely democratic country the various social cliques stick together with truly continental persistence. The curious part of it is that the Assembly set would be just as uncomfortable at the functions of the other people as the latter were in the Casino.

The musical club that was organized a couple of years ago among the girls in town has spread out its arms and taken in members galore. Everyone who could play or sing ever so little, and some that could do neither, were absorbed into this organization, with the natural result of lowering the average of the performances heard at their various meetings. When the club was formed it was decided that no man should ever cross the threshold of their meeting rooms. Now there is really very little talent in Plainfield as far as instrumental music is concerned, and some of the members of the club who are willing to sacrifice the extreme independence of the sex to the interest of a little more variety in their music have broached the idea of starting another club to include all those men who can do anything in the musical line and who are otherwise eligible. Active steps have already been taken in the matter. The club will meet in the evenings, and music will be the primary instead of the minor object of the meetings.

HARDSHIP TO LITTLE ONES.

Unjust Discipline of Classes for the Misbehavior of a Few.

Complaint comes from several families having small children in the public schools of the treatment that some of the younger classes receive when one or more of their number misbehave.

"I think it a shame"—said an indignant parent—"that one child should be kept in on account of the ill-doing of some of the others. The teachers do not realize"—said he—"that the nerves of the more sensitive children are stretched to their highest tension by the long hours of study, and that an additional hour or two is apt to break down a child entirely. My little girl sometimes comes home at 4, crying because she has been kept in with the whole class on account of the misbehavior of some of its members. It is not right, and I hope Supt. Maxson will effect reform in this direction."

JOLLITY IN THE VALLEY.

Much Merriment Afforded by Mr. and Mrs. Pedeflous.

Pedeflous's Hotel in Washington Valley was the scene of a merry dance and a first-class supper, given by Mr. and Mrs Pedeflous to their many friends in Plainfield, New York and Brooklyn. Among those who enjoyed the hospitality of the host and hostess were William Reinman, Miss Chapot, Mr. Proudhomme and sister, A. Z. Lezzi and wife, H. Zergerbie, C. D. Baldwin, R. Baldwin, H. Baldwin, G. Willom, C. E. Austin, justice of the peace, Warren township, J. C. Cooper, P. Burnett, H. Myers, F. Pope and R. H. Smith. J. E. Reinmann acted as Marshal and H. P. Williams, P. Bowers, J. D. Bornmann and L. Casenove as Committee of Arrangements. It was early this morning before the good nights were said, and many were the wishes that just such another affair should be given soon.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—People say U. B. Crane has the best line of sweaters they have seen this season.

—Houses are being built on Taylor & MacDonald's Netherwood lots at $1,600 and $2,000 a piece.

—The fog was so thick at 3 a. m. that an observer at Park avenue and Front street could not see the lights of railroad trains that could be heard passing over the Park avenue bridge.

—Have you seen those fur caps and children's sets at the International Fur Store, 114 Park avenue? Mr. Karet, the gentlemanly proprietor, does n't object to showing his stock, whether you buy or not.

Thanks to Warren Chapel.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE PRESS:—Permit me to express to the late trustees of the Warren mission and to the trustees of the Warren chapel our heartfelt thanks for the privilege of worshiping in their building for so long a time.

We are thankful to say that during that time we have grown, and through God's grace have been enabled to secure a building of our own. May the richest blessings of God follow them in their own work, which they began in this place!

With Ely's Cream Balm a child can be treated without pain and with perfect safety. It cures catarrh, hay fever and colds in the head. It is easily applied into the nostrils and gives immediate relief. Price 50 cents.

My catarrh was very bad; for 30 years I have been troubled with it—have tried a number of remedies without relief. A druggist advised Ely's Cream Balm. I have used only one bottle and I can say I feel like a new man. I make this voluntary statement that others may know of the Balm.—J. W. Matheweon, lawyer, Pawtucket, R. I.

An Engine Afire.

Engine No. 388, attached to a westbound Blue Line train, broke down when nearing this city about 4 yesterday afternoon. The woodwork between the boiler and the outer casing took fire, and a stream of water had to be turned on in order to check the flames. The train was delayed nearly half an hour.

Good Luck and Didn't Go Far.

Martin Adelman of Newark, brother of the Superintendent of the Plainfield Street Railway, and his friend Mr. Belcher of Irvington, were out hunting yesterday in the vicinity of South Plainfield and New Market. They bagged 34 rabbits.

$100 Reward, $100.

The reader of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer $100 for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address

MR. FISK KNOCKS 'EM DOWN.

THE CHERUBIC COUNCILMAN MAKES A NIFTY AUCTIONEER.

He is Ably Assisted by Mr. Kaufman, and They Get Rid of Everything Left Over from the Hospital Fair—Profits Approximate $1,500, which is a Substantial Benefit.

The Hospital Fair reopened yesterday afternoon with a very large attendance, and the crowd increased until late in the evening, when the Casino was practically filled with people. Business went on briskly at all the tables, so that at 10:30 when the auctioneering began there were but few articles left to knock down to the highest bidder. Charles Fisk was the first to start the auction. Mounted on a chair behind one of the fancy goods tables he called loudly to the men and women to admire the quality of the articles for sale. Rag dolls, pens, penholders and pen-wipers were quickly disposed of, none of them bringing surprisingly high prices.

Meanwhile W. T. Kaufman had climbed to the top of the table, where household articles and kitchen utensils were for sale, and, with a muffin pan in one hand and a chocolate grater in the other, solicited the patronage of the crowd.

Enthusiasm for buying things at auction did not last long, and soon Mr. Kaufman was begging the people to accept a large and juicy cake as a gift. One rash man found himself possessed of a pail of lard which he carried around as if it were a baby, and he did not know just what to do with it. Many of the tables were entirely sold out, and what few things were left were all disposed of by Messrs. Fisk and Kaufman.

At the houshold table copies of The Press of yesterday, donated by the publisher, and containing a full account of the opening day of the fair, at 5 cents apiece sold rapidly and netted a few extra dollars to serve the grand total. Many of the most attractive articles were chanced off, and the winners secured them for a song. Mr. Edwards's peasant girl picture "On the Dunes" was disposed of at $1 a share, and the fortunate person who won it had no cause to complain of the investment.

It was estimated last night that about $1,500 had been netted at the two-days sale, but it was impossible to judge accurately of the amount made. The proceeds of the first day amounted to $916, and the "gate receipts" of yesterday were over $60.

The promised dance to the girls that helped at the tables began about 9. The floor was perfect, and the music was exceptionally good. Messrs. Conde and Rogers with their men made dancing a pleasure, and their choice selections and excellent time were remarked by all.

Among those dancing were:

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. William T. Kaufman, Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Burnett, Miss Lawrence, Miss Erskine, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Tracy, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Ginna, Miss Haviland, Miss Sortell, Mr. and Mrs. William L. Saunders, Mrs. B. A. Hegeman, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Reed, Mr. and Mrs. Pliny Fisk, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fisk, Miss Ritchie, Miss Lillian Erskine, Miss May Tracy, Miss Moran, Miss Lillian Fritts, Miss Emily Sandford, Miss Margaret Tracy, Miss Abbott, Miss Whiton, Miss Murphy, Miss Harte, Miss Dumont. Miss Maude VanBoskerck, Miss Lizzie VanBoskerck, Miss Huntington, Miss Hawley, Miss Corlies, Miss Talmadge, Miss Streull, Mr. and Mrs. Louis G. Timpson, Miss Waring, Miss Florence Waring, O. G. Waring, Dexter O. Tiffany, Irving West, Sherwood West, James Murray, Jules Erickson, Siegfried Arens, Howard Huntington, Henry Bushnell, Gerald Lowe, Edward VanBuren, Laureps VanBuren, J. S. Anthony and Wesley Abbott.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

W. H. Sebring and bride returned to Plainfield from their bridal trip today.

Howard Teel, of Chicago, brother of Clarence Teel of this city, is in town for a few days.

The Rev. J. W. Richardson will address the Y. M. C. A. meeting Sunday afternoon at 4:15.

The Rev. Dr. Page, of New York, will preach in the Church of the Heavenly Rest Sunday.

Halstead C. Compton arrived home today from Chicago, where he has been since October 17.

W. D. Craig and wife arrived in this city, yesterday, from Monmouth county. Tomorrow morning they will sail on a Mallory Line steamer for Galveston, Texas, en route for Mr. Craig's plantation near Graham.

J. A. Karet, of the International Fur Store on Park avenue, will be married November 20, to Miss Laura Kahn. The wedding will take place at the home of the bride, 31 Grant street, Newark. Mr. and Mrs. Karet will live in Plainfield and will go to housekeeping at 19 Grove street.

Fire Patrol Next Wednesday.

In Music Hall next Wednesday night "The Fire Patrol", a new melodrama, will be presented. It was written by the author of "The Midnight Alarm", which played a successful engagement here but a short time ago. "The Fire Patrol" was presented in New York city for three weeks in the early part of this season and was warmly received. It serves to introduce a fire-patrol wagon and shows the interior of a gold stamp mill in the Black Hills where the ore is crushed as it comes from the mines. Speaking of this scene the New York Evening Telegram said: "The Homestake Stamp Mill with the ponderous ore crushers in full operation and a fully equipped fire-patrol wagon set the audience wild with delight. There has been nothing produced in years more realistic and dramatically thrilling than 'The Fire Patrol'. It is a decided hit." Lovers of that kind of plays will be fully supplied with realism and will turn out in force.

OCEAN-RECORD BREAKING.

The Campania Within Seven Minutes of 5 1-2 Days.

(Special to The Press.)

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—The Cunard Line steamship Campania passed Daunt's Rock, near Queenstown, at 1:31 o'clock this morning, the time of her passage being only five days, twelve hours and seven minutes. Thus has been practically realized the dream of an ocean passage to Europe in five and one-half days. The recent performances of Campania and her sister ship Lucania, are sufficient ground for assurance that not only will the passage soon be made in five days and a half, but in even less time.

DETROIT REACHES RIO.

Naval Department Relieved, as Some Anxiety for Her Safety Was Felt.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—Late last evening Secretary Herbert received a cable message from Captain Picking, in command of the United States naval forces at Rio Janeiro, announcing the arrival of the cruiser Detroit, Commander Brown on there. Beyond this information there was apparently nothing new concerning the Brazilian situation at the navy department.

The arrival of the Detroit caused Secretary Herbert and naval officers generally considerable relief, not on account of the additional strength her presence will give to the American squadron at Rio, but because there was much anxiety felt over her safety in view of the belief that she is somewhat top-heavy, like the Machias and other vessels.

When Secretary Herbert was seen he said he did not care to say anything about matters at Rio. Concerning the reports of sensational happenings there affecting the United States, Mr. Herbert said that if people wished "to conjure up ghosts" of serious occurrences they were at perfect liberty to do so.

The fitting out of armed vessels in this country for the use of the Brazilian government in the revolution has suggested enquiries as to how far this movement of President Peixoto can be carried without fracturing our national obligations of non-interference.

Yacht Javelin for Brazil.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—The Press says to-day that the schooner yacht Javelin has been purchased from E. D. Morgan for the Brazilian government.

TORTURED BY BURGLARS.

An Old Farmer and His Daughter Shockingly Treated.

ERIE, Pa., Nov. 3.—Three masked burglars made a raid on the Crowleys, wealthy farmers in Harbor Creek, early yesterday morning. Failing to find money in Mrs. John Crowley's house, they demolished every article of furniture in the house with axes.

Entering the home of Bartholomew Crowley, aged 80 years, they shamefully abused the old gentleman and his daughter, Mrs. J. H. Carey.

After beating and threatening Mrs. Carey's life if she did not give up the money, they began to cut the rings from her fingers, slashing her hands in a frightful manner.

While engaged in that brutal work they were interrupted by old Mr. Crowley. Shutting Mrs. Carey up stairs they turned their attention to her father. They beat and choked him alternately and then poured oil over him and were about to set fire to him, when they heard Mrs. Carey jump from the second story window.

Fearing the alarm they abandoned their fiendish work. Mrs. Carey managed to elude the robbers and reached a neighbor's house where she is being cared for, but her physician says she cannot recover. The fiends escaped.

That Tuesday Auction.

A great many people since the last sale in August have said to Taylor & MacDonald "I did not think for one moment you would sell without reserve, or I should have been there".

See that you don't overlook the fact that on election day they sell again under the same conditions, $5 down on each lot and $5 monthly; no taxes, no interest and no auctioneer fees.

A YOUNG GIRL'S FORTUNE.

AN INTERESTING SKETCH.

Nothing appeals so strongly to a mother's affection as her daughter just budding into womanhood. Following is an instance: Miss Blanche, now 15 years of age, has been terribly afflicted with nervousness, and had lost the entire use of her right arm. She was in such a condition that we had to keep her from school and abandon her music lessons. In fact, we feared St. Vitus dance, and are positive but for an invaluable remedy she would have had that terrible affliction. We had employed physicians, but she received no benefit from them. The first of last August she weighed but 75 pounds, and although she has taken only three bottles of Nervine she now weighs 106 pounds; her nervousness and symptoms of St. Vitus dance are entirely gone, she attends school regularly, and studies with comfort and ease. She has received complete use of her arm, her appetite is splendid, and no money could procure for our daughter the health Dr. Miles' Nervine has brought her.

When my brother recommended the remedy I had no faith in patent medicines, and would not listen to him, but as a last resort he sent up a bottle, we began giving it to Blanche, and the effect was almost immediate."—Mrs. E. E. Bullock, Brighton, N. Y.

Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine is sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee, or sent direct by the Dr. Miles' Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, six bottles for $5, express prepaid. It is positively free from opiates or dangerous drugs.

Sold by all druggists.

THE PEOPLE'S GROCER,

151 WEST FRONT STREET

Superior:

That's the word. We have earned it in the manufacture of our Winter Overcoats. The wise man of our designing and manufacturing works has had his wits about him—hence perfect, incomparable Overcoats. New fabrics of tasty and genteel weaves. You should see them. Prices range from $10 to $25. They'd cost at least 30 per cent. more if you'd buy them from anyone else than the makers.

We are selling more Boys' Overcoats and Reefers than any other store in the city. The prices are far below current rates for good qualities.

A Mother's Duty.

"Watch your daughter's physical development.

"Nature has provided a time for purification, and if the channels are obstructed, the entire system is poisoned, and misery comes.

"Irregularities from any cause, at any age, are sure indications of organic trouble.

"With irregularities come disturbances of the stomach and kidneys, violent headaches, shooting pains, extreme lassitude, and irritability.

"Remove the trouble at once, or a whole life will be sacrificed. "Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will accomplish the work speedily.

"It is the most effective remedy for irregular or suspended action known to the world."—Mrs. Chas. Hines, Box 212, Duncannon, Pa.

Handsomely decorated Japanese lamp shade with every $1 purchase to customers asking for it. No reasonable offer refused for the balance of our Flower Pots, and we have some very pretty ones left. We are constantly adding new goods and the hard times have forced prices way down. Remember we aim to undersell by fair competition. Lamps are about one-half what they were last year, and ours are bargains indeed. See our $1.50 full decorated or $2 25 centre draft lamps, and we will make the sale; common chimneys all sizes 5c. You can't buy crockery even in New York as low as we can sell it. In toys, stationery, games, soaps, etc., there is no better display in the city than ours. In tinware, woodenware and general housefurnishings we can suit you. We sell brushes of all kinds, whisks, hair brooms and feather dusters. We have glassware and a thousand useful articles on 5 and 10c counters. Our display of fancy china cups and saucers will surprise you; prices from five cents to $1. If you have never used Royal tooth powder, ten gross sent to one New York house in ten days; just try it, and you will be delighted with the result. You are not afraid to risk ten cents for a good thing are you? 10c. buys the "Royal." Call and see the rotary shuttle in the Standard sewing machine. This machine is almost noiseless and its work wonderful. We sell the Standard.

The WREN in Business

It is characteristic of the Wren that it will sneak in and occupy the nest made by another bird, in preference to building one of its own. This same trait is often seen in business. It is shown by the imitators of

COTTOLENE

No sooner has the wonderful merit of this new vegetable shortening, so much better than lard, created for it a remarkable sale and popularity, than the business wrens are ready to move upon the market with many worthless counterfeits. Any housekeeper can be easily and cheaply convinced of the value of COTTOLENE by simply giving it a trial. They will then be unwilling to go back to lard, or go down to fraudulent imitations.

WRANGLED TO THE END

Closing Scenes of the Extraordinary Session of Congress.

Outside of an Attempt to Prevent Adjournment and a Tame Threat By Mr. Allen, the Senate Closed in Serenity, But in the House Great Confusion Prevailed—Deficiency Bill Not Acted Upon—Members Hurrying For Their Homes.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—Immediately after the final adjournment of congress yesterday afternoon there was a grand rush on the part of the weary statesmen for railway stations to catch trains for home. Every outgoing train last night took away several of them and this morning others departed. By to-night there will not be many remaining, and the city around the hotels has already assumed its between-sessions appearance.

The senate adjourned far more calmly, serenely and with less excitement than was the case with house.

As the vice-president said, in a neat little parting speech, its record is made up, and henceforth it belongs to the domain of history.

Futile Effort Against Adjournment.

There was a sort of pretentious effort earlier in the day to defeat the resolution for final adjournment, in which effort some half dozen democrats, two populists and one republican joined. But it was not intended to be of any avail, and of course was not.

Democrats Had All to Lose.

The effort was started by Mr. Coke (dem., Tex.), who said that the democratic party had everything to lose and nothing to gain by a final adjournment, leaving the tariff, the federal elections bill and other matters not acted on, while the republican party had everything to gain and nothing to lose by it.

Allen Made Threats.

The Nebraska populist (Mr. Allen) threatened to defeat adjournment by demanding the yeas and nays and showing that there wes no quorum to transact business. However, the resolution was agreed to without the yeas and nays, and the adjournment took place accordingly.

EXCITING SCENE IN THE HOUSE.

Closing Proceedings Attended With Confusion and Lack of Dignity.

The closing day of the extraordinary session was an exciting one in the house. Little business was done, but a few private bills were introduced and referred to committees or put on the house calendar.

The only substantial achievement was the final disposition of the bill allowing a rebate of duty on fair exhibits acquired by the Columbian museum. Otherwise the greater part of the three hours' session of the house was spent in a wrangle over pay and back pay of congressional employees.

Deficiency Bill Goes Over.

After encountering much filibustering, led by Mr. Hutcheson, of Texas, Mr. Sayers succeeded in getting through the house a resolution providing for the salaries of these people up to the next session, but when the bill came back from the senate laden with the particular amendment relative to back pay of senatorial clerks, that had caused the failure of the urgent deficiency appropriation bill, the load was to much for the chairman of the appropriations committee and before he could secure final action upon the resolution as amended the hour set for adjournment—3 o'clock—arrived and the speaker's gavel sounded the death knell of the resolution for this session at least.

All of these proceedings were attended with great confusion, and, on the whole, the adjournment was lacking in the dignity and solemnity usual on such occasions.

SEVERAL MATTERS DEFEATED.

Filibustering in the House Prevents Action On Important Bills.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—The filibustering in the house defeated at least two pieces of legislation that might have gone through; the urgency deficiency bill and the joint resolution to continue the session employes through the recess.

The New York and New Jersey bridge bill shared the same fate, but that fate was the result of design and not of accident.

The joint resolution of Mr. Durborrow conferring diplomas upon designers, inventors and expert artisans who assisted in the construction of the World's fair went by the board, but may be resuscitated in the regular session. As soon as it was passed by the house Mr. Durborrow rushed to the senate with it himself, and found that body behind closed doors. He managed to get the resolution before the senate, where it was favorably acted upon and sent back to the house. The house had, meanwhile, adjourned, and the resolution was laid upon the speaker's desk unsigned.

These are the only measures of any importance bear enactment that failed in the last moments.

ABSOLUTELY PURE

DESPERATE MADMAN.

Burns a House, Tries to Murder Several Persons, and is Himself Shot.

TOPEKA, Kan., Nov. 4.—A lunatic named George McNoun, who escaped from the insane asylum in this city about two weeks ago, and who has since been wandering about the country, yesterday at 3 a. m. set fire to the farm house of Elijah White and when the inmates were fleeing from the burning building opened fire on them with a Winchester rifle.

He discharged seven shots, one of them taking effect in the fleshy part of White's leg. The house was entirely destroyed.

McNoun then went to the farm of his brother, here he arrived about 6 o'clock. He attacked his brother in the barn, hitting him over the head with a club, knocking him senseless. As he was about to repeat the blow his nephew came running from the house with a double barrel shot gun which he fired as he ran.

The madman was hit in the head, his hat being shot to pieces. He then ran away, being tracked for a long distance by the blood which flowed from the wound. A large posse has been in search of him all day, but without success.

HIS PARDON IS VOID.

One Spree That Will Lose Lysaight Several Years of Freedom.

AUBURN, N. Y., Nov. 4.—The effort made by friends of James Lysaight, of Rochester, to again get him out of prison the history of whose case was told in these dispatches yesterday, have failed.

Justice Rumsey after listening to the arguments of the prisoner's council the decided that Lysaight had violated one of the conditions of his pardon, viz. abstention from intoxicating liquor, and he therefore ordered that the prisoner be remanded to the custody of the warden of Auburn prison.

Lysaight had served 3 years, 7 months and 23 days of his original sentence of 18 years.

NO DELAY WITH PRENDERGAST.

Mayor Harrison's Assassin's Trial May Be Called Next Week.

CHICAGO, Nov. 4.—Judge Dunne will preside in branch No. 1 of the criminal court at the November term beginning next Monday. Patrick Eugene Prendergast, the assassin of Mayor Harrison, will be arraigned before him for trial.

Prendergast has not secured an attorney yet. He has no money and no lawyer appears anxious to accept the case for the notoriety and doubtful advertising to result from it. It is considered likely that Judge Dunne will be called upon to appoint an attorney to defend him when the case is called.

Spain's Campaign in Morocco.

MADRID, Nov. 4.—The impression prevails that Spain is likely to have a long campaign in Morocco, and also that her losses there have been heavier than has been reported. The Riffians yesterday attacked Spanish infantry guarding wagonloads of provisions and ammunition en route to the forts, and several Spaniards were killed. The wagons reached the forts all right.

Matebele Losses Were Heavy.

CAPE TOWN, Nov. 4.—A dispatch from Fort Victoria last night gives an estimate of the Matabele losses as reported by natives. In the first skirmish the Matabele lost 200 men; in the fight at the great laager, 1,500; on the following day, 250. The chartered company's troops have burned Lobengula's great military kraal at Buluwayo.

Baby McKee's Governess Married.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 4.—A decided flurry was caused here to-day by the announcement that Miss Marie Hampe, for years the governess of the famous "Baby" McKee, grandson of ex-President Harrison, was quietly married Thursday to A. O. Davidis, a tobacco dealer of Chicago, and very wealthy.

Assistant Prosecutors Promoted.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—District Attorney Nicholl has announced the promotion of Assistant District Attorney John F. McIntyre to fill the vacancy caused by the death of first assistant Gunning S. Bedford, with an advance of salary to $7,500 per year. The other assistants were each advanced one step.

Socialists and Police Clash.

VIENNA, Nov. 4.—Eight hundred socialist astormed a hall where a secret meeting of German liberals was being held yesterday afternoon. They burst in the doors, shouting for universal suffrage. A conflict with the police ensued and 45 of the socialist and eight policemen were injured.

Large Catches of Whales.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 4.—The whaling bark Alaska arrived from the Arctic ocean this morning with a report of the catch of the whaling fleet up to Oct. 9. Of 43 vessels 18 were clean at that date. Of the others a number made very large catches principally steam whalers.

REVIEW OF BUSINESS

Slight Improvement Noted Since Silver Repeal.

It Came Too Late, However, to Have Any Material Effect on Fall Trade.

Farmers Still Economizing, and Storekeepers Sparing in Purchases.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Telegraphic advices to Bradstreet from many of the more important business centres are that some effects of the passage of the silver-purchase repeal law is reflected in an improved tone in financial circles, and the growth of confidence of merchants in the outlook. But it should not be disguised that the repeal is too late to have an effect on fall trade. Repeal meaning merely the removal of a prime cause of recent panic and stringency and resulting in contraction of trade, time will be required to build up what has been torn down.

Slight Improvement Already.

Far-seeing merchants interviewed wisely admit little prospect of a revival in general demand this year. Manufacturers and a large proportion of industrial workers in eastern and central-western states are still idle or on greatly reduced wages.

The earliest reported effect of repeal is seen in an improvement in demand for commercial paper at New York and some other centres. The only improvement in demand for general merchandise this week is slight, at Minnesota, Wisconsin and Iowa cities. In the cotton growing districts of the south collections are improved. The like is true in Illinois, Missouri and Nebraska grain growing districts, but the country people are economizing rigidly, and interior storekeepers therefore refuse to buy except for immediate needs, although stocks are light.

Still Dull in Staple Lines.

Travelers in staple lines south and west and southwest report that seldom has trade ever been so dull; that merchants will not anticipate wants at any price. The long prevailing stagnation in iron and steel and the woolen industry shows no sign of an early change. The cotton manufacturing industry is relatively better situated. There is evidence, too, of more activity in shoes, brown cottons, tobacco and anthracite coal. The northwestern lumber cut will be short this winter, but lumber now is generally quiet. Clothing has had a disappointing fall demand, and tanners are waiting for shoe manufacturers to buy stocks of leather.

Surprising Gain in Bank Clearings.

Bank clearings for October show a surprising gain, aggregating $3,983,596,000 at cities having comparisons for four years, an increase of 20 per cent. over September, which was low-water mark. Contrasted with October last year the decrease is 27 per cent. and with two preceding Octobers the falling off is still heavier. For ten months clearings aggregate $45,744,364,000 or nine per cent. less than in ten months of 1892.

Wheat is off again on heavy supplies, the total available in the United States and Canada, in and afloat for Europe, being 172,825,000 bushels, the heaviest November 1 total on record.

The New York stock market is dull and depressed by the heavy liquidation and realization of speculative profits which followed the passage of the silver repeal bill. The "street" is disappointed at the failure of the buying power which that event was expected to bring in from the public both here and in Europe.

Moderate Activity in Some Lines.

There is a better tone for lower grades of brown cottons at Boston, but the outlook for woolen manufacturers is no better. The clothing trade is backward, but the outlook is for increased activity among shoe manufacturers. Philadelphia dry goods commission houses are more hopeful, and demand for shoes is firmer, but a better demand there is found only for tobacco. Baltimore jobbers report a somewhat better demand from the south for shoes, heavy and light hardware, millinery, fancy goods and glassware. At Pittsburg jobbers are buying for immediate wants, although business in hardware, drugs, shoes, groceries and dry goods shows moderate activity. At Buffalo the demand for and movement of anthracite coal are fair, and stocks of lumber are ample, with holders firm.

Steel Workers' Troubles.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 4.—The indications are that all hope for a settlement of the troubles between the iron and sheet steel manufacturers and the Amalgamated association is past. The manufacturers do not admit that hostile preparations are in progress, but such is really the case.

Suits Against a Railroad.

LAMBERTVILLE, N. J., Nov. 4.—L. H. Leber and James H. Callan of this city have brought suits for damages against the Pennsylvania railroad company for $10,000 each for being ejected from a train. The conductor of the train claims their tickets were void.

Fair Swine Dying from Cholera.

LONDON, Ont., Nov. 4.—Cholera has made its appearance among the swine returning from the World's fair and which have been quarantined at Sarnia. A large number of valuable animals have died and others are badly affected.

A CONTINUOUS OVATION.

Old Liberty's Journey Homeward Through the Keystone State.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 4.—Liberty bell's journey homeward from the fair has been a grand and patriotic ovation at every city and hamlet at which stops were made along the line.

At Harrisburg the bell train was switched on to the Reading tracks, an elaborately decorated engine being in readiness for it.

The send-off at the capital was a most enthusiastic affair, thousands of people packing in and around the station.

As the train sped on great crowds were seen gathered at the small stations. At Hummelstown, Lebanon, Wolfsdorf and other points, school children lined the track on either side. Several G. A. R. posts stood at salute with uncovered heads and bands of music were scattered all along the line.

The inmates of Bethany orphan home at Womlsdorf were at the station and each little one waved a small flag as the train shot by.

At Lebanon, 2,500 school children were ranged along the tracks and several bands played patriotic airs, the train slowing up at the request of the Lebanon authorities.

An immense crowd was ranged all along the tracks as Reading was entered. When the special entered the city west of the outer station a signal was given by firing a small cannon on the commons. Instantly the whistles of 50 locomotives in the Reading yards and at every industry in the city were opened and a continuous blast was kept up for fully ten minutes. All the church bells were rung. The platforms at the stations were jammed with men, women and children.

PITTSBURG'S CROP OF CRANKS.

Three Men, Considered Dangerous Individuals, Placed Under Arrest.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 4.—Three cranks have just been placed under arrest by the police, being considered dangerous characters.

W. S. Bates has since Sep. 29 been addressing threatening letters to a prominent manufacturer asking for employment. The letters bore the signature of "Stump Hawkins," or "Jack the Ripper." The last letter demanded "Work or blood within a week from date."

Mike O'Brien is a monomaniac on journalism. He has for several days been hanging about the Times building threatening the lives of the proprietors if they did not recognize his ability by giving him employment at once.

Wm. Garvey was found on Smithfield street importuning every person he met to kill him. He comes from Chicago where he says he was employed on the police force.

Now Without a Parish.

HARTFORD, Conn., Nov. 4.—The Rev. Miller H. Stone, recently resigned his charge of the Parkville Episcopal church to accept an appointment as assistant pastor to the Rev. Floyd Tompkins, in Chicago, a former Hartford pastor. The vestry of the Chicago church did not confirm his selection and Mr. Stone is now without a parish. He had sent on his household goods before the church had notified him that he was not accepted.

Women Enjoined from Voting.

AUBURN, N. Y., Nov. 4.—Injunctions were granted by Justice Rumsey last evening which will restrain the women of the two school election districts of Cayuga county from voting for school commissioners at the coming election. The application was made by the two republican candidates. The women registered, and who will be deprived of their votes, number 2,866.

Weather Station to Be Closed.

MANCHESTER, N. H., Nov. 5.—Orders were to-day received from Washington to discontinue the weather signal station in this city after Nov. 10. The station has been in operation nine years. The citizens do not approve of this action, and an effort will be made to secure a withdrawal of the order.

Rev. Strickland's Wrong Doings.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 4.—Rev. H. L. Strickland, who figures in a bigamy story from Falmouth, Mass., belongs in this city. The woman that he married here has applied for a divorce, alleging desertion and non-support, and that he had been previously married and not divorced.

Careless Trainmen Suspended.

BOSTON, Nov. 4.—Conductor James Hunt and Brakeman Timothy Bryant, of Salem, who were in charge of the train which was run contrary to orders, and came near causing a collision on the Lawrence branch of the Boston & Maine, last Monday, have been indefinitely suspended.

Will Be a Conservative Tariff Bill.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 4.—Congressman Outhwaite, who returned from Washington yesterday, says the new tariff bill now being prepared by the democratic members of the ways and means committee will be a conservative revision of the McKinley bill.

Big Carpet Mills Shut Down.

BOSTON, Nov. 4.—The Bigelow carpet mills at Clinton, the second largest producing carpet mills in America, employing about 500 male and 500 female hands, were shut down last night for an indefinite period.

New England Fisheries' Losses.

GLOUCESTER, Mass., Nov. 4.—Statistics just completed give the total loss of life in the New England fisheries the past season at 111. The total number of vessels lost was 24.

Shot Himself While Insane.

BOSTON, Nov. 4.—Fred Aboott, son of Mrs. Henry W. Abbott of this city, shot himself yesterday in Sharon while partially insane. The wound is not fatal.

College Presidents in Secret Session.

BOSTON, Nov. 4.—The college presidents of New England have been holding a secret meeting in Jacob Sleeper hall, Boston university, for the past two days.

Anti-Cigarette Bill Defeated.

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 4.—The Georgia state senate has defeated by a vote of 19 noes to 12 ayes, the anti-cigarette bill.

Baseball in California.

STOCKTON, Cal., Nov. 4.—Baseball yesterday resulted: Boston, 11; Oakland, 1.

WINTER COMES!

BUT INDOOR LIFE NEED NOT BE DREADED.

Paine's Celery Compound Will Give New Strength—Aged and Infirm Must Look Well to Their Health—The Blood and Nerves Require Nourishment—Use of the Great Remedy That Makes People Well.

The approaching winter offers many dangers to those whose powers of resistance against disease are lessened.

Indoor-life soon impoverishes the blood and lowers the tone of the nervous system. Then a slight exposure will easily precipitate an enfeebled system into serious illness.

The aged and infirm must now look carefully to their health. Badly fed nerves must have more abundant nutrition; the blood requires nourishment. Paine's celery compound, the remedy that makes people well, should now be used.

Paine's celery compound gives new life and energy to the system. It is food for the brain, it strengthens the nerves, it makes the weak strong.

Paine's celery compound for many years has met the frank, outspoken approval of the most eminent physicians; they have analyzed it, discussed it at their meetings prescribed it and used it. To Paine's celery compound a host of men and women owe their activity and freedom from sickness. It keeps steadily at work the year round in the big cities and in the little villages, bringing hope and gladness to thousands of anxious homes where sickness is. It invigorates and strengthens. It makes people well. Try it.

BRAZIL'S NAVY.

Peixoto Buying Many Boats to Fight His Rebellious Admiral.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Scarcely a day passes without some additios being reported to the fleet that President Peixoto of Brazil is organizing here to fight his rebellious admiral. The latest purchase reported is that of the submarine torpedo boat Peacemaker. This boat was designed and built in 1886 by John P. Holland, and had an official test in November of that year. At that time it succeeded fairly well, and at later tests it did even better. It would doubtless be a formidable weapon in a harbor.

The Peacemaker is about the size of an ordinary steam launch. When on the surface the boat stands only a few inches above the water. The object of the vessel is to slip under the enemy's torpedo netting, place an explosive of some sort under her, and then steam away to fire it, either by clockwork or by an electric wire, from a safe distance. It would be an easy matter to load the Peacemaker on the deck of either El Cid or Britannia and take her to Brazil.

Collector Kilbreth has been called to Washington suddenly, but no one in the custom house seems to know why he went away so hurriedly. It was said, however, that he may have been called there to consult with the secretary of the treasury and other cabinet officers regarding the Brazilian affair. In case it is found that men are being enlisted for service in Brazil the custom authorities may refuse to allow the ships to clear. Officers are said to be at work now trying to find out whether men have been enlisted or not.

SILVER COINAGE RESUMED.

Mints Again Resume Making Standard Dollars.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—Important action has been taken by the treasury department in regard to silver. Orders were sent to the superintendents of the United States mints at San Francisco and New Orleans to resume the coinage, suspended some time ago, of standard silver dollars.

It is for the purpose of utilizing the seignorage that the coinage of standard silver dollars is resumed. The expectation is that about 1,500,000 standard silver dollars can be coined at once, which will give the United States treasury a seignorage of about $500,000. In other words, the seignorage bears the proportion of one-third to the amount of silver coined. It is the intention of the treasury department, as soon as the other mints become clear of gold coinage, to have them also coin silver, and thus increase the coinage from 2,500,000 to 4,000,000 silver dollars per month.

The seignorage is so much clear gain to the United States treasury, and if it could all be placed to the credit of the government at once it would increase the balance by $53,000,000. The amount of silver subject to coinage is 140,000,000 ounces.

Bernhardt's New Play "Les Rois."

PARIS, Nov. 4.—Sarah Bernhardt has been advertised to open at the Renaissance theatre here on next Monday in "Les Rois," a drama by Jules Lemaitre. The play was interdicted by the government last week, because Bernhardt refused to modify a scene suggesting the death of the Austrian Crown Prince Rudolph, which gave offence to the Austrian ambassador.

Polygamist McAllister in Hard Luck.

BELVIDERE, N. J., Nov. 4.—Charles W. McAllister, who for some time has been confined in the Belvidere jail under indictment for polygamy, was released yesterday and immediately rearrested upon a similar charge and taken to Chautauqua county, New York. He is wanted in several places.

Spaulding-Fletcher Case.

BOSTON, Nov. 4.—After having been pending in the courts for nearly 20 years, the celebrated case of Spaulding against Fletcher promises to be at last settled. Judge Putnam has just been appointed a referee. The case involves the tittle to valuable property in a western city.

To Resume in Full on Monday.

WELLSBURG, W. Va., Nov. 4.—It is announced here to-day that the West Virginia window glass works will resume in full on Monday.

London Financial Market.

LONDON, Nov. 4.—Bar gold was only in slight demand yesterday. Silver was unchanged, but weak on American sales.

Martine Is Anti-Race-Track.

(From The Summit Record.)

The attempt to fasten on James E. Martine the stigma of adherence to the cause of race-track gambling is the most unwarranted calumny that has ever been leveled at a candidate for office.

The character and reputation of Mr. Martine both preclude the possibility that he would permit himself to be directly or indirectly allied with the racing interests.

While we do not approve of the course of the delegates to the County Convention in failing to declare the party's position on the question of repealing the race-track laws, we do know that this failure in no wise affects Mr. Martine's views on that question. The writer of this is in a position to assert with all the emphasis of absolute knowledge that prior to the opening of the County Convention a set of resolutions had been prepared with Mr. Martine's co-operation, that unqualifiedly demanded the repeal of all the gambling laws that now disgrace the Commonwealth.

The fact that the convention ignored these resolutions should not be taken advantage of to misrepresent the purpose of a man whose character and history alike demonstrate that he is better qualified than any other man in Union county to voice the views of his constituents in opposition to race-track gambling.

Martine and Railroad Workmen.

(From The Railroad Employe.)

J. E. Martine is a typical Democratic candidate, a man of the people, from the people, and for the people. Mr. Martine is a farmer living in Plainfield, and has the confidence and respect of his neighbors, as well as that of all railroad men to whom he is known as a friend to be depended on whenever or however he may be of service.

Mr. Martine is no monopolist, as is his opponent. He is to be depended on to aid and assist in the passage of such bills as the Legislative Board may present to the next Legislature. Every railroad man in Union county should lay aside all political preference and vote for J. E. Martine for Senator of Union county, the railroad man's choice.

A Card From Holy Cross Choir.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE PRESS:—In view of the fact that the latest phase of the campaign of misrepresentation now being carried on against the Rector of Holy Cross church, has taken the form of an imputation upon our honor, we beg that you will let us nail the lie. It has been stated that our Rector has importuned us to become subscribers to the church in the extent of five or ten cents a month, in order that we may be rendered eligible to vote in his behalf at the Easter parish election.

Inasmuch as a majority of us are already eligible by reason of age and standing as regular communicants, the contradiction of a story so absurd would be needless were it not that many persons, ignorant of the church laws, are likely to be misled. Our Rector has, of course, never approached us on any such fool's errand, knowing full well that our loyal votes will be cast on the side of right. Thanking you for the courtesy of publication. THE MEN OF HOLY CROSS CHOIR.

The Fire Patrol's Reappearance.

A. Y. Pearson's spectacular drama, "The Fire Patrol", will be produced in Music Hall next Wednesday night. It is from the pen of James W. Harkins, Jr., author of "The Midnight Alarm", and is written in his happiest style. The first and second acts are laid in Deadwood, as is also the fifth and concluding act, while the third and fourth find the several characters of the piece in New York city, where the scenes are more thrilling, if such was possible, than those enacted in the great mining town of the west. Among the most realistic and startling features are the ponderous ore crushers in the Homestake Stamp Mills in full operation and the arrival of the fire patrol to the rescue of the endangered hero and heroine. The play is full of interest from beginning to end. The company is an evenly-balanced one, almost every character being natural and effective.

The Bi Club Show in the Casino.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE PRESS:—While thanking you for giving me space yesterday's issue to announce the coming delightful entertainment to be given by the Bicycle Club, I will have to ask to be allowed to make a correction, namely: since the affair was first contemplated, we have decided that the Casino would be more acceptable than the club-house; hence it will be given in the former place. PATRIARCH.

Reception to Their Pastor.

Next Thursday evening the Ladies Aid Society of the Monroe Avenue chapel will give their pastor, the Rev. Herbert Munson, a reception in the chapel. An interesting programme is being arranged.

Most All Profit.

The gross receipts of Muhlenberg Hospital Fair were nearly $1,900.

Proved To Be the Best.

Tested and proved by over thirty years' use in all parts of the world, ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS have the indorsement of the highest medical and chemical authorities and millions of grateful patients who have been cured by distressing ailments voluntarily testify to their merit.

ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS are purely vegetable. They are mild but effective, sure and quick in their action and absolutely harmless.

Beware of imitations, and do not be deceived by misrepresentation. Ask for ALLCOCK'S, and let no solicitation or explanation induce you to accept a substitute.

FIFTEEN CASES IN COURT.

Judge Coddington Has an Extremely Busy Saturday.

More business was transacted in the City Court this morning than has been seen in the court room for many a month. One of the causes for this deluge of justice is the raid in which the police have recently been engaged against the coal stealers in the vicinity of the boulevard.

Annie Hart, Mrs. Kate Kiely, Kitty Kiely, Dennis Kane, Helen Bergen, Mary Stites, John Stites, Ida Brown and Mary Bell were all in court charged with stealing coal and trespassing on the railroad property.

Mary Bell, Annie Hart, Miss Kate Kiely and Kitty Kiely were discharged as no case could be made against them. Dennis Kane, Mary Stites, John Stites and Ida Brown, pleaded guilty and sentence was suspended except in the case of Dennis Kane, who was accused by the policeman of persistently disregarding his warning to keep away from the coal trains. Kane was fined $5 or 20 days.

Ellen Bergen insisted on her innocence and only gave in when numerous witnesses were brought to prove her guilt. She was fined $10 or 30 days.

Baldy Clark arrived here safely from Bayonne where he was arrested on suspicion of being concerned in the burglary of the Crescent building in this city. Charles Hand identified the man as the one he had seen hanging about his building the day previous to the robbery. Tunison the feed man said he thought the man was the one he had seen but was not willing to swear to it. The charge of abusing Mrs. Gegan of Grant avenue, was brought against Clark and he was sent up for 30 days. More witnesses of The Crescent robbery will be secured.

Fred. Willibald, the newsboy, was fined $5 or 30 days for riding on coal trains. He is out on bail now charged with breaking into the ticket office of the North avenue depot. His fine will be paid.

Joseph Doyle, drunk and disorderly on Liberty street, Thursday, was fined $10 or 30 days.

THE NEW RIDING CLUB.

Successful First Ride of the Young Folks, and Other Features of the Academy.

The Young Folks Riding Club met for their first ride in the Academy yesterday afternoon, and made a very creditable display. This club expects a membership of 40, and as they have brass-band music furnished for the occasions very enjoyable Friday afternoons amusement is in store for them during the winter.

Percy C. Ohl, a member of the celebrated Cavalry Troop A of New York, ably assisted by Mrs. Ohl, leads and instructs the class.

The Boys Cavalry Troop drills three times a week, and is instructed in the art of riding, mounting, saddling and the use of the sabre, as in the regular U. S. Army Cavalry tactics. Plainfield young people who can afford it could not indulge in a more manly sport, or a more healthful exercise, while to be educated in matters pertaining to horsemanship is very desirable. Wednesday evenings there is music in the Academy to enliven the steeds and riders of the Plainfield Riding Club. To all wishing to see the riders an invitation is extended.

The Academy offers opportunity of passing many pleasant hours, and it is a pleasure to note the prospects of this institution.

To Help the G. A. R. Fund.

A Conference Committee of Winfield Scott Post, No. 73, G. A. R., and the Woman's Relief Corps, No. 10, met at the residence of I. McVoy, East Front street, Thursday evening, for the purpose of arranging for a fair for the benefit of the Relief Fund. It was decided to hold the fair in the Republican Association rooms for a week, beginning early in December.

An Evangelistic Week.

The week beginning Sunday, Nov 12, is especially set apart by the Y. M. C. A. as a week of prayer for young men.

The Plainfield Association has secured the services of the Rev. Arthur Crane, the successful New England evangelist, for the week, to conduct special meetings for men in the rooms and to give Bible reading in the afternoon, to which all are invited.

50 Guests, All German.

Fifty visiting delegates from New York will attend the dedication of the new German Lutheran church at Grove street and Mercer avenue tomorrow, and they will be entertained at the residence of Mrs. G. Sutterlin, Greenbrook road. The little church has been prettily decorated for the occasion.

Babbitt Hunts Rabbit.

James Babbitt was one of the fortunate hunters in this vicinity Wednesday. He gathered in seven cotton tails and two fine quail. Jim says his hunting season has not yet fairly opened. He will begin to get in his work when most of the gunners are through.

New Leader for the War.

Captain Bull, of the Salvation Army, has been transferred to New York. She will go Monday. Captain Williams, of Jersey City, who recently returned from the south, formally took charge of the Army barracks here Thursday evening.

Westfielders Can Shoot.

Four Westfield gunners knocked over 46 rabbits, four quail and a partridge at Lebanon, Wednesday and Thursday mornings.

What Five $1 Bills Accomplished.

This money was invested in five bottles of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. "I suffered for nearly ten years with constipation, jaundice and biliousness, writes Mr. D. Probart, of New Hampton, N. Y., "and the best medical treatment I could procure did me no good. A friend of mine spoke about Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy which I bought, and when I had taken three bottles I was what most people would call a well man, and two bottles more cured me. What the doctors cost hundreds of dollars in trying to do, Favorite Remedy did for $5." If you are inclined to constipation don't neglect yourself. Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy permanently cures it.

A TRIO OF RAGAN LECTURES.

For One Dollar Each Plainfielder May Go to the World's Fair, Rome and Spain.

H. H. Ragan, whose lectures have given so much delight and profit to Plainfielders in the past, has been again secured by the manager of Music Hall, and will give, this month, his latest charming series, as follows:

"The Columbian Exposition"—Monday, November 13.
"Rambliags in Rome"—Monday, November 20.
"Spain, the Patron of Columbus"—Saturday, November 25.

The lectures are to commence at 8 each evening. A course ticket, with reserved seat, will be but $1, or single reserved seat tickets may be obtained at 50 cents each.

Mr. Ragan is a graduate of Yale University, where he was recognized as one of the most prominent men in his class, carried off most of the literary honors for which he competed, and was unanimously elected to represent his class as Orator on Presentation day. He was educated for the bar and practiced the profession successfully until his irresistible fondness for travel, coupled with his remarkable descriptive powers and his natural gifts as an orator, almost forced him upon the lecture platform. A visit to the Alhambra of Granada first suggested to him the idea of illustrated lectures. With the rise of amateur photography he became one of its most enthusiastic and successful devotees, and every season since has made it a rule to visit and photograph some new field. For this purpose he has made many journeys to the old world and explored almost every nook and corner of the new. For Mr. Ragan does no traveling by proxy. In no case does he attempt to describe or illustrate what he has not personally seen. Aiming at perfection in every feature, he early determined so far as possible to present his illustrations in the colors of nature. This was most dangerous ground, for the ordinary colored transparency is a nightmare. For weeks Mr. Ragan searched London and Paris until he found the artist by whose aid he has been enabled to present scenes so exquisitely beautiful, yet so true to nature, as to arouse the enthusiasm of artists and critics wherever he has appeared both in Europe and America. But, though the illustrations he employs are unquestionably the finest ever produced, it is by no means upon this feature alone that Mr. Ragan's acknowledged supremacy rests. Aside from all mechanical accessories, his scholarly training and remarkable gifts as a public speaker have placed him easily at the head of his profession. Besides his work in the lecture field, Mr. Ragan's illustrated articles in The Cosmopolitan and other magazines, and his magnificent book, "Art Photographs of the World", have added much to his reputation. Mr. Ragan opens the season of 1893-'94 with a record of 2,100 lectures delivered, and the audience he has failed to satisfy and delight is yet to be found. Plainfield should renew his charming and cultivated acquaintance this year with large houses.

Christ Church Revival.

Special services will be held in the First Church of Christ next week, beginning Sunday evening. Dr W. E. Macklin of the New York Cremorne Mission, will speak tomorrow evening. Monday, the Rev. B. A. Hench, Superintendent of the mission, will speak; subject, "How the disciples value Christ", Wednesday evening, Prof. A. S. Heaney, of New York, will speak; Thursday evening, the Rev. J. M. Philpott, pastor of the Lenox Avenue Church of Disciples, on "The Efforts of Young People." The speakers for the other evenings of the week will be announced.

Dunellen Birthday Surprise.

The home of Mr. Milliken, Dunellen, was the scene of a happy birthday surprise party last night. O'Reilly of Plainfield was the musician, and the guests were: The Misses Swackhamer, Giles, Palmer, Fisher, Slape, Gray, Smith and Marlowe, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Lowrie, Mrs Abbett, and Messrs. D. Runyon, W. G. Runyon, Oscar Runyon, B. Giddie, Elmer Henry, Fredericks, Swackhamer, Charles English, Wm. Terry, E. Milliken and Thos. Milliken.

Surprised the Metropolis.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE PRESS:—Will you allow me space in sour columns to praise in the highest manner the way in which Frank Hedden, of Hedden's stable, had in readiness the coaches and carriages for the different guests at the McKenzie-Pierson wedding. Not a break was made, and all had their conveyance at hand as soon as the number was called. I was agreably surprised, as I did not think they had things down so fine in Jersey. NEW YORKER.

Who Said Soldiers Monument?

Gen. Negley was present at a meeting of Major Anderson Post, No. 109, G. A. R., Thursday evening, and made an address. Other matters, including the Soldiers Monument project, were discussed till a late hour.

100 Working Out of 500.

Several more men were laid off at the Pond Machine Tool Works last night. There are now only 100 men working out of the 500 regularly employed.

They Too Had Luck.

J. W. Drayton and Ed Campbell went hunting yesterday in the vicinity of Short Hills, and returned last evening with a dozen fine rabbits.

BLOWN UP BY DYNAMITE.

Many Lives Lost and the Whole City of Santander Shaken.

(Special to The Press:)

SANTANDER, Spain, Nov. 4—A terrible explosion occurred here last night, in which a number of persons were killed, including the governor of the province and many notable citizens. The shock of the explosion was so great that the residents in the furtherest parts of the city thought an earthquake had occurred and that the place was about to be destroyed.

A Christian Endeavor Burial.

The funeral services of the late William V. Creveling were held at the residence of his parents on West Front street Thursday afternoon at 2:30. The Rev. Cornelius Schenck officiated.

A large number of the membes of the Christian Endeavor societies of the city were present, and the scene was an affecting one.

The deceased was a member of the society of the Trinity Reformed church. It was only last Thursday evening at Dunellen that he was present with the society in good health, and his sudden death was a severe shock to all.

The Rev. Mr. Schenck read the Scripture, offered prayer and followed with a few remarks, in which he spoke in the highest terms of the deceased. He told of his devoted Christian life, at home and before the world; of his obedience and love to his father and mother and sisters.

He was a faithful member of the C. E. society and will be greatly missed.

Interment was made at Hillside cemetery.

The pall bearers were President Fred E. Smith, Frank Woodruff, Harry J. Wood, of Trinity Reformed C. E; President Henry Seader, of Warren Chapel C. E.

Hackensack Follows Netherwood.

THE BOROUGH WAKES UP.

IT HEEDS THE WARNING OF THE DAILY PRESS.

Better Police Protection in Prospect—Two New Marshals to Be Put on as Night Patrol—Frank Curtis Appointed on the Board of Health—Other Public Business in North Plainfield.

The regular monthly business meeting of the Borough Council was held in the Council chamber last evening.

Mayor Saunders called the meeting to order at 8.

In the absence of Clerk John Vetterlein, Borough Counsel Charles A. Reed was called on to act in his place.

Councilmen Needham, Howell, Fountain and Edwards were present. Councilmen Neal and Hummer were absent.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

Mr. Howell presented a communication signed by Benjamin Day, C. B. Matthews, Samuel Townsend and others, residents of Washington Park, asking the Council to provide better police protection, and that a marshal be kept on duty all night. It was received and placed on file.

Mr. Fountain presented a communication from residents of Willow and West End avenues, asking for more street lamps. It was referred to the proper committee.

The bill of Frank Schuck, for $5 65, was presented, and later in the evening was ordered paid, as was also the bill of John Mackey, for $2.50 for special police duty.

The Mayor appointed Frank Curtis to membership on the Board of Health, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Robert T. Currie. The appointment was confirmed by the Council.

Mr. Fountain reported that the Plainfield Water Supply Company had placed the hydrant on Girard avenue, as ordered, and that it was ready for use.

A communication from the Edison Electric Light Company, stated that much trouble had been experienced in lighting the streets on account of boys breaking lamps, and asked that the Council offer a reward for their capture.

Mr. Howell thought the company should protect their own property, and did not see why the Council should offer a reward.

Mr. Fountain afterwards offered a resolution that $10 be named as a reward. It was adopted.

I. J. Stiles, of Dunellen, petitioned the Council for a light on Rock road. The members did not think it advisable to grant it, and acted accordingly.

Mr. Fountain said it was impossible for him to discover all the broken lamps through the Borough, but a young man named Brokaw had been assisting him, and Mr. Fountain reported several lamps broken.

Mayor Saunders said he wished The Press would state that the Council would consider it a favor if residents would report any lamps that did not give satisfaction or were broken.

The Mayor asked about a lamp that was ordered placed on Orchard place. Mr. Fountain said the Superintendent of the Edison Company told him it would be burning that night. Mr. Howell stated that it was not burning. The company will be notified.

Mr. Needham offered a resolution that the Corporation Counsel and Clerk give due notice of the intention of the Council to vacate Fairview avenue. Several years ago this property was staked out for the purpose of putting a street through, but nothing further had been done. It is now the intention of the Council to open the street, hence the notice to vacate the property, which is near the ball grounds. The resolution was adopted.

Mr. Fountain offered a resolution, which was carried, that eight new lamps be placed as follows; Two on Willow avenue, two on West End avenue and four on Rockview avenue.

Mr. Needham offered a resolution that for better police protection two marshals be appointed to do police and patrol duty all night under the direction of the Borough Marshal, the term of service to be determined by the Mayor and Council, and their salaries not to exceed $50 per month. He also suggested that one man be placed on each side of Somerset street. It was adopted.

Mr. Needham moved that when the Council adjourn it be to meet Friday, Nov. 17, at which time the Borough Marshal could submit names for the consideration of the Council for marshals.

A resident of Summit avenue was present at the meeting, and complained of the condition of his street, which he said had been ploughed up and had not been put in good condition. The Mayor instructed Marshal Pangborn to see Councilman Neal about the matter.

The Mayor made the following appointments, to fill vacancies:

Committee on Laws, Ordinance and Election—Robert Fountain.

Committee on License and Marshals—Robert Fountain.

The Council adjourned at 9.

They Drink to the Monument.

Passengers and others stopping at the drinking fountain in the waiting-room of the North Avenue station linger for a time looking at the proposed Soldiers Monument—on paper. Either the frame and picture should come down, or the monument go up.

Canine Prayers.

M. Weber of East Third street owns a good-sized mongrel dog "Chipple" with no known pedigree. The animal understands both English and German, and obeys its master's commands as given in either language, even to kneeling in silent prayer on the table.

Read and Reflect.

The great mass of mankind lose their health through inattention to catarrh of the head and throat. This insidious disease was considered incurable until the discovery of the American Catarrh Cure. For sale by L. W. Randolph, 21 West Front street. Price $1.00.

OBITUARY.

William White.

At his home, 40 Willow avenue, at 1 this morning, there passed away William White, one of North Plainfield's most honored citizens, in the seventieth year of his age. His death was calm and peaceful, the deathbed being surrounded by the immediate members of his family. His demise resulted from a complication of diseases, after an illness covering a period of two weeks.

Mr. White was formerly a masons' contractor in Jersey City. He came to Plainfield about 30 years ago, and purchased what was known as the old Isaac Manning farm, now known as Washington Park. He cut the property up into building lots, which he sold to individual purchasers. For the past 18 years he had been prominently identified with the real-estate department of the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York. He was a member of the Building Committee of the First Baptist church when that present structure was erected, and was a member and deacon of the church up to the time of his death. He was one of the original stockholders in the City National Bank, and was at one time a director. He erected the White & Steele building at Front street and Park avenue, and owned besides a large amount of valuable real estate both in this city and North Plainfield.

Mr. White was the principal one to start the 9:30 Sunday morning service in the First Baptist church. He was always present, and took a deep interest in the progress of this service. He never arranged for a leader of the meeting in advance, but would call on someone present to officiate. His interest in having the young people there was a marked feature. He leaves a wife, a son George, and two unmarried daughters.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Cutter have gone to New York for the winter.

Mrs. Douglass and family, of Morristown, are visiting in the borough.

C. E. Thomas, of Watchung avenue, was out yesterday after an illness of ten days.

Mrs. Geo. J. Morton of Troy, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Samuel J. Hall of Duer street.

Miss Jennie Voorhees, formerly of this city, and now of Brooklyn, is visiting among friends here.

Mrs. Eugene Laine and her niece, Miss Stella Illsley, returned yesterday from a two-months visit to Chicago.

Oscar S. Teale of Mercer avenue, who has been spending the past two weeks in Chicago and Baltimore, is expected home today.

Mr. and Mrs. James P. McQuaide have returned to their home on Sycamore avenue after a four weeks visit with friends in Philadelphia.

Letter-carrier E. Hand is the next to enjoy a vacation. He starts for Pocono Mountains Monday. James Mullen will act as substitute.

Miss Smith a teacher in the Sunday-school of the Grace M. E. church, entertained her class at her home on Grandview avenue last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel St. J. McCutchen, of Rockview Terrace, returned home yesterday from a three weeks trip to the White City and the far west.

The absence of Borough Clerk John Vetterlein from the Council meeting last night was caused by his attendance at the bedside of the late William White.

E. M. Odam and William Pope have returned from a hunting expedition in Pike county, Pennsylvania, near the Blue Ridge mountains. They succeed in capturing 28 rabbits, 4 pheasants and a number of squirrels.

Room for Reform at Home, Before Race-Tracks Are Tackled.

An unfortunate who was passing Foster Voorhees's Republican circulars today got in a gross state of intoxication on the money given him for the job. He fell in North avenue and bruised his face badly. As he was totally unable to take care of himself Sergeant Kiely took him to the station house. The circulars are strewn in the mud.

Sons of Vets to Organize.

The movement now on foot to organize a Sons of Veterans Lodge in this city is gaining rapidly every day, and a meeting to consummate plans and arrangements will be called soon.

The Old Man Knows When He's Got Enough.

John Harkins, pitcher for the West Ends, says he is through with base-ball, and that any amount of money will not induce him to enter the diamond next season.

To Keep the Baptists Warm.

Morgan Bird has completed the new boiler in the Park Avenue Baptist church. The furnace will burn screenings and bituminous coal.

—Dave's new tonsorial parlor, at 213 West Front street, has reopened, and beginning today each of his regular customers will be presented with a handsome china and gilt mug.

Letter Carriers Return.

Robert Loughlin and John Neighbour, two of the letter carriers, reported for duty this morning after their vacation.

$100 Reward, $100.

The reader of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer $100 for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address

THE MAN ON THE CARS.

He Tells How Awfully Naughty Our Boys Think They Are, and Says the Girls Are to Blame for It.

The Man on the Cars, being reminded of his promise to tell something about our "gay" young men, led me into a half-filled car on a late train and took a seat in a dark corner.

"It is a very terrible subject,"—said he,—and one cannot be too careful in these crank times. I would n't have even the brakeman overhear for worlds. What do I mean by the 'gay' young men? Those who pose as our gilded youth, our jeunesse doree, if you please, and shake out a sportive bluff that is comical indeed. They appear to have learned the great mysterious truth that to be really fascinating to the girls one must wear a shadow of naughtiness, and pretend to have had no end of experience and a dreadful 'past', like the shallow Mrs. Tanqueray No. 2. This, of course, is perfectly true in a more or less degree, but when the 'past' and the experience are chiefly mythical the one hope of making an impression rests upon the foolishness of the girls. It is a regrettable fact that this hope usually succeeds. I think it is too bad that some of our young men who contrive to seem so really awful and horrid cannot be shown up in their true, lamb-like guilelessness. Have you never heard one of them retailing to his open-mouthed companions on the morning train the history of his rakish career of the previous night? No? Then you have missed something very funny; take it in the next time you have the chance. You will learn to your horror how really wicked and bad a young man may be, and not show it. You will discover that the average of viciousness is to be computed by the number of mild cigarettes that have been smoked; that coming home on the midnight train is a bit of diablerie most terrible; that going to a New York theatre in the evening is shocking beyond comparison, and that the very worst thing in the world that anyone could possibly do is to stop in at a certain East Fourteenth street so-called "concert hall" and sip a glass of beer. Of course, you will recoil with nervous prostration from the contemplation of such copper-lined iniquity, and turn to old Hogarth's pictures of the "Rake's Progress" and think how very much worse things are than they used to be. That Fourteenth street "concert hall" appears to be to our gilded youth the bete noir of all creation, the acme of Satanic ingenuity and the climax of Mephistophelian contrivance. And yet while I hate to down anyone's fondest hopes, I must say for the reassurance of everyone interested that no matter what the boys like to think and seek to appear, they really are not very bad after all. It is only a bluff, you know, and although it works pretty well it does n't amount to anything. The question is, why do they want to appear in this false, reddish light, and I imagine, as usual, that the girls are to blame. The boys think they will make a deeper impression if they flaunt a skeleton in fair faces, and the dear girls encourage this idiocy by looking with admiring eyes upon every dark and mysterious youth who comes around and pretends to have a 'past'. Queer state of affairs: is n't it?

"You brought this tirade upon yourself, you know, and so I will not apologize for it. Good-night."

And he slipped out as the train pulled into Plainfield.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—R. Rushmore has patented a bottle washer.

—How to make ends meet is told by Schepflin & Co., today.

—An important meeting of Easter Lodge will be held Monday night.

Miss Cecilia Staats, Dunellen's popular postmistress, expects to go on an extended tour in a few weeks.

—Six honest barrels of wood for $1 is what John Goodman gives. Send your orders to 192 Somerset street.

—Those Late Rose potatoes at 80 cents a bushel may be obtained at 521 East Second street, for cash, on personal or mail orders.

—Two electric wires burned off near the First National Bank building this afternoon, causing a loud report and a brilliant flash of electricity.

—The popular and efficient oculist, H. A. Stiles, continues to visit Plainfield, and may be consulted free, at 7 East Front street, M. M. Dunham's office, next week Thursday.

—A delegation of Red Men from Manitou Tribe, No. 31, I. O. R. M., of Somerville paid a visit to Miantonomah Tribe, No. 118, last evening, and saw the adoption degree worked on several palefaces.

—Rain or shine, we have a tent on the grounds, and we sell lots. If it is cold, we will build a large log fire. We are bound to keep you warm, dry and happy, and sell you lots so cheap that you can have a home for yourself.

TAYLOR & MACDONALD.

Approved Strikers.

As a rule Americans condemn strikers, but they make a cordial exception in favor of "ten strikers", and by the way a ten-strike cannot be easier made in the line of watches, clocks, silverware and jeweler's novelties than by purchasing at Collier's, where goods and terms are always on a par with the best in the world.

For the New Church Fund.

The fair and festival given by the ladies of the Emmanuel Baptist church in the basement of Reform Hall Thursday night, was a great financial success. The Rev. Mr. Mitchell will devote the proceeds to the completion of his new church.

With Ely's Cream Balm a child can be treated without pain and with perfect safety. It cures catarrh, hay fever and colds in the head. It is easily applied into the nostrils and gives immediate relief. Price 50 cents.

My catarrh was very bad; for 30 years I have been troubled with it—have tried a number of remedies without relief. A druggist advised Ely's Cream Balm. I have used only one bottle and I can say I feel like a new man. I make this voluntary statement that others may know of the Balm.—J. W. Matheuson, lawyer, Pawtucket, R. I.

THE TRACK OF PROGRESS.

In all the scientific advancement which has been made there is nothing which has attracted more attention and certainly nothing which is of more vital consequence to all than that which has been made in the treatment of disease. There are thousands of sick persons and invalids all over the country who have until recently been unable to avail themselves of the most scientific medical aid.

Through the thoughtfulness and kindness of that great benefactor of mankind, Dr. Greene, of 35 W. 14th st., New York, all those who are suffering from any form of disease may avail themselves of this great system of treating and curing disease all over the land through letter correspondence. People can consult him by letter absolutely free of charge. Dr. Greene is the most successful specialist in curing all nervous and chronic diseases; he is the discoverer of Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. He gives most careful and explicit attention to all letters received by him and writes the patient a full description of the case. The doctor uses nothing but harmless vegetable remedies and has had wonderful success in curing disease through letter correspondence. Send for one of his symptom blanks and he will write you a full description of your disease and give you advice in regard to its cure, free of charge.

Superior:

That's the word. We have earned it in the manufacture of our Winter Overcoats. The wise man of our designing and manufacturing works has had his wits about him—hence perfect, incomparable Overcoats. New fabrics of tasty and genteel weaves. You should see them. Prices range from $10 to $25. They'd cost at least 30 per cent. more if you'd buy them from anyone else than the makers.

We are selling more Boys Overcoats and Reefers than any other store in the city. The prices are far below current rates for good qualities.

WHITE, of Plainfield.

Aid for Mrs. Haddaway.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—Mr. Cobb of Alabama introduced in the house shortly before adjournment a resolution directing the clerk of the house to pay Mary A. Haddaway, widow of the late house chaplain, one year's salary, and also pay all the expenses incidental to his last illness, provided they do not exceed the sum of $500. The resolution was unanimously agreed to.

The Clevelands at the Theatre.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—President Cleveland, accompanied by Mrs. Cleveland and Secretary and Mrs. Lamont, occupied one of the procenium boxes at the Academy of Music last night to witness the presentation of "Romeo and Juliet" by Miss Julia Marlow and her company. This is the first public appearance of Mrs. Cleveland since the birth of Baby Esther.

Astwood's Nomination Rejected.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—The senate yesterday rejected the nomination of Henry C. C. Astwood of New York, to be consul of the United States at Calais, France. Mr. Astwood is the colored man against whom a fight was made on account of his having been mixed up in the Eliza Pinkston incident in Louisiana, at which time he was a republican.

Chinamen to Be Released.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—Attorney General Olney, in view of the passage of the Chinese bill, will to-day issue orders to United States marshals having in custody Chinamen ordered deported by United States courts to discharge them at once from custody if their only offense has been failure to comply with the Geary law.

Dan Coughlin's Trial.

CHICAGO, Nov. 4.—Judge Tuthill's court was crowded to its utmost capacity when the trial of ex-Detective Dan Coughlin for alleged complicity in the murder of Dr. Cronin on May 4, 1889, was begun.

Nearly 1,000 Confirmations.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—Out of almost 1,000 nominations sent to the senate at the extraordinary session just ended, not including army and navy promotions, the senate took action on all but about 70.

FREE

Handsomely decorated Japanese lamp shade with every $1 purchase to customers asking for it. No reasonable offer refused for the balance of our Flower Pots, and we have some very pretty ones left. We are constantly adding new goods and the hard times have forced prices way down. Remember we aim to undersell by fair competition. Lamps are about one-half what they were last year, and ours are bargains indeed. See our $1.50 full decorated or $2.25 centre draft lamps, and we will make the sale; common chimneys all sizes 5c. You can't buy crockery even in New York as low as we can sell it. In toys, stationery, games, soaps, etc., there is no better display in the city than ours. In tinware, woodenware and general housefurnishings we can suit you. We sell brushes of all kinds, whisks, hair brooms and feather dusters. We have glassware and a thousand useful articles on 5 and 10c counters. Our display of fancy china cups and saucers will surprise you; prices from five cents to $1. If you have never used Royal tooth powder, ten gross sent to one New York house in ten days; just try it, and you will be delighted with the result. You are not afraid to risk ten cents for a good thing are you? 10c. buys the "Royal." Call and see the rotary shuttle in the Standard sewing machine. This machine is almost noiseless and its work wonderful. We sell the Standard.

COTTOLENE IS MADE TO EAT

Made from clarified oil, expressed from Cotton Seed—as pure and golden as the Southern Sunshine which produces it.

For convenience in handling, there is added to this oil enough beef suet to make it a semi-solid.

The combination of these two pure natural products makes Cottolene, a shortening and cooking fat, with which in healthfulness, cleanliness, flavor and economy, nothing in the world can compare.

IMITATIONS are MADE TO SELL

To sell on the merits of the genuine. To sell by substitution; or by deception. To sell to the injury of the genuine, to the dissatisfaction of the consumer, to the detriment of the dealer, to the loss of all concerned—except the scheming counterfeiter himself.

If you wish the best food and the best health, you should insist that your cooking be done with genuine Cottolene. Refuse all counterfeits.

Sold in 3 and 5 pound pails.

BERLIN INTELLIGENCE

Germany's New Scheme of Federal Taxation.

States to Be Freed and the Burden to Be Imposed on Wine, Tobacco and Bourse Transactions—To Push the Crusade Against Gambling—The Russo-French Alliance. n.b.

(Copyright 1893, by the United Press.)

BERLIN, Nov. 6.—Chancellor von Caprivi submitted to the federal council on Friday the bill regulating the financial relations of the empire to the federated states. The preamble of the bill affirms that it has become necessary to free the empire from dependence upon the particular states, and, therefore, imperial revenue must be raised by new taxes on wine, tobacco and bourse transactions. The incidence of taxation is stated in the usual manner.

Little Opposition Possible.

There is nothing in the bill to excite the principal opposition of the federal council, excepting the wine tax, and this will be approved after a few concessions to the south German states. The scheme of taxing the bourse will about double the present duties, but as the bourse, unless unduly pinched, has a small voice politically, it will submit to its new burdens without much protest. On the whole Dr. Miquel, Prussian finance minister, has guided Chancellor von Caprivi towards the goal with great skill.

War Against Gambling.

The opening proceedings of the Reichstag will be devoted mainly to the finance reforms and projects for commercial treaties. They will be dull enough probably. The monotony will be broken, however, when Gen. von Schellendorf, the new minister of war, shall present the imperial rescript about gambling. Constitutionally the Reichstag has no right to interfere with a rescript, but as this one will be preliminary to legislation against lotteries, race-course betting and card playing in public houses, it will come to a certain extent within the parliamentary sphere of influence. The opposition newspapers say the emperor ought not to let his indignation over the Hanover gambling scandal lead him to fetter the free life of the country. It is the old tendency, they add, towards over legislation the moment a sudden revelation of vice in high quarters is made.

Blames the Jews.

The social question has never before probably excited so much public discussion in Germany. The Kreuzzeitung, in common with other conservative newspapers, uses the Hanover trial as an illustration of Hebrew dishonesty and evill influence upon German life. It says that Jews originated the whole plot, fed the gambling appetites of their victors, and corrupted the officers of the army. The law, therefore, should deprive the Jews of all power in finance or anything else vital to the interests of the nation.

Oppose the Plan.

The Koelnische Zeitung protests against making Jewish financiers the scapegoats of the scandal and urges the enforcement of the edict issued by the emperor soon after his accession to the throne, against extravagant habits among army officers. Eugen Richter's Freisinnige Zeitung suggests that legal enactments will prove poor remedies of the gambling evil despite the revelations made in the Hanover trial. Says Richter, everybody acquainted with the higher social life of Germany knows how rapidly gambling in the officers' corps has decreased under the present emperor. The emperor's own Hussar guards stopped play as soon the edict appeared.

The deputies object jealously to anything like encroachment upon individual rights and may resist all the paternal legislation planned by the emperor.

Pope Will Take No Part.

Herr von Buelow, Prussian minister to the vatican, has conferred with Pope Leo and Cardinal Rampolla as to the attitude of the German clericals. He proposed that the clericals support the financial reforms in the reichstag in exchange for concessions to Catholics in Prussian schools, but he was unable to make a bargain. He was referred to the clerical leaders in Germany as the proper men to deal with. His hands were weakened in the matter undoubtedly by Emperor William's resolute refusal to allow the Jesuits to return to the empire. After his interview with Herr von Buelow, the pope received the Bishop of Trier, who had a mandate to represent the clericals. The result was the same. The pope leaves the party leaders perfect freedom to deal as they like with Caprivi.

Wars Which Will Shake the World.

The negotiations for a commercial treaty between Russia and Germany have been suspended, pending the reference to the St. Petersburg government of the final German offer which stated Germany's minimum demands. Caprivi gave a dinner on Friday to the Russian delegates. The prospect of an entente with Russia, the Koelnische Zeitung says, is more remote than ever. In a notable leader published on Friday this journal said:

"The ultimate ends of the Franco Russian alliance can not be achieved without wars which will shake the world."

The writer quotes the Russian Svet to show that the Franco-Russian designs include the annexation to France of the whole left bank of the Rhine, and the absorption by Russia of the Danube principalities and Turkey to the Bosphorus. "The struggle for supremacy," he says, "may begin in the Mediterranean against England, without involving Italy."

Numerous reports as to the Franco-Russian designs upon England have come to Berlin. One is that Russia has offered to guarantee Italy against attack from France, in case Italy will pledge herself not to help England in any event. Russia is negotiating with Greece for the use of a naval station on the island of Paros.

THE EXPLOSION AT SANTANDER.

165 Bodies Recovered and Many Still Missing—190 Injured.

MADRID, Nov. 6.—An official dispatch from Santander says that the bodies of 165 persons, killed by the dynamite explosion aboard ship on Friday night, have been recovered. The search is still in progress. Many persons are missing. At present 190 persons are under treatment for injuries. The damage to property amounts to several million francs.

The dispatch also confirms the report that the vessel which was blown up was the Cabo Machicaco. The captain had declared only 20 cases of dynamite. Otherwise he would not have been allowed to dock.

The fire started at 3 o'clock on Friday afternoon in the coal bunkers.

The customs officers and police hastened to remove the twenty cases of dynamite which were soon landed at a safe distance from the vessel. A tug was then chartered to tow the Cabo Machicaco seaward.

The captain and crew of the steamer Alfonso the Twelfth boarded the burning vessel to help fight the flames.

Soon the fire reached the contraband dynamite.

A tug had just been moored alongside the vessel and many townspeople had gone aboard either to satisfy their curiosity or to help extinguish the fire. Then came the explosion of the dynamite.

All on board the Cabo Machicaco, and many along the dock were blown to atoms. The tug vanished. The quay, with its enormous crowd of spectators, was a mass of dead, dying and injured people. Many were hurled into the sea where they were drowned if not already dead.

CHRISTIAN ACTIVITY NEEDED.

Dangers of Anarchy the Theme of Methodist Discourses in St. Paul.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 6.—The necessity of christian influences as a safeguard against state and national anarchy and socialistic agitation was impressed upon more than one Methodist congregation yesterday.

The pulpits of the leading churches of this denomination in the twin cities were occupied morning, afternoon and evening by the bishops and representative divines who have come to the northwest to participate in the various denominational councils that have been in session during the past week and will continue until the present week, and their discourses were listened to by overflowing audiences.

It was significant that, while none of the speakers referred specifically to recent events that have stirred the country and the world, yet from more than one pulpit a warning was uttered concerning alien influences and the necessity for christian activity to the end that law and order might be preserved and the peace, prosperity and happiness of the republic ensured for time and eternity.

Wrecked by Train Robbers.

CAIRO, Ill., Nov. 6.—The Illinois Central's Chicago and New Orleans limited vestibule train, with President Fish's private car attached, running at the rate of sixty miles an hour, was side-tracked, evidently by train robbers, near Ullin yesterday afternoon and the fireman instantly killed. The engine and express car were wrecked, but the other cars remained on the track.

MIDDLETOWN, Conn., Nov. 6.—Captain Gordon, of the Wesleyan football team, says that there is no foundation for the rumors that the team had disbanded. He says the team has withdrawn from the league but has not given up football.

They Want the Fight.

ASBURY PARK, N. J., Nov. 6.—Jim Corbett has received an offer of $30,000 from the Jacksonville athletic club for the Corbett-Mitchell fight.

THE CIPHER UNINTELLIGIBLE.

Many Translations of Capt. Picking's Message About Brazil's War.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—The navy department is very much at sea concerning the status of the Brazilian situation. The despatch received from Capt. Picking is the basis for the uncertainty, for its text has been interpreted in several ways, and each interpretation means very much or very little. When the dispatch was translated from the cipher in which it came, the main sentence read: "Firing daily between opponents, but without result looking to settlement." Later a period was inserted between "Result" and "Looking," leaving the phrase "Looking to settlement" standing alone and indicating that the end of the revolution was near.

Another interpretation makes the words "Thus far" to end the first sentence, which would read: "Firing daily between opponents without result looking to settlement thus far." Whatever the news may be contained in one or other of several constructions given, Sec. Herbert believes the telegram means that the firing between the rebel and the government has been "without result looking to settlement," and as this is the official interpretation it will stand.

OFFERED THE PLACE.

But Senator Ransom Will Not Accept the Judgeship.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—Senator Ransom, of North Carolina, confirms the statement that he has been tendered by the president the position of United States circuit judge for the fourth judicial district, embracing Maryland, West Virginia, Virginia, North and South Carolina, made vacant by the death of Judge Bond; and that he has declined the honor. Mr. Ransom is 66 years old, and has been in the senate for twenty-two years. He holds that his duty to the state and the people who have honored him requires him to remain in the senate, and he insists that the judgeship should go to some younger man. Mr. Ransom, in talking about the appointment with some friends, said it would be manifestly unfair to others for him, at his age, to accept.

Wilkesbarre Has Her Crank.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Nov. 6.—A stranger, who gave his name as Henry Stout, threatened to shoot Mayor Nichols of this city yesterday. He was arrested for attempting to rob a citizen. When arraigned he said he had been commissioned by God to shoot Garfield and Mayor Harrison, but others had done the work before the day set for him to do the fatal act. He said he would attend to his latest commission, that of the assassination of Mayor Nichols next week. He was held for a further hearing.

Held Open for Two Weeks.

KINGSTON, N. Y., Nov. 6.—The motion of the attorney-general ordering the Bigelow bluestone company to show cause why a receiver should not be appointed for it, came up before Judge Parker in this city. Judge Gilbert represented the attorney-general, and a score of lawyers represented other interests. The matter was held open for two weeks. The property is now being advertised for sale under a mortgage foreclosure of $117,000.

For Illegal Registration.

KINGTON, N. Y., Nov. 6.—Seven men have been arrested for illegal registration. They are Jewish pack peddlers who have been only a few months in this country, who swore out fraudulent naturalization papers and then registered. Judge Cady has held them to await the action of the grand jury. Thirty others of a colony are said to have registered illegally and more warrants are out.

Urge Women to Vote.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The woman suffrage party state committee from returns collected by them estimate the number of women registered as voters at 200,000, and very likely more. They strongly advise all registered women to vote if they are able to do so, and to insist on voting, unless the inspectors have been forbidden by a court in writing to take their votes.

Hard-Named Families Recognized.

BERLIN, Nov. 6.—The Reichsanzeiger publishes an imperial decree wherin Emperor William recognizes the houses of Schleswig-Holstein-Sonderburg-Glucksburg and Schleswig-Holstien-Sonderburg-Augustenburg as former sovereign families of Germany, with all the rights appertaining to such families.

Preparing for the Big Fight.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—Corbett and Mitchell have signed articles of agreement and forwarded them to the Olympic club, of New Orleans, to fight before that club, with the smallest gloves allowed by law, to a finish, Marquis of Queensberry rules, for a purse of $20,000 any day of the week of Dec. 18, 1893, the contest to begin at 9 p. m. sharp.

Killed at Football.

DELAVAN, Wis., Nov. 6.—The football game here between the deaf and dumb asylum and the Beloit team resulted in a fatality. J. L. Peterson, one of the mutes, fell, and a number of players were forced on to his prostrate body. When his friends picked him up life was extinct, his neck being broken.

Norwegian Voters' Demands.

CHRISTIANIA, Nov. 6.—A mass meeting of voters held here yesterday adopted a moderate electoral platform. Among their demands were that the tariff be reformed, that the state hold the exclusive right to the sale of spirits, and that a people's pension fund with communal aid be established.

CHICAGO MAYORALTY

Police Still on Guard at the City Hall.

Democratic Aldermen Hold a Secret Meeting and Resolve to Stick Together—Scenes of Saturday a Disgrace, and Condemned By All.

CHICAGO, Nov. 6.—No room in the city hall presented a more peaceful appearance yesterday than the scene of Saturday's aldermanic strife. The council chamber was locked at every door, and from the aspect of the corridors there was no one around who desired admittance. In the ante room of the chambe six blue-coated policemen kept watch. The gate at the doorway opening on the corridor was locked, barring entrance to everyone. Inside an officer stood guard.

"We are under orders to keep everybody out," said he, "that is all but the janitors, the sergeant-at-arms and the custodian of the building. Aldermen don't have any more show than anyone else to-day."

The mayor's office was found to be guarded in a similar way, except that there two officers were deemed sufficient protection against invaders.

A meeting of the democratic alderman was held in the Sherman house yesterday. What was done is shrouded in more or less mystery, and the result of their deliberations was a matter for conjecture on the part of all except the initiated.

Every one of the thirty democratic aldermen, it is claimed, was present, and with them Corporation Counsel Kraus. Alderman Sextons was elected chairman of the meeting and Alderman Ellert was chosen secretary. The body then proceeded to discuss the welfare of Chicago in secret session. Details of the proceedings are extremely meagre.

Alderman John McGillen, when asked what had been accomplished at the meeting replied: "Nothing at all. I told the aldermen that if there was any possibility of winning over to our side the one blank vote that was cast, and that could be secured by substituting for my name as candidate for acting mayor, I was ready, willing and glad to step out and would support heartily any such candidate without regard for myself."

The scenes in the council chamber Saturday were most disgraceful and are denounced on all sides irrespective of party.

Hostilities were commenced right from the jump. The republicans had assembled in the ante room to consult over a variety of hair-splitting interpretations of the rules, and when they filed into the council chamber in response to an announcement that the democrats were hurrying through the roll call the ring was up" with them.

Alderman McGillen was half way up the steps to the platform upon which the presiding officer sits before any of the republicans could collect their senses. In another instant he had the gavel.

The next instant he was pushing Alderman Hepburn back, that gentleman having been nominated for the same office by his republican confreres.

Alderman Swift thereupon sent a resolution to be read. Alderman Hepburn took it and began reading, when Clerk Neumeister seized it from his hand, tore it to pieces and contemptuously threw it on the floor.

Maddened with rage, Alderman Swift stepped down the aisle and clambering over the heads of the reporters, jumped from the rail upon Neumeister's back.

The act was done so quickly that nobody could have stopped it. The force of his jump carried him clear over Neumeister's head and before he could return to the charge somebody got between the men.

Instantly the platform and the steps leading thereto were a warming with struggling men.

How it happened that no blood was shed at this point in the row will ever remain a mystery. Fifty men, insane with anger, were massed together in apparently inextricable entanglement.

A resolution calling for a special election December 18 to fill the unexpired term of the office of mayor of the city of Chicago, occasioned by the death of Hon. Carter H. Harrison, was finally adopted and then the presentation of a resolution to elect a mayor pro tem. by a secret ballot was carried.

The result of the balloting was handed to Chairman McGillen.

"Sixty-eight ballots were cast," he said; "there has been no election."

Alderman Swift argued that but sixty-seven votes were cast and that Swift had a majority.

The chair refused to consider it that way, however, and insisted that sixty-eight had voted.

Mr. Grant asked that the record show that Alderman Swift was elected, but the chair refused.

"I appeal from the decision," said Alderman Kent.

The chair put the appeal, but refused to allow a roll call.

Alderman Madden then moved an adjournment and called for a vote, and the chair refused to permit a roll call on the motion.

The republicans left the room. The democrats made a show of proceeding to an election, but found they had no quorum, when an adjournment was taken.

After leaving the council chamber Alderman Swift proceeded to the county clerk's office, where he took the oath of office before County Clerk Wulff and gave bond with John M. Smythe and Martin S. Madden as sureties.

London Finance Market.

LONDON, Nov. 6.—Last week silver prices grew firmer on the strength of demand from the east. American railway shares were depressed and failed to rebound on the repeal of the Sherman act, as was hoped.

Burned at Her Wharf.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—The W. W. Cole, a small river excursion steamer, was burned here at her wharf yesterday. Probable loss, from $6,000 to $8,000.

REGULAR DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS.

UNION COUNTY.

For Senator—James E. Martine, of Plainfield.
For Member of Assembly—J. Herbert Winans, of Rahway.
For Sheriff—John S. Sauer, of Elizabeth.
For Coroner—Edward B. Kelly, of Summit.

SOMERSET COUNTY.

For Senator—Henry M. T. Beekman.
For Member of Assembly—George H. Cramer.
For Coroners—John F. Brady, of Bridgewater; Edwin F. Farrow, M. D., of Bedminster; Fred. C. Suthpen, M. D., of Bernards.

The next Sheriff must be Sauer. He is a conscientious and experienced man. Vote for him.

It is worth something to a city like Plainfield to have one of its townsmen in the Senate. Vote for James Martine.

Many good Plainfield Republicans will vote for Martine tomorrow. Get in good company and join the ranks.

Memorandum for Tomorrow: The penalty for not voting early is the possible loss of your vote; the penalty of voting often is a year in prison. Vote; vote early; vote once!

Don't overlook that bright young lawyer, J. H. Winans. Give him the compliment of your vote for Assemblyman. He deserves it for his pluck in standing against such odds.

By voting for H. M. T. Beekman for Senator North Plainfielders deposit a ballot in favor of a clean, honest and upright gentleman. Mr. Beekman is a man of exceptional ability, and should receive the support of all good voters in the county, irrespective of party.

If North Plainfielders really want the race-track bill repealed, they should vote for Beekman and Cramer. They are both pledged to do all in their power to accomplish this. Their records are clean. Can you say as much for the Republican candidate for Senator, who has already voted for the race-track bill?

George H. Cramer is deserving the support of every young man in Somerset county. His capability is not questioned. His strength of character was tested last winter in his refusal to vote for the race track bill. He is a Democrat, the son of a solid Democrat, and an all-around smart, honest fellow. Honor him by returning him to office; he will be a credit to the county this year, as he was last, by always voting on the right side of every question.

George H. Cramer, the Democratic nominee for Assemblyman in the North Plainfield district, is an uncompromising enemy to the race-tracks, as is shown by his record last winter, and the people of his county can safely trust him to represent them. With the support of the Republicans who want the race-track bill repealed, his election is assured by a good majority. His Democratic and Republican friends, however, should get out and work for him to accomplish that purpose beyond a shadow of a doubt.

THE MAN FOR THE OFFICE.

At last James E. Martine has deigned a reply to the calumnies and slanders of the Republican press of this county and State, and he has in the amplest manner vindicated the faith of his friends and justified the admiration of his adherents who knew him to be a man too clean in character, too honorable in practice, and too reputable in association to permit himself to be won to the cause of the race-track gambling fraternity of this State.

The explicit language in which Mr. Martine defined his position on this question of race-track gambling, at the meeting in Summit Thursday evening, leaves nothing whatever unsaid on the subject.

His declaration that if elected he would "oppose any and all legislation either countenancing, legalizing or permitting gambling of any description", is only the expression of the views that every friend of his knew that he entertained, and is in harmony with the habits and associations of his entire life.

After such a declaration of principles there ought not to remain a shadow of doubt in the minds of intelligent men as to their duty when they visit the polls next Tuesday. Mr. Martine's election is in the highest degree necessary for the welfare of the Democratic party in this State and perhaps this nation.

The vote of the Senator from Union county may determine the political creed of the United States Senator who is to succeed John R. McPherson, and it is difficult to believe that the earnest, loyal, zealous Democrats of Union county, who have so repeatedly and so enthusiastically given their votes to Grover Cleveland, will be induced to deny him the needed support of a United States Senator from the State of his birth.

Mr. Martine is sound on the financial question; he is firm on the tariff question; he is unequivocal on the race-track question; he is free from the domination of political bosses; he has demonstrated his independence of the modern political machine by twenty years ostracism from the honors and emoluments of public office; and there should not be a shadow of doubt on the certainty of his election by an overwhelming majority tomorrow.

AGAINST THE RACERS.

James E. Martine's Pledge Made at a Meeting in Summit on Thursday Night.

"While it is belittling to my honor and respectability to ask me to make a pledge on a question of this kind, I have no hesitancy in declaring my position. I have been, and always will be, opposed to every form of gambling; and if elected to the State Senate will use my entire strength and voice to secure the repeal of any and every law favorable to gambling, now on the statute books of this State, and to prevent the enactment of any similar laws during my term of office."

This was the declaration of James E. Martine, candidate for State Senator, at a rousing mass-meeting held in Green's Hall, Summit, Thursday night. What more need be said?

BRIGHT FOR THE DEMOCRACY.

Union County Expected to Roll Up Its Usual Majority.

The talking part of the political campaign in Elizabeth, and, for that matter, in Union county, so far as the Democrats are concerned, ended Saturday night. Despite the inclement weather, the Democrats turned out in goodly numbers to attend the final rallies. One was at Cranford and the other in Jefferson Hall in the Eighth Ward of Elizabeth. Congressman Dunn, Senatorial Candidate Martine and Shrievalty Candidate Sauer attended both and made speeches. They were enthusiastically received. Assembly Candidate James J. Brennan was also at the meetings.

The Democratic leaders feel confident of victory. They claim most of the disgruntled Democrats will wheel into line next Tuesday.

The Young Men's Democratic Society of Union county, whose attitude it was asserted was hostile to the ticket, held a largely attended meeting Thursday night and decided to support the party nominees.

Senator Marsh, who, it was alleged, was sulking in his tent because he was not renominated, came out openly at Rahway Friday night for the ticket. In a speech he called on all his friends to follow example.

The campaign has been an unique one so far as the Republicans are concerned. They have held three meetings.

The anti-race-track men have held numerous meetings in the churches. None of the Republican candidates were permitted to speak. The clergymen and laymen connected with the league did the talking. The Republicans Saturday night, for the first and last time probably during the campaign, held a meeting in Grand Army Hall, Elizabethport. Either owing to the weather or the indifference of the voters the meeting was a failure so far as numbers was concerned. Mr. Voorhees, Mr. Kyte and all the other candidates were on hand.

The Democratic leaders were more chipper and confident yesterday than they have been since the campaign opened. They claim that if they can get their vote out the battle will be won.

"I don't believe we can be beaten"—said Candidate Martine today to a reporter.—"I do n't want to brag, but I have stumped the county from one end to the other, and I feel it in my bones that the entire ticket except the Third District Assemblyman will be elected. I am not the tool of race-track managers or gamblers, and I wear no boss's collar. If elected I shall do my duty, first, to the commonwealth of New Jersey, and, second, to the Democratic party.

"I have been most shamefully maligned, and my position misconstrued by certain newspapers. The leaders of the Citizens' League never asked me to make a pledge against the race-tracks, but they blindly made a plunge on my Republican opponent and have been doing their utmost to stampede good Democrats in the same direction. When the fight is over I may have something to say."

MARTINE GIVES THE LIE.

He Brands in Emphatic Language the Malignant Falsehoods of the Indecent Republican Organ.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE PRESS:—The Plainfield Courier asks why $10,000 of the race-track money is placed in this contest to elect Jim Martine.

There is no $10,000, nor any other money, from the race-track, or from any other source, to elect me that I am aware of. The charge is false, and I believe The Courier knows that the statement is utterly untrue. It is but on a par with all the other slanders which the said sheet has endeavored to saddle on me in this contest.

J. E. MARTINE.

Veteran Sam Played.

William Lang, of Union Village, gave a house-warming Friday night. The music was furnished by Samuel Frazee of Plainfield. Guests were present from Newark, Plainfield, Liberty Corner, Millington, Sterling, New Providence, Brooklyn and New York.

From the Cremorne Mission.

Robert A. Hench, the superintendent of the Cremorne Mission, New York, will have charge of the meeting in the First Church of Christ this evening. There was a large attendance at the church last evening, the service being very interesting.

The reader of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer $100 for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address

MR. VOORHEES NOT SANGUINE.

He Sees Defeat Ahead, in Spite of His Managers' Assurances.

[From The New York World.]

James E. Martine, the Democratic candidate for State Senator in Union county, and who is making such a vigorous canvass against his Republican rival, Foster M. Voorhees, is about forty-five years old and a farmer by occupation. He has the management of a large estate near Plainfield. He is a man of scholarly attainments and an excellent campaign stump speaker, having a large fund of general knowledge on the principal subjects of the day. Mr. Martine is possessed of much personal magnetism.

Twenty-three years ago Mr. Martine made his maiden speech at a political meeting in Summit, and ever since that time he has been in the harness for the Democratic party, and never missed the stump during a political campaign. He is known in every nook and corner of the county, and has very few enemies.

He first ran for office in 1873, when he got the Democratic nomination for State Senator against Benjamin A. Vail, of Rahway, and although William J. Magie, Republican, three years before had a majority of over one thousand for Senator, the youthful Plainfield husbandman gave the Republicans a bad scare, as Jim English, then the Republican boss in Union county, testifies, and their plurality was pulled down to less than three hundred. This was quite an achievement for a maiden effort in the political arena, but Mr. Martine could never be persuaded to seek office again until last year, when he was an aspirant for Congress, but was beaten at the convention by John T. Dunn.

This year, against his wishes, he was dragged into the Senatorial fight when it became known that Senator Marsh would not seek a renomination. Although reluctant to engage in the struggle when unanimously called by his party to do so, the farmer orator had no alternative as a loyal Democrat. He has plunged into the fight with his usual vim and enthusiasm, and during the past week his clarion voice has been heard in every village, town and city of Union county.

His frankness has made him many friends among even his political opponents, and there is scarcely any doubt of James E. Martine giving a good account of himself on election day.

His popular rival, Mr. Voorhees, fully recognizes the fact that in Martine he has a most formidable antagonist. The young Republican champion frankly admits that he is now engaged in the political battle of his life, and that, while he is hopeful of victory, he does not by any means think that he is out of the woods or is prepared, just yet, to do any crowing.

So far as the general impression among the politicians goes, it is that the struggle between Martine and Voorhees is going to be uncomfortably close, and that the winner's margin will be small.

The Citizens' League think that they will easily land their Senatorial candidate, but Mr. Voorhees, who is a shrewder campaigner than any of them, and has an extensive practical knowledge of the voters in the county, does not by any means share in their sanguine opinions.

Classmates Opposing for Assemblyman.

(From The New York Herald.)

In the Third District of Union, which is looked upon as safely Republican, the Democrats have nominated John Herbert Winans, of Rahway, for Assembly. George Kyte, the Republican candidate for Sheriff, carried the district when running for the Assembly last fall, by a plurality of 695 in a total vote of less than 6,000. Mr. Winans claims to stand in unequivocal opposition to race tracks, and, aided by a considerable disaffection in Republican ranks in Rahway, expects to materially lessen the Republicans' lead. Considerable bad blood was engendered by the contest at the Republican primaries between Chamberlain and Rollinson, the rival aspirants for the Assembly nomination, and the action of the convention in ignoring the claims of both and awarding the nomination to Westfield has, if anything, widened the breach. The Democrats openly charge the Republican candidate with receiving substantial aid from the Linden Park officials. An interesting feature of the contest is the fact that both nominees were members at the same time of the Columbia Law School. While the success of the Republican seems assured the result in this district will have an important bearing upon the success of the county tickets.

Good News from Summit.

(From The Summit Record.)

The Democratic candidate for State Senator, James E. Martine, is so well known in Summit and every section of Union county that an extended history of his labors and achievements for the Democratic party would be superfluous. For over twenty years he has travelled to every section of Union county and the State in every campaign expounding Democratic principles and laboring for the success of Democratic candidates. He is a native of Plainfield, about forty-three years of age.

He is familiarly known as the "Farmer Orator", and has retained the respect and devotion of the young as well as the old members of the Democratic party. No speaker of either party is listened to with more attention in Summit than he, and at every visit he has not been identified in the factional strifes that have at intervals threatened to disorganize the Democratic party in the county and at the County Convention his name was the only one presented for the Senatorial nomination. It is freely predicted that Summit will give Martine a larger majority than was ever before accorded a Democratic candidate for office.

Enterprising Country Club.

For the convenience of members of the Union County Country Club, arrangements have been made by Frank Bushnell, Secretary of the House Committee, with the Western Union Telegraph Company for receiving the election returns at the club-house, Tuesday evening.

Italians Make a Racket.

Last evening at about 6, 3 Italians caused a disturbance on Somerset street. They were manifestly drunk and their loud talking and quarreling could be heard for several blocks. Some women who chanced to be in the path of the Italians were frightened to the other side of the street which they reached through the mud that was thick in the middle of the street. No policeman was near and these three disturbers of the peace went on their way unmolested breaking the stillness of the Sabbath evening with their hideous jabbering.

Dr. Mitchell Opens the Revival.

All the Methodists were delighted to see and hear the Rev. C.B. Mitchell again yesterday. He preached a communion sermon in Grace M. E church, in the morning, when 15 new members were received by letter from various denominations. This thriving church has started on an in interesting revival. Do n't miss Pastor Randolph's great sermon tonight.

IN MUSIC HALL, WEDNESDAY.

Exciting Events to Be Seen in Full Realism, in "The Fire Patrol".

The play opens in Colorado, wherein is made known the strong friendship of two men, who become estranged, however, through the mistake of one of the friends, who overhears what he supposes is a declaration of love from his friend to the woman beloved by him. An accusation of treachery follows. It also appears in Act One that the woman has been deceived by another man, who becomes the villain of the play.

In Act Two the supposed traitor is seen in his position as superintendent of the quartz mills, with the immense crushers in operation. This is the strongest feature of the play. It is here that the owner of the mills is assassinated by the villain, who secures a will from the body, made in favor of the hero, who, rushing upon the scene in an attempt to secure the murderer, is seized by him, placed under one of the crushers, and the machinery started. His friend, however, arrives in time to interpose his body under the heavy stamp weight, and by his strength holds the crusher until relief arrives.

In Act Three we are informed that the hero had been accused of the murder of his patron, and had been arrested, but had escaped from prison, and his supposed body had been found in the mountains and buried. The scene then changes to New York city, where we are introduced to all the former characters, though under entirely different conditions. The villain, living in luxury, is to be married to the woman, for the love of whom is caused the estrangement between the two friends early in the play.

The former miner is now seen with hair whitened through grief at his comrade's supposed death upon the mountains, and whom, though believed to have been a traitor, he has never ceased to mourn. He is now a wealthy man, with two valuable mines to sell, and some interesting scenes are witnessed between him and the villain regarding their purchase.

The wronged woman then appears, and the situation is becoming serious when by accident the Fire Patrol is summoned, and the man who was supposed to be in a grave in Colorado appears as its captain.

The next act shows a plot to assassinate both the rich miner and the wronged dupe of the villain at one and the same time. They are inveigled into the home of the plotters in Union Square. The miner is bound to a chair, and the woman is also threatened with death. The villain's servant here betrays his master, however, and succeeds in sending a message to the Fire Patrol, which, of course, arrives in time to rescue the unfortunate victims. The concluding act witnesses the discomfiture of the villain, and the play ends happily.

All Want to Hear It Again.

The success of Mr. Ragan's new lecture, "The Columbian Exposition," is beyond all precedent. In the first week of his season he has delivered it six times, and the audiences have been, without exception, large and enthusiastic. In every place a strong desire has been expressed for a return date, and in nearly every place applications for dates have reached him directly from neighboring towns. It has been found wholly impossible to supply the eastern demand for his work in the time originally laid out for the east extending to the end of January. He has therefore decided, after a brief western trip in February, to return to the east for March and April. Plainfield will be favored with the new series early in the season, as he gives his first lecture here next Monday night, in Music Hall.

Mr. Stanley of Africa Comes to Town.

During the summer vacation of the Rev. Dr. W. R. Richards, his pulpit was occupied for one Sunday by the Rev. Frederick J. Stanley, late of Japan.

Wednesday afternoon at 4 Mr. and Mrs. Stanley will hold a reception in the parlors of the Crescent Avenue church, giving an informal talk upon Japan. They will appear in Japanese costume, and exhibit some interesting curios. Tea will be served at 5.

In the evening Mr. Stanley will lead the devotional meeting, his topic being "God's Footprints in the Orient".

A cordial invitation is extended for both meetings to all who are interested.

Live Wire in the Street.

Last Saturday evening an electric light wire, which extended from the pole on the corner of Park avenue and Second street to the City Hotel, became severed and lay in the middle of the street.

The wire being a live one made it very dangerous for those passing. Superintendent McClurg was notified, and immediately removed the cause of danger.

Are You a Democrat?

That is the question of the hour. If you are, note what President Cleveland says of Marshall P. Wilder. He says "he is the prince of entertainers." President of the Congregationalists.

PATRIOTISM VS. PARTIZANSHIP.

Sermon Last Night by the Rev. J. W. Richardson, in the Park Avenue Baptist Church, Before the Local Councils Jr. O. U. A. M.

The edifice was full, and the men with their attractive regalia of red, white and blue attended in large numbers and made an impressive appearance. The text was Esther IV: 14—"Who knoweth whether thou art come to the Kingdom for such a time as this". Mordecai believes in the presence of God in history. He believes that God raises up instruments to do his will at the proper time. Great issues are before us as a nation. There are influences at work which threaten to remove all those distinctively American institutions which have made our country sublime in the sight of men. This Order has been raised up for such a time as this. It teaches its sons to place the Bible next to the heart, and to follow the flag. There is need today that a pure ballot, a pure pulpit, and the integrity of the public school be preserved. The American idea of a ballot cast without priestly dictation; of a free press, without ecclesiastical or political censorship; of an untrammeled citizenship, owning allegiance to none but the government of this land; of the right to worship God according to the dictates of one's own conscience, without being called a heretic and consigned to Hades for it, still has the sanction of God. Your voice that in America, American ideas shall rule, cannot be silenced. God's chariot is in the van; under His providences, this mighty movement of protection shall roll on, until your present membership of thousands, shall have become twenty millions of United Americans, who own ballots and who shall rise up and banish un-American ideas from the land. The same kind wisdom that is said to place an antidote to every poison near the place where the poison itself is found has arranged to meet every crisis in human history. There is abroad in the land today the poison of ecclesiastical interference with our institutions; there is the poison of communisms; there is the poison of monopolies; but, behold, in the Americanism of the Jr. O. U. A. M. God's antidote for the poison. The times demand the best thought and action of the truest and best citizens. We congraulate ourselves that we have no czars or lords. But we forget that we have railway kings, and coal barons and the despots of commerce who speculate in the necessaries of life. We sneer at the privileged classes of Europe who grind the face of the masses; but we have here the privileged classes that form rings, and bribe legislatures, and tell us for whom we shall vote, on pain of being anathematized "mugwumps" if we refuse. We cry out "Away with the Czar": but we meekly bow beneath the yoke imposed by the political boss, and vote for his man, because he is the party nominee. The great crying evil is that the better portion of our citizens take no part in politics. Your principles, gentlemen, should stimulate and develop a public sentiment that shall induce the sober, intelligent citizens of every community to properly discharge their duties. What we need to do in this country, today, is to become Americans at the polls, as well as Americans by profession. Oh for a gigantic expression of American principles, George III said in a famous speech, "I can give up my crown and retire from power; I can quit my palace and live in a cottage; I can lay my head on a block and lose my life; but I can not break my oath". We need Americans with such spirit. Citizens to whom the oath of allegiance to their country is so sacred, that a bribe, that office, that the desire for popularity, cannot swerve them one hair's width from loyalty to the stars and stripes. This Order was designed to bring forth such patriots, and statesmen, and citizens generally, who will revere and obey the laws of the land.

Death of Richard Murphy.

Richard Murphy died last night at his home, 1328 Watchung avenue, of typhoid fever after an illness of five weeks. He leaves a wife and one child. The funeral will be at Binghampton, N. Y., Wednesday. The funeral party will leave Plainfield Wednesday morning at 8:15.

Richard Murphy has been in the employ of A. D. Thompson for some years, and was his right-hand man in the horse business. To him Mr. Thompson entrusted the buying of stock and general management of affairs pertaining to his stable. His loss will be felt personally in the business he has so long handled so successfully.

Hibbitts Got the Wheel.

The drawing for the Credenda special cycle, in the Crescent Wheelmen's rooms, Saturday night, resulted in John Hibbitts winning the wheel. He held eight tickets altogether, and No. 280 was the lucky pasteboard. 400 tickets in all were sold Mr. Hibbitts promptly bought a box of good cigars, which his friends smoked for him.

English and German, Both.

Services will be held tonight in both English and German, in St. Peter's German Lutheran new church on Grove street. The Rev. C. Fischer of Elizabeth will conduct the German services, and the Rev. W. Peterson, of Middle Village, will preach in English.

AN ESCAPE

—is made from all the diseases that come from tainted blood if the liver is roused to vigorous action, the blood purified and the system braced up with Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Languor and loss of appetite, with or without indigestion, warn you that graver ills are close behind. The "Discovery" will sharpen the appetite, improve digestion and restore health. A positive cure for "Liver Complaint," Indigestion, Dyspepsia, and Biliousness.

J. P. McADAMS, Esq.

Mr. J. P. McADAMS, of Elon College, N. C., writes: "A few of my symptoms were, Heart-burn and fullness after eating, sometimes pain in my bowels, headache, poor appetite and bad taste in my mouth. At night I was feverish, with a flushed over skin. After taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery I was relieved of all these symptoms and I feel perfectly well to-day."

PIERCE CURE.

THEIR CHURCH DEDICATED.

German Lutherans Enter into Possession of Their Cosy New Home.

The beautiful little church on the east corner of Grove street and Mercer avenue, North Plainfield, was formally dedicated as a house of worship, yesterday, when all-day services were held in the building.

For a long time past a number of the German Lutherans of this city and North Plainfield have been agitating the matter of having a church of their own. The congregation, though small, is energetic, and the members have spared no pains to consummate their plans. John Koch donated the plot of ground on which the building now stands, and by private subscriptions, entertainments, etc., the new church was erected at a cost of about $6,000 on which there is only a small indebtedness. The Building Committee, Messrs. Henry Hess and Gustav Sutterlein, deserve credit for the manner in which they have conducted the construction.

The interior is finished in yellow pine and hard wood; it will comfortably seat 450. The furniture cost about $500. The altar covering in red and the silver service were presented by Moldenke church of New York; the plush drapery and gold-trimming around the speaker's desk were donated by the Ladies' Society, of which Mrs. Charles Smith is President, and Mrs. M. Weber Vice-president. The building is heated by steam and lighted by electricity. The organ used is the gift of F. M. Hulett, and the bell in the belfry was purchased by private subscriptions and collections made by the children.

The building was started August 27, Pierson & Gayle were the carpenters, Charles Burnett was the mason; C. Thorp & Co. did the painting, and R. H. McCullough furnished the hard-wood seats and pulpit.

Yesterday was the time set for the dedication of the new edifice, and about one hundred German Lutherans from New York, Elizabeth and New Brunswick were present. Dinner was served to them by the Ladies' Society, at the home of G. Sutterlin on Green brook road. The pulpit decorations were very pretty, consisting principally of cut flowers and potted plants. At the morning service the house was densely filled, the Rev. E. Moldenke, D. D., of New York, preached the dedicatory sermon in German. John P. Seiffert, of New York, presided at the organ, but there was no special music. In the afternoon there were addresses in German by the Rev. W. Berkemeir and E. Breneski of New York.

The evening service was in English, except the singing of hymns. The Rev. E. Kionka, pastor, presided, and made a few remarks. R. C. Berkemier of Mount Vernon, N. Y., was the speaker, he took his text from Chronicles VI:18—"Will God in very deed dwell with Man on Earth".

Mr. Berkemeier said among other things that this is a day of great rejoicing among the German Lutherans, who now have a temple of their own—a place where the children may receive instruction and be taught the language of their fathers. Nothing, he contended, is more inspiring than the singing of German hymns. As the seed in the field grows, so does religion among the German Lutherans. They have longed for their "Home, Sweet Home", and they have it at last.

The audience was dismissed with the benediction.

TRIBUTE TO WM. WHITE.

(From a Friend.)

A useful and honorable citizen of North Plainfield, and well-known throughout the community, died Saturday morning, Nov. 4, 1893. He came to Plainfield in the spring of 1865 and has been identified with its business interests ever since. During the fall of the previous year he purchased a large tract of land in what is now the Borough. In 1867 he entered into an agreement with his neighbor, Judge Roome and others, to lay out, beautify and improve their farm property of several hundred acres, including his own recent purchase. The result was the development of "Washington Park", as it is known at present. He also superintended the grading and laying out the streets. In this city he invested in real estate on Front street, and built the large brick block on the east corner of Park avenue; and on a double lot about 150 feet west of Somerset street he erected other store buildings. His sound business qualifications recommended his practical services in the management of the Washington Fire Insurance Company; the Dime Savings Institution, and other fiduciary organizations. Since 1875 the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York engaged his valuable experience as appraiser of real estate. There was probably no other man so efficient and reliable in the judgment of valuations of property in Northern New Jersey. Upon his careful estimates, millions of dollars have been loaned on bond and mortgage.

Mr. White was born in England, Oct. 27, 1824. When six years old his father died and his mother shortly thereafter came to America with her two daughters and the boy. The family settled in Jersey City and there it was that the lad learned the mason's trade beginning as soon as he was twelve years of age. He worked faithfully and uninterruptedly at the builders art till twenty five years old, at which time he had accumulated considerable property for those days. The excitement of the gold fever in 1849 induced him to seek a quicker fortune in California, whither he went for a short time, and not finding the "nuggets" as plentiful as was expected, he took up his life trade. While in San Francisco he built there the first Baptist church on the Pacific coast.

Returning to the State of his adoption, and getting fairly at work again buying building lots in Jersey City, and erecting dwellings and stores thereon, he settled down to married life. In 1855 he made the choice of Miss Mary Hegel, who has been a helpmeet indeed through all these years, and survives him today in the full vigor of a noble womanhood. Besides her, there are left a son George F. White and two daughters Mary and Nellie.

Not only in the public business affairs of life and the more peaceful duties of his domestic relations was Wm. White a worthy example of fidelity and uprightness; but in his Christian character he honored his religion by a life of purity and usefulness. He was converted from worldly ways in 1841 and united with the Jersey City Baptist church and has always been closely identified with this denominational faith. Subsequently he was instrumental in organizing the Bergen Baptist church in 1859. With that society he was actively associated in every department of Christian endeavor and in many places of responsible trust, till he transferred his membership, in the summer of 1865, to the First Baptist church of this city. Here he has been a valued and prominent worker, giving freely of his time and means to promote its interests in all spiritual and benevolent enterprises. Appreciating such consecrated service the church has honored itself in calling Mr. White during the past years to the important offices of Trustee, Sunday-school Superintendent and Deacon, all of which duties he has performed with conscientious earnestness and humility.

A pillar of the temple has fallen.

The Human Electrical Forces!

How They Control the Organs of the Body.

The electrical force of the human body, as the nerve fluid may be termed, is an especially attractive department of science, as it exerts so marked an influence on the health of the organs of the body. Nerve force is produced by the brain and conveyed by means of the nerves to the various organs of the body, thus supplying the latter with the vitality necessary to insure their health. The pneumogastric nerve, as shown here, may be said to be the most important of the entire nerve system, as it supplies the heart, lungs, stomach, bowels, etc., with the nerve force necessary to keep them active and healthy. As will be seen by the cut the long nerve descending from the base of the brain and terminating in the bowels is the pneumogastric, while the numerous little branches supply the heart, lungs and stomach with necessary vitality. When the brain becomes in any way disordered by irritability or exhaustion, the nerve force which it supplies is lessened, and the organs receiving the diminished supply are consequently weakened.

Physicians generally fail to recognize the importance of this fact, but treat the organ itself instead of the cause of the trouble. The noted specialist, Franklin Miles, M. D., LL. D., has given a great part of his life to the study of this subject, and the principal discoveries concerning it are due to his efforts.

Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, the unrivaled brain and nerve food, is prepared on the principle that all nervous and many other difficulties originate from disorders of the nerve centers. Its wonderful success in curing these disorders is testified to by thousands in every part of the land.

Restorative Nervine cures sleeplessness, nervous prostration, dizziness, hysteria, sexual debility, St. Vitus dance, epilepsy, etc. It is free from opiates or dangerous drugs. It is sold on a positive guarantee by all druggists, or sent direct by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, six bottles for $5, express prepaid.

Sold by all druggists.

Superior:

That's the word. We have earned it in the manufacture of our Winter Overcoats. The wise man of our designing and manufacturing works has had his wits about him—hence perfect, incomparable Overcoats. New fabrics of tasty and genteel weaves. You should see them. Prices range from $10 to $25. They'd cost at least 30 per cent. more if you'd buy them from anyone else than the makers.

We are selling more Boys Overcoats and Reefers than any other store in the city. The prices are far below current rates for good qualities.

FOR THE DEATH OF HIS WIFE.

Toomer Brings Another $100,000 Suit Against the Pullman Company.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 6.—As a sequel to the conspiracy and damage cases instituted by Nathan Toomer some time time ago, another damage suit has just been begun by him against the Pullman palace car company for $100,000.

Toomer, who is perhaps the wealthiest colored man in the south, came here from Augusta to testify before the grand jury regarding the kidnapping of his daughter. The excitement of the case prostrated his wife, and to get her quickly home he arranged for a section in a Pullman sleeper, with the understanding that the train of which the sleeper was part would reach Augusta in 24 hours.

At Columbia, S. C., it is alleged the car was side-tracked amid several noisy switch engines and allowed to remain there for some time. Mrs. Toomer died within 48 hours after reaching her home.

While at Columbia Toomer offered $1,000 to have the car pulled away from the noisy place and the trip continued.

The suit brought is known as the Lord Campbell law, which permits one to sue in the name of the state to recover for the death of another. The previous suit, also for $100,000, was brought on the claim of Toomer for his own loss through the death of his wife.

MAMMOTH JUNK SALE.

Exposition Preparing to Dispose of All Manner of Material.

CHICAGO, Nov. 6.—The World's Columbian exposition is about to establish a mammoth junk shop in the annex of the transportation building, where will be offered for sale such material used in making the show as can be carted into the building.

Chairs and steam pipes, fire engines and office furniture, speaking tubes and benches, patrol wagons and cots, chains, iron posts and other articles too numerous to mention will be for sale.

In this way the exposition expects to be enriched by the sale of things that were necessary in the operation of the exposition. Efforts will be made to empty the building as soon as possible so that it may be used for the new purpose.

The exposition company wants to sell the golden door of the transportation building to some speculator, whom they claim can make money by cutting it into chunks to be sold as souvenirs.

Many requisite have come from fraternity lodges for pieces of wood from various buildings to be made into gavels.

Accuses the Chief of Police.

AMSTERDAM, Nov. 6.—Samuel Farmer, who conducts a restaurant, is suffering from dangerous injuries which he says were caused by his being pushed down stairs Saturday night by chief of police Charles Kline. Farmer called at police headquarters to ask if a man who had been arrested in his restaurant could not be liberated. The chief said that Farmer was drunk and he led him out of the office. Soon after he saw him lying on the steps.

Instructions to Voters.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The democratic state committee has sent out letters to their local committees throughout the state saying that all person whose names are on the registry lists, whether men or women are entitled to vote unless the inspectors are served by a person whom they know to be a court officer, with a written order from a judge, forbidding them to take such vote. Inspectors are to pay no attention to verbal messages of any kind.

In the Toils at Last.

BUFFALO, Nov. 6.—R. J. Andrews, better known as "Doc" Adrews, an old man with snow-white hair, is a prisoner at police headquarters here on several charges of malpractice, performed in 1878. That year he eluded the police and skipped to Canada. Saturday he had to flee from that country and returned here and his arrest followed. His wife, barely 27 years old, is held as an accomplice.

Why, Oh, Why—

My sisters, do you suffer so? You have suffered so long you think there is no relief, yet relief is close at hand if you will only accept it with the faith that has saved thousands.

ASK THEM Why?

Ask the men who are making imitations of COTTOLENE, the new vegetable shortening, why they give up lard and try to trade on the merits of COTTOLENE? Perhaps you can guess why.

ASK HIM WHY?

Ask the grocer who attempts substitution, why he tries to sell an imitation when people call for that pure, palatable and popular vegetable shortening, COTTOLENE? Perhaps you can guess.

ASK YOURSELF Why?

Why should not YOU use COTTOLENE, instead of lard or any other compound, for all cooking purposes? It has the highest possible endorsement; from Physicians as to healthfulness; from Cooking Experts as to superiority; from housekeepers as to economy. Use COTTOLENE and stick to it.

BATTLE OF BALLOTS

Twelve States Electing Officers To-Day.

Warm Contest in Massachusetts—Large Vote Expected in Ohio; Republicans Figuring on Big Majorities—Prepared for Trouble in One Ward at Buffalo—The Contest in Iowa—Excitement at Camden, N. J.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Only 12 states are holding elections for state officers today, viz:

Iowa elects a governor, lieutenant-governor, judge of the supreme court, railroad commissioner, superintendent of public instruction and a legislature, which will elect a United States senator. There are three tickets in the field—democratic, republican and prohibition.

Kentucky will elect a legislature, which will choose a United States senator.

Maryland will elect a legislature and five judges.

Massachusetts will elect a governor, lieutenant-governor, secretary of state, treasurer, auditor, attorney-general, eight executive councillors and a legislature.

Michigan will elect a congressman in the first congressional district to fill vacancy.

Nebraska will elect a judge of the supreme court and three regents of the university.

New York will elect a secretary of state, comptroller, treasurer, attorney general, state engineer, judge of the court of appeals, and an entire legislature, besides delegates to the coming constitutional convention.

New Jersey will elect eight members of the senate (from Camden, Essex, Gloucester, Monmouth, Salem, Somerset, Union and Warren counties) and a full assembly.

Ohio will elect a governor, lieutenant-governor, treasurer, supreme court judge, attorney general, dairy commissioner, member of the board of public works and a legislature. There are three tickets—democratic, republican and prohibition.

Pennsylvania will elect a state treasurer and a judge of the supreme court.

South Dakota will elect three supreme court and eight circuit court judges.

Virginia will elect a governor, a lieutenant governor, attorney general, and a legislature which will choose a United States senator. There are three tickets—democratic, populist and prohibition.

WARM FIGHT IN MASSACHUSETTS

A Heavy Vote for an Off Year Now Anticipated.

BOSTON, Nov. 7.—Massachusetts to-day elects a governor, lieutenant-governor, councillors, secretary, treasurer, auditor, senators, representatives, registers of probate and insolvency and county commissioners.

The people are also called upon to vote on an amendment to the constitution relative to the payment of mileage to members of the general court. The proposed amendment provides that so much of article two of section three of chapter one as reads: "The expense of traveling to the general assembly, and returning home, once in every session, and no more, shall be paid by the government out of the public treasury to every member who shall attend as reasonably as he can in the judgment of the house and who does not depart without leave," is hereby annulled.

Boston citizens also vote on the acceptance of chapter 473 of the acts of 1893, entitled "an act relating to the election of members of the board of aldermen in the city of Boston."

This act, if accepted, will insure a minority representation of five members in a board of twelve aldermen.

Boston will also decide whether or not "an act to provide for rapid transit in Boston and vicinity" shall go into effect. It is generally considered that the necessary cost of the transit scheme provided for in this act has secured its defeat.

There are five state tickets in the field—republican, democratic, prohibition, populist and socialist labor.

The state campaign was waged with great vigor and was mainly centred on the question of the responsibility for the hard times and for "repeal."

The local issues raised in past campaigns by Gov. Russell have held a secondary place in the discussion.

Ex-Congressman Frederick T. Greenhalge is the republican candidate for governor, John E. Russell the democratic, Rev. L. H. Banks the prohibition and Geo. H. Ca[illegible] the populist.

A heavy vote for an off year is anticipated.

The Contest in New Jersey.

TRENTON, N. J., Nov. 7.—This morning prominent democrats claimed only 31 members for the next house and two senators, with any certainty. Two senators and 20 members they concede to the republicans, leaving four senators and nine assemblymen doubtful. The fight is between the citizen's league and republicans on one side against the democrats and race track men on the other. The senators chosen to-day will vote in 1895 for a successor to United States Senator McPherson. Nearly every county is voting to-day for sheriff and other local officers.

Election Day in Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 7.—The vote in Pennsylvania to-day is for the election of a state treasurer and a justice of the supreme court. The candidates of the two leading parties for the two offices are: State treasurer—republican, Samuel M. Jackson, of Armstrong county; democrat, Frank C. Osburn, of Allegheny county. Judge of the supreme court—republican, D. Newlin Fell, of Philadelphia; democrat, Samuel Gustine Thompson, of Philadelphia.

Trouble Expected in St. Louis

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 7.—This city elects school directors to-day, and in the contest party politics is lost sight of in the aggressive fight made on Catholic candidates by the A. P. A. Both Catholic and Protestant clergymen Sunday urged their followers to go to the polls, and if collisions do not occur it will be a miracle.

THE CONTEST IN IOWA.

Four Tickets in the Field and All Are Confident.

DES MOINES, Ia., Nov. 7.—There are four state tickets, representing five political organizations, being voted for to-day, headed by the following candidates:

For governor—Frank D. Jackson, republican; Horace Boies, democrat; J. M. Joseph, populist; Bennet Mitchell, prohibition and prohibition republican.

The prohibition republicans endorse the regular republican state ticket with the exception of governor.

Notwithstanding the efforts of the political managers the campaign was devoid of popular excitement.

The many complications in the campaign place the outcome in much uncertainty. Chairman Blythe of the republican committee this noon claims the election of Jackson by 16,000 and the balance of the ticket by several thousand more.

Chairman Fullen of the democratic committee, insists that Boies will come through with a plurality equal to that of two years ago, 8,300; but he is not confident of the election of any one else.

The populists are active and claim to have 30,000 votes in sight, while the Bennett-Mitchell element think they can count on 40,000.

The legislative situation points to an almost equal division between the two great parties, the same as has existed for four years, with more than a possibility that the populists may secure the balance of power.

CONTEST IN OHIO.

Republican Figuring on Big Majorities—Campbell Expects Success.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 7.—In conversation with a reporter about the result of to-day's election in Ohio, ex-Governor Campbell said this morning: "If superficial indications may be relied upon we will carry the state. I have not been in the state long enough to get the general trend of sentiment, but I have had such large meetings and found the democrats so enthusiastic where I went that I judge they are thoroughly aroused and sympathetic."

At republican headquarters there is an air of confidence, and every one present seems to feel that there is no doubt of victory for the entire republican ticket, and big majorities are confidently predicted.

The vote, it is believed, will be extremely large for an off year, as a result of the vigorous campaign conducted by both parties.

TROUBLE ANTICIPATED.

Many Special Police on Duty at the Polls in Buffalo.

BUFFALO, Nov. 7.—This morning there was every indication of serious trouble at the polls before the day is over, particularly in the first ward, where both parties charge each other with colonizing. One hundred extra policemen are on duty, as is also the entire police reserve.

Attorney N. W. Norton yesterday swore out warrants for the arrest of 110 colonizers in the first ward on an affidavit which states that a great many of them have served time for felonious offenses and are not entitled to vote, and others are non-residents.

The Struggle in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—The election to-day in Cook county is for the selection of ten county judges and ten county commissioners. The feature of the campaign has been the bitter fight put up against Judge Garry, republican candidate for re-election. Judge Garry was the trial judge in the famous anarchist cases. He has found many supporters among the democrats, although the socialists and labor element are against him.

Opinions of Leaders in New York.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Republican leaders say that, in their opinion, the democratic ticket, with the exception of Judge Maynard, would probably be elected, but that the vote would be close. The democratic leaders are confident that their state ticket will be elected by at least 20,000 plurality, with the exception of Judge Maynard, who they say will receive about 11,000 plurality.

LIVERPOOL, Nov. 7.—A banquet and reception was given to Ambassador Bayard in the town hall here last night at which the mayor presided. Many prominent persons were present.

Jockey Sargent Dead.

CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—Thomas Sargent, a well known colored jockey who has ridden at Hawthorne, is dead from injuries received last Wednesday by being thrown from a horse.

SEAMAN EJECTMENT SUIT.

The Case Involving 147 Plaintiffs and 153 Defendants Now On.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The ejectment suit arising from the will of Mrs. Ann Drake Seaman of Westchester and New York counties, involving an aggregate of $20,000,000 in property, was brought to trial before Judge Patterson in the supreme court yesterday, three years from the beginning of the case.

The title of Peter Shute et al. vs. Lawrence Drake et al. includes 147 plaintiffs and 153 defendants.

Mrs. Seaman was nearly drowned by falling overboard from a Hudson river steamboat in 1878, and plaintiffs claim that her mind was so affected by the accident and by the death of her husband, John F. Seaman, and her brother, Thos. Drake, that she became and was at the time of making of the will in 1880 an imbecile. They also allege undue influence on the part of the principal heir, Lawrence Drake, a distant relative, who has now occupied the estate, and the princely marble mansion on Innwood Heights for ten years.

The case promises to last several months.

DIDN'T GET A WIFE.

But Hearn's Efforts Lost Him His Money Through a Badger Game.

HACKENSACK, N. J., Nov. 7.—Paul Hearn, 71 years old, of Park Ridge, a veteran of the civil war, recently got $1,500 of back pension, and while in a happy mood sent an advertisement for a wife to a New York matrimonial bureau. He thus became acquainted with Catharine Hartingdon, a blonde soubrette, attractive and about 30 years old.

She spent three days at Hearn's house last week, and on Sunday entertained her alleged brother, who came up from New York.

The couple worked the badger game to perfection. Hearn was accused of winning the affections of the man's wife, and violence was threatened unless $1,000 were produced. The stranger also threatened to sue him for $10,000 damage.

Hearn raked up $700, all he had, and the couple then made their victim drive to the Tappan station on the West Shore road.

Justice Smith of Park Ridge has issued warrants for the badgers.

THE SANTANDER EXPLOSION.

Harbor Bottom Covered With Dead Bodies—65 Houses Wrecked.

MADRID, Nov. 7.—Fernandez Sanz, captain of the steamship Cabo Machicaco, which was blown up at Santander on Friday, arrived at San Sebastian last night. He says that the explosion sent the steamer's engines fifty yards into the air.

Sixty-five houses were wrecked from roof to cellar by the shock. Divers examining the harbor's bottom near the quay have found piles of mangled bodies among the ruins of the sunken vessels. In one pile the remnants of fifteen bodies were found; in another the severed limbs and trunks of twenty-five more. The work of collecting the bodies proceed slowly, Captain Sanz says, because the bodies under water can be extricated only with the greatest difficulty from the wreckage in which they have been wedged and half buried.

The military are clearing away the ruins on land. The suffering among the people of Santander is extreme.

SOCIALISTS CAUSE A RIOT.

Amsterdam's Mayor Stabbed and Other City Officers Injured.

AMSTERDAM, Nov. 7.—Socialist agitators started a riot of the unemployed last night. The police interfered but at first without effect.

The mayor left the town hall to quiet the rioters. He was surrounded by roughs, jostled and eventually was stabbed in the abdomen.

A policeman who tried to protect him was knocked senseless with a blow on the head. Both were carried to their homes and the military were called out.

A company of cavalry charged and dispersed the mob. One cavalryman received a shot wound in the arm and several rioters were trampled.

Mormon Church Fund Disposed Of.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—By the joint action of congress and the supreme court of the United States the fund arising out of the sale of the property of the Mormon church, a corporation known as the "Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints," held under order of the court for the past few years, has been finally turned over to the Mormon church authorities for distribution.

Coal Awaiting Shipment.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 7.—The slow but steady rise in the Allegheny and Monongahela rivers enabled the shipment of about one million bushels of coal in light river craft last night. There are, in this harbor, awaiting shipment to points on the lower Ohio river, between 20,000,000 and 30,000,000 bushels of coal.

To Investigate the Wreck.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 7.—The examination of Pilot Johnson, who was in charge of the Pacific mail steamer City of New York when she went on the rocks at Point Bonita, has been set for the 9th inst. The examination of Capt. Johnson will come off later.

Jacksonville Secures the Fight.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Nov. 7.—It is an assured fact that the great glove contest between Mitchell and Corbett will take place in this city. The money has been deposited and the principals have agreed to the terms and nothing more is necessary.

OLD LIBERTY AT HOME

Patriotic Welcome for the Priceless Relic.

An Imposing Demonstration in Philadelphia in Which the Governor, City Officials and Other Dignitaries Participate—Children Parade.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 7.—The old liberty bell was given a patriotic "welcome home" yesterday afternoon. The city was literally bedecked with flags and bunting and the parade, which was postponed from Saturday on account of the storm, was one of the most imposing demonstrations ever witnessed in Philadelphia.

The weather was delightful.

Ten thousand school boys were in line, in addition to firemen, militiamen, policemen and others to the number of 3,000. The governor of Pennsylvania and the mayors of Philadelphia and Trenton, N. J., were in the procession. The sidewalks were crowded with people and the cheering was almost continuous.

The car bearing the bell was taken from the Reading terminal station to Tenth and Diamond streets, where the priceless relic was transferred to a gayly decorated truck, drawn by eight horses, preparatory to taking its place in the parade.

A salute of 44 guns was fired by battery A while the bell was being unloaded from the car upon which it was brought from the World's fair.

The parade formed at Broad and Diamond streets at 2:30 o'clock and a half hour later moved down Broad street to Christian street, countermarched on Broad street to Chestnut and then proceeded down Chestnut street to Fifth, where in front of independence hall it was dismissed.

Twenty bands and fife and drum corps were scattered through the parade.

Gov. Pattison and staff and Major General Snowden and staff left the line at Broad and Sansom streets and took up a position on a reviewing stand opposite the Union league.

When the bell passed the city hall several thousand school children assisted by delegations of the united singers of Philadelphia sang the "Star Spangled Banner."

Upon arriving at Independence hall, Elias P. Smithers, chairman of the joint World's fair committee of councils, formally delivered the bell and Mayor Stuart accepted it on behalf of the city.

The "Proclaimer of Liberty" was then suspended in its former position and the celebration was at an end.

YALE OFFICIALS YIELD.

Thanksgiving Football Game Permitted This Year Conditionally.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 7.—The following announcement has been made officially by the Yale authorities:

"It has been decided to allow the Thanksgiving day football game to be played this year on the assurance from the football management that there is an overwhelming sentiment among the Yale students and graduates against such disorders as have occurred after the games in former years, but with the understanding that no further games on Thanksgiving day, in New York city, will be allowed if the result this year shows that these disorders can not be checked.

PRESIDENTIAL APPOINTMENTS.

Two Collectors and Three Consuls Named Yesterday.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—The president has appointed Louis W. Pratt, collector of internal revenue for the 14th district of New York, and T. L. Norris, collector of customs for the district of Portsmouth, N. H.

Also the following consuls:

Newton B. Ashby, of Iowa, at Dublin, Ireland; H. Clay Armstrong, of Alabama, at Grenoble, France; Benjamin Lenthier, of Massachusetts, at Sherbrooke, Quebec.

Settled Out of Court.

BOSTON, Nov. 7.—The Boston & Albany railroad company has effected a settlement with Prof. Frank A. Hotaling, formerly of Framingham, Mass., now of Albany, N. Y., who was one of the injured in the Chester Bridge disaster of August 31, by the payment of $3,700, the full amount of the professors claim. The case of the professor's wife, who was injured at the same time, has not yet been settled.

Mr. Warner Not Indicted.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Nov. 7.—The grand jury, which arose yesterday and had the case of Hon. H. H. Warner under consideration, failed to find a bill of indictment against him, and it is understood that Mr. Warner produced documentary evidence which completely exonerates him from all the charges brought against him by the English company or its agents.

A Scoundrel in the Toils.

CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—H. Granville Gray, with numerous aliases, who came here from Philadelphia in June to visit the fair, and after an acquaintance of four weeks married a girl whom he met at the fair, and later borrowed all her money, $300, and $250 from her sister, and then skipped out, has been arrested on the charge of bigamy.

Prendergast's Trial Set for Nov. 27.

CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—The trial of Prendergast, the assassin of Mayor Harrison, has been set for Nov. 27. His brother has secured counsel for him. Insanity will be the defense.

WATERLOO, Ia., Nov. 7.—Governor Boies is better to-day. His temperature is 100 and his pulse is normal. He takes liquid food and retains it.

Lamont Goes Home to Vote.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—Secretary Lamont has gone to New York to vote. He is expected to return to-morrow.

TO FIGHT MELLO.

President Peixoto's Navy Will Soon Leave this Country for Brazil.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Salvador de Mendonca, the Brazilian minister, who came here from Washington, visited El Cid. He remained on board only a few minutes. He returned to Washington on the midnight train.

"The fleet to leave New York as near Nov. 12 as possible will consist," he said, "of El Cid, Brittania, the Destroyer, the Javelin, the Feiseen and the Yarrow torpedo boat, which will arrive from England in the meantime. The flotilla will fly the Brazilian flag, sailing as merchantmen under extraordinary clearance papers.

"They will register at some North Brazilian port, of which I am now in ignorance, where the ships will be manned by their fighting crews.

"We are shipping only common sailors in this port, and offering no extra inducements. Of course if the fleet is attacked en route it will show its strength, but there is no expectation of any such occurrence. We do not believe that Mello has any agents or sympathizers in this country, wild rumors to the contrary notwithstanding. I have no intimation that the insurrectionists are receiving any assistance from England, but as to whether any other nation or individual is contributing to their support I do not care to to say."

Mello's fleet is practically imprisoned in Rio Janeiro bay, Mr. Mendonca said, and his strongest vessel, Aquidaban, is in very bad condition from the heavy bombardment from the forts. She would be at the mercy of El Cid's great torpedo thrower, were not her own guns of such long and powerful range.

The Peixoto government will be informed immediately of the completion of the fleet in this country, and not till then will Mr. Mendonca be instructed as to the precise destination or time of departure. Probably not less than $1,200,000 will have been expended in buying and equipping the squadron to leave New York.

WITNESS FOR THE PEOPLE.

Cashier Thompson of the Madison Square Bank Places Himself.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Lewis Thompson, the cashier of the Madison Square bank, has turned state's evidence in order to clear his skirts of the criminal charges against him.

When Assistant District-Attorney Davis, who has charge of the prosecution, was asked about the matter, he said: "Well, Mr. Thompson has helped me in every possible way so far, and I have been able to understand several important points that hitherto have been obscure."

This step on the part of Mr. Thompson practically means that the charges of perjury and fraudulent bankruptcy that are standing against him will be dismissed, and that President Blaut and the directors will be deeper in the mire than ever. The charge upon which Thompson is held is perjury in swearing to a public statement of the affairs of the bank.

Fourth-Class Postmasters.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—Among the latest appointments of fourth-class postmasters were the following.

New Hampshire—Hadley, J. B. Gilchrist.

If you have n't voted, vote right now.

Gentlemen of the School Board: You want to know what to do with the Wadsworth property? Sell it, gentlemen; sell it all! Don't stop at the greenhouse.

The Republican Common Council chose a somewhat inappropriate time to introduce an ordinance legalizing racing on the public highway. It is ill-advised to add to the dangers of traffic on so important a thoroughfare.

The Common Council doesn't find it easy to control the Water Supply Co. In fact, the city may be said to be heartily sick of its bargain with the monopolistic corporation. Last night steps were taken to compel the company to fulfill its contract, and there is a chance that the city may rescind it as broken. Councilman Erickson is a fighter, and he is justly aroused at the company's indifference to the terms of its contract. The city would save annoyance and make money by owning its own water-works.

THE ELECTION.

Politics has no feature in today's issue of The Press. The edition is put to press at 1:30 p. m., and the election is progressing towards its close. From all parts of the county come encouraging reports for Democratic prospects. Senator Martine is materially reducing the Republican majority of Plainfield, and is confident of winning. The prospects are that the Democrats will sweep the county, with the exception of this Assembly district.

THE SCHOOL BOARD LOAD.

The maxim of that rare old philosopher, Benjamin Franklin, "Don't pay too much for your whistle", holds good today, and is worthy of practice right here in this city of Plainfield.

Franklin's story told how when he had squandered his all on his toy he could get no fun out of it, for its blasts drove people frantic. He saw his mistake when the money was gone, and he could n't redeem his loss, for no one would buy a whistle which had become such a nuisance.

That Wadsworth-property purchase should have come under the eagle eye and virile tongue of Poor Richard.

"Do not buy what you do not want because it is cheap: it will be dear to you."

JUSTICE WADSWORTH WAS RIGHT.

So the Court of Common Pleas Decided Yesterday—His Direction to the Jury in Griffen vs. Springer to Bring in a Verdict in Favor of the Plaintiff Was Repeated By Judge McCormick.

The fourth jury in the famous landlord and tenant case of Griffen against Springer was impanelled at Elizabeth in the Common Pleas Court yesterday. It will be remembered that at each of the three trials in Plainfield, Justice Wadsworth granted C. A. Marsh's motion to strike out the defense and direct the jury to bring a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for the full amount claimed (about $175). The juries here refused to obey the Court. Two of the juries simply disagreed, but the third saw fit to disregard the Court entirely and found a verdict the other way. The Justice quietly remarked that he would be set right when the case should be tried on appeal.

It is very gratifying to him that the higher court yesterday sustained him in every way. After the evidence was in on both sides, Mr. Marsh made the same motion that he had made before Justice Wadsworth. It was hotly contested and the opposing counsel tried to ridicule it and demanded the right to address the jury, but the court granted the motion all the same, and overruled the whole defense and told the jury to find a verdict for the plaintiff for the bill. This the jury did without leaving their seats.

Your Eyes.

The famous oculists and opticians, Leech, Stiles & Co., formerly with Queen & Co., of Philadelphia, send their Eye Specialist to 7 East Front street, Plainfield, Thursday, Nov. 9.

It will cost you nothing to determine if glasses will improve vision, as the examination is without charge.

Barnes Slept on the Tickets.

The opening of the polling place of the second district of the First ward was delayed half an hour because Candyman Barnes of the Board of Election overslept himself and had the official ballots in his house.

—The first anniversary of the Ladies Society of the German Lutheran church was held last evening in the new church at Grove street and Mercer avenue, North Plainfield. The Rev. W. Peterson of Middle Village, L. I., made an address in English, congratulating the ladies on the good work they had accomplished, and the Rev. C. Fischer of Elizabeth spoke in German. The attendance was fair.

My catarrh was very bad; for 30 years I have been troubled with it—have tried a number of remedies without relief. A druggist advised Ely's Cream Balm. I have used only one bottle and I can say I feel like a new man. I make this voluntary statement that others may know of the balm.—J. W. Matheweon, lawyer, Pawtucket, R. I.

COUNCILMAN FISK AS SANTA CLAUS.

HE PUTS THROUGH TWO ORDINANCES WITH SLEIGH BELLS ON.

Hoopla for Coasting on Broadway Hill, and Hooray for Hoss Racin' on East Second Street—But Isn't He Afraid of the Cry Against Legalizing Winter Racing?

The Cherubic Councilman, Charles J. Fisk, had on his Santa Claus smile last night, and spoke in favor of winter outdoor sports till one could almost sniff a frosty flavor in the air, see the sparkle of the snow, and hear the music of the bells. Mr. Fisk does like to see the young people enjoy themselves, and he purposes to help them have royal fun. So last night he introduced two ordinances, one permitting sleigh racing on East Front street, in an easterly direction, from Richmond street to Cole's Hill, the other permitting coasting on the Broadway hill in spite of protesting neighbors. The ordinances were adopted on second reading, and are advertised in The Press today.

A. B. Summers petitioned the Council for permission to erect an open shed at the rear of 109 Watchung avenue. The petition was referred to the Fire and Buildings Committee with power.

J. S. Garretson and others petitioned for electric lights on Lee place between Fourth and Seventh streets. The petition was referred to the Committee on Lights, with power.

Patrick Lynch and others petitioned for an electric light on West Second street between Central avenue and New street. The petition was referred to the Committee on Lights, with power.

Mrs. E. T. DeForest and others asked for a crosswalk at West Second and New streets, and an electric light on West Second between New and Liberty. The proper committees were given power to act.

D. A. Woodhouse offered $1,000 for Gazelle engine. The offer was accepted.

The two Boards of Freeholders wrote that they had no jurisdiction over the old and shaky Sandford avenue bridge. The communications were filed.

Christopher Columbus and others were granted peddlers' and similar licenses.

The report of the City Physician, stating the cases he attended in the quarter, was filed.

The Tax Collector's report, showing collections of $8,996.89 for the month, was filed. The usual monthly adjustment of accounts, notes and other financial matters, was accomplished.

AFTER THE WATER COMPANY.

Councilman Erickson reported that the Plainfield Water Supply Comany had not yet fulfilled its contract in the placing of certain hydrants. As a legal formality towards effecting a remedy, resolutions were adopted insisting on the company's doing as already stipulated.

An ordinance was adopted on second reading and ordered engrossed and advertised permitting property owners on West Second street from Madison to Central avenue to set back their curb line so as to widen the street two feet.

A motion was adopted requiring W. J. Tunison of Watchung avenue to replace his wooden awning with one of iron. The City Clerk and Fire Marshal were blamed for having permitted such a misunderstanding.

The Street Committee was authorized to sell iron pipe, curbing and other accumulated junk.

A resolution was adopted to assess as delinquent taxes all unpaid assessements on the widening of Peace street and the extension of Orchard place.

The opinion of Corporation Counsel Craig A. Marsh was read, clearly showing that James Moses has no claim to the return of money paid on the Peace street extension assesement, until that assessment shall have been legally set aside. A copy of this was ordered sent to Mr. Moses.

Council paid its bills and adjourned.

TROUBLE WITH THE COOK.

Mrs. Cruikshank and Agnes Rainsford Make Counter-Charges.

Agnes Rainsford, cook for Mrs. S. A. Cruikshank of Netherwood, was arrested last night by Policeman Frederickson, for being drunk and disorderly on the street. No sooner was the cook safely lodged in jail than Mrs. Cruikshank appeared with a charge of stealing against the confined cook. The complaint was that Agnes had used for her own purposes money which had been given her to pay the milkman. Agnes said that she took the money for back wages which were due her, and she and her erewhile employer finally affected a compromise by which Mrs Cruikshank agreed to withdraw the complaint if Agnes would pay her $2. The unfortunate cook said "I'll be glad to pay the $2, if I can shake Mrs. Cruikshank."

It May Be Settled.

The case of Fosgate against Nightingale, on contract, that has taken up so much time lately in fruitless attempts at settlement, has been postponed indefinitely by mutual consent of counsel pending settlement out of court.

Some One Out of a Job!

An attempt was made to break into Eddy's meat shop on South Second street two nights ago. The tools found were stamped Pond Tool Works.

Election Day Dance.

Thomas H. Martin and Frank Nelson will give a dance in T. A. B. hall this evening. D. Martin will be the floor manager.

"What I Eat Does Me No Good."

How often this expression is heard—life-destroying dyspepsia has hold on you when you feel thus, and should not be trifled with. There is but one remedy that can permanently cure you, Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, made at Rondout, N. Y., a vegetable compound endorsed by the medical profession.

THE WHITE ELEPHANT INVESTMENT.

THE SCHOOL BOARD WANTS TO DISPOSE OF PART OF IT.

Thanksgiving Vacation Fixed—A Pay Student Graduated—Trying to Get a Loan at Less Than the Market Interest — Two Vacancies to Be Filled.

The regular meeting of the Board of Education was held last evening, in the High School building. Dr. Probasco, the Rev. Dr. Richards, Edward L. Finch, members of the Board, Superintendent Maxson and Clerk Clark, were present.

In the absence of President Babcock, Dr. Probasco officiated. The meeting was called at 8:10. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. The bills of the month, amounting to $359.02, were ordered paid.

Tax Collector John Johnson submitted a statement of money received from taxes, $2 100 38 having been deposited in the banks. The report was received and filed.

Superintendent Maxson reported $127 received for tuition, from outside scholars.

The Board thought it advisable to close the schools Wednesday, Nov. 29, and keep them closed until the following Monday. This is done on account of Thanksgiving Day coming Thursday of that week.

In regard to the loan of $73 000 secured from the Mutual Life Insurance Company, Mr. Finch said that he had seen Mr. Richards, a representative of the company, and was informed that no loan under 6 per cent interest was carried on their books. He had tried to negotiate with the Mutual Benefit of Newark for 4½ per cent, but they were unable to put money out at that figure. The Board thought they could secure 5 per cent, and the committee will inquire into the matter further and report.

Superintendent Maxson reported that 63 pupils from out of town were enrolled.

The graduating diploma of Miss Celia Daboll was signed by the members of the Board. Miss Daboll is a resident of Roton, Conn., and has been attending school here. She has virtually graduated, and therefore will receive her diploma.

The matter of nominating School Trustees, to succeed Dr. Hurlbut and Dr. Richards, was ordered advertised in the usual way.

The Board decided to sell the greenhouse on the Wadsworth property to the highest bidder.

The Board adjourned at 8:55 to meet again the first Monday in December.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Fred Cramer, of Palmyra, Pa., is the guest of G. P. Smith of West Third street.

WHERE TO SPEND YOUR LEISURE.

ADVANTAGES OFFERED BY THE PLAINFIELD PUBLIC LIBRARY.

Here the Workingman Out of a Job May Find Restful and Educational Employment for His Enforced Leisure—Some of the Special Attractions, and the Regulations in Force.

For those out of work, the Free Library affords a most pleasant and profitable means of filling in the idle hours, and the special attention of such is herewith directed to the resources of that admirable institution. Thus they may find a way to turn their enforced leisure to account. The Library is open each day from 9 a. m. until 12, from 2 until 6 p. m., and from 7:30 until 9 p. m. It receives regularly 57 periodicals, comprising dailies, weeklies, scientific and technical, the more important and popular illustrated magazines, and reviews both American and English. Current numbers of these are always kept on the reading-room tables, and are always open to the public, as are also the well-stocked shelves, containing something over 12,000 volumes. Readers are quite free to go to these and help themselves, though an attendant is always present during the day to assist readers in finding the books of which they are in quest, or to direct them to books on the subject which they are looking up. Saturday evening being delivery night is usually the busiest time of the week, for on this night borrowers who are unable to get to the Library in the daytime come to provide themselves with reading matter for the coming week.

To become a borrower, the Library requires that the form with which each applicant is furnished should be properly filled out, and the signature of a real estate owner obtained as a needed reference. Anyone over 12 years of age living within the city limits can become a borrower on complying with these regulations. In addition to this, North Plainfielders may pay $1 semi-annually in advance, which entitles them to all the privileges of the Library.

The reading-room and art gallery are of course open to all, whether they are borrowers or not. The gallery contains many excellent works of art, and temporarily Col. Scott's very interesting collection of Indian curiosities. In this collection are articles of wearing apparel, wampum, arrows, hatchets, scalps, a fine war-bonnet, and looms in use among the Moqui and Navajo Indians. Mr. Fountain's collection is one of peculiar interest to Plainfielders generally as well as to archaeologists, being a purely local collection. It comprises spearheads, arrowheads, and stones worked by the Indians of this locality for various purposes. The gallery and reading-room each have a case of stuffed birds; that in the reading-room was presented by Dr. Endicott.

The gallery hours are shorter than the library hours, the winter hours being from 10 until 12 in the morning, and from 2 until 4 in the afternoon.

CHASED FROM FANWOOD.

A Fraud with a Subscription Paper Runs Against Judge Moore.

A well-dressed man canvassed Fanwood pretty thoroughly Sunday afternoon with a subscription paper raising money for his family whom, he said, had been burned out of house and home at Rahway. He was very persistent and in cases where money was refused he begged for clothes. His own good attire excited suspicion, however, and he was sent by one man to the house of Judge C. K. Moore. He told his story to the Judge who told him to go to the railroad station where he would talk to him, as the house was filled with company and the genial Justice did not wish to create a disturbance. The man gave several different names at different times and told such an improbable tale of woe that Judge Moore warned him that by going around begging he was laying himself open to the action of the tramp law, and recommended him to leave town. The man grew a little impudent and said that when justices sent a man from town they usually paid his fair. To this the Judge replied that he would pay his fare but that in that case he would send him down with a constable. The man evidently did not desire the company of one of the minions of the law for he drew out a roll of bills and bought a ticket for Plainfield and left for this city on the 6:28 train. Charitable persons would do well to look out for him and not be imposed upon by such a palpable swindler.

Do n't Miss It Tomorrow.

"The Fire Patrol", that great show which will occupy Music Hall stage tomorrow night, is without doubt one of the most interesting and active sensational dramas seen on the stage in years. "The Fire Patrol" is full of incident, and the actors make the best of the incidents. To have a duel, a fire and an assassination is in some way crowding the incidents in one play, but this is all done in such a manner as to seem real, and not offensive. The play is mounted well, with a due conception of city and mountain scenery, and the actors are true to their parts.

Healthy Appetites.

M. Weber, of East Third street, furnished one hundred punds of beef, lamb, etc., towards feeding the one hundred German Lutherans who were present from out of town at the dedication exercises of the new German evangelical church, in North Plainfield, Sunday.

She's Always Welcome.

Captain Groscloude, better known as the French Cadet, was at the Salvation Army meeting Sunday evening, and took part in the services.

Read and Reflect.

The great mass of mankind lose their health through inattention to catarrh of the head and throat. This insidious disease was considered incurable until the discovery of the American Catarrh Cure. For sale by L. W. Randolph, 21 West Front street. Price $1.00.

THE FAIR STILL OPEN.

Here's the Chance of a Lifetime for a Safe, Inexpensive and Delightful Trip to the Great White City.

"The Columbian Exhibition."

This was the subject of that most fascinating of lecturers, Henry H. Ragan, in Biddeford, Me., Oct. 20, and the Biddeford Times of the next day said:

Those who have been to Chicago during the Exposition are hardly more fortunate than those who took the trip last night with this delightful guide. The excursion started from New York city. Before boarding the fast Chicago limited on the famous New York Central, Mr. Ragan apropos to the journey and visit to the Fair, went back 400 years and gave a brief story of the discovery.

Starting on the journey up the Hudson, a stop was made near the historical residence once occupied by Aaron Burr, and another at Niagara Falls. The stereopticon views were marvelously true. The Falls were seen from several points and the party taken down to the famous whirlpool rapids.

No other stops were made till they reached Chicago. A few of the principal points of the business and residential sections of the city were visited and then the party proceeded to the White City.

The Exposition, including the Midway Plaisance, was thoroughly gone over so far as general exterior and interior views go. Close inspection of some of the principal buildings and statuary and a few of the chief exhibits was had. The views on the Midway Plaisance were especially entertaining. Mr. Ragan had a few amusing stories and suggestions concerning some of the features which added much to the delight of the lecture. In all it was a genuine success and one of the most novel and satisfactory entertainments on record.

And all this, Plainfield may see, in Music Hall Monday night. A dollar bill pays for that and two other lectures fully as fascinating and educational.

Are You an Englishman?

Whether you are or not, you will be interested in knowing what Englishmen say of Marshall P. Wilder, who is to be in the Casino Saturday night.

The Prince of Wales says: "A very clever little gentlemen." The Princess says: "Your stories were so bright!" And Gladstone says: "The soul of humor." Don't miss the chance to hobnob with this soul!

Magnetic Preaching to Come.

The Rev. Arthur Crowe is to conduct meetings for men under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. for one week beginning next Saturday evening. The Biddeford, Me., Times says: "The preacher is a magnetic speaker, using no notes whatever, nor in fact a pulpit. He is very free in speech and he emphasizes his words with graceful and appropriate action."

Almost a Collision.

A bicyclist came near colliding with Runyon's undertaking wagon at the corner of North and Park avenues last evening. The wheelman had to stop so suddenly that he was thrown into the mud, but escaped serious injury.

Rain Spoiled the Fun.

On account of the rain storm, the Hon. J. W. Beekman, of Perth Amboy, did not put in an appearance at the Dunellen school-house Saturday evening, and in consequence the Democratic mass-meeting arranged for that evening was declared off.

Dunellen's Freshet.

The water in Green brook rose so rapidly Sunday as to submerge the roadway at the crossing just west of Dunellen, and drivers had to pass through the stream hub deep in water.

And No Police in Sight.

Considerable excitement was caused on Watchung avenue yesterday afternoon by a race between two stone wagons, to the great danger of pedestrians.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—Curbstone politicians were out in full force yesterday and today.

—Get your tickets for the Ragan lectures. They are selling fast.

—The Shamrock Social Club will give nother of their delightful dances Thursday evening.

—Seventh street from Monroe to Grant avenue is being macadamized and made a fine driveway, chiefly at the expense of the property owners.

—Getting ready for Christmas already, is J. C. Allen, the great low-price leader. He is slaughtering his stock, and you can profit by the opportunity.

—Arthur B. Turner, A. B., is prepared to give private instruction to prepare for any college. Address him by Plainfield post-office. He is a graduate of Johns Hopkins.

—George Vanderhoff shot a twenty-four pound raccoon near Martinville, Friday. He also, as one of a party of three, helped to capture twenty-two rabbits on the same day.

—The roadbed on West Eighth street was left in such a condition a day or two ago that a hackman got stuck with a load of passengers and was obliged to unload before he could proceed on his journey.

—The Italians who caused a disturbance Sunday night on Somerset street did not evade the police on this side of the brook. No sooner did they arrive in Plainfield than they were dispersed by Sergeant Kiely and quietly went to their homes.

FROM GIRLHOOD TO WOMANHOOD.

The change is fraught with dangers. If there be pain, headache and nervous disturbances, or the general health poor, the judicious use of medicine should be employed. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the best tonic and nervine at this time. It brings about a regularity in the womanly functions, cures female weakness, catarrhal inflammation, and uterine derangements.

Seaview, Northampton County, Va.

DR. R. V. PIERCE: Dear Sir—After taking your medicine I feel like a new person. I shall recommend you and your medicine wherever I go. Your medicine has worked wonders for me and I can not praise it too much. All of my old symptoms have disappeared.

Yours respectfully,

MRS. WILLIETTA DOUGHTY.

Pierce Guarantees a Cure OR MONEY REFUNDED.

SOME ODD STORIES.

ADVENTURES AND INCIDENTS FAR OUT OF THE ORDINARY.

The Blind Gambler of the Black Hills—His Story of the False Friend and Faithless Wife—How a Pistol Shot Restored His Sight—The Hunt Ended.

[Copyright, 1893, by American Press Association.]

Blind Joe was one of the well known characters of Deadwood in the early days of the Black Hills metropolis, and chance led me to befriend him and learn his sad story. Strange as it may seem, even though he could scarcely distinguish daylight from darkness, Joe was a gambler. Poker was his favorite game, although he sometimes ventured money on faro. He could recognize the denomination of any kind of a coin the moment his fingers touched it, but it seemed pure chance that led him in the selection of cards and the betting of his money.

He was almost invariably a winner which was the most remarkable part of it as he never lifted a dealt hand from the table in choosing his discards, but ran his fingers over the backs of the pasteboards as they lay face downward and cast aside one two or three cards as the fancy struck him. He always touched the cards he drew when they were dropped before him, as if by some wonderful necromancy he could read them as he read gold and silver coins with his fingers. Having touched each card, he bunched them and let them still lay face downward, after which he either bet or passed.

From one gambling house to another Joe made his way, and wherever he stopped to engage in a game the table at which he sat was immediately surrounded by an eager and curious throng of spectators. It was these spectators who saw the blind gamester received a fair show, for any one who attempted to play crooked with Blind Joe was promptly and summarily dealt with by the onlookers. After a time the sightless sport became so well known that he could scarcely induce old gamesters to play with him, as they asserted he was in league with satan.

More than one attempt was made to rob him of his winnings, and thus it came about that I got acquainted with him. I had followed him from the Metropole saloon one night at a late hour, and as he reached a dark and deserted portion of the street, feeling his way along with a cane he always carried, I saw a man leap upon him. Joe was felled to the ground, but I drew a revolver, uttered a shout and dashed forward, causing the robber to take to his heels.

The blind gamester was not severely injured, and I aided him to the wretched little hut in which he lived all by himself. He asked me in, and that night we became so friendly that he told me his tragic story.

His name was Joseph Danvers, and, save one year of his life, he had lived as a gambler since becoming old enough to handle the cards and venture money upon them. He declared that he was born a gambler and that he did not seem suited for any other occupation, but having fallen in love with an innocent and beautiful girl he foreswore the life he was leading and did not touch a card or venture money on any game of chance for a year. The girl married him, and he cut clear of his old associates, with a single exception, making a brave attempt to live an open and honorable life. As he had saved several thousand dollars, he was able to invest in a modest business and live comfortably in a quiet way for a few months, which was the happiest period of his life.

Manson Webb was the only one of Danvers' former associates from whom he did not clear himself, and Webb retained his friendly relations with the reformed gambler, being a welcome visitor to the pretty cottage home. Danvers trusted his wife implicitly, and he did not dream that she could do a wrong until by chance the knowledge was brought to him with stunning force that her relations with Webb were not what they should be. Furiously enraged, Danvers confronted his false friend and charged him with his treachery. A struggle followed, and the husband was stricken senseless by an iron bar that Webb caught up.

That blow injured the optic nerve in Danvers' head and nearly cost him his life. When he recovered and left the hospital, it was to go forth into darkness, a blind man, and learn that his wife had fled with the treacherous gambler. Then a blind hunt—a groping through midnight gloom—began, for Danvers swore to follow and find the guilty pair. He converted everything of his that was available into money, and then, aided by a detective, sought to trace them down. The detective robbed him, and he was forced to do something to obtain more money. Then it was that a chance game revealed to him the wonderful fact that he could still play poker, but he did not understand how it was that he always seemed to select the right cards to throw away and almost without fail bet his hand for just what it was worth and no more. It was as great a mystery to him as to any one else.

Six months before coming to Deadwood he had found his wife. She was dying in Chicago, where the villainous Manson Webb had abandoned her, and ere she breathed her last she heard the lips of her sightless husband utter words of forgiveness. Over her grave he swore to devote the remainder of his life to tracking the wretch who had wrought such ruin, and as Webb was a gambler he felt that they would some day meet across the board.

"But what can you do?" I cried. "You are blind! You"—

"I carry a revolver constantly," he said, his voice cold and hard. "If I hear him speak, I shall know him. I can play cards even though I am blind. I believe I can shoot."

That night I lay awake until near morning, my head filled with thoughts of this wonderful man and his sad history. Three days passed before I saw him again. It was a rainy night, and a great throng had gathered in the Metropole, which was the leading saloon and gambling house of the town at that time. Blind Joe had been playing and had just cleaned out Dandy Frank, a veteran poker sharp. As Frank arose from the table, cursing his ill luck, a black bearded stranger slipped into the abandoned chair, observing:

"I don't mind taking a hand, as I have a few dollars to lose."

The sightless gambler started as if thrilled by an electric shock. A revolver leaped into his hand, and he shouted:

"That voice! Manson Webb, I know you! Your life is mine!"

"Joe Danvers!" gasped the man of the black beard, seeming to recognize the blind gamester for the first time. He sprang aside, wrenched out a revolver and fired just as Danvers pulled trigger. The stranger was not touched, but the blind gambler slipped from his chair to the floor without uttering a cry or a groan.

The stranger's bullet had plowed along the side of Danvers' skull, stunning him for the time, and when he recovered consciousness he started up, declaring he could see as well as ever. In fact the bullet had given him a shock that had fully restored his sight in a moment, a thing the hospital doctors had been unable to do.

"Where is that devil—where's Manson Webb?" he wildly cried, looking about him.

"Wa-al," drawled Big Ben Weston, leader of the vigilantes, stepping forward promptly, "we reckoned as how the onery critter had throwed ye cold, Joe, and so we took him out to soak in the rain. They wus a rope got tangled round his neck as ketched to the limb of a tree so high up that he couldn't seem ter git his feet down on the ground right handy like. I 'low you'll find him thar when you wants him."

How Big Foot Died.

On the morning of Dec. 29, in his teepee Big Foot, the Sioux chief, lay dying of pneumonia, while before the lodge, squatting in a half circle, was his entire band of warriors, fear, hatred and despair written on their grim faces. Five hundred men surrounded them, soldiers of the regular army, commanded by Colonel Forsythe. Hotchkiss guns were mounted and trained to command the camp, and at 8 o'clock the order was given to disarm the redskins.

By Big Foot's side crouched his faithful squaw, ministering to his wants as well as she could. The flap of the teepee was lifted, and the chief could look out upon the scene that was being enacted. He had surrendered to the whites in good faith, but noting the ominous preparations of the fully armed soldiers, he began to fear all his followers were to be butchered without a show for their lives. He knew the warriors feared the same, although they spoke no words, for he saw the looks that were flashed from side to side beneath scowling brows.

The order came for the Indians to deliver up their arms in squads of twenties. The first squad delivered two useless muskets. This so angered the officers that, after a hasty consultation, the order was given for the cavalrymen to dismount and close in. This they did, taking a stand within 20 feet of the redskins. Then a detachment was directed to go through the teepees and search for arms.

Big Foot tried to lift himself to his elbow, the fire of battle flashing from his black eyes, but his strength was far spent, and he sank back feebly. Then, all at once, a weird sound broke on the frosty air. It came from the throat of the dying chief, and it was a death chant. The warriors outside took it up, and the plaintive wail of their voices echoed back from the furthermost bluffs.

All at once, in the twinkling of an eye, the chant changed to a war song. Out from beneath their blankets leaped their loaded rifles as they sprang to their feet, and they opened fire to the right and left on the startled soldiers. The warriors who had no rifles leaped like tigers at the whites, their hatchets and knives ready for red work.

"Fire!" rang the command, and the soldiers returned the volley.

"Remember Custer!" That was the battle cry of the whites.

Slowly Big Foot arose to his feet, making one fearful struggle to fling off the grip of death that was on him and join his people in battle against the hated whites. His face was working convulsively and his eyes blazing. To his full height he arose, his lips parted, to utter a wild warcry. Then he was riddled by 20 bullets and fell forward on his face without uttering a sound—fell as falls the mighty monarch of the forest when riven by the lightning's blast. His squaw shrieked and sprang up, but the remorseless bullets cut her down, and she sank across Big Foot's body.

And merciful death veiled the eyes of the chief to the horrible slaughter of his people that followed—a slaughter that was misnamed the battle of Wounded Knee.

In the Stormy Night.

"One night as darkness came on," said the old sailor, continuing his reminiscences, "we found ourselves running down the Newfoundland coast before a heavy gale, having been unable to make an anchorage. The wind was steady and strong, and although everything was close reefed but a single staysail the schooner was cutting through the water with a speed that seemed equal to an express train. The Merribel, as she was called, had a cutwater like the blade of a knife, and she was certainly the fastest craft I ever saw that was not built particularly for speed.

"The crew in general felt decidedly shaky, even though Captain Jones told us over and over that there was no danger unless the wind shifted to drive us on the lee shore, and we were all aware he knew every foot of brine from New Bedford to Greenland. He ordered two lights set aloft, while others were kept burning forward, and two men were constantly on the watch. For all of his assurance that there was no danger, I could see he was nervous. This was explained when he declared we were close upon the fishing banks, where sometimes the venturesome fishermen anchored their smacks and rode out anything but the severest storms.

"Barely had he made this explanation when the lookout shouted:

"'Boat ahead!'

"We were right upon her when the cry was uttered, and I saw she was a small schooner that was laying at anchor, broadside toward us. With fatal carelessness she had failed to hoist a light.

"There came a sudden shock as we struck her amidships, but the speed of the Merribel was scarcely checked. We cut the strange schooner fairly in two and bore her down under the waves, while our vessel sped straight on through the wild night. In one terrible moment just after we struck the fisherman, as the sundered wreck was sinking beneath us, I caught a glimpse of two or three half naked men, who rushed from her cabin, flinging up their arms and shrieking out their despair. Their wild screams ring in my ears at this very minute.

"Onward shot the Merribel, and we were alone on the stormy sea. It was impossible to beat back in the face of that gale, and to this day I do not know what boat we struck or if one of the wrecked fishermen escaped."

The reader of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer $100 for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address

SWIFT, MAYOR PRO TEM

Chicago Democratic Aldermen Surrender.

After Several Day's of Wrangling the City Council Meets in Harmonious Session and the Republican Candidate is Elected.

CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—"With great pleasure and not in any critical sense; with feelings of personal pleasure, I declare George B. Swift elected mayor pro tem. of the city of Chicago."

This announcement from Alderman John McGillen, presiding officer of the Chicago common council at their regular meeting last night, was greeted with applause, and marked the peaceful end of the crisis in the municipal government which threatened to become more serious if the party dissensions continued.

The democracy minority of the council surrendered unconditionally to their opponents just before the opening of the regular meeting.

The overtures for peace were made by the steering committee from the democrats, they realizing that their case was hopeless either on a secret ballot or an open one.

Reading Clerk Neumeister opened the meeting by calling the roll, and when the announcement was made that the 68 aldermen were present, Alderman Kent moved that Alderman McGillen take the chair, which he did.

The next move in the line of a peaceful settlement of the trouble was the adoption without reading of the minutes of Saturday's turbulent meeting and discussion and the meeting of yesterday held by the democrats alone.

On motion of Alderman Kent the council then proceeded to take a new ballot for acting mayor.

It was plain to see who would be the choice of the council by the numerous handshakings and congratulations which were observed at Alderman Swift's desk during the ballotting.

Everybody wanted to get into the band wagon.

Alderman O'Neill, as senior teller, announced that the whole number of votes cast had been 69, of which George B. Swift received 50, and John McGillen, 19.

He explained that the extra ballot had been cast by two being folded together, and Chairman McGillen immediately denounced such tactics in the severest terms as unworthy of aldermen and gentlemen.

So that there might be no mistake it was decided by the chair that the ballot was void and another should be taken. He also asked that the next ballot should be unanimous for his opponent.

The second decisive ballot resulted as follows: Swift, 62; McGillen, 5; blank 1. So Mr. Swift was declared mayor pro tem. of the city of Chicago.

NOTORIOUS MOTHER HUBBARD.

Her Arrest in Toledo May Cause a Revelation to Her Husband.

CLEVELAND, O., Nov. 7.—Word was received here yesterday from Toledo that Mrs. Arthur Young was held there on a charge of stealing a pocketbook containing $187.

He husband hastened to her assistance and she denied her guilt. He engaged an attorney to defend her. Later in the day, however, the pocketbook containing the $187 was found in her room, and Mrs. Young, it turns out, is no less a personage than the notorious "Mother Hubbard," whose sneak thieving propensities are known to the police throughout the country, and whose picture adorns the rogue's gallery in many of the larges cities.

For years past she has lived a dual life.

Mr. and Mrs. Young have lived in Cleveland for several years, their home being on the fashionable west side. They have enjoyed the highest esteem of all who knew them, and Mr. Young was completely ignorant of his wife's real character.

Bernhardt Defies the Authorities.

PARIS, Nov. 7.—Sarah Bernhardt opened her season last evening at the Renaissance theatre. Despite all reports to the contrary she appeared in the original version of Jules Lemaitre's "Les Rois." The scene which was said to be obnoxious to the Austrian ambassador was strongly suggestive of Prince Rudolph's death at Meyerling. The performance was an unqualified success.

Missing Dr. Ames Heard From.

BROCKTON, Mass., Nov. 7.—Dr. Charles Ames, formerly of this city, whose strange disappearance from South Braintree almost on the eve of his marriage caused much comment and speculation, has been heard from. A near relative in this city has received a note from him. It was very brief, bearing no date line or signature, and simply the words "all right."

Weeks Will Plead Guilty.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—District Attorney Nicoll said last evening that embezzler Francis H. Weeks would plead guilty to the indictments found against him, and that there would be no trial of his case. Mr. Nicoll had a conference with the friends of Weeks, in which this course was outlined to him.

Patent Office Report.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—The annual report of Commissioner Seymour, of the patent office shows that during the last fiscal year the number of patents granted, including reissues and designs, was 23,471; trademarks issued 1,884. The number of patents which expired during the year was 18,672.

THE ENVY OF KINGS.

The Princes of the Earth May Envy the Poor.

RICHES AND POWER CANNOT MAKE LIFE PLEASANT OR HAPPY.

The True Way To Find Happiness for Those Who Have It Not.

Wealth does not make happiness. It does not make even comfort.

Sickness blights everything.

Kings and princes may envy the poor the blessing of good health.

If you are in pain or suffering you cannot be happy.

This is why the remarks of the well-known Harriet Robinson, of 74 Snell st., Fall River, Mass., have so much weight and are worthy of all attention.

"I firmly believe," she said, "that I should not be living today if it had not been for Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. Such awful pains in my head and back, and my stomach, oh, it was so bad! I now am well and eat naturally; I have no pains or distress, thanks to Dr. Greene's Nervura I am well again. It was over two years ago that I was cured, and no trace of the disease has returned."

HARRIET ROBINSON.

Another widely known lady, Mrs. N. Blatt, of 73 Mulberry st., Newark, N. J., speaking in the same vein, says:

"I have been suffering with pain in the back and head. I tried doctors, but found no relief. I was recommended to try Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy I now sleep soundly and have no pain and am well, thanks to Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy."

If you are a sufferer from disease it is plainly your own fault if you do not get cured. This wonderful medicine, Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy will certainly cure you. It is purely vegetabe and harmless.

It is constantly prescribed and recommended by doctors. It is the discovery of a physician, Dr. Greene, of 35 West 14th st., New York, the famous and successful specialist in curing all forms of nervous and chronic diseases. He can be consulted without charge, personally or by letter.

Great Excitement in Camden.

CAMDEN, N. J., Nov. 7.—There is great commotion and excitement in the city. The sheriff has five hundred deputies on duty at the election here to-day, and the police commissioners have five hundred special policemen. To prevent a riot the Sixth regiment is held in readiness. Col. Cooper has barricaded the armory and concealed the ammunition.

GAMBLING MUST STOP.

The Kaiser's Strong Edict to Men in Active Service in the Army.

BERLIN, Nov. 7.—Emperor William has issued the expected edict against gambling in the army. By it he forbids games of hazard of any kind among men in active service, and directs the chief officers to report and punish severely all transgressors of the order.

The edict is worded so strongly that everybody now believes all the officers implicated in the Hanover gambling scandal will be dismissed from the army.

Working on Full Time.

HARTFORD, Conn., Nov. 7.—The men employed on gun work by the Colt's patent firearms manufacturing company have begun working ten hours per day. The machinists employed by the Pope manufacturing company, about 35 in number, will hereafter work 14 hours per day on account of the approaching busy season in bicycles.

Hon. Wm. Silverthorne Dead.

BELVIDERE, N. J., Nov. 7.—William Silverthorne, who is well known throughout the state, died at his residence in Belvidere yesterday, aged 71 years. He had been county treasurer, a member of the assembly and state senator.

It's Right Against Common Sense

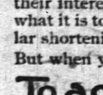
to suppose that an imitation offers the customer any guarantee like the original does. Take Cottolene for example. FAIRBANK & CO. discovered it, perfected it, and spent thousands in making its merits known. It is plainly to their interest to make and keep it what it is to-day—the most popular shortening in the world.

But when you come

To accept any Counterfeits for Cottolene

these guarantees all disappear, and the housekeeper is at the mercy of an imitator who deals on others' reputation and who profits only by others' loss.

To ensure having good cooking and healthful food stick right to COTTOLENE and let all imitations severely alone.



Sold in 3 and 5 pound pails.

Made only by

ADVENTURES AND INCIDENTS FAR OUT OF THE ORDINARY.

The Unaccountable Mutiny on the American Ship Mohawk—Overpowered and Set Adrift In an Open Boat—The Storm and the Vision of the Shipwreck.

[Copyright, 1893, by American Press Association.]

Everybody remembers the mysterious and unexplained disappearance of the full rigged American ship Mohawk, that sailed from Foo-Choo, China, with a cargo of teas consigned to New York dealers. It is known there was a mutiny and that Captain Cross and some of the crew were cast adrift in an open boat by the rebellious sailors, but there is a portion of the captain's story that has never before appeared in print. I had a long talk with the old skipper a few days ago, and he told me of the whole strange affair from beginning to end, giving me liberty to publish it if I wished. I found it interesting, and it may interest others.

The Mohawk's crew was a motley collection of various nationalities, such as every captain who follows the high seas is forced to accept in these days, but they seemed willing and capable; and, as the pay was satisfactory and the feed unusually good, the captain did not apprehend any serious trouble. To this day he is unable to explain the cause of the mutiny, but he is inclined to think there was a spell cast on the ship by a beggar who was driven from her deck as she lay in Foo-Choo and that she sailed from that port under an evil star. All sailors are more or less superstitious.

The Mohawk was well down the Indian ocean when the mutiny occurred, and it came without the least warning, like a thunderclap from a clear sky. One of the men, a Lascar, refused point blank to go aloft, and when the first mate attempted to lay hands on the fellow he gave a cry that brought two-thirds of the sailors rushing to his side. Then he defied captain or mate to lay a hand on him.

"Mutiny!" cried Captain Cross, starting for his cabin, where he kept a fine winchester rifle.

Although shocked by the suddenness of the affair, he was not stunned, and he meant to make a stiff fight, but two of the rebellious crew intercepted and grappled with him. As he struggled with the men, both of whom were powerful fellows, he saw the first mate fighting fiercely in the midst of the mutineers. The others of the crew who were not in the plot had fallen back to the rail, all of them appearing frightened and undecided. The skipper roared at them to pitch in and fight for their lives, but even that was not enough to arouse them.

The struggle was brief, resulting in the complete conquering of the captain, first mate and those of the crew who were not in the plot, for plot it plainly was. The leader of the mutineers was a dark faced man named Delaro, in whose veins there ran the mingled blood of at least three races. He was a sullen, silent man, but an efficient sailor, and Captain Cross had never for a moment dreamed he would head a rebellion.

"What do you mean to do with us?" demanded the skipper after he had discovered commands and threats were wasted.

"Wait," said Delaro, who was standing guard, a loaded musket in his hands. "Don't git in hurry. You find out soon."

"I warn you that I will hunt you down and bring you to justice for this," grated the furious but helpless captain. "You will not escape."

Delaro sneered. "That's all you know. We not fools to sail the seas. Pirates all gone. Ship worth money; cargo worth money. I know how to git money. Then you find us. We be scattered everywhere."

The captain tried to convince him he would find it impossible to dispose of the Mohawk or her cargo, but the chief of the mutineers expressed his scorn by looks and grunts. A boat was quickly loaded with "salt grub," two casks of water being added, after which she was lowered from the davits and the overpowered sailors forced to descend into her. Then the mutineers aimed their firearms at the unfortunates and sent a few bullets "chugging" into the water about the boat as the ship sailed away.

The men in the boat watched her until she was hull down against the horizon, and Captain Cross seemed to arouse himself with an effort.

"Men," he said soberly, "there is a group of small islands to the westward, and I propose we make for them, as, if I am not mistaken, a storm is brewing. We do not want to be on the sea in this boat if a heavy blow arises."

They got out the oars and pulled away to the west. It was near sundown when they ran through the jagged reef that surrounded a beautiful little island, and they were scarcely ashore when the storm that had been threatening for long hours came swirling down upon them with appalling suddenness. Darkness flung itself over the sea with the vanishing of the sun, and all that wild night they crouched in the lee of a huge overhanging bluff, while the wind roared, the surf thundered over the reef, the murk was sundered by jagged lightning, and the earth fairly reeled at each peal of thunder. The rain literally fell in a flood.

Toward morning the fierceness of the storm lessened, and as a muddy brown streak showed in the east the fury of the tempest swept on and was gone. Still the breakers boomed over the reef in a white mass of foam that leaped up in a vain attempt to brush the sullen mass of ragged clouds that hung low over the face of the ocean.

All at once one of the men leaped up, fairly screaming:

"Look, look, a ship!"

They all looked in the direction indicated, and they distinctly saw a dismasted ship driving toward the reef, seeming perfectly helpless to avert her doom. Evidently she had been disabled and nearly wrecked in the terrible storm, and the work of disaster was to be completed on the relentless reef.

"It's the Mohawk!" shouted Captain Cross. "I know her for all that has happened! She's flying a signal of distress! Why don't the men take to the boats? She'll surely go to pieces on the reef!"

Now the mutineers could be distinctly seen rushing about wildly, and it soon became evident they had no boats to launch, probably having been deprived of them in the hurricane. Then Captain Cross and his companions rushed down to the shore and shoved their boat into the water in the teeth of the heavy sea, a thing they could not have accomplished but for the fact that the reef broke the force of the waves in a measure. For all of what had happened, the skipper and seamen resolved to render such assistance to the imperiled mutineers as lay in their power.

As the boat ran out from the island the ship seemed to strike a reef, and the shrieks of the men aboard her were plainly heard. The captain and his men all pulled to the best of their ability, and as they approached they saw the ship go to pieces before their eyes. Still they pulled, hoping to be able to pick up some of the unfortunate wretches who were aboard the doomed craft. Through the leaden mists of dawn they saw the luckless mutineers struggling in the water. And then, all at once, as the clouds in the east broke away and a ray of rose colored light shot through and fell on the boiling water about the reef, neither ship nor men were to be seen. In a single moment all had vanished, and only the wild waves roared and foamed and belched over the reef.

Captain Cross and his companions were stunned. In vain they cruised about the spot, hoping to see a timber, a spar, something—anything that would tell them it had not all been a hallucination. They saw nothing. The clouds parted in the east, and the morning sun shone through before they rowed back to the island. And not a body nor one piece of timber did the water throw up on the beach, although they watched for something of the kind the entire day. Not until the coming of another night could they agree they had been deceived by a vision, a delusion, a mystery of the sea. Then they decided the Mohawk had not driven on the reef at all, for it was impossible that every piece of the ship and every one of the men aboard her should have sunk like lead and no relic been tossed up by the waves that beat on the sandy island beach.

But what became of the Mohawk? That is a question unanswered to this day, for no trace of her has ever been discovered. No sailor believes her yet afloat, and still no sailor seems to know in what part of the great deep her bones lie buried. And not one of the mutineers has Captain Cross confronted since the day he was cast adrift in the open boat with a few faithful followers.

Two days after the storm he was taken from the island by an American vessel, being eventually landed in Baltimore. It was agreed among the men that no mention should be made of the visionary shipwreck they fancied they witnessed until at least two years had passed or the lost Mohawk was discovered. That was more than two years ago.

A Roaster Cured.

Reuben Dean lives in the rather sleepy little town of B—— in the state of New Jersey, and he has acquired the unenviable reputation of being an unblushing liar and boaster. Up to one night about two weeks ago he missed no opportunity to bore somebody with a tale of some terrific adventure through which he had passed, taking care to depict himself as the fearless hero of each bloodcurdling episode. He declared he did not believe in spirits other than those to be found at the bar of the village tavern, and he professed to hold in the greatest contempt any one who feared ghosts or the supernatural.

Reuben lived about a mile and a half outside of the village, and it was his custom each night after supper to hitch his scrawny old white horse into his wobbly wagon and ride down to the "howtel," where he was certain to meet his cronies and spend an hour or two romancing and bragging. Through the day he kept the white horse out to pasture, and one night he found the animal had knocked out several lengths of the staggering fence and escaped from confinement. If he spent much time to search for the horse, he would not get into town in time to hobnob with his set, so he started out afoot, satisfied the horse would not go far and no one would steal him.

Just outside the village is the cemetery, which Reuben passed every night. This evening, some time before he came to the cemetery, he fell in with two men of the place, who were on their way to the postoffice. As the three trudged along the subject of ghosts happened to come up, and one of the men remarked that old Mother Carey, who had the reputation of being a witch, had been buried that day.

"Wa-al," drawled Reuben as he took a huge chew of tobacco, "I s'pose folks'll be seein spooks 'raound the graveyard naow she's burried there. Such foolishness makes me sick, by gosh! They hain't no such thing as spooks, and if there was they'd never skeer me."

Immediately one of his companions challenged him to cut across the cemetery with them. At first he tried to get out of it, but their laughter caused him to consent, and he scaled the fence, telling them to follow.

They had not proceeded far amid the white tombstones, where the darkness was gathering thickly, before one of the men said the newmade grave of the old witch was just ahead. At that instant a loud "woosh" came out of the shadows, and then up before the trio rose a huge white figure that looked grotesque and terrible amid the murky shadows.

A wild yell of horror pealed from the lips of Reuben Dean, and he promptly whirled and fled for his life. He hadn't made more than six leaps before he fell floundering into a newly excavated grave, where he lay groaning:

"Don't touch me, Mrs. Carey! I'd never said it if I'd thought! I didn't mean anything! Oh, Lord! Don't touch me, good Mrs. Ghost!"

In about three minutes the other two men came along and pulled him out of the grave, one of them saying with the utmost contempt:

"Get up here, you fool! Shut up your whining! Here's your ghost, and I advise you to take it home."

Then Reuben saw before him his own old white horse, which one of his companions had captured without a struggle. It took him about five minutes to get the thing through his head, and then he took the horse by the mane and led it home. Since then he sneaks into the village surreptitiously and gets out as soon as possible, but somebody is sure to see him and ask him about that "ghost." He has quit boasting, and it is hoped he is cured.

THE ELECTION.

This edition of The Press is issued at daylight to give the public the news of the great Republican tidal wave which has swept the States where elections were held yesterday. While the local interest centres on New Jersey, it is no less important to note the tremendous change in New York State, Brooklyn and Massachusetts. No one dreamed that the gallant young Russell of the old Bay State could be defeated, but that is only one of the many surprises. The chief matter of regret to local Democrats is that the intrepid leader James E. Martine has been swept along with the rest of the ticket in the general landslide. Mr. Martine was forced to accept the nomination for Senator against his will and against his better judgment, but having entered the arena he fought with his characteristic earnestness. He accepts his defeat philosophically. The zeal and power of the Farmer Orator will continue with his party for a long time to come. Democrats may proudly point to his campaign as a cleanly one, distinguished in brilliant contrast from the unsavory methods of the Republican local organs. The venomous personal abuse which has been characteristic of the sheet bossed by the Plainfield ring was certainly no contributory cause towards the Republican victory, but simply one of those filthy incidents which crop out in politics to the disgust of decent people and the disgrace of the men of influence who permit them.

As for New Jersey, the Republicans seem to have captured her after years of waiting. What they will do with her is an interesting study of the future. For the present The Press is content to state the facts and await the outcome.

It was beautiful weather, anyway. The Republicans can't take away Democratic enjoyment of that.

The Press has insisted from the start that Founder Bradley of Asbury Park would make an interesting and important figure in the State House. And he will!

The election of Thompson as Senator from Somerset reaffirms that the Republicans of the mountain districts can control that county when they will. North Plainfield Republicans who felt sore because Spencer was defeated last campaign for Surrogate, in spite of his handsome North Plainfield majority, could n't have got square this time even had they seriously tried.

DEFEATED, BUT NOT CAST DOWN.

Candidate Martine Ready to Fight It Out Again on the same Lines.

TO THE DEMOCRATS OF UNION COUNTY:—The contest has been fought and the Democratic party is defeated. For myself I most earnestly thank my friends for their support in the canvass. I still feel that our principles are the salvation of our country, and would again fight the battle on the same lines. As I have oftimes said, "Better defeat in defense of a great principle than victory in the advocacy of an unholy cause". Let us still stand together in the glorious fight for "equal rights, equal laws and justice". J. E. MARTINE.

Deserved Tribute to McPherson.

(From The Summit Record.)

There is little reason for fear that New Jersey is to be deprived of the services, in the United States Senate, of John R. McPherson. It is of course easy to understand why Senator McPherson might look with equanimity on a prospective retirement from a place in which he has given the best years and greatest labor of his life to the service of the people.

The Democratic party has too few men of Senator McPherson's calibre and attainments to weaken itself by permitting him to be supplanted by a representative of the methods that have gained so much power, as well as disrepute in these days

In the eighteen years that John R. McPherson has represented New Jersey he has added to the honor and fair-fame of New Jersey as no predecessor of his had ever done; and today when the people have the proud consciousness of being represented in the United States Senate by two of the ablest men in that body, they are not likely to weaken the position given them through such representation by assenting to the retirement, voluntary or enforced, of the man who has done so much to give the Democratic party in New Jersey, force, character and public confidence.

THE BAY STATE REPUBLICAN.

Greenhalge Elected Over Russell by 15,000 to 30,000.

BOSTON, Nov. 7.—Seventy-five precincts in Boston give Greenhalge 11,153, Russell 13,156. In 1892 these same precincts gave Halle 10,986, Russell 14 824.

Henry Cabot Lodge is figuring the returns at the Republican Club headquarters with Chairman Winslow. They had returns from 54 towns showing a ten per cent. uniform gain.

Senator Lodge said the State would give Mr. Greenhalge 30,000 plurality.

The Globe (Dem.) in a 7 o'clock extra concedes Greenhalge's election by 15,000 plurality.

The Herald at 7:25 p. m., bulletins; "Greenhalge elected; his plurality is only a question of size. Russell gets a small vote in Boston."

PRAYER AT THE POLLS.

Warren County Divided Between the Two Parties.

(Special to The Press.)

BELVIDERE, N. J., Nov. 7.—The election here was remarkable in some respects. Before the polls were open a prayer meeting was held under the auspices of the Citizens' League. Prayers were offered for the success of the Citizens' League ticket in Warren county.

NEW JERSEY REPUBLICAN.

DEMOCRATS SUFFER OVERWHELMING DEFEAT THROUGHOUT THE STATE.

Republican Majority Probable in Both Branches of the Legislature.

The election in New Jersey was for 8 members of the State Senate and an entire House of Assemby, 60 members. In the last Legislature the Senate contained 5 Republicans and 16 Democrats, and the Assembly contained 21 Republicans and 39 Democrats. The Democrats thus had majorities of 11 in the Senate, 18 in the House, and 29 on joint ballot. Four Republican and 9 Democratic Senators held over, and yesterday's elections were to fill the places of 1 Republican and 7 Democrats. They resulted in the choice of 7 Republicans and 1 Democrat, a Republican gain of 6. Added to the hold-over members, these will make the Senate stand 11 Republicans and 10 Democrats; the Republican majority being 1, against 11 Democratic last year. The new House of Assembly will, apparently, contain 37 Republicans and 23 Democrats; the Republican majority being 14, against a Democratic majority of 18 last year.

THE NEW SENATORS.

THE VOTE IN UNION COUNTY.

Country Districts Roll up a Big Republican Aggregate.

Midnight returns from Union county indicate the undoubted election of the entire Republican ticket. Rahway gives 196 Republican majority, Westfield 143, Cranford 96, New Providence 20, Summit 30, Linden 90, Union 95.

SENATOR MARSH GIVES UP.

(Special to The Press.)

ELIZABETH, Nov. 7.—At midnight Ex-Senator Marsh concedes the election of the entire Republican ticket in the county. He says that the new House will be Republican, and probably the Senate.

THOMPSON WINS IN SOMERSET.

(Special to The Press.)

SOMERVILLE, N J.—L. A. Thompson, Republican candidate for Senator, has been elected by 500 majority. Frank W. Somers, Republican candidate for Assembly, is also elected.

MAYNARD SWAMPED.

HE BROUGHT DISASTER TO THE STATE TICKET.

Croker Yields—Concedes that Even the Legislature Is Lost — Tammany in Gloom—The City Only, Saved to the Tiger.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—At Republican headquarters at 9:50 p. m. the claim was made, based upon information received from party leaders throughout the State, that E. J. Bartlett is elected Judge of the Court of Appeals by from 25,000 to 30,000 plurality.

The balance of the State ticket is claimed by pluralities ranging from 15,000 to 30,000.

At 8:30 o'clock, at Tammany Hall, Richard Croker conceded the defeat of Isaac H. Maynard and the entire State ticket, with the exception of the Legislature.

At 9 p. m. Richard Croker said: "It looks as if the Republicans have made a clean sweep of the State ticket, including the Legislature."

Isaac H. Maynard has undoubtedly been defeated for Judge of the Court of Appeals.

The presence of his name on the Democratic ticket cost the party thousands of votes in this city and throughout the State, and was the cause of its defeat.

Returns from this city, Kings county and up the State received up to 3:30 p. m., confirm the prediction of Thomas C. Platt and Chairman Brookfield, of the Republican State Committee, that Isaac H. Maynard will be buried under a landslide.

BOODY BEATEN.

SCHIEREN ELECTED MAYOR OF BROOKLYN BY 10,000.

(Special to The Press.)

BROOKLYN, Nov. 7.—Ring rule in Brooklyn has been overthrown.

The votes of its citizens cast today at the polls have decided this, apparently by a safe majority.

At 8:30 this evening it was claimed at Republican Headquarters that Mayor Boody had been hopelessly beaten, and that Mr. Schieren, the Republican candidate, had been elected by at least 10,000 majority.

The indications at that hour were that the entire Republican State ticket had received a safe plurality in Kings county, and that Maynard had been beaten by 12,000 votes.

The other Democratic candidates on the State ticket were believed to have been defeated by pluralities ranging from 8,000 to 10 000.

In addition to this a sweeping victory is claimed for the local Republican ticket in Kings County.

The Democrats themselves have acknowledged their defeat and have thrown up the sponge.

This is one of the most crushing blows ever administered to the rule of the bosses, and it is generally regarded as a direct consequence of the high-handed proceedings which have characterized the political policy of the ring during the past few days.

RIOTS IN CAMDEN.

A Number of Persons Shot and Republican Deputy Sheriffs Arrested.

CAMDEN, Nov 7.—Election riots occurred today in the Ninth ward. Several persons, including deputy sheriffs, are reported as having been shot by policemen. Deputy sheriffs are being arrested by the police authorities and held without bail. The voting in every ward in the city was heavy, in some of the precincts more than two-thirds of the entire registered vote being polled up to noon.

In the Fifth and part of the Sixth and Ninth wards there have been a number of rows, mainly between the special police and the deputy sheriffs. Several deputies were arrested by the special police and during a riot in the Ninth ward several deputies were wounded.

At noon persons appealed to Sheriff West to place the military in readiness as a general riot was feared. At the Cooper Hospital the following persons have been admitted:

Samuel Fullman, 812 Chestnut street, shot in the head; George Banks, shot in the leg; Frank Swain, Eighth ward, shot in the leg and head cut; Nelson Geary, shot in the head; Edward Greer, shot in the leg; Martin Van Dyke, shot in the side; Julia Chambers, 708 Chestnut street, cut in the throat by an unknown person; Frank Dobson, head cut; Samuel Collins, Stockton, shot in the leg.

GLOOM AT TAMMANY HALL.

Bulletins Read Announcing Maynard's Big Falling Off.

(Special to The Press.)

NEW YORK, Nov. 7—The usual rejoicing generally witnessed at Tammany Hall on Election Night has given place to gloom. Many of the bravee are there, but as bulletin after bulletin is read showing a falling off in Maynard's vote everywhere, the depression is deepening.

VIRGINIA DEMOCRATIC.

Large Majority for State Ticket and in the Legislature.

(Special to The Press.)

RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 7, 6 p. m.—There is every indication that the Democratic State ticket is elected by a large majority and that they will have more than a two-thirds majority in the Legislature.

The negroes are voting the Democratic ticket.

FANWOOD SLAUGHTERS SAUER.

Martine Runs Ahead of His Ticket in Assemblyman Kyte's Home.

(Special to The Press.)

FANWOOD, Nov. 7—The counting of the vote here was concluded early. Kyte did nobly in his own home, and far exceeded the township's usual Republican majority of 55. A year ago his majority was 77; this year it was 138. The total vote polled was 308, of a registration of 347. The returns are as follows:

FOR SENATOR.

DEM.		REP.
Martine	130	Voorhees	175
Sauer	83	Kyte	221

FOR SHERIFF.

Winans	110	Codding	193

FOR CORONER.

PASSAIC LIKE THE REST.

(Special to The Press.)

PATERSON, N. J., Nov. 7.—The Republicans sweep Passaic county on the county ticket, electing Johnston Sheriff by 1,500.

HUNTERDON ALONE FAITHFUL.

(Special to the Press.)

FLEMINGTON, N. J., Nov. 7.—Hunterdon county elects two Democratic Assemblyman—James L. Chamberlain in the First District, by 100 plurality, and W. C. Alpaugh in the Second District, by 900 majority. The whole Democratic ticket is elected in the county.

BRADLEY ELECTED.

(Special to The Press.)

FREEHOLD, N. J., Nov. 7.—James A. Bradley, Republican candidate for Senator, has been elected over Terhune (Dem.) by 500 majority. The three Republican candidates are elected to the Assembly in Monmouth county.

ESSEX COUNTY REPUBLICAN.

(Special to The Press.)

SOMERVILLE, Nov. 7.—Essex county elected Herman Lehlbach, Rep., Sheriff, and William Riker, Rep., Register.

HUDSON'S GREAT FLOP.

(Special to The Press.)

JERSEY CITY, Nov. 7.—The Republican candidate for Sheriff of Hudson has been elected by 4,500 majority.

SOUTH DAKOTA REPUBLICAN.

(Special to The Press.)

YANKTON, SOUTH DAKOTA, Nov. 7.—The State has probably gone Republican, though the Democrats claim one Supreme Court Judge.

Receding From Agriculture.

It would appear from the third volume of the census of England and Wales that the total number of both sexes employed on the land, which in 1871 was 1,153,544, and in 1881, 1,071,941, was in 1891, 980,378, showing a total decrease of 173,271 for the 20 years, in spite of the general increase of the population. Part of this decrease is due to the diminished employment of women and boys, which is probably pure good. But the total figures certainly confirm the impression that the people are receding from agriculture.—London Spectator.

Rates For Clergymen.

Clergyman (to hotel clerk)—What do you charge a day?

Clerk—Three dollars.

Clergyman—You have rates for clergymen, of course.

Clerk—Oh, yes, sir.

Clergyman—How much are they?

Clerk—Three dollars.—Boston Courier.

He Swapped.

"I had an 1853 25 cent piece in my coin collection once," said Wilfred, "but I got tired of it and swapped it."

"What did you swap it for?" asked Tom.

"Two glasses of soda water and an 1883 5 cent piece. Then I swapped the 5 cent piece for a stick of chewing gum."—Harper's Bazar.

PAPER CHASE FROM HOLLY FARM.

THE RIDING CLUB AND ITS FRIENDS HAVE A GLORIOUS DAY.

After a Highway Course and Cross-Country Gallop, the Riders Have Supper at Spring Lake Homestead —John Munn Wins the Spurs in a Brilliant Finish.

The enthusiasm that has been rife for equestrian exercise among society people of Plainfield culminated yesterday afternoon in one of the most unique entertainments that has ever been given in this city. The paper chase at the Holly Farm has been the theme of discussion for a week past and it is but mild approbation to say that no one was disappointed when the expected event became a reality.

The meet of the "paper chasers" took place at the Holly home at 3 yesterday afternoon and at that time a score or more of riders had assembled and a number of rigs of various kinds were in readiness to follow the horse-run. Mr. Pentz of Fanwood, who is a member of Troop A, New York, and of the Riding Club in this city, acted as the hare and was given 15 minutes start of the other riders. He was supplied with strips of white muslin by which he marked his course. At every turn he tied a strip of the white cloth to a tree or fence to show his pursuers which direction he had taken. The start was made at about 3:30 and the 20 horsemen filed out into Park avenue followed by the carriages. The course lay down Park avenue to the cross roads beyond the race track, down Woodland avenue past the Hillside cemetery to Netherwood, on South avenue to the railroad bridge between Netherwood and Fanwood, to Front street, to Scotch Plains, back via Front street to Crescent avenue, out Eighth street to New Brooklyn and back to the Holly farm. The whole run took but one hour and a quarter. The carriages took the best roads all the way while the horsemen took to the fields wherever practicable and had a taste of some real cross-country riding. Taking into consideration the fact that many of the riders had never done anything but the quietest road riding, the entire chase comported itself gallantly and no accident of any moment occurred during the entire run. The pace set was a breakneck one and the mounts were urged to their utmost speed on all the smooth stretches that lay in the course. The prize given by Mr. Holly to the one first covering the course was a handsome pair of spurs and the fortunate one to win them was John Munn, who succeeded in reaching the gates of the Holly place only a length ahead of the second man.

After the riders had seen that their horses had been cared for they assembled in the house, where, with appetites whetted with he exhilaration and excitement of the ride, all hands enjoyed a jolly supper. Part of the evening was spent in an amusing contest between the girls and the men in making neckties and trimming hats. Some twenty hats were trimmed and an equal number of neckties were made and the results would have driven a milliner of a haberdasher out of his head. Prizes were given for the best example of each of the tasks, the men voting to decide the victorious necktie and the girls choosing the best hat. Miss Holly of New York was the fortunate maker of the finest necktie and received a bonboniere for her prowess, while Mr. Tenny, of New York, was awarded a silver match-box, the prize for the most artistic hat. After the prizes had been awarded and the winners had received the congratulations of the company there was dancing in the dining-room, which had been cleared for that purpose.

Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Ginna, Mr. and Mrs. Pentz, of Fanwood; Miss Maude Van Boskerck, Miss Lizzie Van Boskerck, Miss Streuli, Miss Stewart, Miss Whiton, Miss Yates, Miss Dumont, Miss Corlies, Miss Ginna, Miss Annie Opoyke, Miss Erickson, Miss Adams, H. HOTEL ALBION IN BAD SHAPE.

FIRE AND WATER CAUSE HEAVY DAMAGE.

Flames Start from Mysterious Cause, and Col. King and His Guests Are Quickly Driven Out—Quick Work of the Department—Fireman Addis Almost Suffocated.

A most peculiar fire occurred last evening about 7:30, in Hotel Albion.

While Col. A. H. King, the proprietor, and several others, were seated in the parlor, some unknown man rushed into the hall-way and informed Mr. King that his house was on fire. He at once secured the key for the fire-alarm box and sent in an alarm.

The department turned out in wonderfully quick time, and appeared at the scene of the fire very soon after. When Chief Doane arrived, he and Mr. King ascended to the top floor where the flames were discovered. It appears that the fire started in and around the toilet rooms, near the water tank. How it started is a mystery. Several ideas are advanced by different ones, but authentic information is not obtainable.

The entire structure and its contents were thoroughly soaked with water, and the fire was soon extinguished. The water poured down the stirways in a cataract and submerged the floors, ruining walls, carpets and furniture. The interior is in a sorry mess.

The main part of the fire seemed to be located entirely in the upper part of the house.

Some 200 blinds were stored in the attic, which were consumed.

There are a few rooms in the house that were unmolested; these will be occupied by some of the guests; the others will be provided for.

The loss on the building is fully covered by insurance, and work will be commenced at once to restore the hotel to its former condition.

Fireman William Addis was overcome by inhalations of smoke. He was resuscitated at Gazelle Engine-house.

The new hose-tower truck was used to good advantage.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Charles W. Dodd came down from the Pennsylvania mountains to Plainfield to vote.

William Boe of North Plainfield will accompany the 13th N. Y. Battery to Chattanooga, Tenn., Friday.

Jacob Pentz, the well-known sportsman, was the guest last evening of Charles Smith, West Front street.

N. W. Conway, for many years employed by C. Schepflin & Co., and now of Jersey City Heights, is visiting friends here.

H. C. Van Emburgh, who is superintending a street paving contract in Poughkeepsie, is a loyal Republican indeed. He came to Plainfield yesterday morning, cast his vote, and returned on the next train.

The wedding of Miss Mary Cecelia Coughlin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Coughlin of Elizabethport, to ex-Assemblyman Peter L. Hughes, will take place at St. Patrick's church, Elizabethport, Wednesday, Nov. 15, at 3 p. m.

The many friends of Charles Schermerhorn, Jr., join The Press in the hope that a change of air will benefit his shattered health. Accompanied by his mother, he arrived last night at Saranac, in the Adirondack Mountains, where he will remain for an indefinite time.

Bishop Wigger this morning, at the 8:30 mass in St. Mary's church, will confirm a class of 123 children. This is an unusually large confirmation class, and the sight of these bright young faces, and especially of the girls in their confirmation robes of white, should bring a feeling of grateful pride to the hearts of the faithful pastor, Father Smyth, and his devoted assistant.

Karl's Clover Root will purify your blood, clear your complexion, regulate your bowels and make your head clear as a bell; 25c., 50c. and $1. Sold by A. D. Mallinson, 205 North ave., Plainfield, N. J., opp. railroad station.

Captain Sweeney, U. S. A., San Diego, Cal., says: "Shiloh's Catarrh Remedy is the first medicine I have ever found that would do me any good. Price 50c. Sold by A. D. Mallinson, 205 North ave., Plainfield, N. J., opp. railroad station.

Shiloh's Cure, the great cough and croup cure, is in great demand. Pocket size contains 20 doses, only 25c. Children love it. Sold by A. D. Mallinson, 205 North ave., Plainfield, N. J., opp railroad station

THIS HORSE RAN FAR.

He Took Fright at a Bicycle, and the Woman Nearly Fainted.

A runaway occurred on East Ninth street yesterday afternoon, which for a time threatened serious consequences. A young man named Sandford, and a young lady, Miss Murray, were driving along that thoroughfare when the horse became frightened at a bicycle and ran away. The animal was brought to a stop near Broadway, and the lady alighted in a fainting condition. A coachman from a nearby stable took the reins, turned the horse around, when the animal again ran away. The horse turned into Central avenue, with the phaeton on two wheels, and ran fully a mile before it was brought under subjection.

BELONGS TO A PAST AGE —the great, griping, nauseating pill.

In this enlightened age you have Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets—better because they're the smallest, easiest to take and easiest in their action; better because they do lasting good.

They have a tonic effect on the lining membranes, and permanently cure Constipation, Biliousness, Indigestion, Sick or Bilious Headache, Nervousness, and every derangement of the liver, stomach, and bowels.

Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

DR. R. V. PIERCE: Dear Sir—My whole system seems to have undergone a change—since taking "Pleasant Pellets." My nerves are wonderfully improved and I no longer have attacks of "the blues." It is wonderful, the good the "Pellets" have done my liver complaint.

GUNNER JAMES SHOT HIMSELF.

SERIOUS ENDING OF A DAY'S UNSUCCESSFUL SPORT.

While Waiting in Evona Station for a Train for Home, He Accidentally Discharged His Gun, the Charge Mangling His Foot.

John F. James, of Bergen Point, met with a serious gunning accident near this city yesterday. He started out in the morning with his gun, for the purpose of hunting game.

He hunted around in the neighborhood of Evona and Dunellen, and, finding nothing, walked to the Evona station, for the purpose of boarding a train for home.

While sitting in the station, the gun, which he held under his arm, was pointed towards his left foot. The gun was discharged, and the charge lodged in the toes of his left foot.

The woman in charge of the station became frightened, and reproved the man for shooting himself, she thinking it an attempt at suicide.

Mr. James made inquires as to what he might do, but could get no satisfaction.

He finally walked across the street, where he met Wallace Vail, who was driving to this city. Mr. Vail, being a good Samaritan, very kindly offered to take Mr. Jones to a physician. They then went to Dr. Long's house, where his foot was taken care of.

The doctor found it necessary to amputate the second toe, which had been torn to shreds. The shoe was also torn. The man was afterwards taken to the North Avenue station, whence he left for home.

The accident will not impair his walking after it has healed.

FUNERAL OF WILLIAM WHITE.

Obsequies Over His Remains Held in the Baptist Church.

The last sad funeral rites following the death of William White took place from his late residence, 40 Willow avenue, North Plainfield, at 3:30 yesterday afternoon. The house was densely filled with relatives and sympathizing friends of the family, many representative citizens from this city and North Plainfield being in attendance. The body lay in a casket of black cloth and silver mounting, in the east parlor, and around it were clustered friends and associates of the dead man from the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York, with which institution the deceased had been prominently identified for the past eighteen years. The casket stood in an alcove, and there were beautiful floral emblems around it—one bearing the word "Father", and another "Grandpa". The Mutual Life Insurance Company gave a handsome pillow of roses, callas and lilies of the valley.

A quartette composed of Miss May Grant, soprano, Miss A. Kunyon, contralto, W. W. Howland, basso, and Charles W. McCutchen, tenor, sang sweetly "Asleep in Jesus".

The Rev. Dr. D. J. Yerkes read the Scripture and preached the funeral sermon. He spoke in fitting terms of Mr. White, who, he said, was a firm believer in the reality of unseen things. The reverend doctor also eplogized Mr. White and told of his Christian faith and unwavering principles.

The Rev. Dr. Judson, of New York, who was Mr. White's pastor in New York one winter recently, spoke of the lamented dead. He said he had always found him an earnest, conscientious Christian, and one always willing and ready to respond to all cases of emergency. The Rev. Dr. Yerkes offered a solemn prayer, the quartette rendered a beautiful anthem, and the service ended.

The remains will be interred in Hillside Cemetery at 10 today.

Happy Home-Coming of Bride and Groom.

Will F. Williams and bride returned from their wedding trip last evening, and took possession of their cosy rooms at 19 Craig place. They were agreeably surprised to find that kind friends and relatives had taken possession of their rooms during the day and that everything was placed in apple-pie-order, including the wedding presents, which were many and handsome.

Delayed by a Dispute.

At the First district polling place of the Fourth ward, when counting the votes Ballot No. 171 was challenged when taken from the box. It was a Republican ticket, with the name of James E. Martine pasted over the words "Republican Ticket." The Democratic Inspector, M. Flynn, contended that the ticket should be thrown out, and for over an hour the counting of ballots was dispensed with

The Engine Broke Down.

Locomotive 182, attached to a westbound loaded coal train, broke her right driving side at Grant avenue yesterday afternoon at 3:40. The locomotive and train were sidetracked at Washington street, and another engine was telegraphed for to take the train to its destination.

Grocery Store Changes.

F. W. Dunn, the North avenue grocer, has leased the grocery store now occupied by Rockfellow, corner of Park and North avenues, and will move in when Mr. Rockfellow moves out.

$100 Reward, $100.

The reader of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer $100 for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—Ragan lecture tickets are selling fast. 3 for $1.

—Don't miss The Fire Patrol in Music Hall tonight.

—Money in plenty was said to be flowing near the polls in North Plainfield, yesterday.

—The conductors on the Central railroad put on their new regulation caps Sunday.

—The fire-alarm sounded last night was from Box 26, the first time the whistle has been blown from that box for a fire.

—Sweepstake shooting was indulged in on the grounds of the Climax Gun Club, yesterday, and some good scores were made.

—A young lad kept the voters of North Plainfield from being hungry by selling frankfurters and sandwiches last evening. He made good money.

—The annual ball of T. H. Martin and F. H. Nelson, at T. A. B. Hall, last evening, was well patronized. A Newark man furnished the music.

Children's Eyes.

Children have various complaints of the eye, some of which require glasses. When a child holds his book conspicuously near when he has difficulty in seeing letters and figures on the blackboard at school, when he complains of his eyes hurting and of headaches: have his eyes examined and the trouble corrected, and let him grow up in the comfort of perfect vision. If a child sees better or with more comfort with glasses, he should wear them, and to say he is "too young to wear glasses" is just as reasonable as to contend that he is to young to have a fever or toothache.

The famous oculists and opticians, Leech, Stiles & Co., formerly with Queen & Co., of Philadelphia, send their Eye Specialist to 7 East Front street, Plainfield, Thursday, Nov. 9.

It will cost you nothing to determine if glasses will improve vision, as the examination is without charge.

He Had No Vote.

"Ed." Hoover tried to vote in the Second district of the First ward yesterday, and came near being arrested for his trouble.

A STRANGE CASE.

How an Enemy was Foiled.

The following graphic statement will be read with intense interest: "I cannot describe the numb, creepy sensation that existed in my arms, hands and legs. I had to rub and beat those parts until they were sore, to overcome in a measure the dead feeling that had taken possession of them. In addition, I had a strange weakness in my back and around my waist, together with an indescribable 'gone' feeling in my stomach. Physicians said it was creeping paralysis, from which, according to their universal conclusion, there is no relief. Once it fastens upon a person, they say, it continues its insidious progress until it reaches a vital point and the sufferer dies. Such was my prospect. I had been doctoring a year and a half steadily, but with no particular benefit, when I saw an advertisement of Dr Miles' Restorative Nervine, procured a bottle and began using it. Marvelous as it may seem, but a few days had passed before every bit of that creepy feeling had left me, and there has not been even the slightest indication of its return. I now feel as well as I ever did, and have gained ten pounds in weight, though I had run down from 170 to 125. Four others have used Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine on my recommendation, and it has been as satisfactory in their cases as in mine."—James Kane, La Rue, O.

Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine is sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee, or sent direct by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, six bottles for $5, express prepaid. It is free from opiates or dangerous drugs.

General Belief and Private Opinion.

It isn't always that you will find everybody agreeing on any one subject, on the question as to the best place in town to buy most everything you want. There is no room for disagreement. Everybody knows that we are headquarters, and for fear that somebody (lately come to town) may not know it, we append some very

CONVINCING ARGUMENTS.

13 cents buys a new broom.

For a dime you buy outing flannels that were 13c.

You will probably want a new coat this winter. Drop in and look at our assortment. That one at $5.50 may suit you.

We only ask $1 35 for a home-made cheese cloth comfortable filled with white cotton. Thin tumblers 48c. dozen. Even if you don't want Underwear today, you may tomorrow. Don't forget our special sale for ladies, gentlemen and children.

Do you keep a horse?—We bought about 100 of the well-known 5a Blankets, manufacturers' samples, no two alike. You buy them at manufacturers' prices.

HOSIERY—We place on sale today 50 dozen all-wool, English cashmere stockings, sizes 6 to 8½; fast black, 25c pair. Regular price 50c.

HOUSEFURNISHING DEPARTMENT—Our sale of granite ironware is the biggest kind of a success. There is everything in coffee and tea pots, cooking pots, pans, etc., at tinware prices.

DRESS GOODS—Our dress goods trade is more than satisfactory, and a good reason for it. Never have we offered such values in desirable goods as we have this season.

Our Shoe Business Grows.

HALLOCK & DAVIS.

THE FINANCIER.

Absolutely pure gold is said to be 24 carats fine.

Many Roman tin coins are known to be in existence.

English sovereigns were first minted in 1489. They were called by various nicknames.

The bronze cent and 2 cent pieces were first coined in 1864 and the nickel half dime in 1866.

During the reign of Numa Pompilius, 700 B. C., an experiment was made with wooden money.

The director of our mint says that the United States has $654,000,000 gold, $575,000,000 silver, $405,000,000 paper, or over $25 to each inhabitant.

The total amount of money issued by the continental congresses and the states to carry on the war of the Revolution was not short of $500,000,000.

Edward I forbade the circulation of foreign money in England and established an exchange at Dover where travelers might dispose of or purchase money.

During the hundred years' war between France and England every baron in both countries claimed and exercised the right to coin what money he pleased.

In 1840 Great Britain had £35,000,000 of paper money, in 1890 £29,000,000; at the former date France had £9,000,000, at the latter £115,000,000; Austria had £70,000,000 and £123,000,000 respectively.

The total coinage, gold and silver, of the reign of Henry III was £3,806; the total coinage of the reign of Victoria up to 1892 was £544,100,000, of which £312,300,000 were of gold and £231,800,000 of silver.

The Hebrews had no coins of their own until the days of the Maccabees, who issued shekels and half shekels, with the inscriptions, "Jerusalem, the Holy," "Simon, Prince of Israel." These bear no images.—St. Louis Globe Democrat.

THE HEIR APPARENT.

The kings of Italy, Spain, Belgium, Bavaria and Saxony have never taken the trouble to be crowned.

The Duchess of Fife recently performed the feat of landing seven salmon, weighing from 6 to 10 pounds each, in one day near Mar Lodge.

It is stated that at one time the father of the Princess of Wales was so poor that he was obliged to supplement his small income by giving drawing lessons.

Among the many decorations worn by the queen of Portugal is a medal which was conferred on her several years ago, when she threw herself into the Tagus to save her children.

The sultan of Turkey is a monomaniac on the subject of carriages. He has been steadily engaged in making a collection of such vehicles for the past 20 years, and now has nearly 500 of all makes and kinds.

The Princess of Bulgaria has won the hearts of her people by her simplicity. She attends the weekly market at Sophia on foot, going from stall to stall to make her purchases, escorted only by a respectful crowd of peasants.

Queen Victoria has taken to having pet birds in her private rooms. At first canaries were tried, at the suggestion of the Princess Beatrice, but the queen found the noise too trying, and at the present moment she has with her a bullfinch and a linnet.

THE CRITIC.

Oscar Wilde says, "Beware of women who wear violet."

Mrs. Julia Ward Howe received the very munificent sum of $5 for the "Battle Hymn of the Republic" from the publishers of The Atlantic and $10 for "Our Orders."

William Dean Howells is about to issue a book in which he will elaborate his views upon the social system. He is a socialist in theory and is even accused of leanings toward anarchy.

Zola put his recent visit to London to some practical use by learning all he could about the seamy side of the British metropolis, with the idea of utilizing the information thus obtained in his next novel.

Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes is looking well for his years. The other day he visited the Boston courthouse, and when he saw his son standing at the door made a respectful bow and said, "How do you do, Mr. Justice Holmes?"

The historian Mommsen is a small man with a big head on him. He is medium sized in stature, but his extreme thinness makes him appear almost diminutive. The Berliners say he has some of the "windschief" appearance that characterized Frederick the Great.

THE BOTANIST.

Orchids are comparatively new to florists and the public, but they are becoming more common and at the same time more perfect every year.

The great oaks in Waverly, Mass., are survivors of an oak forest that must have existed in that region, according to the geologists, as far back as the tenth century.

In potting the bulbs for winter blooming, do not omit the freesias. They are quite cheap, and quantities of them may be potted at small cost. They bloom with but little care.

Yuccas are readily transplanted. They do not always start to grow right away afterward, but they come in time. They are, in fact, so tenacious of life that pieces of root cut into lengths and buried will form plants.

THE WARRIOR.

Redhot shot were first employed at the last siege of Gibraltar by the English artillery.

Chabrias was the first to cause the first rank of the phalanx to kneel when receiving a charge.

In the Ashantee army the officers occupy the rear, so as to cut down the soldiers who try to run away.

The French army has big plows to throw up rifle pits quickly, and all the European armies have bullet proof wagons for sharpshooters.

Line tactics began with Frederick the Great. He formed his infantry three deep, and from the three ranks got four volleys in a minute.

THE GLEANER.

A peer cannot resign his peerage.

The death rate in St. Petersburg exceeds the birth rate.

It takes a gallon of milk to produce a pound of cheese.

In Italy the value of land is considered to be 34 times the annual rental.

The receiving vault of a cemetery at Marion, N. Y., is used as a "cooler" for drunks and disorderlies.

THE DESIGNER.

Double wreaths of gold and pearls combine in brooches.

There are fascinating new card counters in perforated silver.

There is a fancy for enameled trinkets for bridesmaids' presents.

Enamel studs are desired. There is a prospect of fobs being called for by women.

Swords with black enamel mingling with stones are beautiful. The black gives relief to the stones.

Jewel boxes of perforated silver of the finest work have set in the tops like a dome, pincushions of the palest hued velvets.

Since women have returned to parting their hair in the middle the diamond star is a very prominent form of hair adornment.

Blue enameled divided sleeve buttons, with a crumpled diamond shaped bit with a clover leaf in white enamel, are delightfully feminine.

A bracelet was seen for a silver wedding present. It was made up of two rows of diamonds set in silver. Between them were the words, also in diamonds, "The Silver Echo of a Golden King," which is very pretty, if one doesn't know what it means.—Jewelers' Circular.

THE ELECTRICIAN.

The French transatlantic cable was worked at a loss of £913 last year.

It is stated that fully one-third of the copper refined in this country is treated electrically.

There are more than 300 companies in the United States that employ electricity in running operations for light and power.

An electrical ambulance is in the course of construction at St. Louis. It promises to be as swift and steadier than a vehicle drawn by horses and will be given right of way by the street car companies.

The unit of electrical induction will be called the Henry in honor of the late professor Henry of the Smithsonian institution. The volt was named for Volter, an Italian scientist, the ohm for Ohme, a German, and the ampere for Ampere, a Frenchman.

THE EPICURE.

It has cured more cases of Leucorrhœa than any remedy the world has ever known. It is almost infallible in such cases. It dissolves and expels Tumors from the Uterus in an early stage of development, and checks any tendency to cancerous humors. That causing pain, weight, and backache, is instantly relieved and permanently cured by its use. Under all circumstances it acts in harmony with the laws that govern the female system, and is as harmless as water. It removes

Bearing-down Feeling

Irregularity,

Suppressed or Painful Menstruations, Weakness of the Stomach, Indigestion, Bloating, Flooding, Nervous Prostration, Headache, General Debility. Also

Dizziness, Faintness,

Extreme Lassitude, "don't care" and "want to be left alone" feeling, excitability, irritability, nervousness, sleeplessness, flatulency, melancholy, or the "blues," and backache. These are sure indications of Female Weakness, some derangement of the Uterus, or Womb Troubles.

The whole story, however, is told in an illustrated book entitled "Guide to Health," by Mrs. Pinkham. It contains over 90 pages of most important information, which every woman, married or single, should know about herself. Send 2 two-cent stamps for it. For and Backache of either sex the Vegetable Compound is unequaled.

Kidney Complaints

Lydia E. Pinkham's Liver Pills, 25c., cure Biliousness, Constipation, and Torpid Liver. By mail, or of druggists. All druggists sell the Vegetable Compound, or sent by mail, in form of Pills or Lozenges, on receipt of $1.00. Correspondence freely answered. You can address in strictest confidence, LYDIA E. VIEWS ON THE RESULT

Many Reasons Assigned as the Cause of Republican Victory.

Republicans, Generally, Attribute it to the Fear of a Change of the Tariff, While Democrats Believe Silver, Hard Times and a Misunderstanding on the Part of Manufacturers Was the Cause.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—Senator Gorman, when spoken to in regard to the elections, was found buried behind a stack of letters, answers to which he was dictating to his stenographer.

"The election appears to have resulted in an avalanche," said the senator, "but it is useless to talk of the causes. There are probably a hundred reasons that might be assigned, but I do not care to discuss them at all. I can only add that Maryland came around with a good democratic majority."

Tariff, Silver, Pensions.

Senator Faulkner, of West Virginia, who took such an active part in the struggle for repeal, observed that the election was but another case of history repeating itself.

"I am of the opinion," said Mr. Faulkner, "that the result of the elections may be attributed to several causes: First, the division among the representatives of the people of the democratic party in both branches of congress on so great and important a question as was before congress in the session just ended, resulted, necessarily in some division in the states. The uncertainties in reference to a change in the tariff to some extent, affecting the country; the opinion that had been inculcated in the minds of the old soldier element that the democratic party was hostile to pension legislation and the dissatisfaction and disappointment which always follows the inauguration of the new administration, in the distribution of federal patronage, are the causes which led, in my opinion, to the results shown in the elections of Tuesday.

Tariff the Principal Cause.

"I was not at all astonished at the result of the election," said Senator Martin (dem.) of Kansas. "It would look," he continued, "as if the people were dissatisfied with existing conditions. The main cause of the trouble is found, however, I believe, in the fear of the people in regard to what the party in power may do in the way of revising the tariff. Other things, of course, assisted."

Representative Burrows, of Michigan, attributes the result entirely to opposition to free trade

Of Little Significance.

Mr. Turner, (dem.) of Georgia, considered it of little significance, due to several adverse conditions of which silver may have played some little part.

Mr. Ellis, (rep.) of Oregon, considers tariff and not silver the cause.

Mr. McCleary, (rep.) of Minnesota, expressed a similar view.

Recent Panic the Cause.

Mr. J. J. O'Neil, (dem.) ex-member from Missouri, attributes the result to the recent panic more than anything else, brought about by misunderstanding on the part of manufacturers as to probable changes in the tariff.

Representative Oates, (dem.) of Alabama, said that the republicans were victorious for two reasons, "hard times and quarrels among the democrats."

Ex-Senator Mahone, of Virginia, thought that the result was an acknowledgement on the part of the people that they had made a mistake in placing the present party in power.

LUNATICS DID IT.

Jerry Simpson's Views as to the Cause of Republican Success.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 9.—Speaking of the republican landslide in the east, Congressman Jerry Simpson, of Kansas, said last night:

"It was simply the result of a scare among the masses. There are a lot of lunatics in the country who know nothing themselves and were made to believe that the threatened revision of the tariff portended evil to the working classes.

"The common people are like a man on a raft of saw-logs. As one log sinks he jumps to another, hoping to keep himself afloat. They will finally get on the people's party log, which is big enough to support them."

SENATOR HOAR'S VIEWS.

Republican Victory an Expression of Approval of the McKinley Bill.

WORCESTER, Mass., Nov. 9.—Senator Hoar said to-day that the republican victory in Ohio is the expression of approbation of the McKinley bill, "the best and most scientifically constructed economic measure ever enacted in this country or any other." The victory in Ohio means this.

The victory in Massachusetts is the refusal of the people to attribute to the democrats the repeal of the silver bill, and the people's apprehension of the democratic administration avowed in its Chicago platform in 1892 that "protection to American industries is dishonest and a robbery."

Thinks it Will Help Cleveland.

BOSTON, Nov. 9.—Among prominent bankers who expressed opinions on the election, Col. Henry L. Higginson, of Lee, Higginson & Co., thinks the result will strengthen the hands of President Cleveland. He believes the most important election was in New York where, according to accounts, every enemy of Mr. Cleveland was side-tracked.

Foreign Press Comment.

LONDON, Nov. 9.—The Daily News says of the American elections: "McKinley's enormous majority in Ohio seems to indicate that the protectionists have largely increased and confirmed their power."

The Daily Chronicle says: "It is a long time since such a hopeful message emanated from America. Nothing could be more gratifying than this evidence that after all there is a limit to passive endurance of electors driven by the party machine. We imagine that to nobody will this revulsion be more welcome than to Mr. Cleveland, who has long been anxious to escape from the thrall of Tammany."

DID NOT EXPECT TO WIN.

Mr. Russel Says He Took No Interest in the Result—Tariff the Cause.

BOSTON, Nov. 9.—Hon. John E. Russell, the defeated democratic candidate for governor, was seen last night after his return to his hotel from the theatre, and in course of a brief interview, said: "The election in Massachusetts demonstrates one thing decisively, and that is that the people of this state are not prepared for and are unmistakably opposed to any meddling with the tariff.

"As far as my own feelings are concerned, I am perfectly satisfied with the result. It may surprise you, but it is none the less true, that I was in town Tuesday night, and at Youngs hotel, and knew nothing whatever about the result until 3 o'clock yesterday morning, when I read it in the papers.

"I felt perfectly satisfied, however, in advance that the republicans would carry the state by something like 10,000 plurality, but I was a good deal surprised to find that Mr. Greenhalge was elected by 35,000 plurality or thereabouts."

LANDSLIDE GROWING.

Belated Returns Only Add to the Republican Figures.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—The republican landslide in this state is shown to be larger than ever dreamed of as the returns are revised and corrected. As it stands now the republican victory is 34,680 for John Palmer for secretary of state, and Bartlett has defeated Maynard by the overwhelming plurality of 89,669.

Only seven counties in the state gave Maynard a plurality. These are Albany, Chemung, Greene, New York, Rensselaer, Schoharie and Seneca.

Corrected returns make the legislature stand:

Senate—Republicans, 18; democrats, 13; independent democrat, 1. The democrats are from the 2d, 4th, 7th, 8th, 9th, 10th, 11th, 12th, 13th, 14th, 17th, 18th, and 19th districts and the independent democrat from the 5th.

Assembly—democrats, 53; republicans, 75.

The republicans will control the constitutional convention by a good working majority.

Still Piling Up in Massachusetts.

BOSTON, Nov. 9.—It is now believed that corrected returns will show a plurality of 35,000 for Greenhalge. The republican victory is the greatest experienced by that party in the state in a decade.

A remarkable and unprecedented feature of the election is the fact that Candidate Greenhalge has carried all the cities and other democratic strongholds in the state by substantial pluralities, and has greatly reduced the democratic majority in Boston. The democratic vote all over the state fell off to the proportions of an off year, while the republican vote is nearly of presidential size.

The legislature, so far as heard from, stands:

House—153 republicans; democrats, 48; 39 not heard from.

Senate—30 republicans; democrats, 7; 3 not heard from.

Majority against rapid transit scheme, 3,129; majority in favor of retiring after men-at-arms, 7,085.

McKinley's Majority Over Vicory.

Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 9.—Revised figures from all the counties in the state show gains for the republican ticket over first figures. These figures now show a majority for Jackson, (republican) for state treasurer of 123,205, and the later returns from the counties which have not yet sent in their official computations, will no doubt show the same uniformity in increasing the republican majority. Fell, (republican) for supreme judge, will run a few thousand behind Jackson. Nine counties, which gave democratic majorities in 1891, give majorities this year for the republican candidates.

New Jersey Legislature.

TRENTON, N. J., Nov. 9.—Corrected returns show that the legislature will stand as follows:

Senate—republicans, 11; democrats, 10. A gain of four republicans.

Assembly—republicans, 38; democrats, 23; independent democrat, 1. A gain of 15 republicans over last year. The republicans will have a majority of 13 on joint ballot.

Virginia.

RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 9.—Backwoods returns now coming in show conclusively that the democrats did not poll their usual strength, and the republicans did not support the populists to any great extent. One populist senator is elected. The democrats retain a large majority in the legislature.

Seven Women Voted at Little Falls.

LITTLE FALLS, N. Y., Nov. 9.—For the first time in the history of Little Falls women were allowed to vote Tuesday. Seven of them voted. Challenges were left for them, but the inspectors received their ballots.

Rev. Edward Lawrence Critically Ill.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 9.—Rev. Edward A. Lawrence, D. D., pastor of the First Congregational church, is crically ill at the Johns Hopkins hospital. Mrs. Laura Nunn, Dr. Lawrence's fiance, arrived in company with the doctor's mother from Boston and are with him.

Trouble to Get a Coughlin Jury.

CHICAGO, Nov. 9.—Great difficulty is being encountered in the selection of a jury to try Dan Coughlin, convicted of complicity in the murder of Dr. Cronin, and granted a new trial by the supreme court. It is thought the trial will occupy the court for several weeks.

Mr. Harrity's Views.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 9.—When Chairman Harrity, of the national democratic committee, was asked for his views on the election he said: "This was not a democratic year and the expected has happened. These tidal waves or landslides come to each of the great parties."

Body Washed Ashore.

LONG BRANCH, N. J., Nov. 9.—The body of a man was washed ashore here last evening. A Fall River pass bearing the name of John Newton, and a marriage certificate of John Newton, of Newton creek, Mass., was found in his pocket.

Election Result Booms Wheat.

CHICAGO, Nov. 9.—The wheat market in this city and at all wheat centres throughout the northwest yesterday was unusually active and advancing. Many operators attributed this to the result of the elections.

KILLED AND MAIMED

Rear End Passenger Train Collision at Chicago.

Five Dead and a Score of Injured Taken Out—Several Lost Legs and Arms—All Were Terribly Scalded. Fire Adds Horror to the Scene.

CHICAGO, Nov. 9.—The limited vestibule express on the Rock Island road ran into the rear end of the Blue Island accommodation at Seventy-first street, last night, causing a bad wreck.

Five persons were killed and many injured. Some of the injured were terribly maimed and several may die.

The Dead.

W. C. Carpenter, Washington Heights.
Mrs. Aubrey, Blue Island.
Minnie Schaefer, Beverly Hills.
Carrie Barnes, Washington Heights.
Wm. Bowman, Auburn Park.

The Injured.

The following is a partial list of the injured, many others receiving slight contusions:

D. M. Snow, Longwood, internal injuries, will die.

James W. Grady, South Englewood, left hand cut off and badly scalded about face and head.

W. F. Stoll, Blue Island, internal injuries, may die.

Jas. Kinser, badly scalded.

N. Hinz, both legs cut off.

Nicholas Woshts, left leg broken and badly scalded.

Louis Scharp, Morgan Park, both arms cut off.

J. W. Templeton, Morgan Park, both arms cut off and body badly burned, will die.

A heavy fog prevailed at the time of the collision.

The engine of the express ploughed its way into the rear coach of the accommodation, being forced between the two sides like a wedge. The car was picked up and carried forward, so great was the momentum, and was driven with terrible force into the end of the second coach from the rear.

The explosion of a lamp ignited the woodwork in the debris and the fire soon began to spread at a lively rate.

Before the police ambulances and engines arrived the fire had gained considerable headway, but was soon extinguished.

To add to the horror of the scene the engine, which was wedged in the wreck, was partly demolished and escaping steam scalded the imprisoned passengers and made rescue more difficult.

PROBABLY RUN DOWN.

Victims of the Philadelphia-Albany Collision Mutilated.

EAST TEXAS, Mich., Nov. 9.—Owing to the mutilation of the bodies from the Philadelphia-Albany collision it is now believed that the yawl containing 24 members of the combined crews was run into by some passing steamer.

Of the men picked up the following have been identified by papers:

D. Reidemister, Toledo, O.
James Malloy, Buffalo, N. Y.
Reynolds, or Petty, Elmira, M. Y.
Charles Labellie, Buffalo, N. Y.
George Wise, Buffalo, N. Y.
John Pridgeon, Detroit or Bay City, Mich.

Relief for Southern Sufferers.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Nov. 9.—The southern relief train from New York, numbering eight carloads of provisions and supplies, arrived in Charleston last evening. The train has been turned over to the local committee, which will confer with the president of the Red Cross society before making disposition.

Is the New York Unstable?

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—The Times this morning makes the astounding statement that the cruiser New York is unstable and has been so badly constructed as to prevent her entering a single drydock in this country, and that when it becomes necessary to put her in dock she must go abroad.

Retribution Follows Quickly.

LAMBERTVILLE, N. J., Nov. 9.—An unknown tramp attempted to assault Rose Culligan, a youn lady living at Raven Rocks, near this town, yesterday afternoon, but was driven off and was drowned in making his escape. In his flight he attempted to swim the river.

His Conviction Sustained.

BOSTON, Nov. 9.—The conviction of Frederick Warren, of the Warren line of steamers, for allowing several undesirable immigrants to escape from the steamer Kansas after he had been notified to take them back to Europe, has been sustained by the court of appeals.

Heavy Loss for Refusing a Meal.

CARTHAGE, Mo., Nov. 9.—Because Geo. Williams, a wealthy farmer near here, refused tramps supper they set fire to his barn. Six horses, several thousand bushels of grain and much property was destroyed. The total loss is $15,000.

New Y. M. C. A. Building Opened.

HARTFORD, Conn., Nov. 9.—The new Y. M. C. A. building in this city was formally opened yesterday afternoon with appropriate ceremonies. It is one of the finest buildings for the purpose in the country.

Killed His Baby Brother.

OSWEGO, N. Y., Nov. 9.—The 3-year-old son of Ira Ives, a farmer near Volney, found his father's revolver yesterday afternoon and blew his younger brother's brains out.

London Money Market.

LONDON, Nov. 9.—The price of bar gold has risen to 77s. 11 3-4d. Silver 32 3-4d. firm. The stock markets are stagnant and neglected.

Lobengula's Son-in-Law Killed.

LONDON, Nov. 9.—A dispatch from Cape Town says that Gomba, Lobengula's son-in-law, has been killed.

TEN YEARS FOR WEEKS.

The New York Embezzler of $1,500,000 Pleads Guilty.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Francis H. Weeks, the lawyer, trustee and clubman, accused of the embezzlement of over a million dollars from various estates in his charge, when brought before Recorder Smyth pleaded guilty and was immediately sentenced to ten years at hard labor in Sing Sing state prison.

In answer to the usual questions, Weeks said he was 49 years old, married, and lived at No. 11 E. 24th street. Recorder Smyth said: "I regret to have to sentence a member of the same profession as my own, and one of a firm with whom I have had business dealings. It is particularly hard that a person of such position should do such things."

The recorder then sentenced him to 10 years at hard labor in Sing Sing.

Weeks bowed slightly and turned away from the bar.

He was hustled upstairs to the grand jury room, where he had a long talk with his wife.

The sentence is the law's limit. Under the trustee act Weeks can get another five years if he doesn't pay back all the money he stole, plus the interest and 20 per cent. additional.

District Attorney Nicoll when seen afterward said that the sentence of ten years really amounted to only about six and a half if the prisoner is well behaved. Weeks was indicted by the October grand jury on five counts, the most important being the theft of $185,000 from the Baroness von Linden, and the theft of $85,000 from Mrs. Nicholas Fish, on which indictment he was sentenced. His embezzlements in the aggregate amounted to about $1,300,000, and the general opinion is that he got off extremely well with ten years.

THIRTY DEAD; EIGHTY INJURED.

Anarchists Arrested for the Dynamite Explosion at Barcelona.

MADRID, Nov. 9.—Dispatches from Barcelona say that the men who threw the bomba into the midst of spectators at the Lyceum opera house Tuesday night are supposed to have sat in the fourth or fifth gallery.

Fifteen persons were killed instantly by the explosion. Fifteen others who were injured have since died. Eighty persons are seriously ill from wounds or shock.

Among the wounded is Herr Wicke, representative of English and North American mercantile firms. No other persons having business relations to American or British firms were injured.

Soldini, the Italian anarchist who was arrested, has made a confession, but it is discredited.

Last night nine anarchists were arrested in Barcelona on suspicion of complicity in the crime.

The government has decided to expel all foreign anarchists from Spain and to pass drastic bills as soon as possible against Spanish anarchists.

Big Gas Combine.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—A special to a morning paper says that a combine of all the natural gas companies of the Lima district in the state of Ohio has been formed. C. S. Brice, United States senator, is said to have taken a big block of the stock for himself and another for a friend. S. A. Baxter, of the First National bank of Lima, is president. For some time he has been leasing territory in Indiana for the combine. Gas will be piped from there to supply the Ohio systems, the local supply having been almost exhausted.

Sensational Fate.

WILMINGTON, Del., Nov. 9.—A man who is thought to have been James Bernard, a New York newspaper man, and who has been working on an oyster dredge, for the purpose, it is supposed, of getting material for a sensational article, had a quarrel with the captain of the dredge on Monday night. The latter seized an iron bar and struck Bernard with it, knocking him overboard. He was drowned, and the body has not yet been recovered.

Quit Their Church.

EAU CLAIRE, Wis., Nov. 9.—In consequence of hostility of Rev. Mr. Frees to the Ancient Order of United Workmen, several families, embracing forty-six persons, have seceded from the church. Mr. Frees claims the tenets of the church are such that no member of it can belong to the United Workmen. He says its ritual is not in harmony with the Lutheran doctrine.

After McKane.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Gaynor the successful republican and independant candidate for supreme court justice of the second judicial department, speaking of John Y. McKane, of Coney Island, said:

"Just as soon as I get my telegrams and mail disposed of I intend to bring this public criminal to book."

Called to Cold Springs.

Journalistic Amenities.

[From The Elizabeth Herald.]

The Journal last week courteously accommodated The Herald when the latter's supply of paper, under an extraordinary demand, ran short. The Herald today has a number of roosters for which it can find no use. The Journal may have these with the understanding that it will reciprocate about this time next year.

One Crumb of Comfort.

(From The Elizabeth Herald.)

The Democrats of Union county have not been overwhelmed. All of their banners are not trailed in the mire, and the cries of victory do not all proceed from Republican throats. One Democrat at least rides on the crest of the wave and waves the flag of Democracy. He assures all of the other Democrats that they still live.

The gentleman we refer to has been elected constable at Roselle!

Neatly Said, McBride!

(From The Elizabeth Journal.)

Our sincere respects to James E. Martine and John S. Sauer: Gentlemen, you made a hard fight, and your private characters have suffered nothing in the severe contest. But you failed, gentlemen, through the prescribed policy of your party, to take the side of right in this struggle of the people against the common enemy, and the result has been your defeat. Nevertheless, rest assured that as gentlemen the public have lost nothing of the regard they had for you before election.

Jim May Be Young, But He's Through Running for Office.

(From The Elizabeth Herald.)

James E. Martine, in reply to kindly inquiries as to his health, etc., telephones me that he is "crushed but not conquered". Down at the Herald office, Mr. Martine, we are neither crushed nor conquered. You are a young man and political honors will probably come to you yet. As for us all just at present we are getting the political experience, while the fellows on the other side of the house are grabbing the honors. But we'll make them let go, after awhile.

No Government Like the People.

(From The Trenton True American.)

The defeat of Judge Maynard and the Democratic ticket is a reflection upon the party leadership of Senator Hill, and a strenuous warning to politicians that something is needed beside machine influence.

At a recent meeting of the Tammany section leaders each one reported that there was no defection against Maynard, and yet in the city of New York his vote is much less than that of the Democratic candidate for Secretary of State, and in the State the whole ticket is defeated.

And Wilder Too Will Be There.

(From The New York Dramatic News.)

The other afternoon I went over to Brooklyn to the Montauk Club, to take part in a little luncheon given in honor of McKee Rankin. I never had mania a potu, or even hydrophobia, but I have felt, at times, when banjos were plunking in my direct neighborhood, that I could look upon either malady as a welcome relief. So, the other day, when a smooth-faced, quiet young fellow pulled his banjo between courses, I gave an inward groan and regretted having been born. In two minutes I took it all back. In an hour I was ardently "stuck on" the banjo as a musical instrument. Before we all came away I was convinced that Ruby Brooks, the player in question, was an artist in the highest acceptation of the term. No zither is sweeter than his banjo. No mandolin is "in it" with this young man's instrument. It is wonderful to hear his range of tone—to note the delicacy and the volume of the sounds he can produce. They tell me the Prince of Wales went wild over Brooks's playing, awhile back. I don't blame him. To my ear, the banjo is not the same thing it was before I heard Brooks manipulate it. He is a banjo wizard, with never a plunk. I have to thank my old friend Hawley for a delicious luncheon, but more than all I have to thank him for luring me into the magic circle of Ruby Brooks's banjo music.

Plainfielders can hear Mr. Brooks and his "co-parcener", Mr. Denton, Saturday night, in the Casino. It is not a smoker.

Officials Entertained.

The popular townsman, Geo. F. Randolph, after passing a very busy day as one of the election board at the polls, entertained a party of gentlemen at his residence, 98 Duer street, Tuesday evening. The guests were Councilman Fountain, ex-Councilman Sebring, Township Clerk Martin, Messrs. Williams, Day, McDonald, N. B. Smalley, J. M. Smalley and D. W. King. The menu consisted of Welsh rabbit, coffee and fruits.

A Hackman Arrested.

Policeman H. C. Corsa of the railroad force arrested William Barton, hackman of Westfield, last night, and took him before Judge Moore at Fanwood. The charge was disorderly conduct. Attorney C. B. Van Winkle appeared for the prisoner, who pleaded not guilty. The case was adjourned until 2 p. m. Friday, at the office of Codding, Green & Van Winkle, Westfield.

Young Christian Workers.

The Christian Endeavor and all young people's societies of this vicinity are cordially invited to attend the meeting of the Young Workers in the First Church of Christ tonight. The meeting will be addressed by a speaker from New York on the subject "Young People; what they can do".

A Pancake Sociable.

The young people of the First Baptist church will give an old-time concert, followed by a pancake supper, Tuesday, Nov. 14. One feature of the entertainment will be a fine art collection. General admission will be 25 cents, and for children 15 cents.

LOCAL CHARITIES TO CONSOLIDATE.

THE PLAN APPROVED BY THE PRESS TO BE ADOPTED.

All Plainfielders Interested in Benevolent Work to Meet in the Crescent Avenue Church Monday Night, When Robert DeForest Will Tell How It Works in New York City.

An earnest effort is about to be made, in line with the suggestions recently made in these columns, to bring about a working union of the various benevolent organizations of Plainfield, such as The Ladies' Relief Association, The Children's Home and The Muhlenberg Hospital. To this end, all who are interested, directly or indirectly, in such organizations, are cordially invited to attend a meeting to be held in the parlors of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church next Monday evening, Nov. 13. It is expected that Robert W. DeForest, President of The Charity Organization Society of New York, will be present to describe what has been accomplished in the metropolis and what may be expected anywhere by the union of benevolent forces.

Mr. DeForest will gladly answer questions from all who wish to learn the details of organization.

It should be plain to every thinking person that the resources of local charities will be seriously tried during the coming winter because of continued financial depression, hence The Press would urge the importance of a plan which promises to render more efficient and economical the administration of every charity adopting it.

According to its usual custom, The Press will keep its readers informed as to the progress of this important movement, which already engages the support of many prominent citizens.

A similar movement has just been inaugurated in Elizabeth, where at a meeting of the benevolent people William Patterson gave a very interesting and helpful statement of the charity organization in Albany.

He said that the organization for consolidated charities in force at Albany is not for the distribution of alms but for the collection and distribution of information as to the worthiness of applicants for relief. It has a central office which collects and collates the status of the poor, and this information is confidential to the subscribing members of the organization. A secretary is employed, who keeps a record of all cases, and investigates them. In Albany a vast number of cases were found to be unworthy, and not needing relief. An enormous saving to charity givers has been the result. Albany, he thought, is the most charitable city he ever lived in. There are a great many liberal givers, and many charity organizations. This society found there were many families who lived entirely on charity, and had so lived for several generations. The first year's report of the secretary showed 857 cases reported, representing 2,510 persons as needing help. Of this number of cases 324 were found to be unworthy, 94 were chronic paupers, and 101 professional beggars.

Mr. Patterson related some amusing and startling methods of impositions which were exposed. He exhibited samples of the system of tickets used, and gave other information which seemed to favorably impress his hearers. He said that while the society was not expected to distribute alms, it had an emergency fund from which help in urgent cases was given. This plan left it to individuals, churches and other existing organizations to distribute alms as they pleased, all the society doing was to give the information as to the worthiness of the applicants.

3 FOR $1.

Never Before Was Such Refined and Instructive Entertainment Offered at So Low a Price.

J. H. Manning, Secretary of the Plainfield Y. M. C. A., is an enthusiast on the Ragan lectures, praises them for their excellence as an entertainment, and commends them as an elevating influence. This year Mr. Ragan has a series better than ever, and yet the three are offered to Plainfield at the remarkably low figure of $1. If you haven't been to the World's Fair, you now have a chance to go; if you have been, you 'll appreciate the perfection of Mr. Ragan's lecture of next Monday evening all the more. And after the Fair you may go to Spain and Rome—all on the same $1 ticket.

You really can't afford to miss that World's Fair lecture, of which the Biddeford, (Me.) Standard says:

The lecture by Henry H. Ragan was listened to from start to close with absorbed attention and the beautiful stereopticon illustrations were received with murmurs of delight.

Though Mr. Ragan's "A Trip to Alaska" as given last year was remarkably interesting from his descriptions of the marvellous wonders of the northern territory, and the pictures of its gorgeous scenery, it is safe to say that the narrative of the trip through the World's Fair grounds, where the lecture led his audience, last evening, gave even grater satisfaction. To people who have "been there", and to the less fortunate ones, it was all intensely interesting.

Mr. Ragan's eloquent and highly polished language, added much to the effectiveness of the lecture, while the pictures thrown upon the screen made the scenes of the White City vividly present. It was an evening of rare pleasure to all, and the sentiment unanimously expressed was one of admiration for the whole entertainment.

Remember: 3 for $1. All lavishly illustrated. The first, Monday night.

Even Capt. Martin Sometimes Forgets.

Alfred Springer, who was arrested Tuesday for riding a bicycle on the sidewalk, was fined $3 in the City Court this morning. F. L. C. Martin, who was arrested for the same offence, pleaded not guilty and his trial was set down for this afternoon at 5.

LIBRARY OFFICERS RE-ELECTED.

THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES ORGANIZES FOR ANOTHER YEAR.

A. C. Baldwin President, M. W. Tyler Vice-President, W. M. Stillman Secretary, and J. B. Dumont Treasurer—Committees Appointed, and Librarian's Reports Approved.

A regular meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Plainfield Public Library was held last evening. There were present A. C. Baldwin, M. W. Tyler, Rowland Cox, J. W. Yates, J. Evarts Tracy, J. B. Dumont and Wm. M. Stillman.

The minutes of June were read and approved. Bills were ordered paid amounting to $493 37.

This being the first meeting of the new Board, the Directors proceeded to the election of officers for the ensuing year. On motion, Mr. Cox and Mr. Tracy were appointed Committee on Nominations.

The Librarian's reports for August, September and October were ordered received and placed on file. The Committee on Nominations reported as follows:

President—Augustus C. Baldwin.
Vice-president—M. W. Tyler.
Secretary—W. M. Stillman.
Treasurer—J. B. Dumont.
Library Committee—Mason W. Tyler, J. Evarts Tracy, H. P. Talmadge.
Art Committee—G. H. Babcock, Jos. W. Yates, Rowland Cox.

On motion the Secretary was ordered to cast the ballot in favor of the above nominees; carried, and the Secretary then cast the ballot as directed, and the nominees were declared duly elected.

On motion the price of the bound "finding list" was fixed at cost price, $1.50, and the pamphlet form at $1; and the Librarian was directed to send copies to other libraries, not exceeding fifteen, as have sent their catalogues to this library.

Adjourned. WM. M. STILLMAN, Sec'y.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Andrew Gyer of East Ninth street left town today to spend the winter in New York.

Mrs. Herbert Welsh of Brooklyn is visiting her father, James McGee of Willow avenue.

Miss Kate Bettman of Highland Falls, N. Y., is visiting Mrs. John Bettman of Willow avenue.

All his friends are admiring the handsome saddle horse John J. Coard has bought for his daughter.

Invitations are out for an oyster supper to be given by Mr. and Mrs. J. Parker Mason, Monday evening, Nov. 13.

The Rev. and Mrs. Neal Bristol, baby boy and maid, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Peck, of West Front street.

E. C. Cloyd's house on Grove street is being brightened with a fresh coat of paint. Artist Hennessy is doing the work.

F. H. Martin of Sandford avenue has purchased from New York parties the lot on Grove street facing Rockview avenue, where he intends building two fine houses.

Invitations are out for an "Oyster Roast" to be given by Mr. and Mrs. J. Parker Mason, 940 Central avenue, to celebrate the crystal anniversary of their wedding.

The Rev. and Mrs. Frederick J. Stanley are stopping with Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Rice at 12 Rockview avenue. Mr. Stanley is a Professor in Count Okuma's College, Tokyo, Japan.

Mrs. Harriet Miller of Greenwood Lake, sister of Mrs. Geo. L. VanEmburgh of East Second street, accompanied by her niece, Mrs. John Hay, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Fred VanEmburgh, at Westfield.

Mrs. Schermerhorn and her son Charles have arrived at their destination in the Adirondacks. A telegram was received from them yesterday, stating that they were feeling well after their long journey.

Lester Leggett a brother of Plainfield's C. P. Leggett, returned home today after a pleasant visit with his sister Mrs. F. H. Martin of Sandford avenue. He is proprietor of the "Antlers", a large summer hotel in the Catskills.

The wedding of Miss Laura Livingston, daughter of the late Senator Livingston, formerly of Plainfield, to Allan Percy Cumming, of New York, took place yesterday at the residence of the bride's uncle, Mr. Taylor, at Millfort, Conn.

A dance was given at the home of Mr. Simmonds on Watchung avenue last evening. Those present from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Cary and Mr. Hasbrouk, of New York, and Miss Peixotto of Paris. Miss Peixotto entertained the gathering by a recitation in French, and Mr. Simmonds recited "The Old Folks." Miss Peixotto is a cousin of the President of France. The refreshments were supero, and the dancing was to music by Carpenter.

It You Do or Don't Want 'Em, Go.

The matter of sewers will be discussed at the Board of Trade meeting tonight. The Sewerage Committee will be on hand to explain the project fully. Those opposed to sewers are especially invited.

Mary's Diamond Ring Again.

The case of Mary Van Riper against Noah Pike, on contract, that was appealed from Justice Mosher's court, was tried in Elizabeth yesterday before three judges, Judge T. H. McCormick presiding. The preliminaries were hotly contested by the counsel on both sides and after some interesting tilting the Court ordered the case to proceed. After the evidence was all in the Court considered the matter for some time and concluded to reserve the decision. The counsel for Van-Riper is George De Mezz; and for Pike, Jackson & Angleman.

PLAINFIELD CASES IN TRENTON.

SUPREME COURT PASSES ON LOCAL LAWSUITS.

Mrs. Tingley Gets Damages from Neighbor Runyon for Trespassing—Walter Scott Gets a Verdict—Craig Marsh Wins These and Other Cases.

Mrs. Grace A. Tingley and her next-door neighbor have been indulging in the luxury of a lawsuit that was decided yesterday in favor of Mrs. Tingley. She claimed that Theodore Runyon, whose property adjoins hers on the southwesterly side of West Fourth street, had about five or six years ago cut down several trees and injured others and moved his line fence over on her land. When she presented her claim for damages, recently, Mr. Runyon denied that he had encroached on her land. Mrs. Tingley thought wise to settle that question first before suing for damages. Suit was therefore brought in the Supreme Court to test the question who owned the land in dispute. Mrs. Tingley's counsel put her deed in evidence, but relied upon proof of over twenty years adverse possession as proof of title.

Mr. Runyon put in his deeds and claimed title under them and also by over twenty years adverse possession. The surveyors and other witnesses for the two sides respectively contradicted each other in the most remarkable manner. The case was tried before the Court without a jury.

Yesterday, Judge VanSyckel announced his decision in favor of Mrs. Tingley, holding that she was entitled to recover the whole of the land claimed by her with costs of suit.

The next suit will be for the damages for the trespass and injury to the trees.

Walter Scott against S. R. Krom was also decided by Judge VanSyckel, yesterday, in favor of Mr. Scott.

Morris against Higbie, in the Court of Chancery, was decided in favor of complainants E. L. Morris and Dr. Seymour Marsh of this city.

Craig A. Marsh was counsel for the successful sides in all the above cases.

MACHINISTS AND THEIR FRIENDS.

They Have a Pleasant Evening in Red Men's Hall.

An entertainment was given last night by Watchung Lodge, No. 167, of the International Association of Machinists, in Red Men's Hall. The programme was interesting and varied and included the following selections: A vocal duet, "Mother's Appeal to her Boy" by Mr. and Mrs. Chamberlain; banjo solo by William Force; a duet by Thomas Cumersford and Frederic Wharton, entitled "The Larboard Watch", this was loudly applauded and was responded to by an encore. Karl Randolph rendered a solo "Sweet Molly, Oh" and replied to the encore by singing "Answered;" a tenor solo came next by Mr. Cumersford, entitled "The Miner's Dream of Home;" this was followed by John Carney's humorous recitations in German dialect, which brought forth rounds of applause.

A baritone solo, "In Old Madrid", by William O'Connor, was encored and "Daddy" was sung in response to the call.

The evening ended with a friendly set-to between Messrs. Dixon and Cain with large and soft gloves.

Mrs. Buckley presided at the piano during the entire evening.

This is but the first of a series of entertainments to be given monthly by the lodge this winter and the remaining performances are looked forward to with pleasure. The men forming the organization are from the large factories in town and the lodge is thoroughly representative of the machinists interest in town.

Evangelistic Revival.

Arthur Crane, the New England evangelist, will conduct meetings for men under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A., at their rooms beginning Saturday evening of this week and continuing for one week. Bible readings for all will be held daily at 3:30 p. m. There will be double quartette and solo-singing by Mr. Crane and others at each evening.

All of the meetings will be held in the rooms, with the exception of the union service, to which all are invited, to be held in the First Baptist church Sunday at 4:15 p. m. and the meeting for men the same evening at 8:45 p. m.

The Daily American of Waterbury, Conn., in speaking of meetings conducted by Mr. Crane says: "Mr. Crane interspersed his addresses with many telling and touching anecdotes, and none should fail to hear the evangelist present old truths in new dress. He speaks with calmness and appeals to the understanding and the will rather than to the emotions. His earnestness carries conviction, and the song service, preceding the preaching, is calculated to uplift."

An Exciting Game.

Election Day afternoon on the North Plainfield Cricket Club grounds, the P. A. A. C. defeated the N. P. A. C. in an interesting game of foot-ball by the small score of 4 to 0. The teams lined up as follows:

With Ely's Cream Balm a child can be treated without pain and with perfect safety. It cures catarrh, hay fever and colds in the head. It is easily applied into the nostrils and gives immediate relief. Price 50 cents.

My catarrh was very bad; for 30 years I have been troubled with it—have tried a number of remedies without relief. A druggist advised Ely's Cream Balm, and with perfect safety one bottle and I can say I feel like a new man. I make this voluntary statement that others may know of the balm.—J. W. THE GLARE THAT PLAINFIELD SAW.

Westfield Firemen Have a Hard Run of Three Long Miles.

At 11 Tuesday night a man on horseback brought word to the Westfield Fire Department that Weisgard's mills at Branch Mills were on fire, and asked for help. An alarm was sounded and the horses were quickly hitched to the chemical engine. It was a three-mile run over bad roads, but the engine arrived in time to save two buildings adjoining the burning structures. The mills were erected last year by S. J. Weisgard on the site of what has for years been known as the lower mill at Branch Mills, and employed about fifty Hebrews in the grinding of flour for unleavened bread and the manufacture of snuff. The fire is believed to have been started by a couple of employes who were lately discharged. Both mills, with most of the stock on hand, were destroyed. The loss is placed at $10,000. One building and the residence of the owner were saved. Mr. Weisgard's New York office is at 235 Orchard street.

HYMENEAL.

Searles—Lowrie.

The wedding of Miss Rose Lowrie, daughter of Dr. H. H. Lowrie of Park avenue, to Dr. Frank R. Searles, took place in Grace church last night at 7:30. The body of the church was crowded to its utmost extent and the ceremony was performed promptly at the hour set, so that no one was kept waiting.

The church was beautifully decorated with chrysanthemums of every hue and size. The church was a mass of exquisite potted plants, and palms were flanked on either side of the choir steps. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. R. P Lowrie, D. D., brother of the bride's father. He was assisted by the Rev. Mr. Bristol and Dr. Rodman. The bride wore white silk and a tulle veil, and her maid of honor Miss Maude Lowrie wore pink. The ushers were Dr. Humphrey of South Windham, Conn., Dr. Polack of Brooklyn, Elston M. French, Fred J. Yates, Harry H. Lowrie, and Howard Whiting of Boston. A reception was given at the home of the bride after the ceremony. The young couple left for New York at about 11 and will probably make a trip through the south during their honeymoon.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—The 4:13 p. m. train now stops at Plainfield for Philadelphia passengers.

—There is a case of diphtheria in the Schoonmaker residence at Central avenue and Eighth street.

—T. B. Penton has lost a valuable hound, the mother of two-weeks-old pups. He will appreciate information of it.

—A Columbian social will be held under the auspices of the Y. P. S. C. E. of Trinity Reformed church tomorrow evening.

—A meeting of the Young Ladies Missionary Society of the First Baptist church will be held Friday at 2 p. m. in the lecture room.

—Taylor & MacDonald's auction sale of Netherwood lots was a great success. Fifty lots were sold, at prices better than the first sale.

—The case of Chas K. Moore against the Rev. Dr. J. P. Taylor was yesterday decided by Justice Mosher in favor of the defendant, Dr. Taylor.

—Sebring, of Park avenue, near North is offering a splendid line of men's overcoats at $12 that are cheap at $15, and boys' overcoats at $5, $6 and $7.

—How far will $1 take you by rail or boat? It will transport you to Rome, Spain, and the great White City if you ask Leggett for the pasteboard.

—In cleaning pigeons today, Mrs. J. P. Emmons found that one of the number was a carrier and wore a band around the leg, marked "No. 7874, letter N".

—The Committee on Entertainment of the Women's Relief Corps held a meeting at the home of Mrs. Charles Westphal, 1001 South Second street, yesterday afternoon.

—A. J. Brunson, one of the owners of Hotel Albion, desires to extend, through The Press, his warmest thanks to the firemen for their excellent work in subduing the hotel fire.

—The W. C. T. U. and Y. P. S. C. E. jointly are striving to arrange to have the celebrated Major Hilton deliver a series of temperance lectures in Plainfield between Dec. 3 and 10, probably in the First Baptist church.

—The Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor of the Park Avenue Baptist church will hold a sociable this evening in the chapel. It will also be a pastor's reception to the congregation. Everybody will be welcome.

—The Rev. Dr. Page of New York, who officiated in the Church of the Heavenly Rest last Sunday, came out again today expressly to meet the Woman's Friendly Society of Evona, at 2 p. m., in the Parish House. Afterwards he held a short service in the church.

Mr. Rowland Discovered It.

John Rowland, of East Second street, accompanied by his daughter, was passing the Albion Tuesday evening and discovered that the house was on fire. He it was who rushed into the house and informed Col. King.

THE RACE IS WON

—over to good health and the system rendered impervious to disease when the blood is pure and the liver active. For the liver is the sentinel which permits or forbids the germs of disease to enter the circulation of the blood. To a congested, torpid and diseased liver can be traced many dangerous diseases affecting various organs.

PIERCE Guarantees a CURE.

MR. J. BENTLY.

I was taken sick with congestion of the liver and the doctors could give me no relief, but after using five bottles of "Discovery," I regained my health and I am now a well man.

I weighed 183 pounds before taken sick, and I was reduced to 130 pounds in sixty days time. For any one suffering with liver trouble as I was, I would advise them to use the "Golden Medical Discovery" at once, before it is too late.

THE PATRIARCH AND THE BL CLUB.

HE TELLS THE TRUTH ABOUT THAT TERRIBLE SMOKER.

How the Blood from the Pugilistic Encounter Covered the Floor and Rose to the Galleries—A Bit of Argument that Effectually Answers the Ladies.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE PRESS:—I have been both amused and annoyed by the comments and criticisms anent the "Smoker" given by the Plainfield Bicycle Club, some three weeks ago. I think, on the whole, that I have been more amused than annoyed; but I very much regret that misrepresentation, distortion and enlargement of a little incident at the close of the evening have put the club in an unfortunate and a false light before the good people of Plainfield, particularly the ladies. Place aux dames always! Bless their dear hearts! we could never have built our pretty little club-house without their assistance.

Now, what are the facts in regard to the "Smoker" alluded to? That there was a most delightful evening of mirth and music I think "nobody will deny". Burdett, Pearsall and the Columbia Quartette acquitted themselves beautifully, and the tenor Cree-ated a furore.

After that, the deluge, of blood! You many have heard that it was ankle deep, or "up to the horses bridles", but, Mr. Editor, let the truth be told though the heavens fall! The fact is that the blood from this fearful contest with soft gloves, first covered the floor, then it arose to the windows, and then to the galleries, where the panic-stricken spectators had sought safety in flight, but had sought it in vain. It closely followed and overwhelmed them, continuing on its upward course into the pool room, (apppopriate name!), thence flowing down the front stairs and out at the door. It was a horrible sight! High-blood mark is indelibly imprinted on the side of the club-house, like high-water on the few remaining houses after the Jamestown flood!

In fact, it was the impossibility of removing these crimson stains, either by the use of Sapolio or whale oil soap, that led us to transfer the coming entertainment (it is not a smoker) of Saturday night next, to the Casino. (See "ad".)

One word more about the boxing which led to the evil reports. I have no word of defense for brutality in any shape, but boxing, with large, soft gloves, has never been considered brutal. To some hypersensitive organizations, it is not pleasant, but it is healthful exercise, and, at the Bicycle club-house, we have extracted "heaps" of innocent fun from it. Who will ever forget the set-to between a handsome coffee broker and a rising architect, equally handsome? But it was not given to all men to witness that contest. Like all others it was harmless. Sometimes a grazing blow may incarnidine the cuticle slightly, if it is sensitive, but I have never known any serious effect from the use of soft gloves.

It has been reported that such a dreadful blow was given to the club janitor that he had been "put to sleep". Now, Mr. Editor, granting the "sleep", it does not prove that the blow was hard, because sleep is that darkey's normal condition! Hence, it would not require much of a blow to put him there. Why, for an inordinate, uncontrollable, insatiate and overwhelming capacity for sleep, the C. J. puts "that boy Joe", immortalized by Dickens, deep into the shade?

Will you allow me a little more space for a "finally"? Ladies, (Plainfield ladies, too), eagerly and excitedly watch a game of base-ball or of foot-ball. Men have been killed by being struck by a base-ball. At both games, fingers, legs, arms and ribs have been broken. At foot-ball, ears have been torn off and noses dislocated. In Michigan, the other day, a deaf mute was killed by his fellow students falling on him (in a regulation way) in a game of foot-ball. But we hear of no protest from our Plainfield Sorosis! PATRIARCH.

P. S. In all seriousness: after a close connection with the Plainfield Bicycle Club for ten or twelve years, and having seen it grow from fifteen to one hundred in membership, and knowing that the aim and trend of the club has been toward higher manhood, I regret deeply the false impression made by a slight but untoward incident. Morally, our "Smokers" are beyond reproach. I have never heard a song sung nor a story told, which might not have been sung or told in the lecture room of any church.

"A Wooden Wedding" Tonight.

A large audience is anticipated in the lecture room of All Souls church tonight, when a dramatic and musical entertainment will be given.

Athletes of the Present Day.

J. E. Sullivan, Secretary of the Amateur Athletic Union, President of the Pastime Athletic Club, and athletic editor of The Sporting Times, writes:

"For years I have been actively connected with athletic sports. I always found it to my advantage to use ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS while in training as they quickly remove soreness and stiffness; and when attacked with any kind of pains, the result of slight colds, I always use ALLCOCK'S with beneficial results. I have noticed that most athletes of the present day use nothing else but ALLCOCK'S PLASTERS."

UNCONSTITUTIONAL.

HENCEFORTH THE ELECTION OF ASSEMBLYMEN MUST BE BY COUNTIES AT LARGE.

(Special to The Press.)

TRENTON, Nov. 9.—The Supreme Court declares unconstitutional the election of Assemblymen by districts, and holds that such election must be by the whole county. This decision won't effect the present Legislature.

Under this decision, no gerrymandering is possible, and the Assemblymen will be elected by the county at large. The old law has been in force since 1851.

THE EXCISE LAW ALSO SET ASIDE.

(Special to The Press.)

TRENTON, Nov. 4—The Chief Justice today declared unconstitutional the law providing for County Excise Commissioners to whom license applications locally refused might be appealed.

FRANCIS PARKMAN DEAD.

The Historian Passed Away at His Home, Near Boston.

(Special to the Press.)

BOSTON, Nov. 9—Francis Parkman, the eminent historian, died at his home on Prince street, Jamaica Plain, yesterday afternoon. His last sickness was brief, peritonitis being the cause of death.

It was only recently that he celebrated his 70th birthday in an unostentatious manner, receiving few callers, but a great many letters and telegrams came from all parts of the world.

ARRESTED THE BOOKKEEPER.

Charged With the Embezzlement of $11,000 From His Employer.

(Special to The Press.)

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Greuville W. Nichols, a bookkeeper for John H. Jacques, of 44 Broadway, was arrested yesterday.

He is charged with embezzling $11,000 from his employer.

Detectives Rogers and Cash arrested him on a bench warrant at his home at New Brighton, Staten Island.

Capt. Holly's Riding Club.

A goodly number of members of the riding club turned out for the weekly ride last night and although many were stiff from the paper chase of the day before, they rode bravely and well. About a score of riders were in the ring, and Capt. Holly put them through the calvary manœuvres as usual. Noticeable among the riders were four little boys on ponies. They were the sons of some of the members and managed their little animals with the skill of experienced horsemen. The rink was horribly cold last night and those who were not riding resorted to running up and down to keep warm. Among those riding were: Miss May Holly, Miss Corlies, Miss Annie Opdyke, Mrs. W. L. Saunders, John I. Holly, H.V. Borden, John Pier Munn, O. G. Waring, Harry Johnson and Alfred Streuli.

COMTE D'EU WILLING

Will Return to Brazil if He is Wanted There.

Claims to Know Nothing About Mello's Plans, But His Private Secretary is in Brazil, Presumably to Sound Public Sentiment.

(Copyright, 1893, by the United Press.)

PARIS, Nov. 9.—Comte d'Eu, Dom Pedro's son-in-law and Admiral Mello's candidate for a new throne in Brazil, returned to his home in the suburbs late last week and on Monday gave his first reception.

He lives in the village of Boulogne-Sur-Seine, just outside of Paris. His house in the Boulevard de Boulogne faces the Auteuil park and race course and, although hardly palatial, is roomy and pleasant.

After his fall Dom Pedro visited this house every Monday afternoon to meet his friends and former subject who mades the Comte d'Eu palace their weekly rendezvous whenever they were in Paris.

More Attention Now Paid Them.

Since the emperor's death the count and countess have continued their Monday receptions when they were in town. Last Monday's reception was better attended in fact than any reception given for many months before the present rebellion in Brazil.

The imperial princess was in good spirits. The haughtiness which rendered her so unpopular in Rio Janeiro has been toned down somewhat. Her husband, with his usual urbanity, turned off every reference to politics.

The Comte Would Not Talk.

Several attempts were made to draw from him opinions on current events in Brazil, but he frustrated them all.

Chevalier de Guimaros, the family's political adviser, was less reticent. After allowing himself to be led into a discussion of affairs in Brazil, he spoke substantially thus:

Held Aloof from Politics.

"Ever since the imperial family left Brazil, they have not swerved from their policy of holding aloof from politics. Comte d'Eu has known nothing of Admiral Mello's or any other insurgent's plans. He desires that his name be in no wise connected with the present course of events in the republic.

The rebels have received from him neither money nor encouragement.

Will Serve Brazil if Called.

Should the Brazilian nation, however, at any time call upon the imperial family to resume the reins of government, I do not doubt that the princess and her husband would do their duty.

Feeling the Pulse of the People.

The United Press correspondent has learned from another source, which there is good reason to regard with confidence, that the Comte d'Eu's private secretary has been in Brazil for some time, avowedly to visit his relatives, but really to ascertain whether the majority of the people would respond to a proclamation calling upon them to recognize the printess's rights to the throne.

May Then Aid Mello.

The secretary will arrive here within a few days to report the results of his mission. What he says will probably determine whether the count and his wife will give overt support to the Mello party in Brazil.

Dr. Moncrieff's Body Found.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—Mr. Dunn, the United States minister to Tokio, Japan, reports to the state department that the body of Dr. David Scott Moncrieff, of Harvard university, has been found at a place called Vingov, on the Saghalian coast of Siberia. He was drowned last August while out in a small sail boat.

To Try Again to Register Chinamen.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—Commissioner John S. Miller, of the internal revenue bureau has begun the preparation of the treasury regulations for the registration of Chinamen under the recent act of congress extending the operation of the Geary law for six months.

Death of an Aged Doctor.

A GREAT HOTEL MAN.

Has Been a Hotel Proprietor For Thirty-three Years.

AND HE IS FULL OF ANECDOTES AND REMINISCENCES.

Now Eighty-three Years Old and Pays His Respects To Our Readers.

There are few hotel proprietors so popular everywhere, and who can give such experiences as the well-known Richard W. Adams, who at present resides at 78 Myrtle st., Boston, Mass.

For thirty-three years he has been identified with our best hotels, having been proprietor of the Pavilion Hotel, Wolfboro, N. H., the American Hotel, Worcester, and the Addison Hotel, Middleboro.

He is a most approachable and affable gentleman, and he gave the writer many reminiscences of his active hotel life.

"You see I am eighty-three years old and have seen long service in hotel life," he said in the course of conversation, and while I am perfectly well and strong now, I was formerly a great sufferer.

"Why, for more than twenty years I suffered from the greatest debility. I was weak, tired, languid, broken down in health from over-work, care and anxiety. I was unable to sleep, was extremely nervous and in fact was a complete physical wreck.

"I was induced to take Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, hearing it everywhere recommended so highly, and I found it to possess the most wonderful reviving power and influence over me.

"It has built up my whole system and has never failed to strengthen me and increase my vitality and vigor to a remarkable extent.

"It is certainly a most valuable and wonderful medicine and I cannot speak highly enough in its praise. I heartily recommend it to all."

If you are a sufferer from disease it is plainly your own fault if you do not get cured. This wonderful medicine, Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy will certainly cure you. It is purely vegetabe and harmless.

It is constantly prescribed and recommended by doctors. It is the discovery of a physician, Dr. Greene, of 35 West 14th st., New York, the famous and successful specialist in curing all forms of nervous and chronic diseases. He can be consulted without charge, personally or by letter.

MONSTER NICKEL-STEEL ARMOR

Successfully Rounded Into the Barbette of the Battle-Ship Indiana.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 9.—After two months of the most critical work, the heaviest nickel-steel armor ever fitted in the world has been successfully rounded into the after barbette of the battle-ship Indiana, which is now nearing completion at Cramp's shipyard. The thickness of the barbette will be exceeded in this country only by the thickness of the armor of the ship.

The Indiana is now practically ready for sea. Technically, however, she is only 80 per cent. finished.

The barbette on which the finishing touches have just been put has been in course of construction for two years. It was designed to carry out the original scheme of the battle-ships, and in conformity with the law requiring those vessels to carry the heaviest guns and armor afloat.

So ponderous was the structure that the Bethlehem iron company had to cast it in 13 plates, which were forged under a 100-ton hammer. The barbette is 30 feet in diameter, 13 feet high and 17 inches thick. Its total weight is 406 tons, something less than a million pounds, and to lift it an army of 4,000 men would have to exert their utmost strength.

M. B. CURTIS IN BOSTON.

He Declares That His Trial in San Francisco Cost Him $80,000.

BOSTON, Nov. 9.—M. B. Curtis, the actor, is in this city at the Parker house, registered under the name of James Powers, Sorrento. He is very nervous and is evidently in great need of rest.

Speaking of his recent trial in San Francisco, he said it had cost him $80,000. He had finally got to Boston and intended to take a thorough rest. The reputed interview with him that appeared in a Denver paper, he said, was absolutely false. This interview was to the effect that he was wanted in San Francisco for bribing jurors and was trying to slip out of the state in order to get east.

JERRY RUSK VERY LOW.

The ex-Secretary's Condition Alarms His Friends.

VIROQUA, Wis., Nov. 9.—The condition of ex-Secretary Jerry Rusk, who has been ill for some days at his home in this city, has grown alarming, and his friends are filled with the greatest fears. Mr. Rusk spent a bad night and suffered two chills, which left him in a greatly enfeebled condition.

Dr. Hamilton of Ohio has been summoned to his bedside and is now in consultation with the local physicians.

COTTO-COTTO-COTTO-LENE.

Notice the name—COTTOLENE. Not Vegetable-lene, nor Animal-lene, nor Mineral-lene, nor any other "lene" but COTTOLENE.

COTTOLENE

Is the new vegetable shortening, recognized as far superior to lard for every cooking use. The other "lenes," and "ets," and "oles," are imitations—made to sell on the merits of COTTOLENE, and to be "worked off" by sleight of hand, or the "just as good" game.

If you want good cooking and good health, get COTTOLENE—it's the only 'lene' worth having.

MELLO LOSING GROUND

His Position Now Described as Desperate.

His Ships Crippled and His Ammunition Running Short—The Brazilian Minister at Washington Describes the Situation—Does Not Believe That Bombarding Has Been Resumed.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—Senor Mendonca, the Brazilian minister, does not believe that Admiral Mello has again bombarded Rio Janeiro, although he has received advices by way of London which would indicate that the rebel leader had on yesterday poured a furious fusilade of shot and shell into the Brazilian capital. The information, although unofficial, came, the minister frankly states, from a trustworthy source.

Mello's Situation Desperate.

Admiral Mello's situation is described by Senor Mendonca as a desperate one. His ships are still in a badly crippled condition as a result of their encounter a fortnight ago with the government forts. He has no communication with the main land. He secures his supplies of food by running alongside the small coasters which carry produce to Rio and paying for them in scrip. This scrip, the minister added, will have to be redeemed by the de facto government when the rebellion is crushed, which is another reason why it is desirable to end the war as speedily as possible. Moreover, Mello's ammunition is becoming rapidly exhausted.

His position in the harbor is such that he cannot, under any circumstances, inflict damage upon any but the more isolated and outlying parts of the capital. The government buildings and great commercial houses are out of range of his guns.

Peixoto Holding His Own.

The Peixoto government, Senor Mendonca says, is holding its own. The congress, the army, the several state assemblies and the people generally, from Rio Grande to Para, are loyal to the president. The vessels fitting out at New York are expected to be of great service to President Peixoto and their arrival at Rio is anxiously awaited.

Minister Mendonca's advices are that the representatives of the Brazilian monarchist party in Europe are disheartened at the lack of responsiveness to their sentiments among the people of Brazil. They had expected a great uprising as a consequence of Mello's revolt and they do not conceal their disappointment that it did not occur.

No Monarchial Party in Brazil.

This declaration led the minister to add that there is no monarchial party, as a party, in the republic. A few malcontents still indulge the hope of a restoration, but their number are insignificant and their influence nil.

Whatever, he says, may be the outcome of the pending trouble, the republic will continue. Brazil has seen the last of a monarchy with the deportation of Dom Pedro.

THROAT CUT; TONGUE SEVERED.

An Old Clifton Track Employe Found Injured on a Lonely Road.

PASSAIC, N. J., Nov. 10.—Harry Ryan, an eccentric old attache of the Clifton track, was discovered in a helpless condition yesterday on a lonely road near the track, unconscious from the loss of blood.

His throat had been slashed from ear to ear, and his tongue had almost been cut in two by some unknown assailant.

He was removed to the nearest hospital, but has not yet recovered sufficiently to tell his story.

Money for Insane Hospitals

ALBANY, Nov. 10.—The state commission in lunacy has completed its revision of the estimates of the expences of the state hospitals for the insane for the month of November, the amount asked for by the hospitals was $171,844.90, and the amount allowed $149,413.81. The total reduction made by the commission is $21,930.99.

Held for Criminal Libel.

NORTHVILLE, N.Y., Nov. 10.—Frank G. Dean, editor of the Sacandaga Press, has been held to await the action of the grand jury on the charge of criminal libel in publishing an attack upon Willis E. Leek, who was the republican candidate for school commissioner.

Football Practice By Electric Light.

WEST POINT, N. Y., Nov. 10.—An eight light dynamo has been placed in the dynamo house of the chemical department and eight arc lights will be placed around the arena so that the cadets can practice football until 6 o'clock in the evening.

Believes it a Case of Murder.

MT. VERNON, N. Y., Nov. 10.—Coroner Drews to-day stated that he believed the man found in the pool of water here yesterday was murdered, and that he would make a thorough investigation. The body has not yet been identified.

Liverpool Takes Warning.

LIVERPOOL, Nov. 10.—In view of the accident at Santander, the Mersey dock board has ordered that vessels carrying dynamite shall not enter the river, but shall transship the dynamite outside of Rook Light.

Whelley May Be Pardoned.

BOSTON, Nov. 10.—The pardon committee is considering the application for pardon of Michael J. Whelley, now serving life sentence at the state prison for felonious assault in 1882. Action will be taken Thursday.

Gaynor Says He Has Decided on His Plan of Action.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Nov. 10.—A committee of Brooklynites was appointed at a meeting held last night to consult with William J. Gaynor as to plans by which John Y. McKane can be prosecuted for his actions at Gravesend during election.

It is stated that McKane is guilty of half a dozen offenses, either of which make him liable to a fine and imprisonment.

Mr. Gaynor said this morning that he had already formulated in his mind what was to be done with this lawless criminal, meaning McKane.

"In the first place," said he, "if he does not run away he will be brought up to Poughkeepsie, before Justice Barnard, in a few days.

"The criminal outrage which the man has committed on the people of the county and of the whole state shall not go unpunished."

Mr. Gaynor declares that after his struggle at Gravesend and the expense of many thousand dollars, he knows the facts in the case.

LIAR, FOOL OR JACKASS.

Congressman Oates' Reply to the Attack of a St. Louis Editor.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 10.—Gen. Hawkins, editor of the St. Louis Chronicle, received, and yesterday published in the Chronicle, a letter from Congressman Oates, of Alabama, replying to an article in the Chronicle headed "Use for bloodhounds," which referred to a clause in the bankruptcy bill as virtually creating a law for imprisonment for debt.

Congressman Oates explains the clause and then says: "Any man who has ever read the bill and noticed the provision you speak of, and will then read your article, will readily decide that you are either a liar or fool. If you know what you are writing about, then I tell you you are an infamous liar; if you don't know what you are writing about, then I put you down as a cussed fool and will take no further notice of you. I regard you as a jackass, but still, if you are offended at these remarks, come to see me and I will give you satisfaction."

UNDERWENT AN OPERATION.

Ex-Secretary Rusk's Trouble Was a Growth in the Bladder.

CHICAGO, Nov. 10.—Dr. J. B. Hamilton, formerly surgeon-general of the United States marine hospital service, returned yesterday from Viroqua, Wis., where he assisted in performing a surgical operation upon ex-Secretary of Agriculture Jeremiah Rusk.

"The ordeal was a dangerous and painful one for Mr. Rusk," said Dr. Hamilton, "but the ex-secretary passed through it successfully, and when I left he was resting quietly."

It was learned that the veteran politician was troubled with a growth in the bladder, and the necessity of an operation induced the family and friends of Mr. Rusk to send for Dr. Hamilton, the ex-secretary's close friend.

BELOW $100,000,000 MARK.

The Treasury Balance Now at the Lowest Point Ever Reached.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—The treasury net balance has dropped below the $100,000,000 mark, standing to-day at $99,998,242, of which $84,690,412 is gold and the balance of $15,251,830 currency.

This is the lowest point ever reached. The general [illegible] of business on election day is given as the reason cause. It is believed the receipts will now begin to increase and the balance to creep upward.

Brazil's New War Fleet.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Soon the El Cid and Britannia will be metamorphosed into battle ships, and on the 15th inst the little fleet will start to try conclusions with Mello. The huge dynamite gun for El Cid arrived yesterday. It weighs 46 tons and will probably be put in to-day. The work of enlisting men who are to serve on these men of war goes on at the office of John H. Quail. Here already about 200 men have been selected as men-of-warsmen. Four graduates of Annapolis, it is said, have been engaged.

New York Legislature.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Corrected returns make no change in the list of New York state senators from that sent out election night. There will be 19 republicans and 13 democrats. In the assembly there is one change, William E. Melody (dem.) is elected over Geo. Passfield (rep.) in the 9th Kings county district. This will make the assembly stand 74 republicans and 54 democrats.

IT'S A FAMILY AFFAIR

And You Are After Money and Votes.

So Spoke a Tobacco Man to the Ways and Means Committee in His Argument Against Increased Tax—Politics to Be Tobacco Men's Weapon.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—"You are after two things, gentlemen: money and votes. This is a family affair and we can talk plainly about it."

So spoke Mr. J. S. Risou, of Danville, Va., one of the tobacco men in his argument against an increase of the tax on manufactured tobacco before the committee on ways and means yesterday afternoon.

Eleven gentlemen representing the manufacturers of tobacco were before the committee and argued at some length against any increase in the tax, upon the supposition, based, as they claim, upon newspaper paragraphs, that such an increase was contemplated.

Dr. Spence, of Cincinnati, who is a large manufacturer of tobacco, was the first speaker. He made an elaborate argument against an increase over the present tax of six cents per pound. He also urged the committee to repeal the provisions of the law putting leaf tobacco on the free list.

Mr. Miller, of Danville, Va., warned the committee that the subject of free leaf tobacco was of vital importance to the people of the Virginias, and the Carolinas, as it was doing much damage to the tobacco industry in those states. The free leaf law had, he thought, miscarried, and, instead of the farmer getting any benefit from it, the advantage went to the dealer.

In response to a question by Mr. Montgomery, Mr. Miller denied that free leaf tobacco extended the markets of the grower, and he did not know of a single farmer in the state of Virginia and the Carolinas who favored free leaf.

Then it was that Mr. Risou gave utterance to the sentiment expressed above. He discussed the question from a political standpoint, and made the positive assertion that if the tax on manufactured tobacco was increased, the result would be disastrous politically.

The money the committee wanted, to which he referred, was, of course, the revenue for the government. The votes were presumed to refer to democratic votes, but Mr. Risou entered into no explanation. He did say, though, that the farmers in that section of the country believed an increase of the tax would ruin them, and that if the committee decided so to do, nothing would keep the growers in the democratic party.

Mr. Bryan, of Nebraska, was anxious to know just how long such a rumor had been heard, but before the speaker could reply some one said "since the election," and Mr. Bishop's answer was lost in a shout of laughter.

Mr. Spence took a hand in the political phase of the discussion. The policy of the democratic party had always, he said, been in the direction of reduced taxation. Even McKinley advocated the abolition of this tax, and he asked the committee not to go back on the party's record by increasing this tax. The country would reap large revenues from low tax on tobacco, it was impossible to judge by other countries what the tax should be here.

After the hearing the tobacco men proceeded in a body to the treasury and saw Secretary Carlisle.

Four Trainmen Killed in a Collision.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 10.—A passenger train on the Columbus, Hocking Valley & Toledo railroad collided with a freight train 12 miles north of Fostoria at 7 o'clock last evening, and four men, Andrew Jones, the engineer of the passenger train, C. H. Jones, his fireman, who is his son, Express Messenger Gresh and Engineer Karlin of the freight train were killed.

For Missionary Work.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Nov. 10.—After a debate of nearly six hours, which covered the greater portion of two sessions, the general missionary committee of the Methodist Episcopal church yesterday afternoon decided upon the sum of $1,100,000 as the total to be appropriated for the work of domestic and foreign missions for the ensuing fiscal year.

Believe the New York is All Right.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—The highest officials of the navy department, in all the bureaus having especial charge of the matters called in question, with one accord express confidence that the derogatory suspicions which have found expression as to the stability and efficiency of the new cruiser New York will prove unfounded.

Identified and Buried By the County.

ASBURY PARK, N. J., Nov. 10.—The body that was washed ashore at Long Branch Wednesday is that of John Crompton Newton, of Centre Creek, Mass. He jumped off the steamship Campania when she arrived in quarantine on Oct. 21. As no one claimed the body Coroner Van Dyke buried it.

Resumed After Two Years Idleness.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 10.—The Oriental mills at the north of the city, which have been shut down for about two years, the result of the failure of the Reed Bros., of Chicago, have just started up in full. The mill is a large one.

LEGAL ACTION TO BE TAKEN.

Several Buffalo Officials Accused of Election Irregularities.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 10.—It is said that Sheriff Beck, the police commissioners, police superintendent, captains and officers, and the special deputy sheriffs concerned in the alleged illegal practices in the first and nineteenth wards on election day, will be called to account therefor. A meeting of republicans and home rule democrats was held to devise ways and means to punish lawlessness. Republican state committeeman Scatcherd states that committees were appointed and soon action will soon be taken.

The sheriff is charged with neglecting to use proper diligence in serving a court order for the arrest of Alderman Kennedy of the nineteenth ward, charged with ejecting watchers from the fourth district booth, and the police department with aiding and abetting illegal practices at the polls.

It is said that charges will be preferred against the sheriff, and Governor Flower will be asked to remove him. Failing in this, his case will be presented to the grand jury for indictment.

The election of Alderman John Sheehan (dem.) in the first ward will be contested, and the board of canvassers will be asked to throw out two disputed districts, which, if done, would elect White, (rep.). The election of Assemblyman Coughlin (dem.) in the first district will be contested in the assembly.

TROUBLE AVERTED.

Atlantic Mill Operatives Agree to a Temporary Reduction.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 10.—In accordance with the plan which was under consideration at the time the collapsing of the floor of Woods' hall interrupted the meeting of the Atlantic mill operatives on Monday night, the 2,200 operatives employed by the mills have decided to accede temporarily to the cut-down, posted to go into effect on Nov. 17, and not to strike, for the reason that the addition of so large a number to the 6,000 already on strike, and who must be provided for, would not only seriously cripple the work of the supply and food committee, but would give strength to the manufacturers, who would then have every mill operative in the valley out of work, a condition of affairs that would militate against the success of the strike.

Chairman McCarty told the strikers that a labor organization with plenty of spare capital had authorized the statement that it would lend $10,000 to the strikers on the agreement that they would organize by shops and agree to reimburse the organization and pay 4 per cent. interest.

Up in Money if Not Medicine.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Dr. B. Willman was arraigned at the Tombs police court by the county medical society on a charge of practising medicine without authority. It is charged that Willman is not registered as a physician either in Newark, N. J., where he resides, or in this city. He has, nevertheless, been treating the son of a Mrs. Fisher, who lives at No. 110 Madison avenue, this city, for about sixteen months, charging $10,000 for his services. Regular practitioners have pronounced young Fisher's ailment one that can be easily cured. Willman was held for trial in $500 bail.

Criticising the King.

CHRISTIANIA, Norway, Nov. 10.—The Dagbladet, a radical organ, denounces as intimidatory the speech made by King Oscar at the banquet at the royal castle on the 5th inst. to celebrate the anniversary of Norway's union with Sweden. It adds that Norwegians have never yet cringed before royal threats. In his speech the king spoke of the blessings of the union, declairing that it was an absolute necessity if the safety and independence of both kingdoms were to be secured.

Niagara's Crooked Treasurer.

LOCKPORT, N. Y., Nov. 10.—The accounts of J. J. Arnold, late county treasurer of Niagara county, now being investigated by expert Frank Wood and a committee of the board of supervisors, show a deficit of $60,000 and it is still growing. He is also short about $39,000 as cashier of the Merchants bank. Arnold is in jail with little possibility of being bailed.

Amalgamated May Yet Win.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Nov. 10.—President Garland, of the Amalgamated association, has been telegraphed to at Pittsburg, at the request of the manufacturers, to come to this city and try to bring about a settlement between the Amalgamated association and the manufacturers. Word has been received from Garland that he will be here Saturday.

The Poor Must Freeze.

LONDON, Nov. 10.—In some districts coal, in consequence of the strike of the miners, is retailing at 60 shillings ($15) per ton, and prices threaten to increase. The weather is cold, and the prices demanded for coal place it entirely out of the reach of the poor.

HOW TO CLOTHE CHILDREN

PROBLEM THAT MAKES MOTHERS STUDY.

A Minister's Wife Who Dresses Her Family in Excellent Taste—How a Small Income Went a Long Way—The Congregation Know Not How It Is Done.

The puckers in many a mother's forehead are deepened as she studies how to dress her boys and girls in a respectable manner on the small amount that is available.

A minister's wife in a small town near Plainfield was confronted by this discouraging situation, but her woman's wit and a few ten cent packages of diamond dyes solved the problem, and handsome clothes were soon evolved from a pile of odds and ends. Some of the congregation were heard to remark that it was wonderful how Mrs. Page managed to dress her family so well on her husband's salary and even thought she was extravagant but they never knew.

The Home, Housekeeper, Ladies' Home Companion and other household papers have published many articles telling how to use diamond dyes in making new clothing out of old. Pretty dresses, handsome cloaks, serviceable stockings and gay hat ribbons and feathers are obtained at but little expense, not only for the children, but for the mother as well.

The ease with which diamond dyes are used is really suprising. They make beautiful colors that never crock and are non-fading. "While there are other package dyes, there are none so easily used, nor such fast colors," says Jean Hunt in a recent number of The Home. "I have tried other dyes, but the diamond color the most goods. Their fast stocking black is the only black dye for cotton I have ever found that makes a fast black which never turns gray when washed."

SENATOR SHERMAN'S VIEWS.

The Election Results a Protest Against Any Radical Change in the Tariff.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—Senator John Sherman, who has been in Ohio for the past fortnight, returned to the city last night. He is naturally elated at the majority gained by the republicans of the Buckeye state.

"I regard the result," he said, in answer to a query, "as a protest of the unemployed against any radical change in the tariff. I don't think the silver issue has much to do with it."

"Do you think the republicans successes of Tuesday foreshadow a similar result in the congressional elections of '94?"

"The people of the northern states," said Mr. Sherman emphatically, "are not so wedded to the democratic party that they can't turn its representatives out in short order if they do anything that is inconsistent with the welfare of the country. I will say this:

"I don't believe that a single democratic congressman from Ohio will dare vote for the proposed tariff bill. They certainly will not if the measure reported is a destructive one."

YEAR OF BIG FIRE LOSSES.

Many Unsatisfactory Insurance Statements Expected Next January.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—The Journal of Commerce and Commercial Bulletin's monthly compilation of the fire loss says:

The fire loss of the United States and Canada during October, as estimated from our daily files, amounts to $11,014,700. This is over $2,000,000 less than the sum chargeable against the same month in 1892, but the year's record so far exhibits an enormous increase over the total for the past ten months of 1892.

For the ten months of this year the total losses aggregate $132,847,400 against $108,341,530 for the same period last year.

During the month just ended there were 212 fires of a greater destructiveness than $10,000 each.

The general depression in insurance circles still continues, and it is now well known that many very unsatisfactory statements must be made public in January.

BROKE THE OLD MAN'S NECK.

A Pittsburg Salvation Army Soldier Choked By a Rowdy.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 10.—A disturbance was started last night in the Salvation army barracks during religious services by Charles Jennings, aged 17, and Joseph Nesselhauff.

A scuffle followed in an attempt to put Jennings out, during which Nesselhauff choked Christopher Starz, 60 years old, a private in the army.

While the police were arresting the intruders, Starz walked to the platform and fell over dead. It was first believed that he died of heart disease, brought on by excitement, but an examination disclosed the fact that his neck was broken.

EXTRADITABLE CRIMINALS.

The Russians in 'Frisco Who Escaped from Siberia May Be Sent Back.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 10.—Of the five Russian criminals who escaped from Siberia, and who were brought here by the whaling bark Charles W. Morgan, after having been at sea ten days in open boats, three are murderers, one a counterfeiter and one a common convict.

The offenses charged are causes for extradition under the new treat. However, no official action can be taken by the Russian consul until he receives instructions from his government.

The Home Now Overcrowded.

CORNING, N. Y., Nov. 10.—Superintendent Rogers of the New York state soldiers' home at Bath, in view of the already crowded condition of the home and the fact that many applicants come in person, has notified the commanders of G. A. R. posts that hereafter only those making application in the usual way may entertain any hope of getting in.

For Selling Oleomargarine as Butter.

ALBANY, Nov. 10.—State commissioner of Agriculture Schraub has caused actions to be commenced against Peter D. Felardeau and Medard, agents of Armour & Co. in Cohoes, each on three different violations of the dairy laws, in selling oleomargarine as butter. The penalty for each violation is $100.

REPUBLICANS PLAN BIG CHANGES.

ALREADY DEVISING SCHEMES TO SWAP THE STATE HOUSE.

Race-Track, Board of Works and Other Laws to Be Repealed Summarily—Offices to Be Abolished or Filled by Republicans—Election Day Victors Thirsting to Divide the Spoils.

[From the Republican Organ, The Newark Daily Advertiser.]

TRENTON, Nov. 9—"Come up on Wednesday and see the flag float" was Barney Ford's parting invitation to some friends who called to see him last week. Superintendent Ford was at his post of duty on Wednesday morning and surrounded by many Democratic statesmen, but no flag floated in celebration of the expected victory. In fact, it is questionable whether a flag could have floated in the gloomy and sad atmosphere which pervades the State House. Blue, a deep-dyed-in-the-wool-blue, warranted to wash, is the prevailing color. It may be seen everywhere, and may even be traced on the gloomy faces of the many office-holders and employes, who know that their time is short.

The Democrats are just beginning to realize how far-reaching is the result of Tuesday's election. Not only will it clean out the State House, but will repeal many acts creating boards and commissions and offices, affecting every city, town and hamlet of the State, and making important changes in government. It is this unpleasant prospect which has cast such a deep gloom over the State House, and has completely changed the spirit of the Democratic dream. Even the corridors, which on Governor's Day resound with the heavy tread of rural statesmen, are impressive in their silence. The building was not deserted; far from it. The opening of the Supreme Court brought down a great crowd of lawyers, and among them many ex-leaders of Democratic politics. Robert Adrain, Nelson Pidcock, General Heppenheimer, Bernard J. Ford, and many lesser lights, put in an appearance early in the day. But they did n't have the air of bosses about them. It was in the Supreme Court room that the rejoicing took place. Handshaking and congratulations were the order of the day, and it was some time after the usual hour before the Court got down to business.

Democratic office holders are beginning to joke with each other as to who will be called upon to go first. That the Republican Legislature will spend most of its time repealing partisan legislation and undoing the work of the last three years is accepted by all.

"The laws of 1894"—said a Democrat, high in the counsels of his party—"will all begin 'An act to repeal an act passed by the Democratic caucus.'"

If the Republican Legislature undertakes to wipe from the statute books the partisan legislation of the past three sessions, as is confidently expected, the session will be a long one. Not since 1885 have they had uncontrolled power and the work of putting things in proper shape will keep them here many weeks.

The first duty of the Legislature will be, of course, to repeal the Race-Track bill. Said a prominent Republican this morning: "The first bill introduced at the next session should be a repealer of the infamous race-track legislation, and the Legislature should show its respect for the wishes of the people, by not undertaking any work until the repealer becomes a law. But the Legislature will not stop at that. Stringent measures will be introduced which will wipe out race-tracks within the borders of the State."

The Court having adopted R. Wayne Parker's view of the Constitution, that Member of Assembly is a county office, and that the members must be voted for by the entire county, the Republicans are forced to abandon their plans for Assembly district re-apportionment.

The joint meeting will have the election this winter of a Comptroller and Treasurer in place of General Heppenheimer and George R. Gray. General Heppenheimer will probably be succeeded by Major Anderson, who held the position for twelve years, and whose ability is recognized by all. Frank Magowan, of Trenton, is mentioned for the position of State Treasurer, but as that has been filled by a north Jerseyman for many years, it is not unlikely that an Essex man will get the place. Essex county is undoubtedly entitled to recognition, and the fact that Mr. Gray is from that county will tend to strengthen the claim.

But it will be in repealing laws creating commissions and boards that the Legislature will be engaged most of its time. The Boards of Works in Newark, Paterson, Jersey City and Trenton will be wiped out. They are unpopular with Democrats and Republicans alike. The County Excise Boards, against which the Republicans have been fighting, and the many provisions to strengthen the interests of liquor dealers in cities, will soon be things of the past. Chief of State Police Feeney, with his invisible force, will probably retire. The office of Superintendent of State House and Grounds, which has been acceptably filled by Barney Ford, will either be wiped out, or the appointment given to the joint meeting, and a Republican put in his place.

It is impossible to enumerate all the offices which have been created during the past few years, and filled by Democrats, which may be either abolished by the Legislature, or filled with Republicans. Prominent among them is the Commissioner of Banking and Insurance, whose salary is $4,000 per annum; the Judges of the District Courts in Camden, Elizabeth, Hoboken, Jersey City, Newark, Paterson, Trenton and Bayonne, to make room for whom Republicans were turned out before the expiration of their terms; the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, with a salary of $3,000; Supervisor of the State Prison, and the four Inspectors; the Riparian Commissioners, and the State Board of Assessors, which, before 1891, were non-partisan boards; the State Board of Electrical Subways, a fancy board, which has only been in existence two years and meets semi-occasionally! the Commissioner of Mines, who has been unheard of since his appointment, except to draw salary; the Inspector of Factories and Work Shops; the State Board of Arbitration, who draw a per diem salary whenever they make an unsuccessful attempt to settle disputes between workmen; the Fish and Game Commissioners, and the numerous Fish Wardens. One of the most obnoxious innovations has been the Police Justices act, under which the appointment of Police Justices in Camden, Trenton, Paterson, Newark and Jersey City was taken from the local authorities and placed in the hands of the Governor. The State Asylums will probably also come in for a share of attention, and the law changed to make the boards non-partisan.

Another important measure talked of for next winter is the Congressional re-apportionment of the State. Under the apportionment of 1891 the State was so cut up as to make it impossible for the Republicans to elect more than two out of the eight Congressmen from this State. There is some question as to the power of the Legislature to make another apportionment until after the next census, but a Republican lawyer, who has looked into the matter, insists that it rests entirely with the Legislature to say how and when the Congressmen shall be elected. If his views are sound, an apportionment this winter may be expected which will give the Republicans at least four Congressmen out of eight.

Whatever the Republicans do, the coming session of the Legislature will be a lively one, and a host of Democratic statesmen will be looking for work next spring.

Murat Halstead at the Head.

The Press has received a letter from Murat Halstead, calling attention to the Auto Book Concern, a corporation of which he has, after investigation and consideration, accepted the Presidency, supported by a Board of Directors embracing names of the highest distinction, and whose prospectus will be found in the advertising columns. The foundation of the new company is the ownership of the patents of machines that are revolutionary in book manufacture, and a vast store of plates of standard and popular works. The patented machines are binders and trimmers, whose automatic perfection names them and the company. The felicitous combination of the Auto Machines and the plates make confident promise of great results, giving cheap circulation for literature as the perfected presses have to news. This opens an immense and lucrative field of usefulness. Mr. Halstead informs The Press that it is the intention of the company to issue libraries (to be known as A. B. C. Libraries) of the very best books for the masses at extremely low prices, as well as series of A. B. C. school books, that will equal in merit those now in use with a material reduction in prices.

"He Makes Melancholy Fly Apace."

That is what "Labby" (Henry Labouchere) says of Marshall P. Wilder, who, with Brooks and Denton, will appear in the Casino tomorrow night. "As merry as a grig", says Newman Hall, D. D. The entertainment will furnish a good chance to drive dull care away. Don't miss it! It is not a smoker!

It Is Not a Smoker.

The triumph of the evening was scored by Messrs. Brooks and Denton, the greatest banjo players of the day, and it seemed remarkable that such superb music could be brought from the instrument.

So says the New York Mail and Express. You can judge for yourself, tomorrow night, in the Casino. And Marshall P. Wilder will make you smile.

Smashed His Finger.

M. Powers met with a painful accident while at work in the rear of Bock's saloon on East Second street. He was adjusting an iron cover over an unused well when the heavy casting fell on his left hand, crushing the first finger badly. The wound was dressed, and Mr. Powers was able to go home.

Coachmen to Have a Dance.

The first ball of the Coachmen's Beneficial Association, in T. A. B. hall, Thanksgiving Eve, promises to be a grand success. The Committee of Arrangements consists of Charles Lang, Thomas Dwyer, Patrick Kiley, Peter McDonough and Jas. Wierenga.

Glad He Did n't Run.

Judge William A. Coddington says he was waited on three separate times, before election, and asked to accept the Democratic nomination for Senatorship in this county, but he declined all overtures, and now he is glad he did.

Grand Ball and Irish Drama.

The members of the Young Men's Catholic Lyceum are arranging for a grand ball to be held in their hall, Thanksgiving night. They will also present an Irish drama in Music Hall the evening of March 17.

Won by the Sons.

The case of Nolan against Westphal's Sons, on right of property, was re-tried before Justice Mosher and a jury yesterday afternoon. The jury was out 45 minutes and brought in a verdict for the defendant.

BROKER PATTON AGAIN IN JAIL.

IT IS SAID HIS BONDSMEN SURRENDERED HIM.

Renewal of the Charge Against Him of Hypothecating $60,000 of Money Belonging to Other People—Wealthy Relatives Decline to Help.

Wm. L. Patton, New York stock broker and Plainfield resident, and son of the late Rev. Wm. A. Patton, former President of the Columbia University in Washington, is again in Ludlow Street Jail, under a charge of hypothecating $60,000 in railway securities, having, it is said, been surrendered by his bondsmen.

The fact of his being there seems to be something of a secret, as it was not known until last night. Even those by whom the suit is brought were unaware of his being there, although they knew he ought to have been there since last Saturday. In fact, he was not arrested until Tuesday.

The firm of William L. Patton & Co., stock brokers, of 6 Wall street, made an assignment May 6, with liabilities of $788,000, and assets of $11,000. The actual creditors' loss was something over $350,000, and of this amount, it is alleged, Patton transferred $250,000 to his individual account, and lost it in speculation. Of this latter amount, $60,000 was in bonds belonging to the Craig estate, which Patton had in his keeping.

It is said that at the time of the failure Patton acknowledged fraudulently disposing of these securities, giving them as collateral on loans to the Bank of the Manhattan Company and the Holland Trust Company.

For over five months Lawyer Robert B. Honeyman, of 40 Wall street, New York, who is the attorney for the Craig estate, endeavored to effect an agreement whereby the amount of the securities would be returned, and Patton continued asking for time, saying that he would pay, and as his relatives are very wealthy time was given. But his relatives declined to help him, and Patton never paid.

Little Miss Ethel Was Born.

A very pleasant entertainment took place in Monroe Avenue chapel last evening, in the form of a church sociable. Through the evening Rogers & Gonde's orchestra furnished delightful music.

A feature of the entertainment was an address delivered by Mr. McGee, Superintendent of the Sunday-school. James Rogers, of Evona, entertained by reciting in his inimitable manner a humorous recitation, a boy's first speech, "Mary had a Little Lamb", which brought forth rounds of applause. Master Stephen Haff favored with selections on the piano, which were well received, and did him honor. After this refreshments were furnished.

A large and apreciative audience was present, among the gathering being James McGee, W. C. Burt and family, Mrs. Stephen Haff, Miss Emily Haff, Mrs. Arthur D. Pearson, Mrs. William W. Pearson and Mr. and Mrs. Wallace H. Pearson, with their pretty little daughter Ethel Villers, two years old; this being her first appearance in public, she attracted much attention.

Pastor's Reception.

The Rev. J. W. Richardson, pastor of the Park Avenue Baptist church, gave a reception to his congregation last evening in the Sunday-school room of the church. The room was neatly decorated and arranged for the occasion, and one had but to step inside to feel thoroughly at ease. It is indeed gratifying to see a pastor and people exchanging such hearty greetings and becoming so well acquainted.

An orchestra was present and discoursed pleasing music.

During the evening a large number of people enjoyed the hospitality, and it was quite late when the last group departed for home.

SEWERAGE FOR PLAINFIELD.

THE BOARD OF TRADE TAKES AN ACTIVE HAND.

Mayor and Councilmen Explain the Plans and Needs, to a Large Gathering of Representative Men.

The Plainfield Board of Trade met in the Board's rooms, on East Second street, last evening, principally for the purpose of conferring with Mayor Gilbert and the members of the Sewerage Committee of the City Council—President S. A. Ginna, George H. Frost and E. N. Erickson.

President George W. Rockfellow presided, and Secretary George A. Hallock reported the proceedings.

When the president called the meeting to order at 8:15 there were present: His Honor Mayor Gilbert, President Ginna and Councilmen Erickson and Frost (Councilman Fisk came in later), J. D. Runyon, A. M. Runyon, H. H. Baker, A. Andrews, F. H. Martin, D. W. Rogers, John Ulrich, A. M. Williams, J. F. Hubbard, J. A. Hubbard, Dr. O. L. Jenkins, H. H. Coward, George Griffin, J. H. Doane, Capt. Doane, E. R. Pope, J. W. Lowrie, John Doane, A. D. Thompson, John Emmons, Charles Place, Henry Liefke, L. B. Woolston, W. A. Woodruff, F. C. Langhorne, G. Q. Packer, R. A. Meeker, J. F. Buckle, D. W. Littell, F. W. Runyon, James A. Davis, Clarence Teel, B. F. Murray, C. M. Ulrich, Chas. Vail, John Rowland, Chas. B. Clifton, and others.

President Rockfellow of the Board called the meeting to order and Secretary George A. Hallock read the call. The former stated the object of the meeting, which he said was to explain the sewerage question. He called upon Mayor Gilbert, who spoke at length, giving statistics and interesting data. He said he was glad the Board of Trade had so soon from its incipiency entered upon the duty of protecting the public interests. Each citizen and taxpayer should acquaint himself with these existing emergencies. Many people, he considered, know very little about the sewerage question, when it is broached to them, and many refuse to sign a petition, not knowing its purport. The Mayor is a believer in the fact that the Board of Trade will spare no pains to bring about a change in the affairs, and assist materially in introducing a system of sewerage unequalled by any in the United States.

The committee of the Council, he said, was making progress every day, but slowly. Three-fifths of the real estate valuations, by their owners' signatures, are required and necessary to express the willingness of the property owners before sewerage can be introduced. Thus far $3,000,000 has been obtained, and about $600,000 more is necessary. Some objections are made to the proposed system: mainly that it is not perfect; others claim the taxes will be higher, and still others that the filtration beds located near the city would prove to be a menace and nuisance to the public health. This idea was dispelled later on.

Mayor Gilbert, who was the principal speaker, said the committee had studied up the various systems now in vogue all over the world, before submitting a report to Citizens' Committee at a recent meeting held for the purpose; well-known experts on the subject had also been consulted. When the Joint Committee came together some months ago, sub-committees were appointed—one to ascertain legal objections, if any there be; another to find out the cost, etc.

The Intermittent Filtration System, —continued the Mayor—is the best adapted for both small and large towns. At South Framingham, Mass., where the same system has been in operation for the past five years, Mr. Ginna, one of the committee who went to investigate, did not expect to see and find what he did; the Massachusetts State Board of Health established an experimental station at Lawrence, and soon the question arose as to whether or not the filtering beds would perform service in winter as well as in summer. Last winter was the worst "old-fashioned New England winter" experienced in many a year, and the Massachusetts Board of Health watched the filtering process with much zeal, and their report was that the last obstacle with reference to the disposal of sewerage had been removed.

The proposed filter bed is made of a top dressing of soil and some other composition; below, some two feet, is a layer of stone and coarse gravel, and still further below are the filter drains; 998 out of 1,000 parts of the sewage is made up of water and the remaining two parts of solids; the water naturally flows away, while the solid matter adheres to the bed, where microbes form on the under side, and in less than 24 hours all the sediment is gone, actually eaten up, and there is no offensive odor.

The mode of construction and probable cost and location, said the Mayor, are daily questions to be met. As to location nothing could yet be said, but the entire matter had been carefully gone over by some of the best experts in the country and their report has been confirmed by a personal investigation of the Sewerage Committee of Council. "We propose"—said he—"to put in only house sewerage; the surface water will flow off and care for itself; the pipes are to be kept clean by the automatic flushing system." The cost is the most important to some people, but it should be understood that sewers come to save health as well as cost money, and the people should be willing to bear their share of the burden for the benefit of the public health. The total cost will be about $125,000, making liberal allowance for contingencies which may arise; of this expenditure about one-half will fall on the city and the remaining half on the property owners benefited, the latter to be determined by commissioners appointed by the court. The law will not allow the issue of bonds for the whole undertaking, but the city's share can be bonded and the interest maturing for some time would be about $6,250 per annum, and the tax would increase about 10 to 12 cents on the $100 valuation. Mayor Gilbert said in conclusion, that the committee expected to encounter great obstacles in locating the filtration beds, but good judgment with no detriment to the public health would be exercised in case the proper ordinance is enacted by Council. And to this end more signatures are needed to the petitions.

President Ginna emphasized what the Mayor had said and went on further to state that at Lawrence, Mass., big tanks were erected, and soil from different portions of the State was taken there to test its qualities for filtration. Expert chemists claim that the water flowing through the filtering beds is equal to that taken from the wells.

Assessor Hubbard asked about corner lots owners whether they would be assessed on both sides, and the Mayor said he presumed not, but the Commissioners would have to decide this question.

In Berlin with a population of 1,000,000 the same system of filtration is used.

Councilman Geo. H. Frost was the next speaker. He said it was only a matter of a short time before the city must have sewerage. Plainfield, he said, was the last city of its size in the United States to adopt water-works; the cost of sewerage, he contended, is a mere bagatelle; experts have been here and gone over the ground thoroughly and everything is in readiness to go ahead with the work as soon as Council acts on the petitions; few cuttings of the streets, he said would be below 12 feet; if quicksand is encountered, the cost cannot be estimated; the work is to be given to contractors, and borings are to be made every 100 feet; at Grant avenue probably 19 feet would be the depth of the main.

The main centre is at Park avenue and Ninth street, from which point all grades must start. Regarding the cost Mr. Frost said, at Somerville it cost 45 cents; Fort Wayne 37 cents, and here he believed the system could be put in for 59 cents a foot. Green Brook is too shallow to be used as a receptacle for sewerage, and it is a matter of conjecture whether or not an opening could be made in the Raritan river; at all events connection must be made above the "dam", and this is likely to involve an expenditure of $125,000 in lawsuits. There are three different systems—said Mr. Frost—broad irrigation, chemical precipitation, and the filtering process. The first needs a large area of ground; the second is too expensive; the filtering process is most economical.

Mr. Erickson hoped the Board of Trade would assist the committee in getting signers to the petitions, and the Mayor asked for 100 men to work as he does to solicit signatures.

H. H. Baker was one of the questioners, ex-Judge John Ulrich also asked questions, and they were promptly answered by the Mayor and Mr. Frost.

Editor Runyon moved that the Mayor furnish the list of names not now on list. It was so ordered. Petitions for signers will be circulated.

Mr. Frost said Netherwood property would be most benefited.

J. A. Hubbard said there was a "kick" among owners of vacant lots.

There are now 1,000 names on the petition and more are wanted.

HEALTH AND HAPPINESS

come to you if you're a suffering woman. The messenger in this case is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

It's a tonic and nervine, a remedy prescribed by an eminent physician and specialist for all the peculiar ills and ailments of women.

MISS MEEKER.

My daughter, Miss MEEKER, was sick and we called in one of the best doctors here. She got so weak that I had to help her out of bed and draw her in a chair. As for myself I am much better of my female complaint. Before taking the "Favorite Prescription" I suffered most of the time from catarrhal inflammation. Yours respectfully, Mrs. NANCY MEEKER. PIERCE Guarantees CURE.

A SLEEK STRANGER STOLE THE RIG.

ON THE PROMISE OF A JOB, HULETT PERRINE WAS DUPED.

Blue-Eyed Mr. Swindler Dumped the Owner of the Horse and Wagon at the Dr. Coles Place, Drove Rapidly Away, and Hasn't Been Captured Yet.

Hulett Perrine, of Westfield, had his horse and wagon stolen Monday night by a very clever thief, and he has found no trace of the missing rig. Perrine had stopped at Combs's Hotel, Westfield, and there met a stranger who told him that he knew of a job if Perrine cared to try for it. Perrine said he was anxious to get to work, and the stranger said he would take him to the place. Accordingly the two men started off in Perrine's rig and went in the direction of Scotch Plains on the Springfield road. They stopped at a house near the Dr. Coles place, and when Perrine got out of the rig to go into the house the stranger said he would drive on to Scotch Plains village and get some beer. Perrine said he did not want any beer, but the man drove off rapidly and has not been seen since. The horse stolen was a bay roan, and the rig was a two-seated box wagon with double steps on each side. The thief is described as being of medium height, rather thick set, and smooth-shaven, with blue eyes and red cheeks. The only clue that has been heard of the missing rig is that obtained from two bicycle riders, who said that a horse and wagon corresponding to the one stolen had been seen tied to a hitching post in Metuchen for some hours the day after the theft. The police have been notified, and will investigate the matter. Perrine, who had been saving a long time to buy the rig, can ill afford to lose it, and it is to be hoped that the thief may be brought to justice.

Roselles Down the Parks.

A large crowd turned out last night at the Park Club to witness the bowling match between the Roselle team and the Park rollers. The Roselle boys rolled in great luck and piled up a nice score to their credit; in fact, the 1,520 points that they made was the largest score they have bowled this year. The Park team did well, but one or two of the best men were out of form, and they needed 17 more pins to their credit to be even with their opponents.

The score:

ROSELLE.		PARK.
Cook	156	McCutchen	147
Hope	150	Sandford	177
Patterson	133	Reed	127
Horne	158	Brown	173
Greves	141	Chapman	118
Hibbard	179	Lyman	142
Benedict	184	McQuaide	158
Miller	116	Hegeman	171
MacQuoid	172	Thiers	159
Warner	140	Matthews	132

No Neutral Games.

A meeting of the Journal Bowling League was held in Elizabeth last night to complete the arrangements for the league games this season. The question of rolling a number of neutral games after the regular schedule was finished was discussed, but it was decided that the number of regular games was sufficient. The first of the games to be rolled in Plainfield will be the Pioneers of Elizabeth against the C. Y. M. L. on the latter's alleys, Friday, Nov. 17.

Admired by Veteran King.

Col. King, Proprietor of Hotel Albion declares that within two minutes from the time he sent in an alarm from fire box 26, at the corner of Park avenue and Eighth street, Tuesday evening, the firemen were on the spot with their apparatus ready for duty. This, he says, is remarkably quick time for a volunteer department.

No Game and No Vote.

Four votes were lost in North Plainfield, Tuesday, as that many gunners went hunting early in the day and did not return until half an hour after the polls closed. They were quite indignant when told that their votes were barred out. The game they captured could be brought home in a vest pocket.

Glad to See Him Out Again.

Worshipful Master Charles H. Rugg, of Jerusalem Lodge, No. 26, F. and A. M., has resumed his official position after an absence of seven weeks, caused by illness. At the regular communication, Tuesday evening, D. D. G. M. Schroder was present and witnessed the exemplified degree worked on one member.

Talk and Tea for the City Union.

A social meeting of all the circles and members of the Plainfield City Union of King's Daughters will be held Monday, Nov. 13, in the Crescent Avenue church parlors, at 3 p. m., to be addressed by Mrs. M. L. Dickenson. Tea will be served, and a full attendance is desired.

Money for the Building Fund.

The total collections at the new German Lutheran church on Grove street, North Plainfield, Sunday, amounted to about $100. The money will go to the building fund of the church. The cost of building the horse shed in the rear will be borne by Mr. Koch, who donated the land.

Mud in the Road Is No Defense.

The trial of Frank L. C. Martin before Judge Coddington yesterday afternoon, for riding a bicycle on the sidewalk, resulted in a verdict of guilty and a fine of $15. Capt. Martin's defense was that he rode on the walk to avoid the mud in the street.

"A WOODEN WEDDING."

Pleasing Production of Comedietta In All Souls Church.

The lecture room of All Souls church contained a very large number of people last evening. In fact, the room was uncomfortably crowded.

The comedietta "A Wooden Wedding", by Mrs. M. P. Irving, of the Flushing Alliance, was given through the courtesy of the author, assisted by Charles T. Catlin.

Mrs. Irving has displayed marked ability in writing this play, and the many strong points were ably given and thoroughly appreciated by those present.

The play has to do with every-day life, and gives a true representation of the little trials and troubles that cross the path way of man and wife.

After a short period of married life, dissatisfaction is noticeable, and each blames the other for it. They finally conclude that both have been selfish and cruel, and decide to live happily together.

There is enough of humor to make the play exceedingly bright and crisp. It was received with liberal applause throughout.

The second part of the programme consisted of two recitations by Mr. Catlin, "Betsy and I Are Out" and "Sir Anthony's Plan", the latter a scene from "The Rivals".

Mr. Catlin is truly an artist in his work, and deserves high praise for his rendition of these pieces. As encores he gave "Me and Lally; or, Boomin' the Fair", one of his own composition, and "The Doorstep". Both were well received.

The piano playing of Otto Arens, a nephew of Otto Arens, was a real treat. Mr. Arens has just arrived in this country from Europe, where he has been studying. His execution on the piano was marvelous. The selections given by him were as follows:

Etude Op. 25, I.....Chopin
Etude.....Henselt
Romanse.....Rubenstein
March—"From the Ruins of Athens".....Beethoven
Selection.....Lohengrin-Wagner

Miss Sandford also gave a pleasing selection on the piano, and during part first of the programme Mrs. Otto Arens sang a very pretty solo.

Red Men and Their Daughters.

Members from Miantonomo Tribe, No. 118, I. O. R. M., and Iona Council, No. 14, Daughters of Pochohontas of this city, visited Nenemosha Tribe, No. 17, I. O. R. M., of Elizabeth, last evening and had a delightful time.

They were welcomed by Pochohontas Coleman, of Elizabeth.

After a short business session the Council fire was quenched, and the members' friends were invited to join the three tribes of Elizabeth and visiting tribes.

A feature of the evening's entertainment was the original poem recited by William Westphal entitled "Pull Together", and the recitations by John H. Carney, which as usual brought down the house. Remarks were made by several members, and there was some excellent music.

Fall in Flour.

At Vincent L. Frazee's popular grocery store, last evening, flour took quite a drop. Mr. Frazee had placed a number of bags of flour one upon another, till it reached almost to the ceiling. Without any warning they took a tumble. It resulted in the breaking of a glass in one of his front doors and scattered things generally about the store. It remained for Mr. Frazee to put this commodity within the reach of all.

Go Take a Ride in the Ferris Wheel.

The Ferris Wheel is not coming to Coney Island after all, but you can see it in all its bigness in Plainfield next Monday night. It's a part of the World's Fair visit in Music Hall.

These Meetings Should Be Rousers.

Evangelist Crane, who is to conduct meetings during the week of prayer for young men at the Y. M. C. A., is a powerful speaker, and the committee in charge anticipate very interesting meetings.

'Twould Have Made No Difference.

One of the election officers in North Plainfield, it is said, sat all day within two feet of the ballot box, Tuesday, and did not cast his own vote.

$100 Reward, $100.

The reader of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer $100 for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address

A VETERAN'S VERDICT.

The War is Over. A Well-known Soldier, Correspondent and Journalist Makes a Disclosure.

Indiana contributed her thousands of brave soldiers to the war, and no state bears a better record in that respect than it does. In literature it is rapidly acquiring an enviable place. In war and literature Solomon Yewell, well known as a writer as "Sol," has won an honorable position. During the late war he was a member of Co. M, 3d. N. Y. Cavalry and of the 13th Indiana Infantry Volunteers. Regarding an important circumstance he writes as follows:

"Several of us old veterans here are using Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, Heart Cure and Nerve and Liver Pills, all of them giving splendid satisfaction. In fact, we have never used remedies that compare with them. Of the Pills we must say they are the best combination of the qualities required in a preparation of their nature we have ever known. We have spoke but words of praise for them. They are the outgrowth of a new principle in medicine, and tone up the system wonderfully. We say to all, try these remedies." —Solomon Yewell, Marion, Ind., Dec. 5, 1892.

These remedies are sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee, or sent direct by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, six bottles $5, express prepaid. They positively contain neither opiates nor dangerous drugs.

Prospectus.

THE AUTO BOOK CONCERN has been organized.

First. To acquire and control the American and European patents of the AUTO BOOK BINDER, and the AUTO BOOK TRIMMER MACHINES, that, to the book-making art, mark an advance as important as the Steam Printing Press was to the Washington Hand Press fifty years ago; and to manufacture and operate said machines, in this and in foreign countries.

Second. To acquire the most complete set of stereotype and electrotype plates, in this country, of the standard popular authors. These are stored in fire proof vaults in the City of New York. They are perfect and cost over $1,000,000.

Third. To manufacture with the use of these Automatic Machines, all grades of books, including school and music books, and sell the same at greatly reduced prices, to its Stockholders and the trade.

The Company will not sell or lease any of its machines within the United States, but to the European book-making craft only.

THE AUTO BOOK BINDER and the AUTO BOOK TRIMMER are run at little expense. They are marvels of simplicity. The binder, with the assistance of two girls, picks up printed sheets and covers, and converts them into solidly and flexibly bound volumes, neither sewed nor wired. These machines perfectly perform their tasks, and are henceforth as indispensable in producing books, as the perfecting presses are to the newspapers.

It is proposed to provide families, students and school teachers with libraries at trifling expense and the best current literature at prices heretofore unknown and school books for the children of the million, neater and cheaper than ever has been done.

Statement of Earnings.

The profits on the publication of the standard and popular works from the plates which the Company acquires have exceeded $100,000 yearly under the old processes of manufacture, assuring to the stockholders a profit of at least 10 per cent. per annum from this source alone. With the use of the Auto Machines these profits must necessarily be largely increased.

It is impossible to estimate the returns from the ownership of the patents and the sale of the Machines in Foreign Countries, but it is a well known fact that patents covering machinery that create a revolution in any important trade have proved enormously remunerative to the original owners, and soon repay the full amount of capital invested. Additional dividends will be declared from time to time as such profits are realized.

Stockholders' Postal Supply Bureau.

An important feature of the sale department of the Company is the STOCKHOLDERS' POSTAL SUPPLY BUREAU.

The Company acts as agent for each stockholder in the purchase of all books published, and secures for stockholders the greatest possible discount, varying from 25 to 50 per cent. Stockholders will also be supplied with catalogues containing the list of the Company's publications, with a confidential price list, giving the wholesale prices and a special additional discount, which will be given to stockholders alone. Such discounts to stockholders will amount to an immense sum on the yearly purchase of books, thus yielding large DISCOUNT DIVIDENDS, in addition to the Cash Dividends, on the investment.

The price to be paid by the Company for the American and Foreign patents of the Auto Book Binder, the Auto Book Trimmer and the stereotype and electrotype plates of the Standard Works is $1,000,000; $350,000 in cash and $650,000 in the stock of the Company; the vendors agreeing, however, to donate to the treasury of said Company $150,000 of the stock they receive in part consideration of the conveyance of the above property.

To meet said cash payment of $350,000 to said vendors and to supply the necessary working capital, 50,000 shares of the capital stock of this Company are now offered for public subscription at par ($10 per share). All stock will be issued full paid and non-assessable. Purchasers incur no personal liability. The remaining stock is retained by the vendors, as it is expected to command a large premium when the machines are in universal use.

Subscriptions to stock can be paid for in full on application, or 20 per cent. can be paid on application, the balance in one and two months. Should the stock offered be over-subscribed, preference will be given to subscriptions accompanied by full payment. Early application is, therefore, recommended.

Applications for stock with remittances must be made to WINTHROP PONDE Treasurer, THE AUTO BOOK CONCERN at the Company's office, 203 Broadway, New York.

General Belief and Private Opinion
It isn't always that you will find everybody agreeing on anyone subject on the question as to the best place in town to buy most everything you want. There is no room for disagreement. Everybody knows that we are headquarters, and for fear that somebody (lately come to town) may not know it, we append some very CONVINCING ARGUMENTS.
13 cents buys a new broom.
For a dime you buy outing flannels that were 13c.
You will probably want a new coat this winter. Drop in and look at our assortment. That one at $5.50 may suit you.
We only ask $1 35 for a home-made cheese cloth comfortable filled with white cotton. Thin tumblers 48c. dozen. Even if you don't want Underwear today, you may tomorrow. Don't forget our special sale for ladies, gentlemen and children.
Do you keep a horse?—We bought about 100 of the well known 5a Blankets, manufacturers' samples, no two alike. You buy them at manufacturers' prices.
HOSIERY—We place on sale today 50 dozen all-wool, English cashmere stockings, sizes 6 to 8½, fast black, 25c pair. Regular price 50c.
HOUSEFURNISHING DEPARTMENT—Our sale of granite ironware is the biggest kind of a success. There is everything in coffee and tea pots, cooking pots, pans, etc., at tinware prices.
DRESS GOODS—Our dress goods trade is more than satisfactory, and a good reason for it. Never have we offered such values in desirable goods as we have this season.
Our Shoe Business Grows.
WHY WE DO IT
$2 50—Ladies' Fine Dongola Button, stitched soles, patent tips, worth $3.00.
$2 00—Misses' Hand Welt Dongola Button patent tip, heel worth $2 50.
$1 50—Children's spring heel school shoes, lasted, worth $2 00.
$1 50—Boy's school shoes, laced, spring heel or heeled, worth $1 75.
We are still selling Ladies' Overgaiters at 25c. to all who purchase shoes to the amount of $1 25 or more.

Lobengula's Capital Found Almost Deserted.

The Matabele Warriors, After a Furious Fight, Again Flee in Disorder—The King Disheartened at His Losses, Is Being Hotly Pursued.

CAPE TOWN, Nov. 10.—Dispatches from Dr. Jameson have been received at Fort Victoria. They confirm the reports that Buluwayo, Lobengula's capital, was captured by the forces of the Chartered company.

The columns which took the town were commanded by Dr. Jameson and Major Forbes.

They had several skirmishes with the Matabele before the critical battle.

When about ten miles from Buluwayo, on Nov. 1, they were harassed constantly by Lobengula's warriors. Several attempts were made to surround the columns.

Matabeles Attacked Furiously.

At noon Dr. Jameson and Maj. Forbes decided to give battle, and formed their troops in a laager. The Matabele, 7,000 strong, accepted the challenge. They attacked furiously, but were held at a safe distance by the Maxim guns.

The fight lasted an hour, during which the Matabele kept up a steady but ineffective rifle fire. They fled in disorder.

Mounted men were sent in pursuit, but were soon recalled, as they were unable to do much execution.

Left 1,000 Dead and Wounded.

The Matabele left 1,000 dead and wounded on the field. The forces of the Chartered company lost three killed and seven wounded, all by rifle shots.

During the same afternoon the columns advanced some distance towards Buluwayo and then went into laager. The night passed quietly. Early in the morning of November 2, the columns resumed the advance with great caution, but no Matabele appeared.

White Traders Found at Buluwayo.

Buluwayo was found empty, but for a few old people and the white traders Fairbairn and Usher, who were supposed to have been killed by the Matabele. The traders said they had been well treated.

Buluwayo had been abandoned a week before, after Lobengula had set fire to the huts and exploded the magazine which contained 80,000 cartridges and 2,500 pounds of powder.

Lobengula Warriors Insisted on Fight.

The king had been disheartened by the defeat of his warriors at Indianas mountain, but his men insisted upon another encounter.

Mrs. S. W. White

Tells of a family blessing.

Thus she writes to Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I suffered for 10 years with female complaints of the worst form, accompanied by severe spinal trouble, causing incessant backache, weakness of the stomach, and nervousness.

"I gave up all hope of ever being well again. Just then I began to take:—

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I followed your directions and treatment until I am now a perfectly well woman.

"I gave it to my two daughters, aged 14 and 16 years, and they are fine, healthy girls.

"It is surely a blessing to our family."—816 Holly St., West Philadelphia, Pa.

WANT OUR INTERFERENCE.

England Anxious for Cessation of Hostilities in Brazil.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—It is stated that the English government, through its ambassador, has urged the United States to exert its mediating influence between the conflicting elements in Brazil, in order to bring to a speedy close the internal strife which has been in progress in that country for some months.

In this connection a bit of unpublished diplomatic history is given. When, on Nov. 8, 1891, Deodoro da Fonseca, then president of the provisional government which had succeeded the monarchy, dissolved congress and proclaimed martial law, Brazil was on the verge of a dictatorship. In this crisis Secretary Blaine was appealed to, in order that the influence of the United States might be thrown into the balance and order brought out of chaos.

It was upon his suggestion that President Harrison cabled to President Fonseca his regret that the Brazilian congress had been dissolved in defiance of the provision of the constitution and added his hope that the president might not commit any act which would thwart the advancement of Brazil toward a real, substantial form of republican government. The despatch was couched in the most friendly terms, as if an elder brother had undertaken to advise a younger one, but it had its effect. It convinced Fonseca that the step he had taken met with the disapproval of the United States, and it was the most important factor leading to his resignation, which almost immediately followed.

Diplomatic history affords no more striking evidence of the influence which the United States has over Brazil than this private cablegram, the exact wording of which has never been made known, and the substance of which is now published for the first time.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—News has been received from the Herald's correspondent in Rio Grande do Sul of a skirmish between the revolutionary forces and the outposts of the government troops in Santa Ana.

After hard fighting lasting more than an hour the government troops retreated.

Revolutionists assert that Mello is amply provided with provisions, ammunition and funds sufficient to continue the fight for a year.

MUST CARRY THE TRI-COLOR.

French Socialists Will Parade Under Restrictions When Deputies Meet.

PARIS, Nov. 11.—The socialists of this city have decided to make a demonstration on the occasion of the opening of the chamber of deputies on November 14. It is their intention to march in procession to the chamber. The socialist members of the chamber will take part in the procession. It is understood that the government will not oppose the demonstration, but it will not allow the carrying of any flags save the tri-color. Those who take part in the parade will be forbidden to make any noise, such as shouting for socialism. Nor will the procession be allowed to approach nearer the chamber than the Place de la Concorde, which is across the Seine from the chamber.

The Gaulois asserts that the government is willing to grant partial amnesty to the political exiles, including M. Rochefort, and Count Dillon, leaders in the Boulangist movement.

The Honduras Outrage.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—In firing on the Pacific Mail steamship Costa Rica, flying the United States flag, Honduras may get into trouble, not only with this country, but with Nicaragua. While Bonilla, who was the special object of the attack on the steamer, is a native of Honduras, he is now an adopted citizen of the republic of Nicaragua. About three months ago he was elected a member of the constituent assembly of Nicaragua, the highest congress known to the country, and a body charged with the revision of the constitution of the country.

TO BE RESTORED TO HER THRONE

President Cleveland Will Re-establish the Hawaiian Monarchy.

Probably at This Moment Queen Liliuokalani is Again the Ruler of Hawaii—Secretary Gresham's Report to the President, After Mr. Blount's Story is Heard—The Provisional Government Established Only By Aid of United States Forces.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—After the cabinet meeting yesterday afternoon (which was of unusual duration, lasting over three hours and a half) Secretary Gresham, with the concurrence of the president gave out for publication the following report, which, it will be noted, bears date of Oct. 18.

Though no direct statement to that effect accompanies the publication of this most important document it is assumed that the instructions given to Minister Willis, who left for his post of duty at Hawaii just about this time, after being twice delayed in his departure, are in consonance with the tenor of the views therein expressed.

Minister Willis and Admiral Irwin have undoubtedly by this time carried out their instructions.

Anxiously Awaiting Honolulu News.

The Honolulu mail that will arrive in San Francisco next week will be looked for with an interest such as has rarely been felt for news from that quarter of the world.

The following is Secretary Gresham's report:

TO THE PRESIDENT:

The full and impartial reports submitted by the Hon. James H. Blount, your special commissioner to the Hawaiian islands, establish the following facts:

Queen Liliuokalani announced her intention on Saturday, Jan. 14, 1893, to proclaim a new constitution but the opposition of her ministers and others induced her to change her purpose and make public announcement of the fact.

At a meeting in Honolulu, late on the afternoon of that day, a so-called committee of public safety, consisting of eighteen men, being all or nearly all present, and a majority of whom, including five Americans, were aliens, was appointed "to consider the situation and devise ways and means for the maintenance of the public peace and the protection of life and property."

Provisional Government Resolved.

This committee met on the 15th or the forenoon of the 16th, and resolved, amongst other things, that "a provisional government be created to exist until terms of union with the United States of America have been negotiated and agreed upon."

At a mass meeting composed largely of aliens, which assembled at 2 p. m., on the last named day, the queen and her supporters were condemned and denounced, and the committee was continued and all acts approved.

Stevens Asked for Assistance.

Later the same afternoon the committee addressed a letter to John L. Stevens, the American minister at Honolulu, stating that the lives and property of the people were in peril and appealing to him and the United States forces at his command for assistance.

Mr. Stevens then requested Captain Wiltse, commander of the U. S. S. Boston, to land a force "For the protection of the United States legation, United States consulate, and to secure the safety of American life and property."

Sends Troops and Gatling Guns.

The well armed troops were promptly landed and marched through the quiet streets of Honolulu with two gatling guns to a public hall, previously secured by Mr. Stevens for their accommodation.

This hall was just across the street from the government building, and in plain view of the queen's palace.

The reason for thus locating the military will presently appear.

Protest from the Governor.

The governor of the island immediately addressed to Mr. Stevens a communication protesting against the act.

About the same time the queen's minister of foreign affairs sent a note to Mr. Stevens, asking why the troops had been landed and informing him that the proper authorities were able and willing to afford full protection to the American legation and all American interests in Honolulu. Only evasive replies were sent to these communications.

The People Ignorant.

While there were no manifestations of excitement or alarm in the city, and the people were ignorant of the contemplated movement, the committee entered the government building, after first ascertaining that it was unguarded, and one of their number, a citizen of the United States, read a proclamation declaring that the existing government was overthrown and a provisional government established in its place, "To exist until terms of union with the United States of America has been negotiated and agreed upon."

No audience was present when the proclamation was read, but during the reading forty or fifty men, some of them indifferently armed entered the room.

The Monarchy Abrogated.

The executive and advisory councils mentioned in the proclamation at once addressed a communication to Mr. Stevens, informing him that the monarchy had been abrogated and a provisional government established. This communication concluded: "Such provisional government has been proclaimed, is now in possession of the government departmental building, the archives and the treasury, and is in control of the city. We hereby request that you will, on behalf of the United States of America, recognize it as the existing de facto government of the Hawaiian islands and afford to it the moral support of your government, and, if necessary, the support of the American troops to assist in preserving the public peace."

Stevens Recognizes the Rebels.

On receipt of this letter, Mr. Stevens immediately recognized the new government, and, in a note addressed to Sanford B. Dole, its president, informed him that he had done so.

Mr. Dole replied, expressing deep appreciation of Minister Stevens' act and requesting the immediate support of the United States forces in securing possession of the station house and that the commander of the United States forces take command of their forces so that both could act together.

This station house was occupied by a well armed force, under the command of a resolute, capable officer.

Refuses to Surrender.

The same afternoon, the queen, her ministers, representatives of the provisional government, and others, held a conference at the palace. Refusing to recognize the new authority or surrender to it, she was informed that the provisional government had the support of the American minister, and, if necessary, would be maintained by the military force of the United States present, that any demonstration on her part would precipitate a conflict with that force, that she could not, with hope of success, engage in war with the United States and that resistance would result in a useless sacrifice of life.

Yields Under Protest.

Mr. Damon one of the chief leaders of the movement, and afterwards vice-president of the provisional government, informed the queen that she could surrender under protest, and her case would be considered later at Washington. Believing that under the circumstances submission was a duty, and that her case would be fairly considered by the president of the United States the queen finally yielded and sent to the provisional government a statement setting forth that she retired under protest to save possible bloodshed, and to the superior force of the United States of America, until such time as the government of the United States shall, upon the facts being presented to it undo the action of its representatives here.

The provisional government was recognized when it had little other than a paper existence. Mr. Stevens' well known hostility and the threatening presence of the force landed from the Boston were all that could have then excited serious apprehension in the minds of the queen, her officers and loyal supporters.

Implied Coercive Measures.

The troops were landed not to protect American life and property, but to aid in overthrowing the existing government. Their very presence implied coercive measures against it.

In a statement given to Mr. Blount by Admiral Skerret, the ranking naval officer at Honolulu, he says:

"If the troops were landed simply to protect American citizens and interests, they were badly stationed in Arion hall, but if the intention was to aid the provisional government, they were wisely stationed."

The annexationists relied upon no military force of their own, for they had none worthy of the name. The provisional government was established by the action of the American minister and presence of the troops landed from the Boston, and its continued existence is due to the belief of the Hawaiians that if they made an effort to overthrow it, they would encounter the armed forces of the United States.

Their Claim Absurd.

The earnest appeals to the American minister for military protection by the officers of the provisional government, after it had been recognized, show the utter absurdity of the claim that it was established by a successful revolution of the people of the islands.

The government of Hawaii surrendered its authority under a threat of war, until such time only as the government of the United States, upon the facts being presented to it, should reinstate the constitutional sovereign, and the provisional government, created "to exist until terms of union with the United States of America have been negotiated and agreed upon."

A careful consideration of the facts, will, I think, convince you that the treaty which was withdrawn from the senate for further consideration, should not be resubmitted for action thereon.

The Wrong Should be Righted.

Should not the great wrong done to a feeble but independent state, by an abuse of the authority of the United States be undone by restoring the legitimate government? Anything short of that will not, I respectively submit, satisfy the demands of justice.

Can the United States consistently insist that other nations shall respect the independence of Hawaii while not respecting it themselves? Our government was the first to recognize the independence of the island and it should be the last to acquire sovereignty over them by force and fraud.

The Trouble With the New York.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—It appears that the real reason for the delay in equipping the cruiser New York for sea is the discovery of a fault in the gun circles, by which are meant the curved tracks upon which the gun carriages are swung from side to side in aiming the weapons.

QUARANTINE, S. I., Nov. 11.—The steamer Martin Saenz, from Havana, has been detained until this afternoon, pending the examination into the cause of a fireman, who died on the voyage to this port.

Awaiting American Embezzlers.

SOUTHAMTON, Nov. 11.—Detectives from London are awaiting here the arrival of the stermer Spree, from New York, with Frank Floyd and Philip M. Scheig, the Minneapolis bank embezzlers. The two fugitives are said to be traveling under the names of John Martin and Tom Bixby.

HE MUST ECONOMIZE

Uncle Sam's Expenses Exceeding His Revenues.

This Month He Has Fallen Behind $210,000 a Day, But November is an "Off" Month for Importations. Gold Reserve Strengthening.

WASHINTON, Nov. 11.—One-third of the month of November expired with last evening and it shows that the government expenditures for the month have exceeded the receipts by $2,250,000.

The total receipts for the month so far have been: from customs, $3,565,000; internal revenue, $4,561,000; miscellaneous, $1,000,000.

These figures show a marked falling off in custom receipts, which have averaged this month only $350,000 a day. Internal revenue receipts have kept up to the normal.

As November is always an "off" month for importations it is not considered probable that receipts from this source will improve to any appreciable extent during the remainder of the month.

The figures in hand indicate receipts for the month of $28,000,000 and expenditures of about $31,000,000.

Proportionately, the expenditures of the treasury are greater in the first third of a month than they are in the latter two-thirds, while the receipts run along very evenly.

Of the expenditures so far made $4,500,000 have been on account of pensions.

The treasury net balance, which Thursday dropped below the $100,000,000 mark, has recovered itself and stands $200,000 above.

The gold reserve gathers strength at the expense of the currency, being now $85,182,000, while the currency has declined to $15,000,000.

On Nov. 1, the net treasury balance was $102,000,000 and on July 1, the beginning of the present fiscal year, $122,462,060, of which there was gold $95,485,000 and currency $26,976,000.

In round figures the total receipts of the government up to date from the beginning of the fiscal year are $118,000,000 and the expeditures on the treasurer's books $139,000,000. This is an excess in expenditure of $26,000,000. To this must be added, as it will appear in the treasurer's account later this month, $2,250,000 on account of interest on the public debt.

The excess of expenditures over receipts, therefore, foot up for the fiscal year to $28,000,000, or an average of $210,000 a day.

WANTS TO GET OUT.

Supervising Special Agent Tingle's Resignation Not Accepted.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—Whether or not supervising special agent Tingle will remain connected with the force of treasury agents, with which he has been associated for 25 years, is a matter that the future has to determine.

Mr. Tingle tendered his resignation to Secretary Carlisle on the 6th of March last. A month ago he repeated his resignation in writing, to take effect Dec. 15, and yesterday he was informed by Secretary Carlisle that his resignation would not at present be accepted.

Mr. Tingle has filled a very trying position in a manner that has led successive secretaries to retain him in office.

Lackawanna Mines on Full Time.

SCRANTON, Pa., Nov. 11.—An order has been issued by the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western officials starting all their mines on full time. This is said to concern fully 5,000 men and boys and this cheering state of affairs is said to be apt to continue during the majority of the winter months.

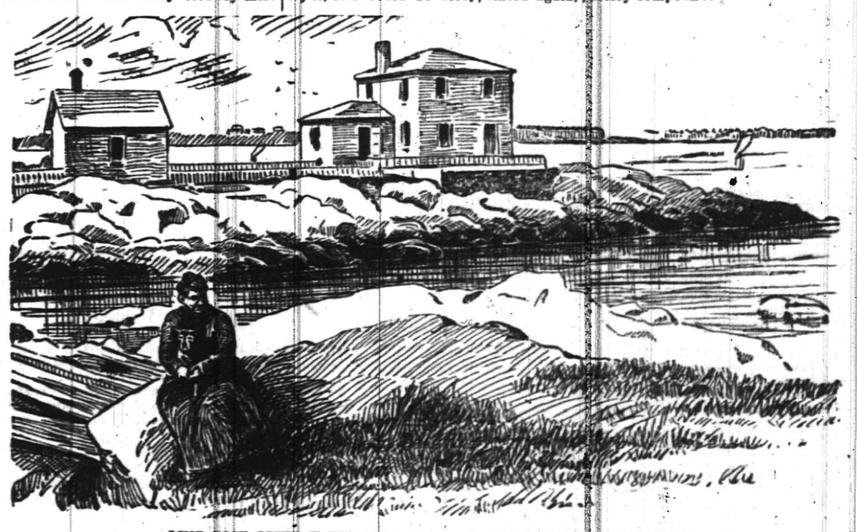
GALLANT IDA LEWIS.

America's Grace Darling, the Brave Woman Who Keeps the Lime Rock Light.

Her Boat, "The Rescue," Exhibited at the World's Fair---The Heroine Who Has Saved 18 Lives, Tells How Her Own Life Was Saved---Congress Gives Her a Gold Medal.

NEWPORT, R. I., Nov. 10—America's Grace Darling, the heroine of 18 life-saving exploits, a woman for whom Congress has cast a gold medal of the first class, the first of the kind ever given to a woman keeps the Lime rock light.

It was when the Russian warships were lying at peaceful anchor in Newport's beautiful harbor, that a small company from the hotel Aquidneck went out in a sail boat to pay a visit to this brave woman, whose lifeboat, the Rescue, has been one of the most talked-of exhibits at the World's Fair. The story told by Miss Lewis of how her own life has been saved amply repaid the visitors for their journey.



LIME ROCK LIGHT HOUSE, NEWPORT, R. I., THE HOME OF IDA LEWIS.

Lime rock lighthouse, the home of this world-famous heroine, is within the harbor and is a short sail from the New York yacht club's house. At high tide an ordinary cat-rigged sail boat cannot land at Lime rock, and a rowboat must be used, from which a landing is effected by climbing up the face of the perpendicular rock upon a ladder lashed with fetters of iron to the stone.

At low tide the rowboat is guided toward a pebbly beach through the sword grass that cuts against its sides like slashing martial blades.

But the lighthouse is the blessed symbol of peace on earth and sea, saying good will to men, this saving station of wrecked mariners. And the fair woman to who the visitors listened told a true narrative for every other brave and good woman in the country—a narrative for every woman in the country to heed and profit by.

Ida Lewis looks to be in her thirties as to age, with a highly nervous temperament, slight figure, bright eyes, with a dash of color in her face.

"It is 35 years since we came to Lime rock, 6 in family, and now there are but two of us left, my brother Rudolph, who helped you up the rocks, and myself," said she. "My father was a cripple for 17 years in which time he never cut a mouth ful of food for himself; my mother died 10 years ago of a cancer, and my sister 6 years ago with consumption.

"I have never been well in my life until now. My trouble was in my chest and lungs, and I have always had a cough from a child. What has done me more good than anything else in the world is Paine's celery compound.

"I have always been miserable in summer, and I believe I should have died this season if I had not taken Paine's celery compound. I began with it last February and this summer I have been splendid," and her eyes flashed as she warmed to the subject. "And I am delighted to tell it," she continued, "for it is the truth. I have had so many doctors and so many doctors' prescriptions that I had lost faith in them, and I have tried so many patent medicines that I dreaded the summer. But I read about Paine's celery compound and went to see the gentleman who testified, and they were loud in its praise. My brother Rudolph said that I had better no try it, as I would be disappointed again, and I would feel worse than ever, but I went ahead; it seemed as if the Lord directed me, and I received benefit from the very first bottle.

IDA LEWIS.

"O, you should have seen me last summer. I was short of breath, easily tired out and had a cough and night sweats, and my doctor told me I had heart trouble. I was so thin, and I was wearing black, and my friends said that I looked like a little ghost. Now I am excellent, and I feel proud to tell it and give the credit to Paine's celery compound. I have faith in it because there is nothing like it. I know so many people that have been helped. I am so much improved that my friends do not know me this summer. I have taken 8 bottles since February, and the longer I take it the better I get. I have to live economically, and I do all my own housework, washing and ironing, and even the painting of the woodwork outside. I enjoy doing it now, but I believe I should be dead if I had not taken Paines celery compound.

Besides the gold medal presented her by the United States of America, a silver medal was presented by the humane society of Massachusetts: "To Ida Lewis, the heroine of Lime Rock, for her many heroic and successful efforts in saving human lives." Another, also of silver, was presented by the life saving benevolent association of New York: "To Miss Ida Lewis as a testimonial of her skill, courage and humanity in rescuing two men in the harbor of Newport, R. I., during a severe storm."

Not only on these several special occasions, however, has Miss Lewis shown the courage and fortitude that have made her famous, but also in the faithfulness and regularity with which her daily round of duties are performed, for they are not few. No lighthouse on the coast is better kept, ners, and not one has a better record.

"People think, when they come and find things in perfect order, that there is nothing to do here," she said. "But they do not know how early we start in the morning and how many little things there are to be done. The lamps have to be cleaned every day, the wicks kept clean and the brasses polished, to say nothing of keeping the house in order."

Not alone are the "brasses polished" on the light, but the shining copper pump in the kitchen and the row of brass candlesticks on the mantle behind the stove all testify to the success and industry of the thrifty champion of life and strength.

Ida Lewis is called the bravest woman in America. But there are many brave women who have suffered as she has done who are nearly broken down, who need today a true food for the brain and nerves and whom Paine's celery compound will make well again. Thousands of other women have been saved by this wonderful remedy.

BABBITT'S MINSTRELS.

Plainfield's Ambitious Colored Men Try Their Show on the Scotch Plains Dog.

James Babbitt's Republican club, with headquarters on East Front street, has merged into a minstrel troupe, and last evening the company played in Excelsior Hall, Scotch Plains, before a good-sized audience. Some of the performers went to Fanwood on the cars, others went by stage, and some "hoofed" it. The company is made up of local talent, and is destined to "go in the soup" at the next stand, Westfield, one week from Monday. Cranford will be the following jumping off place. James Scott and Charles Jefferson are the managers, and Joe Mitchell will take the tickets at the door, provided any are presented. There was a scarcity of unhealthy eggs in Scotch Plains when the troupe sang "Swanee River", which followed "Opening of the Overture", but there were many in the audience ready to lend a helping hand to drive the minstrels out.

The train due here at 11:13 was late on account of the colored population who boarded it at Fanwood. The programme follows:

"For years I have been actively connected with athletic sports. I always found it to my advantage to use ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS while in training as they quickly remove soreness and stiffness; and when attacked with any kind of pains, the result of slight colds, I always use ALLCOCK'S with beneficial results. I have noticed that most athletes of the present day use nothing else but ALLCOCK'S PLASTERS."

OBITUARY.

JAMES H. FORCE.

The shocking news was brought to Plainfield this afternoon of the sudden death of James H. Force, proprietor of the Mansion House at Bound Brook, and brother of the publisher of this paper.

Mr. Force was chatting pleasantly with his son John, at 2 o'clock. He left him and went into the hotel yard.

Ten minutes later the laundress went out to hang clothes and found him lying dead on the boardwalk. He had evidently been seized with an attack of heart failure, sat down to recover, and fallen over dead.

The body was carried into the house, and physicians were summoned. They pronounced life extinct. Not only the household but the entire borough was affected by the bereavement, for Mr. Force was a most popular man.

The news came to Plainfield by the 2:15 train, and expressions of sincere sorrow were heard on every lip.

Mr. Force was for many years in the hotel business, a large portion of the time in this city.

He was a most devoted husband and father, and his best thoughts and wishes were always for his family. Nothing his wife or children could ask or wish for, but was always granted them.

He leaves a wife, an only son John, and two daughters, one of whom was but recently married to Will F. Williams of this city.

He was the eldest son of the late Lewis M. and Mary L. Force. Albert L. is the sole surviving brother, and Sarah E. Prescott, of 648 Monroe street, Brooklyn, is the only sister. The aged mother still lives with her son Albert on Duer street.

James and his brothers were all born on the Hotchkiss farm in this city, in the rear of ex-Mayor Bandolph's home, where they were taught the saw-milling business, which they followed till about 1870.

Mr. Force had been a great sufferer from inflammatory rheumatism, which is thought to have reached his heart. He was in his fifty-fourth year, being two years older than his brother the late Wm. L. Force.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

W. H. Miner will be the musician at a fashionable wedding in Naugatuck, Conn.

Mrs. Sutton of Somerville has rented a suite of rooms in the Hart building on Park avenue.

Walter H. Collins died at Scotch Plains Thurday, aged 18 years. The funeral will be tomorrow at 3 p. m.

On Wednesday evening, Nov. 22, the marriage of Miss Ida Lorton to Horace Huff will take place at the home of the bride on West Fifth street.

Mrs. Maxson, of the Seminary on West Seventh street, returned from New York today on the 12:45 train in a prostrated condition. She was taken to the Seminary, very ill.

Dr. H. K. Carroll of North Plainfield has been confirmed by the Methodist church authorities as a member of the Board of Missionary Commissionaries for work in Eastern Asia.

The young men of the First Methodist church were given a reception by the Rev. Dr. Barnes at his home on Grove street last evening. The time was spent in a social way, and church work formed an interesting subject for discussion.

Robert Clark and family, of Washington Valley, will close their summer home and become residents of the borough after December 1, having leased a house on Manning avenue. It is trusted they will be so pleased with the change as to become permanent residents.

In the sad death of Walter Schoonmaker, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Schoonmaker of Central avenue, the parents have the sympathy of all. He was taken with that dreaded disease diphtheria, recently, and everything was done to secure immediate recovery. He seemed to get worse, when yesterday an operation was performed, as stated in The Press. From this he seemed to rally, but this morning he gradually grew worse, until he passed away about 10:30.

Methodist Revival.

Last evening Grace M. E. church of North Plainfield completed its first week of revival services. Each night has found a goodly number present, but the Friday evening meeting, held especially in the interest of the Sabbath-school, excelled all others, the room adjoining the audience room being needed to accommodate the increased numbers

Faithful, earnest words from the pastor, the prayer of faith, the consecrated efforts of many who have proved the blessedness of a Christian life: all these are the means used, which have resulted already in several conversions. Interest is so great that the services will be continued the coming week, and all are welcome. All the work is being done by Pastor Randolph and his faithful band of workers. Last night 15 persons, young and old, made a start in the new life, by kneeling at the altar and asking for prayers.

The American Catarrh Cure

Is the result of twenty-six years' study and treatment of the disease. One bottle convinces the most skeptical. It is always ready for use, needing neither douche nor atomizer. It restores the hearing, cures the hawking cough and expectorating, removes the headache and nose bleeding, increases the appetite, produces sound sleep, invigorates the whole system and increases the vitality. Prepared only by W. B. Jones, M. D., No. 1336 South Eighth street, Philadelphia. For sale by J. W. Randolph, 21 West Front street Price $1.

COLUMBIAN SOCIAL.

Trinity Endeavorers Made a Unique and Merry Time.

The Christian Endeavor society of Trinity Reformed church is always planning to interest its members and their friends, spiritually, intellectually, and socially, and the results are very gratifying.

Last evening a Columbian Social was arranged for, and the committee spared no pains in doing all in their power to make it a success.

The Sunday-school room was a patriotic scene. Flags and bunting were so used as to bring out every latent spark of patriotism in the breasts of those gathered, while over the platform was an excellent picture of Christopher Columbus. On the blackboard, which is used for announcements, was placed the lettering:

Y. P. S. C. E.
—Topic:—
1492.
1893.

Streamers were run from post to post. Large lamps were tastefully arranged in different parts of the room. Altogether, the scene was a most attractive one. Those present formed themselves into small groups, and everyone enjoyed the atmosphere of sociability.

A quartette consisting of Miss Phoebe Mills, Miss Fanny Mattison, Robert Clark and Mr. Moore, sang patriotic songs which brought forth generous applause.

President Smith then announced that R. A. Meeker would give a short talk on the "Midway Plaisance". His description was excellent. He told of the different classes of people to be found there, of their habits and ways of living. At times he became quite humorous, telling of his experiences on the famous Midway. He also spoke of the Ferris Wheel, which he claimed was the best specimen of engineering skill ever seen.

H. E. Gayle was introduced, and read a most interesting paper on "The Buildings and Grounds". He said there were 150 buildings in all, and gave a minute description of each one, telling of their proportions, and the material of which they were made. Mr. Gayle, being thoroughly acquainted with this line of work, gave a most interesting account.

John VanWinkle's subject was "The United States Exhibit", which proved to be highly interesting. He said there were very few who had anything to say about the exhibit of our own country, which was an important one. He then spoke of the special exhibits which interested him the most. He gave a graphic description of the Life-saving Service, and its workings; the Indian Industrial School; the iron-trestle lighthouse, 100 feet high, and a large tree, 30 feet high, 26 feet in diameter, in which a door had been cut; at the time the speaker walked in, there were about 70 people inside. It cost in all about $10,475 to bring this tree to the Fair.

The last speaker was Horace Martin, who talked of "The Court of Honor" (of which Lecturer Ragan has exhibited so fine a view about town) and things in general. The grand basin in the Court of Honor, he said, was a most attractive place for him. In the early evening, when the gondolas were swiftly passing to and fro, and sweet strains of music floated on the breeze, it was a most lovely spot. The illumination of the Court in the evening was a memorable sight, and Mr. Martin's graphic account was richly enjoyed. He also spoke of the Ferris Wheel, which he said was 264 feet high, there were 36 cars about the size of our electric cars, each would carry 60 people, making in all 2,160 people when all the cars were filled. It would take about 20 minutes for a trip.

At the close of Mr. Martin's remarks the quartette sang "America". President Smith thanked all for their assistance in making the affair a success.

Each lady present brought a lunch in a box, with her name written on the same, and after the entertainment checks were passed to each gentleman, who was supposed to get a box, and eat lunch with the young lady whose name was written thereon. It was very amusing to see the results, as one can readily imagine.

Coffee was served with the lunch.

The committees in charge were as follows:

Social Committee—Miss Ella C. Benedict, chairman; Miss Viola Huff, Miss Carrie Mohl, Miss Ella Dunn, Miss Cora Gardner.

Reception Committee—Miss Nellie Crawford, chairman; Miss Ella Gardner, Miss Phoebe Mills, Miss Lizzie Dunn, James Love, Frank Woodruff.

The quartette, which is the regular choir in the church, rendered a patriotic song from each of the following countries: Italy, America, Spain, Germany, Russia, England and Scotland.

THE BEST KNOWN.

That which is the most widely known, is sure to give the greatest satisfaction. When we are sick and in need of a physician, we send for the one who is known to be the most skillful in his profession. It is only recently that people all over the land had the opportunity of obtaining the best medical consultation and advice without charge.

Dr. Greene, of 35 West 14th street, New York, is without question the best known and most skilful physician in curing nervous and chronic diseases. He is the discoverer of the wonderful cure, Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, and has lately adopted the plan of treating the sick from far and near by means of letter correspondence. His success is simply wonderful. People can consult him by letter, free of charge.

He gives most careful and explicit attention to all letters, answering all questions and thoroughly explaining your disease so that you know just what is the matter with you. For this, there is no charge whatever. The doctor uses only harmless vegetable remedies and has the greatest success in curing disease through letter correspondence. Send for his symptom blank, and he will write you a full description of your disease and give you advice and directions how to cure it, free of charge.

FELL FROM THE CAB.

Young Koefoed Leaned Against an Improperly Fastened Door.

An unusual accident occured late yesterday afternoon, when the young son of Albert A. Koefoed, of Putnam avenue, fell from a cab in which he was coming to his home from the North avenue station. The door was not properly fastened, and the child, in leaning against it, forced it open and fell to the street. He was picked up by his father and the cabman, and taken to Dr. Hedges. The physician made an examination and said that no bones were broken, although the little fellow was badly shaken up. He was taken to his home, and will have thoroughly recovered in a day or two.

Dr. Davis Has a Runaway.

While Dr. Davis was making a call on Lafayette place this morning, his horse and carriage was left in charge of his driver, John Finnegan, who walked the horse back and forth. As he was turning the horse around at the head of the street an express train on the Central railroad passed and frightened the animal, which ran the wagon into a tree, upsetting the vehicle, and throwing the boy out. The horse got away, but was caught at the other end of the street. The wagon was damaged considerably, but the boy escaped any injury, excepting a few slight scratches and bruises.

THE MAN ON THE CARS.

HE GRUMBLES ABOUT THE TRIALS OF COMMUTERS.

Says Time is Money, and Shows How the Currency of Eternity Is Blown In on the Railroads.

"I'm not to be trifled with tonight"—said The Man on the Cars, the other evening, as he took the seat I had saved for him and scowled dangerously at me.

"What's on your mind"—I inquired, noting the red light in his eyes, and drawing away into the corner.

"I'm mad: that's all"—he returned.—"I've been mad all the way over the river, and it won't work off for an hour. One of those wretches who sit in the New York ferryhouse to punch tickets and pass commuters did it. I tipped my hat to him as usual, but he called me back and in no very elegant language demanded a view of my ticket. Of course, like all of us, I carry an old commutation pasteboard in my hat, the sight of which generally passes me, but this particular Cerberus was obstinate, and I had to unbutton my coat, produce my pocketbook, and display my November card. Meanwhile an immense crowd blocked the narrow passageway, and, no doubt, mentally consigned me to everlasting punishment. I suppose I must have wasted two or three whole minutes just to satisfy that one miserable microbe, and I call that highway robbery. This ticket business is a terrible drain on one's time, anyhow, and some ingenious mortal ought to devise a means of obviating it: don't you think so?"

"Oh, assuredly"—I replied, anxious to be agreeable.—"But you call it a waste of time—where does that come in?"

"Well, I'll tell you. It's very evident that you have never figured it out, and equally plain that you do not set a proper estimate on the value of your time. Time is money, and should be as jealously guarded as dollars and cents. This ticket nuisance is an atrocious bungling method of stealing time, and should be regarded as a capital offense. You may not think so, but when it comes to blowing in seven or eight hours a year in such unremunerative employment, I pass."

"Seven or eight hours a year!"—I exclaimed.—"What are you giving us?"

"Facts, my boy, facts"—he returned.—"I'll take the trouble to prove it for you, though. You show your ticket three times a day at least: do you not?—once in the New York ferryhouse and, on the train, once in the morning and again at night. Say it requires thirty seconds for each of these operations, and you will find that you spend one minute and a half each day in this way. Suppose you commute three hundred days in the year; there are four hundred and fifty good minutes gone to grass, and nothing to show for it. Four hundred and fifty minutes, you will discover, are just seven hours and a half; and these figures are conservative, for oftentimes the conductor keeps you waiting two or three minutes on the train while he jollies a friend, or watches a card game, before punching your ticket. Think of seven hours and a half annually chasing on into eternity, wasted in this manner of idleness! I guess it never struck you in that light: did it?"

"No: I can't say that it has"—I observed.—"I'm afraid I shall be inclined to regard conductors as kleptomaniacs hereafter."

"Well, that's what they are,"—he answered—"what they are paid to be—thieves of time—sneak thieves, too; for most people, like yourself, never know they are being robbed. You ought to learn to stop once in a while and think about these things. Did you ever read Anstey's 'Tourmalin's Time Cheques'? No? You should; I'm afraid you are a prodigate."

And he rose and went forward to talk to a man who owes him twenty dollars, so he tells me.

An Interesting Event at New Brunswick November 15.

That the many people who will be attracted by the unveiling of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Monument may be present at the ceremonies with but as little expense as possible, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will place excursion tickets on sale at all its offices on the United Railroads in New Jersey at the very low rate of a single fare for the round trip. The tickets will be sold on the 14th and 15th inst., and will be good for return passage until the 16th.

The citizens of New Brunswick, in anticipation of the event, will make extensive preparations for the accommodation and entertainment of visitors. The impressive dedication ceremonies will be followed by an imposing military and civic demonstration well worth witnessing.

State Charities Aid Society.

An adjourned meeting of the Union County Branch of the State Charities Aid Association will be held in the parlors of the Crescent Avenue church, Monday evening, Nov. 13, at 8. Robert W. DeForest, President of the New York Charity Organization Society, will speak of practical methods of charity organization work, and his address will be followed by general discussion of the subject. All interested are cordially invited to attend.

INTELLIGENT ALMS-GIVING.

A Correspondent Advises from the Depth of His Experience.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE PRESS:—The idea advanced in recent issues, for the establishment of an Association of Charities, is a good one, and meets with my hearty approval. There are those in our midst who are working all the different channels of aid at the same time. In this they are impostors. But, when one has it doled out to him in minimum doses, you can hardly blame him for making it a business to support himself in this way. While in the beginning it is a very unwelcome task to them, they soon get hardened to it, and quickly develop into well-defined (as the physicians say) cases of chronic want. I sometimes think the whole system is wrong, especially as I see it conducted in this city. All municipalities have their poor to care for, and while it is a "burden, grievous to be borne", still they must be looked after. It is not well to be "penny wise and pound foolish" in these cases. If a person is deserving of help, the city should see to it that assistance is granted—not by a fixed amount to each—but with some regard to former conditions of life. Let me illustrate: A well-known "bummer" applies for assistance. Here is a case where the minimum amount of relief may be granted with propriety—merely sufficient to house and feed him. But when the applicant is a mechanic out of work, with wife and children dependent on him, there is another (and not a new) phase presented. In this case it is not right to dole out the usual small amount, as it will not keep the family as they should be cared for. This case, if properly assisted, will not long be needing aid, but if on the other hand a mere pittance is handed out it takes away the self-respect of the mechanic and he and his family have a tendency to drift into pauperism. The great question is: What shall be done for this latter class? They are with us this winter, and must be cared for. Now I suggest this to our philanthropic citizens: Let a fund be subscribed and placed at the disposal of the Overseer of the Poor or some of our charitable societies, or better still be placed in the hands of the proposed "Associated Charities", to be loaned to the specially deserving to help on payment of house rent and provisions that the self-respect of the one assisted may be maintained. By lending this assistance to those who have a fair record of working when work can be had, true philanthropy would have its best results. A large number of the loans might never be repaid, but the children, (innocent sufferers), would be cared for properly. I would not make them loans in money direct to the beneficiaries, but indirectly by payments of rents and for provisions. The rent is the great bugbear, and few if any provisions would be required. Is it not worth trying? Who will set it in motion?

The Can't-Rides Can't Bowl.

The second game in the series between the Cyclers and Non-Cyclers of the C. Y. M. L. was rolled last night on the league alleys and resulted in a victory for the wheelmen. The bowling was not brilliant on either side and the victors had only 10 pins to spare. Each side has now won a game and the deciding contest will be rolled Tuesday, Nov. 14. Both the wheelmen and their adversaries expect to win, so an interesting game may be expected. Last night's score was as follows:

SLEEPLESSNESS,

Nervous Debility, Nervous Exhaustion, Neuralgia, Paralysis, Locomotor Ataxia, Melancholia, and kindred ailments, whether resulting from over anxiety, overwork or study, or from unnatural habits or excesses, are treated as a specialty, with great success, by the Staff of Specialists attached to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute at Buffalo, N. Y. Personal examinations not always necessary. Many cases are successfully treated at a distance.

ASTHMA. A new and wonderfully successful treatment has been discovered for Asthma and Hay Fever, which can be sent by Mail or Express.

It is not simply a palliative but a radical cure.

HIS HIRED MAN LAID HIM OUT.

WM. KELLY OF OAK TREE HAS A TOUGH EXPERIENCE.

For Reproving His Farmhand, That Functionary Murderously Assaults Him.

When William Kelly of Oak Tree went home he found that his hired man Dave had only dug four post-holes as a day's work. He reproved him, and Dave murderously attacked him.

Kelly was struck over the head with a billet of wood, and clawed and bitten, by his furious assailant. Kelly's ears were almost torn from his head, his hand was bitten, and his head was cut. Kelly broke away and ran to the home of the Sheriff-elect, near Metuchen. He got that official to go back and arrest Dave, who meanwhile, armed with an axe, had driven Mrs. Kelly into the house and broken the servant girl's arm.

Dave was subdued, committed by a Metuchen Justice, and locked up in the jail in New Brunswick.

The hired man is supposed to have been attacked with momentary insanity. He had a similar attack 15 years ago and attacked William's brother.

Dave had been treated like one of the family by Kelly, and had even been taken to the World's Fair. Yesterday Kelly bought him a new pair of boots and overalls.

Dave was always a queer chap. His favorite summer garb included a pair of linen trousers, an overcoat and a silk hat. He worked for Kelly 28 years.

REPEAL IN NEW JERSEY.

Instructions for Republican Legislators—Thompson's Seat in Danger.

[From The Sun, Dem.]

TRENTON, Nov. 10.—The State Republican League of New Jersey issued an address today calling upon the local clubs to use their influence with the Republican members of the Legislature just elected to secure the repeal of all partisan acts passed by the Democratic Legislatures of the past three or four years. The address says:

The watchword of the party in its legislation during the coming session ought to be "Repeal". First and foremost, and on the very day of organization, the race-track acts should be repealed and the bills sent to the Governor for his signature. As rapidly as possible, bills ought to be introduced repealing each and every one of the partisan acts, including those creating the county excise boards, the boards of public works, the police boards, the State police force, and all the rest of that brood. Salaries must be reduced, and all useless offices abolished. The new schemes of taxation so cunningly devised to provide funds to pay the great horde of useless officials must be made to contribute to the relief of the people from the burden of local taxation and used either for the support of the schools, the building of roads, or other public enterprises. Local self-government must be restored and the appointing power of the Governor restricted to the appointment of the officers named in the Constitution. All other officers should be elected in joint meeting or by the people.

There is said to be no good ground for believing that Gov. Werts will take advantage of the power, if he has it, to order another election in New Jersey on account of Judge Depue's decision, holding that the present method of electing Assemblymen is unconstitutional.

A great deal of evidence is said to have been collected showing that William J. Thompson of Gloucester won his election by corrupt means, and the conviction is growing rapidly that he will not be allowed to take his seat. Jacob C. Lippincott, his Republican opponent, has retained counsel to conduct the contest for him.

Wedding Reception.

The reception given by Mr. and Mrs. August Trust, at 243 Somerset street to their friends was a delightful affair. Excellent music was provided by Conde & Rogers. Later in the evening supper was served. Those present were: The Misses Blanche and Eva Bressant, Miss Lamadrid, of New York, Miss Lillie Walters, of Brooklyn, Miss Quidort, and Miss Chambetz, of Fredricksburg, Md., Miss Fredicks, of Mobile, Alabama., Miss E. F. Gillem, Miss M. Hudson, the Misses Minie and Josie Allison, and Messrs. Alfred Quidort, of Fredicksburg, Md., William Trust, John McLaughlin, William McLaughlin, George DeMeza and Fred Obitz.

No Reflection on His Worth.

In the hour of defeat, it is gratifying for the unsuccessful candidate to receive such letters as the following:

DEAR MR. MARTINE:

I sincerely regret your defeat, knowing that your service in the Senate would have reflected honor upon the State, and I trust that the result of Tuesday's battle will not in the least dishearten you. Throughout the country, our party has been deserted by misguided people who charge it with effects of which our opponents were the cause, but you have the consolation that your defeat in no manner personally reflects upon your worth.

With sincere regards, I remain,

Very truly yours,

ALLAN L. MCDERMOTT.

Ross Says 'Tis n't So.

William Ross, who was disorderly at the polls in the Fourth ward Tuesday, has been wanted since that time by the police. Yesterday Sergeant Kiely secured him after an exciting chase. He pleaded not guilty in Court this morning, and was held in $100 bail for his trial, which is set down for Wednesday, Nov. 15.

With Ely's Cream Balm a child can be treated without pain and with perfect safety. It cures catarrh, hay fever and colds in the head. It is easily applied into the nostrils and gives immediate relief. Price 50 cents.

My catarrh was very bad; for 20 years I have been troubled with it—have tried a number of remedies without relief. A druggist advised Ely's Cream Balm. I have used only one bottle and I can say I feel like a new man. I make this voluntary statement that others may know of the Balm.—J. W. Mathewson, lawyer, Pawtucket, R. I.

Fire in a Register.

Yesterday afternoon about 3, a telephone message was received by Chief Doane, from the home of I. W. Rushmore, on West Seventh street, stating that the house was afire. The Chief went to the house immediately, and found that the children had been dropping wooden spools, lead pencils, etc., down one of the registers, thereby filling the rooms with smoke. The trouble was remedied and a serious fire averted.

The reader of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer $100 for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address

UNIMPEACHABLE TESTIMONY!

A WONDERFUL STORY BY AN IRVINGTON WOMAN.

Fearful Failure of Fifteen Physicians—Serious Surgical Operation Suggested.

For four years I have suffered from a complication of diseases which physicians said were dyspepsia, liver and kidney complaint, nervous prostration and womb disease. No words of mine can describe the terrible pains and distress I have experienced—the dizziness, trembling fears of evil, chills, fever, melancholy, restlessness and numerous other dreadful sensations which I am unable to describe. Have been treated by fifteen physicians, some of whom were sure they could cure me within two or three months, and all of whom have had from two months to three, four or more, as they said was needed. One I tried for a whole year until last May I found myself disappointed, discouraged and about ready to give up altogether, as, after treating me for a year my physician told me I would be obliged to undergo a surgical operation before I could commence to get better. Just at this time I was advised by friends to consult Dr. Starkweather of No. 105 Halsey street, Newark, as they knew of some very remarkable cures which he had performed.

I followed their advice and visited the doctor on May 5. How glad I am that I took this step no one can realize who has not been similiarly situated. The doctor gave me a complete history of my case, describing with surprising accuracy the conditions and symptoms which I had endured for years, but what gave me the greatest surprise and pleasure was when he assured me that there was no need of any surgical operation. Proper means, he said, would overcome my troubles without any surgery. I commenced at once to follow Dr. Starkweather's directions and treatment. Having gradually and steadily improved since that time, as he stated I would, until now I am the wonder of all my friends, while rejoicing in renewed health, strength and spirits. Am constrained by a sense of duty and gratitude to accord the praise due Dr. S. for his gentle, soothing and skillful treatment of my case, and advise all sufferers from whatever cause to consult this eminent physician. MRS. WM. R. MANSER.

Smith street, Irvington, N. J.

Thousands praise the day they came to us for treatment. There is no guess work, no experimenting, no painful operation. No matter how difficult the case, no matter how much of the physician's time it may consume the diagnosis will not only be thorough, it will be absolutely free. There is no taint of quackery or deception; no claim or statement is made that is not born out by facts and living witnesses.

Any person, rich or poor, old or young, is welcome here and receives examination and advice without charge. The rapidity with which this popular system has grown into public favor is without a parallel. The number of new applicants increases daily, and the remarkable results of the treatment they receive both surprise and gratify.

There is not a penny to pay for the fullest medical advice. Dr. Starkweather is a graduate of the Berkshire Medical College, Massachusetts, and of the Medico-Chirurgical College of Philadelphia; endorsed also by the College of Physicians and Surgeons and Bellevue Medicel College of New York. We invite all sufferers from whatever cause to call at our office, No. 105 Halsey street, Newark, where Dr. Starkweather is in attendance daily to give examination and advice entirely free of charge. It matters not what the disease, or how many years you have suffered, in spite of means adopted in your behalf, a visit to this office and the privileges of the same will cost you nothing, and may be the means of saving your life. We prepare all our medicines and prescribe the remedies indicated. This plan enables the patient to receive directly from us such remedies as will produce the results promised.

Our office is open daily from 10 a. m. to 9 p. m. Sundays, 4 to 6 p. m.

Those living at a distance can consult the doctor by letter. Send or call for our book of testimonials.

HARRISON ON HAWAII.

The Ex-President Believes Bloodshed Will Follow the Queen's Restoration.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—A special from Indianapolis, says:

When the news of the action of the Cleveland cabinet in reference to Hawaii was carried to General Harrison, he was inclined to doubt it and said he did not think the president would announce a policy except in a message to congress.

"But in any event, whether or not," he said, "I do not want to comment on Mr. Cleveland's acts. If his policy suits him, mine suits me, but if it had been known that his administration would have taken the step previous to the elections the other day, I think John's estimate of what McKinley's majority in Ohio would be, would have come true."

This was a reference to a story he told in his interview day after election, when John, a democratic workman, said McKinley would get all the votes cast in Ohio.

Gen. Harrison continued:

"The queen cannot resume her throne, I believe, without bloodshed, and it remains now to be seen whether the United States service will be used to established her in power again.

"The question of annexation is one of deep interest to America and will be handled, I have no doubt, by the newspapers and the people in a patriotic manner. Unless my administration is the object of unjust reflection in the action taken it will have nothing to say to the public."

IT IS WAR AT MELILLA.

Spaniards Believe the Riffians Only Wanted Time to Replenish Stores.

LONDON, Nov. 11.—A special dispatch to the United Press from Melilla says that shortly after the forts and gunboats opened fire on the Riffians yesterday, the latter having declined to accept the terms of General Macias that they surrender at noon, the leaders of the tribesmen, under a flag of truce, approached Melilla in order to advance further arguments why an armistice should be agreed upon until Wednesday next.

General Macias received the tribesmen, but declined to enter into further negotiations with them except on the basis of their submission.

The Spanish commander believed that the expressed desire of the Riffians to secure a temporary cessation of hostilities was part of a plan to gain time in which to secure supplies of food, etc. He, however, though declining as before to entertain their proposals, told them that he would give them until half past three o'clock in the afternoon to definitely decide whether they would accede to his ultimatum, which, in effect was submit or fight. When the time expired there was no sign from the Riffians that they intended to proffer their submission.

General Macias waited until 3:50 o'clock when the artillery at Melilla and the neighboring forts opened fire upon the natives who still occupy the trenches near the Spanish outposts. As soon as the forts began firing the warships began to throw shells in the direction of the enemy's lines.

The dispatch concludes by declaring that war has now been definitely opened and that it will not end until Spain can dictate her own terms to the sultan of Morocco.

MATABELE DISHEARTENED.

Surrender of Lobengula's Warriors Soon Expected.

CAPE TOWN, Nov. 11.—Native spies who have been among the Matabele report that Fort Victoria that Lobengula's warriors are utterly disheartened.

Their impis have been broken and they wander in disorganized bands through the country.

The men of the Chartered company are said to be on Lobengula's track.

As all the Matabele are suffering for want of food and shelter from the rains, they are expected to offer soon to submit to the company's terms.

Race War in Kentucky.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 11.—A race war of serious proportions is on at Bardstown over an attempt to lynch Phil Evans, the negro charged with criminal assault. A mob of 50 negroes cheered Evans as he was being taken from the jail to the court house for trial. The whites became infuriated and a riot ensued. Pistols were drawn and shots exchanged. The leader of the negroes had his skull fractured. Several others were badly hurt. Evans was taken safely back to jail. It is believed that he will be lynched to-day.

New York Vote Unchanged.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—Official figures received to-day from counties in which the total vote on the secretary of state and judge of the court of appeals was estimated yesterday make total plurality of Palmer (rep.,) over Meyer (dem.,) 24,768, and of Bartlett (rep.,) over Maynard (dem.,) 100,146. There are still a few districts in Erie, Queens, Kings and Monroe counties which have not been filed with county clerks. These will not change the result materially.

Willimantic Man Missing.

WILLIMANTIC, Conn., Nov. 11.—Arthur C. Baker, official stenographer for the supreme court in this city, failed to appear at the afternoon session yesterday, since when nothing has been heard of him. It is believed that his duties at the court, which were new to him, have unbalanced his mind.

Discredit the Rumor.

HARTFORD, Conn., Nov. 11.—Prominent Roman Catholic clergymen in this city and at the Episcopal residence discredit entirely the rumor that the ban of the Church is to be removed from all secret societies except Free Masons. They say that the sole power to take such action is vested in the pope.

Gold in Minnesota.

DULUTH, Minn., Nov. 11.—A. E. Gray, government agent, sent out by the general land agent to investigate the Rainy river gold fields, has returned, and says there is undoubtedly plenty of gold in that country.

Work for 200.

MERIDEN, Conn., Nov. 11.—The Meriden woolen mill company, after a ten months shut-down, will start up on Monday next with the full number of hands. Two hundred men and women will then be given work.

A PRETTY STORY

And Told, Too, in a Most Entertaining Manner.

AN INTERESTING BIT OF HISTORY OF A LOVELY FAMILY.

The Strongest Lights and Shadows of Our Home Life.

Mrs. Pauline N. Blakewell, of 740 Jefferson avenue, Detroit, Mich., says: "Three years ago I found myself bordering on nervous prostration. I could neither eat nor sleep. I was under the care and treatment of eminent physicians, but all to no avail.

"Happening to have my attention called to the wonderful restorative effects of Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, I decided to give it a trial. By the time the first bottle was gone I felt better and was satisfied that it was doing me good. After I had completed the third bottle I felt entirely cured. My appetite was now good and I could lie down and sleep soundly, something I had not been able to do in years. I can conscientiously recommend the use of this great strengthening medicine to all similarly afflicted as myself.

"A year ago my little daughter was taken suddenly and seriously ill with what physicians pronounced spinal meningitis. After their remedies had failed to cure her, I commenced giving her Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy and in less than two weeks from the time of taking the first dose she was on her feet running around and in a little while was as well as ever. I have never used any medicine with such marked success as I have found in Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy."

MRS. BLAKEWELL'S LITTLE CHILD.

Everybody says the same thing, and from the unanimity of opinion of the doctors and the people, we are assured that this great and widely known remedy is just what our sick and suffering citizens require to restore them to health. All the doctors say that it does cure, and all sufferers from nervousness, weakness, poor blood, debility, stomach, kidney or liver troubles should give it an immediate trial. It is purely vegetable and harmless. Take it yourself and give it to your children. It will cure.

It is indorsed by physicians because it is the discovery and prescription of the famous Dr. Greene, of 35 W 14th street, New York, the most successful specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases. The doctor can be consulted free, personally or by letter.

All that's Yellow is not Cottolene

There's hardly a housekeeper in the country but has heard of Cottolene the new vegetable shortening. It is a strictly natural product; composed only of clarified cotton seed oil, thickened for convenience in use, with refined beef suet, pure and sweet. So composed,

COTTOLENE

Was bound to win, and to drive out lard from the kitchens of the world. When housekeepers wish to get rid of the unpleasant features and results of lard, they should get Cottolene, taking care that they are not given cheap imitations with vegetable names, spuriously compounded to sell in the place of Cottolene.

It's easy to avoid disappointment and ensure satisfaction. Insist on having Cottolene.

MR. STEVENS' REPLY

Bitterly Attacks Gresham's Hawaiian Policy.

The Restoration of the Monarchy a Crime Against Civilization — The Provisional Government the Best Government the Island Ever Had, and Honestly Established.

AUGUSTA, Me., Nov. 13.—In a leader in the Kenebec Journal to-day Hon. John L. Stevens, late United States minister to Hawaii, makes the following reply to Secretary Gresham's report:

"According to authentic reports from Washington, a public crime of startling import is about to be committed in the name and under the authority of the American government. A public crime of less proportions, but in its moral type similar to the stifling of national life and the reform aspirations of Poland and Hungary a few years ago by the imperial despots, and to the crushing out of the newly formed republic of Rome by the usurped power of Louis Napoleon.

"All that American piety, American benevolence, American schools and American patriotism have accomplished in Hawaii in the past 70 years are now centralized in the provisional government and stand in its support. It is a government honestly and ably administered, and the best government that Hawaii ever had.

"I know not the influence which induced Secretary Gresham to become an active agent in attempting such a grave offense against American civilization, justice and law. His intense hostility to ex-President Harrison and to the illustrious ex-secretary of state, who passed to his grave in January last, is well known. It was that which caused him to betray and desert the great party whose honors he had shared and brought him to his present attitude toward his former associates and their work.

"So far as his recent manifesto on Hawaiian affairs casts reflection upon my official action I care little except to the degree that his cruel and untruthful words strike at the noble band of men and women who have for ten months stood so resolutely and unitedly in defence of American civilization.

"After I had made my request to Captain Wiltse to land his men, as a precautionary safeguard to American life and property, he and his officers informed me that their men must have shelter for the night. Without special information in that regard, I had supposed that the ship's marines had tents of their own for their customary use in case of emergency on shore. I at once wrote a note and sent it by a messenger to secure a large hall that was supposed to be available.

"Much time had already been consumed in negotiating for a place, and the Boston's marines and sailors were obliged to stand weary hours in the street before they were able to go to their night quarters. All of them would have been lodged at the legation and consulate but for want of room, where as many as possible were received at these localities, being several streets and squares from the palace and government building. For the occupation of Aaron hall by the men of the Boston, the committee of public safety and the supporters of the provisional government had no more responsibility than Secretary Gresham himself.

"Secretary Gresham assumes that the friends of annexation made the revolution and that the provisional governments, when acknowledged by the United States minister, existed only on paper.

"Queen Liliuokalani inaugurated the revolution by attempting to destroy the constitution by revolutionary means. From Saturday afternoon, January 14, to January 16, there was no government in Honolulu, except in the united and self possessed attitude of citizens who assembled in a great mass meeting on Jan. 16 and consummated their efforts for law and order by the establishment of a provisional government on the 17th, which was promptly acknowledged by all the foreign representatives, who were familiar with the circumstances of its creation. It was 50 hours after Liliuokalani and her favorites had destroyed her throne by a revolutionary outbreak when the men of the Boston landed.

"In the exciting hours preceding and following her fall her representatives, as well as those who formed the provisional government, had equal acces to the legation. To all proper inquiries my answer was that the United States marines could not take sides, but whatever de facto government might exist would have to be recognized.

"When I did recognize it late in the afternoon of the 17th, the provisional government was complete master of the situation, had full control of the city and of the government archives, the police station being surrounded and at the mercy of the provisional government. I was a small building in which the disorganized and powerless followers of the queen's paramour, Marshall, took refuge, and they must have surrendered in a few hours by the mere force of hunger.

"The provisional government knew its power to possess the station at once, but wished not to take a single life of its occupants. It deemed it wisest to admit their surrender. Had the queen's supporters dared to resist the organization of the new government then the only possible chance to do so was during Sunday and Monday, the 15th and 16th, while the citizens were attending their mass meeting, selecting their committees of public safety and preparing to organize a government, as openly as public meetings are held in any American city. They did not dare to attempt to arrest or interfere with the aroused white citizens.

"It was a united and irresistible movement of the same men, with now increased numbers, that took away the despotic powers of King Kalakaua in 1857, and crushed the Wilcox revolt of 1889. They gathered at the armory with their rifles in hand, which were increased by other arms openly carried in a carriage from a gunstore, with only three men in charge.

"The only government that existed or could under those circumstances was the provisional goverament. Whoever denies this has no other basis for his denials than perjured affidavits, hundreds of which were obtainable in the slums of Honolulu at $2 each.

"An effort has been made to damage my recognition of the provisional government by a dispute as to the hour by the clock at which I gave recognition. That is of no essential importance for in fact all resistance to the formation of a new government practically ceased more than two days before. The committee of the house and provisional government constituted the only Hawaiian government de facto, existing for 24 hours prior to my recognition, the monarchial government having completely collapsed several days before, so all unjust imputations on Capt. Wiltse and myself will vanish into thin air and the crime of the Hawaiian provisional government will stand out in bold relief to Americ a's shame."

AWFUL WORK OF A MOB.

The Evans Home Wrecked With Dynamite and Three Blown to Atoms.

BARDSTOWN, Ky., Nov. 13.—The fury of the mob that would have hanged Phil Evans has at last vented itself in an awful manner.

At 12 o'clock Saturday night the home of Evans, two miles in the woods back of Samuel station, was blown up with dynamite and a fusillade of shots fired.

The fragments of the dwelling burned until nothing but a few bricks is left.

The aged mother of Evans and his wife and daughter are nowhere to be found, and there is every reason to believe that they were blown to atoms.

MRS. ROOSEVELT DEAD.

SLOW TRAINS AND HIGH RATES.

Rumors of Important Changes by the Trunk Lines.

CHICAGO, Nov. 13.—It is rumored here that the presidents of what are known as the standard lines in the Trunk Line association have undertaken to bring about the abolition of differential rates so far as passenger business is concerned. This is said to be the true meaning of the discontinuance of the "exposition flyer" on the Lake Shore road and the lengthening of the time of the limited trains on all the standard lines so that the best time made by any of them hereafter, between Chicago and New York will be twenty-six hours. This will leave very little difference between them and the best time made by the differential roads. So little in fact that it will be claimed that no reason exists any longer for the differentials to be maintained. The presidents of the standard lines are said to have been moved to this course by the rapid strides which the differential roads have been making of late and the immense amount of passenger traffic they were able to secure during the world's fair session. The Erie, one of the differential lines, claimed to have secured the lion's share of the excursion traffic out of New York. The Baltimore & Ohio, another differential line, carried more passengers than some of the standard lines did. The Wabash, another differential line, is now the short line between Chicago and Detroit and should be able to hold its own on equal terms with its competitors. Differential rates have proved to be a constant source of trouble and demoralization. The western roads have long ago abolished them, and it is said that the presidents of the lines referred to have arrived at the conclusion that the time has now arrived that they should be abolished in the east.

Denounced the Irish Home Secretary.

LONDON, Nov. 13. — John Redmond, leader of the Parnellites, and James Egan, the Irish dynamiter released from Portland prison last year, and several other Irishmen addressed an amnesty meeting in Newcastle yesterday. All denounced Herbert Asquith, home secretary, on account of his avowed opposition to the release of the political prisoners.

Two Jockeys Killed at Auteuil.

PARIS, Nov. 13.—In the race for the Prix de Trocadero at the Auteuil track two horses fell and killed the jockeys that rode them. In view of the recent death of Jockey Rowell in a hurdle race at Auteuil there is much talk to the effect that the police will close the course for the rest of the season.

Friend of Pallas.

BARCELONA, Nov. 13.—It has been learned that the Frenchman Aragon, one of the prisoners suspected of having thrown the bombs in the Lyceum theatre on Tuesday night, was a friend of the anarchist Pallas, who was executed a few weeks ago for attempting to kill Gen. Martinez Campos.

Riffians Discouraged.

MADRID, Nov. 13.—The sheik in command of the besieging forces at Melilla was killed by a shell from the Spanish Conde de Venadito on Nov. 6. The Riffians are reported to be discouraged. Several thousand of them are thought to have withdrawn.

Chance for Women.

LONDON, Nov. 13. — Mr. Gladstone writes to the woman's emancipation union that a clause will be introduced in the parish council bill giving the right to women to vote for and be elected as parish councillors.

Gratitude to Count Taaffe.

VIENNA, Nov. 13.—Emperor Franz Joseph has written to Count Taaffe an autograph letter, expressing his "warmest and most sincere gratitude" for the ex-premier's services.

BERLIN INTELLIGENCE

Matters of Interest from the German Capital.

The New Financial Schemes—No Concerted Action Against Caprivi's Policy—Richter to Retain the Leadership—Hanover Gambling Scandal.

(Copyright, 1893, by the United Press.)

BERLIN, Nov. 13.—Although the reopening of the reichstag is but a few days off political parties remain virtually dormant. No partisan movement of general interest has been made for several weeks. The leaders of the opposition groups instead of attempting a coalition against Chancellor von Caprivi seem to have made their plans independently. No sign of a common programme is apparent.

Caprivi's Policy.

The victory of the conservatives in the landtag election has not had the slightest effect in altering the chancellor's course, and official circles are still confident that he will obtain majorities for the financial bills and the commercial treaty. Instead of modifying his tariff policy to soothe the Agrarians, Caprivi contemplates an extension of the reciprocity policy until Germany shall be linked commercially with every civilized nation.

The emperor is known to entertain broad ideas looking towards and international customs union, and he supports the chancellor in his approaches to this end.

Willing to Submit to Anything.

The position the government on the financial proposals is strengthened by the reception of the proposals for the new taxes for, although the wine and tobacco trades have made a great outcery, nothing like popular opposition has been aroused against the proposals as a whole. Adverse critics say that the country has sunk into such a political torpor that it will submit to anything.

Increased Revenues Necessary.

The truth rather is that everybody recognizes the necessity of increasing the revenues and nobody can see anything better for the purpose than Miquel's and Caprivi's schemes. The banks and bourses accept the new taxes without grumbling. It was expected that the announcement of the tax bills would cause a sharp decline of quotations, but this expectation has not been fulfilled. Whatever other modifications the government may make during the debate, the bourse tax will remain untouched.

The proposed tax on receipts and checks may be withdrawn as the reichsbank has remonstrated against it energetically. The tax would produce little revenue in comparison with the inconvenience it would cause, while it would prevent the development of the check system in Germany.

Richter Means to Stay.

The defeat of the radicals in the landtag election has caused a renewed outcry of the party journals against Eugen Richter's leadership. The Voessischetzeitung pronounces him to be an injudicious leader, weakening his party to maintain his personal supremacy, and advocates his deposition. In the Freisinnige Zeitung Richter argues that not the personality of the leader nor the weakness of the programme has caused the temporary losses of the party, but the fact that, uncorrupted by office and untrammeled by pledges of loyalty, the party fights, not for any class, but for the whole people of Germany. "Despite recent checks in the National and Prussian election," he adds, "the party must remain faithful to its principles, assured that in the early future it will see the realization of liberal ideas and the extinction of reactionary hopes." All of this proves that Richter does not blame himself for radical reverses and means to keep his grip on the leadership.

The Emperor's Boar Hunt.

The Tageblatt, in commenting upon the emperor's craze for hunting, tells a story of the last wild boar hunt at Hubertusstock on St. Hubert's day. The boar had been carefully prepared for death at the emperor's hands. The points of its tusks had been sawed off and its teeth had been docked so as to prevent any chance of its wounding anybody. The brute had been kept in a box until the hunters appeared on the scene. It had then been released, and crippled and defenceless had been killed by the emperor riding at a gallop.

The Gambling Scandal.

The sequel of the Hanover gambling scandal is about to be developed at the trial of Frau Guehl, who keeps a saloon in the Potsdaner strasse, Berlin. This saloon has been frequented by officers, sporting men and some of the Hanover "gang." Julius and Max Rosenberg and Suessman, the Hebrew dealer in lottery tickets, are involved. Among the witnesses will be army officers, bankers, and several civilians whose business is to lead Berlin society. The trial was fixed for Nov. 15, but has been postponed.

Where Nobility Has No Rights.

The supreme court in Leipsic has just made a remarkable division in the case of Berthold against Count Redern. Berthold, as forest ranger, was Redern's subordinate. His appointment was for life. He quarrelled with the count, challenged him, and was dismissed. Berthold sued for damages, pleading that as a lieutenant in the reserves he was forced by the military code to challenge Redfern for insulting him. The court held that Redfern, knowing Berthold was an officer, had no right to presume upon his own position as a nobleman. Honor required that he should discharge Berthold, and the latter, therefore, was discharged from custody, Redern paying all costs.

Thanksgiving Day in Berlin.

The thanksgiving committee of the American colony are making elaborate preparations for the celebration. Among those present will be Ambassador Theodore Runyon, John B. Jackson, secretary of the embassy; Capt. Evans, Consul-General Edwards, Col. Siebert, the Rev. Dr. Grosvenor, Dr. McGee and Prof. Miller.

THE BRAZIL REVOLT.

Bombardment of Rio Continued By Mello.

Revolutionists Gain a Foothold at Saretta—Piexoto's Dangerous Balloon Nearly Ready—Admiral Stanton's Recall Thought By Many To Have Been Hasty.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—A Janeiro dispatch says that all the banks were closed Saturday and the bombardment of the city by Admiral Mello was renewed.

There was some heavy fighting between the rebel forces under Admiral Mello and President Peixoto's loyal troops at Niotheroy, the most populous suburb of the capital on Wednesday.

The principal point of attack was Fort Uneaugne, but the fire from the fort finally sank a rebel torpedo boat, though not before the insurgents' guns had inflicted considerable injury upon the buildings of Niotheroy.

The republican newspapers of Rio report that the federal troops have been defeated in Marco Lopez.

Foreigners Will Be Protected.

Reports about the operations in the province of Rio Grande do Sul, where loyal troops have gone to attempt the capture of Desterro, where the insurgents have set up their provisional government, are confused and vague. The British consul here has advised the shipping interests of the city that all goods now in the harbor of Rio, either on ships or lighters, will hereafter be protected by the commanders of foreign war ships in the bay.

Later reports from Rio say that every two or three days, for some time past, there has been an artillery duel between the loyal and rebel forts, in which the ships of Mello's squadron rarely join.

Fort Villegaignon, which took up Mello's cause some time after the revolt began has suffered severely in these duels so far as its light barrack buildings are concerned, but the fort proper is uninjured and the bombproof quarters for the men are still intact. Not a gun has been dismounted.

Peixoto's Garrison Confident.

A lad who has come ashore from the fort says the garrison are well and confident of success. They have had only fifteen men killed since the fighting began and three of these deaths were caused by the bursting of one of their own guns.

Three of Peixoto's forts are now provided with six or seven guns to Villegaignon's one, and the artillerymen have improved greatly in gunnery since the revolution began.

One big shell was seen the other day to strike squarely upon the parapet of Port Lage and it must have done considerable damage.

Artillery Duels.

These artillery duels usually begin about half-past 5 o'clock in the afternoon and close about half-past 7.

The revolutionists have gained a foothold on land in the suburb of Saretta and have held it in spite of considerable skirmishing. Their white flag can be seen from Rio at several points.

One of Peixoto's land batteries has been silenced also.

An ex-governor of the state of Rio Janeiro has promised that if Mello's men succeed in wresting the Nictheroy from the loyal troops he will furnish the rebels with a large quantity of arms and ammunition with which to equip a land force. He has not sufficient confidence in their ability to win as long as they confine themselves to operations afloat and to lead him to risk anything on them just now.

Peixoto's Dangerous Balloon.

It is reported that Peixoto has now nearly ready his balloon, work on which has been proceeding some time, from which he expects to be able to drop a charge of dynamite upon Admiral Mello's flagship, the Aquidaban.

This balloon experiment will be attended with no slight risk to the foreign vessels in the harbor and their commanders do not feel at all comfortable over the idea of having a dynamite-laden balloon floating above their ships with Mello's sharpshooters firing at it in an endeavor to bring it down anywhere but upon their own heads.

Stanton's Recall Regretted.

The recall of the American admiral has caused general regret in Rio. Admiral Stanton was well liked by his men, and he, in return, was deeply interested in their welfare. It is generally felt in Rio that his fault, if any, was trifling, and at most only a question of courtesy. Brazil's government complained to the authorities in Washington without the knowledge, it is said, of the American minister in Rio, and he knew nothing of the affair until the order came for Rear Admiral Stanton's recall. The opinion is freely expressed in Rio that the American government acted hastily in the matter, and that if it had investigated all the circumstances thoroughly the result might have been different.

There is a movement on foot among Brazilians to memorialize the American government on the subject, but Minister Thompson says he will have nothing to do with it.

Object of Mnoteiro's Journey.

It is reported here that the principal object of Minister Monteiro's journey is to purchase arms and ammunition for the loyal Brazilian ships Desterro and Santos, now in this harbor. He proposed buying one or two of Argentine's men-of-war, but the government declined to part with them.

The report which has reached here from New York that the vessels purchased there by Peixoto will leave that port under the American flag causes much astonishment and is generally doubted.

THE WEATHER.

For New Jersey To-morrow: Light Sprinkle of Rain Tonight, Followed By Fair, Colder, and Northwesterly Winds on Tuesday.

Assemblyman Codding is receiving the congratulations of Republicans, Democrats and Prohibitionists.

"If I do n't do right"—says Mr. Codding—"jump on me."

But The Press does not anticipate that there will be any necessity for jumping on so worthy and capable a representative as Mr. Codding.

The great and only Pearsall, that shining light of Westfield and New York journalism, speaks truly when he writes:

George Kyte, the new sheriff of Union county, being a man of brains and broad-minded, is looked to by the people to keep his important office above suspicion. He was not elected by Republicans. His plurality in the whole county, 1564, was a handsome compliment, greatly to be prized, and means more than a simple victory.

Sheriff Kyte will do right.

Thank You, Brother Pearsall.

(From The Union County Standard.)

The Standard congratulates and applauds the Plainfield Press for its enterprise in getting out by daylight a post-election edition telling in manly terms of the defeat of its own candidates and dealing with facts without stint, partiality or reserve. This is being a newspaper, which is much better than being an "organ".

They've Got It.

As for our fellow townsman, Charles Nelson Codding!—remarks The Standard.—

Well, did you ever!

Was it personal popularity?

Partly, doubtless.

Better than that; it was character!

Never was the majority in the Third Assembly District so large for any candidate.

He ran splendidly everywhere.

He carried Plainfield by 500, Rahway by 217, running way ahead of Winans, even in his own town. Linden gave Mr. Codding 176 majority and good old Westfield, his own town, slammed the enormous majority of 240 at him.

Think of it!

That pre-eminent American, Foster M. Voorhees, of course, ran like the wind and came out 1,257 votes ahead, beating Martine, the strongest candidate the Democrats had.

Of course the Republicans will make him president of the Senate.

That is to say they will if they have any sense.

Three Able Divines.

In the First Church of Christ this week the following will be the addresses:

Wednesday evening — Mr. Hinck, First Church of Christ, New York.

Thursday evening—James Millard Philputt, Second Church of Christ, New York.

Friday evening—S. B. Willis, Sixth Church of Christ, New York.

These will be interesting meetings, and all are invited.

Prohibition's Big Gain.

(From The Westfield Standard.)

Scotch Plains doubled its Prohibition vote. They had one vote last year and two votes this year. This increase of one hundred per cent. is very encouraging.

Disgraceful Sunday Scene.

A runaway occurred on Grandview avenue, North Plainfield, yesterday afternoon about 5, of a horse and buggy driven by Christopher C. Wies. Wies, who seemed to be under the influence of liquor, whipped the horse until the animal was forced to run away. The horse ran the buggy into a hitching post, and smashed one of the front wheels and the top of the vehicle, and threw the driver out unhurt. The horse broke off the whiffletree and ran down the street into Somerset, and down Somerset street into Linke's yard where he was caught.

The spectators all condemned Wies for his seeming brutality.

Her Father Wrote a Great Song.

Mrs. Lucy Gibbons Morse of New York will read a paper on "Books and Reading", in All Souls church tomorrow afternoon at 4. This is the second afternoon lecture in the course. Mrs. Morse is a daughter of the late Mrs. Abby Hopper Gibbons, a philanthropist of national reputation, and a granddaughter of the great Quaker philanthropist, Isaac T. Hopper. Her father, James Sloan Gibbons, was the author of the song "We're Coming, Father Abraham, Three Hundred Thousand More".

Friends to Meet in Plainfield.

The Half Yearly Meeting of the Hicksite Society of Friends will begin Wednesday afternoon at 3, in the Watchung Avenue meeting-house, and will continue Thursday and Friday, when morning sessions will be held. The Friends were formerly accustomed to meet quarterly, but have altered their plans so as to meet only twice a year.

Their Semi-Centennial.

The members of the Somerville Baptist church are celebrating their fiftieth anniversary all this week, with appropriate exercises. The services commenced yesterday morning with an historical sermon by the pastor.

—Don't let a little November sullenness of weather keep you away from the World's Fair tonight.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

THE JOHNSTON ESTATE DIVIDED.

HERBERT THE SON RETAINS NETHERWOOD FARM.

Mrs. Mall Has the East Front Street Homestead—Great Changes Expected, with Prospects of a Lenox-Like Fashionable Quarter.

The property of the late John Taylor Johnston has been divided, and Plainfield people naturally are interested in knowing the exact disposition made of the Plainfield real estate. As was anticipated Herbert Johnston getains possession of the Netherwood Farm property, which reaches from Mountain avenue over into the valley beyond the mountain. Mr. Johnston's hobby is fine Jersey cattle, and he has the best at his model farm. Mrs. Pierre Mall, who was Miss Fanny Johnston, has taken the Johnston homestead and the beautiful grounds bounded by East Front street and Farragut, Mountain and Netherwood avenues. Mr. and Mrs. Mall will continue to occupy the house from spring to autumn, every year, spending the winter season at the marble palace in Fifth avenue. It is not improbable that great changes will be wrought in the appearance of the Johnston property within five years, and that these changes will result in the establishment of an exclusive settlement of fashionable people nearby who will make that part of Plainfield a second Lenox.

FELL AMONG PLAINFIELD THIEVES.

O'Hara of Elizabeth Robbed by the Berckman Bridge Gang.

Michael O'Hara, of Elizabeth, came to town this morning and fell in the hands of thieves, if the story he tells is true.

He claims to have lost $13 and an open-faced gold watch.

Sergeant Kiely was informed immediately, and he acquainted Chief Grant with the facts, when an attempt was made to capture the robbers. Four fellows were arrested, but O'Hara could not identify any one of them as the right party.

The theft occurred near the Berckman street bridge and those implicated probably made their escape on a passing train.

13 Guests at a Birthday Party.

Last Saturday evening James Holmes celebrated his twenty-first birthday, at the home of David Bush on Elm street. There were thirteen of his friends present, who made the evening one of much pleasure.

Music, recitations and games were indulged in till a late hour, when a collation was served.

All present will long remember the event as one of the most pleasant they ever experienced.

The Bi Club a Winner, Thanks to "The Patriarch".

The Casino was filled Saturday night. Marshall P. Wilder, banjoists Brooks & Denton, and pianist Silberberg, all met with an enthusiastic reception. The music won repeated encores, and no one could hear or see enough of Wilder. Thanks to "The Patriarch's" hustling and generosity, the Bi Club made good profit. Had there been a loss, "The Patriarch" would have assumed it, which proves his generosity still more.

—100 choicest views of the Fair will be shown in Music Hall tonight.

Getting Cured.

Martin Conners of Washington Valley, who was admitted to the Soldiers Home in Kearney, suffering from rheumatism, four weeks ago, returned to Plainfield Saturday much improved. He went into service with the 99th Regt. of New York in 1861, and re-enlisted in 1863. Mr. Conners went to the Home on crutches, but today is able to walk with the assistance of a cane.

They Must Not Flirt with the Giddy Borough Girls.

Superintendent Adleman has posted a new notice on the bulletin board at the car-house. It is to the effect that all motormen and conductors on the Somerset street branch are requested to stop flirting. Someone has evidently made a complaint.

The Westfield Club.

The Westfield Club held a special meeting Friday evening at which the new constitution and by-laws were signed. A good many applications have been made for membership by citizens not heretofore connected with any club. The new club dates from December 1, at which time it will formally take possession of the club property.

His Cow Is Found.

Michael Murphy, who lives in the Pond Tool Works district, had a registered Jersey cow stolen two months ago. Last Saturday the animal was located by a detective on a place near Waverly. The cow is a valuable one, and has a record of giving nineteen quarts of milk a day.

Will Be Cared There If Anywhere.

F. C. Harder of this city has a valuable horse which he is afraid he will lose. The animal has been sick for some time. It is being cared for at Wesley Johnson's stock farm.

Both Sides Welcome.

The Bible readings in charge of Evangelist Crane, in the Y. M. C. A. rooms, every afternoon at 3:30, are for women as well as men.

The American Catarrh Cure

Is the result of twenty-six years' study and treatment of the disease. One bottle convinces the most skeptical. It is always ready for use, needing neither douche nor atomizer. It restores the hearing, cures the hawking cough and expectorating, removes the headache and nose bleeding, increases the appetite, produces sound sleep, invigorates the whole system and increases the vitality. Prepared only by W. B. Jones, M. D., No. 1356 South Eighth street, Philadelphia. For sale by I. W. Randolph, 21 West Front street. Price $1.

MR. SAGE VICTOR.

Delia Keegan's Suit Dismissed, and She Must Pay the Costs.

(Special to The Press.)

NEW YORK, Nov. 13—The motion made a few days ago in behalf of Russell Sage to strike out as sham the reply of Delia Keegan to his defence that her action to recover $50,000 damages for breach of promise was barred by the statute of limitations was granted this morning by Judge Bookstaver of the Court of Common Pleas.

The Judge grants the motion with costs, and also grants an order dismissing on its merits the complaint in the action.

A STEAMER SUNK.

Reported Disaster Off the Isle of Wight—The Crew Rescued.

(Special to the Press.)

LONDON, Nov. 13—A report has been received of the sinking of a steamer off Dunrose, Isle of Wight. The crew were rescued in boats sent out from the life-saving station at Shanklin, near Ventor, Isle of Wight.

The name of the steamer has not yet been ascertained.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

The Rev. L. E. Livermore, of Alfred Centre, N. Y., is visiting friends in town.

Miss Edith Tunison of 115 Elmwood place is confined to the house by illness.

Mrs. Bancker, of Brooklyn, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. E. J. Howlett, of Elmwood place.

P. C. Harder of Ninth street and Central avenue returned Saturday from an extended trip west.

Miss Lilly Garretson, of West Front street, spent Sunday at Finderne with her friend, Miss Margaret Osmun.

Miss Millie Vail of Dunellen will spend the coming week with her aunt, Mrs. Charles Vail, on Orchard place.

Mr. Greer, of Perth Amboy, spent Sunday with his brother Charles S. Greer, of Grandview avenue, North Plainfield.

J. H. Doane, Otto Arens, J. Neagle, of the Camera Club, and Walter Freeman, spent Saturday taking photographic views around Netherwood Heights.

Beatrice A. Bird, 8 months old, daughter of Levi and Mary E. Bird, died this morning about 7, after a short illness. The funeral will be held Wednesday afternoon.

The Rev. C. E. Herring, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, is interested in the art of photography, and his leisure time is spent in snapping views with the camera.

Hazel Glaentzer, three-year-old daughter of Chas. Glaentzer of 414 New street, died last night at 10:30 of malignant diphtheria. The funeral will be held this afternoon.

Mrs. Julia Ward Howe is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. David P. Hall, of Central avenue. Mrs. Howe made an address in All Souls church yesterday morning.

Ex-Councilman M. M. Dunham has so far recovered from his recent serious illness as to be able to leave his room and go down stairs. He has been confined to the house six weeks.

Rufus Case, Jr., of Ninth street, has enlisted in the regular United States army, and will soon go into active service. He is located at present on Governor's Island, awaiting orders.

Editor W. B. R. Mason, of the Bound Brook Chronicle, favored the Press office with a call Saturday afternoon. The accomplished newspaper man is always as welcome as his paper, and that is a bright and shining star among the exchanges that come to the editor's desk.

Opening the Y. M. C. A. Week.

The service in the First Baptist church yesterday afternoon at 4:15 was a memorable one.

The Rev. Arthur Crane was in charge, and the deep interest shown gives evidence of what is to follow. Mr. Crane is a wonderful speaker. There was a very large audience present, and the audiences will no doubt grow as the week advances.

Y. M. C. A. Everywhere.

Mr. Hazell, representing the Y. M. C. A., gave an interesting address in the First Presbyterian church last evening. The Rev. Mr. Herring preceded his remarks with a stirring discourse. The music was a feature.

In True Old Style.

Tomorrow evening the Young Ladies Missionary Society of the First Baptist church will give an old folks concert, under the direction of W. E. McClymont. It will be held in the Sunday-school room of the church.

Everyone Sociable There.

Two sociables will be held in the First Presbyterian church soon. The first will be given by the members of the church, November 22, and the second by the Christian Endeavor society, November 30.

An Old Vet in Town.

Thomas Oliver, of Oak Tree, aged 81 years, an old pensioner in the Mexican War, is visiting his stepdaughter, Mrs. T. C. Price on East Front street. Today he made application for an extra pension, for being engaged in the late war.

Y. M. C. A. Evangelism.

After the services in the churches were concluded last evening, a meeting conducted by the Rev. Arthur Crane was held in the Y. M. C. A. rooms. It was largely attended, and full of interest.

Read and Reflect.

The great mass of mankind loss their health through inattention to catarrh of the head and throat. This insidious disease was considered incurable until the discovery of the American Catarrh Cure. For sale by I. W. Randolph, 21 West Front street, Price $1.00.

Death of John M. Greer.

The death of John M. Greer, which occurred yesterday afternoon, is a sad one. Fourteen years ago he went west for his health, and returned about three years ago. He had consumption, and the doctors did not give much hope for his recovery. Since his return his health gradually grew worse until he died yesterday.

He leaves two brothers, one living in Perth Amboy and the other, Charles Greer, a reporter on The Evening News.

The funeral will take place Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 14, at 2, from the residence of his uncle, Elijah Stites, 26 Chatham street, North Plainfield.

Funeral of James H. Force.

The funeral of James H. Force will take place Wednesday afternoon. Services will be held at his late residence, the Manelon House, Bound Brook, at 1:30. The interment will be in the North Plainfield Cemetery on the arrival of the 3:12 train. The Exempt Firemen's Association, of which deceased was a member, will attend the funeral in a body, and members of that organization will act as pall-bearers.

Plainfield Cyclists as Firemen.

The residence of Samuel Parks, on North avenue, Garwood, caught fire a day or two ago. The fire started from a lounge and the flames spread rapidly. The family were not home, and the servants, with the assistance of some passing bicyclists from Plainfield, soon extinguished the flames. The loss will not exceed one hundred dollars.

Plainfield Baptists to Donate.

A reception and donation party will be held at the Baptist Home, 177 Fairmount avenue, Newark, tomorrow afternoon from 2 to 5. Several Baptists from this city will attend.

DEATH SMITES C. B. RIPLEY.

WESTFIELD'S BIGGEST CITIZEN PASSES SUDDENLY AWAY.

He Slept In the Hoffman House, and Awoke in Another World—End of a Noteworthy Career.

Chauncey B. Ripley, the owner of Ripley Hill, and whose giant figure was familiar to Westfield and Plainfield alike, is dead. His lifeless body was found in bed in the Hoffman House, New York, yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Ripley had been ill there since Thursday. He was attended by Dr. Frank A. Maguire of 631 Lexington avenue. When the chambermaid tried to get into the room yesterday there was no response to her knocking. The door was broken open. Mr. Ripley had been dead for some hours. Word was sent to his brother, Dr. John H. Ripley of 605 Lexington avenue, and Dr. Maguire. The latter attributed Mr. Ripley's death to cerebral apoplexy.

Mr. Ripley lived in Westfield, N. J. He was born in South Coventry, Conn., May 14, 1835, and was a son of Chauncey Ripley, whose father, Jeremiah, was an officer of Washington's army, and afterward became a County Judge. Mr. Ripley was a graduate of the University of Lewisburg, Pa., now Bucknell University, and took the course in the law department of the University of the City of New York. He was valedictorian when he graduated in 1865. He studied in the law office of Benjamin Vaughn Abbott, and afterward opened an office in the old New York Times building. On Oct. 4, 1865, he married Cornelia Ross, daughter of the Hon. Gideon Ross of Westfield. She died in 1883. Mr. Ripley had a fine stock farm at Westfield, and was very much interested in road building and the development of the town. He was Chairman of the Executive Committee of the National League for Improved Roads, of which Senator Manderson is President. The trustees of Bucknell University conferred the degree of LL. D on him in 1888. He was twice President of the Alumni Association of Bucknell University, and served several terms as President of the New York Alumni Association of the law department of the University of the city of New York. For more than twenty years the trustees of this university annually appointed him one of the committee for the examination of candidates for degrees in the law department and for the scholarship prizes. He delivered the address on behalf of the alumni at the inauguration of Dr. Howard Crosby as Chancellor of the University in 1870. He was a member of the Sigma Chi fraternity, and last winter was selected to initiate President Cleveland. He became ill shortly afterward and was unable to perform the ceremony. Last July Mr. Ripley had a sunstroke, and he had not been in good health since. He was over six feet tall and weighed over 300 pounds, and his figure was well-known on Park row.

The Best Book of the Fair.

Last year The Bancroft Company established themselves in the Auditorium Building, Chicago, for the express purpose of producing in print and pictures, the best work on the great Columbian Exposition. They sent East and to Europe for the best artists, and set up an entire plant for drawing, photographing and engraving. Being in the field long before the Exposition opened, they prepared in every way to paint this wonderful panorama true to life. In many respects The Book of the Fair, by Hubert Howe Bancroft, has no competitor, and can have none.

To enter into details regarding its plan is obviously impossible. Not only have the buildings and the exhibits of the Exposition departments their special curious and educational attractions, but the commonwealths of the United States and the foreign countries, present miniature worlds in themselves. All are reproduced true to life. There are also scores of unclassified features, such as those grouped and massed along Midway Plaisance. Then again, are presented the intellectual and religious traits of all nations, such as centre around the World's Congress Auxiliary. To clearly place this vast panorama before the public, is a work worthy of the highest ambition; but the Bancroft Company is accustomed to great enterprises and to carrying them to a successful issue. Plainfielders interested should write.

The Gem Pharmacy is a Gem.

Plainfield has many drug stores, and the drug clerks in this city are a set of popular young men. Of this number, none had a larger number of friends than Edward J. Richards, who for several years was head clerk in a Front street pharmacy. Mr. Richards's many acquaintances and well-wishers will be glad to know that he has started a drug store of his own on West Fourth street, at the corner of Liberty street. He calls his new possession "The Gem Pharmacy", and it is a gem. Mr. Richards wants his friends to call around and see him.

No Probation.

The Rev. Arthur Crane will conduct the meeting this evening in the Y. M. C. A. rooms at 8. His subject will be "No Probation".

$100 Reward, $100.

The reader of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer $100 for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address

HOW TO HELP THE WORTHY.

Here's an Excellent Medium for Distributing Charitable Donations.

The Plainfield Relief Association begs to suggest to the charitably disposed that, in response to appeals in the papers, they kindly send their donations, whether in money, provisions or other articles, to the Association, instead of giving them directly to those they wish to benefit.

Much more good would be done in that way, than if, as frequently happens, a number of persons give once and at about the same time to some family in need of assistance.

If the former course were to be pursued, the money or articles could be retained by the Association and given in proportion as needed, to the designated families.

It occasionally comes to the ears of us, the workers in the Association, that some one or some family has been largely helped from outside sources, but it almost always happens that those persons are shortly again requiring succor from the Relief, if even they have not been receiving it all the time. The pressure on the poor will no doubt be very extreme during the coming winter, so that more than ever, all general donations will be gladly welcomed, as well as those for any particular case.

Money left at Reynolds's Pharmacy for Mrs. H. P. Reynolds, Treasurer of the Relief Association, for the benefit of a family in great need, will be thankfully received. The head of the family is ill of an incurable disease, and cannot be moved. Back rent is owing to a widow, who has little else to support her, and it is necessary to secure sufficient money to pay the rent for some months to come. Between thirty and forty dollars will be needed.

ROBBERY ON THE BRIDGE.

Candy, Cigars and Cider Taken from Ralston's Store.

Some time early Saturday morning one or more thieves broke into William M. Ralston's store on Somerset street, and carried away a dollar's worth of candy, a gallon and a half of cider and three boxes of cigars. One of the boxes of cigars was found in the rear of the store, unbroken. Entrance was effected by bursting open the back door. No clue was left whereby the robbers could be identified.

Mr. Ralston says he is willing to give $100 for information that will lead to the arrest and conviction of the culprits.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—Tonight is the last chance to see the World's Fair in all its glory.

—Initiations will be a feature of the meeting of Plainfield Council, No. 711, Royal Arcanum, tonight.

—The Gold Dust Band of the First Baptist church held a missionary meeting this afternoon in the church parlors.

—A machinists helper named Ryan fell on the walk on East Front street, Saturday night, and cut his head. A physician dressed the wound.

—A young lad living on East Front street, while in a state of frenzy, Friday night, brutally assaulted his mother and sister, and then left the house. He should be locked up.

—An unharnessed horse broke out of the City Hotel stables at dusk, yesterday, and cut capers on East Second street. The horse was finally captured and returned to its stall.

—The Union Meat Market Company of Plainfield will open a meat market in Alexander Hunt's store on Elm street, Westfield. A. Sturtevant will have charge and manage the store.

Thanksgiving Tomorrow.

A Thanksgiving praise service will be held by the "Ys", tomorrow afternoon at 4. The "Ys" are expected to attend, prepared to read or quote some verse of Scripture relating to the subject of the meeting. A ousiness meeting will be held after the devotional service.

Trustees to Be Elected.

The adjourned annual meeting of the Star Automatic Feed Bag Co. will be held in the company's office, East Front street, November 18, at noon. There will be five trustees elected, and other important business is to come up for consideration.

Business and Pleasure Combined.

George VanNess, an employe of Sutphen & Myer, importers of plate glass, is today putting in the large glass windows in the building being erected by C. B. Clifton on Park avenue. He is stopping with his mother and sister on Elmwood place.

Getting Ready for the Fair.

A regular encampment of Winfield Scott Post, No. 73, G. A. R., will be held tomorrow evening, at which time arrangements will be completed for the fair, which will be held the first week in December.

He Always Interests.

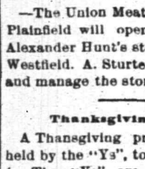
President W. D. Murray, of the Y. M. C. A., gave an able talk in the First Baptist church last evening, on Association work.

THERE'S DANGER

in a cough—more than ever when your blood is "bad." It makes things easy for Consumption. But there's a cure for it in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. A positive cure—not only for Weak Lungs, Spitting of Blood, Bronchitis, Asthma and all lingering Coughs, but for Consumption itself in all its earlier stages. It's reasonable. All these diseases depend on tainted blood.

PIERCE'S GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY CURE

GUARANTEED A CURE OR MONEY IS RETURNED.



HARRISON DAVIS, of Tompkinsville, Monroe Co., Ky., writes as follows: "My daughter, Miss Florence E. Davis, had been afflicted for several years with a cough and lung trouble, and tried several remedies but none seemed to do her any good. I bought a bottle of your 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Pellets' and commenced giving them according to directions, for she was past doing anything, and now she is perfectly well and the cough is gone. I am thankful to you for such a wonderful medicine." Sold by all medicine dealers.

DAVE ROANTREE'S BAD HUNTING.

HE OVERCHARGED HIS GUN AND IT BURST.

Roantree's Face Badly Disfigured, and His Eyesight Endangered—Part of His Nose Shot Away.

David Roantree, accompanied by Benjamin Feyser and Wm. Waglow, all of New Market, went hunting last Saturday in the vicinity of Stelle's woods.

They had been looking for game several hours, and had seen nothing.

Roantree then put all his powder and shot into his gun. It was equivalent to three ordinary charges. He had no sooner loaded his firearm than a rabbit came in sight.

All three were anxious to shoot it, and endeavored to get Roantree's gun, but the owner was determined to use it himself.

Placing it on a fence rail, he took aim at the fleetfooted cotton-tail.

The trigger was pulled, but the load, instead of leaving the barrel, blew out by the hammer.

The gun was a total wreck. Pieces of the shattered metal flew in all directions, and the entire charge was blown into the hunter's face, disfiguring it to an alarming extent. Part of his nose was blown off, and his eyes were frightfully burned.

Roantree was taken to Dr. Nelson's office, New Market, where he was treated. It is thought he may lose his eyesight, and his face will be marked for life.

His comrades were surprised that the explosion did not kill him outright.

The hammer when blown off entered a piece of wood, and it was with difficulty that it was extracted. It is not likely that Mr. Roantree will go hunting for some time.

All that can, is being done for his comfort and speedy recovery.

TRIED TO CAPTURE HIS VESSEL.

Experience of a Steamer Captain in a Brazilian Port.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—The steamer Melbourne, from Santos, just arrived, brings the largest cargo of coffee ever brought to the port of New York. She brought 57,490 bags of coffee, which is worth $1,400,000 at least.

The captain reports that everything was quiet at Santos when he left. Heavy guns had been mounted for the defense of the harbor, and although two of Mello's gunboats made an attack on the town they were easily repulsed and sailed for the island of St. Catherina 300 miles away, where the inhabitants espouse the cause of Mello. At Bahia, where the vessel touched on Oct. 24, everything was quiet and the people apathetic.

The steamer brought 300 head of cattle from Buenos Ayres to Rio Janeiro before loading for this port. While discharging the cattle alongside the dock, under the protection of a detachment of soldiers and two field pieces, one of Admiral Mello's launches made an unsuccessful attempt to capture the vessel. Volley after volley of musketry was fired but no one was hurt and the insurgents withdrew.

Brazilian Boats to Be Christined.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—The steamer El Cid and Britannia will be rechristined when the Brazilian colors are raised to their mastheads. El Cid will in future be known as the Nictheroy, in recognition of the gallant defeuse of the city of Rio de Janeiro by the militia from the state of which Nictheroy is the capital. The name America will be given to the Britannia, as one more in keeping with the national sentiments of the Brazilian people.

Political Scheming in Jersey.

CAMDEN, N. J., Nov. 13.—It is reported in democratic circles that a conference of the leaders has been held and arrangements made to endeavor to reconvene the old legislature. According to the reported scheme, Senator Hoffman of Atlantic county is to be unseated, and William Riddle democrat, given the seat. There was a contest in the last legislature which resulted in seating Mr. Hoffman. If the scheme works this would make the next senate stand 11 democrats to 10 republicans.

Deputy Sheriff Under Arrest.

LONG ISLAND CITY, L. I., Nov. 13.—Special Deputy Sheriff Edward J. Orpheus is under arrest on a warrant sworn out by keeper John McDougall of the Queens county jail in Long Island City accusing Orpheus of aiding and abetting in the escape of criminals. Until his arrest Orpheus was employed as a special keeper in the jail and was detailed to watch a prisoner named Richard Von Hanken, who attempted suicide some time ago.

Rockefeller's Gift.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—John D. Rockefeller was at his office and confirmed the news that he had made a conditional gift of $500,000 towards the general fund of the University of Chicago. The condition imposed is the subscription of $400,000 more as the amount required to secure Mr. Nicholson's gift of $.00,000, which would swell the total to $1,000,000. Mr. Rockefeller declined to discuss the matter at length.

The Johnstown Disaster Suit.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 13.—The suit of Mrs. Ann Jenkinson, the Youngstown lady who asks damages from the South Fork fishing club for losses in the terrible Johnstown disaster, will be tried to-day in the United States circuit court. The trial of this case has been postponed time and again through the efforts of the attorneys engaged in the defense. It is the first and, necessarily, the test case against the club.

Princeton Students Must Study.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 13.—A despatch to the Evening Telegraph from Captain Trenchard of the Princeton football team says that the Princeton faculty will not permit the game which Hon. E. Burd Grubb proposed should be played between Princeton and Pennsylvania for the intercollegiate trophy.

McKinley's Great Victory.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 13.—The republican state executive committee has heard from every county in the state, and now fixes McKinley's plurality at 81,847. The combined populist and prohibition vote will not go above 40,000, and McKinley's majority will therefore be about 40,000.

Wants to Be Clerk of Assembly.

CORNING, N. Y., Nov. 13.—Hon. Herman E. Buck, of Canisteo, the present member of the assembly from this district, is a candidate for the position of clerk of the assembly.

My catarrh was very bad; for 30 years I have been troubled with it—have tried a number of remedies without relief. A druggist advised Ely's Cream Balm. I have used only one bottle and I can say I feel like a new man. I make this voluntary statement that others may know of the Balm.—J. W. Mathewson, lawyer, Pawtucket, R. I.

THE ACTOR.

Litt & Davis will dissolve partnership at the end of the present season.

Woolson Morse is at work on the score of a new opera for De Wolf Hopper.

Bessie Bonehill is meeting with good success in her play, "Playmates."

John B. Mason is writing a combination play of melodrama and vaudeville, which he will call "Kate and the Commodore."

C. A. Byrne and Louis Harrison are to write another extravaganza for E. E. Rice, to be called "Atlantic; or, The Amulet."

Ella Fontainebleau will start upon the road at the head of a repertory company under the management of Warren & Pyne.

Jerry Herzell, author of "Justice at Last," in which Rose Watson is starring, says that the play is meeting with success.

Henri Marteau, the French violinist, will concertize in Frankfort, Mayence, Cologne, Berlin and Leipzic before sailing for America in November.

Jennie Eustace, a member of A. M. Palmer's stock company, is preparing a series of articles on dramatic subjects which will soon be published.

Will C. Cowper and Lenox Gordon will soon start upon the road with a company of players presenting "A Mexican Romance" and "Gypsy Born."

"The Island Waif" is reported as having made a success and will be included in the repertory of J. C. Rockwell. The play is by Clara Grady Davenport.

"The Honeymooners," by C. M. S. McClellan and William Furst, was recently sung at the Lyceum theater, Rochester, by the Pauline Hall Opera company.

Leoncavallo's opera "I Pagliacci" ("The Strolling Players"), was produced in English for the first time in this country at the Star theater, Buffalo, by the Boston Grand Opera company.

The Marie Tavary Grand English Opera company will include Mlle. Irene Pievny, Baroness Helen von Doenhoff, Charles O. Bassett, Payne Clarke, Emil Stiger and Conrad Behrens.

THE MODISTE.

Elegant tan jackets or capes are trimmed with astrakhan or sable fur.

Pink and very light green felt hats with dark velvet trimmings and narrow fur bands and coils are dressy favorites in millinery.

Cream white corded silk capes are lined with rose colored brocaded satin and trimmed with fluffy white fur. These capes are lovely additions to an evening toilet.

Stylish and serviceable traveling wraps are made of fine camel's hair or ladies' cloth in Russian redingote form, with triple capes edged with mink fur an inch wide.

Knit plaiting, accordion, box and knife plaitings all reappear on dressy toilets for the winter, rivaling the gored and bell skirt, with long Grecian or short apron overskirts.

Paniers are announced, and alas for the short, stout woman if they become as generally fashionable as they were once. Tall, slim women will, however, score a distinct advantage by the mode.

Every conceivable shade of brown, mahogany, rosewood, nasturtium, brick dust, flame color, gray and green will be worn this winter, the various fresh dyes appearing christened with the most romantic names by the manufacturers.

For the tall women this winter are the fur bordered Russian gowns, which appear in two styles—one with a belted Russian blouse, fur edged, fur girdled and full sleeved, a style with which we are familiar, but which is nevertheless a decided favorite.

Among the luxurious garments are tight fitting sealskin coats, merely silk lined to make them less heavy, with additional warmth imparted by a shoulder cape of the same fur falling over full sealskin sleeves that fit tightly on the lower arm and made without cuffs.—New York Post.

THE GOSSIP.

Mrs. Oliver Sumner Teal is a clever amateur actress.

Colonel Elliott F. Shepard's widow is to build a memorial church in his honor.

Mme. Carnot has not been photographed for 15 years and says she never will be again.

Mrs. Potter Palmer has been presented with an album embroidered by the queen of Siam.

Mme. Albani, the singer, is studying astronomy and intends, it is said, to build an observatory on one of the high peaks of the Andes.

Miss Emma Herncame of Huntingdon, Pa., has an affection which causes her head to swing like a pendulum at each heart beat.

The love of music amounts almost to a passion with the Countess of Dunraven. When living at Adare, she always sings in the village choir.

MYSTERIES!

The Nervous System the Seat of Life and Mind. Recent Wonderful Discoveries.

No mystery has ever compared with that of human life. It has been the leading subject of professional research and study in all ages. But notwithstanding this fact it is not generally known that the seat of life is located in the upper part of the spinal cord, near the base of the brain, and so sensitive is this portion of the nervous system that even the prick of a needle will cause instant death.

Recent discoveries have demonstrated that all the organs of the body are under the control of the nerve centers, located in or near the base of the brain, and that when these are deranged, the organs which they supply with nerve fluid are also deranged. When it is remembered that a serious injury to the spinal cord will cause paralysis of the body below the injured point, because the nerve force is prevented by the injury from reaching the paralyzed portion, it will be understood how the derangement of the nerve centers will cause the derangement of the various organs which they supply with nerve force.

Two-thirds of chronic diseases are due to the imperfect action of the nerve centers at the base of the brain, not from a derangement primarily originating in the organ itself. The great mistake of physicians in treating these diseases is that they treat the organ rather than the nerve centers which are the cause of the trouble.

DR. FRANKLIN MILES, the celebrated specialist, has profoundly studied this subject for over 20 years, and has made many important discoveries in connection with it, chief among them being the facts contained in the above statement, and that the ordinary methods of treatment are wrong. All headache, dizziness, dullness, confusion, pressure, blues, mania, melancholy, insanity, epilepsy, St. Vitus dance, etc., are nervous diseases no matter how caused. The wonderful success of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine is due to the fact that it is based on the foregoing principle.

Dr. MILES' RESTORATIVE NERVINE is sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee, or sent direct by DR. MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, six bottles for $5, express prepaid. It contains neither opiates nor dangerous drugs.

Prospectus.

THE AUTO BOOK CONCERN has been organized.

First. To acquire and control the American and European patents of the AUTO BOOK BINDER, and the AUTO BOOK TRIMMER MACHINES, that, to the book-making art, mark an advance as important as the Steam Printing Press was to the Washington Hand Press fifty years ago; and to manufacture and operate said machines, in this and in foreign countries.

Second. To acquire the most complete set of stereotype and electrotype plates, in this country, of the standard popular authors. These are stored in fire proof vaults in the City of New York. They are perfect and cost over $1,000,000.

Third. To manufacture with the use of these Automatic Machines, all grades of books, including school and music books, and sell the same at greatly reduced prices, to its Stockholders and the trade.

The Company will not sell or lease any of its machines within the United States, but to the European book-making craft only.

THE AUTO BOOK BINDER and the AUTO BOOK TRIMMER are run at little expense. They are marvels of simplicity. The binder, with the assistance of two girls, picks up printed sheets and covers, and converts them into solidly and flexibly bound volumes, neither sewed nor wired. These machines perfectly perform their tasks, and henceforth as indispensable in producing books, as the perfected presses are to the newspapers.

It is proposed to provide families, students and school teachers with libraries at trifling expense and the best current literature at prices heretofore unknown and school books for the children of the million, neater and cheaper than ever has been done.

Statement of Earnings.

The profits on the publication of the standard and popular works from the plates which the Company acquires have exceeded $100,000 yearly under the old processes of manufacture, assuring to the stockholders a profit of at least 10 per cent. per annum from this source alone. With the use of the Auto Machines these profits must necessarily be largely increased.

It is impossible to estimate the returns from the ownership of the patents and the sale of the Machines in Foreign Countries, but it is a well known fact that patents covering machinery that create a revolution in any important trade have proved enormously remunerative to the original owners, and soon repay the full amount of capital invested. Additional dividends will be declared from time to time as such profits are realized.

Stockholders' Postal Supply Bureau.

An important feature of the sale department of the Company is the STOCKHOLDERS' POSTAL SUPPLY BUREAU.

The Company acts as agent for each stockholder in the purchase of all books published, and secures for stockholders the greatest possible discount, varying from 25 to 50 per cent. Stockholders will also be supplied with catalogues containing the list of the Company's publications, with a confidential price list, giving the wholesale prices and a special additional discount, which will be given to stockholders alone. Such discounts to stockholders will amount to an immense sum on the yearly purchase of books, thus yielding large DISCOUNT DIVIDENDS, in addition to the Cash Dividends, on the investment.

The price to be paid by the Company for the American and Foreign patents of the Auto Book Binder, the Auto Book Trimmer and the stereotype and electrotype plates of the Standard Works is $1,000,000; $350,000 in cash and $650,000 in the stock of the Company; the vendors agreeing, however, to donate to the treasury of said Company $150,000 of the stock they receive in part consideration of the conveyance of the above property.

To meet said cash payment of $350,000 to said vendors and to supply the necessary working capital, 50,000 shares of the capital stock of this Company are now offered for public subscription at par ($10 per share). All stock will be issued full paid and non-assessable. Purchasers incur no personal liability. The remaining stock is retained by the vendors, as it is expected to command a large premium when the machines are in universal use.

Subscriptions to stock can be paid for in full on application, or 20 per cent. can be paid on application, the balance in one and two months. Should the stock offered be over-subscribed, preference will be given to subscriptions accompanied by full payment. Early application is, therefore, recommended.

Applications for stock with remittances must be made to WINTHROP POND, Treasurer, THE AUTO BOOK CONCERN at the Company's office, 203 Broadway, New York.

Never since Lo, the poor Indian, skulked through these woods and wiped his weeping nose upon the handle of his tomahawk, have Dry Goods been sold for such small prices as now, and there is just as much difference between our prices and other people's as there is between an Indian chief and a Turk.

AN UNUSUAL OFFERING.

WHITE GOODS—2,500 yards of fine checked nainsook, just right for aprons; our price 15c yard, worth more.

UNDERWEAR—You haven't bought it yet, have you? If not, you will surely want it and we can do you lots of good, and save you some money.

TOWELS—Some pretty good values we have offered in towels, bu this beats them all; actual measurement 22x48 in. fine damask linen and all we ask is 25c.

HOSIERY—Pretty good place for Hosiery; we buy it right from the man who makes it and sell it at the same price other retailers pay for it.

DRESS GOODS—We are selling Dress Goods this season as we never have before, at less than they cost to manufacture.

HOUSEFURNISHINGS—When we say the largest and finest housefurnishing department this side of New York, we mean it. We have everything you want and prices are in your favor.

Our Shoe Business Grows,

WHY WE DO IT

$2 50—Ladies' Fine Dongola Button, stitched soles, patent tips, worth $3.00.
$2 00—Misses Hand Welt Dongola Button patent tip sp. heels worth $2 50.
$1 50—Children's spring heel school shoes, laced, worth $2.00.
$1 50—Boy's school shoes, laced, spring heel or heeled, worth $1 75.

We are still selling Ladies' Overgaiters at 25c. to all who purchase shoes to the amount of $1.25 or more.

WHITE, of Plainfield.

Dry Goods, Cloaks, Millinery and Housefurnishings.

WE COULDN'T, positively could not, attempt to make a better line of Overcoats than we've conceived for this winter. That's saying a deal for us. Everything that's fit and ought to be in a first-class selection of Overcoats, be it for a man, a boy or a little boy has been included in our assortment. We've the best designers and originators of styles obtainable, we know how and what class of materials ought to be made and we've a wonderful idea of the capacity of the average purse—the three items that help to make a Clothing Establishment famous and successful. You should know our wares and prices. You ought to know that we manufacture the Clothing we offer for sale. You should in justice to yourself, make it a point to visit our establishment.

SURPLUS OF GOLD.

Secretary Carlisle Makes an Arrangement With New York Banks.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—As a result of the recent visit to New York of Secretary of the Treasury Carlisle and subsequent conference of bankers a plan has been perfected for increasing to $100,000,000 or more the quantity of surplus gold in the treasury which has been reduced to $65,000,000.

The banks which do business with the important importers keep special deposits at the sub-treasury to cover checks for customs duties which must be paid in cash. The importer having duties to pay takes a certified check to the custom house. At the end of the day it goes with other customs receipts to the sub-treasury, where it is deducted from the deposit of the bank upon which it is drawn.

Customs duties may be paid in any kind of money except national bank notes. The proportion of gold has not averaged over 1 per cent. The largest payments have been made in treasury notes, the notes issued by the government for purchases of silver bullion. The banks will hereafter increase the proportion of gold in their deposits at the sub-treasury. The associate banks of New York have about $90,000,000 in gold.

ARMS FOR BRAZIL.

Hotchkiss Guns From France Transferred to El Cid.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—The Brazilian government has purchased a large quantity of arms in France, and these arms arrived here on the steamship La Touraine. The consignment comprises nearly two hundred cases of guns to the Hotchkiss arms company. One of the officials of this company applied at the custom house for an "immediate permit" to transfer the guns to the El Cid, the steamship purchased for the Brazilian government by Flint & Co., and which is now being fitted up as a dynamite cruiser. The permit for the transfer was at first refused, but after satisfactory proof had been submitted to the collector that the arms were for the Brazilian government and not for Mello, the demand was complied with.

Fiendish Cruelty.

HARTFORD, Conn., Nov. 13.—General Agent Dwight W. Thrall, of the Connecticut humane society, has discovered a case of dreadful cruelty to children in a French-Canadian family, living in Haddam. The man is Victor Girould, and the family consists of a wife and four children. The wife is a stepmother to two of the children. The stepchildren have been beaten until blood flowed from the wounds. The neck of one of them, a boy, has been twisted until it has become out of shape and the head out of place. The children were to have been taken to the country.

What Russell May Do

BOSTON, Nov. 13.—The Beacon says: The very latest political gossip is that Gov. Russell will be a candidate for congress next year in the eighth district. This district is now represented by Hon. Samuel W. McCall, of Winchester, who defeated Hon. John F. Andrew, dem.) by 902 plurality. It is hinted in inside political circles that the governor's popularity would carry him to victory.

Bad Place for Sealers.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 13.—Notices just received in this city have greatly exercised sealing circles. They are in effect that any vessel found sealing within ninety miles of the limit of Commodore group of islands, on the Siberian coast, will be confiscated and officers and crew imprisoned in the mines of Siberia.

You can be Happy.

You know you ought to be bright, cheerful, and happy.

You determine each day that you will be happy yourself, and make others so.

The day is not very old before your brightness is gone, your nerves go "all to pieces," and you are helpless on the couch.

You have falling or displacement of the womb, — causing "bearing down feeling" and backache, — perhaps ovarian troubles, with inflammation of the uterus and leucorrhœa.

Then remember Lydia E. Pinkham made a great discovery. Her Vegetable Compound has cured thousands just like you, and will you.

It is given you by a woman who gave her life to the study of your troubles.

BURNED AND INJURED

Fatal and Destructive Fire at Memphis.

Several Persons Perish in the Y. M. C. A. Hall and Others are Killed and Injured Jumping From Windows—Panic at a Big Meeting.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Nov. 14.—Fire broke out last night in the Schmalzried block on Main street between Monroe and Union streets, and before the flames were checked several lives were lost and nearly half a million dollars worth of property went up in smoke.

The exact number of lives lost, is not known, but a careful estimate places it at four, while four or five were injured, some fatally, in jumping from the burning building.

About a quarter past 7 o'clock people in the vicinity were startled by the report of an explosion and a flash. In an instant the flames were pouring from the lower floor of the six-story building occupied by the Schmalzried hardware company.

The second, third, fourth and fifth stories were occupied by the Young Men's Christian association and it was in this place that the loss of life occurred.

The fire started from the explosion of a large coal oil lamp near the stairway and in three minutes the entire front of the building was in flames, and all means of exit cut off.

There were about fifteen people in the library when the alarm was given. They made a wild rush for the Main street exit only to be driven back by the flames.

Like a herd of sheep they rushed in a bunch for the windows in the rear of the building, but the flames had spread so rapidly that the facings of three of the windows were on fire when they were rescued.

The imprisoned people stood huddled together at the window for a moment or two when the crowd below yelled:

"Leap!" "Jump for your lives!"

One man took the advice, jumped and was caught on a telegraph wire, but was rescued. He was followed a moment later by a comrade, who aimed for the same wire, but missed it and fell to the pavement below. Two other men made the same attempt, but they too missed the wire and went down on top of their comrades.

At this juncture the firemen arrived with ladders which were quickly run up to the windows. Three men were rescued, but before the others could be saved the flames burned the ladder and the remainder perished in the burning building.

A correct list of the killed cannot be learned, if it ever will be known. Secretary Perkins of the Y. M. C. A. is the only person who can give any definite information as to the exact number of lives lost, and he lies in St. Joseph's hospital unconscious, suffering from a fractured skull, internal injuries and a broken arm.

There are half a dozen injured in the hospital, five of whom can not recover.

The buildings damaged and destroyed were all new, having been built a few months ago in place of those destroyed by the million-dollar fire that occurred in February, 1892.

A. K. Perkins, the secretary of the Y. M. C. A. who was fatally injured came to Memphis a few years ago from Pittsfield, Mass., where his mother resides.

When the fire broke out a panic occurred in the auditorium, where six thousand people had assembled to listen to Rev. Sam Jones, who is conducting a revival. For a time the greatest excitement prevailed and several persons were knocked down and trampled upon by the crowd in the mad rush. The ushers had presence of mind enough to throw open the doors of exits and this, together with the clarion voices of Rev. Sam Jones and G. P. M. Turner which could be heard above the din shouting that the fire was a mile away from the auditorium, quieted the people to a great extent.

Full Faith in Italy.

BERLIN, Nov. 14.—The foreign office has at last taken notice of the persistent insinuations published in the Hamburger Nachrichten, a Bismarckian organ, to the effect that Italy has a secret treaty with Russia. The foreign office declares that it desires to make an emphatic denial of these statements, and adds that the German government does not entertain the remotest suspicion of King Humbert's fidelity to the triple alliance.

Jewelry Trade Dull.

ATTLEBORO, Mass., Nov. 14.—According to an authority on the jewelry industry, the output of the factories in Attleboro for the past year is at least 30 per cent. lower than any output in recent years. During average years Attleboro manufacturers place on the market goods representing $1,250,000, but this year the product of the score of shops will not exceed $800,000, if it reaches that amount.

Suing a Sultan.

LONDON, Nov. 14.—Counsel for Miss Jenny Mighell, whose suit against "Mr. Albert Baker," otherwise the sultan of Johore, for breach of promise of marriage was recently dismissed on the ground that the sultan was a ruling sovereign over whom the English courts have no jurisdiction, has lodged appeal against the decision.

Arrangement for the Corbett and Mitchell Contest in Florida.

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—Henry Mason and J. E. T. Bowden, representing the Jacksonville club that is endeavoring to secure the Mitchell-Corbett fight, are in town.

The Jacksonville men found a telegram waiting for them at the hotel. It stated that there would be a meeting of ministers to protest against the fight and that they had better postpone action in New York until Wednesday.

They met Billy Brady, Corbett's manager, and Billy Thompson, representing Mitchell, and the match was partially settled.

A meeting will be held on Wednesday, and if nothing happens in the meantime to upset the plans, the various documents will be signed, giving the fight to Jacksonville for a $20,000 purse, winner to take all, with $2,500 allowed in addition to each man for training and traveling expenses.

The Jacksonville people want the pugilists to do some training in Florida, and the representatives of Corbett and Mitchell promised that the principals would go south at least four weeks before the date of the battle. Brady said Corbett would put in five weeks training in Florida.

FOR POSTAL CLERKS RELIEF.

Proposed Benefit Fund for the Railway Mail Service.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—During the past year there were 403 accidents to railway postoffices, in which 10 clerks were killed, 66 seriously and 115 slightly injured. Supt. James E. White, in his annual report to the postmaster-general, earnestly recommends the passage of a bill which he has drafted, and which provides that, beginning with the commencement of the first fiscal year after the approval of this act, there shall be withheld from the salary of every person employed in the classified railway mail service a sum equal to 1 per cent. per annum of his salary, which shall constitute a fund to be known as the railway mail service relief fund. This fund shall be applied to the relief of any employe who, in the line of duty, shall be permanently injured or disabled. If any employe shall be killed in the line of duty, or shall die within one year as the result of an injury, leaving a widow or minor children, there shall be paid to said widow or children a sum equal to one year's salary.

Belle of Ale.

LONDON, Nov. 14.—The engagement is announced of the Hon. Nellie Lisa Bass, only child and heiress of Baron Burton, of the brewing company of Bass & Co., of Burton-on-Trent, to Bruce Baillie, a Scotch landowner. Miss Bass was at one time engaged to marry Keith Fraser, and her father settled on her £2,000,000 as a marriage portion. The breaking off of this engagement was announced a short time ago. It was then reported in society that Baron Burton desired that his daughter should marry a duke. Upon the death of Baron Burton, his daughter, will inherit £6,000,000. The prospective bridegroom is a cousin of the earl of Elgin, the newly appointed viceroy of India.

Connecticut Mills Resume.

ROCKVILLE, Conn., Nov. 14.—Preparations are making to start up numerous woolen mills in this vicinity. It is expected that the Phoenix mill at Hyneville, the Riverside mill at Stafford Hollow and the mill at Stafford Springs will resume this week. The Vernon mills have resumed work, running five days a week. The mills of the Glastonbury Knitting company, at Manchester, Green and Glastonbury, will start on three-quarters time next Monday. The mills will manufacture for future trade. They have been closed for two months. Rockville mills are all running, but not on full time.

Strange Disappearance.

HUNTINGDON, Pa., Nov. 14.—Miss Martha Cummings, daughter of the late Robert Cummings of Armah township, Mifflin county, left home five weeks ago to visit the world's fair at Chicago. Until two weeks ago Miss Cummings communicated with her relatives regularly but since then no word as to her whereabouts has been received. Her friends fear that she has been foully dealt with and left to seek for her. Miss Cummings was of a deeply religious nature, a prominent worker in the Christian Endeavor society, and her mysteriously absence has caused the greatest alarm.

New Postmasters.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—Among the appointments of fourth-class postmasters are the following:

Massachusetts—W. S. Henry, Lake Pleasant.

New York—F. L. Feeney, Dover Plains; Watson Page, St. Regis Falls; John Marenus, Wallington.

Pennsylvania—D. F. Hostrander, Cammal; James Kerr, Raymilton.

Diphtheria.

BRIDGETON, N. J., Nov. 14.—Five deaths from diphtheria in as many days have occurred in the little village of Greenwich, and the people are greatly alarmed. There are about 25 cases. Mrs. Lemuel Sloan died last night. She nursed two children safely through the disease, and then was stricken herself.

O'Rourke May Go.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Nov. 14.—President Geo. W. Wagner, of the Washington baseball club, has signed a document giving James H. O'Rourke, captain of last season's team, the privilege of negotiating with any club of his choice. O'Rourke does not care to play in Washington next season, preferring to be nearer home.

SOME FEAR TROUBLE

Opinions Regarding the Hawaiian Restoration.

Nothing Known as to the News Received in Washington By the Steamer China.—Minister Willis Probably to Use His Own Discretion as to When to Restore the Queen.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—There is signs of suppressed excitement and activity visible in the state and navy departments.

Of course it is all connected at once with the arrival at San Francisco of the steamer China from Honolulu yesterday.

Following the press advices came a telegram from Commodore Skerrett, who arrived on the steamer. It was the usual formal communication sent in such cases announcing his arrival and subjecting himself to the orders of the navy department.

There were letters of importance to the commodore from the department awaiting his arrival at San Francisco.

To Use His Own Discretion.

It is believed that Minister Willis was permitted to use his own discretion in fixing the time when he should proceed to enforce the new policy of the administration towards the provisional government. Evidently he had made no definite move in that direction up to the morning of the sailing of the China, on the 7th inst.

He had then been three days upon the ground, probably a sufficient time to enable him to arrange his plans, and it was supposed that his communication to the secretary of state, if such was the communication, was a statement to the department of his intentions in the execution of his instructions.

Serious Trouble Predicted.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 14.—Several passengers of the China, who were interviewed, said that the queen could not be restored to the throne without serious trouble(and that now that the provisional government was well established and had well drilled troops, the change could not be made without bloodshed.

Secretary Gresham's communication will prove a bombshell in Hawaiian newspapers which support the provisional government.

They assert that prior to the vote on the question of annexation or restoration of the queen the United States would have to use force.

No Necessity for Force.

In reply to this the bulletin says there is no particular necessity, however, for any dictation or force bill business about it.

The United States will doubtless in the most suave language of diplomacy suggest that the provisional government take the means in question to ascertain if it is duly authorized by the people of these islands to transfer their title.

Something Might Drop.

Should the provisional government be silly enough not take the gentle hint there would, therefore, be something heard drop which would be the last sound ever to enter the ears of the provisional government as the provisional government or any other kind of a government.

At the Hawaiian consulate in this city Consul Wilder said that he had no official communications by the China's mail.

"Suppose," he was asked, "Minister Willis should request, on the part of the United States, that the provisional government step down and out, what would be the answer?"

Will Refuse to Step Out.

"The answer would be that the request could not be granted. The provisional government would decline to entertain any such proposition."

"But if Mr. Willis should threaten the employment of force, what then?"

"In that case, the Hawaiian government could have but one course to pursue. It would reply that resistance to the military or naval power of the United States would be useless. But it would protest with all its moral force against such high handed outrage."

Continuing he said that if after restoring the queen to the throne the United States government would then step aside, the monarchy would not last a day and that bloodshed would follow.

INGERSOLL ON IMMORTALITY.

The Great Infidel Further Explains His Views.

BOSTON, Nov. 14.—An editorial in an afternoon paper says, speaking of Col. Robert S. Ingersoll:

"Why not make public the rumor that the brilliant orator, who has been called the great American infidel, has been heard to say that perhaps he will say in public before he dies that he believes in immortality."

Col. Ingersoll was questioned on the subject later in his apartments in the Adams house, and in reply gave the following autograph statement:

"I never said 'that perhaps before I die I will say in public that I believe in immortality.' I have nothing to conceal on that question. I have always been perfectly frank and have given the transcript of my heart and brain.

"I do not say that death ends all, neither do I say that man is immortal. I say that I do not know. To know is one thing, to believe is another, and to hope is still another.

"I hope for all good—for all joy, for the children of men.

"All I can say about immortality is this: There was a time when I was not, after that I was, now I am, and it may be that it is no more wonderful that I should continue forever now that I have a start than it was that I should begin.

"We love, and those we love die and we cling to the hops, to the wish, that we may meet again. Love was the first to dream of immortality, and as long as we love we shall hope."

DESPERATE DUEL WITH KNIVES.

Two Glass Blowers Who Will Probably Die of Their Injuries.

BELLEVERNON, Pa., Nov. 14.—William Haught and Allen Stephenson are lying at death's door as a result of a terrible fight with knives on Saturday night. The men are glass blowers and were celebrating the recent republican victory. Both had been drinking heavily and late in the night got into a discussion over the qualities of Belgian and American glass blowers.

They finally got into a fight, but were separated.

Haught started home and Stephenson followed, attacking him with a dirk knife. Haught had a knife also and in a dimly lighted street they fought until each was almost cut to pieces and bleeding from a score of dangerous wounds. When found both men were almost exhausted from their terrible struggle and loss of blood. They were carried home.

Physicians say both men will likely die. Should they recover both will be maimed.

To Work on His Message.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—Although congress will meet two weeks from next Monday President Cleveland has not yet begun the actual preparation of his annual message, but he will commence active work on it at once. He will be at the white house to attend the cabinet meeting today, but he will decline to receive any callers except those whom he wishes to consult. Until the message is completed his doors will be open only to cabinet officers and a few others whose views on urgent public matters are desired.

His Personal Character Against Him.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—The president has declined to approve the report of the examining board which recommended Paymastar Frazier of the navy for promotion. This necessitates a re examination of the officer, so that his case resembles that of Commander Johnson. The reasons for the president's action are not stated, but it is reported that they are based upon the personal character of the officer.

Contest Over Women's Votes.

KINGSTON, N. Y., Nov. 14.—There will be a contest in the courts over the election of Luther I. Stillman, for school commissioner of Duchess county. He defeated Edward Drake (dem.,) by 74 votes, and Drake will contest because 103 of the 138 women who voted cast their ballots for Stillman. Drake claims that the women had no right to vote under the constitution.

Reward for Daring Fire Bugs.

NORWICH, N. Y., Nov. 14.—A dastardly attempt to set fire to the new elevator and storehouse of R. D. Eaton was made on Sunday night. Oiled waste was used to ignite a quantity of baled hay stored there. A timely discovery prevented a serious fire. A meeting of business men yesterday subscribed $1,000 as a reward for the arrest and conviction of the incendiaries.

The Late Hamilton Fish's Will.

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—The will of Hon. Hamilton Fish, ex-secretary of state, who died September 7, has just been presented for probate. There was no contest. It gave $5,000 to St. Luke's hospital, $2,000 to the Bellevue training school for nurses, $50,000 to Columbia college, and the balance of his property to his children and grandchildren.

Hon. Charles Amsden Assigns.

CONCORD, N. H., Nov. 14.—Hon. Charles H. Amsden, of Penacook, candidate for governor of the democratic party in 1891, who owns and operates one of the largest cabinet making establishments in New Hampshire if not in New England, has made an assignment for the benefit of his creditors.

Denies He Threw the Bombs.

PARIS, Nov. 14.—Antonio Rinaldi, an Italian, who was arrested at Perpignan, capital of Pyrenees-Orientals, admits that he is the anarchist suspected of complicity in the bomb throwing at the Lyceum opera house in Barcelona, but denies that he had anything to do with the affair.

Cleaned Out the Entire Store.

PRINCETON, Ind., Nov. 14.—Thieves yesterday, while the clerks of Wade's jewelry store were at dinner, broke into the place and carried off everything worth taking. They, in fact, cleaned out the entire store. The loss will run into the thousands.

CURE FOR RHEUMATISM.

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND IS NEW LIFE AND ENERGY.

Inspector Samuel D. Conway Is Permanently Cured—Had Tried Doctors and All Other Remedies Without Any Relief.

Paine's celery compound gives new life and energy to the system.

It is the one true specific for the cure of rheumatism.

It abundantly supplies the materials demanded by the blood and nerves. It is the best possible restorer for elderly people. The period beyond middle life is the most precious part of life. It was meant to be calm, ripe and strong. At 60 one should be like well-seasoned timber. To be feeble and weak is not natural, for nature's tendency is toward health. Weakness and pain simply show the need of better food for the nerves and blood.

Says Samuel D. Conway of St. Louis: "I am 64 years old. I have resided in St.

SAMUEL D. CONWAY.

Louis 27 years, and all this time with the exception of three years I have served in the engineers' department as inspector and overseer.

"Last winter I contracted rheumatism and was laid up. I tried all remedies and doctors, but all failed until I struck Paine's celery compound, which has made a permanent cure of my case. I have recommended it to many, and they have used it with the same result.

"My case was an exception to most others from the fact that sewers are most always built on low grounds, and the inspector is exposed to the water and earth excavated, which has a tendency to fill the system with 'malaria.'"

Mr. Conway is one of the thousands whose rheumatism has been cured by Paine's celery compound.

ELECTION EXPENSES.

What It Cost Some of the Candidates in New York.

ALBANY, Nov. 14.—The certificates of election expenses of candidates voted for at the recent election continue to come in to the secretary of state's office and the certificates of all candidates in a district larger than a county must, according to law, be filed within ten days after election.

The certificates of Capt. John Palmer, the secretary of state elect, shows that he paid the state committee for legitimate campaign expenses, $1,000; Albany county republican committee for a like purpose, $1,250; pasters, $150, and postage, $168.

Mr. Edward T. Bartlett, the associate judge-elect of the court of appeals, contributed $500 to the republican state committee for legitimate campaign expenses, $500 for having one million of his pasters printed, $180 for stamped envelopes and mailing pasters, and $25 to the Tenth (New York) district republican organization for legitimate campaign expenses.

Edward Lauterback, republican candidate for delegate-at-large to the constitutional convention, contributed $500 for necessary expenses to the state committe and $41 50 for printing, etc.

TROLLEY CANAL BOATS.

A Novel Experiment to Be Made By Westinghouse This Week.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 14.—The Westinghouse electric manufacturing company will this week make its first experiment in the use of electricity as a propelling power for canal boats.

The test is to be made on the Erie canal on the level east of Rochester.

The company will use its own motor and dynamo and also some of its special devices for conducting the electric fluid from the trolley wires to the motor on the boat. An ordinary canal scow has been leased for the test.

The interest in this experiment has revived the project of a ship canal from this city to Lake Erie by what is known as the Allegheny river route.

A novel idea, but which it is claimed is perfectly feasible, has been under discussion. It is to bring the ships through the canal by electricity, using the power of the many heavy falls along the river to generate the propelling force. If this should prove practicable, it would save one of the largest items of expense in operating such a canal.

STABBED IN A RESTAURANT.

A Servian Special Envoy to France Wounded in Paris.

PARIS, Nov. 14.—M. Georgevich, special envoy from Servia to France, was stabbed in a public restaurant on the Avenue de l'Opera last evening.

His assailant dropped the knife on the restaurant floor and fled before anybody recovered presence of mind to stop him.

M. Georgevich fell from his chair and the other persons in the restaurant hurried, panic stricken, into the street.

The wounded man was taken to a hospital where the physicians pronounced his wound severe but not dangerous.

The motive of the crime has not been ascertained.

Death of Ex-Mayor Frisbie.

PASSAIC, N. J., Nov. 14.—Hon. Eaton N. Frisbie, who was elected republican mayor of Elmira, N. Y., in 1882, is dead at his home on Paulson avenue, aged 60 years. He was prostrated on Wednesday with erysipelas of the brain and was unconscious thereafter.

THE DAILY PRESS.

A. L. FORCE, - - Publisher and Proprietor.
WALTER IRVING CLARKE, - Managing Editor.

THE WEATHER.

For New Jersey To-morrow: Fair; Slightly Cooler; Winds Generally Westerly.

The Elizabeth Journal speaks of the huskiness of Jim Martine's voice. Jim got it speaking in the cornfields.

John Ulrich has been suggested as a possibility for State Comptroller. If the Republicans insist on installing some one else in place of so faithful and experienced an official as Wm. C. Heppenheimer, they can surely find no man more worthy than the Plainfield ex-Judge. Mr. Ulrich has been a most devoted and zealous Republican, and his appointment would be a reward of merit and bring pleasure to his host of friends in both political parties.

THE CAMPAIGN IN UNION COUNTY.

(From The Summit Record.)

The disastrous defeat which the Democrats of this county suffered on Tuesday last, was the inevitable result of its lack of appreciation of the conditions with which it was confronted.

It might perhaps have been possible to prevent the Republican victory, had the Democratic conventions seized the opportunity presented, to place the party and its nominees on a platform of unequivocal opposition to race-track gambling. Such a course might not have insured victory this year, but it would at least have averted the ignominy unavoidable in such a defeat as the Democracy has suffered, and would have left the organization in good shape to cope with its foes in future contests.

Instead of this, however, the Democratic ticket has carried down with it one of the best and cleanest county candidates ever presented for the support of the voters of Union county.

In point of ability and honesty, James E. Martine is without a peer in Union county and we are absolutely certain he was sound on the question of repealing the race-track laws. It is his misfortune that he was overborne by bad counsels, and deterred by unwise and imprudent friends from taking a position of unalterable opposition to last year's race-track laws. Had he followed his own judgment or acted upon the promptings of his honest convictions, he would have made his campaign as an advocate of the repeal of the laws.

His fate illustrates in the most effective way, the folly of believing that "diplomatic silence" on questions in which important issues are involved, is much of a stock in trade for the nominees of any organization. The public despises cowardice in a political party and is certain to rebuke any candidate, however worthy, who endeavors to "carry water on both shoulders".

Not one of the victims of last Tuesday's cyclone deserves so much sympathy as James E. Martine, or was so worthy a better fate.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—The King's Daughters of Hope chapel will give an entertainment Nov. 23, in the chapel.

—Willett, whose shoes sell on their merits, tells something new in his ad. again today.

—J. F. MacDonald never does anything by halves, but by doubles, as you'll see by reading his ad.

—You surely are going to Rome and Spain, with Mr. Ragan, after the delightful experience of last night.

—"The Price of a Soul" will be the subject of Mr. Crane's talk to men in the Y. M. C. A. rooms this evening at 8.

—Ladies as well as gentlemen are invited to Mr. Crane's Bible readings in the Y. M. C. A. rooms daily at 3:30 p. m.

—"The Prodigal Husband", a stirring dramatic success, will be presented by a strong company in Music Hall Saturday night.

—The clerks in Edsall's store will be entertained at the home of Frank Putnam, Orchard place, Thursday evening of this week.

—John H. Kitchen, contractor and builder, is about to erect a handsome residence on Grandview avenue, for Jacob Voehl.

—Monroe Avenue chapel was well filled with people last evening, when Dr. Ryman gave his interesting illustrated lecture "From Venice to Paris".

—That store "Under the Bank" is a busy beehive, and no wonder, when the bargains offered are so phenomenal. VanEmburgh & Son are up to date.

—Fred Randolph, colored, kicked up such a rumpus around his home on East Third street, Sunday night, that the neighbors had him locked up. Today Judge Coddington fined him for his fun.

—Patrick Waters, an old man, of Madison avenue, was knocked down and run over by a careless driver at Front street and Madison avenue last night. He was badly bruised, and it is a wonder he was not serious hurt.

Could n't Get Past Elizabeth.

Alice Robinson, colored, who has been evading the police of Plainfield, New Brunswick, and elsewhere, ever since she stole dresses from her mistress in Fanwood, was captured in Elizabeth last night and held for trial.

Through the courtesy of the Plainfield Club of Princeton College, The Daily Princetonian and The Nassau Literary Magazine have been added to the regular list of periodicals at the Free Public Library.

Athletes of the Present Day.

J. E. Sullivan, Secretary of the Amateur Athletic Union, President of the Pastime Athletic Club, and athletic editor of The Sporting Times, writes:

"For years I have been actively connected with athletic sports. I always found it to my advantage to use ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS while in training as they quickly remove soreness and stiffness; and when attacked with any kind of pains, the result of slight colds, I always use ALLCOCK'S with beneficial results. I have noticed that most athletes of the present day use nothing else but ALLCOCK'S PLASTERS."

PLAINFIELD SEES THE WORLD'S FAIR.

H. H. RAGAN TAKES THE TOWN UNDER HIS GUIDANCE.

Safe and Delightful Journey to the White City and Back Again—Everything Worth Seeing, Revoled in by a Large and Eager Audience.

Lecturer Ragan's beautiful illustrations and vivid language have become famous in this city, and popular, too, as was proved by the crowded house in Music Hall last night. The first of the course of three Ragan lectures was illustrative of a subject very near to every true American's heart, "The World's Columbian Exposition", and everyone who saw Mr. Ragan's stereopticon views, last night, and heard him tell of the wonderful White City in the west, felt as he left Music Hall as if he must have been in a wonderland and armed the while with seven-league boots.

It was an easy and profitable journey that the lecturer conducted, and the magical array of beautiful sights spread before the eyes of those who accompanied him was enjoyed thoroughly because it was unaccompanied by any of the fatigue of ordinary sightseeing.

In rapid and choice language Mr. Ragan gave an introductory of historical interest and value, and then plunged with his audience into the heart of the Exposition grounds. There was no vain waste of words; no delay in bringing into view the salient features of the great international show. The magnificent buildings were shown in all their stately grandeur, in black and white, and exquisite coloring, and so distinctly that none of the beauty of detail was lost. One might easily imagine himself standing successively on the points of vantage about Jackson Park, looking with eager eyes upon the greatest and grandest, and withal the most artistic of the world's expositions.

To those who had not experienced the delights of personal observation at Chicago this summer, the lecture and its illustrations, last night, formed a pleasurable education; while others who had witnessed all that Mr. Ragan produced were glad to feast their eyes once again upon the beautiful sights, so perfectly shown on canvas.

Mr. Ragan's next lecture, Monday night of next week, will undoubtedly crowd Music Hall to its utmost capacity. There were few unoccupied seats last night, and the lecture on Rome is of such well-known excellence that doubtless the few seats now unreserved will be engaged before the week is gone.

Their Journey to the Wedding.

The trouble that the Congregational church officers are going to, to witness the wedding of their pastor, the Rev. C. L. Goodrich, tonight, testifies the depth of their regard for him. The wedding is to be at the home of the bride in Montclair. First they go in carriages to the Plainfield station; thence by Central Railroad to Elizabeth; there climb to the Pennsylvania's elevated tracks and journey to Newark; in Newark take the electric cars to the D. L. & W. station; by D. L. & W. train go to Montclair, and then go by carriage to the home of the bride.

Cleverly Catalogued.

The catalogues of all the books on the shelves of the Plainfield Free Public Library, numbering a little over 12,000, are now on sale at the Library. This catalogue is so arranged as to show not only all that the Library contains of a given author, but also all that it has on any given subject, the full index giving a fair idea of the resources of the library. These lists so long asked for cannot fail to be of the greatest convenience to all who make use of the Library.

O'Hara's Story a Fairy Tale.

The police believe that Michael O'Hara of Elizabeth was faking when he told them yesterday that he had been robbed by tramps in Plainfield. The police had a hot chase after the tramps accused, but caught them in proof of their pluck and training. The tramps had three gold rings, but had not O'Hara's watch or money. The tramps were sent to jail for 20 days for the trouble they gave the police.

Another Boom in Real Estate.

Charles H. Hand, the real-estate hustler, and John F. McIntyre, another energetic capitalist, have bought from the Central New Jersey Land Improvement Company a plot of land at Berckman street and South avenue and will open up desirable building lots for sale on easy terms.

A Good Sheriff and Good Bondsmen.

Sheriff-elect Kyte, of Fanwood, was sworn in by Judges McCormick, Wiley and Hyer, this morning at 10, in the Sheriff's office, Elizabeth. He ecters at once on his duties as Sheriff. His bondsmen are John Kean, Jr., Hamilton Kean, Frank Bergen, E. B. Pope and John W. Whelan, each of whom gives surety for $4,000.

L. W. Miller of Fanwood was sworn in as Under-Sheriff.

Oh, Chris!

Christopher Columbus, a peddler, is accused by Spencer Conway of theft. In a warrant issued by Justice Nash and given to Constable Mattox to serve, Conway says that Christopher robbed him of harness, ash shovel, scythe and rake.

The American Catarrh Cure

Is the result of twenty-six years' study and treatment of the disease. One bottle convinces the most skeptical. It is always ready for use, needing neither douche nor atomizer. It restores the hearing, cures the hawking cough and expectorating, removes the headache and nose bleeding, increases the appetite, produces sound sleep, invigorates the whole system and increases the vitality. Prepared only by W. S. Jones, M. D., No. 1336 South Eighth street, Philadelphia. For sale by J. W. Randolph, 21 West Front street. Price $1.

MARTINE TALKS ON POLITICS.

SPEAKS PLEASANTLY OF THE CAMPAIGN AND ITS RESULTS.

Favors Amendments to Existing Election Laws, and Would Have Compulsory Voting—Feels that the Ante-Election-Day Distribution of Ballots Is a Bad Thing.

James E. Martine, recent candidate for State Senator on the Democratic ticket, was met in Elizabeth shortly after election day by a Journal representative. His genial appearance—says the Journal—showed conclusively that he had worked earnestly, vigorously and unremittingly during the recent campaign, but the few days of rest has restored his voice—which had grown exceedingly husky from speaking—almost to its normal condition. Only a slight hoarseness was noticeable.

Mr. Martine spoke pleasantly of the campaign and its results, accepting the latter with philosophic patriotism. There are some features of the struggle which he condemned, holding that they were too small politics to be indulged in, but on the whole had little else to censure.

With reference to the methods of the elections Mr. Martine was emphatic. He declared that the ballot law should be amended as soon as practicable in several particulars, and that especially should the distribution of ballots before election day be also prohibited. He held that the distribution of these ballots, as at present, served to nullify much of what was good in the law, and gave wide opportunity for vicious practices.

He further said that he was in favor of compulsory voting. He believed that every man, legally authorized to vote, should be compelled to cast his ballot, and only be excused on the certificate of a physician that he was physically unable to attend the polls. Upon this point he said that the State had a right to command the assistance of every citizen in the payment of taxes, that it could command the personal influence and physical force of every man to put down riots and protect property, and it ought also to have the right to command every legal voter to assist in carrying on its government by casting his vote.

Mr. Martine spoke in conclusion of the high regard he had for Mr. Voorhees and Mr. Kyte.

ELEGANTLY CUT OVERCOATS.

Watson & Co. Show Them at 20 Per Cent. Below the Usual Retail Rates.

Beyond all question Watson & Co. make the handsomest overcoats in Newark, and now show in all their Broad and Market streets windows elegant Montenacs, Fur Beavers, Black Meltons, Beavers, Astrakans and all the solid shades of Kerseys at $12, $15, $18, $20, $22 and $25, which cannot be duplicated for style and price outside of their concerns, as they make them in their well organized shops at the closest figures consistent with perfect workmanship.

If you want a really handsome garment, try one of their new Astrakans now selling for $20.

The Stephenson Failure.

Last Saturday it was stated in these columns that Wm. Stephenson's place of business was closed, and that it was rumored he had made an assignment.

A Press representative succeeded in interviewing Mr. Stephenson this morning, and the statement was confirmed. Mr. Stephenson said: "I think my creditors will be fully satisfied, and I will be the largest loser. I have no rich friends who are willing to stand by me at present, and hopes of continuing my business are not very bright."

The assignment was made to J. A. Smith, the West Front street grocer. It is hoped that Mr. Stephenson will be able to resume at an early date. The Press joins his friends in hoping that his embarrassment may be only temporary.

Birthday Party in the Mountains.

A very pleasant birthday party was given to Miss Edna VanNest at the home of her uncle, John VanNest, of Main street, Martinville, last night. Time passed pleasantly for all. After games and singing a bountiful supper was served. Those present were:

The Misses Josie Waldron, Annie Jenkins, Matie Blimm, Chrissie Bartle, May Smith, Emma Newman, Edna VanNest, Cora VanNest, Mattie Cook, Florence Beekman, Alice Vactor, Hattie VanNest, and Messrs. Frank Davis, James VanNest, Marcus Beekman, Geo. Newman, Wallace Limbarger, Eugene Davis, Will Mallott, Chauncey Colthar, Joe VanNest and Edwin VanNest.

Theosophy in Grace Church.

The meeting of the Ministers' Association was held in Grace church last evening. There was a great attendance, and the session was an interesting one.

The Rev. Charles E. Herring read an able paper on "Theosophy", which all enjoyed. The subject was afterwards discussed by the ministers.

A Lost Art Recovered.

The new mail box at Front and Grove streets sports a gorgeous coat of bright vermillion. From the appearance of the other boxes about town The Press had been led to fear that the painting of such things was one of the lost arts.

TEDIOUS SUFFERING FINDS RELIEF.

HAVERHILL N. H.—In many cases physicians have pronounced as incurable, diseases of the skin and blood. Mrs. Hodsdon of this place abandoned the old school method and used three bottles of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy and was cured.

In October, 1890, and for a year after Mrs. Hodsdon suffered from a diseased ankle bone. She had always been troubled with salt rheum which aggravated the diseased limb. Prescriptions and medicines of all sorts were used, but with no benefit. Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy was tried, and it drove the poison out of her blood, healed the ulcerous sores, and restored Mrs. Hodsdon to health and strength.

Favorite Remedy cleanses the blood, and strengthens the nerves. In cases of scrofula and salt rheum, it cures where all else fails.

WAS DR. RIPLEY A SUICIDE?

MYSTERY OF A SPONGE FOUND UPON HIS PILLOW.

It May Have Held Chloroform—But Coroner Schultze Declared that Death Was Caused by Cerebral Apoplexy—No Further Examination was Permitted—Dr Weston was Stayed by a Note from the Coroner's Office when About to Make an Autopsy.

Circumstances that have been developed concerning the death of Chauncey B. Ripley, of Westfield, in the Hoffman House, have led the New York Herald to the inference that Mr. Ripley committed suicide by inhaling chloroform or some other volatile poison, notwithstanding Coroner Louis W. Schultze's investigation of the case and his declaration that Mr. Ripley's death was due to cerebral apoplexy.

Mr. Ripley was found dead in his bed on the fifth floor of the hotel about noon Sunday. He had not been seen about the hotel since the previous Friday, and his door was forced.

The body was found in bed with the face turned to the wall. The head rested on a pillow, on which, close to his mouth, was found a sponge.

The sponge exhaled no odor, but even though it had been saturated with chloroform on Friday night—the probable date of his death—the drug would have evaporated. The arms were folded and the attitude of the body showed that death had apparently been painless.

In accordance with the appointments to duty of the coroners on Sunday the case did not come under Coroner Schultze's jurisdiction but under that of Coroner's Physician McNulty. Coroner Schultze happened to enter the Hoffman House on Sunday afternoon and on being informed of Mr. Ripley's death remarked:

CORONER SCHULTZ WAS OBLIGING.

"Why, I am a physician as well as a Coroner and I can dispose of this case for you without any further delay. Then I can give a permit for the removal of the body. So there will be no further trouble in having the body in the house."

Then the Coroner visited the room where Mr. Ripley's body lay and pronounced death due to cerebral apoplexy.

Sexton A. Meurer, of Trinity chapel in West Twenty-fifth street, was asked by the hotel clerk, meanwhile, to remove the body. He telephoned to Undertakers H. E. Taylor & Co., of 163 Bowery. The body was taken to the Bowery establishment.

There Dr. Weston, Coroner's physician, expected to find it, and, if necessary, perform an autopsy. To Dr. Weston's surprise he found this undated note from the Coroner's office awaiting him:

CORONER'S OFFICE, NEW YORK.

DEAR DR. WESTON:—Coroner L. W. Schultze directs me to notify you that he has taken charge of the death of Chauncy B. Ripley and that he had last night granted a death certificate, and that any further examination is unnecessary. Yours truly,

EDWARD F. REYNOLDS, Clerk.

Mr. Sawyer, the assistant employed in H. E. Taylor's establishment, removed the body from the Hoffman House to the Bowery rooms. He said to me last evening:

"I reached Mr. Ripley's room about 2 Sunday afternoon and from the appearance of the body I was the first to disturb it and on turning it away from the wall I discovered a sponge on the pillow very near Mr. Ripley's nose.

THERE WAS A SPONGE NEAR HIS FACE.

"The sponge was, of course, dry. There was blood on the face, but that often appears after a body has been some time lifeless and not cared for.

"I looked for a chloroform bottle, but saw none. I remembered, however, that others had been in the room before me. I did see a bottle of liquor on the centre table.

"I suppose it was whiskey. There were no papers on the table showing that Mr. Ripley had been writing.

"Coroner Schultze issued the burial permit to Sexton Meurer."

Dr. Daniel P. Pease, who has had an office at the Hoffman House, told a reporter last evening that he was one of the first persons to visit Mr. Ripley's room, having been summoned at once when the body was found, that he did not see a sponge on Mr. Ripley's pillow, but he made no special investigation of the body after he saw that the man was dead.

Mr. Ripley's brother, Dr. John H. Ripley, of 305 Lexington avenue, said yesterday that he did not believe Mr. Ripley had committed suicide.

Mr. Ripley's body will be taken today from Taylor's undertaking rooms to Westfield, unless further investigation of the cause of death is deemed necessary, and a funeral service will be held by the Rev. Newton W. Caldwell in the First Presbyterian church.

The interment will be in Fairview Cemetery, where Mr. Ripley's wife was buried ten years ago.

Bad Bicycle Borrowers.

The two lads Barber and VanNess, who were arrested yesterday for "borrowing" bicycles from the High School yard, and riding them to Metuchen and other points, were to be sent to the Reform School, but as their parents interceded Judge Coddington released them on good behavior, with a fine of $5 apiece.

HYMENEAL.

Williams—Daft.

[From The Seattle (Wash.) Telegraph, Sunday, Nov. 5.]

On last Friday evening Alfred Williams and Miss Matilda Juliet Daft were united in marriage at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Daft, 1908 Joy street, the Rev. Wallace Nutting officiating. Only the families of the contracting couple were present, and after the ceremony had been performed a splendid wedding dinner was served. The house had been artistically decorated for the occasion with flowers, evergreens and autumn leaves, and presented an exceedingly attractive appearance.

Mr. Williams is with the firm of Thomas & Co., financial agents, and is probably one of the best known young men in the city, owing to his previous connection with the City Government and the Spring Hill Water Company. He has a host of friends who wish him and his bride every pleasure and success possible. Leo Daft, father of the bride, is one of the foremost pioneers of electrical invention in this country, and is well-known as such throughout the Eastern States.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams will remain in Seattle and have taken up their residence at 1900 Joy street.

Oyster Roast at the Mason Home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Parker Mason entertained a few of their friends, in a most novel way, at their home on Central avenue, last evening. A genuine "Oyster Roast" was prepared by the chef of the Country Club, and served to the guests. The scene of all this gaiety was in the basement of the house, which, with the touch of artistic hands, was made to represent a summer garden. The abundance of evergreens, flowers and lamps, carried out the effect to a reality, and one could not help but enjoy the hospitality of host and hostess.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Runkle, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Fisk, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Gilbert, Mr. and Mrs. Frank O. Herring, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Booth, Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Brown, Mrs. G. K. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Stockton, Mrs. Corlies, Miss Corlies, Miss Johnson, of Bridgeport, Mr. and Mrs. Ladd, A. D. Shepard, Jr., J. Dunbar Wright and A. A. Wright.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

The fifth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Bunn will be celebrated at their home Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Mansfield Hummer, of Annandale, were guests of Borough Councilman and Mrs. L. A. Hummer, over Sunday.

T. O. Doane, S. Ryder, A. Saltzman, H. W. Force, E. P. Thorn and Wallace Vail have kindly consented to serve as bearers at the funeral of James H. Force tomorrow afternoon.

Willard M. Miner, of 339 East Second street, has been engaged as electrician and general manager for the American Manufacturing and Engineering Company, of 96 Broadway, New York. This company is one of the enterprises of the expert electrician, F. E. Kinsman.

Charles Barry, formerly of Jackson avenue, North Plainfield, and now prize coachman for Christian Schepflin the prince clothing manufacturer, wears a broadguage smile today, as a badge of rejoicing over the advent of a 10-pound boy who since 11:30 a. m. yesterday has been an added joy to his household.

James Love, one of J. A. Smith's faithful clerks, went to Succasunna, last evening, the home of his parents. Today his father, Marshall Love, celebrates his fiftieth birthday, and the children will all be home to join in the festivities. James says he may do some hunting before he gets back.

Invitations are out today for the first formal dance to be given by the Park Club Saturday night. Other dances will be given by the club during the winter. The patronesses for next Saturday are Mrs. Samuel St. J. McCutchen, Mrs. William L. Saunders, Mrs. James T. Scott, Mrs. Chas. A. Reed, Mrs. B. A. Hegeman, Jr., Mrs. W. J. Boome, Mrs. Geo. C. Evans and Mrs. Wm. L. Brown.

Stirring Address and Good Results.

At the men's meeting conducted by Mr. Crane, at the Y. M. C. A. rooms last evening, seven young men arose and thereby professed to have accepted salvation through Christ. The speaker proved from God's Word that an unbeliever is "condemned already because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God". He illustrated the absurdity of refusing salvation now and expecting a further chance in the life to come or even in this life by supposing the case of a man condemned for murder and refusing a pardon.

Mr. Crane painted the picture of a trial scene and carried it through to the execution of the criminal.

A HEAD FOR LOCAL CHARITIES.

THE STATE CHARITIES AID SOCIETY RECOMMENDS CONSOLIDATION.

An Enthusiastic Meeting at the Crescent Avenue Church—Rev. Dr. McAllister Presides—Mr. deForest Speaks on Methods—Committee Appointed to Consummate Plans.

A large and enthusiastic meeting of the Union County Branch of the State Charities Aid Association was held last night in the parlors of the Crescent Avenue church. Every charity in Plainfield was represented at the meeting, and an unusual amount of interest was manifested by those present. Senator-elect Foster M. Voorhees, President of the Union County Branch of the Association, was to have presided at the meeting, but was unable to come on account of pressing business. A communication from him was read, expressing his regret at not being present. Dr. McAllister, of Elizabeth, Vice-President of the Branch, presided in the absence of Mr. Voorhees.

Robert W. de Forest, President of the Charities Organization Society of New York, spoke at some length on the methods and objects of the society. He told of the necessity of educating public opinion in as to the proper methods of charitable organization. At present while there are many people willing and anxious to aid the poor and needy their efforts are often productive of more harm than good as there is no system in the relief and one person may be receiving aid from several sources at once and no one be the wiser for it, while some worthy and needy people may be neglected entirely. One of the primary functions of a Charities Aid Society is thorough investigation of every case, and a step to be taken after investigation is the registration of all cases requiring help as soon as they are brought to the notice of the society.

In a place the size of Plainfield an organization to which the other charities can turn for information and advise is absolutely essential to the proper administration of charitable aid. Nothing is so injurious to a community as indiscriminate alms giving. It generally fails to meet the needy cases and encourages a class of paupers that would not otherwise exist. Mr. deForest gave several examples to illustrate his point and demonstrate the evil of unsystematic charity. It will be found in the practical working of a Charities Organization Society that it is best to have one or two paid officers to do the real work, some people who can be depended upon and are at the order of the society. In addition to this the friendly visitor is a great help to the society. A society of this kind does not disburse funds from its own treasury to relieve needy people. It acts more as a head which does not interfere with the functions of the other charitable societies and directs only as it is asked for advice. An ideal position for a Charities Organization Society would be for it to be in immediate communication with a benevolent society of some kind, in fact to have the offices of the two in the same building so that direct and immediate mutual aid would be practicable.

After Mr. de Forest's remarks the meeting discussed the questions broached and much additional light was thrown on the subject by the debate.

The following resolutions were drawn up as the result of the meeting:

Resolved, That the Board of Managers and Advisory Board of the Relief Association, with others selected by the board, be requested to take into consideration the matter, with a view to ascertaining by what method the charities of Plainfield can be administered so as to carry out the principles of organized charity, and that this committee be asked to report to a meeting called by them for the purpose.

LYNCH GETS THROUGH.

Finishes His Bowling in the Tournament, With an Average of 167.

In the Lyceumn bowling tournament, Lynch concluded last night, making his average 167 for the 14 games. The scores were:

Flynn	135	Mack	130
M. Winn	132	M. Mack	103
Flynn	154	W. J. Kiely	128
J. J. Lynch	165	W. J. Kiely	140
J. J. Curren	125	J. J. Hibbitts	133
J. J. Traynor	143	J. J. Curren	140

In a practice game Lynch bowled 209.

The last game of the series between the Cyclers and Non-Cyclers of the club will be rolled tonight, and it will be for blood.

ALL AGAINST MELLO

The Rebel Admiral Said to Have Little Support.

All the Orleans Princes Described as Skinflints, and it is Not Believed That They are Aiding the Revolt—Firing Continues Night and Day.

LONDON, Nov. 14.—Members of the Brazilian legation here have heard nothing from Rio Janeiro as to President Peixoto's reviving martial law, or Admiral Mello's preparing to bombard the city again. They discredit the current reports on both subjects.

A dispatch from Paris says that the Brazilian minister there declined to-day to make any statement as to his latest advices from Rio Janeiro.

Orleans Princes Skinflints.

A. N. Feitosa, secretary of the legation in Paris, said that he discredited all reports of Admiral Mello's receiving financial aid from the Count d'Eu, Dom Pedro's son-in-law. "All the Orleans princes are skinflints," said Senor Feitosa. "The Duke de Nemours, d'Eu's father, would never advance his son money with which to attempt the conquest of Brazil. I am convinced that the count has no hope of the restoration of the empire."

Senor Guonabara, formerly Brazilian deputy and, at the same time editor of the Jornal do Commercio, in Rio Janeiro, said to the United Press correspondent in Paris last night:

Thinks Mello is Alone.

"I should not be a bit surprised if Admiral Mello began the revolution on his own account. He has no support in the country and has obtained no money from persons in the republic.

"Since he opened hostilities he must have been supplied with fun is from monarchist committees in London and Paris. His go-between in such transactions is Hermano Ramos, one of his relatives.

Proof of Mello's Object.

"If any proof was wanted of Mello's monarchist affiliations, his nomination of Silveira Martins as foreign minister of the provisional government ought to be sufficient. Martins headed the revolt in South Brazil some months since with the express object of restoring the monarchy.

"The return to the monarchy is impossible, however, in Brazil.

Monarchy Out of the Question.

"If Mello should take Rio Janeiro and try to restore the old imperial family, all the richest provinces would declare themselves independent states under republican forms of government. The rich provinces have prospered greatly under the republic. The restoration of the monarchy would mean a decline of their prosperity and they would refuse to make the sacrifice."

Firing Night and Day.

LONDON, Nov. 14.—The Times has this dispatch from Rio Janeiro: "There was heavy firing on Sunday and Monday by the government forts on Villegaignon island. The outside walls were much damaged, but the interior was left intact. Two were killed and seven were wounded. The troops at Mt. Castello opened a musketry fire at 1,200 yards on Monday. Fort Villegaignon and the warship Aquidaban replied with machine guns, killing twenty soldiers and four spectators. The firing continues night and day.

Big Damages for the Loss of an Eye.

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—Anna E. Swinerton, of Chicago, whose husband is said to be manager of an express company there, has just obtained in the court of common pleas a verdict for $10,000 against George Le Boutillier, the dry goods merchant of Fourteenth street. She claimed that while in the store one of the boys employed there had made a practice of snapping pins and one of them had hit her in the eye and destroyed the sight.

Wants Him Disbarred.

BOSTON, Nov. 14.—A petition for the disbarment of Moody Morrill, the missing lawyer and business man, has been filed in the office of the clerk of the Suffolk county superior court by the Bar association. The petition is based on the alleged misconduct of Morrill in connection with a transaction about a mortgage which resulted in the loss of $4,000 to Jennie A. Eastman, the administratrix of the estate of J. B. Eastman.

To Increase the Gold Surplus.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—The plan of the banks for increasing the amount of surplus gold in the treasury by making larger the proportion of gold in their special deposits at the sub-treasury to meet customs payments, has partly gone into operation. One bank yesterday made its entire deposit in gold and five others deposited more gold than usual.

Captain Bourke Vindicated.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—The vindication of John G. Bourke of the Third cavalry, author and soldier, on the charges preferred against him for his conduct in the Garza campaign on the Mexican border, has been completed by an order just issued by the war department directing Captain Bourke to join his regiment in Texas.

Edwin Booth Memorial Service.

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—Memorial services in honor of the late Edwin Booth were held yesterday afternoon in the Madison Square concert hall. An assemblage composed of men and women prominent in the world of arts and letters crowded the beautiful hall to its utmost capacity.

Will Reduce Train Service.

BOSTON, Nov. 14.—The Old Colony railroad company will take off half a dozen trains, beginning Monday next, reducing train mileage by nearly 1,000 miles per day. Vice-President Kendrick says they will not be important trains.

Now a Torpedo Boat.

CITY ISLAND, N. Y., Nov. 14.—The work on the Javalin has been completed. She is now a torpedo boat similar to the Fiessen. She left Woods' yard last night, in tow, for New York.

A CHICAGO CATERER.

He is a Very Popular Man in His Own City.

SOME VERY INTERESTING THINGS HE HAS TO TELL.

And As He Is a Famous Caterer He Knows Just What the People Want.

One of the most famous and popular caterers in the city of Chicago is John E. Shaw of 573 Madison street. Everybody knows him and everybody is familiar with his ability to provide just what the people want.

The extraordinary amount of work incident to the World's Fair almost prostrated Mr. Shaw. He was terribly run down, weak, nervous, tired all the time, until he became a mere shadow of himself

He had successfully catered for others, now it was necessary that he should be catered for. He found just the thing and now is able to cater for people when they are sick as well as in health.

He is an interesting talker:

"The great strain of the past few days did indeed break down my health and strength, he said, "and I grew weak and dizzy, tired easily and was terribly nervous.

I was often absent minded and drowsy and my memory was very poor. I could get nothing to do me any good until I used Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. I found this wonderful medicine the finest thing I have ever used It is better than the combined services of doctors for years.

"When I began to take it I was a mere shadow. Now I have wholly recovered my health and strength, and entirely through the marvelous health giving properties of this remedy.

"I most earnestly recommend its use, and all my friends to whom I have recommended it tell the same story—it cures every time.

Everybody says the same thing, and from the unanimity of opinion of the doctors and the people, we are assured that this great and widely known remedy is just what our sick and suffering citizens require to restore them to health. All the doctors say that it does cure, and all sufferers from nervousness, weakness, poor blood, debility, stomach, kidney or liver troubles should give it an immediate trial. It is purely vegetable and harm less. Take it yourself and give it to your children. It will cure.

It is indorsed by physicians because it is the discovery and prescription of the famous Dr. Greene, of 35 W. 14th street, New York, the most successful specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases. The doctor can be consulted free, personally or by letter.

THE NEW TARIFF BILL

Big Revenues Proposed By an Income Tax.

The Exemption to Be High Enough to Exclude Laboring People—Other Changes in Internal Revenue Laws Not Necessary Then—Several Reciprocity Sections to Be Wiped Out.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—A revenue of $50,000,000 is expected by the democratic of the ways and means committee from the moderate income tax which they propose to incorporate in the new revenue bill. The rate of the tax will probably be 2 per cent. and the exemption will be high enough to exclude the great mass of laboring men and people on small salaries. The limit now under discussion is from $3,500 to $4,000.

A good many statistics have been prepared by the treasury experts on the incomes of the country and the rates of revenue obtained under different plans, and it is believed that the 2 per cent. rate will yield a handsome addition to the revenue of the government.

May Increase the Rates.

If the increase in the revenue should prove insufficient after a year or two to meet the demands of the treasury, the rate might be slightly increased, or the limit of exemption lowered.

One of the attractions of the income tax to those members of the committee who are advocating it is that it allows changes in the rate to meet the demands of the treasury without disturbing the industries of the country as in the case of changes in the tariff.

No Change in Internal Revenue Laws.

If the income tax is adopted in the form now under consideration, other changes in the internal revenue laws will not be necessary. There will be no increase in the beer tax, the whiskey tax, the tax on manufactured tobacco or the tax on cigars.

The question of duty on sugar is still an open one, but it is not unlikely that a duty will be imposed of about one cent per pound on both raw and refined sugars.

To Abandon the Sugar Bounty.

This will enable the committee to abandon the bounty now paid paid the Louisiana and Nebraska growers without leaving them absolutely without protection against foreign competition. It is also desired to strike a blow at the sugar trust by making the duty on refined sugar substantially the same as on raw sugar.

The reciprocity section, which deals with sugar, hides, tea and coffee, will probably be stricken from the law, but without necessarily abrogating the existing reciprocity arrangements with Germany, with Spain regarding Cuba and with the South American countries.

To Remain Free of Duty.

The articles named will remain free of duty from all countries, unless a small tax is imposed on sugar, and it is not believed that the countries now having reciprocity arrangements will desire to abrogate them because the retaliatory duties against Venezuela, Columbia and Hayti may be abandoned.

Coal was on the free list in the original draft of the tariff bill in accordance with the pledge of the democratic national platform to modify the McKinley law in the direction of free raw materials.

Weakening on Coal.

The protest from the coal districts of West Virginia, Pennsylvania, Tennessee and Alabama has been so strong, however, that some of the members of the committee are weakening and may vote to retain a small duty.

Chairman Wilson hopes to present the completed bill to the republican members of the ways and means committee by the latter part of next week, so that they can have their majority report ready upon the meeting of congress in December.

Mr. Wilson's Plans.

He is not in favor of a party caucus to pass upon the bill but believes that it should be fairly considered by the house as presented by the committee. This was the course with the Mills bill, and no caucuses were held until debate began under the five minute rule on the separate schedules. Mr. Wilson believes that the bill will be more symmetrical and consistent if taken up as it comes from the committee and that general debate in the house will solve some of the problems which might cause an interminable discussion in a party caucus.

Damage Suit Compromised.

WILMINGTON, Del., Nov. 15.—The suit of the Wilmington yacht club against the Windsor steamship company to recover damages for the sinking of their yacht Siesta in the Delaware river last summer by the steamer Parthian has been compromised. The Windsor company is to pay the yacht club $1,500.

MISSIONS IN INDIA

Methodists Decide to Continue the Work.

Heated Debate Enlivens the Closing Session of the Missionary Committee Meeting at Minneapolis—Efforts to Have More Done for the Chinese.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Nov. 15.—A red hot debate over the sum to be appropriated for mission work in India during the coming year enlivened yesterday afternoon's session of the general missionary committee of the Methodist church.

The committee to whom the matter had been referred reported an appropriation of $127,729, to be divided as the board in New York might determine between the north, northwest and south India, Bombay and Bengal-Burmah conferences.

Bishops Foss, Hurst and Mallalieu made earnest addresses in support of the recommendations. The latter said that if it were possible to put a hundred thousand dollars and fifty missionaries into the field they would have 15,000,000 Methodists in India in a very few years.

The other bishops told of the great work that was being accomplished. Natives were being converted and baptized by the tens of thousands.

Thousands Awaiting Conversion.

In one place 10,000 people were waiting to be received into the church.

In another conference 150 native preachers were at work and all they asked for their services was nine cents a day. "Give us the right of way for India," pleaded Bishop Hurst, "It is God's work and God is pointing the way for us. We must follow it."

Bishop Fowler led the opposition. He criticized the fact that the India appropriation had not been scaled one-ninth as had been all the others, and declared it was unfair and unjust. The tide of money had set in toward India to the discredit of the other missions.

Hypnotized By Thoburn.

This country had been hypnotized by that greatest of moral beggars of modern times, Bishop Thoburn. It was not the business of the committee to be carried on the tide that was carrying all the missionary money to India. More than that, India was a ward of Great Britain and not of the United States.

Our own ward, geographically and providentially, was China. Why not pour out our treasure upon the Chinese. A century to come, when they were christianized and civilized, these people would bring to this country a tide of trade and travel that would make the ports of the Pacific coast teem with trade and commerce than the Atlantic ports have never experienced.

India Getting Too Much.

Dr. J. M. Buckley, the eloquent editor-preacher of New York, spoke in the same strain. India, he thought, was getting too much. Comparing China and India, he said that the Chinese were kept out, while the Hindoos would come in by the tens of thousands if they wanted to. The late President Harrison had not vetoed the Geary law.

Bishop Fowler interrupting, "No, but he got vetoed himself."

"Yes, he got left," continued Dr. Buckley. "No, that's slang; he would have been further behind had he not pandered to the Pacific slope."

India was defended by Bishop Hurst and Dr. Peck, of New York. The former said that as for the Chinese, he would to God that we would let them in by the hundreds of thousands. We needed them.

Dr. Peck declared it would cost as much to bring the missionaries and their families home as to keep them in India for another year. India was as much our ward as the ward of any other country.

By a majority vote it was decided to scale the appropriation recommended by the committee one-ninth, to grant $4,000 to reimburse the salary fund for a deficit created by the depreciation of the native currency, and to allow the India field to spend a further sum of $15,000 provided it raised the amount itself.

The convention adjourned sine die at 11 o'clock last night.

Dr. Peters' Experiences.

LONDON, Nov. 15.—Dr. Carl Peters, the German explorer, arrived in London yesterday on his way home from the United States. When asked about statements published in certain American newspapers concerning his experiences in Africa and America, he said he must decline to be responsible for anything except his signature was affixed to the statements. He will probably seek permission from the German government to publish his impressions of America.

New York Canals.

ALBANY, Nov. 15.—Superintendent Hannan of the state department of public works, has issued an order for the closing of the Erie, Champlain, Black River, Oswego, and Cayuga and Seneca canals on Thursday, November 30, 1893, at midnight, unless they sooner become closed by ice.

Gov. Rois for Congress.

DUBUQUE, Ia., Nov. 15.—It is announced by an evening paper here that Gov. Boies will present himself as the next democratic candidate for congress in this district.

MANY MOORS KILLED

Terrific Cannonading Resumed at Melilla.

The Country Illuminated With Powerful Search Lights—Terrified Riffians Flee Like Madmen for Shelter in Caves—All Correspondents Expelled from the Locality.

LONDON, Nov. 15.—The Melilla correspondent of the United Press telegraphs as follows under date of Monday night:

"At 11 o'clock last evening the electric search light of the Spanish cruisers Alfonso XII, Conde de Nenadito and Melilla suddenly illuminated the whole country around, taking the Moors by surprise. A terrible cannonade was opened by the warships and the forts at the same moment. The terrified Moors could be seen running about like madmen, seeking shelter in the caves. Many were killed.

"Yesterday a company of Spanish cavalry made an excursion into the country, going further than any other Spanish troops have gone since the war opened, and meeting with no opposition. It is believed that serious operations will begin this week."

Spanish Settlements May be Attacked.

The Moors in the vicinity of Gomera and Alhucemas, Spanish possessions on the the coast of Morocco, are divided on the question as to whether they shall attack the Spanish settlements. The peace party has hitherto been in the majority, but the agitation is increasing and it is feared that those favoring peace will soon be overborne by the war party.

The minister of war confirms the report of the expulsion of the London Daily Telegraph's correspondent from Melilla and the expulsion of other foreign correspondents.

It is said that the war minister will ask a vote of 14,000,000 pesetas for the Melilla campaign.

FATAL SCHOOL-HOUSE FIRE.

A Teacher and One Little Scholar Burned to a Crisp.

NUNDA, N. Y., Nov. 15.—The school house at Cooperville took fire yesterday and the teacher, Miss Porter, of this town, with one of her scholars, John Ward, aged 4, were burned to death.

Miss Porter's head was nearly burned away as was also one leg.

The fire started in a woodshed, leading to which was the only door in the school room.

There were about 20 scholars in the school when the fire burst in at the door, and as Miss May Porter opened the door all was at once confusion. There were two heroes present, Melvin and Charley Chambers, aged 16 and 14 years, the oldest boys in the school.

Their action undoubtedly saved many other lives.

The only door to the school house was a sea of flames and no one could escape that way. The boys smashed out the windows and literally threw the children out to save their lives.

Melvin was severely burned about his face, but remained in the school house until every child was rescued.

All that was left of the burned boy was his trunk, the arms and the legs having been burned entirely off.

Express Contract Abrogated.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—The treasury department has notified the United States express company of the abrogation of its contract at the end of six months. Proposals will be advertised for a new contract. By the terms of the present contract either party could break the contract at six months notice. This action does not debar the United States express company from competing under the new proposals.

Measles and Scarlet Fever.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—Dr. Senner has held 200 passengers of the steamer Roland, which arrived on the tenth instant from Bremen, under the contract labor law. Most of the passengers are Poles and Russian Jews. There are fifteen cases of measles and scarlet fever among them. The measles cases will be kept at Ellis island and the fever cases will be sent to North Brother island.

Greeks May Be Returned.

BOSTON, Nov. 15.—Nine of the Greeks who came as passengers in the German steamer Cremon, which arrived here Sunday from Hamburg, will be sent back in the steamer when she sails, by order of the immigration commissioners.

Held in $15,000 Bail.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—George Lingard, who was arrested for forging 207 checks on the Garfield national bank, was held in $15,000 bail.

POWDERLY INDIGNANT

Says He is Not Conspiring With Catholics.

The Protestant Attacks Upon the K. of L. He Declares is Instigated By Capitalists—Anti-Catholic Crusade Belittled—Says the Pope's Stand is a Noble One.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 15.—General Master Workman Fowderly in his annual report to the 17th annual session of the general assembly, Knights of Labor, now in session here, after referring to the work done by the order, replied to the attacks made upon him by Protestant clergymen, who charged that he was conspiring with the Roman Catholic Church to overthrow the country, said:

"There is but one conclusion to arrive at. No sensible Protestant has had anything to do with these matters. No self-respecting man could descend to such depths of slander and villainous misrepresentations.

He then asks that a committee of men who are not affiliated with the Roman Catholic church be appointed to investigate and report upon the charges. He believes that capitalists are the instigators "In this strife" and continues:

"In many places throughout the country organizations have been formed to make war on the pope and invariably they have taken the initial step by attacking the local assembly of this order nearest to them.

"Had Leo denounced the Knights of Labor, had he never written in a friendly strain concerning labor and labor organizations, there is no doubt but that the masters of these slaves to religious intolerance would not have given the command to attack the organization of the Knights of Labor through the general master workman."

He belittles the anti-Catholic crusade, which he says is sweeping over the land, and declares that "all men whose perceptive faculties have not been dulled by prejudice will admit that the stand taken by Leo XIII. on the question of labor and industrial freedom, as well as political independence, is a grand and noble one."

A Union Sued for Boycotting.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 15.—Mills, Rainforth and Havlin, managers of the Walnut Street theatre, the Grand Opera house, Havlin's theatre and Pike's Opera house, have brought suit for $50,000 damages against the Stage Employes union for circulating printed circulars boycotting the Walnut Street and Havlin's theatre and also requesting business men not to allow advertising matter in their windows for attractions at the houses named.

A Captain Rewarded.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—At the request of the British legation at Washington a gold watch, awarded by her majesty's government, was presented by Collector Kilbreth to D. H. Rivers, master of the ship A. G. Ropes, of New York. The award was in recognition of his service to the British bark Glauperis, of Carnarvon, which was abandoned off Cape Horn on May 22, last.

An Election Assaulter Sentenced.

BUFFALO, Nov. 15.—Billy Frazer, the prize fighter, who assaulted Lawyer Fullerton, while the latter was attempting to obtain entrance to a polling booth as a republican watcher on election day, was sentenced yesterday to six months' imprisonment in the penitentiary.

Cruiser Columbia's Trial Trip.

BOSTON, Nov. 15.—The United States cruiser Columbia, in an unofficial trial over the measured course between Cape Ann and Cape Porpoise a distance of a fraction less than 44 knots, averaged the hitherto unprecedented speed of 22.87 knots an hour.

Killed By Falling Rock.

MAKING OVER OLD DRESSES.

PRACTICAL INFORMATION THAT IS HELPFUL TO WOMEN.

A Fashion Paper's Talk About Household Economies—Seasonable Hints on Gowns and Cloaks—Dowdy Garments Transformed to Pretty Stylishness.

One result of the hard times is the extra space the ladies' and fashion papers are giving to articles devoted to household economies.

Columns upon columns have been written, showing how with little money a woman can be well dressed. The secret of this is to allow nothing to go into the rag bag until entirely worn out. Shabby and faded gowns should be taken apart, washed, and dyed some fashionable color with diamond dyes, and then they can be made up to look like new.

The ease with which diamond dyes are used is actually wonderful, many of the colors requiring no more work than it would be to rinse a piece of cloth. There are nearly fifty colors, capable of making any shade, and every one especially prepared for home use.

"The only caution needed to users of diamond dyes," says the Ladies' Journal, "is this: be sure to get a cotton dye for cotton goods, and a wool dye for woolen goods. On every package is plainly printed what kind of goods it is for, and full directions for use are also given, so that even a child can use diamond dyes successfully.

Dresses, cloaks, ribbons, scarfs, stockings, feathers, in fact, almost anything can be colored with diamond dyes to look like new. One who has never tried them will be surprised to find how many dollars they will save during the year.

It is well to remember that diamond dyes are never sold by agents or peddlers. Only inferior dyes, that allow the agent a large profit, are sold in that way, but the unfortunate user never tries them a second time, for their colors crock and fade so are not true to name.

Those who are obliged to be economical will find many ways of saving money in these suggestions.

BROOKLYN ELECTION FRAUDS.

Geo. C. Reynolds and E. M. Shepard Will Aid in Prosecution.

ALBANY, Nov. 15.—Gov. Flower addressed the following letter to District Attorney Ridgway of Kings county:

"DEAR SIR:—I am in receipt of your letter of yesterday's date and agreeable to your suggestion I would recommend as suitable persons to prosecute the recent election offenders in Kings county in behalf of the district attorney, Messrs George C. Reynolds and Edward M. Shepard. These gentlemen are well known in Brooklyn and nobody I think will question their fitness for the task. Both have been identified with preliminary movements of citizens having for their object the discovery and punishment of recent election outrages. There should be no partisanship in such an undertaking and I have accordingly named one republican and one democrat.

"Permit me to assure you that the executive and law departments of the state government stand ready to afford every possible assistance to the successful prosecution of these or any other offenses against order and law, and the full power of the state will be exerted to see that crimes and criminals are brought to justice, whether found in Kings county or in any other county in the state."

NEW JERSEY LEGISLATURE.

Nothing as Yet Has Been Done in the Reconvening Scheme.

TRENTON, N. J., Nov. 15.—Gov. Werts said to a reporter of the United Press that he had not been called upon to take action with reference to the reconvening of the legislature and that he had as yet given no consideration to the subject whatever.

The governor did not care to discuss the recent decision of the supreme court declaring the assembly district apportionment act unconstitutional.

A number of democratic leaders were at the state house, but they united in disclaiming any intention to confer on the subject of a special session of the legislature to repeal the race track laws or to oust Senator Hoffman, of Atlantic county, or for any other purpose. They were assembled merely to discuss the general situation.

It is well known that some of them are urging the calling of an extra session, but it is not now believed that their influence will be sufficient to move the governor.

Senator Hoffman expresses no fear that he will be interfered with. He says that the republicans will organize both branches of the legislature at the proper time.

New Postmasters.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—Among the appointments of fourth-class postmasters are the following:

New York—W. V. Irvine, Cochecton; A. V. Blakely, Glenwood; W. J. Taber, Holland; John Warner, Newtonville; J. R. Covell, Pope's Mills; M. D. Malone, Sterlingville.

Pennsylvania—F. B. Hernon, Elulalia; John Foulkood, Liberty; D. O. Anderson, Negley; G. W. Lesher, New Buffalo; Ella J. Burns, Sugartown.

Surveyor Kennedy Punished.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—The treasury department confirms the statement that the commission of J. J. Kennedy as surveyor of customs at Buffalo had been returned to the department. The commission of Mr. Kennedy was forwarded to him in care of the collector of customs at Buffalo shortly before the recent elections. After the election charges were preferred against Mr. Kennedy in connection with the Buffalo elections, and the commission, which had not been delivered to him, was returned here on a telegraphic request from the president. Unless Mr. Kennedy can disprove the charges made, a new man will be named for the place

THE DAILY PRESS.

A. L. FORCE, - - Publisher and Proprietor.
WALTER IRVING CLARKE, - Managing Editor.

THE WEATHER.

For New Jersey To-morrow: Fair; Colder; Freezing Weather Thursday Morning; Westerly Winds.

City Clerk Runyon has announced to his friends that he is not and will not be a candidate for re-election next year.

When does the street railway company intend putting those much-needed stoves in the cars? The weather demands it, and the matter should not be delayed.

The Press devoutly trusts that Gov. Werts will not make the fatal mistake of being inveigled into the extra-session scheme which the wily race-track men are planning.

The sudden death of County Clerk James J. Gerber is another impressive reminder that man's days are as the grass of the field, which today flourishes and tomorrow is not. These sudden deaths have been of startling frequency of late, and they smite with peculiar force when they remove from the walks of life men so high in station. Mr. Gerber was a faithful public officer, both as Surrogate, in former years, and latterly as County Clerk. His worth as a man is given sufficient testimony by the actual tears which Plainfield lawyers shed on hearing of his untimely end. He was a valued citizen and a good friend; he was warmly endeared in the hearts of those who knew him well.

The vacancy created by the distressing death of Mr. Gerber is an important one. The Governor has the appointing power for one year, and after that a new election will be held. It is not unlikely that Mr Gerber's efficient deputy, Elmore D. Moffett of this city, will be advanced by the Governor in the line of promotion. The selection would be most excellent.

DESPERATE DEVICES OF THE RACE-TRACK GANG.

The New York Evening Post last night published the following:

Reports have just leaked out of a recent meeting in Philadelphia of the defeated race-track men of New Jersey to devise a means of preventing repeal of the race-track gambling laws. The meeting was called by William J. Thompson, the Gloucester boss, who presented the following plan:

To request the Governor to call an extra session of the Legislature at which the race-track laws may be so amended as to meet the views of the members of the Senate who last year voted against them, but who then said they would favor modified laws permitting horse-racing. These members would at the next session of the Legislature, Thompson argued, oppose the total repeal of the laws, and thus defeat the aim of the Republican majority in the House. To put a more effectual block in the way of repeal, Thompson suggested the plan of unseating Senator Hoffman, and that the Democrats contest the election of Bradley of Monmouth county on the ground that his free distribution of dimes to boys who would learn his campaign songs and sing them was a violation of the ballot law, which forbids the use of money to influence votes. The Governor is the stumbling-block in the way of the ring, but Thompson is reported as saying at the meeting in Philadelphia that Gov. Werts owed his nomination and election to him, and that he would be found ready to call a special session of the Legislature if Thompson desired it. As a matter of fact, however, Thompson is as discredited since the election as is John Y. McKane of Gravesend, and no Democrat in the State who has any hope of any political future would dare to listen to him.

The Press commends this to the attention of all good and loyal patriots in the Democratic party, and emphasizes the need of speedily purging the Democracy of such iniquitous schemers as Thompson. There is not a possibility of Gov Werts being influenced as threatened by such a man as Thompson, but just the same Thompson is a continual menace to Democratic decency, and he and his following should be suppressed.

HYMENEAL.

GOODRICH—CARTER.

The marriage of the Rev. Charles L. Goodrich, pastor of the Congregational church of this city, and Miss Jeanette M. Carter, of Montclair, took place at the home of the bride yesterday at 6 p. m. The ceremony was a very pretty one, and was performed by the father of the groom, the Rev. L. Goodrich, of Manchester, N. H.

Following the ceremony, a reception was given at the residence of the bride's father, Benjamin Carter, 21 Park street. The large grounds were handsomely illuminated with Chinese lanterns, and the house was filled to overflowing with the many friends of the happy couple. The beautiful gifts bestowed on the bride completely filled an entire room. An elegant supper was served in the dining room. The guests included many members of Mr. Goodrich's church.

The list of Plainfielders is as follows: Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Boss, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Wadsworth, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Briant, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Morse, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Winckler, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Rockfellow, Mrs. VanAlstyne, Miss Minnie G. Morse, Miss E. Beekman, Miss J. Louise Jenkins, Miss F. F. Clark, Miss Elfilda Whiting, Miss Maxson, Miss Robinson, Miss Conover, Miss Bainbridge, Miss Parsons, E. L. Suffern, R. L. Suffern, Harry Maxson, Stacy Raynolds, J. A. Robinson, P. W. VanAlstyne, Mr and Mrs. A. C. LaBoyteaux. Also present were the Rev. L. B. Goodrich and wife of Bound Brook, and E. S. Hunt of New York.

BOOKS AND READING.

Lucy Gibbons Morse Gives an Interesting and Edifying Lecture.

The paper read by Mrs. Lucy Gibbons Morse in All Souls church yesterday afternoon was one of the best that has been heard in the attractive course of lectures that has become such a feature in Mr. Clark's church.

The subject chosen by Mrs. Morse for her paper was "Books and Reading", and what might have been a pedantic and tiresome theme in less able hands was made interesting and attractive by her treatment. The paper was divided into three parts under the heads of "Novels", "The Influence of Journalism" and "Serious Reading". About novels Mrs. Morse had a good deal to say. She thinks that the effect of novel reading depends on the class of novels chosen and that if one's taste has been properly cultivated it is safe for even very young people to be allowed to chose their own reading.

"If"—said Mrs. Morse—"a child has gone through the regular course of wholesome children's books, including the more healthy fairy tales, the Bodley books, some of Frank R. Stockton's works and ending with the Waverly novels it will generally be safe, say at the age of 15 or 16, to allow the reader henceforth to choose for himself." If the taste becomes vitiated by trashy novels it is extremely hard to care for anything else.

Mrs. Morse had a good word to say for the newspapers and under the head of the "Influence of Journalism" she spoke at some length concerning the usefulness of the daily newspapers and place in modern civilization.

Speaking of serious reading Mrs. Morse gave some good advice in her talk to those pedantic persons who read things that do not interest them and which they do not understand, simply to be able to say they have read them. She also said some wise things concerning reading for consolation and suggested that religious works were not always best for those in affliction but that something that would take one's mind from the trouble might be more wholesome. After the paper was finished there was a friendly talk over the teacups where those present had an opportunity to know Mrs. Morse better.

The next lecture in this course will be tomorrow night, when Rabbi Berkowitz speaks on "Barriers Breaking Away".

Abstracted Extract Funds.

For some time past the Kline Extract Company of this city has been dealing out goods and filling orders sent in by a traveling agent, employed by the firm. Yesterday, it is alleged, it came to light that the firm was being swindled. The amount of the defalcation is not determined. It was ascertained that the agent in question has sold goods, collected for them, and used the funds, sometimes taking money and at other times checks, which were indorsed and cashed. The head of the concern claims to have proof of the fact, and is making an effort to hunt the embezzler down.

The Grace M. E. Revival.

Interest increases in the revival services in the Grace M. E. church, North Plainfield. Last evening almost every seat in both rooms were filled. The pastor, the Rev. Herbert F. Randolph, impresses his hearers with the fact that he is intensely in earnest; that life and death, heaven and hell, pardon and condemnation, are realities. Ready testimonies to the joy and peace of a Christian life are given by many whose voices are heard in public for the first time. "Come and See"—John 1:39.

The Prodigal Comes to Town.

"The Prodigal Husband" who is to visit Plainfield Saturday night is a most interesting character, and he brings many other interesting people with him. "The Prodigal Husband" is a first-class realistic drama, and will be interpreted on Music Hall stage by the sterling young actor, Edward C. Stratton, and a capable company.

Death of Wm. D. Hyde.

News reached Plainfield last night of the death of William Douglass Hyde, formerly of this city, which occurred in Hornellsville, N. Y., Nov. 9. Hyde spent last summer in Washingtonville. He was well known in Plainfield and vicinity. He and Miss Edna McKibbon, with their fancy skating entertainment, opened the old Casino skating rink in this city. Hyde was 25 years of age.

SUDDEN DEATH OF J. J. GERBER.

UNION COUNTY'S CLERK STRICKEN AT HIS HOME.

(Special to The Press)

ELIZABETH, Nov. 15—James J. Gerber, Clerk of Union County, died at 1:10 this afternoon, at his home in this city. He had been seriously ill but a few hours, though complaining for several days past. The death was a great shock to the community.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Wm. J. Craig, of 115 Front street, Elizabeth, was in town visiting friends today.

Postmaster Peter C. Staats of Dunellen has been spending a few days with relatives in Bloomsbury.

Cornelius Wyckoff, well known here, is ill at his home in Westfield, suffering from an attack of pneumonia.

Among the probable additions to Plainfield residents is A. Emerson Palmer, of the editorial staff of The Tribune.

Mr. Schuitice's familiar face was seen about town yesterday after a a long absence. He now resides in Elizabeth.

Electric-light lineman J. W. Crowley is entertaining his wife's mother, Mrs. Cornelia Alston, of Halifax, North Carolina.

Plainfield's hymn writer, the Rev. Robert Lowry, has issued a service of Scripture and song, entitled "Our Saviour King", for Christmas time.

The funeral services of the late John Greer were held yesterday afternoon at 2. The Rev. Dr. D. J. Yerkes officiated. Interment was made in Hillside cemetery.

Ex-Assemblyman Peter L. Hughes of the First district of this county, was married this afternoon to an Elizabethport belle. Mr. Hughes has relatives in this city.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Bigelow, Jr., of Brooklyn, gave them a happy reception when they unexpectedly appeared in the First Baptist church last evening.

A valuable pamphlet has just been issued from the pen of Lemuel W. Serrell, the expert patent lawyer of this city, on the subject of uniformity of the patent laws and the protection of industrial property. The paper was prepared by him and read before the Congress of Patents and Trade Marks at the World's Fair.

Fifty-Two Dividends.

As a general thing investors are pleased to receive only two dividends a year, and if they are paid with regularity are fully satisfied. When one, however, can receive fifty-two dividends in a year upon an investment of only three dollars, the matter deserves very serious attention.

The Independent of New York for 45 years has held the first position among the great religious and literary weeklies of the land. It presents features for the coming year far in advance of any heretofore offered. It has the leading contributors of the world, it prints the best poetry, it has twenty-one departments, edited by specialists, devoted to Fine Arts, Science, Insurance, Finance, Biblical Research, Sunday-school, Missions, Health, etc. The Independent is particularly fitted for intelligent people, whether professional men, business men, farmers, and for their families. It costs little and gives a great deal. A subscriber receives fifty-two dividends a year.

The subscription price of The Independent is only three dollars a year or at that rate for any part of a year, and a sample copy will be sent to any person free by addressing The Independent, New York city.

A Trio of Hustlers.

At a regular meeting of Winfield Scott Post, No. 73, G. A. R., held last evening, the Conference Committee between the Post and the Relief Corps made a report favoring the holding of a fair early in December. The Committee of Arrangements appointed consists of Charles Westphal, I. McVoy, Charles Stephens and William Alpaugh.

To Build Up the Outskirts.

The Plainfield Land Company met at the residence of Dr. J. T. Fritts, Park avenue, Monday evening, and organized by electing J. Kirkner president, W. O. Kelly vice-president, Dr. J. T. Fritts secretary and treasurer, and Messrs. Fritts, Hummer and Lutkins managers. The company's object is to develop an outlying section of the city.

One Dead, One Alive.

A party of five Plainfielders went gunning near Metuchen, Monday. They spent the day beating the underbrush, and the only game captured was a half-grown rabbit, shot in twain by one of the party. A flying squirrel was also captured, but it was caught alive in the trunk of a tree.

They Saw Tom, and that Beats the Fair

Ex-Councilman W. L. Hetfield and Charles Bock returned from the World's Fair Monday. During their trip in the West they visited Thomas Hale on his ranch in Wisconsin, where they were agreeably entertained by the genial lawyer. Both are loaded down with Fair stories.

Borough Justice.

Two cases occupied the attention of Justice Crosley last evening at 7:30. Mary Riley, for breaking the peace and moral ordinance, was put under $150 bonds. Christopher Wies, for fast driving, was fined $5.

Glad to Be Near Plainfield.

(From The Dramatic Mirror.)

Frank Tannehill, Jr., says: "I am glad to get back to New York. My family lives in Plainfield, N. J., and I am over there every day."

Must Kill Time Between Trains Somehow.

AFTER CONCERT, CAME PANCAKES.

BAPTIST YOUNG LADIES PROVIDE A NOVEL SHOW.

Singing Skewl Made Given in Amusing Fashion, with a Homely but Palatable Supper Following, and a Fake Art Gallery as a Catchpenny Adjunct.

"Ye Olde Folks Concert" given by the Young Ladies' Missionary Society of the First Baptist church, last night, far exceeded the results hoped for by the projectors. The lecture room of the church was filled to overflowing, with people whose interest and enthusiasm were shown in many ways.

W. E. MacClymont, under whose direction the concert was given, again demonstrated his ability to conduct such an affair capably, and as an accompanist Takeitesay Adlibitum Case filled the position very acceptably to all.

It was nearly 8:30 when the participants marched to the platform and took their seats. There were old men and women, young men and maidens dressed in ye olden tyme fashion, and the deception was well maintained even to the most critical eye.

After the bustle had subsided, the choir sang as an opening selection "Auld Lang Syne". The harmony of voices was pleasing, and the effect was excellent. The "Anvil Chorus" was well given, and "When George the First was King", by Ephram Huckleberry Holmes, was entertainingly rendered.

"Jerusalem My Glorious Home", by the choir, was followed with a reading by Ureable Graceful Yerkes, which was accorded due appreciation by the audience. The anthem "Songs of Zion" preceded the ever familiar "Swanee River", arranged for four voices. Miss King sweetly sang the solo part; her clear soprano voice was at its best. Popular and patriotic "America" was rousingly sung. That the American audience is yet to be found that does not appreciate this National hymn, was attested by the loud applause following. In the ditty, entitled "John Brown", by Hezekiah and the choir, Fred Bonney took the part of Hezekiah with good effect. Jerusha Ann Dodge then gave a quaint and most charming recitation, that must have taken old lovers back to palmy days of long ago. "Sound the loud timbrel", by the choir, was an enjoyable selection, giving plenty of scope for the various voices. "My Grandma's Advice" sung by Lucinda Miriam Emmons, was rendered in most captivating style. Probably the best number on the programme was ye two parte dittie, "Reuben and Rachel" by Ephraim Huckleberry Holmes and Mabel Stirabout Clawson. The production was perfect, and could not have been improved on. The concert concluded with the homely but touching song "Home, Sweet Home", by the choir.

As an extra after-attraction, the young ladies provided an excellent pancake supper, which was all to be desired.

The art gallery was a great burlesque. "A Bust of a Boy" was represented by a pair of short trousers, with the seat missing; "Bonaparte Crossing the Rhine" was represented by the poor bone which Old Mother Hubbard did n't find in the cupboard; this was laid on a piece of rind. "A Rise in the World" was a yeast cake. "My Native Land" was a handful of earth. And so it ran. There were almost one hundred of these representations, and they were much enjoyed by those who were taken in by the elaborate catalogues, entitled "Fine Art", which were freely distributed.

"Rebecca's well", where refreshing lemonade was served, was in charge of the Misses May McLaughlin and Lena Smalley.

The affair was successful in every way, and a desirable profit was realized.

The officers of the society are:

President—Mrs. G. H. Batchelor.

THE CAN'T-RIDES WIN.

They Prove to the Lyceum Cyclers Their Ability to Bowl.

The deciding game in the match between the Cycling and Non-Cycling members of the C. Y. M. L. was rolled on the league alleys last night. Both sides attended prepared to roll for blood, but somehow the wheelmen did not succeed in piling up the score as they intended. In fact, the Non-Cyclers felt justified in asking their opponents if there was anything they could do better than bowl. With Butscher rolling 209 there was not much use of bucking against the Can't-Rides, who rolled a good game throughout. The score:

Public-Spirited John.

John Emmons, of Rockview avenue, says there are two street lamps, not far distant from his home, which burn generally on moonlight nights but which at other times are almost obscure. The cost to the borough for the two lamps is about $35 per annum, and Mr. Emmons says he would much sooner have the lamps removed and maintain one at his own expense than have the present system of lighting that thoroughfare continue.

Alarming Result of a Cut.

John Emmons, of North Plainfield, accidentally cut his right wrist a few days ago, but he paid little attention to the matter until Friday, when the arm began to swell and became more painful. The swelling reached as far as the elbow and threatened serious consequences. Mr. Emmons applied warm poultices, and to-day is suffering less, although the arm is still swollen to large dimensions.

Put in Shape After a Cave-in.

The new cesspool of the German Lutheran church in North Plainfield caved in a few days ago, and William B. Moore was engaged to finish the work. He found that part of the wall was only six inches thick, and that only three loads of stone were used in its construction. In its renewed condition the walls are 18 inches thick, and it required seven loads of stone to complete the work.

Panicky Name, But Lovely Decoration.

Plainfield afforded, this fall, an admirable opportunity to judge of the decorative value of clematis paniculata. The Casino has been beautifully outlined by this rampant climber, the pillars of the porch being wreathed with the fragrant white flowers, which extended to the roof, where, in great profusion, they lay in relief against the weather-stained shingles.

Almost Choked to Death.

MR. RIPLEY MADE HIS WILL.

HE WAS FOUND WRITING IT JUST BEFORE HE DIED.

The New York Herald Reiterates Its Suspicions of Suicide, and the Coroner Confesses that He Would Have Concealed the Fact to Spare the Family Feelings.

(From The New York Herald, Today.)

Further investigation into the cause of the death of Chauncey B. Ripley some time between Friday and Saturday last in the Hoffman House indicates that he committed suicide. It came to light yesterday that last Thursday Mr. Ripley told a friend, Lawyer Aaron Kahn, of 59 William street, that he was writing his will. Mr. Kahn said to a reporter yesterday: "I was in the law library in the Post Office Building and saw Mr. Ripley, whom I had long known as an eminent lawyer, sitting at a table writing. Occasionally Mr. Ripley would lean back in his chair, bite the end of his penholder for several minutes and then resume writing. His face was always ruddy, but I noticed that it was unusually flushed. I exchanged a few words with him and then remarked that he seemed to be very busy.

"'I'm writing my will,' said Mr. Ripley, at the same time putting his hand over the paper, so that I could not see what he had written. I thing it is entirely likely that he was writing his will, because if he had been writing a will for a client he would have naturally done his writing in his own office."

I visited all the drug stores in the vicinity of the Hoffman House yesterday to learn whether Mr. Ripley had recently purchased chloroform or any other volatile poison with which he might have saturated the sponge found on his pillow by Undertaker Sawyer last Sunday. While no such record exists, I was told in several of the drug stores that it was not necessary to suppose in the event of Mr. Ripley's suicide that he had purchased the drug in the vicinity of the hotel. It might have been bought in any drug store in quantities sufficient to commit suicide.

Mr. Ripley's body was taken to Westfield early yesterday morning without an autopsy having been made. Funeral services were held in the First Presbyterian church and the interment was in Fairview Cemetery.

Coroner Schultze said yesterday that there was no need of an autopsy. He had viewed the body and granted a burial permit as a personal favor first to Mr. Ripley's brother, Dr. John H. Ripley, of 305 Lexington avenue, under whom he had studied medicine, and, second, for Subway Commissioner Jacob Hess, who had requested him to examine the body in order that it might be removed.

"While I still hold that Mr. Ripley died of cerebral apoplexy,"—said Coroner Schultz—"I do n't deny that I would conceal the fact that a person had committed suicide. I would do it to spare the feelings of the family, lest the fact should be printed in the newspapers. That's the position I have taken since I was elected."

Gone Up Higher.

At a regular meeting of Queen City Lodge, No. 226, I. O. O. F. held the 13th day of November, 1893, the following resolutions were adopted by the Lodge:

WHEREAS, It has pleased our Heavenly Father to call from earth life our highly esteemed and beloved Brother Past Grand David L. Abbott, whose earth life we believe to be such as to entitle him to a far higher place than any that could possibly be accorded to him in this life. Therefore be it

Resolved, That while deeply mourning his loss as a Brother Odd Fellow, we extend our sincere sympathy to the sorrowing widow and family of our deceased Brother. Also be it

Resolved, That the trustees of this Lodge be instructed to drape the charter of this Lodge for the period of thirty days and that these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of this Lodge and a copy of the same be transmitted to the widow of our departed Brother and also published in the daily papers of the city.

Rabbi Berkowitz to Speak.

The Rev. Dr. Henry D. Berkowitz, rabbi of the Rodef Shalom congregation in Philadelphia, will give a lecture in All Souls church, Thursday evening, Nov. 16, at 8. Dr. Berkowitz is the founder and director of the Jewish Chautauqua Literary and Scientific Circle. He has devoted the past summer to complete the plans for the work and made all necessary arrangements with the National Chautauqua officials who will put the machinery of their organization in motion for the benefit of the Jewish branch.

One of the beneficent features of the new department will be the special course for Jewish emigrants, which has been planned by Dr. Berkowitz. The aim of this course will be to aid the newcomers in the study of the English language, familiarize them with the peculiarities of the American goverment and institutions, and teach them how to fit themselves to their new conditions, in fact to Americanize them.

To Be Married as in the Orient.

A novel and delightful entertainment will be the Japanese wedding in the Crescent Avenue church parlors tomorrow night. The list of characters, and well-known Plainfielders who will assume the parts, has already been published exclusively in these columns. After the interesting wedding ceremony, tea will be served to the audience, in the parlors; and views of Japan will be for sale.

To Eat Biscuit in a Good Cause.

A young people's concert and biscuit entertainment will be given in Reform Hall, Thursday evening, Dec. 7, for the benefit of the Emmanuel Baptist church building fund.

My catarrh was very bad; for 30 years I have been troubled with it—have tried a number of remedies without relief. A druggist advised Ely's Cream Balm. I have used only one bottle and I can say I feel like a new man. I make this voluntary statement that others may know of the Balm.—J. W. Matheweon, lawyer, Pawtucket, R. I.

With Ely's Cream Balm a child can be treated without pain and with perfect safety. It cures catarrh, hay fever and colds in the head. It is easily applied into the nostrils and gives immediate relief. Price 50 cents.

Insults on Watchung.

There is a chance for improvement in the street lighting service near the Crescent building on Watchung avenue. At night the front of the building is in total darkness, and reports come that females are frequently insulted on their way to and from town.

A RETIRED BUSINESS WOMAN.

A Page From Her History.

The important experiences of others are interesting. The following is no exception: "I had been troubled with heart disease 25 years, much of that time very seriously. For five years I was treated by one physician continuously. I was in business, but obliged to retire on account of my health. A physician told my friends that I could not live a month. My feet and limbs were badly swollen, and I was indeed in a serious condition when a gentleman directed my attention to Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, and said that his sister, who had been afflicted with heart disease, had been cured by the remedy, and was again a strong, healthy woman. I purchased a bottle of the Heart Cure, and in less than an hour after taking the first dose I could feel a decided improvement in the circulation of my blood. When I had taken three doses I could move my ankles, something I had not done for months, and my limbs had been swollen so long that they seemed almost putrified. Before I had taken one bottle of the New Heart Cure the swelling had all gone down, and I was so much better that I did my own work. On my recommendation six others are taking this valuable remedy."—Mrs. Morgan, 569 W. Harrison St., Chicago, Ill.

Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, a discovery of an eminent specialist in heart disease, is sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee or sent by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, six bottles for $5, express prepaid. It is positively free from all opiates or dangerous drugs.

Sold by all druggists.

WE

COULDN'T, positively could not, attempt to make a better line of Overcoats than we've conceived for this winter. That's saying a deal for us. Everything that's fit and ought to be in a first-class selection of Overcoats, be it for a man, a boy or a little boy has been included in our assortment. We've the best designers and originators of styles obtainable, we know how and what class of materials ought to be made and we've a wonderful idea of the capacity of the average purse—the three items that help to make a Clothing Establishment famous and successful. You should know our wares and prices. You ought to know that we manufacture the Clothing we offer for sale. You should in justice to yourself, make it a point to visit our establishment.

Utterly Wiped Out.

Never since Lo, the poor Indian, skulked through these woods and wiped his weeping nose upon the handle of his tomahawk, have Dry Goods been sold for such small prices as now, and there is just as much difference between our prices and other people's as there is between an Indian chief and a Turk.

AN UNUSUAL OFFERING.

WHITE GOODS—2,500 yards of fine checked nainsook, just right for aprons; our price 15c yard, worth more.

UNDERWEAR—You haven't bought it yet, have you? If not, you will surely want it and we can do you lots of good, and save you some money.

TOWELS—Some pretty good values we have offered in towels, bu this beats them all; actual measurement 22x48 in. fine damask linen and all we ask is 25c.

HOSIERY—Pretty good place for Hosiery; we buy it right from the man who makes it and sell it at the same price other retailers pay for it.

DRESS GOODS—We are selling Dress Goods this season as we never have before, at less than they cost to manufacture.

HOUSEFURNISHINGS—When we say the largest and finest housefurnishing department this side of New York, we mean it. We have everything you want and prices are in your favor.

Our Shoe Business Grows.

WHY WE DO IT
$2 50—Ladies' Fine Dongola Button, stitched soles, patent tips, worth $3.00.

ONLY INCIDENTS OF THE GAME.

Football Captain Mackey Does Not Complain of Rough Treatment.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 15.—Captain Mackey, of the Pennsylvania football team, was seen by a reporter to-day and asked as to the stories accusing his men of "roughness" and "brutality," etc. He said that nothing of the kind had come under his notice, nor did any of the team know of any incidents of the game which justified in the very smallest degree such accusations. He laughed at the story of "Butterworth's bite" and said that it would make a good title for a dime novel and had about as much foundation in fact. It would take an ogre to bite through a canvas jacket, a sweater and an undershirt.

When asked about the treatment his own men had received he said they had no complaint to make. He himself had a bad contusion of the eye from a blow of Mr. Murphy's fist. Every one on the field saw Hinkey strike Knipe with no provocation from the latter except that he had made a "touchdown." The same player jumped with his knees on Osgood's neck after the latter had called "down." McCrea repeatedly struck Wharton about the face and head and pulled off deliberately the protecting bandages from his swollen and inflamed ear, although doing so caused agonizing pain; but the Pennsylvania team, he said, accepted those occurrences as unpleasant incidents of an exciting game.

MRS. HALLIDAY BREAKS OUT.

She Almost Choked the Sheriff's Wife to Death.

MONTICELLO, N. Y., Nov. 15.—Mrs. Paul Halliday, the triple murderess, in her efforts to counterfeit insanity has become a terror to her attendants.

Yesterday she exhibited much violence as Mrs. Beecher, wife of the sheriff, was giving her breakfast and trying to make more comfortable. She sprang at her with the ferocity of a tigress and clutched her by the throat and soon would have strangled her had the sheriff not sprang to his wife's rescue.

As it was, Mrs. Beecher was choked until she gasped for breath.

The sheriff says she is a powerful woman and-it was with no little difficulty that he loosened her grasp from his wife's neck.

With the help of attendants Mrs. Halliday was placed on the low couch in the cell and given her meal.

In the melee a large needle, something like a darning needle, only larger, was discovered secreted in the folds of her dress. Where she got it is a mystery. It is thought she was waiting an opportunity to use it on some of the attendants.

LAST OF A TRAGIC FAMILY.

The Late Chief of Police Hennessy's of New Orleans, Mother Dying.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 15.—Mrs. Hennessy, mother of the late chief of police, is dying at a very advanced age. She is the last of the family. Her husband was killed in a street duel. Mike Hennessy, her nephew, was assassinated in Texas and her son Dave was murdered by Italians. His death caused the uprising which resulted in the lynching of the thirteen Italians at the Parish prison three years ago.

Dave and Mike killed Thomas Devereux in a street duel here some time before. Devereux was chief of detectives.

Wants France to Take Care of Her.

ALBANY, Nov. 15.—"Mme. Berthe" is the name of a woman who for some time past acted as governess in the family of a prominent professor at Peekskill. She is insane now, and is attracting the attention of the state commissioners in lunacy, for she is a Frenchwoman, and it is the desire of the state authorities that she be sent from the Middletown hospital back to Paris, where she came from. The commissioners have written to the French ambassador at Washington with that end in view.

Suit Against a Mutual Life Company.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—Dugald Graham, of Montreal, has brought suit in that city against the Mutual life insurance company of this city for $126,000 damages, alleged to have been sustained by the insurance company's fraudulent wrecking of the Elmira municipal improvement company. Mr. Graham is a bondholder of the company and was formerly a director.

Signs of Business Improvement

AMSTERDAM, N. Y., Nov. 15.—There are signs of returning activity in manufacturing circles in this city and outlying hamlets. Several of the mills are getting out samples preparatory to a resumption of business at an early day. It is understood that the Sanford carpet mills, which have been closed sixteen weeks, will start up shortly.

Ironworkers' Families Evicted.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 15.—The families of 24 striking iron workers were evicted from company houses by the Pittsburg forge and Iron company through failure to pay their rent. The families are penniless and are living on public and private charities. Some secured houses and rooms in other sections of the city.

Thurston Confers With Gresham.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—Mr. Thurston, the Hawaiian minister, had a second interview with Secretary Gresham shortly after the cabinet meeting yesterday afternoon. The conference was devoted to the discussion of the Hawaiian situation and lasted three-quarters of an hour.

Railroad Rumor Denied.

ORANGE, N. J., Nov. 15.—Henry Graves, as a director of the Jersey Central, officially states that there is no truth whatever in the alleged combination between the New York & New Haven, Jersey Central and Reading railroads.

Crispi Sounding German Bankers.

BERLIN, Nov. 15.—The Tageblatt asserts that Signor Crispi, ex-premier of Italy, is in Berlin incognito for the purpose of sounding bankers on a scheme of Italian finance.

McKane's Hunting Trip.

FORT MONROE, Va., Nov. 15.—John Y. McKane and party left for Williamsburg yesterday morning on a hunting expedition.

Bovine Tuberculosis.

BURLINGTON, N. J., Nov. 15.—Bovine tuberculosis has developed in the blooded Alderney stock of Charles S. Taylor, just outside of this city, and already some twenty cows out of a herd of 150 have been killed, while quite as many more are doomed. The entire herd is being examined by a corps of veterinary surgeons, and Mr. Taylor will stamp out the disease.

Bountiful Reward.

CHICAGO, Nov. 15.—A special to the Herald from Mexico, Mo., says: Van Roberts, a hotel keeper at Rush Hill, Mo., has received intelligence that he has fallen heir to $600,000, left him by John Bennett, who died at Las Vegas, N. M. Roberts saved Bennett from drowning in the Sangamon river near Decater, Ills., twenty years ago, and $600,000 is his reward.

Present to Cardinal Gibbons.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 15.—The Misses Boone, of this city, have presented to his eminence Cardinal Gibbons, in honor of his silver jubilee, an elegant silver service of hammered plate. It consists of a salver in Etruscan design, with wine and water cruets. The service bears the monogram and crest of the cardinal and is very costly.

LOSS OF THE DRISKO

Thrilling Experience of the Captain's Bride.

In Male Attire for Seven Days Lashed, With Her Husband and Crew, to the Waterlogged Schooner—Once Washed Overboard.

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—When the United States cruiser San Francisco reported about a week ago, its destruction of the lumber-laden, water-logged schooner Drisko off the South Atlantic coast by the novel method of ramming, it told but the sequel of a thrilling tale of hardship in which a woman, and a bride at that, bore the rigors of storm and destitution that nearly proved fatal to able bodied seamen.

Sailed With His Bride.

It was on Oct. 8 that Capt. R. B. Drisko, from Jonesport, Me., taking on a cargo at Charleston, S. C., for Jamaica, planned to take his newly wedded wife on the voyage for a wedding trip.

They sailed that day with a crew of six men. The day was bright and the weather indications all that the gallant skipper could have desired for the comfort of his bride, but when night came it brought rain squalls, which developed into a storm that made necessary the battening down of hatches and reefing of sails.

Blew a Hurricane.

At midnight there was a hurricane and the captain hove to under close-reefed spinnaker and mainsail.

The wind continued to increase in violence, and at daybreak the high seas threatened to swamp the vessel. She was put about with difficulty and permitted to scud under bare poles.

Donned Her Husband's Clothes.

Then the captain went below and giving his wife a suit of his own clothes directed her to put them on, knowing that the worst was likely to happen, and that she would be less hampered by wind and water if his fears were realized.

She had hardly donned her strange costume when a wave struck the ship and threw her around broadside to the sea, which washed over her decks and into her cabin.

Lashed With a Rope on Deck.

The captain clambered out on deck carrying his wife with him and then, tying a rope about her waist, he made it fast to an iron rail which ran along the top of the deck house.

A giant wave at that moment threw the vessel on her beam's end, and before she righted the captain discovered that his wife had disappeared.

Saved From Death By the Rope.

He had allowed too much slack rope. It was still fast, however, and he was able to drag her back, bruised and exhausted.

The sailors managed to climb to the weather rail and, under the directions of the captain, they cut away the weather rigging.

At once all the masts snapped and went by the board, the schooner at the same time regaining her equilibrium.

All Hands Lashed to the Deck.

The cabins were flooded, however, and all hands lashed themselves to the top of the deck house and there they stayed without food and buffeted about by the storm, which continued with unabated fury until the fourth day out, when it quieted down.

Seven Days of Awful Suffering.

Then a sailor, who dived into a cabin, managed to find a can of meat, and some bunting secured in the sail bag, which was improvised into a distress signal.

For seven days they waited. On the morning of the 16th a bark was sighted, but soon its disappearing sails showed the castaways that they were not seen.

Lights on a Steamer Sighted.

Hope was waning when towards night the lights of a steamship were discovered. It came near enough to see them. It was the Mexican, Captain Alexander, from New Orleans to Liverpool.

The shipwrecked people were taken aboard and were hardly more than made comfortable when another storm arose which made the steamer's passage a tempestuous one of three weeks. She arrived at Liverpool 11 days overdue.

Returned Home On the Etruria.

The United States Consul, Col. J. K. Neal, took the rescued in charge and they returned to this country on the Etruria. Before his departure for his home in Maine, Captain Drisko was seen at the South Ferry hotel, and told the story as above related. His wife sat close by and held her face very close to a book she was reading when her husband told of her experience in man's attire.

Burglars Caught at Fall River.

FALL RIVER, Mass., Nov. 16.—Two men giving their names as John Williams and Edward Wright were found in Alexander Milne's residence on Ridge street yesterday afternoon and were frightened into jumping from a window by a lady who entered the room unexpectedly. They were captured after a long chase. The police believe the men are professional burglars.

Another Charge Against McDonald.

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—Ronald T. McDonald, one of the directors of the Madison Square bank, who is charged with forgery, has also, it is found, laid himself liable to the charge of grand larceny. Mr. McDonald, it is charged, paid part of a personal debt to the bank with their own money which was borrowed on their own securities.

CHANGING THE TARIFF

Democrats Working Hard on the New Measure.

The Sub-Committee's Conference Secret, But, Notwithstanding, Some of the Details of the Changes Proposed are Becoming Public.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—An air of profound mystery surrounds that portion of the house of representatives where the ways and means committee room is located. The members of the committee have been pledged to the strictest secrecy regarding the proposed changes of duty, but, notwithstanding these precautions, some of the details of the committee's work are gradually becoming public.

Material Cut in Steel Rails.

There is apparently no doubt that wool, and coal and iron ore will be placed on the free list. Upon these points there is now practical unanimity although until recently it was a mooted question whether it would not be advisable to retain a fair duty on the two articles last named. It is understood that a material reduction will be made on steel rails, probably a compromise between the present figure, $13.44, and $8, the amount stated to be ample at the time the McKinley bill was before the senate.

Tin Plate to Be Reduced.

The duty on tin plate as has been previously announced will probably be reduced from 2 and 2-10 cents to one cent.

The schedules of the textile fabrics have been substantially agreed upon in accordance with the democratic theory of free raw materials and reduced duties on manufactured goods. The woolen duties will be similar to those in the Springer bill, not above 40 per cent. ad valorem and at 35 per cent. on only a few items. The rate on manufacturers of cotton will be about 40 per cent. including cotton hosiery as well as fabrics.

Linen Goods and Laces to Suffer.

The duties on linen goods and laces will suffer a considerable reduction in view of the fact that flax and the other raw materials of the industry are going upon the free list. The representatives of the linen manufactures have been bringing strong pressure to bear upon the committee to maintain the existing duties, but the compound duties are likely to be abolished in every case and some of the ad valorem duties reduced.

Sub-Committee May Soon Finish.

A meeting of all the democratic members of the committee will be held to-day at which time the sub-committees having in charge the various schedules will submit their reports. The work of adjusting and harmonizing the reductions will then be continued until the bill shall have been completed. It is expected that this result will be reached the last of next week or not later than the Monday following. The bill will then be reported to the full committee and made public the same day.

Republicans Will Not Filibuster.

Chairman Wilson believes that the bill will be taken up in the house and generally debated for about ten days preceding the holiday recess. Mr. Wilson will make the opening speech in support of the measure and it is understood that Mr. Burrows, of Michigan, one of the leading republican members of the committee, will speak first for his side. An effort will be made to close general debate as quickly as possible in order that the house may proceed to consider the measure under the five minute rule. There is no intention on the part of the republican members of the house to filibuster against the bill or unnecessarily delay its passage.

Democrats Alone Responsible.

While they regard any modifications in the existing tariff law as hurtful to the business interests of the country they agree that the democratic party was placed in power on a platform which declared in favor of tariff reduction and that they and not the republicans are responsible for the consequences whatever they may be.

Viking Ship Due at St. Louis To-Day.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 16.—The Viking ship is expected to arrive here to-day, in tow of the river steamer Frankie Folsom. The water is very low in some places of the Mississippi, only three feet, which makes it impossible for the Viking to go up the river, as Capt. Anderson intended.

Western Flour Mills Active.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Nov. 16.—The mills of Superior and Duluth ground 88,010 barrels of flour last week, exceeding by 6,433 barrels the record breaker of the week before. All the mills are doing their utmost to turn out as much flour as possible before navigation closes.

Heavy Snow Storm at Kingston.

KINGSTON, N. Y., Nov. 16.—A heavy snow storm for this season of the year visited this section yesterday. Three inches fell in the Catskills between Big Indian and Hobart.

Camden Saloons Still Open.

CAMDEN, N. J., Nov. 16.—The 40 saloons in this city are still in full blast, the proprietors having appealed from the decision declaring the county excise law unconstitutional.

GALLANT LIFE SAVERS

Good Year's Showing for the Hardy Surfmen.

Of 3,892 Lives Imperilled Aboard Shipwrecked Vessels 3,868 Were Saved and Property to the Value of Only $1,680,260 Was Lost.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—Sumner I. Kimball, general superintendent of the life saving service, in his annual report to Secretary Carlisle, states that at the close of the last fiscal year the establishment embraced 244 stations.

The number of disasters to documented vessels within the field of the operations of the service during the year was 427.

Only 23 of 3,565 Lives Lost.

There were on board these vessels 3,565 persons, of whom 3,542 were saved, and 23 lost.

Six hundred and sixty-three shipwrecked persons received succor at the stations.

The estimated value of the vessels involved in the disasters was $6,414,075, and that of their cargoes $1,684,000, making a total value of property imperilled $8,098,075.

Value of Property Saved.

Of this amount $6,442,505 was saved and $1,655,570 lost.

The number of vessels totally lost was 88.

In addition to the foregoing there were during the year 154 casualties to small craft, such as sail boats, row boats, etc., on which there were 327 persons, 321 of whom were saved and six lost.

Other Persons Rescued.

The property involved in these instances is estimated at $153,035, of which $128,345 was saved and $24,690 lost.

There were 47 other persons rescued who had fallen from wharves, piers, etc., and who would have perished without the aid of the life saving crews. The extent of the assistance rendered in saving vessels and cargoes was greater than ever before, with the exception of a single year.

The cost of the maintenance of the service during the year was $1,231,898.45.

UNCLE SAM'S FINANCES.

Treasury Balance the Lowest Yet Reached.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—The net treasury balance has declined to $88,088,974. This is the lowest point yet reached and it is not expected that it will again rise above $100,000,000 without some congressional or executive action.

For the first half month of November the expenditures so far have exceeded the receipts $4,000,000, and for the fiscal year to date $30,000,000 in round figures.

Dalton Gang Again.

ARKANSAS CITY, Kan., Nov. 16.—The Daltons have been heard from again, and it appears that they have descended to the level of common highwaymen. Last evening E. Higginbotham, who arrived in this city from Blackwell, said that while coming to the city he was halted by two armed men, who demanded his money. He told them $2 was all he had, and the highwaymen took $1.

Liberians Burn the Town of Cavally.

LIVERPOOL, Nov. 16.—Mail advices from Angola, west coast of Africa, say that the Liberians have taken the town of Cavally from the hostile natives and have burned most of it to the ground as the result of Cheeseman's bombardment. Cheeseman was still holding the Englishmen whom he had arrested for non-payment of duties.

THE H-O COMPANY, NEW YORK.

CLEVELAND IS NOT ILL

Personal Business Called Him Away Yesterday.

The Story That His Sudden Trip to New York Was to Consult a Physician is Denied—He Returned to Washington Early This Morning.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—President Cleveland returned from New York this morning in a special car attached to the Pennsylvania limited that left Jersey City at 12:30 this morning.

He was accompanied on his return by Secretary Lamont.

Made the Trip for Private Business.

Mr. Lamont branded the report that the president went to New York to have an operation performed as "pure rot." He was emphatic in saying that Mr. Cleveland was in excellent health and was not here for any purpose other than to attend to a few private matters.

The president's visit to New York was unexpected in that city, except by the proprietor of the Victoria hotel, at which place the president stopped.

Arriving at the hotel a light lunch was partaken of, and, after reading the papers for an hour, the president ordered a carriage, and, informing no one except Mr. and Mrs. Lamont of his destination, drove off up Fifth avenue.

Dined With Dr. Bryant.

At 4 o'clock President Cleveland returned from his drive and for two hours read the papers. At 6:20 o'clock, in company with Secretary and Mrs. Lamont, he went to the residence of Dr. Bryant, at 54 West Thirty-sixth street, where the party had dinner.

In the evening President Cleveland, Secretary and Mrs. Dan Lamont and Dr. and Mrs. Bryant occupied a box at the Broadway Theatre, where "Erminie" is being played. The president looked well and seemed to enjoy the play.

WANT CLEVELAND IMPEACHED.

Two 'Frisco Newspapers Wrathy Over the Hawaiian Affair.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 16.—The Examiner (dem.) and the Chronicle (rep.), in leading editorials on the Hawaiian situation, call for the president's impeachment. The former says: "For scorning to consult congress and sending his herald to Honolulu to declare war between the United States and the recognized government of the islands he should be impeached."

The Chronicle urges it, because, it states, that when he informed congress he had no further communication to make he secretly prepared to make war upon and overthrow a friendly state.

Further Reform at Princeton.

PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 16.—It has been usual at Princeton for the seniors to hold their annual class elections in the evening. Upwards of thirty offices are to be filled and the contests are generally prolonged until the early morning hours. The faculty consider the night event a fruitful source of disorder and have decided not to permit elections unless held during the day.

Many Who Claim to Have Been Injured.

JACKSON, Mich., Nov. 16.—The claim agents of the Michigan Central railroad are daily in receipt of letters from persons in New York and Pennsylvania who claim to have been injured in the wreck of Oct. 13. It is thought they left in a state of fright for their homes. John R. Newman, of Norwich, N. Y., is the only fatal case reported, but not known at the time of the accident.

Dry Goods Trade Improving.

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—Although the general run of reports showed little variation in the dry goods market from preceding days, there were indications of business doing in a regular way with buyers venturing on larger purchases than usual in seasonable supplies and leaving out engagements for spring with rather more freedom.

Exports and Imports of Gold.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—The exports of gold in the month of October, 1893, were somewhat greater than in the corresponding month of 1892, being $505,818 in October, 1893, as compared with $484,250 in October, 1892. The imports in October, 1893, were $1,583,937 as compared with $3,118,380 in October, 1892.

El Cid May Sail To-morrow.

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—The newly equipped Brazilian worship El Cid has gone to the Woodruff wharf at the foot of Joralemon street, Brooklyn, where she is now taking coal, and will then be ready to start for Brazil. She will be rechristened the Nightheroy.

Brought on Heart Disease.

NORTHPORT, N. Y., Nov. 16.—Ira Hubbs, aged 63 years, a well-known business man of Commack, L. I., received a letter containing a bill which he had paid. He became excited over the affair and was taken sick, dying in a few hours of heart disease.

Killed Each Other.

WILMINGTON, N. C., Nov. 16.—A special to the Messenger from Greenville, N. C., says: Abner Slaughter and "Doc" Smith killed each other yesterday during a quarrel over wood land. They clinched and emptied their pistols in each other.

Mr. Rusk's Condition Not Improved.

VIROQUA, Wis., Nov. 16.—Mr. Rusk slept but little last night, and in consequence is weaker to-day. He suffers intense pain and his general condition is not improved.

For Killing His Father.

CORNING, N. Y., Nov. 16.—Albert Eveland, who shot and killed his father at Adrian, O., S. has been indicted by the grand jury for murder in the first degree.

Prohibitionists Name a Man for Mayor

HAVERHILL, Mass., Nov. 16.—The prohibition convention last night nominated Walter S. Bray for mayor.

COLLECTOR BAIN HAPPY.

HIS RHEUMATISM GONE, HE IS GAINING IN FLESH.

Mrs Bain Tells How the Trouble Was Permanently Checked—Recovery Depended on a Wise Choice of a Remedy.

An ignorant man is one who knows nothing, or knows badly what he knows, or knows something other than he should know.

But the saddest ignorance is for a sick person not to know the remedy that will make him well.

Fortunately, few people have failed to hear from their physician or from neighbors, the remarkable cures of Paine's celery compound. There is hardly a village in the land weere this great compound has not saved lives and made others worth living. For rheumatism and kindred troubles it is a positive cure. New life, new strength, new health come from its use. It is the result of labor and experience of one of the greatest physicians that ever lived, and from the time when it was first prescribed by Prof. Phelps of Dartmouth, it has been growing in the estimation of the public. Physicians of all schools prescribe it, and those who use it recommend it heartily.

Mr. J. S. Bain is chief of the P. M. collectors in the office at Washington, and one of the trustiest young men in his department. Writing to Wells & Richardson Co., Burlington, Vt., Aug. 22, he said:

"On my word and honor as a gentleman I have not passed a summer in the last seven years without having a spell of two or three weeks with rheumatism. Paine's celery compound saved me this time, and two bottles of the compound have made a new man of me. I weigh more now than I ever did in my life—160 pounds—and Paine's celery compound has the credit of doing this. I have recommended it to two of the men in the office, and it worked like a charm in their cases. One of the men was a total wreck. It would do you good to see him now. He told me today that it was the finest medicine he ever took in his life."

Mrs. Bain wrote a week later as follows:

"My husband for several years has suffered very much with rheumatism. Every spring for years he has lost at least two weeks with this trouble. He had tried every other medicine mentionable, but with little or no relief. In June he had rheumatism in his right shoulder very badly, but am happy to say he lost no time. He got a bottle of Paine's celery compound for the first time, and it checked the trouble in four hours, and now, after taking two bottles, he is himself again, and gaining in flesh very rapidly, weighing more than he ever did in his life. It is a wonderful remedy."

Says a well-known and conservative physician, a graduate of Harvard medical school:

"Paine's celery compound is a remedy, which, so far as my observation has gone has given better results than any which I have ever tried.

"So much better results are obtained, in fact, by celery compound that it has become a regular prescription among the most eminent practitioners. I prescribe it invariably. Every victim of rheumatism may use it."

To cleanse the blood and soothe the nerve centres and rob them of their irritability is the utmost that medical knowledge can do to make sound bodies and minds. Paine's celery compound is today recognized as the most effective agent for strengthening and invigorating the nervous system. It cures rheumatism and neuralgia as nothing else will do.

Mrs. Skerrett Will Reside in Asia.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 16.—Mrs. Skerrett, wife of Acting Rear-Admiral Skerrett, and her two unmarried daughters, who have been at Honolulu with the admiral, will return in time to accompany the admiral to Asia. They will make their home with the American colony in Yokohama.

Robbed By Highwaymen.

ATTLEBORO, Mass., Nov. 16.—In front of the Barrowsville railroad station on the Taunton branch railroad in Norton, last evening, two Poles, Simon Mistolvits and Samuel Cohen, were stopped by two highwaymen, and at pistol points robbed of property valued at $75. The robbers escaped.

Death of Hon. James McDonald.

RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 16.—The Hon. James McDonald, who for nearly half a century has been a conspicuous figure in public life as an editor, secretary of the commonwealth and adjutant-general, is dead, aged 69. He was a brother of the Hon. Alexander McDonald, minister to Persia.

The Jury Was Too Liberal.

HARTFORD, Conn., Nov. 16.—The jury in the suit of Bertha Skinner against F. K. Stanley for $13 for wages due as a domestic, awarded her $75. The judge said they could not go above the sum demanded, and the verdict was changed.

News from Hawaii Expected To-night.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 16.—The steamer Australia is expected to arrive some time to-night. She touched at Honolulu, and it is expected she will bring some important news from the islands regarding the political situation.

THE WEATHER.

For New Jersey: Fair; Slightly Colder Friday Morning; Brisk Northwesterly Winds.

Irrepressible Jim Martine! His friends won't let him alone on his farm. Already he is being discussed as a County Clerk possibility. And why not? Surely the Governor could appoint no better man. Here's that he may get it!

When a man gracefully withdraws from a hopeless contest, it is perhaps unkind to comment; but one cannot help wondering if there is any connection between City Clerk Runyon's declination of prospective renomination and his newspaper remarks about Councilman Millington's conduct in a recent bar-room affair.

The cynical layman has been apt to think of the lawyer as a relentless creature without heart or depth of feeling. But the fallacy was effectually dispelled yesterday by the tears of genuine sorrow that bedewed the cheeks of Union county members of the bar, when the grief of James J. Gerber's death smote suddenly upon them. A man is a man, whatever his profession.

In spite of his triumphant election, and the early clamor that he was the logical Republican candidate for President in the next campaign, the Republican organs are already beginning to show distrust of Governor McKinley's chances for election in the next national contest. For instance, the Newark Advertiser remarks:

A New York evening paper states that at the meeting of the Executive Committee of the National Republican Committee in New York this week "the first move towards nominating Governor McKinley, of Ohio, for President in 1896 will be made". It is probable that this is merely a piece of gossip, for it is not likely that the Republican managers will do anything quite so foolish as to inaugurate a boom for McKinley.

By no one was the crushing blow of James J. Gerber's death felt more keenly than by James E. Martine. Only a few nights ago Mr. Martine was a friendly guest of the Gerber household, where sunshine seemed perpetual; yet last evening on his sad visit of condolence as a devoted friend he found that cheer and brightness transformed into the deepest gloom. When death, which is so familiar an experience, fills with sincere tears to overflowing the eyes of strong men who are accustomed to life's vicissitudes, it means something: and in the case of James J. Gerber it means that he had a permanent place in the affections of the people, and that his death is a widespread personal grief.

A WORTHY TRIBUTE.

Editor McBride of the Elizabeth Journal is always among the first to bestow deserved tribute on living or dead, and it is gratifying to find in his stanch Republican columns the following encomium on that sterling Democrat, James J. Gerber:

Mr. Gerber was born in this city and was 42 years of age. In 1869 he was in the office of the Elizabeth and Newark Horse Railroad Company. He then entered upon the study of law in the office of the late Gen. J. Augustus Fay, Jr. After his admission to the bar, he formed a law partnership with Zerman Norman and continued associated with him, the firm being known as Gerber & Norman, excepting for about two years when Mr. Louis A. Graff was a member of the firm.

Mr. Gerber was a Democrat, and early took active interest in political affairs. In 1882 he was elected Surrogate, and held the position for two terms. In the fall of 1892, he was elected County Clerk, as successor to John T. Crowell.

He was a prominent member of the Young Men's Catholic Literary Association, the Young Men's Democratic Association and the Elizabeth Athletic Club.

He married Miss Busby, and is survived by his wife and one child.

Not only in official and political, but in private, circles was the news of Mr. Gerber's death received with dismay and sorrow. A man of giant statue and commanding presence, his dignity of bearing was marked. Added to this, however, his courteous address and cordial manners made him in themselves a pleasing personality. Among his personal friends—and they were legion—his popularity was unbounded. As one of the earliest members of the Elizabeth Athletic Club, whose prosperity was very dear to his heart, and in whose athletic sports some years ago he was quite prominent, he was a universal favorite, as he was also later in his connection with the Young Men's Democratic Society of Union county and the Young Men's Catholic Literary Association. His loyalty to his friends, and his generosity to all who came to him for help, built up for him a wide personal clientage. His Democratic friends never deserted him or ceased to work for his success, and his Republican friends were proud to boast of their votes for him, and labored zealously for him in all campaigns. To these friends of both parties he never hesitated to give full credit for a great part of his political success.

His success in life was gained by rare personal qualities, by fair and square dealing with friends and foes, and by the industry and perseverance that were born in him. He will be remembered as a shining example of the possibilities our American idea offers to all that have them in them.

Neighbors Come to Town.

Frederick Wood, proprietor of Aldene Villa, Roselle, was in town Wednesday evening, and had a sociable time with his many Plainfield friends.

C. H. French, chief of the Westfield Fire Department, looked into Plainfield's system of doing business, yesterday.

James Taylor, Cranford's popular liveryman, drove to Plainfield last evening with some friends, all of whom were hospitably received.

My catarrh was very bad; for 30 years I have been troubled with it—have tried a number of remedies without relief. A druggist advised Ely's Cream Balm. I have used only one bottle and I can say I feel like a new man. I make this voluntary statement that others may know of the Balm.—J. W. Mathewson, lawyer, Pawtucket, R. I.

With Ely's Cream Balm a child can be treated without pain and with perfect safety. It cures catarrh, hay fever and colds in the head. It is easily applied into the nostrils and gives immediate relief. Price 50 cents.

EMPHATIC OBJECTION BY TAXPAYERS.

THE FAIRVIEW AVENUE PROJECT MEETS OPPOSITION.

Borough Residents Object to the Sacrifice of the Old Thoroughfare and the Opening of Two Narrow and Inadequate Streets.

The attempt to vacate Fairview avenue in the borough is meeting with opposition. The original intentions was to open Fairview avenue from Franklin street (in the middle of the Hyde property), to Somerset. The avenue has been opened in the eastern end for at least twenty years, as the map at that time filed in the Somerset County Clerk's office at Somerville, will testify. Fairview avenue by such map shows that the original intentions were that said avenue would pass through he middle of the 1,500 feet of Allen property to Somerset street. The following remonstrance will be presented at the adjourned meeting of the Council to be held tomorrow evening, and the citizens of that neighborhood in no uncertain tones will emphatically declare themselves as decidedly apposed to the closing of the said avenue.

To the Honorable the Mayor and Council of the Borough of North Plainfield:

GENTLEMEN:—We, the undersigned, residents and property owners of the Borough of North Plainfield, hereby protest against the vacating of Fairview avenue as detrimental to the welfare of the Borough and a great injury to all property in that vicinity.

Fairview avenue as originally laid out and partly opened, extended from Somerset street to Franklin street, one block east of Westervelt avenue. The object as shown by the stakes now set on the Allen property is to open two streets less than 30 feet wide, with lots from 90 to 100 feet in depth and 50 feet frontage.

This scheme interferes with the original intention, and permits of two undesirable streets without an eastern outlet. We respectfully submit that the Council should not lend its aid to the furtherance of this project, to the injury of the community at large.

HIS EXPERIENCE.

How Plainfield's Favorite Lecturer Was Received by Audiences Abroad.

H. H. Regan, whose lecture on Rome in Music Hall next Monday night will be a delight and an education to all who hear it, declares that English audiences are far more enthusiastic and demonstrative than American. It is doubtful if any lecturer ever received in this country a genuine "curtain call", such as our people sometimes accord to a popular actor. But that compliment was paid to Mr. Regan during his English season. At the close of one of his lectures, during which the applause had been so frequent and vigorous that he had been obliged to check it, that the lecture might not be unduly prolonged, he made his bow and left the platform, when to his astonishment he found that the sturdy Britons, instead of being engaged in a frantic struggle to see who should get out of the hall first, according to the agreeable habit of some American audiences, were still there, furiously clapping their hands, pounding the floor with their sticks, waving their hats and umbrellas and shouting his name. For a moment he did not know what to make of it. But, as it became apparent that something must be done, he returned to the hall and bowed his thanks. And it was not until he had done this that the audience dispersed. This occurred three times during Mr. Regan's engagement in the great Free Trade Hall of Manchester, whose walls have echoed the eloquence of all of England's great orators of the past forty years.

Meeting of the Harper Creditors.

The creditors of J. M. Harper met yesterday afternoon to consider the proposition made to them that they should accept 25 cents on the dollar to sign his release. All the creditors save the First National Bank were in favor of accepting but the bank held out for a larger rate of payment and the meeting adjourned for further consideration of the matter. It is understood that a friend of Harper's is willing to advance the cash for a 25 per cent. payment so that he may continue the business. If any creditor insists on a higher rate it will be necessary to sell out the present stock for what it will bring to satisfy the creditors.

Fire in the Oven.

Burning wood in the oven of a stove in one of the flats over Mrs. D. I. Smalley's butcher shop on Somerset street caused a flurry of excitement last evening about 8. Constable Sam Taynor quenched the flames and swallowed a quantity of adulterated smoke while doing so.

To Be Repeated in Third Street.

Next Tuesday evening an illustrated lecture will be given in the Third Street mission, by Joseph Robinson. The views are the same as shown at the Congregational church last week, when a Columbian social was given by the Christian Endeavor society.

A Call to Service.

Christian workers are especially urged to be present at the Men's Meeting in the Y. M. C. A. rooms this evening. Mr. Crane's subject will be "A Call to Service".

$100 Reward, $100.

The reader of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer $100 for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address

WANT IMMIGRATION RESTRICTED.

Plainfield's Mountaineers Think Too Many Folks Come Over Here.

The Debating Society recently formed at Washingtonville held an interesting and enjoyable meeting last evening in the school-house at that place. There was a good attendance of the members.

The roll was called, and those present responded with quotations from Longfellow.

Miss Margaret Miles gave a delightful reading, which was followed by an excellent recitation by Miss Jessie Coddington.

Debate on the subject, "Resolved, That free and unrestricted immigration is beneficial to the United States", proved highly interesting.

John F. Bigger and Robert Clark, Jr., were for the affirmative; while Henry Rogers and Edward Clark argued for the negative. The question was decided in the negative by a vote of those present.

The entertainment closed with an instructive paper by Robert Clark, Sr., on "The Doings of the Society".

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Conductor Harry Hartpence of the street railway is enjoying a vacation.

Pharmacist H. P. Reynolds left town this forenoon for a trip of several days to Connecticut.

Mrs. Snow of New York is ill at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Beal, in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Agustus D. Shepard gave a small dinner last night at their home, "The Gables", Scotch Plains.

Mr. and Mrs. August Trust are stopping with Mrs. Trust's grandmother, Mrs. Hilare Oblitz, of Somerset street.

Mrs. Charles Agans, of Readington, and Mrs. Jasper Agans, of Three Bridges, are visiting friends in this city.

Mrs. John K. Daly, of Readington, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Levi C. Kline, of Jackson avenue, North Plainfield.

M. Pedeflous, of Pedeflous Hotel in Washington Valley, shot twenty-one rabbits the other day, while out gunning.

Warren Squiers and his son George Squiers of the borough are killing all kinds of game in the wilds of Pennsylvania.

Rabbi Berkowitz who is to lecture in All Souls church tonight will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. McCarthy of Park avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wharton Edwards will give a dinner tonight to Malcolm Frazer, an artist friend of Mr. Edwards from Paris.

Col. A. H. King today left the house for the first time since his Hotel Albion fire. He got a bad cold as the result of the election night experience.

A social will be held in the Fanwood club-house on 8th avenue, Thursday evening, Nov. 23. The committee of arrangements is W. S. Harrison and Clarence Lambert. Frazee will furnish the music.

Joseph Compton, who was a resident of Plainfield about 15 years ago, died at his home in Newark a few days ago. The funeral services were held this afternoon, from his late residence on Astor street, that city.

Samuel Doty of West Fourth street has been bereaved of his wife, who passed away this morning in her forty-sixth year. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2. Mrs. Doty was a consumptive. She leaves a family of children.

The Rev. Dr. K. P. Ketcham has gone to Kansas City, Mo., to preach in the First Presbyterian church two Sundays, in place of the famous Rev. Geo. P. Hayes, D. D., who has had to resign because of failing health. This is a post of distinguished honor.

Interest Growing Nightly.

The revival meetings in Grace M. E. church, in the borough, are still largely attended, and much spiritual interest is manifested. Conversions are occurring nightly, and Pastor Randolph and his colaborers are encouraged to continue the meetings next week. Monday evening Dr. Eyman, the celebrated divine, is expected to have charge of the meeting, which will be for men only.

Her Riding Skill Saved Her.

Miss Alice Coard of 127 East Ninth street, while riding horseback yesterday on Park avenue, met with an accident which might have proved serious. The girth broke, throwing her to the ground, but fortunately, through her good horsemanship, she received no injuries, and was able to ride her horse last evening in the Riding Academy.

Let Resumption Be Soon!

A parlor conference in aid of the Y. M. C. A. building fund will be held this evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. J. Fisk. Plans for resuming work on the building will be discussed.

Chicago's Verdict on Plainfield's Coming Feast.

An editorial writer on the Chicago News wrote as follows concerning Mr. Regan's lecture on Rome which Plainfield is to enjoy in all its beauty of fine views and choice language next Monday night:

By his thorough knowledge of the scenes pictured and described, his apt references to historical personages and events, ancient Rome rose before the audience in all the splendor of its magnificent temples and arches. Then he pictured mediæval Rome with its cathedrals and churches, and, finally, modern Rome, with its reminiscences of a glorious past, but rich in treasure of art and learning.

JAMES H. FORCE AT REST.

SIMPLE AND AFFECTING SERVICES IN TRIBUTE TO THE DEAD.

Brother Exempts and a Large Gathering of Other Friends Attend the Body to Its Resting-place—Clergymen Point Out the Lessons of Life, and Offer Comfort to Sorrowing Hearts.

Their hearts aching with grief, many friends and relatives gathered yesterday afternoon to give token of respect and esteem over all that was mortal of James H. Force. Funeral services were held in the Mansion House, Bound Brook, of which Mr. Force had been proprietor, and in the cemetery in North Plainfield, where interment was made. In the hotel, where a large gathering of mourning people had assembled, the Rev. Lincoln B. Goodrich, pastor of the Congregational church of Bound Brook, spoke as follows:

"'Lord, let me know my end, and the number of my days, that I may know how long I am to live.' These words of the Psalmist were not spoken in a fault-finding spirit, but correctly interpreted they mean 'Make me rightly to study my life, day by day, that I may know its true reality. Cause me to learn the lessons Thou wouldst have me know, that I may learn to trust in Thee.' This lesson is exemplified in the beauty of nature, as in the spring flowers, the ripened fruit, the glorious sunlight; they glorify the earth, and so our lives should be glorified by the beauty of the Lord. A power to number or mark his days by earnest endeavor and achievement was David's great desire, and should be ours. Life is a great mystery, and man with his puny mind can only go so far, but he should always be striving ahead. A British chieftain, meeting a Christian teacher, said: 'If you can tell me anything about life, I want to know it.' That should be our desire—to study and know life. To know Christ is the one essential, and He it is that unfolds life to us and gives us strength and comfort. Life is not to be spent alone in the pursuit of fame and riches. To know God is the end of life. He teaches us not to trust in home and friends for the future. For riches flee, homes are made desolate, and dear friends are here today and called away tomorrow. The prophet's words 'Comfort ye, comfort ye, my people', are here applicable. David says 'Teach us to number our days that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom', and may the Great Teacher help us to do this."

The Rev. Cornelius Schenck offered a most impressive and touching prayer, that in its plea for compassion and grace brought comfort divine to the many sorrowing hearts.

An affecting scene ensued, when the large number of people present looked fondly and lingeringly on the composed and lifeless features of the departed. He seemed but asleep, and one could fancy that in a moment the eyes would unfold and the lips would speak, so natural was the expression.

The body was brought to this city on the 3:12 train, escorted by a large procession to the cemetery, and laid to rest. At the grave the casket was opened, and opportunity was afforded for a farewell view of the remains. The Rev. Mr. Goodrich read a selection of Scripture and offered benediction.

A large delegation from the Exempt Firemen's Association attended in a body, forming a line around the hearse and walking to the cemetery. At the North avenue station, where a large crowd had gathered, the Exempts formed a double column through which the rest of the funeral party passed. Pall-bearers served from their number as follows: Wallace Vail, E. P. Thorn, Auguste Saltzman, Thaddeus Doane, Sr., Stephen Ryder and Henry Force.

The floral tributes were beautiful and appropriate. Among them were a pillow with a foundation of pure white, trimmed with lilies, violets, and roses, bearing the inscription "Husband"; a crescent of Japanese chrysanthemums and roses, with the words "Papa"; a spray of Sago palm leaves and nipnetus roses, from the family; a white anchor from the Exempt Firemen's Association. The floral tribute presented by the nieces and nephews comprised a very large bouquet of exquisite Chinese chrysanthemums. Miss Annie Clayton, of Princeton, sent a handsome bouquet of white chrysanthemums and maiden-hair ferns. These and others gave token of the esteem felt for the departed.

All the colored employes of the hotel attended the funeral services in a body, came by train to Plainfield, and rode by carriage to the cemetery.

Union County's Team Foiled Again by the Dandy Parks—A Tie Game at Grub.

The Union County Club went over to the Park Club last night in response to an invitation to bowl a friendly game, after which the Parks entertained their guests at the Union County Club.

When the game was half finished the Parks discovered that the Countys firmly believed that they were going to win, as they had led from the start, and were 46 pins in the lead at the fourth frame, but this was high-water mark, for the Parks settled down to business and won by 38 pins. At the supper which followed the two clubs bowled a tie game.

The score:

AND SUCH IS FAME!

Walton the Angler Lost in the Identity of a Plainfield Coal Heaver.

Galvin Gampers is a Plainfielder of of more or less intellect. Galvin Gampers is n't his name, but for the purposes of this true story it's good enough. Galvin got a billposting boy to give him a lithograph ticket for Music Hall, and went to the World's Fair under the guidance of H. H. Ragan. That cultured traveler and lecturer in the course of his delightful talk mentioned the immortal Izaak Walton, and this set Galvin Gampers ruminating.

"Izaak Walton:"—he muttered to himself—"seems to me I've heard his name before."—He thought a moment, and then added—"Oh yes: I knew Izaak Walton: he used to work in Cook Bros.' coalyard, and got his arm cut off by a big lump of coal falling on it."

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—Frazee beats 'em all, with Pillsbury's XXXX at 50 cents a bag.

—MacDonald today cuts the price of Pillsbury's flour to 55 cts. a bag.

—A lively meeting of the North Plainfield Borough Council will take place tomorrow night.

—The King's Daughters of Hope chapel will give an entertainment in the chapel Nov. 23.

—A "Harvest Home" is in preparation to be given by the women of the First Presbyterian church.

—The hotel business of the late James H Force will be continued by the son, John L., and the widow.

—Grocer Demarest continues a favorite with Plainfield housewives, because of his high-grade quality of goods at suitable prices.

—Take a peep into the famous Catacombs. Mr. Ragan won't let the spooks or brigands hurt you. It's all a part of the romantic trip to Rome.

—Plainfield wives will be interested in the way the wife of "The Prodigal Husband" handles his domestic difficulties as portrayed on Music Hall stage Saturday night.

—A large consignment of fresh Hunterdon county eggs has just been received at Frazee's. He not only warrants them sweet and wholesome, but sells them at 28 cts. a dozen.

—A pleasant social event will be the reception and bazar given by Wetumpka Lodge, No. 3,401, K. of H., in Lodge room, Music Hall building, the evenings of Dec. 11 to 14 inclusive.

—The Christian Endeavor society of the Park Avenue Baptist church will hold a prayer meeting tomorrow evening at 8. The members say "come and bring a friend with you".

—The Apollo Belvedere will come to town next Monday night, in all his glory, and will display his matchless perfection on the big stereopticon canvas of H. H. Ragan in Music Hall.

—Those who could not attend the Religious Congress in Chicago, are to have the opportunity of hearing Rabbi Berkowitz tonight, and later the Mohammedan Webb in the Casino. Both spoke in Chicago.

—Someone tampered with the water pipe outside French's mill last night, and the raceway was being emptied and the roadway filled. The neighboring tenants threaten to watch with shotguns for the offender.

—The popular run at Edsall's is kept up because the people find there the largest variety of nice new goods that always give satisfaction, at lower prices than ever before. The people of Plainfield appreciate a first-class house and Edsall knows it.

—J. C. Allen is now running an extraordinary sale of steel enameled ware. This sale is made possible only through a scarcity of money which forced the owners to sell for what they could get, and prices are less than manufacturers cost. It lasts till December 1, only.

that enter and those which accumulate within the body will be vigorously opposed and expelled if the liver be active. To keep the liver active take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. Health depends greatly upon regularity of habits.

WILLIAM RAMICH, of Minden, Kearney Co., Neb., writes: "I was troubled with boils for thirty years. Four years ago I was so afflicted with them that I could not walk. I bought Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, and took one 'Pellet' after each meal. The boils soon disappeared and have had none since. I have also been troubled with sick headache. When I feel the headache coming on, I take one or two 'Pellets,' and am relieved of it."

SOLD HER SOUL FOR A DANCE.

MANY SUCH INCIDENTS RELATED BY EVANGELIST CRANE.

This Noble Young Preacher Doing a Great Work for the Cause of Religion, Under the Direction of the Y. M. C. A., in Plainfield.

The subject of religion as a prominent factor in the lives of men and women, is being clearly and forcibly discussed by the Rev. Arthur Crane, evangelist, in the Y. M. C. A. rooms, nightly, this week, and a decided expression of serious conviction is evidenced by all who attend the meetings.

The audiences have been large, and the work is thorough and effective.

Last evening the subject was "What ?" and it was handled in a very clever manner. No one present could fail to be impressed by the pointed truths presented. Mr. Crane said in part:

"'What' shall I do with Jesus, which is called the Christ ? His continual teachings were not received gladly; in fact, it was with reproach and scorn that the people heard the Master's word, and opportunities were watched to make away with Him. It is because of these rebellious actions that the Roman Empire has been reduced to a province.

"Pilate said 'I find no fault in Him', and the people began to bring a strong pressure against Christ. So it came to Pilate as a personal question, and one which he could not evade.

"The same question comes to us 'What shall we do with Christ ?' We must decide it ourselves. We may have to undergo the loss of position, or of some darling sin, in consequence; but it must be answered, and answered aright.

"There are three great classes of answerers. The first is the class we call 'Rejectors'. A man cannot have been a rejector unless something has been offered, and so these are people who have some knowledge of religion, and know of Christ's teachings. They have been called to decide the great question. These men are walking on our streets today who have 'sold their birthright for a mess of pottage'. It is not done in one great act, but gradually. I once met a number of young men one of whom remarked that for $5 he would accept Christ and give up the world. I took him at his word, and went so far as to write a contract. When a few words had been written, he became frightened, and backed out of his bargain He would not bind himself; he was a rejector.

"The second class I will term 'Neglectors'. They help to make up the congregations of our churches, sing in church choirs, play the organ, give money for missions, and, in fact, do much for the cause of religion. But even so there were a large number of men who helped Noah build the ark, and they neglected to be saved. You only have to neglect your business to be a ruined man. If I have a cancer on my face, I have only to neglect it, and it will cause death. And so there is a danger-point in your life, and if that is passed you are hopelessly lost. Sometimes business and worldliness creep in and crush out every vestige of religion, and thus by neglect our hope of Salvation dies.

"The final and supreme class is 'Acceptors'. We like to do business with men of decision, and why should n't it be so in religion ? There are many who have desired to be Christians since childhood, but they do n't accept. As goes the will, so goes the man. No tramp throughout this broad land, but desires to be a gentleman, but by choice he is a tramp. I knew a young woman who gave up Christ because the dancing season was coming on, and she sold her soul for a dance. We must let everything else pass, if necessary, but be sure to accept Christ.

"In closing, let me give you four points for your consideration, which are essential:

"Admit the word of God. If you do n't, you are lost. You must admit its teachings as the rule of your life. Let in Christ, and you have peace and power.

"Submit yourselves to Christ, bend your will to Him. We are all working under the direction of the Master Builder Someone has said, Every man has his price if you bid high enough; and it is so in many matters, but when a man gets Christ there is no amount of money that will buy him from his allegiance.

"Commit yourselves to the Lord, and He will guide you. We must not think of trying to lead a right life unless we commit our lives to Him, and then we will be guided aright. We take medicine from a doctor, and think it 's all right; just so we must take divine instruction from our Heavenly Father.

"Lastly, transmit the knowledge you receive from time to time, to others, and in so doing you will serve the Lord. I trust there are those here tonight who by such transmission will win souls to Christ."

Following this first meeting, which was brought to a close at this point, was a second, or consecration service, to which many remained, among them inquirers of the way to Salvation.

Bereavement Postpones Election Payments.

On account of the death of County Clerk James J. Gerber the meeting of the Board of Chosen Freeholders that was to have been held today to arrange for the payment of the election bills has been postponed until Monday, so that those who would have received their checks tomorrow will not receive them until Tuesday of next week.

JUDGMENT AGAINST PATTON.

No Defence Made by the Plainfield Broker to the Allegations of the Craig Executors.

A judgment by default for $54,925 63 has been taken before Justice Andrews of the Supreme Court against Wm. L. Patton and Henry L. Saltonstall, who composed the firm of William L. Patton & Co., brokers, in business at 6 Wall street, New York city. It is in favor of the executors of Robert Craig, who left with Patton & Co. for safe keeping 13 Richmond Terminal 6s, 29 Oregon Improvement 5s, 8 Tennessee Coal and Iron Company's Division bonds, 200 shares Tennessee Coal and Iron Railroad Company's preferred stock, 100 shares Missouri Pacific Railroad Company's stock, and 200 shares East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia Railroad Company's preferred stock. It is charged that this stock and $2,000 in money were embezzled and fraudulently misapplied by the firm, and that it had been used by the firm by pledging it as collateral to secure advances which had been made to them. The suit was brought to recover $60,000. No defence was put in by either member of the firm, and as it was admitted that the value of the stock was $52,000, judgment was allowed to be taken for that sum with interest.

IN PALMER COX STYLE.

Brownie Supper Given by Seventh-Day Baptists.

The Ladies Christian Work Society of the Seventh-Day Baptist church gave a charming "Brownie" supper at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Potter, Seventh street, last evening.

There were about 150 people present, who enjoyed the novelty most thoroughly. Everything possible was given the color of brown, and the effect was striking. Charles Titsworth, Lawrence Miller and Raymond Gorton were dressed to represent Brownies, in accurate style.

A short but pleasing programme was arranged, including a piano solo by Miss Mabel M xson, a piano duet by Miss Jessie Utter and Miss May Tomlinson, and quartette singing by Mrs. D. E. Titsworth, Mrs. C. H. Dunham, Miss Nancy Randolph and Miss Mabel Potter.

The ladies deserve much credit for the arrangement and success of the affair.

Miss Craft to Speak, and Frazee to Play.

In the East Third Street Baptist mission tonight an interesting speaker will address the regular Thursday night meeting. Miss Lulu G. Craft of Bergen Point, who has visited Plainfield before, will speak on a very interesting topic. There will also be cornet music by Mr. Fraz e. No admission will be charged. The meeting begins at 8.

Borough Building Boom.

Jacob Voehl is about to erect a neat house on Grandview avenue; M. C. Ballantine and Mr. Kitchen each will build on adjoining lots around the corner on Somerset street; N. B. Smalley is building a one-story blue stone with a story-and-a-half wood on Mountain avenue, and several others are in course of construction with more to follow.

Go Laugh at These Charades.

The Epworth League, Chapter No. 1, will hold its regular meeting in Vincent chapel tomorrow evening. Interesting charades have been prepared, and Secretary Crone says that everyone may attend and have a good laugh at them.

Many After Two Night-Jobs.

Tonight the army of applicants for the two positions of borough night marshal are to be appear before the Marshal Committee in the court room over the station house and be examined. Councilman Joseph H. Howell is chairman.

Poles Now in the Gutter.

George Kirch, of Somerset street and Grandview avenue, and his neighbor Mr. Kitchen, have set their curb lines in two feet. An electric light and a street railway pole now occupy prominent positions in the gutter.

K. OF L. GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

Rumors of Charges Against the General Executive Board.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 16.—What transpired at yesterday's session of the general assembly, Knights of Labor, is somewhat of a problem. The press committee say that only routine business was transacted, but it was asserted this morning that General Secretary Hayes yesterday afternoon charged the general executive board, of which General Master Workman Powderly is chairman, with having appropriated $30,000 to the use of the order instead of applying it to the relief of the Coeur d'Alene, Homestead and Tennessee mine strikers, for which purpose it is alleged to have been contributed. The statement could not be confirmed, so reticent were the delegates, but no positive denial was forthcoming. It is probable that the matter will come up to-day.

In his annual report General Secretary Hayes recommends the reduction of expenses of the general officers in this city, so that they will be more fully covered by the legitimate revenues, and it is believed that this matter will be an issue of the session.

ANOTHER MEETING OF SPORTS

Final Arrangements for the Fight in Jacksonville.

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—Mitchell and Billy Brady, who represents Corbett, have come to an understanding. It was after a verbal agreement had been made that Mitchell would fight Corbett at Jacksonville, Fla., on Jan. 25 next. Brady promptly bet Mitchell $1,000 that he wouldn't appear. Mitchell took him up, and they shook hands. Mitchell had just signed a theatrical contract, and when the party met refused to fight Corbett earlier than Jan. 25. Brady accepted the date, and Mitchell gave his word of honor that he would stand by it and fight on that date. Mitchell afterward explained that he wouldn't sign any articles in this state. He will sign them all right, though, he says.

As fistic matters now stand, the men will fight at the Jacksonville club on the evening of Jan. 25 next. The club will give a purse of $20,000, and as soon as articles are signed will pay Mitchell and Corbett $2,500 each for training and traveling expenses.

Of the $20,000 stake now in the hands of Dave Blanchard, the Boston sporting man, $10,000 will be drawn down, $5,000 by each man. This will be done at Mitchell's request.

Jailed for Putting on His Hat.

HARTFORD, Conn., Nov. 16.—In the police court Judge Sylvester Barbour sentenced Michael Murphy, a spectator, to five days in jail for contempt of court. Murphy, who had never before been in a police court, either as a prisoner, spectator or witness, sat near the door. When the court adjourned before the judge left the bench, Murphy started, and when within about five feet of the door put on his hat. Judge Barbour ordered him before him, and sent him to jail. Under the state law there is no appeal from a sentence for contempt. A few days ago Judge Barbour told the spectators that they must not put on their hats until outside the court room.

Plums Drop Slowly.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—Few appointments will be made by the president during the eighteen days remaining before the assembling of congress. The filling of some important vacancies under the treasury department will be considered, but the appointments to be made have already been practically disposed of with reference to the selection of candidates. No application for consular offices will be brought to the attention of the president for some time, but notwithstanding their knowledge of this state of affairs, several candidates are persisting in their importunities.

New Postmasters.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—Among the appointments of fourth-class postmasters are the following:

Connecticut—G. V. Wiegand, Hawthorne; S. S. Close, Stanwich.

New York—Frank Nichols, Athens; Mary E. Barrows, Kendall; John DeGraw, Hurleyville; J. W. Esler, Milleses; F. M. Welch, North Collins; J. J. Maybee, Roscoe; G. A. Vanwert, White Lake.

Pennsylvania—J. C. Martin, Jamestown; T. B. Ferguson, Monroeville; M. K. Brown, New Bedford; William Keown, Perryaville.

Business Better at Watertown.

WATERTOWN, N. Y., Nov. 16.—Several manufactories of this city which have been shut down during the past two months on account of the financial depression have resumed operations on a limited scale and are gradually increasing their force. The Babcock buggy company gave employment to 100 of its old men this week, and the Watertown spring wagon company and other manufacturers will call back many of their old employes next Monday.

Pleasures of Journalism.

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—The Herald's Managua, Nicaragua, cable says: "The Nicaraguan authorities put your correspondent in prison the other day for obtaining an interview with the Honduranian agent here about the firing on the stars and stripes in the port of Amapala recently. The American consul here interfered, however, and speedily obtained your correspondent's liberty."

Still Shelling the Riffians.

MADRID, Nov. 16.—The shelling by the Spaniards at Melilla of the camps and the trenches occupied by the Riffians continues without appreciable advantage, so far as can be seen from the citadel or the Spanish outposts. The Riffians return the fire, but they keep a safe distance from the Spanish lines. The casualties on the Spanish side have been very slight.

Only a Typographical Error.

STRANGER THAN FICTION.

Truth Once More Proves Itself Wonderful.

THE LADY HERSELF TELLS THIS REMARKABLE STORY.

Such Facts Should Have a Most Powerful Influence on the Public.

This was surprising news for the little town of Rochester, N. H., where all the facts are known and have been widely commented on, and we believe our readers will be deeply interested when all the details are made known.

Mrs. Lewie M. Henderson resides at 10 Rod Road, Rochester, N. H., and when asked about the matter, spoke freely and unreservedly.

"For a long time," she said, "I was very weak and delicate in health; doctors called my troubles lung and heart disease. I had a very bad cough and spit up blood every day. I was very weak and prostrated and had a number of spells of falling to the floor and also went out doors, in which attacks they thought I was dying.

"I was so nervous my limbs would draw up as though I had the cramp. I was so badly off, so weak and run down, that I had to give up and take to my bed.

"I kept my room for almost 3 months. I then began to take Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, and I believe this medicine is all that saved my life.

MRS. LEWIE M. HENDERSON.

"I have received the greatest possible benefit from its use, and both my husband and myself believe that I could not have lived without it.

Facts like these speak volume for this medicine, Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. If it can make such a remarkable cure as that of Mrs Henderson it is indeed a most wonderful remedy, a medical discovery which is the greatest blessing to our people. If it will cure a bad case as Mrs. Henderson's was, it is an assured fact that it will cure all who are ailing, run down in health or out of order with poor blood, weak nerves, stomach, liver and kidney diseases. It will surely make the weak strong, the sick well. Besides it is purely vegetable and harmless.

Doctors widely recommend its use. It is indeed a physician's prescription, the discovery of Dr. Greene, of 35 West 14th street, New York, who is so wonderfully successful in curing all forms of nervous and chronic diseases. The doctor can be consulted free, personally or by letter.

There's nothing SO GOOD AS Cottolene

The new vegetable shortening. Wherever introduced, it drives lard from the kitchen, and indigestion from the household. It has been tried by every test, and has met every requirement. It is as much superior to lard as the electric light is to the tallow-dip. The only question now is, will you give your family the benefits which its use bestows?

There's nothing LIKE Cottolene

In composition, in healthfulness, in flavor, or in economy. Its success has called out a lot of imitations and counterfeits made for the sole purpose of selling in the place and on the merits of Cottolene. Avoid them all. They are made to sell and they are a sell. Get the genuine COTTOLENE.

A WONDERFUL BOAT

That's What the Cruiser Columbia Promises.

For the Short Run Made Yesterday She Showed a Speed of 24:62 Knots, and This in a Rough Sea—To Try Again To-morrow.

BOSTON, Nov. 17.—The great trial of the United States cruiser Columbia, for which such extensive preparations had been made, was started yesterday according to programme over the measured course between Cape Ann and Cape Porpoise, but before fifteen minutes of the four hours run had been accomplished, Edwin S. Cramp was compelled to abandon the race against time because the high wind had blown the buoys and marking boats out of position.

If the weather permits the trial will be made to-morrow. In the short run that was made the cruiser's speed was at the rate of 22 3-4 knots an hour.

The Sea Was Rough.

When Capt. Sargent weiged anchor and steamed the Columbia out to sea, the wind at the time was blowing fresh and the sea was rough, but both Mr. Cramp and Capt. Sargent laughed at the suggestion of a postponement of the trial.

Admiral Belknap, the chairman of the board, Commodore Walker, Commanders Cooper and Cook and Lieut.-Commander Hemphill were brought to the ship by a tug, and with all the representatives of the government now on board, the Columbia started slowly toward Cape Ann, the lower end of the measured course.

Government Observations.

According to Admiral Belknap's orders, one government steamer, having on board officers charged with the duty of making time and tidal observations, was to be stationed at each buoy, about 100 feet inshore. The Columbia's course lay seaward of the buoys.

Although the strength of the wind increased every minute, blowing from the land and straight across the course, the representatives of the ship's builders had no thought of postponing the trial.

Ten minutes before the Columbia reached the starting line a long, hoarse blast from her whistle notified everybody on deck and below that the trial would be made.

Up to Forced Draught.

Meanwhile, down in the bottom of the ship, Engineer Patterson and Fireman Johnston had worked the machinery up to forced draught, and when the Columbia dashed across the line the three engines were each averaging 137 revolutions per minute, a greater velocity than was reached at any time during Tuesday's preliminary trial.

The decks of the Dolphin were filled with officers and seamen as the Columbia passed and all sent up a "God's speed" that was only faintly heard on the racing ship.

By this time the wind had increased to what old sailors described as a fresh "top-gallant breeze off shore." The bay was a mass of feathery "white-caps" and those compelled to remain on deck were drenched by the continuous showers of spray which swept the ship from bow to stern.

Pounded Her Way Along.

Impelled by her powerful machinery, the Columbia pounded her way over the course, passing the second buoy in six minutes and sixteen seconds from the time of her start. The distance between the two buoys is 2.37 knots, and her speed was therefore at the rate of 22.3-4 knots.

The third buoy was 6.66 knots away, and by the time two thirds of the distance had been made, Captain Sargent discovered that something was wrong.

Veteran Luke Chambers was doing the steering and his effort to steer straight for the Kearsarge threw the Columbia nearly five points off her course. This was explained soon after when it was found that the Kearsarge, unable to hold her anchor, had been blown nearly a mile out to sea. The buoy behind which she should have been stationed was not visible and it is supposed the wind had carried it to sea also.

Trial Abandoned.

This mishap destroyed all chance of going over the course properly, and Mr. Cramp ordered the red flag lowered, thus announcing the temporary abandonment of the trial.

Slowly and with apparent reluctance, Captain Sargent turned the Columbia around and headed her for Boston.

According to one of Cramp's engineers the engines at their highest velocity averaged as follows: port 140 revolutions; starboard 138; centre 136.

A Good Showing

The air pressure averaged half an inch, whereas the contract limit is one inch. The steam pressure was below the designed limit of 160 pounds at all times. The greatest horse power development during the short time the machinery was on forced draught was 21,500.

The exact, although of course unofficial time, was 24:62 knots an hour.

The greatest previous speed on record was made by the Campania, that ship on her trial making 23:32 knots in a one hour run.

THE SITUATION IN BRAZIL.

Evident Preparations for a Serious Battle at Rio.

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—The Herald's Montevideo cable says: All cable communication with Rio Janeiro was cut off Wednesday morning, owing, it is reported, to the fact that the cable office and plant there are being removed further from the water front in anticipation of the promised furious bombardment of the capital by Mello's fleet.

The Herald's correspondent in Buenos Ayres sends word that the Chilian minister in Argentina has been ordered to sell the torpedo boat Aquila at auction. She was originally purchased by Balmaceda, and is on her way here.

It is believed in this city that President Peixoto has instructed Minister Mentein to buy her for use in his operations against Mello.

The Herald says: From a source which may be fully relied on it was learned that the steamer Boston, of the Yarmouth steamship line, of Boston, was bought by Charles R. Flint & Co. for $320,000, the vessel being intended for service as a cruiser by the Brazilian government. She will be brought to New York to be fitted out.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR WILLIS.

Steamship Held at San Francisco a Day for Washington Mails.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—A telegram was received in this city from San Francisco informing the Hawaiian minister that the steamer Monowai, of the Oceanic line, scheduled to sail Thursday for Honolulu, would be detained until to-day. No reason was given. This is the steamer that was booked to carry the mails that mean so much to both governments. Additional instructions for Minister Willis and some observations by Minister Thurston are in the mail sacks. There is a steamer to sail a day earlier from Victoria, B. C., on the Canadian Pacific line that will stop at Honolulu, and it is barely possible that Mr. Thurston's packet has been forwarded to that port by wire by Mr. Wilder in the hope of securing an advantage over this government. But Victoria is 400 miles further from Honolulu than San Francisco, and it is doubtful whether the day's start would be of avail. But that is a question to be solved only by the results.

No further news is anticipated now until Saturday, when the Australia arrives.

No Red Hat for Ireland Yet.

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—The Herald's Rome correspondent cables: The pope will hold a consistory in February, when several cardinals will be created. The question of conferring the purple on Archbishop Ireland has been raised, but the pope seems to have abandoned that idea, being afraid of offending the Jesuits, who are still very powerful, and who, it is known, have opposed Archbishop Ireland. Consequently no American cardinal will be designated at the next consistory. It is not impossible that Archbishop Satolli shortly may be raised to the cardinalate. In such an event he will be recalled to Rome, but the apostolic delegation will be maintained and a successor to him will be appointed.

New Postmasters.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—Among the latest appointments of fourth-class postmasters are the following:

New Jersey—Poetzburg, Ewald Kuehl. New York—Carlyon, G. M. Welch; Cassville, C. C. Clark; Constableville, James Doyle; Harrisville, Fred E. Palmer; Prospect, C. D. Harris; Richmondville, O. R. Mann; Turin, O. A. Shepard; Washington Mills, J. H. Simons; West Camden, H. F. Winchester.

Pennsylvania—Florin, C. L. Wittell; Granite Hill, John Duttera; Landisburgh, W. H. Burtnett; New Oxford, C. A. Klingle.

Cut in Plate Glass.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Nov. 17.—The next manufactured product to receive a cut in the market price is plate glass. The extent of the decline cannot yet be given. Is has been decided, however, that a lowering of the rates must be made. Exports from the various factories show that all except two are doing some work, but none in full. There is no immediate prospect of better business. Prices are fairly good but until there is a change in the situation the output will not be increased.

Textile Business Bad.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 17.—A table of figures compiled from the official reports of the state factory inspectors shows that of 500 textile establishments in this city but 18 per cent. are in operation. The 500 mills employ 90,000 men, and only 17,500 of these are working. The same tables show that while in August last 75 per cent. of the total workmen were idle, there are 90 per cent. without work now.

Police to Watch Footballists.

BOSTON, Nov. 17.—Mayor Matthews has received a letter from the mayor of the city of Springfield requesting him to furnish to the city of Springfield, on the occasion of the annual Yale-Harvard football game, Nov. 25 next, one captain of police, six sergeants and 100 patrolmen. The mayor has asked the board of police to grant the request, if possible.

Archbishop Kenrick May Resign.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 17.—It is rumored that Archbishop Peter Richard Kenrick, of this diocese, will resign. If the venerable archbishop retires from his palatial residence on Lindell boulevard it is generally understood he will go to the Mullanphy hospital and end his illustrious ecclesiastical career in the Catholic institution on Montgomery street.

K. OF L. IS HARD UP

Why Some Requests for Aid Have Been Refused.

No Lack of Sympathy—Necessity of Paying Dues When Possible Explained—Boycotts Not Always Expedient—Duty of Delegates.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 17.—It was not until yesterday afternoon that the annual report of the general executive board of the Knights of Labor was given out for publication, although abstracts of it had been previously learned.

In addition to what has been published, the report says that it was with regret that requests of members for the issuance of applications for financial assistance had been refused by the board.

No Lack of Sympathy.

The refusals were due to the financial depression, the report continues, and not because of a lack of sympathy.

The board holds that as the per capita tax is almost the only source of revenue the order has, requests for exoneration for the non-payment of dues should only be made in case of absolute necessity.

The "allies and comrades of the Farmers' Alliance" and the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen are thanked for aiding in Knights of Labor boycotts, and the board places itself upon record in this matter by the following:

About Boycotts.

"An unjust boycott or one declared for inadequate cause cannot be successfully carried on, and in the end it will certainly react prejudicially upon the body that has declared it. Even though a boycott may be justifiable, it may not always be expedient."

The report then continues:

"Factory inspectors and the officers charged with the enforcement of foreign contract labor laws should feel that, if they honestly and fearlessly enforce the provisions of laws and do their duty without favor or respect of peasons they will have the support of organized labor. When deputations of those who are interested in escaping the operation of those laws wait upon secretaries to secure the removal or silencing of too faithful officers, we should be prepared to make an emphatic protest."

Still Have Faith in Dempsey.

The Homestead affair is recalled by declarations of the innocence of Hugh Dempsey, of district assembly No. 3, who was convicted of poisoning, "on the evidence of professed informers."

BROOKLYN'S POLITICAL MUSS.

Charges to Be Preferred Against District-Attorney Ridgway.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Nov. 17.—B. F. Adams, who was a member of the Kings county March grand jury, announces that he will formally prefer charges to Gov. Flower against District Attorney James W. Ridgway.

While on the grand jury he claims that Mr. Ridgway misdirected the jurors as to their duties, and misconstrued the law so as to shield certain officials.

Mr. Adams will appear personally before the governor to present the charges in detail.

Gov. Flower has written Mr. Adams a letter saying he would hear such charges as Mr. Adams might care to make against the district attorney.

FRIGHTENED BON-TONS.

A Crank Fires Several Shots in Delmonico's Restaurant, New York.

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—A crank created consternation last evening at Delmonico's by shooting through the windows of the restaurant and also in the vestibule. He was overpowered and arrested. He is a stonecutter, without work, and said he only wanted to scare the rich folks in the restaurant.

His firing caused a panic. Well-dressed men and women sprang from the tables and fled to the street, while the waiters crawled under the tables in fear.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—The president appointed D. M. Kilpatrick, of Louisiana, assistant treasurer of the United States at New Orleans, in place of Andrew Hero, jr., and John D. Stocker, of Georgia, surveyor of customs at Atlanta, Ga.

WAR AGAINST ARABS

The Recent Belgian Campaign in the Congo.

Thousands Killed and Thousands Taken Prisoners—Emin's Mistress and Child Escape the Massacre—His Murderer Shot—His Latest Papers.

BRUSSELS, Nov. 17.—Mail dispatches from the Congo Free State have brought the details of Capt. Dhanis' victories over the Arabs at Nyangwe and Kasongo some months ago.

The Arabs had entrenched themselves along the Congo and outnumbered the Belgians twenty to one. Nevertheless, after a bloody fight, the Belgians carried the Arab positions. Many Arabs were killed and wounded and 8,000 were taken prisoners.

Planned to Expel All Europeans.

The fugitive Arabs tried to cross the Lualaba river some distance southeast of the Nyangwe. Hundreds were drowned and the rest scattered in all directions.

Letters found upon prisoners showed that the Arabs had planned to expel all the Europeans from the whole Congo region.

Further north on the Congo, Capt. Pouthier, after capturing Kibundu, half way between Stanley Falls and Riba Riba, drove Rachid and Kibenge, with their men, for three days across the country.

Emin's Murderer Shot.

The Europeans made thousands of prisoners and seized 1,200 rifles.

Among the prisoners were 25 Arab chiefs, one of them, Abibo Ben Said, who killed Emin Pasha in October, 1892, in the northeastern part of the Congo Free State. The murderer was court-martialed and shot, after having been identified.

Emin's Mistress and Child Escape.

The only survivors of the massacre were Zanzibarite Asinia, Emin's mistress, and their child, Monsonna. The Arabs spared the boy, in the expectation that if endowed with his father's brains and energy he might be trained to be a great leader.

All of Emin's latest papers were received yesterday and were delivered to King Leopold.

The leaders of the Belgians in the Congo Free State say that nearly all the children of the Arab chieftains in the Congo region have been captured.

IN THE FIRST DEGREE.

Hill Convicted Last Night of the Murder of Mrs. Rotzler.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 17.—James Newton Hill, charged with the murder of Mrs. Rosa Rotzler, a well-to-do widow of Apollo, Pa., was at 7:30 o'clock last night found guilty of murder in the first degree.

The evidence was all circumstantial but so strongly against Hill that he was found guilty.

A motion for a new trial will be made.

The crowd in the court room on the closing day of the trial was the largest since the case was called.

Hill looked pale when brought in. Once seated he became as impassive as ever. His wife was given a seat beside him and his little daughter perched herself upon his knee. His weeping mother gave him a glance that was full of love and confidence as she was led by him to a seat in the ladies' corner.

Hill's wife and child wept bitterly and Hill tried to comfort them. The little girl was quieted by her father, who held her tightly in his arms. It was a pitiful scene, full of pathos and attracted the attention of court, jury, lawyers and spectators.

Dangerous Crank Arrested.

PATERSON, N. J., Nov. 17.—A crank who gave his name to the police as Joseph Mitch is now locked up at police headquarters for threatening to blow up St. Bonaventure's monastery in this city. Mitch called at the monastery and demanded from the mother superior $5,000. He threatened to blow up the building unless his demand was complied with.

Will Command the El Cid.

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—The officer of El Cid, who will conduct the fighting, if she has any, is Charles H. Hill, a graduate of Annapolis in the class of 1880. He served in the United States ship Alliance during her Arctic search for the Jeanette, and has served on the Enterprise. In 1884 he retired from the navy, and has since been in business.

Guarded Against Cranks.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 17.—Mayor Koch is afraid of cranks, and about three weeks ago he had the chief of police detail a man to remain in the mayor's ante-room or to patrol the hall outside and watch the mayor's door. He has received many threatening letters during the past month.

Pleads Guilty of Bigamy.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 18.—William A. Smith has pleaded guilty to an indictment of bigamy. He will be sentenced next Monday. He married a Miss Lockard of Atlantic City, N. J., in July, 1890, and in September of the same year married Miss Mamie A. Mertens of this city.

After Wrong Doers at Elmira.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 17.—Anthony Comstock, the noted New York reformer, addressed the National Reform association last evening, and left for Elmira, N. Y., where he expects to procure the arrest of parties engaged as procurers of young girls for immoral purposes.

Fourteen-Year Old Boy Sentenced.

FREEHOLD, N. J., Nov. 17. — Lewis Woods, the 14-year-old lad of Brooklyn who killed little Bertie Wagner at Howell with a shot gun last April, was yesterday sentenced to imprisonment in the state reform school until he is 21-years-old.

Cuban Rebels Surrender.

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—General Jose Marti, representative of the independent party of Cuba in the United States, received a dispatch to-day to the effect that the Cuban rebellion is at an end and that the insurgents have surrendered.

OUR BONDS ABROAD

Interest on About $18,800,000 Crosses the Ocean.

This is in the Registered Class Alone and no Attempt is Made to Estimate the Coupon Bonds Held Abroad—Register Tillman Wants More Pay.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—The report of J. Fount Tillman, who on the first of July last, succeeded General W. S. Rosecrans, resigned, as register of the treasury, is just made public. It necessarily covers only the period during which Mr. Tillman's predecessor held control, but the voluminous tabulated statements presented contain much information of interest.

As to foreign holders of United States registered bonds, Register Tillman says:

Registered Bonds Held Abroad.

"The term 'Foreign,' is applied to the ledgers upon which are posted the names of owners who desire their interest checks sent to some foreign country. In a few cases the owners are American citizens, living abroad for a more or less extended period, but the larger portion is the property of foreigners.

"From such examinations as it is possible to make, it is evident that a larger proportion of the registered bonds owned abroad are controlled by agents resident in this country. As a rule, the home of the owner does not appear upon the bonds itself, nor is its location furnished to the department, except when it becomes necessary to assign the bond.

"In October, 1892, the names of holders of registered bonds, who for various reasons were supposed to be of foreign nationality, were compiled and found to amount to about $18,800,000, out of which only $4,839,300 appeared upon the foreign ledgers."

This sum, Mr. Tillman thinks, is much nearer the truth than the "extravagant guesses which have often times been made and printed."

Coupon Bonds Not Estimated.

No attempt was made to estimate the amount of United States coupon bonds held abroad.

It is stated, that, under many disadvantages, the labor of analyzing the expense of each of the great government loans to the amount of interest paid thereon, has been carried to almost perfect completion, and it is hoped that within the next month a satisfactory tabulated statement of the result will be ready for submission.

Mr. Tillman concludes as follows:

Wants Salaries Increased.

"This is one of the oldest as well as one of the most responsible bureaus in this department, being coexistant with the government itself, but the salaries paid to the register, assistant register and chiefs of divisions are less than those paid to such officers in other bureaus.

"In part, to correct this inequality of pay, I recommend that the salary of the register (now $4,000) should be increased to $5,000; that of the assistant register to $2,700, and that of the chiefs of the several divisions, to $2,100."

New Jersey Odd Fellows.

TRENTON, N. J., Nov. 17.—The annual session of the New Jersey grand lodge, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, came to an end yesterday afternoon with the election of the following officers: grand master, Frank W. Tassey, Camden; deputy grand master, Dr. John H. Griffith, Phillipsburg; grand warden, Fergus A. Dennis, Princeton; grand secretary, Lewis Parker, Trenton; grand treasurer, Joseph L. Lamb, Juliustown; grand representative, August Grassman, Hoboken.

An Incident of the Far West.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Col., Nov. 17.—George Lear walked into the Branch saloon on Bull mountain Wednesday night and began to shoot. Irene Good, a young girl, cried "I am killed," and fell to the floor. The barkeeper then began putting lead into Lear. The latter, although wounded, walked over to the dying girl, shot her again and fell dead across her body.

Running Wild in the Woods.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., Nov. 17.—Near Paint Rock, Tenn., a Chinaman, who was robbed recently of all his money, shamefully beaten and driven to the woods, is now roaming around in that vicinity in a violently insane condition. The assailants have been arrested. The Chinese minister at Washington and Secretary Gresham will be notified.

Suspicious of Irishmen.

CHICAGO, Nov. 18.—Attorneys for the state seem to be suspicious of all Irishmen who are brought into the jury box to be examined as to their qualifications to try Daniel Coughlin for his life. Nearly all the 13 peremptory challenges which have been exhausted by the state so far have been used on veniremen of Irish birth.

A Crank Nabbed Just in Time.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 17.—Gov. Matthews, having received numerous threatening letters from a man signing himself Hiram Collins, of White county, became apprehensive and on Wednesday notified the authorities at Logansport. Collins was arrested yesterday just after he had bought a revolver and a ticket for this city.

Probably Don't Care Now.

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—Selina Nicholson, 19 years old, an immigrant girl who is being detained at Ellis Island to be returned, yesterday received a letter informing her that she had fallen heir to 2,000,000 marks or about $500,000. She will probably be allowed to land now.

Candidate for Senator Hoar's Shoes.

BOSTON, Nov. 17.—The announcement that Congressman Draper is a candidate to succeed Senator George F. Hoar, providing Mr. Hoar is not a candidate himself, is confirmed by Gen. Draper.

Gale on the Jersey Coast.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Nov. 17.—Three big schooners ran on Brigantine shoals yesterday, but got off without serious damage. Strong gales are blowing from the west and the sea is very high.

THE DAILY PRESS.

A. L. FORCE, - - Publisher and Proprietor.
WALTER IRVING CLARKE, - Managing Editor.

THE WEATHER.

For New Jersey: Fair Today, Followed by Increasing Cloudiness and Rain on Saturday; Slightly Warmer, Followed By Much Colder Weather During Saturday Night; Southerly Changing to Northwesterly Winds on Saturday.

Old Father Time at Babel Tower enjoyed the noisy racket;
At Bedlam's tongues he chuckled off the buttons of his jacket:
But were there fifty Fathers Time, 'tis Plainfield sure would rile 'em—
He heard the firegongs both turned loose, and's now in the asylum.

The Plainfield Daily Press is quoted so much through the State that it is accustomed to exchanges getting mixed in giving credit; but when The Monmouth Democrat transfers to the account of the Plainfield Press's Paterson namesake the remarks these columns made in honor of Senator James A. Bradley, then the Editor feels like saying Now you stop!

The prize telegraphic blunderer lives in New Brunswick. New York ticked off a message for the New Brunswick Times, that "F. B. Thurber, millionaire grocer, assigned noon today", and the Raritan river city operator took it down "assassinated". The editor of The Times, who two days ago looked like an own brother of the Seven Someothermans Sisters, has snatched himself baldheaded, as the boys say, and is now after the scalp of the wretched telegraph man. For the startling "assassination" story ran through his whole edition, and the editor's only forlorn comfort is that it was "a 'beat', anyway".

Hugh Boyd of the New Brunswick Home News is the last man in the world to give taffy to anyone in politics, and the Hon. John Ulrich is therefore assured that the compliment so freely bestowed by Mr. Boyd editorially on the Plainfield Republican statesman is volunteered as a recognition of merit pure and simple. Mr. Boyd says:

The Hon. John Ulrich of Plainfield is a candidate for the office of State Comptroller, an appointment which will be in the gift of the incoming Legislature. Mr. Ulrich is indorsed for this important position, by the Republican Executive Committee of Plainfield. He is universally recognized as a leader in the Republican party, made a most efficient member of the Assembly, and is a gentleman every way qualified for the office. If a young man is to get this lucrative position it could hardly fall into more worthy hands than Mr. Ulrich's.

A QUESTION OF MORALS.

Criticism has been made in certain quarters that advertising posters displayed about town were offensive and should be suppressed. The attack was begun by an individual who had a personal grudge to gratify, and who has succeeded by his methods and misrepresentations in getting the Ministers Association to adopt a resolution urging the Common Council to act in the matter.

It is no part of the claim of The Daily Press that objectionable posters have never been displayed on Plainfield billboards and in Plainfield shop-windows; but it is nevertheless a fact that there has been far greater misrepresentation by the originator of the bill-board warfare than there has been vicious pictorial exposure by others.

The same person who is now so rampant on the poster question, and who finds particular fault with the displays made by the management of Music Hall, was some time ago himself a manager of Music Hall, and controlled the theatrical posting about town. At that time he pretended to just as high a code of morals as he pretends today. But was he then so chaste and lofty-minded that he would permit only Scripture pictures and prosaic reading matter to be displayed on the walls? Instead, he himself was personally responsible for the posting of the notorious "Corsair"-posters, which were really the most lascivious display of gaudy paper ever seen from a Plainfield sidewalk. In those days—three short years ago—he was none too good to run spectacular shows such as he now condemns, and to order posted the sort of pictures that he now speaks of as indecent, disgraceful, demoralizing. It might be a change of heart that makes the difference—we should be glad if it were—but it is n't: it's the fact that of the two applicants to the Board of Directors of Music Hall Association for the lease of the house, he was the rejected one. All of his criticisms of Music Hall matters are made for the same despicable reason.

And it is because he who poses so grandly as a moral crusader is in reality actuated solely by spite, envy and malice, that The Press is led into these remarks on the poster question. No doubt many good people have been offended by the questionable pictures that have sometimes appeared. But that is no excuse for the continual personal villifications which the pretending moral crusader has poured on the inoffensive head of the owner of the bill-boards in Plainfield. From his own Music Hall experience the moral pretender knows that the owner of the bill-boards has no control over the paper displayed on boards leased by the manager of Music Hall. And he knows that he is doing a rank injustice in thus repeatedly assailing the wrong man. If anyone is to blame in the posting of theatrical pictures, the responsible party is the manager of Music Hall, or the Board of Directors who sanction his actions. Over the paper that Music Hall posts, the owner of the bill-boards has no control whatever. Why does not the censor strike at the root, and criticize the artist who conceives the pictures and the manager and directors who control the display—not the innocent owner who has transferred the use of his boards to them and who has no power to control or regulate what they shall post?

But what is to be expected from a person who disregards the Scriptural injunction about the mote in his brother's eye and the beam in his own? What is to be expected from one whose chief remembrance of his college days—that period in a young man's life when he is stamping into fixed coin the metal of his mind and heart—consists of the coarse, vulgar and indecent stories that he accumulated from wild associates and wilder experiences? Surely if a loud picture is bad, a loud story is infinitely worse: for the picture is a casual thing that may or may not make impression, while the story is something that the teller gloats upon and stamps indelibly, with its evil influences, on the minds of those who hear it. And without going beyond the ranks of the more or less moral pretenders of the town, The Press can point out a person whose particular delight, aside from vilifications of decent people, is the retailing among impressionable youth of tales that not only do not obtain audience in polite society but that do work harm and degradation in the souls into which they are insidiously instilled. The matter of ordinary theatrical posters is largely an application of "Evil to him that evil thinketh", but there is no question whatever as to the immoral influence of the "racy anecdote" and the "awfully rich" tale that has to be told on the quiet lest it should bring a blush to some fair cheek or stun some gentle heart. Is not the low-bred and vulgar-minded offer to tell such stories to boys and young men just as much an insult to the purity of manhood as it would be to noble womanhood? Shall the effect of mothers' yearnings and mothers' prayers be effaced for the gratification of the pandered taste that loves to roll a juicy story as a sweet morsel under the tongue? Shall one whose pronounced habit in life is to tell such tales on every possible occasion be accepted as the moral mentor of a town like Plainfield?

Well would it be for the community and the commonwealth were the high-born principle of Charles Sumner to rule in the breasts of that all too prolific class of men who when they have a personal axe to grind and see their chance set themselves forward as leaders of moral reform. Sumner was one in a gathering of males, some of whom were distinguished and all of whom were widely known in society and the professions. But even as Plainfield has not escaped the Uriah Heeps and the social vipers and the moral lepers and the wolves in sheep's clothing, so this gathering had not escaped one of them. He was a sleek and pious-looking chap, but he cast a leer about the room and smacked his tongue on his lips, as he rose and said:

"As there are no ladies present, I will venture a story."

"Sir,"—said Sumner—"there are no ladies present, it is true; but do not forget that there are gentlemen."

Tales such as Sumner suppressed were reported to have been told at a recent political gathering in Elizabeth, and Plainfield's volunteer moral crusader waxed virtuously hot against the "debauchery of morals" involved. He was straining a point for partisan effect—that was all: and anyone knowing his own personal habit and fondly hoping that he had actually reformed must sadly disabuse his mind of the idea.

Honest missionaries in the cause of public morals should by all means seek to suppress whatever is indecent in public display; but sincere crusaders will not lose sight of the grave need of suppressing also some of the whited sepulchres that are forcing themselves into notoriety. The path of pretension and hypocrisy ends at the precipice of shame.

PRUDENTIAL LENDS A HAND.

Here's a Corporation with a Soul, and That Soul is John F. Dryden.

In the advertising columns of The Press today, will be found a copy of a letter written by John F. Dryden, President of the Prudential Insurance Company of Newark, to the five thousand agents of the company throughout the world.

Realizing that the present hard times have pressed heavily on every kind of business, and on people of every station, the officers of the Prudential Insurance Company have determined to extend all possible relief to their policy-holders, and in the letter published elsewhere the method of giving this relief is detailed plainly.

Although this insurance company will lose many thousands of dollars in cash by this system of relief, it will gain much in popularity and fame. Its reputation for fair dealing is well established in New Jersey, and that this reputation is deservedly won is again evidenced by the present concession to the policy-holders.

The action of President Dryden should encourage a large accession of new business to the Prudential, which is daily proving itself to be the best company to secure easy-payment insurance in.

Prayer All Day Tomorrow.

At the Y. M. C. A. rooms tomorrow arrangements have been made for an all-day prayer meeting. There will be a change of leaders every hour from 10:30 a. m. All ladies and gentlemen having the spiritual welfare of any young man at heart and desiring the prayers of God's people, are urged to leave their requests for prayer with the many already received. All are earnestly requested to be present, even though they can remain no longer than five minutes.

The reader of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer $100 for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Charles Tallman is confined to his home in the borough, by illness.

The next rehearsal of the Melopoia will be held in the Casino Wednesday evening, Nov. 22.

Past Councilor Moore of Sherman Council, Cranford, was a guest of Franklin Council, No. 41, Jr. O. U. A. M., last evening.

Howard Lance was installed Warden of Franklin Council, No. 41, Jr. O. U. A. M., last evening, by State Officer H. G. Adams.

Albert Schomp, of West Front street, a faithful Press carrier, is ill with a gathering in his head. Dr. Probasco is attending him.

Miss Mildred P. Marsh, daughter of J. M. C. Marsh of Westfield, is visiting her cousins, the Misses Searing of Madison avenue.

W. E. MacClymont, assisted by Raymond W. Smith, tenor, of Newark, will give an organ recital in the First Baptist church Nov. 28.

Dr. Adams, Captain Doane and Charles Leggett took a trip over the mountains yesterday, hunting for woodcock. They were not very successful.

Fred Hui, Mill Meeker, Chas. Burnett and Joseph Blatz will spend next week gunning in Pike county, Pa. They will go principally for rabbit and deer.

Mrs. Dr. Penfield, of Park avenue and Seventh street, returned Wednesday from Independence, Iowa, where she has been for over two months, visiting her uncle.

A very beautiful floral tribute to James H. Force, omitted from yesterday's list, was the large pillow of roses and chrysanthemums, bearing the letters "J. H. F.", presented by guests of the hotel.

Mrs. Klink, of East Front street, was taken suddenly ill, while playing dominoes at her home, Thursday evening. She was carried to her bed and Dr. Long attended her. Her complaint is assigned as heart disease.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Bunn, of Evona, celebrated the fifth anniversary of their marriage last evening. About 60 guests were present from Westfield, Metuchen Bound Brook and this city. Music was furnished by O'Reilly.

F. L. C. Martin leaves town today for his annual trip to Boston and other New England points. When he returns next week he will have something to say about '94 wheels, which he claims will be the finest yet produced.

The death of Bessie R. Baxter, the only daughter of Charles F. and Arabella D. Baxter, of Richmond street, occurred yesterday morning. She was taken with diphtheria which later developed into Bright's disease. The child was in her seventh year.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Angleman, of Madison avenue, celebrated their crystal wedding last evening. Friends from this city, Somerville and Flemington joined in making the event a happy one. A number of handsome presents were received by Mr. and Mrs. Angleman.

Mr. and Mrs. Fesmier, the latter a daughter of Gen. D. L. Allen of Scotch Plains, returned home from Chicago Wednesday night and were met at the Fanwood station by Frank R. Allen, who escorted them to the family mansion, where the old people were surprised at their arrival.

Councilman George H. Frost, whose sister-in-law is dying in Brockville, Ontario, is a daily visitor at Consul Demarest's office in that city, where he is staying at present. Their principal subject of discussion is Plainfield's prosperity in general and its dependence for future results on a sewerage system in particular.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wharton Edwards gave a delightful little dinner at their pretty residence, corner of LaGrande avenue and Franklin place, last night. It was given in honor of Malcolm Frazee, a brother artist who has recently come to this country from Paris, where he has been finishing his artistic education. The guests were Miss Huntington, Miss Yates, Miss Harte, Miss Frazee, Malcolm Frazee, Augustus D. Shepard, Jr., Percy Stewart and Howard Huntington.

Dancing in the Barn.

A reception was given by Thos. Boohan, coachman for T. B. Penton of Rockview avenue, last evening. About fifty young people gathered at his barn, on invitation Thomas threw the doors wide open, and as early as 9:30 the happy young people began to arrive and pay their respects to the host.

The evening was royally spent in dancing to the strains of O'Reilly's orchestra, this pastime being kept up until 12; then all sat down and partook of a bountiful supper given by Mr. Boohan, assisted by a few of those present. After all had done justice to the eatables a few members favored the company with songs, which were heartily received and well rendered.

Dancing was again indulged in until the "wee smaa oors", when all departed for their separate homes being well pleased at their having spent an enjoyable evening, and at the same time exclaiming that as a royal entertainer Thomas Boohan was in the lead. Credit is due to Mr. Boohan for the manner in which he managed the affair and saw that everyone present was made comfortable.

Three Chicago Opinions of Monday Night's Lecture on Rome.

Mr. Ragan's lectures undoubtedly comprise the most entertaining and instructive series ever given in Chicago.—Herald.

The marvelously exact coloring which characterized the illustrations of former lectures marked those of "Ramblings in Rome" last evening. Mr. Ragan shows famous scenes and historic sights in a manner that is astonishingly realistic.—Tribune.

The second lecture by Henry H. Ragan was attended by a large audience, and "Ramblings in Rome" was illustrated by the finest collection of stereoscopic pictures ever shown in Chicago. The accompanying description was all that could be desired, and Mr. Ragan has established himself as a standard attraction here.—Evening Journal.

My catarrh was very bad; for 30 years I have been troubled with it—have tried a number of remedies wi hout relief. A druggist advised Ely's Cream Balm. I have used only one bottle and I can say I feel like a new man. I make this voluntary statement that others may know of the balm.—J. W. Matheweon, lawyer, Parmelee, R. I.

No Superior in the Land.

One hardly knows which to admire most—his finished oratory and the subject matter of his discourse, or his superb pictures. He certainly has no superior in the country.

That's what the Boston Traveler says of Mr. Ragan. Hear him in Music Hall Monday night.

Another Musician in the Family.

OIL BARRELS IN A BLAZE.

LOCOMOTIVE SPARKS SET FIRE TO A FREIGHT CAR.

Lively Work of Local Firemen—Both Borough and City Departments Called Out by a Blaze on Somerset Street.

The fire department was kept busy last night as three calls were sounded between 6 and 10. One of these was the borough whistle which blew at the same time that box 12 sounded for the fire that took place on the bridge, and made everyone think that 14 was sounding. The first alarm occurred at about 6:15 at which time a box car which had been used to carry barrels of oil caught fire on the siding between Washington and Richmond streets. The car was filled with empty oil barrels which burned merrily and made a very hot fire. The car was near the oil-house when it caught fire, and the residents of the neighborhood, becoming alarmed at its proximity to such an inflammable structure, pushed the burning car away from its dangerous position to a more safe locality up the track. The department answered very promptly and the fire was speedily put out. The car probably caught fire from the sparks of a passing locomotive. The upper part of the car was badly burned but the floor and frame were not much injured.

An alarm was sent in at about 9:15 from box 12 and from the borough gong at the same time for a fire in William M. Ralston's confectionery and cigar store on the bridge. Ralston says that the fire caught from a match that a customer flicked behind the counter after lighting his cigar, but others have it that the fire was caused by a lamp which blazed up so high that it attracted the attention of some one passing in the street who entered the store and threw a pail of water on the lamp breaking it and spreading the oil over everything. The conflagration was put out by the extinguishers without the use of any water. It is a wonder that the whole building did not go as the shop was filled with rubbish of a most inflammable kind. The damage to the shop will not amount to more than $25.

"Give Us This Day Our Daily Press."

There are many children credited with bright sayings, but the following will no doubt surpass any others of recent date in this vicinity.

On LaGrande avenue lives little Clyde Doane, son of J. Hervey Doane. His age is 3½ years, and he is named after the Clyde Steamship Company. One afternoon recently he was playing newsboy, much to the amusement of his mother. Evening came, and it was time for him to retire, but before doing so he said his prayers, as usual. It was the Lord's Prayer, and when he came to the place where it says "Give us this day our daily bread" he repeated in solemn tones "Give us this day our Daily Press".

It is needless to say that those present were convulsed with laughter.

Married as in the Orient.

The Japanese wedding and entertainment held in the Crescent Avenue church last evening under the auspices of the Boys Mission Band, was a complete success.

The attendance was very large, and everyone present had a thoroughly enjoyable time.

Mitsuye Oi, of Tokio, who is a student at Rutgers College, conducted the wedding ceremony, and explained it from beginning to end. Japanese costumes and accessories were used, giving an attractive appearance to the scene.

Light refreshments were served, including genuine Japanese tea. The whole entertainment was very interesting and instructive.

JEWISH RABBI IN CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

DR. BERKOWITZ LECTURES TO A PLAINFIELD AUDIENCE.

"Barriers Breaking Away" Proved by His Appearance in All Souls Pulpit and by His Potent Argument.

An exceedingly interesting lecture was heard last night in the All Souls course at the church on Park avenue. The speaker was the Rev. Dr. Henry O. Berkowitz, Rabbi of the Rodif Shalom congregation in Philadelphia, and the subject of his talk was "Barriers Breaking Away". Rabbi Berkowitz was introduced by the Rev. Hobart Clark and spoke for about 40 minutes to an audience that seemed to be thoroughly in sympathy with him. He said in substance as follows:

"By way of preface I would like to say that I take the fact of my being here tonight, I, the Rabbi of a Jewish congregation, speaking to you in a Christian church from your own pulpit, as a more eloquent argument in support of the fact that the barriers are breaking away than anything I can say upon the subject. History is usually divided into ancient and modern history, but this is a purely arbitrary division and a more reasonable one would be the history of exclusion and the history of expansion. In the early years of history exclusion was the object of every community. The dwellers on the sea coast glorified the waves when they broke upon the shore. They served as barriers to keep away the stranger. The inhabitants of the interior praised the endless chains of mountains that stretched as far as eye could see for they were an insurmountable difficulty in the way of invasion. The greatest nation known to early history, China, was guarded by a wall around its entire inland border. Every hill top in Europe was crowned by a frowning castle and bands of armed men roamed over the highways. But now the China wall no longer excludes wanderers, the seas are overcome and the mountains have been tunnelled a thousand times. The bands of armed men have disappeared from the highways and have turned to peaceful occupations. We have International law, International arbitration, International steamship lines and postal systems, and greatest of all International expositions. Truly the dream of the old Hebrew prophets is being realized: "And they shall not lift up the sword, neither shall they have any more war". This is the history of expansion. The social barriers are breaking away, the different aristocracies are merging into each other and the whole artificial scheme of society is becoming weakened and the people are drawing nearer together in brotherhood. Our present hero is not a slayer of men. He is a philanthropist, a Booth, a Stanley, a Baron Hirsh or a Moses Montifiore.

"The various religious sects are coming together on the common plane of a like morality. That mighty wall which has towered up above us into the very skies, built of the rough stones of superstition and priestly vanity, pure figments of fancy which have proved such an insurmountable barrier to common welfare, is crumbling away slowly but surely. It is to be found yet though, even in Plainfield. I hear that my coming here has occasioned some comment among the devout Christians; that there are those in your goodly little city who have looked askance and have raised their hands in holy horror at the sacrilege of a Jewish Rabbi speaking to a Christian congregation in a Christian church.

"One of the greatest examples of my subject is the fact that a branch of the Chautauqua Literary and Scientific Society has been formed with the entire sanction of the main society for the interests of Jews in this country and especially for the benefit of the Jewish immigrants, that they may become Americanized more quickly. Another glowing example is the Parliament of Religions in Chicago that was held the past summer. This is the beginning of true religious liberty, when in thought as well as deed individual faiths are respected.

"There are those who will accuse me of being visionary and an idealist, and there many objections that might be advanced to substantiate that opinion. But the weight of evidence stands on our side and points certainly to the amalgamation of social and religious interests. The race distinctions that the Lord has made will never be put aside, but all we seek is the fusion of interests and not the obliteration of races. The world is roused as it has never been before and a change is not only about to come but has already commenced. Let us forget our previous troubles and dwell on the bright prospect of the future. I see coming out of the darkness and gloom of the nineteenth century a beautiful figure with a glowing crown whose brilliant points spell out the word 'Reconciliation' and following the bright presence are those of all creeds and beliefs and lo she guides by either hand the Jew and the Christian leading all the rest."

—The regular meetings in the Salvation Army barracks were resumed Thursday evening.

A KNIFE in the hand of a Surgeon gives you a feeling of horror and dread. There is no longer necessity for its use in many diseases formerly regarded as incurable without cutting. The Triumph of Conservative Surgery is well illustrated by the fact that RUPTURE or Breach, is now radically cured without the knife and without pain. Clumsy, chafing trusses can be thrown away! They never cure but often induce inflammation, strangulation and death. TUMORS Ovarian, Fibroid (Uterine) and many others, are now removed without the peril of cutting operations. PILE TUMORS, however large, Fistula and other diseases of the lower bowel, are permanently cured without pain or resort to the knife. STONE in the Bladder, no matter how large, is crushed, pulverized, washed out and perfectly removed without cutting. STRICTURE is also removed without cutting in hundreds of cases. HALF-MAST FLAGS FOR J. J. GERBER.

JAMES E. MARTINE A PALL-BEARER AT HIS FUNERAL.

Tomorrow, in St. Mary's Church, Elizabeth, the Services Will Be Held—Tributes to the Dead County Clerk by Legal and Other Associates—Men Named as Possible Successors.

Flags were placed at half-mast yesterday on the Court House and the Y. M. C. A. building in Elizabeth in respect for the late County Clerk James J. Gerber; and the sudden death of the popular official was the subject of general expressions of surprise and sincere sorrow.

The Union County Bar Association held a special meeting today, to take suitable action in regard to Mr. Gerber's death; and Vice-President Connell, of the Young Men's Catholic Literary Association, called a meeting of that association last night for the same purpose.

The funeral will take place from the late home of Mr. Gerber, 56 Cherry street, tomorrow morning at 9, and thence to St. Mary's church, where at 10 a mass of requiem will be offered for the repose of his soul. The Rev. Father Carroll will be the celebrant, and will be assisted by a number of clergymen.

The pall-bearers will be Judge Thomas F. McCormick, the Hon. James E. Martine, County Collector William M. Oliver, City Treasurer John W. Whelan, Surrogate George T. Parrot, E. J. Ryan, H. A. Deralsmes and Zerman Norman.

The carriers will be selected from members of the Young Men's Catholic Literary Association.

Mr. Gerber's age is given by the family as 43 years. His father and mother are living. When Addison S. Clark was Surrogate, he selected Mr. Gerber as his assistant, and he held the position for six years. In 1877 Mr. Gerber was elected Surrogate, and in 1882 re-elected.

As stated yesterday, Mr. Gerber's successor as County Clerk will be appointed by Gov. Werts, and will hold the office until the November election. Several are named as the probable successor. Among those not connected with the office are James E. Martine, ex-County Clerks Henry R. Cannon and John L. Crowell.

The precedent established when County Clerk James S. Vosseller, died, was the appointment of one of the attaches of the office, and John L. Crowell, who was Vosseller's deputy, was appointed. Many feel that Gov. Werts will follow the precedent.

There are two gentlemen in the County Clerk's office who are spoken of in connection with the probable honor of promotion—Zerman Norman and Elmore D. Moffett of Plainfield. Mr. Norman was the law partner of Mr. Gerber, and has for ten years acted in the capacity of Assistant County Clerk having responsible duties in the Court. Mr. Moffett has also been a chief clerk in the office for many years, and is thoroughly acquainted with the duties. But Mr. Martine's friends insist that the Farmer Orator shall have the office, although he is averse to being a candidate.

An Interesting Old Vet.

Thomas Alfred Willis Oliver of Rahway, who is visiting his stepdaughter, Mrs. Thomas Price, of East Front street, was born in Massachusetts in 1812, and went to Rahway soon afterward. In early life he started out as a rover, and claims to have since followed that pursuit. He enlisted in the Mexican war in 1844; after being out of service three months, in 1846 he enlisted in the Mexican war for three years and three months. On June 30, 1862, Mr. Oliver enlisted with the 28th Regt., N. J. Volunteers, from Woodbridge. Of a total of 1,011 in the regiment at Gettysburg, Mr. Oliver says, all but 390 were killed; at Chancellorsville the regiment dwindled down to 90 members. Mr. Oliver, although nearly 82 years of age, is yet hale and hearty.

Lets No Poor Man Pass Him by.

Alexander Frazee, the fish and oyster dealer, is a most charitable individual. He says this winter he will not starve, neither will he allow anyone else to if he can in any way prevent it, but instead the needy can have half of what he's got. Wednesday night a very needy person called at his place of business, and told Mr. Frazee that he had been thrown out of work, had a family, and was destitute, being without coal, wood or provisions. He asked for a few fish eggs, in order to keep starvation from the door. Mr. Frazee said "No, but instead take some of the fish on stand", whereupon the good Samaritan wrapped up a bundle of his best fish, and the man in need went off very thankful indeed.

A Councilmanic Possibility.

Ex-Borough Councilman J. F. Buckle, now a resident in this city, is spoken of as Republican candidate for Councilman from the First ward. He has also been suggested as Councilman at large. Mr. Buckle is a little delicate on the subject when spoken to, and dislikes to accept the nomination, but yesterday he admitted to a Press scribe that he might change his mind. Mr. Buckle is very popular, but he thinks there are others who have lived in the city longer than he has, and he urges that they are more justly entitled to the honor.

Jersey Central Gets Another Plum.

Leave New York daily from the foot of Liberty street, at 5 p. m., with dining-car to Chattanooga.

Read and Reflect.

The great mass of mankind lose their health through inattention to catarrh of the head and throat. This insidious disease was considered incurable until the discovery of the American Catarrh Cure. For sale by L. W. Randolph, 21 West Front street. Price $1.00.

WANT TWENTY THOUSAND.

Y. M. C. A. WORK CRIPPLED FOR LACK OF FUNDS.

A Portion of the Required Amount Subscribed, on Condition that the Balance Be Pledged.

A representative gathering of men met at the home of Charles J. Fisk, Seventh street, last evening, to consider ways and means to complete the Y. M. C. A. building, now in course of construction.

It was stated that $20,000 was needed to finish the structure. The sum of $7,000 was pledged by those present, on the condition that the balance be raised. J. W. Jackson, as treasurer, will receive voluntary subscriptions from anyone desirous of contributing.

It was the sense of the meeting, and so expressed, that the work should not stop until the building is completed.

Those in attendance last evening were: J. W. Murray, S. A. Ginna, J. W. Jackson, E. N. Ericksen, Charles Potter, H. P. Newhall, C. J. Fisk, Pliny Fisk, Stephen Cahoone, C. W. McCutchen, H. A. McGee, S. F. Kimball, J. D. Runyon, W. D. Murray, H. O. Newman, D. E. Titsworth, W. T. Kaufman and A. B. Beers.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—"God's Reasoning" will be the subject of Mr. Crane's address to men in the Y. M. C. A. rooms this evening.

—The Camera Club will give an exhibition of the California slides next Thursday evening, in their club rooms. There will be from 100 to 150 choice views.

—Arnold, the Liberty street butcher, is still selling the finest meats and poultry at cut prices. Read his new advertisement in today's Press and give him a call.

—L. E. Hart is laying a flagged sidewalk on East Fourth street that is two feet out of line. The attention of the Street Commissioner is directed to the error.

—"The Prodigal Husband", to be produced in Music Hall tomorrow night, is a new four-act realistic drama, an entirely new production, with wonderful scenic and mechanical effects.

—Fred Willabald, who was arrested yesterday afternoon by Sergeant Kiely, was taken to Elizabeth this morning. He is wanted there on the charge of robbing the North Avenue ticket office.

—An entertainment will be given in the Monroe Avenue chapel on Tuesday evening, Nov. 21, by the pupils of the primary department. The proceeds are to be appropriated as a relief fund. The programme will consist of music, both vocal and instrumental, and recitations.

—Frederick Durand was arrested last evening on a charge made by the Sherman Outfitting Company, for breaking a glass in one of their doors. When taken before Judge Coddington he pleaded not guilty. His trial was set down for Nov. 25. James Conneely went his bond which was placed at $100.

With Ely's Cream Balm a child can be treated without pain and with perfect safety. It cures catarrh, hay fever and colds in the head. It is easily applied into the nostrils and gives immediate relief. Price 50 cents.

Soaked the Crowd.

Last evening at the fire on Somerset street, a slight misunderstanding was the means of some people getting wet. The hose had been attached to the hydrant in front of French's carriage factory, and a fireman stood there ready to turn the water on, as soon as the signal was given. He could not wait, however, and let the water into the hose prematurely, much to the discomfort of those standing nearby, who were soaked because no one was as yet controlling the nozzle.

CURRENCY AGAIN SCARCE.

Sub-Treasuries Instructed to Meet All Checks With Gold.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—At the treasury here, when the doors were closed yesterday the margin of currency left for business was very small. There was only $13,000,000, including that distributed through the sub-treasuries.

The currency balance is a little larger to-day, because of redemptions made yesterday, which are placed in the cash account as soon as made. These redemptions amount to about one and a half million dollars, and there is always kept tied up in the process of redemption about two and a half million dollars.

At Philadelphia yesterday, currency became exhausted, and gold was paid out to meet government checks.

Seeing several days ago that the currency supply was gradually being reduced, Treasurer Morgan sent telegraphic instructions to the principal sub-treasuries to pay out gold, if necessary to meet all checks.

These orders were repeated to-day to such sub-treasuries as were not formerly notified, and where it is feared the supply of currency may become exhausted.

The treasury gold balance is about $85,000,000.

BIG STRIKE THREATENED.

Lehigh Employes Awaiting President Wilburs Reply With Anxiety.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 17.—President E. P. Wilbur, of the Lehigh Valley railroad, has not yet replied to the ultimatum of the employes' committee which was handed to him as he was boarding a train for New York, but an answer is expected to-morrow.

Mr. Wilbur will return to his office at Bethlehem, Pa., to-day, and should his reply be unfavorable, the committee say a strike of the 1800 men affected will be extremely probable.

The American Catarrh Cure

Is the result of twenty-six years' study and treatment of the disease. One bottle convinces the most skeptical. It is always ready for use, needing neither douche nor atomiser. It restores the hearing, cures the hawking cough and expectorating, removes the headache and nose bleeding, increases the appetite, produces sound sleep, invigorates the whole system and increases the vitality. Prepared only by W. B. Jones, M. D., No. 1336 South Eighth street, Philadelphia. For sale by L. W. Randolph, 21 West Front street. Price $1.

THE FLOUR FIGHT.

Plainfield People Getting the Benefit of Cut-Rate Grocery Competition.

Trade in flour has been lively the past few days, owing to the cutting of prices among the grocers. But a halt was called yesterday by the wholesale agents, who commanded the warfare to stop as it would unsettle prices and reduce the enormous profits of the big concerns. For refusal to obey this order the penalty threatened was withholding of future supplies, and some of the merchants yielded to the pressure. J. F. MacDonald, however, had the backbone to hold out, and Vincent L. Frazee also proved his independence of trusts and combinations by declining to be governed by outside dictation. Mr. Frazee holds that he pays cash for his goods and can do what he likes with them, and what he likes is to give the people the benefit of hard-times prices. He was the pioneer in cutting rates, and the result of his enterprise and public spirit is the tremendous cash business of $60,000 a year. This is really wonderful for so modest a store as Frazee's, but the success of the Councilman's Model Market shows that the public appreciates the advantages offered by cash business where all dealings are honest.

To Demolish the Ball Grounds.

Michael Uhdal, the contractor, on Wednesday finished grading and cutting through streets on A. D. Thompson's new 130-acre purchase near White House station. Tomorrow he will begin to tear up the old Crescent League ball grounds in North Plainfield, which is also the property of Mr. Thompson.

A YOUNG GIRL'S FORTUNE.

AN INTERESTING SKETCH.

Nothing appeals so strongly to a mother's affection as her daughter just budding into womanhood. Following is an instance: "Our daughter, Blanche, now 15 years of age, had been terribly afflicted with nervousness, and had lost the entire use of her right arm. She was in such a condition that we had to keep her from school and abandon her music lessons. In fact, we feared St. Vitus dance, and are positive but for an invaluable remedy she would have had that terrible affliction. We had employed physicians, but she received no benefit from them. The first of last August she weighed but 75 pounds, and although she has taken only three bottles of Nervine she now weighs 106 pounds; her nervousness and symptoms of St. Vitus dance are entirely gone, she attends school regularly, and smiles with comfort and ease. She has recovered complete use of her arm, her appetite is splendid, and no money could procure for our daughter the health Dr. Miles' Nervine has brought her.

When my brother recommended the remedy I had no faith in patent medicines, and would not listen to him, but as a last resort he sent us a bottle, we began giving it to Blanche, and the effect was almost immediate."—Mrs. R. R. Bullock, Brighton, N. Y.

Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine is sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee, or sent direct by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, six bottles for $5, express prepaid. It is positively free from opiates or dangerous drugs.

The following circular letter sent by the Prudential Insurance Company to its field force of five thousand Superintendents, Assistant Superintendents and Agents speaks for itse'f.

OFFICE OF

The Prudential Insurance Company

OF AMERICA.

INDUSTRIAL BRANCH.

NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 1, 1893.

TO THE FIELD STAFF:

The hard times of the past few months have pressed heavily upon every kind of business and upon people of every calling and condition of life.

It would be strange if among the nearly two millions of policy holders in The Prudential many were not able to continue the payment of premiums.

"Regular Industrial" policies issued prior to January 1, 1892, had no provision for a paid-up policy in event of a failure to pay premiums. Such policies issued since that date do so provide. The present financial and commercial stringency have caused the management of the Company much solicitude with respect to the question: How can relief be extended to policy-holders who are unable to continue the payment of premiums, under a plan at once safe to the Company and liberal to the insured.

After careful reflection it has been decided to make to those whose policies have lapsed since June 1, last, as a consequence of the hard times, the following concessions:

1. If the policy has been in force as an "adult policy" for five years or more at the time premiums ceased to be paid, a paid-up policy will be granted in accordance with the terms and conditions of the provision for paid-up policies published on the back of "regular industrial" policies now issued by the Company.

2. In lieu of the foregoing, policy-holders who have paid premiums for one full year or more at the time of lapse may take out a new policy at the present age and the same will be put in full immediate benefit.

3. Proofs of death may be filed out and submitted in the usual way in any case of death happening between June 1, last, and November 6, 1893, if policy has been in force for five years or more on the life of the insured and has been lapsed since June 1, last, in consequence of the hard times. If the claim is correct in every respect, except with regard to the policy being lapsed for the cause aforesaid, it will be recognized and paid in accordance with the terms and conditions of the provision for paid-up policies heretofore referred to.

Infantile and other policies to which the provision for paid-up policy is not applicable, will be treated (under the rules of the Company) on a basis consistent therewith.

No medical examination will be required of those who avail themselves of Concession 1, nor of those who take Concession 2, provided their original policies shall have been in force at least five years.

Those who have not paid premiums for five years or more cannot take Concession 2 without passing a satisfactory medical examination under the usual rules of the Company.

Persons interested, who wish to receive the benefit offered by either of the foregoing Concessions on policies lapsed between June 1, 1893, and November 6, 1893, must make application for the same before January 1, 1894.

As the hard times were not felt before June 1, last, neither of the foregoing Concessions will extend to policies lapsed prior to that date, but as the business depression to some extent still continues, the above Concessions will be continued so long as there may seem to the management to be a sufficient reason therefor.

Persons desiring to take advantage of the foregoing, while these concessions are continued, on policies that may be lapsed subsequent to November 6, 1893, must make application for the same within eight weeks from the date of default in payment of premium. Applications for benefits under these concessions are to be made on forms provided by the Company and filed at the Home Office accompanied by the original policy, by the time time above specified for the purpose.

It is believed that the foregoing is unprecedented in point of liberality in the history of insurance, and certainly in the history of industrial insurance.

We are confident that this action on the part of the Company will be fully appreciated both by the field staff and the Company's large constituency.

I remain, very truly yours,

JOHN F. DRYDEN, President.

Utterly Wiped Out.

Never since Lo, the poor Indian, skulked through these woods and wiped his weeping nose upon the handle of his tomahawk, have Dry Goods been sold for such small prices as now, and there is just as much difference between our prices and other people's as there is between an Indian chief and a Turk.

AN UNUSUAL OFFERING.

WHITE GOODS—2,500 yards of fine checked nainsook, just right for aprons; our price 15c yard, worth more.

UNDERWEAR—You haven't bought it yet, have you? If not, you will surely want it and we can do you lots of good, and save you some money.

TOWELS—Some pretty good values we have offered in towels, bu this beats them all; actual measurement 22x48 in. fine damask linen and all we ask is 25c.

HOSIERY—Pretty good place for Hosiery; we buy it right from the man who makes it and sell it at the same price other retailers pay for it.

DRESS GOODS—We are selling Dress Goods this season as we never have before, at less than they cost to manufacture.

HOUSEFURNISHINGS—When we say the largest and finest housefurnishing department this side of New York, we mean it. We have everything you want and prices are in your favor.

Our Shoe Business Grows.

WHY WE DO IT

$2 50—Ladies' Fine Dongola Button, stitched soles, patent tips, worth $3.00.

$2 00—Misses Hand Welt Dongola Button: patent tip sp. heels worth $2 50.

$1 50—Children's spring heel school shoes, laced, worth $2.00

$1 50—Boy's school shoes, laced, spring heel or heeled, worth $1 75.

We are still selling Ladies' Overgaiters at 25c. to all who purchase shoes to the amount of $1 25 or more.

Dry Goods, Cloaks, Millinery and Housefurnishings.

"Seeing is Believing."

Simple, Beautiful, Good—

these words mean much, but to see "The Rochester" will impress the truth more forcibly. Its marvelous light is purer and brighter than gas light, softer than electric light, and more cheerful than either. The choicest bric-a-brac in the palace of a Vanderbilt reveals nothing finer. We have 2,700 artistic varieties, in brass, bronze, silver and black iron.

Ladies often like to go down among the large wholesale houses and buy of first hands. They will find at our salesrooms (the largest in the world) a rare collection of Art in lamps. A catalogue to send you if you cannot come.

Republican Leaders in New York.

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—Gov. William McKinley, jr., of Ohio is at the Windsor hotel. He says that he came east solely for rest. While here he will consult the national republican committee. There are half a dozen other prominent republican leaders in the city from various parts of the country.

At Work on the Wage Scale.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 17.—The second national convention for 1893 of representatives of the Amalgamated association of iron and steel workers is now at work on the revision of the wage scale. There is talk of a compromise on the basis of $4.75 per ton for puddling.

Forty Head of Cattle Burned.

WORCESTER, Mass., Nov. 17.—The barn of Dennis O'Herron, in the northwestern part of Rutland, known as New Boston, was destroyed by fire yesterday. About 80 tons of hay and 40 head of cattle were included in the loss which was heavy.

Cheering News from Buffalo.

BUFFALO, Nov. 17.—The tone of the money market has taken a decided change for the better here. Bankers say money is easier, deposits are increasing and there is a general indication of returning confidence and better business.

Two of Our War Ships at Genoa.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—The navy department has been informed by cable that the flagship Chicago and the gunboat Bennington of the European squadron have arrived at Genoa.

Electric Canal Boat Tests.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Nov. 17.—The preliminary test of electric navigation on the canal will occur to-day. The public test will take place to-morrow.

SHOCKING, IF TRUE

More Tales of Elmira Reformatory Brutality.

Ex-Inmates Testify as to Their Treatment in the Paddle Room, Solitary, and at the Hands of Brockway—One Tries to Kill Himself to Escape Further Punishment.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—The testimony before the Elmira reformatory investigating committee yesterday afternoon was particularly damaging to Mr. Brockway.

One witness, Isadore Bowen, a stylishly dressed young man, said he was convicted of aiding and abetting a scheme to defraud, and stopped at Elmira from September 1890 until December of 1892. His business was that of selling green goods.

He admitted going to the office of a morning paper and stating what he knew of the abuses at Elmira, but said that he had received no compensation or promise of any for giving his testimony. He said that he was not punished at the reformatory, but saw keepers strike others.

Charles J. Cleere, inmate of the reformatory from April 1890 to August 1892 and who is now suing Supt. Brockway for $25,000 told the following story:

"In April, 1891, I was charged with the offence of stealing and distributing papers from the printing office where I was employed. The charge was made by two inmates, but was not true. Mr. Brockway asked me to confess, and when I declared my innocence I was punished.

His Treatment in the Solitary.

"My clothes were dragged off of me by the principal keeper and I was paddled. After ten or twelve blows given by Mr. Brockway I was asked to confess. I told him that I was not guilty, and he struck me over the head with a strap. Then I was paddled again, and when I still declared my innocence, I was placed in a solitary dark cell and chained to the floor. I was given one slice of bread about six inches long and four inches wide, and a can of water. That was my daily allowance.

"On the second day I was taken to the bathroom and paddled again. There were present Mr. Brockway, Mr. Spencer, Mr. McLaughlin, Mr. Sample and Mr. Winne. I was asked to confess by Mr. Brockway. I told him that I had nothing to confess. I was paddled again, and then placed in the solitary cell again. The third day I was allowed to remain there all day chained to the floor.

Beaten Into Insensibility.

On the fourth day I was taken to the bathroom again and struck with the paddle an with a strap. The strap was wet with either water or vinegar.

"After the third beating I was taken to the 'solitary' and remained there seven days. I was fed on bread and water and taken to the bath room for the fourth time and beaten until I was unconscious.

"When I came to I was in one of the 'Rest Cure' cells. My head was all battered up, and my back was covered with blood. I remained in that cell two days, then Brockway came in to see me. I lay there on the floor helpless.

"Dr. Wey came to see me for the first time on the third day. I was then taken to the hospital and was there for three months. I was treated for an abscess on my right side and my back was fixed up."

Had Both Legs Broken.

The next witness was William Parker, of this city. He said that he has no occupation as he is unable to work as he had both legs broken while in the reformatory. He said that he went there in March, 1885, having plead guilty to burglary in the second degree. According to the witness' story he was unable to do the heavy work in the foundry where he was assigned, and was punished for that reason. He said he was thrown down a long flight of iron stairs, pounded and punched, and then taken to the bathroom and paddled. After that I was chained in the 'solitary' for days. Then I was told to go back to the foundry and told to do the work I had been set at in the first place.

"After I had been there half an hour Keeper Beach came to the foundry and accused me of having chewed tobacco. I told him that it was not so, as I have never chewed tobacco in my life. He told me that I lied and struck me. He said he would fix me when he got me in the bathroom. When I saw them waiting to punish me I was frenzied.

Frenzied With Terror.

"I ran up the iron stairs to the third tier and threw myself down upon the flagstones below. Both my legs were fractured and my wrists sprained. I did this because I was in a hell on earth and wanted to end it. I was in the hospital unconscious for some time after this but finally got well enough to go about. I was transferred to Auburn prison and was released in January, 1893."

The last witness of the day was James Parks, of this city. He said that he was sent to the reformatory in December, 1886, and was put to work running the circular saw in the block shop. He said that he knew nothing about running a saw and told the keepers that he was afraid of the saw.

Lost His Left Hand.

They made him run it, and in fifteen minutes after he began he lost all his left hand except the little finger.

He was in the hospital four days and was then put in a cell. While there he sent a note asking for an interview with Superintendent Brockway. The witness said he was taken to Brockway's office and he asked the superintendent for work as he did not like solitary confinement. Upon that, the witness said, Brockway struck him with his fist, splitting his lip. His hand was in a sling at the time.

He was locked up again, and then was, after a time, sent to the brush factory to run a binding machine. The shaft of the machine broke and he was knocked off his chair.

Struck in the Face By Brockway.

About a year later, the witness said, he was struck in the face again by Superintendent Brockway and knocked down. This, he explained, was for writing a note to Brockway complaining of the treatment he had received.

The witness said that he never saw any men punished, but he once saw a man come out of the bath room with the imprint of the heel of a shoe on his face. He had seen others stagger out so weak that they could hardly walk, and had seen men at work with blood on their faces from blows given them by keepers.

TREASURY BALANCE STILL LOW.

Internal and Customs Revenues Falling Off, But an Increase Expected.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—The net treasury balance continues to decline and at the close of business yesterday stood at $96,666,819, of which $85,791,757 is in gold and $10,867,062 in currency.

So far this fiscal year the custom revenues have fallen off $21,000,000 as compared with the corresponding period of last year. For the same period internal revenue receipts have decreased only $8,000,000.

Commissioner Miller, in speaking of the matter to-day, said he expected internal revenue receipts to increase from now on and the total at the end of the fiscal year 1894 would nearly equal the receipts for the year 1893, even though they were now $8,000,000 dollars behind. The expression of opinion, he said, was based upon the correspondence and interviews he had with large wholesale dealers in tobacco and liquor.

The dull times affected their business very materially, but it is now improving as the daily receipts showed.

RELIEVES HER LIFE IN DANGER.

Dr. Mary Walker Tried to Have a Grand Jury Recalled.

PLYMOUTH, N. H., Nov. 18.—Dr. Mary E. Walker, who has been in this vicinity for several days, went to the court house yesterday where the supreme court is in session, took a seat with the members of the bar and wrote a petition which she handed to Judge Carpenter. In it she requested the judge to recall the grand jury that she might go before it and state grievances that have been denied her in consequence of threats and to such extent that her life has not been safe in New Hampshire for over a year.

She said her life is not entirely safe in this or any other state, because of men being at large who have attempted to kill her.

The judge denied the request.

Rhode Island Republicans.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 18.—The republican state central committee met here yesterday and organized. Hunter C. White, sheriff of Providence county, was made chairman, and Eugene F. Warren, of Coventry, clerk of the senate, was elected secretary and treasurer. At a conference which followed the plurality election amendment to the constitution, which is to be submitted to the electors on the 28th inst, was unqualifiedly indorsed.

Harrison Boom Started.

RICHMOND, Ind., Nov. 18.—For some time there have been whispers heard throughout Indiana that a movement was on foot to boom ex-President Harrison for the national republican nomination in '96. These whispers have now become vocal and all reserve is thrown aside. Lodges and secret clubs are being organized all over the state, with Harrison's nomination solely in view.

May Be the Cattle Were Cheap at That

EUFAULA, I. T., Nov. 18.—In a replevin suit here yesterday between half-breeds over a number of cattle the defendant alleged that he had traded his wife for the cattle. The plaintiff proved that he had been forced to make the trade. The court held that it was against public policy to allow a man to trade his wife for cattle and awarded the plaintiff the animals.

His Resignation is Final.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 18.—"I will certainly insist on my resignation being accepted, it would be unjust to the church to do otherwise. I want no vacation, no salary, only a rest. My resignation is final," said Rev. John R. Paxton, in answer to a query as to what he would do in reference to the action of the West Presbyterian church of New York city.

Mrs. Grant to Live in San Diego.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Nov. 18.—Ulysses S. Grant has purchased from R. Granger the Hubbell property for a permanent home for himself and mother, the widow of the late General Grant. The house is conceded to be the finest residence in San Diego and commands a splendid view.

Will Start for Rome To-day.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—The Rev. Dr. F. Z. Rooker, who came to this country last September, bringing a present from the Pope to Cardinal Gibbons on the occasion of the celebration of the latter's jubilee in October, will sail to-day on his return to Rome on the steamer La Touraine.

THIS WEAKENS MELLO

Foreign Fleet Decides to Protect Commerce at Rio.

The Insurgent Admiral Formally Notified—This Badly Cripples Him and Insures the Safety of the Capital From Attack From the Sea—No News in Washington of the Reported Arrest of United States Consul Grant By Mello.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—A cipher telegram received by the navy department last evening from Captain Picking under yesterday's date, from Rio Janeiro, is looked upon as significant and possibly indicating a weakening of the strength of the insurgent fleet under Admiral Mello. The translation of the dispatch was as follows:

"Naval representatives of eight nations, including our nation, have decided not to permit munitions of war to be landed at Rio. Santos being still in possession of the Brazilian government and connected with Rio Janeiro by railway, munitions of war for Rio Janeiro can be landed at Santos.

"Yesterday insurgents dressed ship.

"The Brazilian government forts fired a national salute in honor of the anniversary of the establishment of the republic."

The only intepretation to be put upon this dispatch is that the naval representatives at Rio have decided that there shall be no interference with commerce, and have formally notified the insurgent admiral they will prevent it.

Mello Badly Crippled.

The probabilities are, and this is the view taken by government officials here, that this action weakens Mello very much, for if he cannot close the ports of Rio and bring that city into subjection it cannot be conjectured how he can make his rebellion successful. It looks to naval officers ver much as if Mello had been badly crippled.

This action is in line with that indicated in previous dispatches from Captain Picking to the effect that foreign representatives, had, after conference, notified Mello that he must respect the nationality of any lighter engaged in unloading vessels and flying the flag at its bow indicationg its nationality.

It appears that a studied effort has been made to give Mello no excuse to fire upon the city. An agreement was made some time ago that there should be no firing between the forces in Rio and the insurgents in the bay. This was violated on one occasion although little, if any damage resulted.

To Stop Firing on Rio.

Last night's dispatches indicate that the naval officers on duty there, in the protection of foreign interests, are determined this agreement shall be enforced. For this last notice is the result of a concerted action on the part of the allied powers to prevent any firing upon the city and damages to commerce by either side.

The restriction thus imposed as to the landing of munitions of war treats both sides alike, but the advantage is with the existing government by reason of its connection with Santos. Admiral Mello, could of course, get his supplies by water provided the vessels carrying them could successfully pass the government forts down the bay below the insurgent fleet.

The action of the insurgent admiral in decorating his vessel is not, at this distance, so easily understood, although a number of reasons, all more or less conjectured, might be assigned.

Evidences of Loyalty.

The occasion was a fete day, and celebrated as the anniversary of the establishment of the republic and in decorating their vessel it would look as if the insurgents, if they were honest, were endeavoring to out-do the loyal forts in evidences of loyalty. This act is construed by officials here to indicate that Mello does not think the present, at least, is a propitious time to espouse the cause of monarchy.

In view of the edict of the naval representatives it is interesting to know what becomes of El Cid and her followers when they shall arrive. It is said that their action of yesterday cannot prevent a meeting between the insurgent and the loyal warships. This fighting would take place in the bay with the probability of only a stray shot reaching the city. It is probable then, that when the El Cid and her consorts arrive a naval battle will take place and the foreign warships now at Rio will permit the engagement to go on so long as commerce and the city is not molested.

No News of Grant's Arrest.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—Neither the state nor navy departments has received any word relative to the report from Montevideo that Mr. Robert Grant, United States vice consul at that port, was made a prisoner of the Brazilian insurgents and is now confined on board the revolutionary steamer Iris, off Desterro. Mr. Grant was appointed to this place in 1887 and is presumed to have enough experience to communicate with his government if such an accident had befallen him.

Boston City Nominations.

BOSTON, Nov. 18.—The republican convention last night nominated Hon. Thos. N. Hart for mayor by acclamation and appointed a committee to nominate candidates for street commissioner and members of the school board. The democrats renominated Mayor Nathan Matthews, jr., and Street Commissioner John H. Duane by acclamation and appointed a committee of twenty five to nominate members of the school board.

Got the Spurious Money in New York.

ROME, Nov. 18.—Two peasants, who returned recently from the United States, were arrested in Andretta, this week for offering forged Italian banknotes. They say that they obtained these notes in return for dollars at an exchange office in James street, New York city. As similar cases have been reported with increasing frequency lately, the government has given orders for special investigation.

Will Withhold the Trophy.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 18.—It is announced to-day that Walter Camp, who is in charge of the trophy offered by Yale for the state inter-scholastic football championship, has decided to withhold it, until the committee in charge of proof submitted to him by the Hillhouse high school team of this city.

One Fair Attraction Not Closed.

ALTON, Ill., Nov. 18.—The Viking ship arrived here yesterday amid the screeching of steamboat whistles and the booming of cannon. Several thousand people assembled on the river banks and gave the vessel an enthusiastic welcome. The captain and crew were royally entertained last night by the prominent citizens.

Settled With the State.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Nov. 18.—The Philadelphia Inquirer and German Democrat paid to the attorney general yesterday the final claims of the commonwealth on accounts of the rebate paid to John Bardsley, the defaulting city treasury of the Mercantile advertising, the former $10,847.35 and the latter $11,012.

Storm on the English Coast.

LONDON, Nov. 18.—At midnight the Cunard steamer Lucania had not been sighted at either Browhead or Kinsdale. The weather continues violent and high seas prevail. The signal stations on the Irish coast are keeping a sharp lookout. Several lives have already known to have been lost.

Will Redeem at Par.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—The Pennsylvania railroad company announces that until Dec. 31, 1893, it will redeem in cash at par, dividend scrip of May 31, 1893, on presentation. The amount of scrip outstanding and underlined on Nov. 1, was about $64,000.

Gen. Rusk Resting Well.

VIROQUA, Wis., Nov. 18.—General Rusk is resting well and his general condition is thought to be improved over yesterday.

GOV. FLOWER'S ATTITUDE.

Suggestions to the Prosecutors of Alleged Kings County Frauds.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Nov. 18.—Governor Flower, before leaving Syracuse yesterday afternoon for this city, read what the New York morning papers had to say about the Kings county election cases and then sent three telegrams. One was to James W. Ridgway, district attorney of Kings county, at Brooklyn. It read:

"I observe that you have designated Messrs. Reynolds and Shepard as 'counsel' to assist the district attorney in the prosecution of election offenders. There is some question whether such counsel could legally represent you before the grand jury, and any doubt of this kind should be removed by their appointment as assistant attorneys. In your letter to me you promised to give them such legal standing, and it was upon that assurance that I accepted your proposition and named the prosecutors. I shall expect you to abide by your promise in this matter and appoint Messrs. Reynolds and Shepard as assistant attorneys—even if it is necessary to require the resignation of two of your present assistants in order to make way for the new appointees. These men must have all the powers before the grand jury, or before the trial, which you yourself possess and must be unhampered in their work of bringing lawbreakers to justice."

The second telegram was to William J. Gaynor, who is pushing the fight against John Y. McKane. In this the governor replies to a letter of Mr. Gaynor, further explaining his attitude in the matter, and calling Mr. Gaynor's attention to the letter of instruction sent to District Attorney Ridgway as evidence of his misunderstanding.

The third was to the attorney-general, directing him to assist in the Kings county prosecutions, and suggesting that he go at once to Brooklyn and confer with interested parties.

Capt. Oates Cashiered.

ALBANY, Nov. 18.—The proceedings, findings and sentence by the general court martial of Capt. Andrew A. Oates, of the eighth regiment, have been approved at general headquarters, and he henceforth ceases to be an officers of the national guard.

Custom House Deputies.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—Secretary Carlisle has appointed Henry DeForest Baldwin, Virginia Dabney and Daniel G. Hawthorne deputies in the custom house at the port of New York.

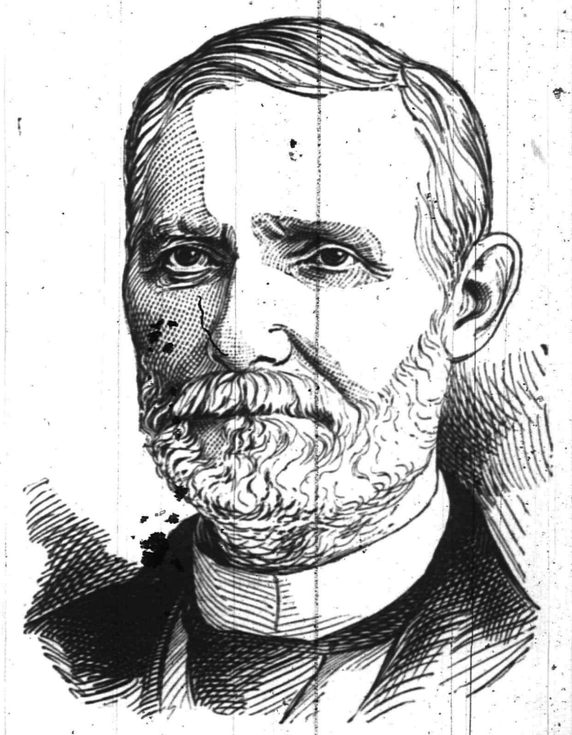
JUDGE GIBBS IS WELL.

Suffers From Rheumatism No Longer

---The One True Remedy.



So much has been said about the many and wonderful cures of rheumatism by the great remedy first prescribed by Prof. Phelps of Dartmouth College,—

So many hundreds of testimonials have been recently published from people in every city and town of New Jersey whom Paine's celery compound has made well—

That the following letter from so worthy a man as Judge Gibbs is just now interesting:

Judge D. S. Gibbs was born and raised in Noble county, Ohio. He moved from Noble county to Lawrence county, and then to Hutchinson, Kan. While a resident of Noble county, Ohio, he filled the office of probate judge several terms and district judge one term. Since his residence in Kansas he has twice been elected judge, and is today filling that office.

The judge is 67 years old, and has been afflicted with rheumatism almost all his life. For six months at a time he has had to go around on crutches from the effects of rheumatism. He has tried medicine after medicine, and has been treated by numerous physicians, both in Ohio and Kansas, but the rheumatism has always come back in a worse form than ever.

"About two months ago," says the Hutchinson News, "he bought a bottle of Paine's celery compound, having little faith in anything at the time; but he experienced relief from it the first day he began taking it. Before he had taken all of the first bottle he thought he was cured, and recklessly exposed himself and had a set-back. He again began taking the medicine, and is now on his third bottle, and he says he feels like a well man. He is entirely free from pain and swelling; The Judge has found out, as thousands of others have, that Paine's celery compound is the one true specific for rheumatism, and says he believes that if he only takes half-way care of himself and does not recklessly expose himself to the elements that he will never again be troubled with rheumatism."

This is the experience of every sufferer. Paine's celery compound cures! It was not a patent medicine. It was first prescribed by one of the most eminent physicians that ever lived. It has made thousands of people well.

For New Jersey: Tomorrow: Colder, Rain, High Winds.

PROCLAMATION.

In accordance with established custom, I, George T. Werts, Governor of the State of New Jersey, do hereby designate and appoint Thursday, the thirtieth day of November, instant, to be observed as a day of thanksgiving and praise to Almighty God.

I recommend that on the day named the people of this State abstain, so far as possible, from their ordinary secular pursuits and devote themselves to appropriate observance of the occasion, and especially to the rendering of thanks to the Heavenly Father for His continued blessings conferred upon our State and Nation, with prayer that peace, happiness and prosperity may attend us in the future.

Witness my hand and the seal of the State of New Jersey hereunto affixed. Done at the city of Trenton this eighth day [SEAL] of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, and of the independence of the United States the one hundred and eighteenth.

By the Governor, GEORGE T. WERTS.
JOHN S. MCMASTER, Private Secretary.

They All Want the Judge.

(From The Bound Brook Chronicle.)

Ex-Judge John Ulrich, of Plainfield, is favorably spoken of in connection with the office of State Comptroller, to be filled by the incoming Legislature. Mr. Ulrich has many friends in Bound Brook who would be glad to see the genial judge capture this prize. He is fully competent to discharge the duties of the office.

(From The Somerville Democrat.)

The friends of Hon. John Ulrich, as well as the press, are urging his appointment as Comptroller of the State. While we are loath to see a Republican appointed to that position, we cannot help speaking a word in his favor. He is a bright, intelligent, influential young man, and for services rendered to the party is entitled to recognition. A man better qualified for the position could hardly be found in the Republican party.

Nominates His Rival.

(From The Elizabeth Journal.)

Last week Editor Hyer, of the Rahway Democrat, nominated Editor Rollinson, of the Rahway Advocate, for Secretary of the Senate. This is true editorial courtesy, and it is hoped it may result in the editorial friendliness and congeniality which has, at odd times, ebbed rather low in Rahway. Mr. Rollinson would make a good and deserving clerk of the Senate.

Dunellen Gains an English Beauty.

(From The Bound Brook Chronicle.)

Miss Maria Twyname, a beautiful and accomplished young lady from Whitbaven, Cumberland county, England, arrived on the Majestic, last week, and will make her future home with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dickason, of Dunellen.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—Scott's factory now employs 189 men.

—Charles Burnett's masons and laborers were laid off Wednesday until Monday.

—Leal's second foot-ball team beat the High School eleven this morning, 8 to 6

—A meeting for men only will be held in the Grace M. E church, North Plainfield, Monday evening at 7:45.

—The New Market cornet band will visit Demler's hotel this evening and give a concert, followed by a dance.

—Next Friday evening the men of Trinity Reformed church will give a "green tea". The ladies are invited.

—The bargain on Pillsbury flour closes today, but J. F. MacDonald has other bargains. Ham, only 11½ cents a pound, is one of them.

—On Thursday evening of next week the entertainment which was given in Trinity Reformed church last evening will be repeated.

—The Epworth League of the First Methodist church will give an old-fashioned supper in Vincent chapel next Tuesday evening.

—There will be baptism in the South Plainfield Baptist church tomorrow, as a result of revival meetings conducted by the Rev. Arthur Crane.

—Jas. Sinnington and Joseph Shepperd, both of the Pond Tool Works, were the Plainfield bicyclists who put out the fire near Westfield last Saturday.

—You thought that trip to the World's Fair a rare treat, did you not, with H. H. Ragan as personal conductor? Then why not join the procession to Rome?

—For stealing a watch from a Hotel Albion guest the night of the Albion fire, a young man whose name is withheld by the police, was put under bonds for trial last night.

—The Women's Relief Corps last evening decided not to hold an entertainment to finish paying for their piano. A committee was appointed to confer with the Post committee for the coming fair to be held in December.

—Mr. Bronson, owner of the Albion Hotel building, and the insurance companies holding policies on the same, met last Thursday at Elizabeth to make a settlement. The companies made an offer which was refused. It will be decided by arbitration.

Silver Wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Tier of Rahway celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of their wedding Thursday night. Mr. Tier is a brother of John H. Tier, Sr., of Bank place. An elegant supper was served, and music made gay the dancing. Many wedding presents were received. A stage load from Plainfield attended the festivities. The senior and junior John Tier's families, Will Tier and family, Benjamin La Vere, and Harry Marshall and wife, were among them. "Wash" Tier, as he is known in Plainfield, is in the paymaster's department, Pennsylvania railroad, Jersey City. Many of his railroad friends were present at his anniversary.

Three More New Homes.

Runyon & Hand are putting up three new houses on South avenue, near Berckman street to cost about $1,800 each. Charles H. Burnett is doing the mason work and Firman & Hanson are the wood contractors.

SECOND-STORY THIEF AGAIN.

NEGRO BURGLAR FOUND IN A PLAINFIELD RESIDENCE.

William Stout's Home Entered But Nothing Taken—The Junior William Grabbed His Coat Tails, But He Got Away.

William Douglass, coachman for William Stout of East Front street, took Mrs. Stout home last evening from a call on Sandford avenue, and then drove to the station and took home Mr. Stout and his son Will.

At the door the son was met by his mother, who in tone of alarm said some unknown person was upstairs. Will investigated, and found a big burly negro in his father's room. He grabbed the fellow's coat-tails, but the thief escaped, sprang through a window to the piazza roof, and dropped to the ground below. He fell near coachman Douglass, who was talking with the elder Mr. Stout, but before they could recover from surprise he was running across the lawn, and got away.

He left his overcoat behind, containing letters by which Chief Grant, who has gone to New York on his trail, hopes to identify him.

The thief made entrance through a second-story window by way of the rear porch.

AFTER HIS FATHER'S ESTATE.

William Calloway Turns Up After Many Years and Wants His Patrimony.

William Calloway, an old veteran of the late war, claims that he has been duped or swindled out of a part of his father's estate. He was formerly employed in this city, but is now living at Samptown near South Plainfield. His father was Jonathan Calloway, who died about five years ago, leaving an estate of about 350 acres of land in North Hampton county, Virginia, to a widow and eleven children, all the latter by a second wife. Calloway's mother died when he was quite young, and his father married again. William's friends never heard from him from 1867 up to within a few months ago, when he by chance happened to meet a nephew of his, A. J. Benson, in Washington, D. C., who related to Mr. Calloway the circumstances connected with his father's death and the disposition of the estate, barring out Calloway entirely.

In the spring of 1867, Calloway says, he was a seaman on board a vessel, and was shipwrecked near or in the Delaware Breakwater. Since then his relations, not hearing from him, supposed he went down in the wreck, and was dead.

On information from his nephew, Mr. Calloway went to Metuchen and Rahway a few days ago, met some of his relatives and offered, instead of contesting the will, to sign off for $2,000, and thus relinquish all claim on the estate.

The land in question is not very valuable, but Mr. Calloway has placed the matter in the hands of a New York lawyer to care for his interests.

Regeneration.

To secure a normal and regular tissue change throughout the body use BRANDRETH'S PILLS. This tissue metamorphosis consists in constantly proceeding waste of tissue and its regeneration. BRANDRETH'S PILLS are the best solvent of the products of disintegration of the tissues and increases their elasticity. They are an alterative and eliminative remedy, which allay irritation and remove obstruction by aiding nature and are of great benefit in cases of temporary and habitual constipation, torpid liver, biliousness, headache, indigestion, rheumatism and diseases arising from an impure state of the blood.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS are purely vegetable, absolutely harmless, and safe to take at any time.

AS A MARK OF RESPECT

THE BOARD OF FREEHOLDERS ADJOURNED THEIR MEETING.

Resolutions on the Death of the Late County Clerk—The Members Attend the Funeral.

As the Board of Freeholders were to pass on the claims for expenses of the recent election, the members assembled Thursday afternoon, but in respect for the deceased County Clerk, James J. Gerber, an adjournment was declared.

All the members of the Board were present, and immediately after roll-call Director Sauer called Mr. Hubbard to the chair.

The regular order of business was suspended, and on motion of Mr. Sauer it was decided that when the Board adjourn it be until Monday afternoon at 2:30.

Mr. Sauer then offered the following resolutions:

Whereas, Almighty God in His infinite wisdom has removed from our midst our most esteemed County Clerk, James J. Gerber, who for many years has faithfully and efficiently administered the different positions of trust confided to his care; and

Whereas, The Board of Chosen Freeholder of Union county feel deeply the great loss which the county has sustained; therefore

Resolved, That while we bow with submission to the will of our Heavenly Father, we feel that society at large has lost an esteemed and honored citizen, and the various associations with which he was connected a true and faithful friend.

Resolved, That we tender to the bereaved family of our departed friend, and to this community, our heartfelt sympathy.

Resolved, That we meet on Saturday, Nov. 18th instant, at 9 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of attending in a body the funeral of our departed friend.

Resolved, That the office of County Clerk be draped in mourning for a period of thirty days.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of this Board, and that as a further mark of respect this Board do now adjourn.

Mr. Howard moved that the resolutions be adopted.

Mr. Trahon expressed himself as in accord with the expressions of the resolutions and hoped every member of the Board would attend the funeral.

The resolutions were adopted by a rising vote.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Sheriff Kyte will resign from the Fanwood Township Committee tonight.

Miss Charlotte Kyno, of Dunellen, will spend Sunday in Plainfield, with friends.

Charles Teeple, formerly of this city, but now a resident of Philadelphia, is visiting friends in town.

Daniel Hibbitts, of East Fourth street, was taken to St. Michael's Hospital, Newark, yesterday, to be treated.

A. W. Waldron, of Central avenue, is home again after an absence of several weeks in the west on a business trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Siebrecht, of New Rochelle, are visiting Mrs. Siebecht's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Tilsworth, on Madison avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Cadmus and baby Helen, of Brooklyn, are visiting Mrs. Cadmus's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Cole, at 78 Duer street.

The Misses Jennie Fleming and Kittie Higgins, of West Fourth street, will go tonight to Westerly, R. I., to attend the wedding of their cousin, Miss Richards.

The house being erected by Charles Potter, Division and West Seventh streets, for D. W. Pond, is completed, and will be occupied from today by Mr. Pond and his family.

A sociable and dance was given by Miss Lottie Wilson at her home in Lebanon last night. Samuel D. Frazee furnished music to the satisfaction of all. Guests were present from miles around.

Mr. and Mrs. Whitney Frazee have the sincere sympathy of their many friends in the loss of their infant son Whitney Frazee, Jr. The child was born yesterday morning and died this morning at 8. The funeral will be private.

The following young people from this city attended a social and dance in Bound Brook last evening: The Misses Mina Wyckoff, Minnie Smith, Lottie Corriel, Lulu Bird, Laura VanNest, Mr. Mullin, A. R. Johnson, J. H. Snoden and W. Coddington.

Mrs. B. Arrowsmith Hegeman, Jr., gave a very delightful dinner to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. E. Grattan of Jersey City Thursday evening. There were present Mayor and Mrs. Wm. L. Saunders, Mr. and Mrs. James T. Scott, and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. Roome.

Mrs. Henry P. Talmadge of Netherwood, gave a luncheon at The Waldorf this afternoon, and a theatre party for the "Algerian" at the Garden Theatre. Those present were Mrs. Talmadge, Miss Corlies, Miss Anthony, Miss Irvin of New York and Miss Lippincott of Philadelphia.

The New England evangelist, Rev. Arthur Crane, will preach in Trinity Reformed church tomorrow evening. "A Great Salvation" will be the subject of discourse. The church will probably not be large enough to accommodate the people who are anxious to hear this gifted divine.

Actor Henry Mygatt Woodruff, son of the former proprietor of Hotel Netherwood, figures in a long story of gossip in the New York papers today, in connection with his rumored engagement to Miss Gould, daughter of the deceased millionaire. No one story is like another, and no one seems to know the truth.

An important social event is promised for Monday evening, Dec. 18, when eminent society entertainers will appear on the stage of the Casino in a musical and literary programme of unusual excellence. The announcement is made thus early, so that those interested may reserve the date. At that time Plainfield people who love entertainment of refinement and elegance will be afforded an opportunity to enjoy the best work of some most distinguished artists.

A Chance for the Great Unwashed.

Dave, the expert tonsorial artist of 213 West Front street, has furnished his customers with china cups. Now he is going to put in bath tubs, of the latest improvement, with hot and cold water.

BUSY BOROUGH NIGHT.

NORTH PLAINFIELD'S COUNCIL HAS ITS HANDS FULL.

Sharp Censure of Electric Light Service—Fairview Avenue Changes Abandoned—Grist of Other Work.

An adjourned meeting of the Borough Council was held last evening in the Council rooms.

Mayor Saunders and Councilmen Hummer, Needham, Neal, Howell, Fountain and Edwards were present.

Clerk John Vetterlein read the minutes of the last meeting, which were approved.

Two protests, one from Charles Hyde and others, and another from E. M. Johnson, were received, stating their objection to the proposed changes of Fairview avenue. They were referred to the Committee on Streets and Public Health.

The following communication was received from the Fidelity Title and Deposit Company, of Newark:

To the Honorable the Mayor and Council of the Borough of North Plainfield:

GENTLEMEN:—The subscribers on November 3rd instant made application to your honorable body according to law for the vacation of Fairview avenue which was laid out in 1870 across lands now owned by the subscribers, but which has never been opened, worked or graded.

It was the intention if the said application met with no objection, to lay out two fifty-foot streets across the said lands in such a way that lots could be laid out averaging one hundred and twenty-five feet in depth from the middle of the street.

Said streets would have been so laid as to connect and join with Fairview avenue at the point where the same is open through the lands of Edward M. Johnson and others, thus giving an eastern outlet to Westervelt avenue to the two streets we proposed to lay.

It was our intention to open, grade and macadamize these streets and to restrict the purchasers of lots so that no house should be built nearer the street than fifteen feet nor which should cost to build less than $3,000 and that no fences should be built in front of said lots, so that on each side there should be a strip of lawn fifteen feet wide.

We deem that such a plan would enable us to build a very desirable class of houses, handsome in design, comfortable, and having all the modern improvements, and which could be rented for about $25 to $30 per month. Such property is very scarce in Plainfield and is in great demand by people who cannot afford to pay the high prices which prevail.

The secret of the difficulty we believe to be that ordinarily too much value is in the lots and too little in the houses.

Our plan was to furnish cheap lots and desirable houses and we are confident that such properties would be eagerly sought by a most desirable class.

However, by misrepresentation by people who know nothing of our plans, considerable opposition has been developed and, as it makes no particular difference to us, only doubling the price of lots to the purchasers and making them pay for a hundred and fifty feet of back yard which will be of little use, we hereby withdraw our application for vacation and request your honorable body to proceed at once to open, work and grade Fairview avenue from Somerset street to Westervelt avenue, as required by law.

Dated Nov. 17, 1893.

Very respectfully,
FIDELITY AND DEPOSIT COMPANY

It was referred to the Committee on Streets and Public Health.

The fact that two marshals were to be appointed at this session brought out a number of men anxious to see who would get the plums.

Several letters from prominent borough citizens were received, recommending the appointment of different candidates. They were all referred to the Committee on Licenses and Marshals.

A communication from F. Curtis and others, asking for repairs to the sidewalk at the southwest corner of Mercer and Sycamore avenues, was received and referred to the Committee on Streets and Public Health.

A petition, from Mr. Groendyke and others, asking for a sidewalk on Mercer avenue near Grove street, was received and referred to the Committee on Streets and Public Health.

E. C. Mulford petitioned the Council to turnpike Park place. Mr. Neal of the Street Committee said that it had been reported that Mr. Mulford had filled the gutters in front of his property with dirt left in grading, and altogether, on general principles, he did not recommend the work being done. It was so decided.

The Rev. W. E. Honeyman sent a communication to Council complaining of the electric-light service on Somerset street near his residence. He stated that for seven days at one time these lights were not burning. He asked that measures be taken to remedy the difficulty. It was referred to the Fire, Water and Lamps Committee.

The usual monthly bills were presented and after taking the course were ordered paid. The only exceptions were several bills presented by T. W. Morrison and F. W. Runyon, for advertising, which the chairman of the Printing Committee knew nothing about. It was for advertising the dog ordinance. The bills were not ordered paid until the matter should be investigated.

Mayor Saunders said that there were two important subjects that he would like to call the Council's attention to, in reference to borough matters.

One was the question of sewerage. Continuing, he said: "The time has come for us to act in this matter. Plainfield has taken active measures towards the adoption of such a system, and I have learned to my satisfaction that the system which Plainfield is to put in is the best in every way. I think it would be a good idea to let Plainfield know that we are ready to co-operate with them in securing the best service.

The Mayor suggested that a committee be appointed, whose duty it should be to attend meetings in relation to this subject, and act in strict accordance with them and the laws governing the same.

The next point was in reference to the electric light system of the borough. The results of this system were far from being satisfactory; it was very imperfect; complaints are being made continually about the lights, to the Council, citizens of the borough, and the Mayor.

The company is supposed to give a 25-candle power light. The Mayor brought an expert from the city at his own expense and had the lights tested, and found that the people were not getting what they contracted for. Some nights the lights have been out all night. Election night this was the case, and the excuse given was that they were out of coal—a very poor one, remarked the Mayor. "We are bound"—he continued—"to protect the residents and property of the borough. Our contract expires January 15, '94, and I would recommend that something be done to remedy the difficulty."

Mr. Neal, chairman of the Street Committee, reported the work on Summit avenue to be progressing, and that it would soon be finished.

The Committee on Laws and Ordinances presented a communication relative to the laying of sidewalks and keeping them in good condition. It was received and referred to the the Committee on Streets and Public Health.

Councilman Howell said that the condition of the wall in the court room was bad and asked that it be attended to. It was referred to the Committee on Licenses and Marshals.

In a resolution presented by Mr. Howell, the appointment of Zacariah Wilson and Conrad Broski, as night marshals, was recommended, they to be under the direction of the chief marshal and to conform to the rules and regulations governing such officers. Their appointment was confirmed.

Councilman Needham, under the head of miscellaneous business, introduced resolution recommending that in consequence of the action taken by the Fidelity Title and Deposit Co., that the Fairview avenue matter be dropped. It was so ordered.

In reference to a notice that was sent to property owners on Summit avenue, asking them to lay sidewalks, Mr. Needham said that the work had not been done, and suggested that another be sent. It was adopted. Mr. Needham presented a resolution that the Fire, Water and Lamp Committee be instructed to see the North Plainfield Electric Light Co., and ascertain the terms for lighting the borough for one year, after the present contract expires, and report at the next meeting, Dec. 1. It was adopted.

This subject was freely discussed by Messrs. Howell, Fountain, Needham, and others. Better street lighting was the one thing demanded, and some of the members thought it was an outrage to have to put up with such a state of affairs, claiming that the company had not fulfilled its contract. The matter will be further investigated.

Mr. Neal recommended that the Fidelity Title and Deposit Company be given permission to open, work and grade Fairview avenue, according to law, if they desired to do so, providing it did not cost the borough anything to do it. It was so ordered.

Mr. Neal stated that the note of $1,000 given to the First National Bank sometime ago, was payable Nov. 25, and in a resolution recommended that the Mayor and Clerk be authorized to extend this note for the period of one month. It was so decided.

Mr. Needham offered a resolution, recommending that a committee of three be appointed by the Mayor, to consider the system of sewerage, the Mayor to be a member of the committee ex-officio. The following were appointed: Messrs. Needham, Neal and Howell.

Mr. Howell spoke of bills not being presented in time for payment, and suggested that those holding claims against the borough present them promptly.

The bills of the Electric Light Co. for $388.50, and the Plainfield Gas Co. for $1.40, were not ordered paid until they should have been investigated.

The Council adjourned.

Praise of The Press Appreciated.

[From The Elizabeth Journal.]

The Elizabeth Journal is always the first to bestow deserved tribute on living or dead.—Plainfield Press.

An acknowledgment of this kind is one of which any paper might justly feel proud, especially when it is made by a strong political opponent. Certain it is that while The Journal stands firmly for its political principles and does what it can to elect its own party representatives, when they are good and proper men, it holds that private character is sacred, and that being on an opposition ticket or belonging to an opposition party does not, in itself, discredit as a candidate a man who is a good citizen in private life. The remarks of the Plainfield Press are based on the courteous words spoken of Mr. Martine and Mr. Sauer shortly after their nominations, and of the late County Clerk Gerber on the day of his sudden death. They are greatly appreciated, and will strengthen The Journal in its established policy to deal fairly with all men.

Praise for Plainfield Work.

H. C. VanEmburgh, engineer in charge of F. A. Dunham's contract for paving Cannon street, Poughkeepsie, with vitrified brick, completed the work Thursday, and it was so thoroughly satisfactory that the Board of Aldermen met the same evening and accepted the street and complimented Engineer VanEmburgh on his success in doing so excellent a job. Mr. VanEmburgh returned to Plainfield last evening, and left this morning for Sing Sing, to take charge of a piece of private work Mr. Dunham has contracted for in that city.

Time-Table Changes Tomorrow.

The winter time-table of the Central Railroad of New Jersey will take effect November 19. For changes see time-table in the station, as the change for advertisement has not yet reached The Press.

CAST OUT,

the disorders, diseases, and weaknesses peculiar to women—by the prompt action of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It's a powerful, invigorating tonic, and a strengthening, nervine. It brings relief for sleeplessness, backache and bearing-down sensations.

MRS. CORA CUMMINGS

Mrs. CORA CUMMINGS of No. 74 E. Yates St., Ithaca, N. Y., writes: "I took your Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription when I was run down and through the warm weather. It worked like a charm on my system and I am a good deal heavier in flesh now. It is the best medicine in the world for 'female troubles,' for I took almost all kinds of Patent Medicines, and doctors' prescriptions without benefit. There is hardly a day passed but that I recommend it to some of my lady friends."

WILLIAM M. OLIVER

APPOINTED COUNTY CLERK BY GOVERNOR WERTS.

He Is to Succeed James J. Gerber Until Next November—Mr. Martine Withdrew.

News reached Plainfield last night that Gov. Werts had appointed William M. Oliver as successor to the late County Clerk James J. Gerber.

A Press reporter called up Mr. Oliver on the telephone soon after the intelligence reached the city. Mr. Oliver said he had not received the official letters from Gov. Werts, but had learned unofficially that the appointment had been made, and that the honor had come to him. The report soon spread in Plainfield, and Mr. Oliver received the congratulations of many friends by wire.

Mr. Oliver is the County Collector. He was among those who were mentioned as candidates, and it was pretty well understood that the recommendations which he would have would be influential.

There were letters and delegations sent to Gov. Werts yesterday in behalf of all the candidates, and there was much speculation all day yesterday as to the probable result. It was quite evident that the choice would be either Mr. Martine, Zerman Norman or Mr. Oliver, although there were a number of others whose names were mentioned. During the day Mr. Martine sent a personal message to the Governor, insisting that his name be not considered.

Some of the members of the Court favored the appointment of Mr. Norman, and his petition was endorsed by a number of the members of the bar.

Mr. Oliver's eminent qualifications and his personal popularity made him a strong candidate, especially as it was urged that the appointee would probably be made the party's candidate at the next election.

It is expected that the office of County Clerk will be less remunerative in the future, as there is the probability of the duties being divided by the creation of the office of a County Register.

GAVE IT TO HIM IN THE NECK.

Justice Mosher Said to Have Fulfilled a Threat in the Allen Case.

The suit of Annie Miller against J. C. Allen came up before Justice Mosher and a jury yesterday. A verdict on the evidence of Joseph Brengle Miller of Elkwood notoriety was given against Mr. Allen; but in a higher court, to which appeal will be made, Mr. Allen and his counsel are satisfied they will be able to secure the justice they feel they have not been able to secure in the proceedings of yesterday. Craig A. Marsh will represent Mr. Allen on the appeal.

Mr. Allen will make an effort to bring out in the court at Elizabeth the peculiar methods of Justice Mosher, and will produce the language used by Mosher in open court. Among the statements of Mosher quoted by Mr. Allen is the remark alleged to have been made by Mosher in the presence of the court room full of people, a week before the trial, that if he had anything to do with the case Allen should get it in the neck.

On the Miller side it is claimed that Allen was so contradictory in his testimony that the court and counsel had to warn him to be careful or he would be locked up for perjury, and it is alleged that he outrageously insulted plaintiff's counsel, Judge W. A. Coddington. Allen's charges against Judge Mosher are emphatically denied by others.

Dividing the Frazee Lee Property.

The property owned by the Frazee Lee estate, on the southeast side of East Front street, was divided into four shares. The lot, which contains buildings, comprises about 92 feet frontage. The division has been made thus: Jacob S. Hetfield gets the first lot nearest Peace street; Meeker Hetfield and his family get the second lot; William Hetfield the third and Meeker Hetfield the fourth. There was much discussion on the part of the Hetfields as to who should have the corner lots, but the matter was finally amicably adjusted.

On the north side of the street there is a frontage of 108 feet. This was divided up equally. William Hetfield got the first lot; Meeker Hetfield and family the second; Jacob S. Hetfield the third and Sarah E. Terry the fourth.

The question now arises whether or not the East Front street property can be divided in its present condition; some have leases of the premises, and other have none.

At all events it would be a good thing to tear the old buildings away and erect good, substantial buildings instead.

AN AWAKENING.

What is it that is awakening people all over the land and causing such a thrill of excitement and gratitude everywhere among the sick and suffering? It is the new departure by that greatest and most successful specialist in the cure of all nervous and chronic diseases, Dr. Greene, of 35 West 14th street, New York, who offers to the sick everywhere the opportunity of consulting him by letter, free of charge. Think of it, sufferers, you who have sought in vain for relief, or for a satisfactory explanation of your disease! By writing him about your complaint, this great physician will send you, free of charge, an exact explanation of your disease and what to do to be cured.

He gives most careful and explicit attention to all letters, and makes you understand just what your complaint is. He is the discoverer of that great nerve cure, Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, and uses nothing in his practice but harmless vegetable medicines. The success which he is having in curing disease through letter correspondence is marvelous. Write, him, then, all about your complaint and you will without doubt be cured.

THE MAN ON THE CARS.

HE CONTINUES HIS COMMENTS ON THE WASTE OF TIME.

How He Figures on the Centuries that Men Squander in Railroading and the Startling Results that He Sets Forth.

The Man on The Cars was in another statistical mood this week, and he landed on me with figures and calculations sufficient to make a treasury balance sheet.

"Pursuing my remarks of a week ago"—said he as the train got under way—"has it ever occurred to you how much valuable time we annually spend in transit between our homes and our offices? No? Well, I supposed as much. You never seem to consider anything, and, by your leave, I will continue my crusade against your indifference and endeavor to enlighten you a trifle. Lend me a lead pencil, if you please; thank you. I left mine on my desk, and the man who cleans my office will steal it tonight. Now, we find that each of us daily expends at least an hour and a half in travel between his home and his work, and as much again between work and home—three hours a day in transit; or two hours on the cars and ferry, one hour on the way from house to station, and ferry to office, and return. Suppose you go to New York three hundred days in the year, which is a fair underestimation, and you discover to your amazement that you put in nine hundred hours a year in travel, or a little over thirty-six entire days of a full twenty-four hours each. That is, you spend something over a month annually on the road. Surprising, isn't it? Well, rather! But let me carry the thing further. In five years you blow in forty-five hundred hours in transit, or one hundred and eighty-six days—about six months in all. In a decade you give up one whole year in travel. I have commuted something like twenty years, and, therefore, have sacrificed at least two entire years on the altar of travel—a tenth part of my time allowance. If it is true, as I have heard, that Plainfield gives one thousand commuters to the railroad company, it becomes apparent that an aggregate of three thousand hours, or one year and four months, are daily spent by us suburbans in the profitless operation of getting to work and coming to dinner. Sounds pretty large, does it not? I imagine that if we could bunch all the hours that are beguiled in this same way by all who daily go to work in the metropolis—from our State, from Brooklyn, from Harlem and Westchester, we should find that a couple of centuries are squandered every day and never missed! Talk about profligacy! When I amass anything like a competency you may safely wager that I will dry right up and stop at home. The thought of so much time thrown away is almost enough to drive one to bromo-caffeine or suicide—for, as I reminded you last week, time is money, and he who steals my time robs me of my chiefest wealth. And you have never even thought about it? Well, I pity you—I pity anyone who is so blind to his interests.

"Here we are at Plainfield once again; three hours more gone on into the great beyond today and nothing to show for it. Good night!"

Charades in Chapel.

The Literary Committee of the Epworth League gave an interesting entertainment last evening in Vincent chapel. It was in the form of charades representing different books and their authors, which were acted out, it being left for the audience to guess the name of the book and who wrote it.

The committee, who arranged the affair and those taking part are as follows: The Misses Grace Barnes, Gertie Sharp, Lillie Chandler, Etta Baybert, Jennie Crosley, and Messrs. David S. Dunavan, Oscar Campbell, Robert Davis, Clarence Smith and James A. Stafford.

Not the Car Man's Fault.

Supt. Adleman has investigated the reported collision on the street railway, and says in reply to the charges of another paper:

"It was not 3, but 4. The car did not run into the wagon. The driver, who was either asleep or drunk, pulled the team in front of the car. The motorman rang his bell vigorously as he approached the wagon, and when the car was very near, the man pulled the wrong rein and pulled the team over on the track in front of the car. The motorman was not to blame.

TO THE WORLD OF WOMEN.

Mothers and Daughters Restored to Health and Strength.

Weak, nervous, delicate, overworked women are the ones that need a strength builder, a tonic for their nerves, and a cure for that awful int rnal trouble that is wearing out their lives. Thousands of women have found such in Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. Mrs. Christiana Beal, of Jonesport, Me., writes that her daughter had been a great sufferer from female trouble and after repeated trials of doctor's prescriptions and other so-called cures, all of which gave no relief, she used Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy and it permanently cured her.

If you have headache, use Favorite Remedy; it will build up quickly the run down constitution and bring refreshing sleep. It will dispel those tired looks and feelings, restore the nervous system and permanently cure you. Our daughters grow up weak and delicate; mothers can avoid such conditions by giving them Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy.

UNIMPEACHABLE TESTIMONY!

A WONDERFUL STORY BY AN IRVINGTON WOMAN.

Fearful Failure of Fifteen Physicians—Serious Surgical Operation Suggested.

For four years I have suffered from a complication of diseases which physicians said were dyspepsia, liver and kidney complaint, nervous prostration and womb disease. No words of mine can describe the terrible pains and distress I have experienced—the dizziness, trembling fears of evil, chills, fever, melancholy, restlessness and numerous other dreadful sensations which I am unable to describe. Have been treated by fifteen physicians, some of whom were sure they could cure me within two or three months, and all of whom have had from two months to three, four or more, as they said was needed. One I tried for a whole year until last May. I found myself disappointed, discouraged and about ready to give up altogether, as, after treating me for a year my physician told me I would be obliged to undergo a surgical operation before I could commence to get better. Just at this time I was advised by friends to consult Dr. Starkweather of No. 105 Halsey street, Newark, as they knew of some very remarkable cures which he had performed.

I followed their advice and visited the doctor on May 5. How glad I am that I took this step no one can realize who has not been similiarly situated. The doctor gave me a complete history of my case, describing with surprising accuracy the conditions and symptoms which I had endured for years, but what gave me the greatest surprise and pleasure was when he assured me that there was no need of any surgical operation. Proper means, he said, would overcome my troubles without any surgery. I commenced at once to follow Dr. Starkweather's directions and treatment. Having gradually and steadily improved since that time, as he stated I would, until now I am the wonder of all my friends, while rejoicing in renewed health, strength and spirits. Am constrained by a sense of duty and gratitude to accord the praise due Dr. S. for his gentle, soothing and skillful treatment of my case, and advise all sufferers from whatever cause to consult this eminent physician. MRS. WM. R. MANSER.
Smith street, Irvington, N. J.

Thousands praise the day they came to us for treatment. There is no guess work, no experimenting, no painful operation. No matter how difficult the case, no matter how much of the physician's time it may consume the diagnosis will not only be thorough, it will be absolutely free. There is no taint of quackery or deception; no claim or statement is made that is not born out by facts and living witnesses.

Any person, rich or poor, old or young, is welcome here and receives examination and advice without charge. The rapidity with which this popular system has grown into public favor is without a parallel. The number of new applicants increases daily, and the remarkable results of the treatment they receive both surprise and gratify.

There is not a penny to pay for the fullest medical advice. Dr. Starkweather is a graduate of the Berkshire Medical College, Massachusetts, and of the Medico-Chirurgical College of Philadelphia; endorsed also by the College of Physicians and Surgeons and Bellevue Medicel College of New York. We invite all sufferers from whatever cause to call at our office, No. 105 Halsey street, Newark, where Dr. Starkweather is in attendance daily to give examination and advice entirely free of charge. It matters not what the disease, or how many years you have suffered, in spite of means adopted in your behalf, a visit to this office and the privileges of the same will cost you nothing, and may be the means of saving your life. We prepare all our medicines and prescribe the remedies indicated. This plan enables the patient to receive directly from us such remedies as will produce the results promised.

Our office is open daily from 10 a. m. to 9 p. m. Sundays, 4 to 6 p. m.

Those living at a distance can consult the doctor by letter. Send or call for our book of testimonials.

Pleasant Evening at Trinity.

A missionary entertainment was given in Trinity Reformed church last evening by the Junior Christian Endeavor society. It was a complete success, as those in charge had arranged an excellent programme. E. E. Anthony opened the exercises with Scripture reading and prayer, and the following programme was rendered:

Recitation—"Katydid".....Fred Dunavan
Recitation—"What would your sister do,"
Bessie Wilson
Songs—Selected,
Robert Meeker, Jr., Fred Dunavan,
George Reynolds, Clarence Rittenhouse,
Fred Denckla.
Solo—Miss Blair.
Dialogue—"Missionary Concert Exercise,"
David Wyckoff, Robert Meeker, Jr.,
Will Dunlap, Henry Wyman.

Another dialogue entitled "Genius of Christianity", was given by the following representing the different nations:

Genius—Ollie Wyckoff.
Indian—Laura Wyckoff.
Mohammedan—Eva Lance.
African—May Williams.
Chinese—Edith Huff.
Hebrew—Maude VanDyke.

At the conclusion of the programme an offering was received and ice-cream and cake was served to all.

The room was tastefully decorated with chrysanthemums, evergreen and Christmas holly.

The entertainment was wholly arranged by Mrs. B. A. Meeker, President of the Junior Society, assisted by Miss Emma Wyckoff. Much credit is due to them for the excellent programme given.

A Symphonic Orchestra.

The Young Symphonic Orchestra organized last night at P. Ludwig Conde's violin studio, as follows:

THE HAWAIIAN MATTER.

Intimated That the United States Will Not Attempt Force.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—A Washington special to the Press says that Senator Morgan, of the foreign relations committee in the senate, was closeted all the afternoon with Secretary Gresham, and that the secretary said there was no intention of any resort to arms in Hawaii, and that Minister Willis would not, under any circumstances, call upon United States marines and bluejackets to assist the queen. The attitude of the United States would be purely diplomatic, and would content itself with a disavowal of the former steps taken by United States Minister Stevens and the United States naval forces in assisting in the establishment of the present provisional government. He permitted Senator Morgan to infer that if Queen Lilluokalani was not strong enough to establish her rights to the throne under these auspicious circumstances Minister Willis would not order troops or sailors from the men-of-war to assist her.

Public Sentiment Against Monarchy

CHICAGO, Nov. 18.—Dr. F. Day, for the last six years a resident of Honolulu, outlined the obscure side of the Hawaiian question. He formerly lived in Chicago, and is now visiting here. He represents the great American population of the islands which, although outnumbered more than three to one by natives, is the life life blood of the nation.

"The Cleveland policy," said Mr. Day, "is disappointing to those who have the real interest of the islands at heart. What the president and his cabinet may consider an act of justice to the queen is an act of gross injustice to the progress of the islands and to the interests of the many thousands of loyal Americans who live there.

"The Americans represent the largest holdings of property of any nationality on the islands. This revolution was won without aid from any United States troops.

"Secretary Gresham's letter does not convey the true idea of the situation in Hawaii at the time of the uprising. The community had been under the strain of most intense excitement for several months, which culminated in an attempt on the part of the queen to promulgate a new constitution. This constitution disfranchised the white voters and exempted the natives from paying taxes.

"The men who have been at the head of the provisional government are not aliens. They were all born in Hawaii of American parents, have lived there all their lives and know better than anybody else the wants of the country.

New Postmasters.

Pennsylvania—Dayton, R. M. Marshall; Frankfort Springs, W. H. Crimmins, Stevens Point, W. B. Stevens.

Bismarck's Health.

BERLIN, Nov. 18.—Prince Bismarck has sent a telegraphic reply to a message received a few days ago from his admirers in West Prussia, expressing the hope of his speedy and full recovery from his illness. The prince in his message said: "My recovery progresses slowly, though steadily. With God's aid I hope in the course of the winter to regain my former health. Then I shall always be pleased to receive again my political and personal friends who favor me with their visits."

Insurance in Canada.

TORONTO, Nov. 18.—A matter that is now occupying the consideration of the premier of Ontario and the cabinet is the operation of unlicensed insurance companies that send their agents here from the United States to prey upon the property owning public. The government will so amend the insurance act next session that the solicitation of business for unregistered and unlicensed companies will be a penal offense.

HEAD OF FOUR CHURCHES

Is It Any Wonder Ministers Break Down?

BISHOP PHILLIPS BROOKS DIED AS THE RESULT OF OVERWORK.

Rev. Henry Langford, the Eminent Preacher, Just Saved From Same Fate.

Overwork kills.

The great Bishop, Phillips Brooks, was stricken down in the prime of his manhood and usefulness as the direct result of physical and nervous exhaustion brought on by overwork.

Now comes the news that Rev. Henry Langford, the eminent baptist divine, of Weston, West Va. has just escaped utter nervous and physical prostration.

He is pastor of four churches. Is it any wonder he broke down in heath?

The reverend gentleman gives a very interesting account of himself and his troubles:

"For ten years," he said, "I have been nervous and growing worse all these years. During the last four or five years I became so nervous I could scarcely sign my name so it could be read. I was so nervous that I could not read my own sermon notes after they had been laid aside a while.

"I was unable to hold my head steady in the pulpit, nor could I hold or handle my books and papers without embarrassement, owing to the trembling and weakness of my hands and arms. I was so nervous that I could scarcely feed myself In fact my nervous system wos wrecked.

"I tried many remedies recommended by physicians, but found no permanent relief.

REV. HENRY LANGFORD.

"One day I was in the store of R. S. Ogden, at Sardis, W. Va., and he said to me: 'You take two bottles of Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy and if you say it don't help you, you need not pay for it.'

"I took two bottles of this medicine and found so much relief that I bought 2 more bottles, and now I am wonderfully improved in health and strength. Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy did it. I can heartily and truthfully recommend it to the sick. Too much cannot be said in praise of this splendid medicine.

"I say this for the good of other sufferers from nervous and prostrating diseases who can be cured by this remedy. For myself I am thankful to God that I found Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy and for what it has done for me."

You who suffer with nervous and physical weakness and prostration from overwork or other cause have only to follow the example and recommendation of Rev. Mr. Langford in order to insure a return of health and strength. This truly remarkable and harmless vegetable remedy is the discovery of the successful specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases, Dr Greene, of 35 West 13th street, New York. The doctor can be consulted in all cases free of charge, personally or by letter.

The WREN in Business

It is characteristic of the Wren that it will sneak in and occupy the nest made by another bird, in preference to building one of its own. This same trait is often seen in business. It is shown by the imitators of

COTTOLENE

No sooner has the wonderful merit of this new vegetable shortening, so much better than lard, created for it a remarkable sale and popularity, than the business wrens are ready to move upon the market with many worthless counterfeits. Any housekeeper can be easily and cheaply convinced of the value of COTTOLENE by simply giving it a trial. They will then be unwilling to go back to lard, or go down to fraudulent imitations.

All Other Traffic on a Part of the Lehigh Stopped.

Feared That the Strike is Only the Beginning of What May Develop Into one of the Greatest Labor Struggles in Years—Reading May Be Drawn In—Switch Lights Tampered With.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Nov. 20.—Thousands of men have thronged the Lehigh Valley station ever since the strike began, and, although nothing of an alarming nature has occurred, the excitement is intense.

Every incoming train is awaited with interest, but they are few and far between.

Very few wheels are turning on the entire Wyoming division, and the people are beginning to realise that what may become one of the greatest labor struggles in years has been inaugurated.

The officials of the company are doing everything in their power to provide for the running of through passenger trains to-day, although their success has been, to say the least, indifferent. Foremen of engineers, Costello, has been busily engaged trying to secure crews, but it is not known whether he succeeded to any great extent.

Only Mail Trains Running.

This morning it was reported that the mails were not delayed at any point, the men contenting themselves with stopping all other kinds of traffic.

Crews who had not received the order to strike before taking out their trains almost invariably proceeded to the end of the run, in compliance with the law of 1877, which makes it misdemeanor to abandon a train on the road. The same act also provides for the punishment by fine and imprisonment of any employe of another railroad who refuses to handle cars of a railroad whose men are on strike.

This may lead to serious complications, for if the strike continues the Lehigh Valley people will certainly offer their traffic to the Jersey Central, Delaware, Lackawanna & Western and other roads, and the trainmen who belong to the association will as certainly refuse to handle it.

May Involve Other Lines.

This will not only extend the trouble to other lines, but will lay the employes of these roads liable to prosecution in the courts.

At all points north, between Wilkesbarre and Sayre, the trainmen are out to a man, and not a wheel turns, with the exception of those noted above. It is expected that to-day the road will be tied up from one end to the other.

Four meetings of the different trainmens organization were held in this city last evening, but the utmost secrecy is maintained and the men absolutely refuse to divulge any of the proceedings. It is the general impression, however, that the action of the grand officers in ordering the strike has been ratified and that the men have pledged themselves to fight it out to the end.

Yards Blocked With Freight.

The railroad yards and the various sidetracks of the company in this city and at Coxton, Sugar Notch, Fairview and Port Bowkley are blockaded with several thousand cars of freight and coal. There is no telling at this writing when any of them will be moved.

Supt. Esser, who had been on duty for the past 24 hours with little or no stop, was deeply pained at the action of some of the employes by refusing to work, especially those who were under obligation to him for great favors he had done for them in the past. At his office last night six firemen and a number of unemployed men reported for work, their names were placed upon the list and they will be notified if wanted.

Fear Train Wrecking.

At 7.20 o'clock last night track walker Walch at Sugar Notch, four miles from here, reported that a tough gang of men were seen by him at the Franklin switch, and fears were entertained that they might interfere with the switches during the night. He hoisted all the lamps in their proper places after which he was chased away by the crowd who threw stones at him.

At Coxton, ten miles from here, the switch lights were removed and thrown into the adjoining fields by persons as yet unknown to the company.

Preparations for a Long Fight.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 20.—That the Lehigh Valley railroad is prepared to put up a warm fight was demonstrated yesterday when a couple of van loads of cots and other sleeping paraphernalia was unloaded at the company's Scott street station and shipped, presumably, to east Buffalo. Profiting by its experience of a year ago during the switchmens strike, the Lehigh was evidently arranging to quarter its men or non-union employees in some of the east Buffalo shops.

Not a Pound of Freight Moved.

AUBURN, N. Y., Nov. 20.—The mail trains on the southern central division of the Lehigh valley are running as usual, but all other traffic is at a standstill. The company's yards in this city are deserted and not a pound of freight was moved.

Will Reading Aid Lehigh?

READING, Pa., Nov. 20.—The strike on the Lehigh Valley system is the topic of talk in railroad circles in this section and the question is asked will the Reading aid the Lehigh Valley in destroying the labor unions.

The Reading company does not employ union men and has not since the strike of 1887.

Owing to the dullness in trade and the temporary suspension of a number of crews on the main line and branches of the Reading system, it is asserted that these men may probably be asked to accept employment on the Lehigh Valley and it is believed that not a few will avail themselves of this opportunity of securing work.

Hundreds of Good Men Idle.

There are hundreds of good railroad hands idle to-day along the various divisions of the Reading company and there is no doubt that if they are assured protection they will not refuse a call.

It was stated here last night that a few engineers left for Bethlehem yesterday from this section and others from Shamokin, Pottsville and Tamaqua. Some of the recruits will be sent to Mauchchunk and other points along the Lehigh system.

Several passenger trains were sent through yesterday afternoon and also a train load of dressed beef. A train of cattle is side-tracked at Packerton and the animals will be unloaded there.

It is reported here to day that the Lehigh officials applied to Superintendent Maxwell of the Central railroad of New Jersey to handle some of their freight if necessary and that Mr. Maxwell refused to do so. It is also said that a similar application had been made to Superintendent Hailstead of the D., L. & W. and that he also declined.

The strikers claim that if this position is maintained by the competing roads the strike will be settled within a week.

Situation at Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 20.—The storm centre of the Lehigh strike is at Wilkesbarre, and the tie-up appears to be pretty effective from that point on to Buffalo. From New York to Allentown the officials have had little difficulty in keeping the road open, except at Easton. From Allentown to Wilkesbarre the operation of the line has been greatly hampered by the determined stand of the employes at Wilkesbarre and beyond.

President Wilbur, of the Lehigh Valley, when seen at his residence, spoke freely of the strike.

"We are having no difficulty in the moving of our trains," he said, "but just what may yet occur in that direction I am unable to say."

"The places of the strikers will be filled by other men and if any of them desire to return to the service of the company they will be treated not as old employes, but as new applicants for work, and, if worthy men, will be given positions as vacancies may arise; but, their places once filled, we will not displace the new men to make room for them."

No Engine for the Train.

JERSEY CITY, Nov. 20.—There are but six trains sent out by the Lehigh on Sunday and the first five started on time. The train which should have left for Suspension Bridge at 9:12, did not go, however, because there was no engine to take it out. The trainmaster announced at 8:30 that no attempt would be made to run this train. All incoming trains arrived on time.

Quiet at Easton.

EASTON, Nov. 20.—The Lehigh strikers here are quiet and orderly. The officials have been able to secure the services of several engineers and a few firemen. A few passenger trains have been sent out but mostly after long delays. It was said that the company expects to run coal from the mines to-day.

HALF A MILLION LOST

Railroads Robbed by Ticket Counterfeiters.

Passengers Losses About $200,000.

A Shrewd and Gigantic Swindle Unearthed at Chicago—Thousands of Spurious Tickets Sold.

CHICAGO, Nov. 20.—Counterfeit railway tickets to the amount of over $100,000 have been honored in the last four weeks by the Baltimore & Ohio, Erie, Pittsburg & Western, Nickel Plate and other roads.

There was absolutely nothing on the face of the tickets to indicate they were counterfeit. They were accepted without question by conductors, passed readily by the ticket counters and entered as of legal issue by the various ticket auditors.

The tickets were the most perfect counterfeits of any kind ever issued.

The first intimation of crookedness cropped out in the auditor's office of one of the victimized lines, when a duplicate number was discovered.

Blamed His Printer.

The auditor satisfied himself that both tickets were genuine and sent a stinging note to his printer, scoring him severely for his carelessness. The printer appeared in person with an indignant denial of the charge, but when shown the two tickets of the same number was compelled to acknowledge that the error was made in his office.

The next day the ticket auditor discovered 67 duplicated tickets in the collections. There seemed no possibility of the tickets being counterfeit. They were exact duplicates. The next day nearly 200 duplicated tickets showed up in the collections and a panic reigned in the auditing department.

Each of the tickets read from Chicago to New York and was worth $18. The one days collections showed the company had honored at least $5,400 worth of tickets for which it had not received a cent of revenue.

The Counterfeit Discovered.

Experts were immediately called in. At the end of three days, during which over 500 more duplicated tickets piled up in the auditor's office, one of the experts discovered that the tickets were counterfeit. With a microscope he found an imperfection in a small letter "c", which showed in just half the duplicated tickets.

Meantime the other roads had been going through the same experience.

Each of the roads promptly issued minute instructions to their conductors to take up all the counterfeit tickets and enforce payment of passage from persons holding them.

Each conductor was furnished means to recognize the counterfeits and the first day the four roads named took up over 600 of them.

Passengers Losers Also.

The passengers were naturally indignant, but each was compelled to acknowledge he had bought the ticket of a Chicago scalper.

Nine out of every ten of the passengers who made written statements of the circumstances declared they had bought the tickets of a notorious ticket scalper doing business on Clark street. The rest were bought in various offices.

With the information thus obtained the victimized roads engaged the services of a prominent detective agency and a large force of operatives was put on the work of running down the counterfeiters. The roads are in deadly earnest in bringing the criminals to justice and are bearing the cost jointly.

Bound to Catch the Rogues.

Up to date they have expended over $11,000 in securing proof which it is confidently believed will land the criminals in the penitentiary for long terms.

There is no means of knowing how many tickets were sold by the counterfeiters.

The railroads now have in their possession about $200,000 worth, more than one-half of which were honored for transportation. There is no fear of the roads losing anything more on the present issue of counterfeits, but they may now be on sale at every point in the west where scalpers have offices.

Hardship on Passengers.

A dozen or more were sold in Chicago day before yesterday and dishonored for passage on east-bound trains yesterday. In many cases the purchase of tickets has worked great hardship to passengers. In the majority of cases they did not have, or claimed not to have, enough money to pay the cash fares demanded by the conductors when they took up the counterfeit tickets. On one train their were 83 holders of counterfeit tickets and 37 were compelled to leave the train for non payment of passage.

Enough additional information has been secured to warrant the statement that the roads interested have been mulcted to the tune of more than $300,000, and not less than $300,000 more by passengers.

Reading Coal Trade Good.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., Nov. 20.—All the Reading collieries have been ordered to start on full time to-day until further notice.

CAN'T ATTACH THE NUGGETS.

Wales Entitled to Immunity, as a Guest of This Country.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—Attorney General Olney has appointed Edward Walker of Chicago a special attorney to represent the United States in the case of the suit against the commission of New South Wales to the World's fair.

Among the exhibits of New South Wales were a lot of gold nuggets. These were attached by a traveling circus company which had recently been in Australia and alleged that through the defective quarantine arrangements of that country the circus company had lost many valuable horses. They sought to recover on the nuggets of the New South Wales exhibit.

An examination of the law here discloses the fact that a foreign government cannot be sued in United States court without its consent. Even if this point were not conclusive, the government of New South Wales, in the circumstances, is a guest of the United States and entitled to immunity, even if the allegations so far unsubstantiated were found to be true. The case will probably be dismissed if pressed.

CHINESE MINISTER COMPLAINS.

The North Carolina Outrage Called to Secretary Gresham's Attention.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—Secretary Gresham has received complaint from the Chinese Minister, Yang Yu, that within the past ten days a Chinaman living in a small town in Western North Carolina had been chased into the mountains for no other known reason except his nationality and that he was believed to have died from exposure.

An investigation is being made of the facts in the case by the United States district attorney for the western district of North Carolina. If the facts are as stated, reparation will probably have to be made by the United States.

Recent dispatches from North Carolina state that the Chinaman was believed to be insane and wandering in the woods, and that his assailants had been arrested.

War in Morocco.

LONDON, Nov. 20.—A despatch from Melilla, says: "The cruiser Reina Mercedes is expected from Breman with 10,000 Mauser rifles aboard. The Spanish advance will begin, it is believed, as soon as these rifles have been distributed among the troops. Two more Spanish regiments have arrived here. Numbers of Jews continue to leave Melilla. It is supposed that they fear the result of the inquiry into the illicit trade in firearms."

Fatal Collision on the Penn Road.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—There was a head-on collision early yesterday morning between east and west bound freight trains on the Pennsylvania railroad at the South Broad street coal chutes, Newark, N. J. David Green, of Philadelphia, engineer of one of the trains, was instantly killed. The engineer of the other train and the two firemen were severely injured and taken to hospitals. Both engines were demolished and three freight cars were wrecked.

Fighting the Prize Fighters.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Nov. 20.—A special from Tallahassee says that Governor Mitchell declares that he will issue a proclamation directing every sheriff to do his utmost to prevent the Corbett-Mitchell fight coming off in this state and appealing to the people in the several counties to co-operate with the sheriffs in saving them and their state from such a disgrace.

To Consecrate the Altars.

YONKERS, N. Y., Nov. 20.—Archbishop Corrigan will consecrate the side altars of the new church of the immaculate conception in this city to-night. He will at the same time consecrate the altars of the chapel of the sacred heart. A large number of visiting clergy are expected to be present and the ceremonies of consecration will be continued to-morrow.

A Child's Miraculous Escape.

PASSAIC, N. J., Nov. 20.—An infant child of Joseph Hance, of 294 Passaic street, fell from a third story window last evening. It fell at the feet of Dr. John J. Sullivan who carried it into the house expecting to find it dead. When it was laid on a bed it grabbed at his watch chain and commenced to crow lustily. An examination showed that the child was absolutely unhurt.

She Must Leave Passaic.

PASSAIC, N. J., Nov. 20.—Julia Swartz, the woman who claims to be the wife of Charles Greene, a jeweler, and went to his boarding house Saturday evening and accused Mrs. Albert Romosa of undue intimacy with Greene, and brandished in Mrs. Romosa's face a revolver, has been discharged from custody on promise of her leaving the city.

Billiard Tournament in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Nov. 20.—At Central music hall to-morrow evening champion Ives will meet ex-champion Schaefer in a fourteen inch balk line game, 4,000 points up the contest to conclude on Saturday night, 800 points to be played each night. The match, which does not involve the championship, is for $2,500 a side.

All Loyal to the Republic.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—Capt. Jarline of the steamer Delamere, just arrived from Pernambuco, reports that all code telegrams are prohibited in that city. There was one man-of-war in port when he left. The people are all loyal to the republic. All the buoys have been taken up in the harbor.

To Be Appointed Soon.

War Talk at San Salvador.

SAN SALVADOR, Nov. 20.—The government denies that there is any understanding with Nicaragua in case war breaks out. Efforts will be made to confine the war to Honduras and Nicaragua.

Snow in New Jersey.

SOMERVILLE, N. J., Nov. 20.—The first snow fall of the season in this vicinity occurred last evening. About one inch of snow fell.

MANY HAVE PERISHED

Great Loss of Life and Craft Off the Coasts of Great Britain

The Terrific Storm Which Began Saturday Still Raging This Morning—Numerous Steamers and Other Smaller Craft Wrecked, and in Some Cases All on Board Were Lost—Over 300 Drowned at Calais.

LONDON, Nov. 20.—The storm which swept the United Kingdom all day Sunday was still furious this morning.

Reports of ship wreck are being received almost incessantly.

The Vulture and the Bessie, small steamers which took refuge in the harbor at St. Ives on the Cornish coast, began dragging their anchors towards evening. Both signalled for help, but none could be sent in such terrible weather. They were driven ashore and after two hours perilous work the crews were rescued with life lines by the coast guards and fishermen.

The steamers went to pieces in the tremendous seas which rolled over them in the night, and not a vestige of either hull is now to be seen.

Damage on Land.

The people on the Orkney islands, off the north coast of Scotland, have suffered terribly. Many houses were unroofed, walls and barns were levelled, and haystacks were lifted from the fields and blown out to sea.

The packet Osprey was torn from her moorings, and carried out to sea. She has not been seen since. The whole plantation of Dunbeath castle, in Caithness, the most northerly county in Scotland, was swept clean to the ground.

Signals of distress were seen flying yesterday from a vessel on Goodwin Sands, off the Kentish coast. The fishermen on shore made repeated efforts to get lifeboats through the sea to her, but were driven back.

Six vessels were ashore last night near Holyhead, off the Welsh coast. Four of them were breaking up. Six other vessels were making signals of distress.

All Manner of Craft Wrecked.

The Yorkshire coast is strewn with wreckage. Near Whitby three vessels went ashore in the night and were going to pieces at last reports. The crews were saved.

The excursion steamers Tern and Swan, which were at anchor in Windermere lake, county of Lancaster, when the storm began, were torn loose before daylight and both went to the bottom.

Off Winterton, county of Norfolk, a schooner foundered shortly before noon, and five men were drowned.

Trawlers, fishing smacks and small craft of other sorts have been reported by the score as missing from every important point on the coast.

Loss of Life Great.

The loss of life has been great, but no estimate of the number drowned is possible, as communication with many parts of the coast has been cut off.

Dispatches from Havre say that the Normandy coast has been scourged more severely than before in years. Many fishermen are known to have been lost; dozens are missing. The service of Channel steamers has been suspended completely.

At several points on the coast the thermometer has fallen rapidly and the high winds have piled up enormous snow drifts. Two soldiers were found frozen to death in a drift near Portsmouth.

Twenty-Three Drowned.

The British steamship Hampshire, 1,593 tons, went down yesterday off Gurnard's Head, on the Cornish coast. All the crew took to the boats. One boat reached shore, but the other went down and the 23 men which it carried were lost. One of the sailors who was saved said that the vessel sprang a leak after having been beaten about by the storm for five hours. She was on her way from Liverpool to Cardiff.

Reports of minor wrecks multiplied rapidly this morning. The Norwegian schooner Arne sank off Filey, on the Yorkshire coast. Only one of the nine men aboard her was saved.

All on Board Lost.

A trawler went ashore near Reay, on the Caithness coast, and seven of the eight in her crew were lost. The British steamship Princess, 1,370 tons, plying between Sunderland and Bilbao, went to the bottom near Flamborough, Yorkshire, with all on board. A Scotch trawler capsized off Scarborough, Yorkshire, and the eight men aboard her were lost.

A Norwegian bark foundered off Malin Head, County of Donegal, Ireland, last night, and the crew of eight were lost. The steamer Mayo, which plies between Dublin and Liverpool, arrived at the latter port yesterday afternoon. Forty head of cattle were killed and thrown overboard during the voyage.

Worst Storm in 50 Years.

Reports received from Havre and Calais say that the storm along the Normandy coast is the worst one experienced in the last fifty years. Wrecks are reported from every point along the coast. Innumerable small craft have vanished from the waters along the coast. Vessels were dragged from their moorings and sunk with all on board.

The Channel steamer Foam left Dover for Calais before the company decided to suspend the Channel service. She had the greatest difficulty in entering the Calais harbor. Her officers counted twenty-nine wrecks, principally fishing boats, in the twelve miles between Gravelines and Calais.

They found the east pierhead at Calais and the lighthouse in Calais harbor swept away. The harbor looked as if it had been shaken by an earthquake. More than 300 persons were drowned between noon Saturday and last night at Calais and in the immediate neighborhood. Fifty bodies have been recovered.

THE DAILY PRESS.

A. L. FORCE, - - Publisher and Proprietor.
WALTER IRVING CLARKE, - Managing Editor.

THE WEATHER.

For New Jersey Tomorrow: Fair; Stationary Temperature; Southwesterly Winds.

The worst performance ever seen in this city was "The Prodigal Husband" Saturday night. The company was devoid of talent, and the alleged play was more stupid than a primary-school dialogue. It transpires that the company has been accustomed to playing in such places as Boonton, and that the Plainfield booking was made through the deception of a theatrical agency. Managers and the public are warned against this tiresome and utterly worthless "attraction".

The Fanwood Township Committee is today in the same position as North Plainfield's Common Council was when Councilman Connolly resigned. The Press held then that the vacancy should be filled by a member of the same political party as the man resigning, and it holds the same in the Fanwood Committee case. It sincerely trusts that the differences may be adjusted tonight and a Republican elected as loyal to manhood and to the people as the retiring Committeeman, the Hon. George Kyte.

The leading candidates for the City Clerkship are Harry C. Runyon, Joseph B. Coward and Winfield S. Angleman. Mr. Coward's candidacy causes young Republicans to clamor for a show and to protest against perpetuity in office. Mr. Angleman is distrusted as the personal candidate of the present incumbent, whose own withdrawal from the race reminds one of the sour-grapes fable. Mr. Coward certainly has ability and experience in the office; and that that is a good thing, the experience of the past two years attests. But are n't they all counting chickens ahead of time?

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—The C. Y. M. L. will give a dance in their club-house Thanksgiving night.

—The Master Mason degree will be worked by Jerusalem Lodge tomorrow night.

—Baptism was administered to a candidate in the Park Avenue Baptist church yesterday.

—The stoves will be placed in the street cars tomorrow. Everybody will be glad to hear of this.

—Take advantage of this lovely weather, and go to Rome tonight. The excursion starts at Music Hall at 8.

—Glorious weather is this, and a glorious entertainment you may enjoy by visiting Music Hall tonight.

—Queen City Lodge, No. 226, I. O. O. F., will work the second degree on several candidates this evening.

—"Not dead but Married" was the sign on the door of the International Fur Store on Park avenue this morning.

—Summons has been issued by Justice Nash in the case of Waldron against Hooley, on contract. The case is returnable Nov. 28, at 2:30 p. m.

—Cheaper than ready-made goods are those fine trouserings, to order, at $5, reduced from $7.50, at Sebring's, Park avenue.

—It became necessary yesterday to change the batteries operating the fire-alarm whistle, which was the cause of the three separate blows.

—The proper things for ladies who are compelled to turn out in all kinds of weather are those calfskin Blucher Bals that Doane & Edsall are selling at $3 and $4 a pair.

—The last new car for the street railway will probably not arrive here before next spring. An effort will be made to borrow a car from the Newark Passenger Company.

—Two unfortunates were in the City Court this morning, charged with being drunk and disorderly Saturday night. They were fined $3 apiece by Judge Coddington and dismissed.

—The members of the Riding club will rehearse a drill at the Academy on Watchung avenue this evening. There is some talk of arranging a "paper chase" about Christmas time.

—Several members of the Camera Club were testing slides in their rooms last Saturday evening. They propose to place the finest in the interchange series, and the selections they made were beauties.

—The milk train passing through here soon after 10 last night bore evidence of having passed through a severe snow-storm. The train comes only from Easton, but the cars were literally covered with snow.

—Don't forget to ask for one of J. F. MacDonald's premium cards, when you are getting some of his bargains, for in the rush the clerks might forget to give you one, and you don't want to be without that advantage.

—That merchant prince, Edward White, says there never was a time in the history of the dry goods business when such values were offered, as at the present time, and all he asks is a visit to his store, and the goods and prices will do the rest.

Success to Him!

Fritz Deem for many years baker at Mrs. Walker's of this city has bought out a bakery business in Dunellen.

With Ely's Cream Balm a child can be treated without pain and with perfect safety. It cures catarrh, hay fever and colds in the head. It is easily applied into the nostrils and gives immediate relief. Price 50 cents.

My catarrh was very bad; for 30 years I have been troubled with it—have tried a number of remedies without relief. A druggist advised Ely's Cream Balm. I have used only one bottle and I can say I feel like a new man. I make this voluntary statement that others may know of the Balm.—J. W. Mathewson, lawyer, Pawtucket, R. I.

QUEER KIND OF JUSTICE.

WHAT RIGHT HAD THESE STRANGERS TO ACT SO?

Sleek Chaps from Out of Town Work a Strange Racket on Inoffensive Plainfielders, Who Claim that the Thing Is a Swindle.

A couple of clever chaps were in town Saturday night and succeeded in carrying out their plans to the extent of collecting something less than $50 before they were practically chased out of town. They came from Jersey City and were armed with 3 warrants, made out by a justice of the peace in Hudson county, for the arrest of Frederick Moore, Henry Windham and Henry Spencer. The first of these warrants was not in proper legal form, and Justice Nash, to whom the two men applied, refused to endorse it. The other two papers were in proper form and were endorsed by the justice. One of the men gave his name as William E. Wilson and said he was the complainant in the cases and that he represented a defunct company that sold goods on the installment plan. The other man wore the badge of a deputized officer and came to serve the warrants. The first man took a very dictatorial tone with Justice Nash and was angry because he would not endorse the worthless warrant. After some words the judge ordered the men out of his office, and they went, throwing anathemas on the head of the firm justice. They succeeded in serving the two good warrants on Windham and Spencer and frightened them into paying the amount demanded. Frederick Moore was arrested by the man with the bogus warrant and taken before Justice Mosher. Moore obtained Walter Hetfield as his counsel, and a lively time ensued. The men refused to give their names to Mosher, but said that they were counsel and constable for the installment company. The amount claimed from Moore was $35, which they said he owed on a diamond pin. They desired Justice Mosher to hold Moore in $500 bail for appearance before the Grand Jury, thinking to frighten Moore into paying the claim. This Mosher refused to do, and then the two men said they would take Moore by force. Mosher pointed out to them that the warrant was not good, and Moore's friends looked so threatening that they concluded they would not insist. They left the office amid the hoots of the assembled crowd. The only mistake Justice Mosher made was in not arresting the two men when he found they had arrested Moore on a warrant that they knew was worthless. They threatened to return to town today and carry out their plans.

Justice Nash says that this is a not uncommon method of swindling, and that it is very hard to put your hands on the culprits. Nearly everyone, he says, will pay a few dollars rather than be arrested, and it is comparatively easy for persons of this kind to obtain warrants that are correct in legal form and then there is nothing to prevent their carrying out their purpose.

PRETTY WELL BATTERED.

J. W. English Has Two Alleged Assailants Arrested.

William Adams and George Shay, arrested on complaint of J. W. English, charged with assault and battery, were up for a hearing before Justice Nash this afternoon. English testified that he was forcibly detained in a house yesterday and struck repeatedly by Adams while Shay held the door and would not allow him to escape. The state of English's face spoke more against the culprits than anything he could say. He had a terrible black eye, a torn ear, and several scalp wounds.

Harry C. Runyon, who appeared for the prisoners, endeavored to get Shay dismissed by claiming that he had nothing to do with the assault, but Justice Nash said he held one to be as much to blame as the other, and fixed their bail at $200 each. They will appear before the Grand Jury in January.

FIRST OF THE SEASON.

Park Club Dances Opened by a Brilliant Social Success.

The first dance of the Park Club, Saturday night, was a great success. Fully 150 young people danced every dance, and only stopped on the stroke of 12.

The floor was rather uncomfortably crowded most of the time, but that did not seem to detract in the least from the pleasure of the dancers. The club intends to make these dances a feature during the winter, and they will certainly contribute largely to the success of the season.

It was noticeable last Saturday that the guests were not limited to Park Club members, but many from the Country Club and numbers of people who are seen at the assemblies were present.

ON A HORSE THIEF'S TRAIL.

Trenton People Searching in Plainfield for Stolen Property.

Mr. Phillips of Ewingville and Detective Hopple of Trenton called at Chief Grant's office, Saturday night, in quest of a stolen horse and buggy. The Chief had neither seen nor heard of it, and was unable to give any information. Mr. Phillips said that Saturday afternoon a well-dressed colored man stopped near his exchange stables at Ewingville. Phillips remarked what a nice rig he had, to which he replied that it belonged to the officials of the telepone company in Philadelphia, and that he was going to take it to Plainfield for the use of the officers in that place. He also said that the horse was bought for $125. Mr. Phillips offered him that price, but the bargain was refused. The colored man, however, took a $5 horse blanket from the wagon and sold it to Mr. Phillips for 75 cents. Later the detective appeared, and reported that the horse had been stolen from a Philadelphia firm, and the two set out on the trail. Chief Grant telephoned to New Brunswick, but got no news of the rig from that place, and the visitors resumed their search from town to town.

THEIR SECOND ANNIVERSARY.

Happy Surprise to Mr. and Mrs. Cooley.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Cooley of Watchung avenue, were surprised with a celebration of the second anniversary of their marriage, Saturday evening.

A number of their friends had planned to call on them, without their knowledge of it, and the scheme was a great success. It was an informal affair, which was all the more enjoyable. During the evening excellent music and recitations were provided, and amusing games occupied the attention of those present.

The rooms and table were neatly decorated with chrysanthemums and maidenhair ferns. Later in the evening an elaborate collation was served.

Those forming the party were: The Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Schenck, Mr. and Mrs. Fred MacDonald, Mr. and J. C. VanDyke, Mr. and Mrs. Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. James McMurray, Mr. and Mrs. Elias Bird, Mr. and Mrs. Edward VanWinkle, John VanWinkle, John VanWinkle, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Anthony, Mr. and Mrs. Haven, Mr. and Mrs. Elderton, Mrs. Snediker, Miss Lou Snediker, Miss Nettie Randall, Miss Minnie Williams, Miss Grace Humpstone, Mrs. Dayton, Miss Dayton, Miss Ella C. Benedict, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Charles Randolph, Frank Howland.

Real Rain, and a Fire Scene.

Concerning "The Oath", which is to be presented in Music Hall Thursday night, the Paterson Evening News says:

People's Theatre was last evening the scene of an unusually brilliant opening. It was the first production of the sensational comedy drama, "The Oath", which is carefully placed before the public, and acted by a company of excellence. The story of the play is very nicely worked out, and the scenes laid in places which allow of wonderful scenic and mechanical effects, the downpour of rain in the first act was a bright bit of realism, which was only excelled by the marvelous fire scene, entitled "the burning of the mill", during which the excitement rose to a fever heat.

NEGLECTING SALVATION.

Evangelist Crane Cries, How Shall We Escape?

A very large audience filled Trinity Reformed church last evening, to hear the Rev. Arthur Crane, the evangelist.

The first fifteen minutes were occupied with a song service, which was conducted by the regular quartette, Miss Fanny Mattison, Miss Etta Krymer, A. J. Moore, and Robert Clark, with Arthur Titsworth as organist.

The Rev. Cornelius Schenck then conducted the reading of the Nineteenth Psalm and offered prayer. The first chapter of Hebrews was read by Mr. Crane, after which the congregation sang "There is a fountain filled with blood".

Mr. Crane preceded his remarks with a short prayer, and then announced his text:

For if the word spoken by the angels was steadfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompense of reward, how shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation?—Heb., i: 2, 3.

"In brief"—said Mr. Crane—"Paul's argument was this, 'that God had been moving step by step ever since Adam and Eve were placed in the Garden of Eden, and from that time has been offering this great salvation'. If the people in those days neglected and refused this salvation, which was offered to them by angels, how shall we escape in these days?

"God gave His Son, Jesus Christ. This was His best and last gift, and if we refuse Him, there is nothing that will save us.

"This subject presents several principal thoughts to me.

"The first point is that something is needed, and how shall we escape? We need deliverance from sin, guilt, and the love of sin and the world. There is something which draws men like a magnet into sin, and we need deliverance from this mighty power.

"This salvation is the greatest thing in the world. Wealth gives relief from many things, but not from sin; education delivers us from superstition, and health is a good thing, but they both fail in time.

"What the world needs is Salvation. Men have always felt their need of deliverance. Forms of religion won't save a person—nothing but the indwelling of Christ in the heart. It is impossible to change nature; we have no power to do this, but God has. A sheep will eat grass and follow a shepherd; a lion will not, simply because it is not the nature of the animal. Again, I place a knife in a mother's hand and tell her to plunge it into her child. She exclaims 'I cannot'. It would be entirely out of harmony of her nature. We have met people who have suddenly awakened to the fact that they were bound by some habit, and they did not realize how weak they were in getting rid of it until they tried to do so. A great many of us are bound in chains in this manner.

"The mere offer of Salvation is startling, as it would not be offered if we did not need it. It should shake every soul, and reveal everything to us. It means preservation; it is music to the ears; it is the song of the universe; and it keeps everything in motion, in regular order. Every obstacle has been removed, and free and full Salvation offered, as wide as the universe.

"This Salvation comes out of the heart of the Eternal, alone; God so loved us that He gave His only Son, to draw us to Him. I could not give up the life of my boy; I would rather sacrifice my own, first. Salvation is great because it costs more than we can estimate.

"The Great Ruler owns everything. He is the King of Life. Salvation is great because of its provisions. There is an inexhaustible supply from the stream which will never stop running, and your pastor has stood here time and time again, and offered you this Salvation; and there is enough for all—no lack of it, though many millions have slaked their thirst at the fountain of blood.

"This Salvation is great because of its perpetuity; there is no end to it. God never changes, and His channels never run dry.

"What is this Salvation in its broadest sense?

"It is a life boat. There is no end of contentment in it. If we reject it, we shall die; that is God's decree. Why do we spend money for that which is not bread? Why not let our soul delight itself in fatness? Jesus Christ is God's great Salvation. Take Him now, and be satisfied. If you reject, you will be lost; and the time will come when you will have to stand before the Great White Throne. Then you will lament and realize the bitter truth—'How shall you escape if you neglect so great Salvation.'"

After singing a hymn, the Rev. Cornelius Schenck pronounced the benediction, and the service closed.

A Rising Evangelist.

The Rev. George A. Lewis preached last night to a large congregation in the Mt. Teman A. M. E. church, on the subject "The Vail Rent in Twain". Mr. Lewis is a strong preacher, and his services are in great demand in New Jersey towns.

Date Set for the Fair.

The committee appointed by Winfield Scott Post, No. 73, G. A. R., to arrange for a fair, held a meeting in their rooms Saturday evening. It was decided to hold the fair the week commencing December 11.

WHEN YOU CAN'T EAT without that uncomfortable feeling of fullness or drowsiness afterward, then it's time to take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They make digestion easy. Keep a vial of them in your vest-pocket, and take one after every hearty meal.

It's time to take them, too, whenever you "feel bilious." They're specific for biliousness. They act wonderfully upon the liver.

These tiny, sugar-coated Pellets—the smallest, the pleasantest to take, and the most natural in their ways—absolutely and permanently cure Constipation, Jaundice, Biliousness, Indigestion, Sick or Bilious Headaches, Sour Stomach, and every liver, stomach, and bowel disorder.

Chronic Nasal Catarrh.

N. M. HODGES, Esq., of Lakestown, Rich Co., Utah, says: "I was suffering from chronic catarrh, and bought half-dozen bottles of your Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, and I am happy to say I am permanently cured of that disease."

FIGHTING FANWOOD'S FOUR.

EXCITEMENT OVER GEORGE KYTE'S RESIGNATION.

Chairman Miller Willing to Vote for Any 1 of 20 Representative Republicans—The Remaining Republican in the Board Declines to Accept His Proposition—Another Meeting Tonight.

At a meeting of Fanwood's Township Committee Saturday evening, the Hon. Geo. Kyte resigned as Committeeman. By courtesy of the Board, he was permitted to act as treasurer until a treasurer should be elected.

Quite a sensation was caused by Chairman George C. Miller, who announced that an election to fill the vacancy was in order. Committeeman Wm. E. Terry was taken by surprise, and asked for a recess of 15 minutes, the purpose being to consult with his henchmen. The same was courteously extended by the Democratic chairman.

At the expiration of that time the committee was called to order, and the chairman asked for nominations. Terry asked for more time, under the plea of suddenness of Mr. Kyte's resignation. The chairman briefly answered him: "Take an hour's time with the bosses, and try to come to some arrangement. I can stay here as long as you can." Terry was unwilling to do this, because there was fighting among Boss Robison and his associates, as to who should have the nomination, whereupon chairman Miller exclaimed: "I hold in my hand a list of twenty reputable Republicans—men worthy of the position; take your pick of them, and I will vote for your selection. I am a liberal independent man, and want an honest associate." The offer was declined by Mr. Terry, on account of the Republican bosses; they wanted a tool whom they could control. On reflection, the chairman agreed to adjourn to meet Monday evening, Nov. 20, at 7, stating, as he put the motion: "You have lost a good opportunity. Come prepared to elect, vote for, or draw lots for, a man, on Monday at 7 p. m."

Fanwood township on Sunday seemed like election times; carriages were going in all directions; and rumors of many compromise candidates are in the air.

Chairman Miller distinctly says: Deadlock or no deadlock, he will not vote for a machine Republican, and will force his associate committeemen to vote against every Republican of good standing before he gives up; and will under no circumstances vote for a candidate unless he declares himself against the Big Four Republican rule. The old ring is broken at last, and the bosses are fighting among themselves for the lost spoils, thanks to an independent Democratic township committeeman.

HENRI MARTEAU HERE AGAIN.

The Young French Violinist Who Will Play in the Melopoia Concerts in the Casino.

Henri Marteau, the young French violinist, who gained universal praise in musical circles in this city last year, has returned to America to give a series of fifty concerts. He was among the passengers on the French line steamer Champagne, which arrived here early yesterday. He is a guest at the Windsor Hotel.

Marteau is only 20 years old. Wherever he has appeared in the musical centres of Europe, in London, Paris, Vienna and Berlin, and in Boston and this city, he has captivated his hearers. In his present tour Marteau will appear before the leading musical organizations of the country. He opens in Cincinnati before the Orpheus Club next Thursday. His first appearance in New York will be at the Philharmonic Concerts on December 15 and 16. He is also to play at the Boston Symphony Concerts later in the season.

This will be M. Marteau's last visit to America for some time. He is to enter the French Army on his return to France. Marteau is to be assisted by Mme. Rosa Linde, the contralto, of this country, and Edwin M. Shonert, the pianist, all of whom are booked by the Melopoia. The present tour is under the direction of Rudolph Aronson, and will be managed by Robert E. Johnson.

The Woollen Stocking.

In "The Woollen Stocking" Harrigan has what is called in sporting parlance "a sure winner". It possesses all those qualities that have made his name a metropolitan theatrical feature. Its humor is buoyant and fresh, the movement of the scenes is lively and full of local color, and the character drawing is firm and sure. His own delightful personality finds capital scope in Larry McLarney. Mr. Harrigan is writing a new play, but will not be able to produce it until the phenomenal run of "The Woollen Stocking" is over. All Plainfield amusement lovers are recommended to the merits of Harrigan's Theatre and Harrigan's plays.

Tracy Tells of a Kite.

James Tracy of East Front street tells as a fact that in county Galway a few years ago he flew a kite, 10x4 feet in dimensions, with cord, a tail measuring half a block long. Tracy says after the kite got to a great height it parted from the string and was found later 24 miles away from the starting point.

The Old Man in Town.

John Harkins, the once famous baseball player, visited friends in town Saturday evening.

The American Catarrh Cure

Is the result of twenty-six years' study and treatment of the disease. One bottle convinces the most skeptical. It is always ready for use, needing neither douche nor atomizer. It restores the hearing, cures the hawking cough and expectorating, removes the headache and nose bleeding, increases the appetite, produces sound sleep, invigorates the whole system and increases the vitality. Prepared only by W. B. Jones, M. D., No. 1336 South Eighth street, Philadelphia. For sale by I. W. Randolph, 21 West Front street. Price $1.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. William M. Rider.

Mrs. William M. Rider died at her home, "Maplewood", Dunellen, this morning, of peritonitis. She was a woman of so many and such lovable qualities that everyone who knew her deemed her a friend, poor and rich alike.

She was one of the most popular members of the Melopoia Choral Society and the members of that society missed her at this winter's rehearsals, and frequently expressed the wish that she might soon be able to again join them. The news of her untimely demise will be sad news, indeed, to them all.

Mr. Rider is a member of the Union County Country Club, and a regular commuter on the club train to New York.

It Will Be Worth Hearing.

The Rev. Frederick J. Stanley will lecture tonight, free, in Washingtonville chapel, on "The 3 C's of the Land, at the Root of the Sun; or the Country, Customs and Characteristics of Japan and the Japanese, issuing from 700 Years of Feudalism, within the past third of a century". This is a popular, entertaining and instructive lecture—more or less humorous—on that marvelous country and people of the Crescent Island Empire of the Pacific.

Dr. Stanley has been several years Professor of English Literature in Count Okuma's College, Tokyo, Japan, and has recently returned to this country.

Young, Active and Able.

[From The Union County Standard.]

The Plainfield City Republican Executive Committee have passed resolutions requesting the Hon. Foster M. Voorhees and Assemblymen Codding, Cross and Burger to further the interests of the Hon. John Ulrich for the position of State Comptroller. This the representatives of Union county will no doubt take pleasure in doing. Mr. Ulrich's popularity as a young, active and loyal Republican is not only recognized in his own city but generally throughout the State. What the State wants is young, active and able men to fill the offices such as ex-Judge Ulrich is; and as no other Republican from this county is named for that position his friends confidently look for the support of Union county's representatives for this position.

Scott's Minstrels Doing Well.

James Scott's Alabama Minstrels performed to a good-sized house in New Market Saturday evening, and the audience showed its appreciation by frequently applauding the performers. The receipts were not large, but the company made a little money by the enterprise. They will appear in this city in a few days.

A Katakrinokouphdog.

The New York Sun's latest puzz'e word is "Katakrinokouphdog", the definition of which seems to have d fied the literary experts We have found the combination. A "Katakrinokouphdog" is a mortal who has n't found out that you can get better return for an investment at Geller's than at any other jewelry store in Plainfield.

Mr. Crane's Work Not Finished.

The meetings for men at 8 p. m. and Bible reading for men and women at 3:30 p. m., conducted by the Rev. Mr. Crane in the Y. M. C. A. rooms, will be continued until Friday, inclusive. The reading have been largely attend, and found very interesting and instructive.

Smokestack Climbs a Pole.

Edward Hoover, better known as "Smokestack", on Saturday commenced the dangerous work of painting the flagstaff on Mr. Streuli's premises on Hillside avenue. The pole measures one hundred feet from the ground, and the work of painting it is hazardous.

Good News for Carpet Makers.

It is rumored that the carpet factory on South avenue will resume operations in a week or two. The works have been idle for some time, and the prospect of starting up again is glad news to the employes, most of whom are females.

Results Come from His Preaching.

The Rev. Arthur Crane's stirring address on "Where Art Thou?" in the Y. M. C. A. rooms at 4:15 p. m. yesterday appealed to the reason of the large number of men present, and was followed by good results.

It's a Dandy.

The large press being built by Walter Scott for a firm in Massachusetts is completed, and will be tested today, previous to being shipped to its destination.

The Human Electrical Forces!

How They Control the Organs of the Body.

The electrical force of the human body, as the nerve fluid may be termed, is an especially attractive department of science, as it exerts so marked an influence on the health of the organs of the body. Nerve force is produced by the brain and conveyed by means of the nerves to the various organs of the body, thus supplying the latter with the vitality necessary to insure their health. The pneumogastric nerve, as shown here, may be said to be the most important of the entire nerve system, as it supplies the heart, lungs, stomach, bowels, etc., with the nerve force necessary to keep them active and healthy. As will be seen by the cut the long nerve descending from the base of the brain and terminating in the bowels is the pneumogastric, while the numerous little branches supply the heart, lungs and stomach with necessary vitality. When the brain becomes in any way disordered by irritability or exhaustion, the nerve force which it supplies is lessened, and the organs receiving the diminished supply are consequently weakened.

Physicians generally fail to recognize the importance of this fact, but treat the organ itself instead of the cause of the trouble. The noted specialist, Franklin Miles, M. D., LL. B., has given the greater part of his life to the study of this subject, and the principal discoveries concerning it are due to his efforts.

Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, the nutrivaled brain and nerve food, is prepared on the principle that all nervous and many chronic difficulties arise from disorders of the nerve centers. Its wonderful success in curing these disorders is testified to by thousands in every part of the land.

Restorative Nervine cures sleeplessness, nervous prostration, dizziness, hysteria, nervual debility, St. Vitus dance, epilepsy, etc. It is free from opiates or dangerous drugs, and is sold on a positive guarantee by all druggists, or sent direct by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, six bottles for $5, express prepaid.

Sold by all druggists.

DEARTH OF HAWAIIAN NEWS.

All Surprised That the Queen Has Not Been Restored.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—There is a total dearth of Hawaiian news in all official circles to-day. The Australia will sail from San Francisco on Thursday next on the return voyage, and the trains last night carried an unusually large and doubtless interesting official mail from both the State Department and the Hawaiian Legation which will go out on that steamer.

On the same day the Alameda is due to arrive at San Francisco from Honolulu, after which there will be an interval of twenty days before the next steamer is scheduled to reach this country from Hawaii.

It was with great surprise that those outside government circles received the news that up to Nov. 11 the Queen had not been restored.

Minister Willis presented his credentials to President Dole, of the provisional government, and had not indicated, prior to the departure of the Australia, any intention on the part of the United States government to insist upon the restoration of Queen Liliuokalani.

The general expectation in the city was that the news would have been that Minister Willis had carried out the suggestions contained in Secretary Gresham's letter to the president of October 18. Everybody was prepared to hear that the queen had been restored to her throne and that the provisional government was a thing of the past. That these things had not come to pass notwithstanding the fact that Mr. Willis had been ten days on the ground, was difficult of comprehension, and the question arose whether the position of this government had not been wholly misunderstood by the newspapers and the public, which had assumed, and this assumption had been encouraged by official hints, that Secretary Gresham's recommendation had been approved by the president and had been the basis of Minister Willis' instructions. But if they had been so misunderstood the further question arose, "Why should the secretary voluntarily publish to the world a document containing an argument and a set of recommendations, if all of them had been rejected by the president?" It was hardly conceivable that this should be the case and the general opinion finally crystallized into a belief that all the story had not yet been told; that Minister Willis' purpose was correctly understood in the first instance, but that there had been perhaps a slight misunderstanding as to the means he was to employ to secure the restoration, and that further time must elapse before his aims became apparent to the people of Hawaii.

Arrested for Forgery.

YONKERS, N. Y., Nov. 20.—Adam M. Rule, aged 22, son of Thomas Rule, a well-to-do business man, residing on West 45th street, New York city, was arrested at the Getty house in this city yesterday afternoon. He is charged by the Fifth Avenue national bank of New York city with forgery. He confessed his guilt, and said that high life was the cause of his downfall. It is believed that his stealings will not be found to be over a few hundred dollars.

Methodist Church Burned.

FARMINGDALE, N. J., Nov. 20.—Fire broke out in the M. E. church yesterday morning. There is no department here, and a general alarm was sent to all neighboring towns for assistance. Departments from Asbury Park, Lakewood and Red Bank responded by special trains. The fire was gotten under control after an hour's hard work. The loss upon church and contents is $11,000; insurance, $3,000.

Jesuits and Clericals.

BERLIN, Nov. 20.—Hoenbroech, who withdrew from the Society of Jesuits, and has startled the Clericals with his revelations concerning the order, has been summoned to the vatican by a special note. The pope is trying to reconcile Hoenbroech with the Jesuits, and a report has been spread to the effect that Hoenbroech is ready to be reconciled.

Tehauntepec Railroad.

CITY OF MEXICO, Nov. 20.—A contract for the completion of the Tehauntepec railroad was signed between the government and the Hon. Charles Seymour, representing the Dresdner bank of Germany, yesterday.

COTTOLENE IS MADE TO EAT

Made from clarified oil, expressed from Cotton Seed—as pure and golden as the Southern Sunshine which produces it.

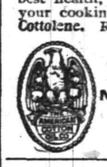
For convenience in handling, there is added to this oil enough beef suet to make it a semi-solid.

The combination of these two pure natural products makes Cottolene, a shortening and cooking fat, with which in healthfulness, cleanliness, flavor and economy, nothing in the world can compare.

IMITATIONS are MADE TO SELL

To sell on the merits of the genuine. To sell by substitution; or by deception. To sell to the injury of the genuine, to the detriment of the consumer, to the detriment of the dealer, to the loss of all concerned—except the scheming counterfeiter himself.

If you wish the best food and the best health, you should insist that your cooking be done with genuine Cottolene. Refuse all counterfeits.



Sold in 3 and 5 pound pails.

Made only by

N. K. FAIRBANK & CO., CHICAGO, AND PRODUCE EXCHANGE, NEW YORK.

THE LEHIGH TROUBLE

A Determined, But Orderly Struggle For Supremacy.

Freight and Coal Tied Up Tight as a Drum—A Few Passenger Trains Running, But Not on Time—Both Sides Confident—Conflicting Stories as to Whether Other Roads are Handling Lehigh Freight.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 21.—The freight blockade on the Buffalo section of the Lehigh Valley railway is complete. The promise of the officials to move the usual trains was not even partially fulfilled.

The Lehigh Valley yards are crowded by long avenues of freight trains all ready to move, but they are without engines or crews.

Of the 13 yard engines, only two are working, and one of these is manned by a green crew.

121 Trains Blocked.

Eighty-four freight trains bound east, 37 bound west, are stalled in the Buffalo yard—121 trains blocked in all.

The yard shanties are filled with switch men waiting for work. Four west bound trains waiting for transportation over the Lake Shore are waiting to be transferred.

Handling Lehigh Freight.

Supt. Fennell of the Lehigh was seen at his office on Scott street this morning. He was very busy with strike matters. The reporter asked him whether the company had experienced any trouble with other roads to which they had offered freight. He replied that the freight of his company had been offered to other companies as usual and none of them had refused to accept it because of the strike. "We have had no trouble in this regard," said he, "and expect none."

The Trouble All at Sayre.

Saying this, he referred the reporter to his chief clerk, who made the following statement for Supt. Fennell:

"We have all the men we can possibly work in the yards with the existing traffic. Our full compliment of switch engines is eight or ten, and we have eight working this morning and will have an equal number to-day. We are moving all the freight about the yards and getting it into readiness to be sent forward as quickly as the Sayre blockade is open.

Calls it Mob Rule.

"We have not tried to move any freight out of the yard or send any of it east, as it would be useless to do so. We could get it as far as Sayre, but we might as well leave it in Buffalo as to fill up the yards there, for we could get it no further. The authorities say they are doing all they can to quell the disturbances and put down the mob rule. They have not accomplished much yet, and until they are able to cope with the mob there will be little use of trying to move freight from here."

While the reporter was talking with Supt. Fennell's assistant, Supt. of Police Chambers came in and was closeted with Supt. Fennell for a short time. As he was about to leave Mr. Chambers said to Supt. Fennell: "We will do all we can to protect the company's property, and you can call upon us for all the assistance we can give."

Erie and Central Admit It.

At the office of the Erie's freight agent it was learned that that road had not refused to handle any of the freight offered to it by the Lehigh. "We not only are handling freight," said Chief Clerk Powell, "but we are taking freight for Lehigh points."

Superintendent C. L. Rossiter, of the Central was also seen and asked if that company accepted freight from the Lehigh. "We are not doing any different than we have always done and I do not know of any reason why we should. If the Lehigh has any freight to offer us we will carry it. We certainly shall not refuse any freight that is offered to us."

WYOMING DIVISION.

The Men Firm and Orderly—Freight and Coal Tied Up Tight.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Nov. 21.—The strike on the Wyoming division is assuming a rather serious aspect. While the officials in reply to all inquiries say: "All passenger trains are running" the fact remains that although this may be partially true, it does not reflect the situation by any means.

Coal and freight traffic is tied up as tight as a drum, and the few passenger trains which are allowed to run on account of the mails have to crawl along from point to point and do not attempt to follow the schedule. Even these may be abandoned at any time, although the strikers say that they will not interfere if the company secures non-union men to run the mails.

No Intimidation.

John Rice, chief of the local division of the Brotherhood, was called into Supt. Esser's office and charged by that official with intimidating the men who showed a desire to stand by the company. Rice stoutly denied the charge and said that he and the men had strict orders to use no intimidation whatever.

He said that the men would use all honorable means to win, but they intended to work strictly within the limits of the law.

Superintendent Esser was much annoyed to-day when several crews who had signified their intention to go back to work failed to report. They had been visited at their homes by a committee of strikers and persuaded to quit. No intimidation was resorted to.

All passenger trains between Mauch Chunk and Wilkesbarre are running with green men. They are not familiar with the road and as a result are on an average from three to five hours late. One train from Easton arrived forty hours late. The new firemen could not keep up steam and the train was compelled to stop several times along the road.

The mail trains are mostly made up of mail and baggage cars, while on some a car or two of perishable freight is coupled on and sent to its destination.

Conducting Themselves Admirably.

The men are conducting themselves admirably. In obedience to their instructions, they keep away from the railway station and hardly a striker can be seen about the place. A platoon of police is on duty at the Union depot, but they have nothing to do, except to disperse the small boys who gather there and hoot at the few trains that go by.

Trainmaster Bardo who has been on duty almost continuously since Saturday night, reports that all the telegraph offices on the division are manned by new operators. This is denied, however, by the strikers.

The Situation at Sayre.

WAVERLY, N. Y., Nov. 21.—Viewed from the outside, the situation, as regards the Lehigh strike, seems unchanged today. At Sayre Junction, the division headquarters, a large number of the employes are about the station. Nearly all are strikers and the leaders are working earnestly to induce those who have not gone out to join them.

They promise to pay from the brotherhood treasury $35 per month to brakemen, $40 to firemen and $50 to engineers and conductors.

The men seem very confident and claim that as all the organizations are out on all the lines they are certain to win. The officials are equally confident and declare they will stop all traffic rather than yield.

The company has notified the sheriffs of Tioga and Bradford counties that they shall hold the counties responsible for any damage done by the strikers, but as yet there has been no violence.

Strikers' Cash.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 21.—It is stated on good authority that the combined reserve funds of the organizations to which the strikers belong, amount to $500,000. The striking engineers are paid $50 per month from this source, and all other men involved receive $40 per month. Should the reserve funds become exhausted members of the order throughout the country would be assessed, and one of the committeemen said they would pay it.

Two and Three Hours Late.

TUNKHANNOCK, Nov. 21.—The strike has had only this effect here—that is uncertainty. Trains are moving two and three hours late and all coal and freight trains are abandoned. All matter between Sayre and Pittston for points east and south, must be reported at Pittston Junction and only one operator of the force is loyal. It is predicted by railroad people that only postal cars will be pulled by to-night.

Looks for a Compromise Proposition.

BETHLEHEM, Nov. 21.—The Lehigh Valley officials have sent out notices to all strikers that the places of those who do not return to work to-day will be filled, and after that old employes who apply for work will be treated as new hands. There are very few Brotherhood men out here. One who was seen felt confident that the men would win. He predicted that the company would ask the men to compromise before long.

Hard Pressed at Easton.

EASTON, Pa., Nov. 21.—This morning the Lehigh found itself more hard pressed for engineers and firemen than at any time. Three passenger trains due to leave at different hours had to be combined in one train and sent out. One freight train was sent east and two west.

Notable Diplomatic Victory.

LONDON, Nov. 21.—The Times correspondent in Constantinople says that the Turkish sultan has decided to let duly qualified women practice medicine in Turkey if they pass satisfactorily the examination at the imperial school of medicine. This concession is said to be due to the exertions of the United States minister in pressing the claims of a female practitioner from America.

Not Surprised at the Muting.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—While the war department has not yet received a report concerning the incipient mutiny of the troops at Fort Sheridan, near Chicago, because of the quality of the food furnished at mess, no surprise is expressed at the news. Since the inauguration of the consolidated mess system, a few years ago, complaints has been frequent.

HAYES BACKS DOWN

Withdraws His Charges Against Mr. Powderly.

Sudden Termination of the Fight in the K. of L. Session—Accused All to Be Vindicated and Hayes Bounced from Office To-day.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 21.—The Powderly-Hayes fight in the general assembly of the Knights of Labor reached a climax yesterday afternoon when the general secretary-treasurer openly withdrew his charges of malfeasance in office against the general master workman and his colleagues on the executive board, A. W. Wright and John Devlin. The general assembly will to-day, after consideration of the finance committee's report, declare the office of secretary-treasurer vacant and vindicate the accused officials.

While a vindication of Messrs. Powderly, Wright and Devlin was expected, it was not thought that Mr. Hayes would so completely abandon his case. His withdrawal was the result of the finance committee failing to sustain the charges, and it was primarily brought about by Delegate Hugh Greenan, of New York. Mr. Greenan arose in the convention yesterday afternoon and asked this question:

One Charge Not Withdrawn.

"Mr. Hayes, when I return to my constituents shall I tell them that every cent belonging to the order has been accounted for, or shall I inform them that your charges have been sustained?"

Mr. Hayes replied: "You can tell them that I withdraw my charges. The only charge I will not withdraw is that A. W. Wright did not properly attend to his duties."

This outcome created a great surprise and there was loud applause by the friends of Mr. Powderly who declare that the remaining charge against Mr. Wright is trivial and has no connection with the order's finances.

The amount involved in Mr. Hayes accusations was about $1,000 and it is said the finance committee's report will show that the order is indebted to John Devlin in the sum of $900, in undrawn salary.

The offices of secretary-treasurer pays $2,000 per year and the assembly will to-day, after ousting John W. Hayes, elect his successor. The strongest candidates for the position are General Worthy Foreman Hugh Cavanaugh, of Cincinnati, and John O'Keefe, of Philadelphia. It is probable that a contest between these two will result and the selection of a dark horse.

WHERE IS PRINCE PIERRE?

One Report, Probably Incorrect, Says He Has Started for Brazil.

LONDON, Nov. 21.—The Debats newspaper in Paris announced to-day that Prince Pierre, Dom Pedro's grandson, who is said to have been proclaimed Emperor of Brazil by Admiral Mello, took a train from the St. Lazare station at 11:30 yesterday morning for St. Nazaire, where he was to embark for Brazil.

The Prince was accompanied, according to the Debats, by a suite of twenty-five.

The United Press correspondent in Vienna telegraphs that the story published by the Debats is probably incorrect. Prince Pierre is said to have been seen this morning at the Neustadt military school, which he has attended regularly for some time.

Signs of Improving Times.

HARTFORD, Conn., Nov. 21.—Business in Staffordsville is showing decided signs of improvement. The Phoenix woolen company, Riverside woolen company, Central woolen company and the Staffordsville woolen companies' mills all started up last week. The Warren woolen company, Mineral Springs manufacturing company and the Rawitzer brothers, all woolen mills, and Smith & Cooley's shoddy mill will start up this week.

A Study in Interest.

BOSTON, Nov. 21.—The sum of $2,068, which has accrued in interest upon a $60 deposit in a local savings bank, has just been turned over to the state. A deposit book representing that amount was taken from a prisoner named William Doyle, some 90 years ago, by the then city marshal. Doyle died in 1824 without kin, so far as known.

Plimmer Challenges Dixon.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—Louis Waldron, who is now managing Billy Plimmer, called at the office of a sporting paper yesterday afternoon and issued a challenge to George Dixon to fight to a finish at 114 pounds, for $10,000 a side, weighing in at the ringside.

They Are Political Prisoners.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—Secretary Carlisle has ordered the release of the Russian convicts arrested at San Francisco, and so notified the Russian minister here. The convicts, it was found, were political prisoners, and, under our laws, could not be detained.

Vandalism at a Providence Church.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 21.—The police are endeavoring to locate the culprits who last Saturday night smashed with a stone the $6,000 decorated window in Sts. Paul and Peter cathedral on Cathedral square. The window is almost ruined.

MR. BLOUNT'S REPORT

Result of His Mission to Hawaii Made Public.

Makes No Suggestions Nor Recommendations, But Confines Himself to the Facts as He Saw Them—Reflections on Certain Parties.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—Secretary Gresham has made public all the correspondence between the secretary of state and James H. Blount, commissioner and late minister of the Hawaiian islands. Mr. Gresham, in giving the voluminous printed matter to the press, explained that it included everything connected with Mr. Blount's mission to Hawaii, with the exception of some statistical tables relating to the islands.

The matter consists of three parts, the first beginning with a copy of the instructions given Mr. Blount on March 11, 1893, prior to his departure from Washington for Honolulu, and the last part ending with a brief letter under date of July 31, 1893, in which he takes his conge as follows:

Can Only Rest on Military Force.

"The condition of parties in the islands is one of quiescence. The action of the United States is awaited by all as a matter of necessity. This condition, it can be assumed, will remain until the proposition to annex is accepted or rejected. In the latter contingency no sudden movement is likely to occur. The present government can only rest on the use of military forces. Possessed of most of the arms in the islands, with a small white population to draw from to strengthen it, ultimately it will fail without fail, it may preserve its existence for a year or two, but not longer."

Then he adds that he has done his duty as well as he could "considering I was surrounded by persons interested in misleading me."

Secretary Gresham's letter of instructions to Mr. Blount, dated March 11, define clearly how far in the opinion of the president the use of armed force is permissible by the United States to pull down or set up governments.

Blount Refuses Favors.

In a letter dated April 6, Mr. Blount announces his arrival at Honolulu and tells of his refusal, against the strong urging of Minister Stevens, to accept a house and the use of servants, carriages, horses, etc., furnished by the provisional government paying "whatever I wanted for it from nothing up." He also notes the refusal of tenders from the ex-queen and others.

Appended to a letter of April 8, in which Mr. Blount deplores the perverted influence of Minister Stevens and Consul General Severance, to which he ascribes the existence of the provisional government, is a stenographic report of an interview between Mr. Blount and Admiral Skerrett in which the latter said that just before leaving for San Francisco to assume command of the Pacific squadron on Dec. 30, he called at the navy department for any instructions the Secretary might be pleased to give him, and that during the conversation Secretary Tracy, in reply to a remark of his that twenty years ago when he was in Hawaii he was told by United States Minister Pierce that the United States government did not wish to annex the islands of Hawaii, Secretary Tracy said: "Commodore the wishes of the government have changed. They will be very glad to annex Hawaii." He said as a matter of course none but the ordinary legal means can be used to persuade these people to come into the United States.

Paul Neumann's Reputation.

Mr. Blount, in a subsequent letter, forestalled the visit of Paul Neumann to Washington in stating that he "is generally regarded here as a bright, plausible, unscrupulous person," and suggests that if the administration should receive any proposition from Mr. Neumann in connection with a contract between the queen and the provisional government, in the matter of her abdication, it would be far better to decline to entertain anything.

Gives Suggestions to the Queen.

Mr. Blount says he called on the ex-queen and informed her that no person was authorized by President Cleveland nor himself to place the government of the United States in the attitude of desiring an adjustment between herself and the provisional government, and the queen charged that she did not intend to enter into any negotiations until the Washington government had taken action on Mr. Blount's report.

Defends the Queen.

The printed attacks of Volney Ashford on the queen are discredited by Mr. Blount. Ashford declared that she had twice striven to supplant her brother even at the expense, if necessary, of walking over his body to the throne; that Wilson's "pull" with the queen consisted in the fact that for many years he had been her favorite paramour, among several, and that she was a woman loaded notoriously with the grossest social vices.

Mr. Blount's Final Report.

Mr. Blount's conclusion of facts are embodied in his report to Secretary Gresham dated July 17th. It is a very long document filling 37 large printed pages and indicates very clearly that he understood that he was to confine himself to a plain statement of facts for nowhere does he make the slightest suggestion or recommendation. Refusing all proffers of hospitality on his arrival on the islands he says he took up his quarters at the Hawaiian hotel where he passed several days in receiving calls and soon became aware that all minds were quietly and anxiously looking to the action of the United States government. The troops of the Boston were doing military duty for the provisional government, with the American flag floating over the government building and, says the minister, "Within it the provisional government conducted its business under an American protectorate, to be continued, according to the avowal

THEIR PATENTS SUSTAINED.

Westinghouse Air Brake Company Gains a Great Victory.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—Judge Townsend, of the United States circuit court in this district, has just handed down a decision of great importance to railroad interests. The decision was in a suit brought by the Westinghouse air brake company against the New York air brake company, which was argued before him last January. The Westinghouse company claimed that the New York company was infringing the complainant's patents in its system of quick action air brakes, which, on account of its superiority over the old systems, has practically superceded all of them.

Judge Townsend sustains the complainant's patents, which broadly cover the quick action system, and decrees an injunction and an accounting.

Several similar suits, involving the same issues, have been brought against other alleged infringers.

NO DOUBT OF THEIR FATE.

Efforts to Recover the Bodies of Miss Yeargin and Mr. Merriam.

ITHACA, N. Y., Nov. 21.—There are no new developments regarding the supposed drowning of Miss Yeargin and Mr. Merriam on Saturday last. The university authorities offer a reward of $25 each for the recovery of their bodies.

The belief is now settled beyond all hope of reversal that both were drowned and the bodies now lie at the bottom of the lake said never to give up its dead. The accepted theory is that the parties endeavored to change seats; that the lady fell into the water and the professor, a gallant southerner, plunged in to her rescue, and that this effort lost to them the boat which drifted away and all chance at support until help could come, was forfeited.

Threatens the Warden's Life.

BOSTON, Nov. 21.—A postal card has been received by Warden Bridges of the Massachusetts state prison, which bore a message, in vile and strong language, to the effect that if the warden did not release the prisoners in the "block" (the solitary cells where the desperate criminals are confined) the writer would run a knife through his heart. The message was signed "Vengeance." Warden Bridges said to-day that, although he did not know who made the threat on his life, he has his suspicions.

Madage Doree Penniless.

LONDON, Nov. 21.—The actress Madage Doree, against whom a summons was issued at the instance of employes at the Opera Comique theatre, for wages, appeared by counsel in the Bow street police court yesterday. She admitted the claims and said she was perfectly willing to pay these debts when she could. At present she was penniless and living in furnished rooms.

War Against Vivisection.

BOSTON, Nov. 21.—President Angell, of the society for the prevention of cruelty to animals, has begun a war upon the practice of vivisection in the public schools of the state, and offers a reward of $50 for evidence which shall enable the society to convict the teacher of any high school in Massachusetts for dissecting an animal before the school.

Great Lakes Are High Seas.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—The supreme court of the United States has just decided that the great lakes of the United States and their connecting waters were included in the term "high seas," as used in the statutes, providing punishment for crimes committed thereon.

New Place for Rev. Dr. Hodge.

PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 21.—The Rev. E. B. Hodge, of Burlington, has accepted the appointment of secretary to the Presbyterian board of education. He is a graduate of Princeton Theological Seminary, class '61.

Uncle Sam's Great Printing Office.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—It is possible that the government will hereafter do its own printing of postal cards and postage stamps. The bureau of engraving and printing has asked for permission to make a bid for the work.

Gen. Rusk Much Better.

VIROQUA, Wis., Nov. 21.—There was a decided change for the better in Gen. Rusk's condition last night, and it is now believed the crisis has been passed.

Treasury Balance Increasing.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—The net treasury balance increased about $400,000 yesterday, standing at $97,000,000 at the close of business.

2,000 Miners Resume Work.

DUBOIS, Pa., Nov. 21.—The miners of this district have accepted a 10 per cent. reduction in wages. Two thousand men return to work.

B. & O.'s Loss Less Than $1,000.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 21.—The Baltimore & Ohio railroad company's loss through the Chicago ticket swindle will be less than $1,000.

DEMOCRATIC PRIMARIES.

The Democratic electors of the City of Plainfield will meet at the following places Thursday evening, Nov. 23, at 8 o'clock, to elect delegates to the City Convention to be held at the Democratic Headquarters Friday evening, Nov. 24, at 8 o'clock, to nominate candidates for the city offices. Each ward will elect delegates to the convention as follows:

First ward, 5 delegates, Hoagland's office.
Second ward, 5 delegates, Bryant School.
Third ward, 3 delegates, Blair's stable, Sixth street.
Fourth ward, 8 delegates, Democratic Headquarters, Front street.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—This evening an old-fashioned supper will be given in Vincent chapel.

—The residents of Washingtonville will enjoy a lecture in the chapel this evening.

—John Morecraft, drunk and disorderly, was fined $5 in the City Court this morning.

—A Scotch sociable will be held in the First Presbyterian church Thursday evening.

—Wm. J. Conroy is laying a new stone walk and curb in front of his Linden avenue property.

—The Christian Endeavor society of Warren chapel will hold their regular meeting this evening at 8.

—The Christian Endeavor society of the First Baptist church will hold their first sociable Thursday evening.

—"The Serpent of Brass" will be the subject of the Rev. Mr. Crane's address to men in the Y. M. C. A. rooms tonight.

—Charles J. Wilson, of the Bound Brook Democrat, is negotiating for a cylinder press at the Scott Press Works.

—Unity Lodge, No. 102, K. of P., will meet tomorrow evening. All members are urged to attend, as business of importance is to be transacted.

—Ex-Mayor J. H. Cooley is adding to the borough improvements by laying a stone walk on the Manning avenue side of his Westervelt avenue property.

—Watchung Lodge, No. 167, met Saturday evening in Red Men's Hall, and decided to hold an open meeting the evening of November 29, when entertainment will be provided.

—Sullivan, the Trenton contractor, who put up the iron balcony on Hotel Grenada, sent two men today to straighten up and strengthen the veranda over the main entrance to the hotel.

—A colt attached to a sulky, belonging to Ellis Campbell, became frightened at a piece of paper, this morning, on Park avenue. The harness was broken, also the sulky. The latter was taken to Homan's, on Somerset street.

—It is likely that a third marshal will soon be put on duty in the borough. Private subscriptions are being taken by residents of Washington Park for this purpose, and it is probable that James Lue, who was rejected recently, will be the man.

—Daniel F. Dugan is building three houses on the northeasterly side of La-Grande avenue near Richmond street. They will cost $1,500 each. They will be ready for occupancy March 1. Herman Hanson has the carpenter work and Jacob M. Higgins the mason work.

—Contractor M. Udhal has begun the work of opening Fairview avenue to Broadway. This will open up two fine thoroughfares, 60 feet wide, from Grandview avenue east to Jackson avenue. One street will go through the property recently bought by A. D. Thompson.

—C. Schepflin & Co. have on hand a great variety of men's square-cut suits, at $7 50 and upwards. Ulsters in two grades are sold at the same price. Most of the motormen and conductors on the street railway are now equipped with goods from Schepflin & Co.

—Manager Allen of the North Plainfield stage route was boisterous in a West Front street saloon this afternoon, and the proprietor put him out. Officer Kiely arrested him and had hard work to get his prisoner to the station house. Inside the jail Allen fought with the officer, but he was finally subdued and consigned to a cell.

—Chief Marshal Pangborn has a very handsome gold badge with the words "Chief Marshal" thereon. Modesty has prevented him from wearing it. Now that the force has been increased, it would be a good idea for him to don the gold. A fine new police coat has been ordered from Colyer's, Newark, and will soon be worn by the chief.

This Paper Way Off.

(From The New Brunswick Home News.)

By actual count there are ten candidates for the position of City Clerk in Plainfield. That's nothing. If there was likely to be a vacancy in the same office in this city there would be ten times ten candidates, but here the man with the biggest pull would get the job, while in Plainfield the lucky fellow has to be a high duke in some secret society.

20 Days for Begging.

Thomas McCarty, a tramp, was caught soliciting alms in the borough last evening, and arrested by Chief Marshal Pangborn. This morning at 6:30 Justice Crosley sentenced him to 20 days in jail. He was taken to Somerville by the chief later in the morning.

The First of That Kind.

Malcolm Barnes, youngest son of B. T. Barnes, discovered a sufficient amount of ice this morning, in Hyde's grounds, to enjoy what is probably the first skating of the season.

PLAINFIELD RAMBLERS IN ROME.

It Was a Glorious Trip, or the People Wouldn't Have Stayed Through the Cold.

To the young student as well as to the scholar of more mature mind, "Ramblings in Rome", Mr. Ragan's second lecture, was last night a splendid entertainment. It was in striking contrast to the first lecture in the course. That showed the art of the present age, with its substantial business application at Chicago; "Ramblings in Rome" told of the wonders of art and architecture modeled before Christ was born. To the man of the age, Chicago's art productions may be, undoubtedly are, thought to be beyond compare; to the real artist mind and heart, a glimpse of Rome's treasures shows the true art.

Mr. Ragan's illustrations of the gigantic Roman structures and the gems of artistic merit were extremely grand and beautiful. The views of Rome's most notable and priceless legacies of ancient art were thrown on canvas without a defect, and seemed to stand out with startling realness. Notable among these were "The Marble Faun", "The Dying Gladiator", Michael Angelo's "Moses", "The Apollo Belvedere", "The Famous Torso", "The Laocoon" and "The Sleeping Ariadne".

Among the most beautiful of the "vast, dim and solemn" views were "The Capitol", "The Forum", "Arch of Titus", "The Coliseum", "On the Palatine", "The Pantheon", "Arch of Constantine", "The Vatican by Night", "The World's Cathedral", and "The Catacombs".

The reproduction of these upon canvas resulted in appreciative applause. The descriptive powers of Mr. Ragan were never better tested, and many who feared a "dry" lecture were very agreeably surprised. The lecturer has a way of dealing with instructive subjects that is intensely interesting to his audiences, and he was in a particularly happy mood last night.

The opera house was as cold as a skating pond, and at Mr. Ragan's suggestion the gentlemen in the audience covered their heads with their hats, and buried their cheeks in their coat collars. The ladies also nestled among their furs, if they were lucky enough to have any, or shivered when not so favored. Unknown to the management, workmen repairing the hall had neglected to close several windows, and while the janitor was piling Lehigh into the furnaces Jack Frost and his elves trooped through the undiscovered apertures. Those who attend the next lecture Saturday night may safely take fans with them, for the hall will be warm enough to suit a spring poet. Besides, they'll be in Spain.

TUMBLE AFTER A RACE.

Runkle Could Beat Young Fisk, But a Butcher Wagon Got in the Way.

Charles Fisk, Jr., and Daniel Runkle, were out horseback riding yesterday afternoon. They had turned from Watchung avenue into Seventh street, and were going home. A spirt of friendly rivalry prompted them to race along Seventh street.

When Park avenue was reached, young Runkle was ahead, and still going at a lively gait. Just then one of Smalley's butcher wagons came along Park avenue. A collision was inevitable, and the horse plunged into the wagon, throwing its rider on the hard pavement, inflicting several cuts on his head. The other boy was far enough behind to change his course and not come in collision with the others. The man driving the wagon was thrown out, but not severely hurt. Young Runkle was taken home in a carriage, and it was found that his injuries were not serious.

AT REPUBLICAN EXPENSE.

Oyster Jollification by the Fourth Ward Club.

The Republicans of the Fourth ward had an oyster supper last night, in Reform Hall, at which time it was expected that the Republican candidates recently elected would be present to make addresses. The new officials were not there, however.

The Plainfield Cornet Band was present, and discoursed lively music all the evening.

Winfield S. Angleman was chairman of the meeting, and introduced as speakers Mayor Gilbert, Councilmen F. E. Marsh and Charles Fisk, whose remarks were cheered to the echo.

Afterwards a bountiful supply of oysters was served to the large gathering. Those coming in late unfortunately got left, as some of the hungry mob present were served several times.

From the hungry man's point of view, it was a success.

Gratifying Results.

At the prayer meeting of the Young People's C. E. Society of the Trinity Reformed church, last evening, the leader, President F. E. Smith, had the joyful experience of seeing three persons arise, as an evidence that they desired to commence living the Christian life.

No Damage.

The team of horses belonging to T. B. Penton, of North Plainfield, was left standing for a few minutes on Somerset street, last evening, and took a notion to run for a lark. The horses were caught before going very far.

COLLISION ON THE TRACK.

Milkman Randolph's Expensive Experience with an Electric Car.

An accident on the street railway occurred this morning at 6:45, at the corner of Front street and Central avenue.

L. C. Randolph's Woodlawn Dairy wagon, in charge of Herbert Randolph, was delivering milk on Front street. The last place stopped at was the residence of Jeremiah F. Garretson. Leaving there, he drove towards Central avenue; on reaching this street he attempted to turn, intending to go down the avenue.

Not very far behind was electric car No. 3, in charge of motorman Martin. The latter had no idea that Randolph was going to turn, but just the same rang his bell several times to warn him of his approach. The doors in the wagon being closed, it is supposed he did not hear the bell, and a collision resulted. The wagon was upset, breaking the glass in the doors, also wrecking the rear wheels and bending the axle. Randolph escaped through one of the windows, and cut his left wrist considerably. About 100 quarts of milk was spilled.

The wagon was a brand-new one, and the damage is keenly felt by the owner. The horse was not injured.

A man named Jackson was on the car, and he says that the milkman was to blame, while Randolph claims that the motorman was in the wrong.

Harry Martin is an experienced man, and this is the first accident he ever had. He says he reversed his motor as quickly as possible.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Hiram Hornish is confined to his rooms on North avenue with illness.

Mrs. W. J. Greenough of Philadelphia is visiting Charles Matthews of Grove street.

Letter-Carrier E. T. Hann returned to work this morning after a fifteen-days vacation.

Alfred Obitz, of Somerset street, arrived home yesterday after a week with friends in Brooklyn.

Joseph W. Reinhart, of Netherwood, will sail this week for Europe. He will be absent about a month.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ackerman have returned from a visit to Mrs. Ackerman's home in Cumberland, Md.

Mrs. C. W. Smith of Duer street arrived home yesterday, after spending the past week with friends in Brooklyn.

J. Smith Garretson and family, of Third street and Central avenue, have removed to their new house on Lafayette place.

The Chrysanthemum Circle will go to Coombs's Hotel, at Westfield, tomorrow evening, and hold a dance, followed by a supper.

Mrs. Edla Keeley, of Newark, returned to her home yesterday after a pleasant visit with her mother, Mrs. John Smalley, on Maple avenue.

Edward Randolph has returned from Boonton, where he has a position as drug clerk. His health is very poor, and he will receive treatment while here.

Mrs. David McMurtrie of Sycamore avenue left town this morning for Norfolk, Va., to visit her daughter, Mrs. J. E. Ryal. She will be gone about two weeks.

Miss C. S. Graham of Ridgefield, Conn., who has been visiting Miss Ida Musgrave, of Mercer avenue, left town yesterday for Boston, where she will make her future home.

Mrs. David McMurtrie, of 19 Sycamore avenue, left today by the Pennsylvania railroad for Norfolk, Va., the home of her daughter. She will remain there about two weeks, after which New York city will be the residence of herself and husband. She will be missed by a large circle of friends and acquaintances.

FROM JAIL TO HOSPITAL.

Policemen Sympathize With Their Prisoner's Condition.

Rose Jackson, colored, who was locked up in the station-house in default of bail to await the action of the Grand Jury, was removed to Muhlenberg Hospital last night on account of illness. Rose was locked up yesterday charged with robbing her employers and was held in $100 bail by Justice Nash. Last night she was taken with a fainting fit in her cell and the physicians had some work to bring her around.

She was removed to the hospital by permission of Justice Nash. The woman is not dangerously ill, and her indisposition was probably brought on by fright. The sympathy of the police has been excited by the woman's condition.

Has to Have a New Safe.

Superintendent Pepper, of the Prudential Insurance Company has satisfied himself by experiment that advertising pays. He is a man of energy and advanced ideas and by extremely judicious management has built up his business in Plainfield to such extent that the accommodations that were quite sufficient for his valuable papers a short time ago have become inadequate. He has treated himself to a new and commodious safe and will shortly make other additions in the line of accommodation for increased business.

Two Years for a Thieving Servant.

Alice Robinson, the Plainfield colored girl who stole from her employer, was sentenced to the State Prison yesterday for two years. Judge McCormick commented at some length on the alarming frequency of robbery by servant girls, and as the prisoner had been convicted before, an example was made in her case, which may deter others from commission of similar crimes.

The American Catarrh Cure

Is the result of twenty-six years' study and treatment of the disease. One bottle convinces the most skeptical. It is always ready for use, needing neither douche nor atomizer. It restores the hearing, cures the hawking cough and expectorating, removes the headache and nose bleeding, increases the appetite, produces sound sleep, invigorates the whole system and increases the vitality. Prepared only by W. B. Jones, M. D., No. 1336 South Eighth street, Philadelphia. For sale by J. W. Randolph, 21 West Front street. Price $1.

EX-SECRETARY RUSK DEAD.

(Special to The Press.)

VIROQUA, Wis., Nov. 21.—Jeremiah M. Rusk, ex-Secretary of Agriculture, died here at 8 o'clock this morning.

With Ely's Cream Balm a child can be treated without pain and with perfect safety. It cures catarrh, hay fever and colds in the head. It is easily applied into the nostrils and gives immediate relief. Price 50 cents.

My catarrh was very bad; for 30 years I have been troubled with it—have tried a number of remedies without relief. A druggist advised Ely's Cream Balm. I have used only one bottle and I can say I feel like a new man. I make this voluntary statement that others may know of the Balm.—J. W. Mathewson, lawyer, Pawtucket, R. I.

CENTRAL MEN STIRRED UP.

Rumor About Lehigh Freight Precipitates a Secret Meeting.

A secret summons was issued last night to men all along the line of the Jersey Central to attend a meeting in Easton at 10:30 last night to consider the advisability of a sympathetic strike.

The Central employes had got word that an effort was to be made to get Lehigh freight over Jersey Central lines, and that Supt. Olhausen's contrary statement was a bluff.

They immediately prepared to oppose such action, and said that if the Central officials attempt to help the Lehigh they would tie up the road.

A visit to South Plainfield, where the Lehigh Valley runs, shows that systematic work has been accomplished. The coal handlers hurried all day yesterday to get all coal dumped from standing cars, shipped before the strike, at the big storage grounds.

This is so that the coal may not be pushed through to tidewater. The empty cars are left blocking the tracks. Between South Plainfield and Bound Brook coal trains are stalled all along three tracks. The trains were placed by the strikers so as to blockade the tracks, and the locomotives were run on to Amboy and abandoned there. One track remained open.

This afternoon the situation on the Lehigh Valley Railroad remains about the same. If anything, it is a little worse, as yesterday eight passenger trains and one freight train were run over the road, and up to 12 noon today no trains were run through or from South Plainfield, except mail trains, which the strikers did not stop.

A representative of The Press visited South Plainfield and learned that everything was practically at a standstill, and those still employed by the company at that place had little or nothing to do. At Fitzgerald's Hotel a group of men were talking of the strike. Two or three of them were among the strikers. They were very loud in their abuse of the company.

When one of them was asked what the trouble was, he replied:

"I do n't know why we stopped, but I am out just the same, and I won't go back till it's settled."

This seems to be the general answer given.

At Perth Amboy most of the men have congregated and meetings are being held at intervals. It is claimed that there are about 500 men out at this place.

This morning the Superintendent of the road telegraphed from South Plainfield to Jersey City for his engine and private car, but no news of its arrival had been heard. He had nothing to say of the state of affairs. Trainmaster Broadhead also came down, but did not converse with anyone.

It is reported that a train was stopped this morning at South Plainfield, and held there.

From what can be learned, things are far from being settled, and both sides seem determined to hold out.

General Superintendent Olhausen of the New Jersey Central Railroad was seen by a reporter this morning in Jersey City. He was averse to speaking of the possibility of the Central's being involved in the trouble on the Lehigh, but finally made the following statement:

"I do not know anything about any delayed freight. I have not been asked to move any, and if everything is tied up on the Lehigh Valley, as is stated in the newspapers, then it is not likely that any will be offered." He denied the statement that he had ordered five switches to be spiked in the yard at Phillipsburg.

Deadlock Over Kyte's Vacancy.

The new Sheriff, George Kyte, Republican, of Fanwood, resigned as a member of the Freeholders. The Democrats refused to fill the vacancy with a Republican, thereby causing a deadlock in the board.

The candidates are Dr. Francis Westcott, Republican, and George C. Miller, Democrat, both of Fanwood. The township is largely Republican, and there is considerable feeling owing to the action of the Democrats. Indeed, Director Sauer as a rebuke to the partisans of his own party, appointed three Republicans on committees where there were vacancies, thereby causing a howl among his fellow-Democrats.

Experience The Best Teacher.

The great value of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy in curing diseases of the Blood, particularly the ills of women, has again been demonstrated. Mrs. W. J. Anderson, of Bruyn St., Kingston, N. Y., in speaking of her experience says: "I was an awful sufferer from troubles common to my sex, was reduced to 70 lbs, four physicians prescribed for me but I kept growing worse. Until I began the use of Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy I never knew a well day. By its use I grew stronger, the pain less frequent, until it entirley disappeared. I now weigh 125 lbs, and am a well woman. I must know a dozen women who suffered similarly and have been cured by its use."

Favorite Remedy affords great protection from attacks that originate in change of life. Daughters would not grow up sickly if they would use this woman's helper, Favorite Remedy.

Conversions in Grace.

Last night in Grace M. E. church, Park place, an address was made by C. S. Ryman, D. D., Presiding Elder of the Elizabeth District. It was a meeting for men only. The attendance was good and the address stirring. Two men took the first step and kneeled at the altar, asking for pardon of their sins. The meetings will be continued every night this week.

Music Hall's Next Attraction.

Music Hall's manager has a strong attraction to offer Thursday night of this week, the attraction being Lacy & Blanchard's "The Oath". Special scenery and mechanical effects are carried by the company, and the numerous places where the play has been presented are loud in their praises of the merits of the play.

THOSE SLOW PHILADELPHIANS.

Plainfield Suburbanites Get a Spray of Quaker City Wit.

The other evening at a fashionable boarding house, not a thousand miles from Fanwood, a bright, sharp, typical New Yorker met a lady lately from Philadelphia. In conversation he immediately commenced in the customary way to ridicule the Quaker City, and compared it to New York much to Philadelphia's disadvantage.

He did not confine his remarks to generalities, but, warming to his subject, finally became personal to an extreme.

The lady from Philadelphia, while somewhat surprised at the remarks from a new acquaintance, maintained her evenness of temper to the end, and then replied with true quakerlike simplicity "Well, there is one point in which the Philadelphians are superior to the New Yorkers of which you are a type."

"In what way?"—asked her companion.

"In politeness"—replied the lady, and there was a deep, dense silence.

While hustling up Chestnut street, Philadelphia, a day or two ago, another spry New Yorker was surprised to find his progress impeded by a crowd in front of the Continental Hotel. Pushing through to the lines maintained by the sturdy reserves, he beheld a man sitting on the opposite curb lighting a cigar.

"What's the matter with that fellow?"—queried our rapid friend.

"He just fell off the roof of the hotel"—drawled an officer.

"Did n't it hurt him?"—ejaculated the New Yorker.

"Oh, no!"—yawned the officer—"He is a Philadelphian, and he fell slow."

IT 'S A REPUBLICAN.

A. D. Shepard Elected to Fill the Vacancy Caused By George Kyte's Resignation.

After all the controversy last night to fill the vacancy in the Township Committee of Fanwood, vice George Kyte resigned, Chairman Miller proposed the names of several Republicans.

Mr. Terry objected to each and every name, and then Mr. Miller nominated Democrats. Mr. Terry came back with Republican names. After five ballots were taken Mr. Miller nominated A. D. Shepard, and Mr. Terry promptly endorsed it. Mr. Miller then moved that a committee of two to apprise Mr. Shepard of his election.

Mr. Terry demurred, and Mr. Miller as a committee of one, accompanied by A. D. Beecken and John Stevens, (two Democrats and a Mugwump), went in search of Mr. Shepard. The committee adjourned for a report from the Advisory Committee which returned at 10 and, as announced by Mr. Miller, Mr. Shepard accepted. The meeting immediately adjourned.

CHARITIES OF NEW JERSEY.

Board Representing Them Studying the Methods of Boston.

The members of the Board of Managers of the State Charities and Aids Association of New Jersey are staying at the Parker House, Boston.

The members of the party are: Major Z. K. Pangborn, editor of The Evening Journal, Jersey City; Thomas M. Gopsill, J. C. Pumpelly, H. P. Reynolds, of Plainfield, and Mrs. Benjamin Williamson, secretary of the association.

Dr. Jenks, Chairman of the Board of Public Institutions in Boston, has the visiting party in charge. They will visit the reformatory institutions and inquire into the laws of Massachusetts regarding the probation system of prisoners.

They have come to Boston at the request of the Governor of New Jersey.

So said the Boston Herald of last Saturday. But today Mr. Reynolds is home, with the report that in the matter or intelligent almsgiving Boston is far ahead of New Jersey.

In the Justices' Courts.

Justice Mosher this morning made out an attachment on goods belonging to Caroline Brett, the complainant in the case being William G. Brett, son of the defendant. The goods are stored at Carey's.

Summonses were issued this morning by Justice Nash in the cases of Laire and others against Burnett, and Royce against Jahn, on contract. Both cases are returnable Nov. 28.

Not Much Out of the Way.

John A. Banner employed Peter Smith to replace several window lights around his place. Smith measured the vacant spaces carefully, and found one to measure 16x18. Procuring the glass, he quickly returned, and, fitting the panes to the sash, found all O. K. except the 16x18. This pane he found he had cut 17 inches too large.

Republican Primaries Tonight.

Republican primaries, to elect delegates to the coming city convention, will be held tonight at 8, as follows:

First ward—Association rooms, 120 East Front street.
Second ward—Bryant school.
Third ward—Casino.
Fourth ward—326 West Front street.

Pierce Guarantees a Cure.

Keiser, N. C.

DR. R. V. PIERCE: Dear Sir—When about three years old I was taken with mumps, also had fever, finally I had that dreaded disease Scrofula. The most eminent physicians in this section treated me for no avail. I had running scrofulous sores on left side of neck and face. I was small and weakly when eight or nine years old, and in fact was nearly a skeleton. Six bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery wrought marvelous changes. Although the sores were healed in eight months, I did not quit taking it until I was sure it had been entirely routed from my system. The only signs left of the dreadful disease are the scars which ever remind me of how near death's door I was until rescued by the "Discovery." I am now eighteen years old and weigh 148 pounds; and have not been sick in five years.

Yours respectfully,
HARVEY M. HOLLEMAN.

H. M. HOLLEMAN,
Agt. for Seaboard Air Line.

IN FAVOR OF LINDEN PARK.

The Higher Court Reverses the Decision in Union County.

TRENTON, Nov. 20—The Court of Errors and Appeals met this morning and rendered a verbal decision by Chief-Justice Beasley in the case of the Linden Park Blood-Horse Association. It was convicted in the Union County Courts of keeping a disorderly house in permitting betting on the track. The opinion of the Chief-Justice sets aside the conviction on the ground that gaming is not specifically set out in the indictment. The entire Court concurred in the decision.

ELIZABETH, Nov. 20—The action of the Court of Appeals in reversing the verdict rendered in the Union County Court has occasioned little surprise or comment among the lawyers. The case was tried at the October term in 1890, on an indictment found by the Grand Jury, acting under instructions from Judge VanSyckel, who is bitterly opposed to the race-tracks. When the evidence was all submitted to the petit jury it had no alternative but to convict. Judge VanSyckel, in his charge, distinctly informed the jury that it must bring in a verdict according to the law against the Linden Park Blood-Horse Association, and they obeyed. Then the counsel for the club, James R. English, served notice that he would appeal.

TO HAVE A CLUB-HOUSE.

Permanent Headquarters Planned for Fourth Ward Republicans.

At the meeting of the Republican in Reform Hall, last evening, the subject of organizing a permanent club in the Fourth ward was discussed in a quiet way.

William Ayers, of New street, claims to be the originator of the scheme.

The idea is to purchase suitable grounds and erect a club-house, 60x100, and to furnish it with bowling alleys, reading rooms, and everything which would make the place attractive. No pool or billiard tables would be put in, but other games would be substituted.

Several persons signed the paper which was circulated last evening, signifying their desire to help form and operate such an organization.

FIRE ON PEACE STREET.

Baltimore Heater Sets the Wooden Mantel Ablaze.

Fire-alarm box No. 12 called out the department this morning shortly after 8.

The fire was in the house occupied by Emory Robinson and family, on Watchung avenue.

The Baltimore heater, which is situated in the parlor, directly under the mantel, had set fire to the woodwork.

The fire was soon extinguished, and the loss is slight.

Only the Moon Lights Them Now.

The Rev. W. E. Honeyman complained to the Borough Council, Friday evening, that the electric light in front of his house on Somerset street had been out for a whole week. That is little, compared with the lights on Stone street. They have not cast a glimmer for the past two weeks, and the patient residents have ceased to complain. It is to be hoped that the Edison Electric Light Company of North Plainfield will wake up before the next change of the moon.

Bullet Branches for Gavels.

Wm. Boe, who has just returned from the battlefield of Chattanoogs, Tenn., brought with him two branches of trees into which bullets had been shot. Mr. Boe intends to have the branches turned into gavels. One he will probably donate for the benefit of the forthcoming fair, and the other he will keep himself.

Coal Heavers Ran the Train.

Over fifty passengers were waiting at one time on the South Plainfield platform of the Lehigh Valley Railroad, yesterday, waiting for transportation to their destination. An eye-witness says two coal heavers were taken from the coal yards to man the locomotive, which carried the passengers as far as Metuchen.

STRANGE.

It seems strange that so many people who suffer from headache, poor vision and the general discomfort that arises from bad eyes or poorly fitted glasses, will go on and ultimately ruin their eyes when such a noted firm of Eye Specialists as Leech, Stiles & Co. of Philadelphia, send their Eye Specialist to this City at regular intervals. The date of the next visit is published in another column. The examination is free and the lenses used are of the best quality only.

Skating Pond at Last.

Contractor John Emmons began this morning to build a 12-inch bank around the tennis court of the Park Club. The court is to be flooded and used as a skating pond the coming winter.

Clothing Cutters Resume Work.

Nearly all of the cutters at the Schepflin & Co. firm on West Front street went to work again Monday morning. Others will follow, and soon the entire force will again be working.

Mechanical Devices Sometimes Fail.

Fire-alarm Box 13 refused to give the alarm when pulled this morning, and Box 12 was resorted to. The trouble was soon adjusted by Chief Doane and Manager Bunyon of the Telephone Company.

Jim Can Have Anything.

(From The New York World.)

J. E. Martine, of Plainfield, could have had the County Collectorship, but he declined to allow his name to be used, as his choice was ex-Sheriff Hicks.

Regeneration.

To secure a normal and regular tissue change throughout the body use BRANDRETH'S PILLS. This tissue metamorphosis consists in constantly proceeding waste of tissue and its regeneration. BRANDRETH'S PILLS are the best solvent of the products of disintegration of the tissues and increases their elasticity. They are an alterative and eliminative remedy, which allay irritation and remove obstruction by aiding nature and are of great benefit in cases of temporary and habitual constipation, torpid liver, biliousness, headache, indigestion, rheumatism and diseases arising from an impure state of the blood.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS are purely vegetable, absolutely harmless, and safe to take at any time.

LIQUOR REPEAL DEMANDED.

Friends in Plainfield Remonstrate Legislature on Two Subjects.

The Half-Yearly meeting of the Society of Friends, held Nov. 16 in the old meeting-house on Watchung aveuve, memorialized the Legislature as follows:

TO THE SENATE AND ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF NEW JERSEY:—The Temperance Committee of the Shrewsbury and Plainfield Half-Yearly meeting of the Religious Society of Friends records its deep conviction against the great evil of the liquor license system, and hereby asks for the repeal of all liquor license, laws and for the legal prohibition of the manufacture and sale of all intoxicating liquors for drinking purposes.

The following additional petition was also adopted:

TO THE SENATE AND ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF NEW JERSEY:—The Shrewsbury and Plainfield Half-Yearly Meeting Temperance Committee respectfully and earnestly ask that you will provide by appropriate legislation, for the introduction in the public schools of this State of scientific instruction concerning the effects of alcohol and narcotics upon the human system.

THREE CHORAL CONCERTS.

"Holy City", "Phœnix" and Part Songs to Be Rendered This Season.

Rehearsals of the Choral Society are held every Monday evening. The society has a larger and better chorus than ever before, and is doing the finest work in its history. The first concert will be given Dec 21, when "The Holy City", by Alfred R. Gaul, will be sung as well as a new work by G. W. Chadwick, entitled "Phœnix Expirans".

The second concert will be given March 8, and part songs will be selected.

At the third concert, May 10, some new composition will be produced, probably "The Song of the Viking" by Whiting.

The selection of seats will be made in December. There is still an opportunity for any wishing to become subscribing members. George T. Rogers, treasurer, of 99 Rockview avenue, will receive applications.

The Deserted Mother.

I was walking through Central park when I observed a young woman who was wildly caressing a baby and weeping as if her heart were breaking. The child was rather daintily dressed, and the clothes of the young woman were of good material and well made. Struck by the tempestuous grief of the woman, I approached her and asked:

"What is the matter, young lady? Are you in trouble?"

She lifted a rather pretty face, from which a veil had been cast back, and then she brokenly sobbed:

"I can't do it—I can't! It will kill me!"

"What is it you cannot do?"

The question seemed to bring her to her senses, for she started away fearfully, exclaiming:

"You are not an officer? You won't arrest me? Oh, I know it was wicked for me to think of such a terrible thing—wicked, wicked! But what can I do? I have pawned everything of value I possess, and now we shall both starve to death! Why did he leave me like this! I was married to him a little more than a year ago. He had work then, and he could support us. We were so happy when baby came! Then he lost his work and could get no more. He took to drink and grew desperate. Three weeks ago, he went away and left us, saying he would never come back. And I did love him!"

Her grief was genuine. I could not doubt it. "My poor girl!" I said, choking in my throat and my eyes full of tears.

"When he was gone, I gave all my love to the child," she went on as she clung to the babe convulsively. "But we could not live on nothing in this great city. Were I alone, I could do something to earn a living, for I am not afraid of work, but I cannot leave my baby. Today I read in a paper how a woman had abandoned her child to the care of a stranger and disappeared. Then I made a resolve, although it nearly killed me to think of it. I came here to watch for some kind faced stranger to whom I would intrust my baby. I had invented a good story, but I could not do it, it was so horrible! If a stranger took my child, I would not know what became of it—I would never see it again! The thought broke my heart! Oh, my baby!"

"Would you give up your child to a kind lady who has none of her own and who would treat it as a mother should? You might come and see it sometimes."

She was sitting on one of the park benches, but she half started to her feet, then sunk back.

"Do you know such a woman? Will you get her to take my child?" hoarsely she asked.

"I know her, and I will get her to take your child."

"Thank God!"

Her head fell forward over the unconscious child in her lap, and she did not move. I touched her on the shoulder. She had fainted dead away, with her lips against the cheek of the sleeping babe.

GILBERT PATTEN

An Obliging Landlord.

"Before I lease the house again, Mr. Bonds," said the tenant, "I want to know if you will put in another furnace. We were very cold last winter."

"Certainly I'll put in another furnace," returned the landlord.

"Then I'll sign the lease," said the tenant, grasping the pen and writing his name. "When shall we expect the furnace men?"

"Well, of course I can't promise that definitely. Furnace men are very uncertain," said Mr. Bonds, putting the lease in his safe. "But—ah—I assure you, it will be in and ready for use before the 1st of May."—Exchange.

DYNAMITERS ACTIVE IN SPAIN.

Attempt to Blow Up the Office of a Mayor.

MADRID, Nov. 21.—A despatch from Valencia says that great excitement has been caused at Torrente, six miles from Valencia, and in Valencia itself, by an attempt to blow up the office of the mayor of Torrente. There is no clue to the authors of the outrage. Two bombs exploded in the office, but the damage was slight. How the bombs got into the office is unknown, as, since the Barcelona and Marseilles outrages, a close watch has been kept on all strangers entering public buildings. The bombs did not explode simultaneously. When the first explosion occurred those in the office made a rush for the doors. Before all were out of the place the second bomb went off, causing a genuine panic. The officials, clerks and others refused for some time to go back into the office, believing that other bombs were hidden there. It was not until the police had made a thorough search of the building that work was resumed.

The police at Barcelona and elsewhere are still conducting an active search for anarchists. In making a house-to-house visit the police at Huerta, a short distance from Barcelona, came across a bomb manufactory. The occupants of the place had fled in haste, probably having received warning of the coming of the police. Six bombs loaded with dynamite were found, and also the shell of another containing no dynamite. Every effort is being made to locate the people who occupied the lodgings, but thus far without success.

New Postmasters.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—Among the latest appointments of fourth-class postmasters are the following:

New York—Dalton, E. Y. Baker; Lincklaen Centre, Mrs. Abbie H. Hall; Purdy Creek, Scott Van Buskirk; Durbin, W. H. Moylan.

Pennsylvania—Allport, John Levi; Catfish, Matthew Tighe; Glen Richey, J. A. Milligan; Grand Tunnel, Mrs. Margaret Weiss; Lamont, J. I. Williams; Linden Hall, Mrs. Fannie L. Keller; Olanta, J. M. Peoples; Rose Bud, A. J. Harbor; Stanley, George Kriner; Troutville, Geo. W. Knarr; Windburne, Burton Merritt.

Lace Strike Ended.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Nov. 21.—The strike in the Wilkesbarre lace mill, one of the largest in the United States, which has lasted for some months, is ended. The large force of Germans employed there will return to work. The Nottingham men will not be taken back by the company. Those who will return have accepted the reduction of twenty per cent. with the understanding that full wages will be paid as soon as the market can be found for the goods manufactured here.

Mexican Revolutionists.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—Despite professions to the contrary, the Mexican government is expressing serious concern over the new revolutionary movement inaugurated in Texas, and within the past few days two despatches from his government have been presented at the state department by Minister Romero regarding the formation of hostile bands on the American side of the Rio Grande, ostensibly with the intention of crossing into Mexico.

Mello and Monarchy.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—Several cablegrams have been received at the department of state from Minister Thompson at Rio, Brazil, within the past few days in regard to the situation there. The text is not given out for publication, but it is understood that they are remarkable for an entire absence of all reference to Admiral Mello's alleged proclamation of the restoration of the monarchy.

Linden's Race Track Case.

TRENTON, N. J., Nov. 21.—When the Linden blood horse association was convicted in the Union county courts of keeping a "disorderly house," it took the case up on a writ of error to the court of errors and appeals and that court, through Chief Justice Beasley, has given a decision reversing the verdict, because "gaming" was not sufficiently charged in the indictment.

Gardner Released.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—Judge O'Brien has signed the order discharging from custody Charles W. Gardner, former chief detective of Dr. Parkhurst's society, whose conviction for extortion was reversed by the general term of the supreme court. District-Attorney Nicoll may appeal the case.

Bowdoin College.

PORTLAND, Me., Nov. 21.—Preparations are already making to fittingly celebrate the centenary of Bowdoin college, which takes place in June, 1894. Hon. Melville W. Fuller, chief justice of the United States supreme court, who is a graduate of the class of 1853, will deliver the oration.

Next Steamer for Hawaii.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—The Pacific Mail steamship China is scheduled to sail from San Francisco Tuesday for China, touching at Honolulu en route. Admiral Skerrett will probably take passage on her to China to take command of the Asiatic squadron.

Denies the Pension Story.

BUFFALO, Nov. 21.—Pension Claim Agent W. Bowen Moore, of this city, who, it is reported, is charged with having defrauded the government of $150,000, said that there was absolutely no truth in the story.

New Hampshire Railway Rates.

CONCORD, N. H., Nov. 21.—The railroad commissioners have granted a hearing to United States Senator William E. Chandler, on his petition for a reduction of fares and freights on the railroads of this state.

The Ellison Case.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—The application of Frank Ellison for a stay of proceedings pending an appeal from his conviction for an assault on broker Henriques, has been denied by Justice Barrett, of the supreme court.

Smallpox at Elizabeth.

ELIZABETH, N. J., Nov. 21.—The smallpox epidemic here has become so alarming that extreme measures have been adopted by the health authorities.

What They Say at the Nashua Home For Aged Women.

OTHER PUBLIC INSTITUTIONS ADOPTING THE SAME THING.

Foreign Missions in India and China Following the Example.

The following communication explains itself:

HOME FOR AGED WOMAN,
Nashua, N. H.

With the consent and urgent request of the matron and one vice-president, I will give the testimony of one of our inmates, Mrs. Eliza Fuller.

She was quite ill with canker in the mouth, throat and chest, her complaint at every meal being "I cannot swallow." She read in the Nashua papers of so many wonderful cures performed by Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, that she was induced to try it. She procured a bottle and the medicine cured her.

Another of our inmates was cured by Dr. Greene's medicine, and we all bless it for what it has done and have perfect confidence in the remedy for nervous and chronic diseases. M. E. SMITH.

There is certainly a wonderful confidence felt by people in Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy and its true remarkable power to cure disease.

There have recently come within our knowledge facts like the above which prove the great and wide-spread confidence of this remedy both among public and private institutions. In the first place doctors prescribe and recommend it as it is the discovery and prescription of an eminent physician. This, together with the fact of its wonderful cures, has led many dispensaries, hospitals and institutions to adopt the remedy as a stand ard medicine.

Now we learn that various foreign missions in India, China, etc., are having the remedy sent them as a part of their necessary requirements in case of disease.

Of cours all these facts give the people everywhere the greatest confidence in the medicine, and their confidence is well placed. Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy does cure. It makes the sick well. It is furthermore purely vegetable and perfectly safe to give to infants, children or the most delicate invalid. These facts make it the most popular remedy of the day, and druggists say that no remedy has ever equaled it either in its enormous sales or the complete satisfaction it gives those who purchase and use it.

Another thing of great importance is the fact that all who use it, or who desire to use it, have the privilege of consulting without charge, personally or by letter, its discoverer, Dr. Greene, of 35 West 14th street, New York, the well-known and success ful specialist in curing all forms of nervous and chronic diseases.

ASK THEM WHY?

Ask the men who are making imitations of COTTOLENE, the new vegetable shortening, why they give up lard and try to trade on the merits of COTTOLENE? Perhaps you can guess why.

ASK HIM WHY?

Ask the grocer who attempts substitution, why he tries to sell an imitation when people call for that pure, palatable and popular vegetable shortening, COTTOLENE? Perhaps you can guess.

ASK YOURSELF WHY?

Why should not YOU use COTTOLENE, instead of lard or any other compound, for all cooking purposes? It has the highest possible endorsement; from Physicians as to healthfulness; from Cooking Experts as to superiority; from housekeepers as to economy. Use COTTOLENE and stick to it.

QUIET ON THE LEHIGH

Indications To-day Point to an Extension of the Strike.

Men of the Jersey Central and Lackawanna Hold Secret Meetings in Anticipation of Trouble, Should Their Roads be Asked to Move Lehigh Freight—Only Mail Trains Running on the Tied-Up Road.

JERSEY CITY, Nov. 22.—A secret session of the engineers and firemen employed in the Central railroad of New Jersey was held last night and a resolution was unanimously adopted asking the company to refuse to allow the Lehigh Valley railroad company to run its freight cars over the Central tracks until the existing difficulty on the Lehigh Valley is adjusted.

For the Central to comply with this request would be a violation of interstate law, and it is now predicted by many that another road may be tied up before to-morrow.

Employes of the D., L. & W. also met last night in secret session and passed resolutions to stand by the Lehigh strikers. They talked over matters that would indicate that they expected to be forced to quit work for a time.

TIE-UP COMPLETE.

Trains Side-Tracked at Sayre—Men Use No Violence.

WAVERLY, N. Y., Nov. 21.—The tie-up on the Lehigh is more complete here to-day.

New accessions are continually made to the ranks of the strikers.

Last night an engine was coupled onto a baggage car that had stood in the Sayre yard nearly all day and taken to Waverly. It contained several pouches of mail. The strikers offered no opposition.

There is no prospect of any cars being moved for some time to come. The men use moral suasion only and are conducting themselves in very orderly manner. Sheriff Powell of Bradford county is at Sayre and Sheriff Conklin, of Tioga county, at Waverly, but so far their presence has not been needed.

Notices just posted about the streets of Sayre and Waverly announce in substance that the company is always willing to give patient hearing to complaints of employes or any number of them, and that appeal from the superintendent's decision may be heard by the president. The company maintains the right to employ men upon the terms agreed upon, to settle all complaints with its employes, and to discharge men for cause with right to appeal, but without reference to the action of any organization. All employes who fail to report for duty before to-day noon will be regarded as having left the company, and all such will be paid in full as soon as the pay rolls can be made up.

The employes have used no violence, the men quietly abandoned their trains as they come in. Many more men are out to-day than yesterday and very few new men are coming forward to take their places. When an occasional man is secured the strikers, in almost every instance, induce him to quit.

The men are quiet and orderly and there is an air of determination and confidence that indicates a long and bitter struggle.

The leaders of the strikers say that the combination mail and passenger trains that were moved yesterday were manned by brotherhood men that the mails might not be interfered with, but when the company picked up a crew and attempted to move a freight train they withdrew their men from all trains and traffic at once stopped.

One Freight Allowed to Move.

SOMERVILLE, N. J., Nov. 22.—Only two east bound and three west bound passenger trains have passed over the Lehigh Valley railroad through Bound Brook since last night. During the night one freight going east went through, but this was because there were cars of live stock which could not be very well delayed. The strikers seem to be willing that a certain number of passenger trains shall move each way, but they have all freight tied up tight. The Lehigh officials have applied to Sheriff G. M. Dills of Somerset county for protection to their property in this county, but this would seem to be unnecessary as there is not the slightest signs of disorder.

Idle Without Striking.

NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 22.—The Lehigh Valley railroad people have not moved a pound of freight in this city since Saturday, and they are unable to tell just when they will be able to handle any of it. The men employed in the yards in this city have not been called out for the reason that the road being tied up, no connections can be made, and there is absolutely nothing for them to do. They are still without striking.

Voorhees Appears Confident.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 22.—Acting General Manager Voorhees of the Lehigh Valley returned from Bethlehem last night. "Everything looks satisfactory," he said, "and from Mauch Chunk to New York the service is in good shape. At Buffalo things are moving and we are prepared to take decisive action to-day at Wilkesbarre and Sayre."

Only "Bob-Tail" Mail Trains.

AUBURN, N. Y., Nov. 21.—A Sabbath stillness reigns in the Lehigh yards here. The only trains moving are "bob-tail" trains, and these are made up with mail on passenger coach, to comply with the contract with the government which provides that the mails must be carried on passenger trains.

To Take Strikers Places.

GALESBURG, Ill., Nov. 22.—Parties of Chicago, Burlington & Quincy engineers are leaving here daily to take places of the Lehigh Valley strikers. There are many idle men along the Burlington system, and it is thought many more will be sent east.

QUIET AT WILKESBARRE.

Lehigh Officials, However, Act as if They Expected Trouble.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Nov. 22.—A stranger coming into Wilkesbarre over any other railroad would never suspect that a strike was in progress, a strike for the existence of one of the greatest labor unions ever organized on the Lehigh Valley system. A dead calm reigns about the stations and the yards of the company and, with the exception of a few hangers-on, who are not identified with the railroad, the property of the company is completely deserted. The conduct of the strikers in this city has been beyond reproach. Not a man belonging to the union is seen about the place, and no attention whatever is given to the few trains that are running.

In spite of this, however, the officials seem to be unreasonably nervous, and are acting as if the men were liable to precipitate a reign of terror at any moment.

This morning one of the Lehigh Valley officials, high in authority, said that under no circumstances would the Lehigh Valley officials give up to the men in this instance; that the company has always treated their men fairly, and rather than give up the company would not turn a wheel until spring.

Mail Trains Six Hours Late.

TUNKHANNOCK, Nov. 22.—Only one train came east from Geneva yesterday. The mail train was held three hours at Geneva because the strikers would not pull anything but a mail car. One coach was finally added to the mail car, and the two were pulled to Sayre, where it was three hours before an engineer could be gotten to pull the train on east. It passed through here six hours late. There will be nothing run now but mail trains, with one passenger coach, as there is a desire to avoid a conflict with United States authorities.

Will Be Prosecuted.

ROME, Nov. 22.—Notice has been given to the striking telegraph operators that all who do not resume work to-day will be dismissed. The leaders of the strike will be proceeded against legally for deserting their posts without giving notice.

THANKSGIVING DAY PARDONS.

An Old Custom of "Surprising" in Massachusetts to Be Stopped.

BOSTON, Nov. 22.—It is understood that the great event of the year at the state prison—the formal ceremony of "surprising" the two lucky life-term men who are pardoned according to custom on Thanksgiving Day, by apprising them of their good fortune before all their assembled fellow prisoners—will be done away with under the new warden. With many others who know the feelings of the convicts or who have witnessed the proceedings and its effect, Warden Bridges considers the ceremony a bit of refined cruelty.

The usual public reception and festivities at the state prison will be dispensed with this year. The pardons will be read to the two lucky convicts in private, and they will go quietly to their chosen destinations. The public will be denied the privilege of visiting, and only the prisoners will be allowed to attend the services in the chapel in the morning. This is the wish of Warden Bridges, who says that the strain of the suspense on the life men while waiting through the hours of the entertainment to hear who the chosen ones are, is terrible, and has a more than disheartening effect upon those who are not selected.

TRIED TO "STRIKE" CLEVELAND.

A Crank Wanted $25 to Buy a Horse and Wagon.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—Among the callers at the White House yesterday was a young white man, who explained to the usher that he had come to ask President Cleveland for $25 with which to purchase a horse and wagon.

He was inoffensive and made no resistance when an officer was called to conduct him to the police station. He there gave his name as John W. Kortum, and stated that he was a farmer living at Mantua, Gloucester county, N. J.

He is being held awaiting the arrival of friends. This was Kortum's third visit to the White House, his first having occurred three weeks ago. On both previous occasions he was persuaded to return to New Jersey but the third visit caused his arrest.

LYNCHED IN A COURT

The Wretch Swung to Stair-railing by a Mob.

Lynchers Urged on by a Woman, Who Supplied the Rope—A Committee From the Mob Visits the Jail Later to Make Sure That Their Victim Was Dead.

OTTUMWA, Ia., Nov. 22.—An excited and angry mob hung Fred Gustaveson on the stair-railing of Justice Truitt's court room yesterday afternoon.

Gustaveson assaulted the little 4-year-old girl of Jonas Sax about ten o'clock Monday night.

The brute was promptly arrested shortly after committing the crime and lodged in jail. Yesterday morning he was taken to the Sax house and positively identified by the little girl and a companion, who was enticed to a room with the little Sax girl, but was permitted to leave after getting inside the room. After assaulting the child Gustaveson turned her out, and with difficulty she succeeded in reaching home in a terrible condition and related her horrible experience to her parents. Her father went to police headquarters and soon after Capt. Hannon had Gustaveson behind the bars of the county jail.

At 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon Gustaveson was taken quietly to Justice Truitt's office for arraignment.

The news that the man was in Truitt's court spread with wonderful rapidity, and in less than 20 minutes a crowd of perhaps a thousand was surging around the stairway leading to the court room, trying to get at the prisoner.

The mother of the little girl succeeded in getting to the top of the stairs and from the platform in front of the court room swung a rope, and, together with her aged father, appealed to the crowd below to hang Gustaveson.

Sheriff McIntyre and Mayor Force appealed to the crowd for peace and silence but all in vain.

A number of men after a great effort succeeded in gaining admission to the court room. No sooner were they on the inside than they attempted to open the doors to admit their friends.

This precipitated a fight with the court officers which was carried on with desperate determination for several minutes. The superior numbers of the lynchers finally won the battle and as the doors were opened the mob poured into the room.

The leader of the mob seized the rope from the hands of Mrs. Sax and as the court attaches were powerless to interfere, placed it about Gustaveson's neck in a twinkling. With a yell of rage the rope was seized by a hundred hands and the quaking wretch was dragged from his chair across the floor to the door, where he was lifted over the railing until the rope had been made secure when he was let go.

He hung suspended above the pavement on the principal street of the city for fully ten minutes, the contortions of his body being extremely revolting.

Suddenly the rope parted and the body dropped to the street below, and a concerted rush was made by the spectators for its possession.

The police, however, were first to reach the prostrate figure and hastily throwing it into a farmers wagon standing nearby, drove rapidly to the jail, being followed by the mob. The lynchers again demanded the body of Gustaveson, nor would they desist when told that the man was dead. A truce was patched up by the appointment of a committee which examined the body and pronounced life extinct.

The little girl remains in a precarious condition, with the chances of life greatly against her.

Reefs of Gold.

LONDON, Nov. 22.—A dispatch from Cape Town says that although reefs of gold are visible near Buluwayo, late the headquarters of the Matabele king, Lobengula, but now in possession of the forces of the British South African Company, no prospecting is allowed. The forces at Fort Salisbury are being disbanded and the breaking up of the forces at the other forts is imminent. The remainder of the campaign against the Matabeles will be carried on by the Matabele land police force, which is now being organized.

Mello and Monarchy.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—The Herald's Montevideo cable says: "The report that Admiral Mello had proclaimed Prince Pierre d'Alcantara, son of Count d'Eu, as Emperor of Brazil, is not credited here." It is reported as a ruse of President Peixoto to injure the insurgents and secure aid from the United States. Neither is any credence placed in the report that Admiral Mello and his squadron have escaped from the harbor of Rio.

Montpelier's Water Famine.

MONTPELIER, Vt., Nov. 22.—A water famine is apparently inevitable, there having been scarcely a particle of rain since the first of October. The reservoir is at the lowest point ever reached.

MORE ABOUT HAWAII

Exact Part Played by Our Naval Forces There.

The Late Captain Wiltse Reported That the Landing of Troops Saved Life and Property—Minister Stevens, Request for Marines—Orders to Lieut. Swinburne.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—As there appears to be some doubt in the public mind, notwithstanding the very full publications already made, as to the exact part played by the United States naval forces at Honolulu when the protectorate was established by Minister Stevens, recourse has been had to the records of the navy department, and particularly to the reports made to the secretary of the navy by the late Captain Wiltse, who commanded the United States ship Boston at the time. These reports are long, and most of the facts set out have been made known to the public in the official correspondence already published.

The few of moment that have not been treated in detail relate directly to the landing of the troops and the request of Minister Stevens upon Captain Wiltse.

In a report to the department dated Jan. 16, the captain, after announcing the fact that the forces had been landed, says:

"While there has been no demonstration so far, there can be no doubt that the prompt landing of the battalion has saved life and property."

The request of Minister Stevens upon which the captain acted read as follows:

U. S. LEGATION, Jan. 16, 1893.

In view of the existing critical circumstances in Honolulu, indicating an inadequate legal force, I request you to land marines and sailors from the ship under your command for the protection of the United States legation and the United States consulate, and to secure the safety of American life and property.

JOHN L. STEVENS.

To Capt. WILTSE, U. S. N.

The order of Captain Wiltse, to Lieut. Commander Swinburne, who commanded the naval battalion on shore, reads as follows, under the same date:

"You will take command of the battalion and land in Honolulu for the purpose of protecting our legation, consulate and the lives and property of American citizens and to assist in the preservation of public order. Great prudence must be exercised by both officers and men and no action taken that is not fully warranted by the condition of affairs and by the conduct of those who may be inimical to the treaty rights of American citizens. You will inform me at the earliest practicable moment of any change in the situation."

An additional order to Swinburne dated Feb. 8, reads:

"You will take possession of the government building and the American flag will be raised from it at 9 o'clock a. m."

This last order was issued after the declaration of the United States protectorate.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—Affairs in Hawaii are left in a very interesting condition by the reports brought by the steamer Australia, particularly as viewed in the new light cast by the publication of Commissioner Blount's report. Everybody is now anxiously waiting for the arrival of the Alameda, which sailed from Honolulu last Thursday and is due at San Francisco to-morrow. As this vessel will bring advices five days later than those brought by the Australia, it has been assumed that they will be more significant and important as indicating more clearly the policy to be pursued by Minister Willis. But there are what may be regarded as good reasons for the belief that the curiosity of the public is again to be disappointed. It is doubtful whether the islanders, at the date of sailing of the Alameda, had received the news contained in Secretary Gresham's letter.

TARIFF BILLS WERE MISSING.

For a Time the Committee Was Greatly Excited.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—There was quite an excitement yesterday afternoon in the ways and means committee room. Two copies of the newly prepared tariff bills were found to be missing when the committee met for the afternoon session. The member who was responsible for the loss confessed that he had carried them over to the pie counter of the senate restaurant and laid them by his plate while he swallowed his noon-day repast. He supposed that he had forgotten them and hurried back to the senate wing of the capitol, but the bills had disappeared.

One of the members of the committee suggested that they had probably fallen into the hands of the newspaper men and that the entire bill, so far as outlined, would appear in all of the morning papers.

This remark caused great consternation.

A hurried search of the committee room, in which all the members participated, followed. When the excitement was at its height the copies were found where a waggish member of the committee, who had taken them from the pie counter, had hidden them, and quiet was again restored.

Will Not Visit Rome.

ROME, Nov. 22.—The Papal Nuncio at Vienna assures the Vatican that there is no truth in the statement that Archduke Franz Ferdinand, the heir presumptive of the Austrian throne, will soon make a visit to Rome.

Jews Going to Argentine.

ODESSA, Nov. 22.—The emigration committee is giving assistance to Hebrews who are making preparations to leave Russia by the wholesale for the Argentine republic in the spring.

Directum Wins the Race.

FLEETWOOD PARK, N. Y., Nov. 22.—The great match race between Directum and Alix for a $5,000 purse was won here yesterday afternoon by the former in three straight heats.

RESULTS OF HURRY AND WORRY.

The Many Troubles that Come From Overworking and Overcrowding—Common Causes and the Best Remedy.

Hurry and worry, overcrowding and over feeding combine to make indigestion and intestinal disorders far too common. The most suffering comes upon the hardest worker.

Impaired nerves and impure blood are the real causes of these disorders.

It is therefore that today diseases are grouped and their common causes studied

A. C. GARDINER.

There is no longer one remedy supposed to fit just one malady and no other. Paine's celery compound, by going to the root of the evil, by supplying food to the nerves, and purifying the blood, cures the group of diseases that result from impure blood and imperfect nerve action. A case in point follows. Mr. A. C Gardiner of Barrington, R. I., writes: "For 14 years I have been troubled with bleeding piles; have tried various remedies, but have found no relief. I bought a bottle of Paine's celery compound for my wife, she being nervous. I thought I would see what it would do for me. I was surprised, for I received immediate relief, and have had very little trouble since."

Paine's celery compound is the remedy that makes people well.

A DISTINGUISHED GATHERING.

Annual Banquet of the New York Chamber of Commerce.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—The annual dinners of the chamber of commerce of the state of New York are always of more than local interest, and the one hundredth and twenty-fifth banquet, at Delmonico's last evening, was no exception. Men of national repute were present, and not only were the affairs of the city and state discussed, but the policy of the nation was foreshadowed by utterances of its high representatives.

Had all the noted men been present who were expected until the eleventh hour the occasion would have been even more memorable. Those who did attend formed one of the most notable gatherings ever brought together by that ancient and honorable body, known as the chamber of commerce. Men of every profession gathered in the assembly rooms at Delmonico's taking seats at the flower-bedecked tables.

Among others at the guests' table were Maj.-Gen. O. O. Howard, Rev. Dr. Francis L. Patton, president of Princeton College; Hon. Carl Schurz, Rear-Admiral Gherardi, Congressman Bourke Cockran, William Walter Phelps, Whitelaw Reid, Murat Halstead and Seth Low, president of Columbia college.

There were five tables, presided over by the members of the dinner committee.

Bouquets of roses adorned the tables, and the mirrors back of the guests' table were draped with the Stars and Stripes and the flags of Great Britain and France.

President Smith rapped on the table with his gavel at 9:10. After a few remarks himself, he then in a few chosen words introduced Secretary Carlisle.

Mr. Carlisle was received with applause. He was frequently interrupted with applause, particularly when he spoke of the necessity of a sound and stable currency. The secretary was given three cheers when he concluded. He was followed by other prominent speakers.

NICHTEROY GOES TO SEA.

Brazil's New Cruiser Proves to Be an Excellent Gunboat.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—The tug Wallace B. Flint went down to the Brazilian cruiser Nichteroy yesterday afternoon to take off Capt. Zalinski, who has been training the crew in the use of the big dynamite gun. The tug landed the captain, on its return at the foot of Wall street.

Capt. Zalinski said that the new cruiser sailed a little before 2 o'clock. Her exact destination was not known even to her commander, as she was under sealed orders. The captain said that every man in the crew seemed entirely satisfied and even enthusiastic over his mission. No fear was evinced either at the prospect of encounter with one of Mello's war-ships or of accident in handling the dynamite gun.

The gun worked splendidly and the men selected to man it showed remarkable aptitude.

They had used dummy projectiles in the practice and these, although of wood, were thrown about a mile and a half. The cruiser turned out to be an excellent gunboat, the bed put on her for the gun carriage steadily withstanding the strain of the recoil which was as great as when the real projectiles are being thrown.

The Fiske range-finder worked to a charm.

This will be the first time that the range-finder will have been used in actual warfare.

Asked how it happened that the Yarrow boat broke adrift from the Nicheroy, Capt. Zalinski said that so far as he was aware, no one on the vessel knew.

For New Jersey Tomorrow: Generally Fair; Winds Shifting to Northwesterly and Colder Thursday Night.

DEMOCRATIC PRIMARIES.

The Democratic electors of the City of Plainfield will meet at the following places Thursday evening, Nov. 23, at 8 o'clock, to elect delegates to the City Convention to be held at the Democratic Headquarters Friday evening, Nov. 24, at 8 o'clock, to nominate candidates for the city offices. Each ward will elect delegates to the convention as follows:

First ward, 5 delegates, Hoagland's office.
Second ward, 5 delegates, Bryant School.
Third ward, 3 delegates, Blair's stable, Sixth street.
Fourth ward, 8 delegates, Democratic Headquarters, Front street.

J. E. MARTINE,
President Democratic Asso'n.
L. F. WADSWORTH, Sec'y.

The Councilmen who not long ago consumed with evident relish the gaudy pictures displayed by the notorious Truth publication, copies of which they passed from desk to desk, will tonight be asked to set up a standard of pictorial morality for Plainfield. This would seem a case where public condemnation cloaks private approbation.

THE NEW JERSEY VERDICT AT THE POLLS.

The official returns of the election in New Jersey have been received from all the counties in the State. They show victory for the enemies of ring rule, as emphasized in the dominance of the race-track gamblers, more widespread than was at first evident. From Cape May county to Sussex, wherever the gamblers were seemingly intrenched, the moral element overturned organized politics and elected men of fair reputation to serve in the Assembly. There were exceptions, but in the general victory they count for nothing, so far as a power to do evil is concerned. The plurality of the Republican party over the Democratic was 23,093; that of Cleveland over Harrison in 1892 was 14,674, and in these figures the extent of the overthrow of bad men's politics can easiest be seen.

The total vote by counties is as follows:

	Rep.	Dem.
Atlantic	1,973	2,600
Bergen	3,663	3,319
Burlington	6,805	5,145
Camden	11,260	9,324
Cape May	1,253	666
Cumberland	4,491	3,292
Essex	29,776	25,406
Gloucester	3,955	2,948
Hudson	25,829	23,198
Hunterdon	2,715	3,290
Mercer	9,382	4,700
Middlesex	6,067	5,645
Monmouth	3,028	7,465
Morris	5,442	4,282
Ocean	2,211	1,163
Passaic	10,851	8,923
Salem	3,035	3,075
Somerset	3,076	2,737
Sussex	2,636	2,068
Union	7,820	6,149
Warren	1,897	3,677
Totals	152,165	129,072

It will be seen that the Democrats carried only four of the twenty-one counties, and these, Atlantic, Hunterdon, Salem, and Warren, among the smallest in point of population in the state.

Since the Supreme Court gerrymander decision a plan to bring the case to the attention of the Court of Errors and Appeal without a formal appeal has been formed by Republican and Democratic leaders. It is to have the next Legislature appoint or elect a successor to the State Comptroller, Gen. Heppenhiemer, who will refuse to turn over his office to the new comptroller. The latter will then bring quo warranto proceedings in the Supreme Court and when it is there decided against Heppenhiemer the latter will take the case to the Court of Errors and Appeal, where a final decision on the gerrymander will be given, as of course the question will be the pivotal point in the quo-warranto proceedings.

Opening Up Property in the Suburbs.

There has just been completed a street 50 feet wide, including sidewalks, a continuation of Union street, from Arlington avenue to the Stelle property, through the property of Mr. VanHorn, of Jersey City. The work was let by contract to John Brennan, of Arlington avenue, who put it through within the stipulated time. Mr. VanHorn was well pleased with Brennan's work, as he spared no expense in having it properly graded and lined according to the modern methods of construction.

Excavations and grading was commenced opening from Arlington avenue and continued in a westerly line until making junction with Mr. Stelle's property. Mr. Stelle says he will himself soon open up his property by having a road graded to unite with Mr. VanHorn's.

Wilmington Approves It.

The Wilmington (Del.) Republican of this week Monday says:

The sensational comedy-drama "The Oath" was given its first Wilmington production to a large and appreciative audience, at the New People's Theatre last evening. It tells a thrilling story of mysterious murder and robbery, and an excellent cast is employed in its presentation.

New and beautiful scenery is shown, and a number of pleasing specialties are introduced, which kept the audience in continual good humor.

"The Oath" will be given again this and tomorrow evenings and at the Wednesday matinee.

"The Oath" will be given in Music Hall tomorrow night.

—The Woman's Home Missionary Society of the First M. E church will hold a "Parlor" meeting at the home of Mrs. McNaughton, 539 West Front street, Thursday afternoon at 3. Mrs. Kent, a prominent worker, will address the meeting. The music will be furnished by young ladies of the Mission Circle. All are welcome.

WANTS AN EXCISE BOARD.

DR. LEWIS GETS THE THIRD WARD TO ENDORSE THE PLAN.

Republicans Nominate Elias Bird, George H. Frost, H. M. Stockton and Norman Mague for Ward Councilmen.

The Republican primaries were held in this city, last evening, as follows:

FIRST WARD.

Chairman—J. B. Coward.
Secretary—R. E. Coriell.
Clerk—E. E. Anthony.
Inspectors—George W. Moore, Wm. Addis.
Delegates to City Convention—J. T. MacMurray, E. E. Anthony, Wm. Addis, C. C. Lester, Louis Regle, Jesse Scull, Wm. Douglas, John Rowland, S. Williams, George Halloca, Wm. G. E. See, M. Turton.
For Councilman—Elias H. Bird.
Members City Executive Committee—J. B. Coward, J. F. MacDonald, J. MacMurray.

SECOND WARD.

Chairman—George H. Goddard.
Secretary—George D. Patten.
Judge—John Ulrich.
Inspector—Andrew Vanderbeek.
Clerk—George D. Patten.
Delegates to City Convention—John B. Dumont, H. B. Newhall, Arthur Baynon, C. B. Corwin, B. K. Case, J. W. Jackson, S. A. Ginns, Geo. H. Goddard, Capt. Morrison, F. O. Herring, John B. Drayton, Jos. W. Gavett, J. T. Vail, A. V. Nolen.
For Councilman—George H. Frost.
Members City Executive Committee—A. Vanderbeek, C. A. Baynon, W. T. Broadway.

THIRD WARD.

The Third ward primary was perhaps the most interesting of any in the city. Mayor Gilbert called the primary to order in the Casino, and D. E. Titsworth was made Chairman and R. F. Murray the Secretary. The chair appointed judges and inspectors, but their services were not needed, as almost everything went by acclamation. F. E. Marsh nominated H. M. Stockton for Councilman, whereupon the Rev. Dr. A. H. Lewis rose up and expressed his views emphatically on the temperance subject; he claimed that the man nominated should come out openly with his sentiments and cry the evil down. Dr. Lewis in his speech favored taking the licensing of saloons from the City Council and placing it in the hands of Excise Commissioners, and offered a resolution recommending the change, which prevailed. The nominations made were as follows:

For Councilman—H. M. Stockton.
For Constable—Amos Moffett.
For Justice of the Peace—J. Oakley Nodyne.
Delegates to the City Convention—C. J. Fisk, T. O. Doane, R. F. Murray, O. T. Waring, W. T. Kaufman, D. McNamara, E. R. Ackerman, D. E. Titsworth, W. T. Kirk, Frank Bushnell, S. F. Kimball.
Members of the City Executive Committee—W. T. Kirk, F. E. Marsh and R. F. Murray.

FOURTH WARD.

Councilman H. A. Weber called the meeting to order, and the following officers were elected:

Chairman—Norman C. Mague.
Secretary—J. B. Martin.
Judge—Harold Serrell.
Inspectors—W. S. Angleman, Henry P. Pugh.

The following were elected delegates to the City Convention:

Wm. Westphal, Wm. Newcorn, Arthur Venable, Charles Fisher, Wm. Lee, Charles Foster, J. B. Martin, B. A. Leland, Thomas Fox, R. B. York, Wm. Kelvie, Wm. Connett, James Anderson, John Thompson, Charles McIntosh, Charles Burns, J. T. Conde, E. V. H. Conover.
Members of City Executive Committee—H. A. Weber, R. B. York, Abe Angleman.
For Councilman—N. C. Mague.
For Justice of the Peace—Wm. Newcorn.
For Constable—Frank Vanderhoof.

Plainfield Class in Political Economy.

Mrs. M. H. Elwell, of Brooklyn, gave an interesting and able talk before the women of All Souls church, yesterday afternoon, on "Political Economy". She explained the subject in a most attractive manner.

As a result, a class will be formed early in December, to be taught by Mrs. Elwell, who comes highly recommended, having been a teacher in the Brooklyn Institute and other well-known schools. There will be seven lectures, one each week, on Thursdays. The charge for the course is $4. Anyone can join the class if their names are sent in before the lectures commence.

The Serpent of Brass.

The address by the Rev. Mr. Crane on "The Serpent of Brass", in the Y. M. C. A. rooms, last evening, was a clear and forcible presentation of the truth. His illustrations as usual were very striking. After Mr. Crane's address the Rev. Dr. Yerkes followed with a short, earnest address in line with the speaker's remarks. An interesting feature of the after-meeting was the testimony of some of those who had professed Christ in these meetings. Another strong address may be expected tonight.

The men's meetings, and the Bible readings for all, will be continued until Friday, inclusive.

No Pity on the Sufferer.

Hiram Hornish, who rents two or three rooms over the United States Express Company's office, has been quite ill for the past few days. There are a number of families living in the same building. The other night a dance was held, and the noise and disturbance were so great that Mr. Hornish, who was reclining in his room, was much annoyed. He requested them to stop, but they did not, and seemed more determined than ever to make the night hideous. They recommended that he go to a hotel and live in rooms.

Peace Street to Be Repaired.

Street Commissioner Meeker, in answer to criticisms on the bad condition of Peace street since it was widened, says that the trouble is that property-owners have delayed setting their curb lines. As soon as the curbs are straightened, the macadamization will be begun. The entire work is to be accomplished before December 1.

I have not used all of one bottle yet. I suffered from catarrh for 12 years, experiencing the nauseating dropping in the throat peculiar to that disease, and nose bleed almost daily. I tried various remedies without benefit until last April, when I saw Ely's Cream Balm advertised in the Boston Budget. I procured a bottle, and since the first days use have had no more bleeding—the soreness is entirely gone—D. G. Davidson, with the Boston Budget, formerly with Boston Journal.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Miss Carrie Huff is still very ill at her home on East Second street.

Miss Edna VanNest, of Eureka, Illinois, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Wm. Colthar, of Duer street.

Clarence Watson and bride are expected home tonight from their European wedding trip.

This evening at the home of the bride will take place the marriage of Ida Lorton to Horace Huff.

George Godown, the efficient postal clerk in the post-office, is confined to his home by illness.

Mrs. George King, of Newark, is visiting the family of her brother-in-law, John S. King, West Second street.

Mrs. Hall, of Fishkill, N. Y., is visiting her son, Charles Hall, of Reynolds's pharmacy, at his home on Central avenue.

M. R. Hughston of this city will spend the winter at his old home in Ironia, Morris county, and left for that place yesterday.

Mrs. B. Fosgate and child, of Park avenue, are home again from a two-weeks visit with Mrs. Fosgate's mother, Mrs. Col. James Moore of Elizabeth.

Isaac Doane, keeper of the lighthouse on Cape Sable, with his wife and daughter, spent Monday with Mr. and Mrs. J. Hervey Doane, of LaGrande avenue. Mr. Doane is a nephew of Capt. Doane.

The death occurred last evening of Mrs. Elizabeth Ladd, mother of W. J. Ladd, of 20 Willow avenue. She was in her seventy-ninth year. The funeral will be from her late residence, Friday afternoon at 4.

Robert McCardell, a large wholesale grocer of Providence, and his friend William Ashcroft, owner of a prominent theatre, in Belfast, Ireland, have been spending a few days with Andrew McCardell, the popular foreman of the Pond Tool Company.

Henry Clay Randolph and wife have given up their truck farm on the Short Hills road, and taken up their residence for the winter with their daughter, Mrs. C. Frank French, of Somerset street. Mr. Randolph has been suffering from throat trouble ever since he went to the World's Fair, and it is thought the change will do him good. He still goes to his farm every day, and oversees the business.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—The Republican City Convention will be held tomorrow evening in Association Hall, East Front street.

—Friday evening of this week is the date set for the "green tea" to be given in Trinity Reformed church by the men of the church.

—Mrs. Tomlinson will conduct the meeting in the W. C. T. U. rooms tomorrow afternoon at 3:30. Several interesting papers will be read.

—Edward K. Allen, of the North Plainfield stage line, for being drunk and disorderly, was fined $15 by Judge Coddington in the City Court this morning.

—A Thanksgiving sale and entertainment will be given in Hope chapel, Wednesday, Nov. 29, from 3 to 6 p. m., by the Helping-Hand Circle of King's Daughters.

—Mrs. J. H. TenEyck, a most estimable wife and mother, of Broad street, Westfield, has become mentally deranged by illness, and was taken to the asylum.

—On misinformation the announcement was made yesterday that last night was the date of the old-fashioned supper in Vincent chapel. The correct date is Tuesday evening, Nov. 28.

—The Rev. Frank Fletcher, of New Market, will lecture on "Sherman's March to the Sea", in the First Church of Christ, Tuesday evening, December 12. Admission will be 25 cents.

—The stone house being erected by Smalley Bros. on Mountain avenue is soon to be completed. When finished it will be an ornament to the borough as well as a credit to the contractors.

—The supper that was to be held last night for the benefit of the Marconnier church was postponed on account of the weather and will be held tonight at Bamman's house, opposite the Driving Park.

—Street Commissioner Gavin of North Plainfield reports that he is beginning improvements on Howard street. Later on, and as soon as possible, he will scrape the gutters and put other streets in repair.

—The high-grade boarding and livery stables of A. N. Dunster & Son, North avenue, opposite station, continues to hold the liberal patronage it deserves. Whenever you want a turnout that will suit you in every way, ring up 172 on the telephone.

—Lacy & Blanchard's company will be in Music Hall tomorrow night, and will present the great drama entitled "The Oath". Special scenery, mechanical effects, a strong company and a play that interests all, go to make the performance a good one.

—The theft of a watch during the Hotel Albion fire was committed by a new employe of the hotel, who has left town since his release from arrest on his own recognizance. The young man had been in this country only a few months. It transpires that his letter of recommendation was a forgery.

He's a Master Mason Now.

Jerusalem Lodge, No. 26, F. and A. M., worked the Master Mason's Degree last night on Louis M. Dunavan. The degree was conferred in a dignified manner by Worshipful Master C. H. Bugg. The lecture was ably given by Pastmaster B. F. Coriell. There were many visitors and a large attendance. The banquet that was spread in the banquet room over the lodge room will long be remembered by the large number who partook of the bounty.

That Freeholder Matter.

It transpires that Director Sauer's appointment of a Republican on the committees where there were vacancies was not as a rebuke to partisanship, but because each of those committees already contained two Democrats, and he thought it only fair to have the minority in the Board represented.

We want you out-of-town people to know what kind of famous Winter Overcoats we are selling for men at $10, $12 and $15. They are made of Meltons, Kerseys, Tricot, Long and Chinchillas in Black, Blue, Brown and Oxford shades. Their great wearing qualities and perfect workmanship commend them to all. Former prices of these Overcoats have always been two and three dollars more than we are now asking for them.

Money will be cheerfully refunded on any purchases not satisfactory.

UNITARIANS CLOSE THEIR DOORS.

MOHAMMEDAN WEBB REFUSED PERMISSION TO SPEAK.

This Ray from the Far East Excluded from the Most Liberal Sanctuary of Plainfield.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE PRESS:—Unitarians, the would-be Liberalists of our town, refuse their hospitality to Mohammedan Webb on the occasion of his coming visit to Plainfield.

Mr. Webb has been welcomed in many of our communities among intelligent people, and his elucidation of eastern thought and religion affords a rare opportunity to those who desire to widen their horizon and who wish in all matters to "judge, not prejudge". We must congratulate ourselves, therefore, on such an occasion being presented in our midst, and the Unitarians, whom one would have supposed were complimented by being asked to open their doors to this worshiper of one God, having seen fit on this occasion to raise a barrier about their sacred precincts, while claiming to be ardent champions of free thought and free speech, it remains for the other church societies of Plainfield to vie in true liberality and hospitality.

Mr. Webb offers his address free of charge, and the doors of some church parlor should swing wide and let in this ray from the far east.

A lesser light can but enhance the luminous, all-penetrating qualities of a greater orb; thus in culture and in religion the comparative method of allowing all factors their free and untrammelled effects is the surest means of establishing truth and excellence.

Welcome Mr. Webb! LIBERALIST.

THOSE DANDY PARKS.

They Score Another Victory Against the Cranfords.

Despite the heavy rain last night, the Cranford Casino bowlers kept their engagement with the Parks, to bowl on the Park alleys. The game was close and exciting throughout, but terminated in the usual way, as the following scores show:

An Interesting Family.

Reuben Beerbower, of Spring City, Chester county, Pa., is visiting his son, John E. Beerbower, proprietor of the Plainfield City Hotel. The elder Mr. Beerbower is now over three score and ten years, the allotted time for man. He has just returned from a five-months trip to Colorado and Nebraska, and reports things, especially finances, very dull. After a short visit here he will go to his old home and spend part of the winter there, after which he will return to this city.

Mr. Beerbower was born in Chester county, Pa., in 1819, and lived there until a year ago. Since then he has been living among his children, of whom six are living and three are dead. Mr. Beerbower was married in 1842 to Miss Mary S. Hartman. Those living are Gertrude, who married H. S. Hallman, now living at Spring City; Levi B., who now runs the well-established pottery at Elizabeth; P. W. Beerbower, a prosperous real estate dealer in Columbus, Nebraska; Clara, married to A. E. Yeager, a prominent merchant in Chester county, Pa.; John E. Beerbower, proprietor of the City Hotel in this city; and William A. Beerbower, Chief Engineer of the Rio Grande Southern Railway, stationed at Ridgeway, Colorado.

Rejoice Over Shepard's Election.

Speaking of the election of A. D. Shepard to the Township Committee, a leading citizen says:

"Fanwood will receive a great benefit from the advice and counsels of this highly esteemed gentleman. He is a man worthy to fill any office in the gift of the people; though a Republican, he is admired and looked up to by Democrats as well as Republicans.

His election ended the deadlock, and begins an era of independent, high-minded government for Fanwood. All good citizens look up to Chairman Miller as a model general, and will wish him well in the new position he will soon occupy in the Board of Chosen Freeholders."

Rose Vanished and Was Found.

Rose Jackson, the colored woman who was removed from the police station to the hospital on account of illness Monday night, left the hospital last night of her own accord, and the police feared they had lost her. Justice Nash, however, found her in bed in her own home this morning and allowed her to remain there for the present. When she left the police station the doctors thought her very ill, but she recovered rapidly enough when she thought the coast was clear and that she would have a chance to evade the police.

Camera Club Exhibit.

The exhibition of California slides at the Camera Club rooms last night was a delightful affair. The slides are all beauties, and the large audience present was an appreciative one. John Neagle read from a catalogue the names of the different pictures as they appeared, in a way that everybody enjoyed.

THE PRIDE OF ROSELLE.

A Versatile Pen Pays Tribute to Van Court Inn.

VAN COURT INN, ROSELLE, Nov. 22.

Roselle, situated on the line of the Central Railroad of New Jersey within forty minutes from New York, with unsurpassed railroad facilities, about 65 trains daily, each way, renders it one of the most delightful as well as desirable locations in the country for business men and their families, as well as others, seeking a desirable home throughout the year. In order to meet the wants of parties designated a fine hotel has been erected containing all modern conveniences, electric light and bells, baths, fine suites of apartments, excellently equipped in every department, and under the able management of Clarence H. Hale, proprietor, well-known at the Gilsey House, New York, and other prominent hotels. From personal observation your correspondent, and I only voice the sentiment of the guests in the statement herein, that Mr. Hale, the courteous and genial manager of the hotel, known as VanCourt Inn, is untiring in his efforts, assisted by his excellent wife, in rendering the guests thoroughly comfortable and happy. The table is all that could be desired, and excellent attendance. Your correspondent has for many years written up his impressions of picturesque Jersey for publication in the New York papers as well as The Press, and others, concerning the lovely hamlets and charming surroundings along the line of the Central Railroad including Plainfield, and his sole object has been to bring to the notice of the public a section of this State abounding in lovely scenery, excellent driveways, historic interest and all that goes to make life worth living. If he has succeeded in making a few converts he is more than repaid. The excellent service of the Central, with its finely equipped coaches and courteous officials, is worthy of all commendation. Mr. Meredith, in charge of the Roselle station, is unceasing in his efforts to keep his station up to the high standard of excellence for which the railroad company is noted, and that he succeeds goes without saying. A number of guests are now sojourning at the Van Court Inn for the winter season, and the prospects are exceedingly good. A series of weekly entertainments will be given throughout the winter months which will largely add to the pleasure of the guests, so that it is quite safe to predict a delightful and pleasurable season, in the bright and crispy days coming, at fair Roselle domiciled at the VanCourt Inn, only 150 yards from the station.

J. AUG. HINCHMAN.

Host Demler Serenaded.

The Friendship Cornet Band of New Market paid a visit to mine host George Demler Saturday evening.

The band played "The Thunderers", on the plaza of the hotel. The music, carried over mountain-tops by the wind, produced an echo. As the sound was thrown from one mountain to the other, it seemed as if the celestial orchestras had caught up the strains and wafted the melody over Nature's grand amphitheatre.

The guests then adjourned to the ball room, where, under the management of Mr. Johnson, dancing was enjoyed by those who desired.

The well-known cuisine of the hotel was then in requisition, and a fine collation was served in the dining-room, to which the guests did ample justice. After supper the band played several selections. "Down Where the Lilies Bloom" was the most popular and received an encore.

After this, as it was late, Leader Blackford played "Home Sweet Home". Guests were there from Brooklyn, Millington, Plainfield and New Market, and thoroughly enjoyed the evening's music.

PLOUGHSHARE.

Surprise Party at the Plains.

A grand surprise party was held at the residence of J. Eriksen, Scotch Plains, Saturday evening, in honor of his charming daughter, Miss Caroline M. Eriksen. Among those present from Scotch Plains were Miss Minnie Hoslinger, Miss Tinnie Klenser, Miss Alice McCue, Fred Schreiner, Fred Rose, John Klenser, Will Hoslinger, H. Frentz and George Clark. From Netherwood were the hostess's personal friends, the Misses Christian Sorensen, Mamie Neilson, Caroline Borrup, Carrie and Finnie Undal, Nettie Boone.

A bountiful supper was served to which all the young folks did justice. During supper the charming hostess and a friend played a small act of a drama entitled "Small Beginnings; or, Just Starting in Housekeeping". Their excellent acting was encored. Popular games of the season were played, and the boys and girls made their young friend good-night and happy dreams.

Hard Workers for the Borough.

Chief Marshal Pangborn deserves much credit for the interest he takes in borough matters.

When there are any prisoners in the jail, to be taken before Justice Crosley, he rises in the morning at 6, so as to hold court with the Justice at 6:30 and allow the Justice to reach his place of employment on time. Considering that often neither of them retires very early, this faithfulness is commendable to both him and the Justice.

SMALL-POX CLOSES COURT.

ADMIRABLE PRECAUTIONARY MOVEMENT IN ELIZABETH.

All Cases Adjourned to December 12, for the Benefit of Public Health—Prosecutor and Judges Agree on This Excellent Measure.

(Special to The Press.)

ELIZABETH, Nov. 22.—Because of the prevalence of small-pox in Elizabeth and the daily packed condition of the court room, the Prosecutor and Court consulted together today and decided that as a measure for public health it would be best to adjourn all cases till cold weather. All witnesses and others were therefore dismissed till December 12, except in one case which is now being completed. The court room was cleared of all others.

NO FREIGHT MOVED YET.

BUT PASSENGER TRAINS MORE REGULAR ON THE LEHIGH ROAD.

(Special to The Press.)

JERSEY CITY, Nov. 22—All passenger trains on the Lehigh Valley went out on time today. All trains due, except the Buffalo express due at 7:34, arrived from fifteen minutes to two hours late.

Some trains were abandoned, and it was about all that the officers of the company could do to keep any trains moving at all. Not a particle of freight was moved.

The engineer who brought in the 8:39, which got in at 9:56, reported that the Lehigh had secured the services of fifty engineers from the Philadelphia and Reading Road.

The engineers on that road are not Brotherhood men. There are only two engineers on the P. & R. who are Brotherhood men.

Considerable feeling has begun to manifest itself among the employes of the Central Railroad against the engineers running the Lehigh Valley engines.

When the engineer who brought in the 8:39 train on the Lehigh passed the roundhouse this morning he was hooted at and jeered by the men who happened to be about the roundhouse.

The sympathies of the employes of the Jersey Central Railroad are undoubtedly with the strikers. They take every opportunity to express the hope that the men who have "tied up" the road will win the fight.

Fifty switchmen, employed in the yard of the Lehigh Valley in Jersey City, went on strike this morning, completely paralyzing local traffic.

TROUBLE EXPECTED AT AUBURN.

The Police Force Ordered Out to Aid in Moving a Freight Train.

AUBURN, N. Y., Nov. 22.—The united forces of the police department and Sheriff's office are ordered to report at the City Hall at 1 o'clock to-day, and will proceed to the Lehigh yards and guard the making up and going out of a freight train. Trouble is expected.

$2,000,000 BLAZE.

SPRINGFIELD VISITED BY THE MOST DESTRUCTIVE FIRE IN ITS HISTORY.

(Special to The Press)

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Nov. 22.—The most destructive fire this city has ever known broke out shortly after midnight in the block owned by J. K. Dexter and Henry S. Dickinson, at 93 Worthington street. It burned 5 hours. Before the flames were under control over $2,000,000 damage had been done. Among the buildings burned were Hotel Glendower. The Union office was damaged.

The American Catarrh Cure

Is the result of twenty-six years' study and treatment of the disease. One bottle convinces the most skeptical. It is always ready for use, needing neither douche nor atomizer. It restores the hearing, cures the hawking cough and expectorating, removes the headache and nose bleeding, increases the appetite, produces sound sleep, invigorates the whole system and increases the vitality. Prepared only by W. B. Jones, M. D., No. 1336 South Eighth street, Philadelphia. For sale by L. W. Randolph, 21 West Front street. Price $1.

A STRANGE CASE.

How an Enemy was Foiled.

The following graphic statement will be read with intense interest: "I cannot describe the numb, creepy sensation that existed in my arms, hands and legs. I had to rub and beat those parts until they were sore, to overcome in a measure the dead feeling that had taken possession of them. In addition, I had a strange weakness in my back and around my waist, together with an indescribable 'gone' feeling in my stomach. Physicians said it was creeping paralysis, from which, according to their universal conclusion, there is no relief. Once it fastens upon a person, they say, it continues its insidious progress until it reaches a vital point and the sufferer dies. Such was my prospect. I had been doctoring a year and a half steadily, but with no particular benefit, when I saw an advertisement of Dr Miles' Restorative Nervine, procured a bottle and began using it. Marvelous as it may seem, but a few days had passed before every bit of that creepy feeling had left me, and there has not been even the slightest indication of its return. I now feel as well as I ever did, and have gained ten pounds in weight, though I had run down from 170 to 137. Four others have used Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine on my recommendation, and it has been as satisfactory in their cases as in mine."—James Kane, La Rue, O.

Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine is sold by all Druggists on a positive guarantee, or sent direct by the Dr Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, six bottles for $5, express prepaid. It is free from opiates or dangerous drugs.

Tuning and repairing in all its branches.

No Question About It.

As Sam'l of Posen says, "All we want is a chance." Give us that and we will show you goods and prices that will make you customers of ours as long as you need dry goods.

For Proof of It,

Are you one of the lucky ones that don't have to buy underwear this winter? If you're not, just try us; we can save you money. Ladies' vests 50c kind for 38c; men's col. white shirts and drawers 50c kind for 38c; men's camels hair shirts and drawers $1 kind for 68c; child's natural wool shirts and drawers 15c up; child's white do. 15c up.

We will offer this week a 5-hook Foster lacing kid, regular $1 quality for 72c.

Hear about the big silk handkerchief sale in New York? We were there and can sell children's silk handkerchiefs for 10c.

An immense assortment of ladies' and children's coats to select from, and we want to sell them bad. Late season has made a big difference in the price of them.

Have you one of our purchasing cards that entitles you to a book rack, cutting table, a music rack? If not just ask for one when you are in. The articles are worth having and they cost you nothing.

You know we have everything you want in housefurnishing goods of all kinds—crockery, tinware, glassware, etc., at the right prices.

Our Shoe Business Grows.

WHY WE DO IT

$2 50—Ladies' Fine Dongola Button, stitched soles, patent tips, worth $3.00.

"Seeing is Believing."

Simple, Beautiful, Good—these words mean much, but to see "The Rochester" will impress the truth more forcibly. Its marvelous light is purer and brighter than gas light, softer than electric light, and more cheerful than either. The choicest bric-a-brac in the palace of a Vanderbilt reveals nothing finer. We have 2,700 artistic varieties, in brass, bronze, silver and black iron.

Ladies often like to go down among the large wholesale houses and buy of first hands. They will find at our salesrooms (the largest in the world) a rare collection of Art in lamps. A catalogue to send you if you cannot come.

DEATH OF GEN. RUSK.

He Passes Away Peacefully at His Home in Wisconsin.

VIROQUA, Wis., Nov. 22.—Ex-Governor Jeremiah M. Rusk died at his home here yesterday. He was unconscious a short time before his dissolution and the end came peacefully.

—He was born in Morgan county, O., 63 years ago, and 20 years later moved to Wisconsin, settling near his present home, in what was then Bad Axe county. Few men have held so many public positions. Up to war times he had served in many local offices; was a member of the assembly in 1862, and during the summer following was commissioned major of the 25th Wisconsin, of which regiment he afterwards became colonel, and at the close of the war was commissioned brevet brigadier general. In 1866 he was bank comptroller, and was elected a member of the 42nd, 43d and 44th congresses; was tendered by President Garfield the mission to Paraguay and Uruguay, the mission to Denmark and the chief of the bureau of printing and engraving, all of which were declined. He was elected governor of Wisconsin in 1881, and served for three terms, a distinction never accorded to any citizen of a state with the exception of Gen. Lucius Fairchild. When Gen. Harrison became president in 1889, he called Governor Rusk into his cabinet as secretary of agriculture.

To Pay Final Tribute.

MADISON, Wis., Nov. 22.—As soon as the news of the death of General Rusk was received at the capitol messages of condolence were sent to Mrs. Rusk and family by Governor Peck and other state officers and many friends. Governor Peck called a special meeting of the citizens at the executive chamber for the purpose of making arrangements to attend the funeral and it was decided that the governor and his staff attend in a body, going to Viroqua by special train.

FATAL FIRE AT NEWBERNE.

Opera House and Other Buildings Burned in a Tennessee Town.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Nov. 22.—Fire broke out shortly after midnight this morning in Newberne, Tenn., destroying the opera house and the buildings of Wilson & Bradshaw, J. H. Swindles, H. Williamson and B. Cox.

Several lives were lost, among them being J. E. Bradshaw.

Settlers Have to Hustle.

SPOKANE, Wash., Nov. 22.—There is great excitement over a telegram received from Washington that the lands formerly belonging to the Northern Pacific railroad company have lapsed back to the government again by recent court decision. Hundreds of settlers, young and old, spent all Sunday night filing claims, and there was a busy scene. The lands are located near the Northern Pacific depot and in the central portion of the city. The railroad officials scout the idea that the company is dispossessed of the lands, but several attorneys claim otherwise. Two squads of policemen are on the ground to preserve order, but so far no violence is reported.

Dr. Carmody Dead.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—Dr. W. F. Carmody, who was the senior veterinary surgeon at the recent horse show in Madison Square Garden, died of pneumonia at his home here yesterday.

It's Right Against Common Sense

to suppose that an imitation offers the consumer any guarantee like the original does. Take Cottolene for example. FAIRBANK & Co. discovered it, perfected it, and spent thousands in making its merits known. It is plainly to their interest to make and keep it what it is to-day—the most popular shortening in the world.

But when you come

To accept any Counterfeits for Cottolene

these guarantees all disappear, and the housekeeper is at the mercy of an imitator who deals on others' reputation and who profits only by others' loss.

To ensure having good cooking and healthful food stick right to COTTOLENE and let all imitations severely alone.

Sold in 3 and 5 pound pails.

THE FRENCH CHAMBER

A Majority Assured for the Vote of Confidence.

Credit Not Alone Due to the Moderate Republicans—M. Guesde Open in His Anarchistic Views—Violence Rejected Because it is Not Policy.

(Copyright, 1893, by the United Press.)

PARIS, Nov. 23.—So many members of the chamber of deputies have inscribed their names as speakers to-day that it is not probable that a division will be taken on the government's demand for a vote of confidence. Everything indicates, however, that when a vote is taken the government will obtain a substantial majority. The securing of this majority will not alone be due to the fact that the moderate republicans, already a compact group, heartily endorse the programme enunciated yesterday by Prime Minister Dupuy. The conservatives also approve of it. The other opposition groups are still in an embryotic stage, one day agreeing upon their platforms and the next revising them and otherwise wanting in that definite party cohesion that is absolutely necessary to make their antagonism formidable.

The moderate republicans held a meeting last night, at which M. David Raynal presided. The government's declaration was unanimously approved.

Radical Left Unpledged.

The party of the radical left, and calling itself the Gauche Progressiste party, also held a meeting to decide what the attitude of the party would be. It was decided that the members be left free to attack the government on the questions of the separation of church and state, to which the government is opposed; closing all state offices to the clergy, and the revision of the constitution as regards the suppression of the senate. A majority of the party desires a more moderate platform but as a matter of policy will leave their programme open so as to keep in touch with the extreme left, which, in turn, approximates the moderate socialists.

The latter on Monday obtained a noteworthy success in the election of M. Calvinhac, one of their number, as secretary to one of the bureaux. The position is not one of first rate importance, but the selection of M. Calvinhac is significant as being the first time a socialist was ever chosen to hold the post.

The affiliation of a section of the socialists is evidenced in an interview with M. Guesde, whose election as representative for the roubaix has not modified his frankness. M. Guesde refused to attach any blame to dynamiters. He said:

Why Violence is Rejected.

"We make no distinction between legal and illegal methods. We have no intention to limit our action to illegal means. For us action has two categories—those leading to our own aids, and those swerving therefrom. It is not from legal scruples nor moral prudery that we repudiate dynamite attacks upon the police. We reject violence simply because it is contrary to our present interests."

The government newspaper organs have taken advantage of these utterances to declare war upon the Guesdists.

The police are still hot upon the trails of the anarchists. They have traced many anarchists to Lyons, Bordeaux, St. Etienne, Lille and even Algeria and have seized any number of documents, although they have made few arrests.

The Debata prints an interview with Gen. Martinez de Campos, commander of the troops in Barcelona, Spain. Campos thinks that there are barely two hundred anarchists in the city of Barcelona and that but fifteen or twenty of this number are dynamiters.

Rigorous Laws for Anarchists.

Campos was able to give the assurance that at the opening of the cortes the government would introduce a proposal to have all anarchist offenders tried by military or special tribunals. Propably the cortes would also assent, he said, to measures interdicting all anarchist publications, forbidding anarchist meetings, making provision for the rigorous treatment of persons of anarchist antecedents, and specifying exceptionally severe punishment for all persons found in the possession of explosives.

American Colony in Paris.

(Copyright, 1893, by the United Press.)

PARIS, Nov. 23.—Mrs. Eustis, wife of the United States ambassador, will be at home to Americans on Monday afternoons during December and January. Mrs. Morse, wife of the consul-general, yesterday began her weekly receptions. Among the Americans who have come to Paris in the last week are Mrs. Clemens, wife of "Mark Twain;" the Misses Clemens, Col. J. R. Barnes and Mrs. Barnes, Mrs. Chestham, of Baltimore; F. L. Ogden and Mrs. Ogden, of New York, and R. Hasard, of Rhode Island.

Another Nest of Anarchists Found.

BARCELONA, Nov. 23.—The police of this city have unearthed a club of anarchists, whose meeting place was in a house on the Rondo San Pablo. They found chemicals, formulas for making bombs, percussion caps, pistols and documents showing that the club was the headquarters of an extensive organization with branches in many places in Spain and abroad. Several arrests were made.

Prendergast Wants New Lawyers.

CHICAGO, Nov. 23.—P. E. Prendergast, who will be brought to trial next Monday in Judge Dunnes court, for the murder of Carter H. Harrison, has quarrelled with his lawyers and insists on having others engaged to defend him. They will stay in the case to the end, however.

Prize Run of Princeton Harriers.

PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 23.—A prize run of the University Harriers was held yesterday afternoon. Green, '95, was the winner by gaining five minutes on the hounds, Leggett, '95, and Bone, '93, who came in first and second respectively.

ABSOLUTELY PURE

SPRINGFIELD'S GREAT FIRE.

Total Loss About $450,000 With Insurance of $350,000.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Nov. 23.—The ruins of the great fire of yesterday morning has been visited by thousands. The chief point of attraction was the corner of Main and Worthington streets, where the vault of the City National bank was buried in the debris. Streams were kept playing where the safe was supposed to be buried, but it is thought that the contents are preserved, the paint not even having been burned off the outside.

The total loss will amount to about $450,000, insurance about $350,000.

Don't Like Military Life.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—By direction of the secretary of war, Sergeants Plenty Good and Seen-with-his-Ears and Corporal Bull-Don't-Fall, of Troop L, First Cavalry, now at Fort Custer, Montana, will be discharged from the service of the United States. These discharges mark the continued dissatisfaction of the Indian soldier for army life and are in line with the gradual depletion of several of the Indian companies.

Dubbed a Canard.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 23.—The report from Cleveland that a gigantic railroad scheme was on foot which contemplated the building of an electric elevated road from New York to St. Louis and that $100,000,000 was to be expended and that Andrew Carnegie was one of the principal stockholders, is pronounced a canard at the Carnegie offices so far as Mr. Carnegie is concerned.

Silver Purchased Under Sherman Act

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—Director Preston of the United States mint bureau has prepared a statement showing that from the date that the Sherman act took effect, Aug. 30, 1890, to the date of its repeal, Nov. 2, 1893, the amount purchased was 168,674,590.48 fine ounces, costing $155,930,940.84 the average cost per ounce being $0.9244. The present market price is about 70 cents per ounce.

Purchase of Ward's Island.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—The details of the purchase of Ward's island by the city from the state has just been completed. The price to be paid is $1,000,000. The city will pay to the several counties to whom the state is indebted for the care of insane poor $200,000 and deduct $130,000 which the state owes her for like service.

Want Whiskey Tax Increased to $1.50

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—The newspaper reports that the ways and means committee might not increase the tax on whiskey more than 10 cents a gallon has brought a storm of protests from numerous temperance societies in the west demanding that the tax be increased to at least $1.50 a gallon.

Six Unidentified Dead.

BEAVER, Pa., Nov. 23.—Of the seven men burned to death in the Merrill house fire Tuesday morning, but one body, that of James Hughes was identified by relatives. The other six were buried side by side in the cemetery here.

Scotch Miners to Strike To-day.

GLASGOW, Nov. 23.—The mine owners of Scotland having refused to grant the demand formulated yesterday by the miners for an increase of one shilling a day in their wager, the men will go on a strike to-day.

Burglar Fatally Shot.

MEADVILLE, Pa., Nov. 23.—John McEvoy, of Buffalo, N. Y., was shot and perhaps fatally injured yesterday morning by George H. Cutter, while trying to rob the latter's store. McEvoy was removed to a hospital.

United Cook's Association,

This Certifies that our members use and recommend H-O as the finest production of oatmeal for its nutritious qualities, rich flavor, freedom from impurities, and saving in time in preparation. The best is

H-O Hornby's Oatmeal

If you have been told that there is no difference between H-O and cheap brands of rolled oats, you have been deceived—for H-O is peerless—no cereal in the world equals it.

THE H-O COMPANY, NEW YORK.

OFFICIALS AS PILOTS

Lehigh Succeeds in Moving a Little Freight.

The Situation To-day Possibly Slightly Favors the Company—Strikers, However, Confident and Cheerful. Thousands of Coal Miners Idle.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Nov. 23.—The situation of the strike on the Lehigh Valley to-day shows little change, but what change there is to note appears to be in favor of the company. All is quiet here, and the strikers appear as confident and cheerful as on the day the trouble was begun.

The one serious outcome of the strike is the forced shut down of numerous colleries whose output is wholly or jointly handled by the Lehigh railroad. Already several thousand miners have been thrown out of employment.

J. H. Rice, chief of the brotherhood of engineers, and general chairman of the grievance committee, has made public at a meeting here, the correspondence in reply to the announcement that the officials of the Lehigh Valley railroad company were willing to receive the committee of employes. The correspondence shows that Superintendent Wilbur absolutely refused to receive the committee of employes, stating that he would only meet the men individually with one or two representatives, and it was upon this refusal to meet the employes that the strike was ordered.

Mail trains are still running to-day with coaches attached for the accommodation of passengers.

The company officials say as far as they can see the situation for them is improved over yesterday. Two freight trains were made up at Coxton and sent over the cutoff, a branch of the Lehigh Valley railroad on the mountain, en route for Mauch Chunk. They were not molested.

A gravel train was sent out during the night on the Wyoming division, and other trains are to be made up as fast as possible and run to their destinations by non-union men, who will have with them company officials, who know the road, as pilots.

The Situation at Sayre.

SAYRE, Pa., Nov. 23.—All of the "hostlers" and wipers employed in the large round house here have gone out. They were keeping the engines fired up and the brotherhood men called them out. The switchmen will report for work, but will do nothing but their own work and if ordered to do trainmen's work will go out. Sheriff Powell returned from Tonawanda last night with thirty persons whom he swore in there as deputies. Merchants are carting freight from Tonawanda to Waverly by teams, nineteen miles, for shipment over the Erie, and are receiving some supplies the same way. Many orders for Thanksgiving poultry for shipment have been countermanded.

Seems to Favor the Company.

EASTON, Nov. 23—The situation to-day favors the company because it is hauling more coal than for three days previous, and has also been able to send out several more freight trains than yesterday. The company needs engineers. It has plenty of men for crews. The strikers report that they are not in the least disheartened. They have induced several other engineers to follow the lead of the new comers whom they captured yesterday and go home. The peace and order is so good that the sheriff's deputies have had a very monotonous time of it.

Armed Men Guard the Trains.

JERSEY CITY, Nov. 23.—The Lehigh yards and tracks as far as the city limits are guarded by a big force of special detectives heavily armed, and the several freight trains sent out this morning were guarded by detectives. One train, in fact, had an armed man on every car.

Strikers' Ranks Swelling.

MAUCH CHUNK, Nov. 23.—The situation here is unchanged. The strikers are receiving encouragement from the Jersey Central trainmen. Two coal trains which went to Packerton were manned by officials of the company. The union men's ranks are swelling.

Ten Thousand Miners Idle.

HAZLETON, Nov. 23.—Ten thousand coal workers in this region are idle on account of the Lehigh Valley strike. There is practically no business being done on this branch of the road. The Mauch Chunk local passenger train was abandoned last evening.

Schaefer Makes a New Record.

CHICAGO, Nov. 23.—Jake Schaefer and Frank Ives played their second game of 800 points in Central music hall last night before a large assemblage of men and women. The Wizard broke his high run record of the world, 230, and went 113 better. Schaefer's total was 1,236 while Ives' score was only 752.

Sisters of Mercy Killed at Prayer.

PARIS, Nov. 23.—The arched stone roof of St. Pierre chapel, recently erected in Courpiere, near Clermont-Ferrand, Puy-de-Dome department, fell last evening while many sisters of mercy were at prayers. Several sisters were killed and others were injured severely.

THE BRAZILIAN REVOLT.

Indications That Mello and His Followers are Losing Ground.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—The Herald's Montevideo cable says: The probability of any more additions to the ranks of Admiral Mello's insurgents by desertions from the loyal force of President Peixoto of Brazil is now asserted to be small by those who pretend to know. Minister Assisa Brazil believes that a party of Brazilian monarchists has secretly favored the revolution on account of their enmity to President Peixoto, but even they know, he says, that Mello would not adopt the imperial policy unless he considered his cause lost without their aid. The reported execution of Dr. Jose Patrocinio by President Peixoto's order is denied. It is believed in Rio that he is hiding. Rear Admiral Waldenkolk is still a prisoner in Rio. Pernambuco has been declared in a state of siege. The revolutionists in the province of Rio Grande do Sul are still unable to capture the government fortresses.

Report of Rebel Success.

LONDON, Nov. 23.—A Times despatch from Rio says that artillery fire continues incessantly and that several forts have been badly damaged and a number of persons killed. Reports of insurgent successes are confirmed. They have captured Fort Lage and are making progress in the north. Peixoto is making every preparation for the defense of the city and declares that he intends to fight to the last. He expects to gain a victory when his ships arrive.

Will Fight for Brazil.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—O'Halloran, the nautical expert of the United States hydrographic office, in this city, has signed an agreement to go to Brazil on the Britannia. O'Halloran is to go as the executive officer of the Brazilian warship.

THE MEXICAN REVOLUTION.

Outbreaks Begin to Assume Serious Aspect—Government More Active.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—A special from Ciudad Juarez, Mexico, says: The revolutionists are in earnest there can be no longer any doubt. They are confident that they can overcome Diaz, or, at least, orce from him a number of concessions.

One of their camps is situated 60 miles inland from here. They are well armed with Winchester repeating rifles and good pistols. Their bronchos are sturdy and fleet, and they have a fair supply of ammunition.

Manuel Garcia, with the rank of colonel, is in command. He has considerable Indian blood in his veins, but is highly intelligent and is master of his soldiers.

On the whole the outbreaks are beginning to assume serious aspect, and the government is giving the matter more earnest attention than was believed to be necessary at first.

Awarded $8,000 Damages.

SUSQUEHANNA, Pa., Nov. 23.—William H. Tiffany, of this place, an engineer on the Erie railroad, brought suit in the circuit court at Binghampton, N. Y., against the Lehigh Valley railroad company for $25,000 for injuries sustained in a collision between an Erie and a Lehigh Valley train at Big Flats, N. Y., on Aug. 20, 1889. The plaintiff claimed that the accident was due to the negligence of employes of the Lehigh Valley railroad. The jury awarded the plaintiff $8,000, and the defendant moved for a new trial.

Famine in Canada.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—A special from Quebec says: The greatest destitution prevails among the Indians all over Canada, and from Labrador to British Columbia come continuous tales of suffering. One Indian town in the northern part of the province of Quebec has been wiped out by reason of the famine. It is already known that more than 400 Indians have perished because of hunger. It is expected that thousands more must inevitably starve.

Rockafellow Must Stand Trial.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Nov. 23.—F. V. Rockafellow, the defunct banker, who closed his doors several months ago, owing $450,000 to his depositors, was brought into the criminal court yesterday. There are 13 indictments against him for embezzlement, and his attorney moved that they be quashed as the papers were not properly drawn. After argument lasting for over two hours, Judge Lynch denied the motion and ordered the trial to begin at once.

New Postmasters.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—Among the latest appointments of fourth-class postmasters are the following:

New Jersey—Flanders, C. H. Howell vice D. E. Frambers, removed.

New York—Durhamville, John Maher, vice W. R. Reynolds, removed; McKownville, Henry Hein, vice Thomas Helms, removed; Schenevus, S. F. Bennett, vice John Mills, removed.

Penniless Immigrants.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—Six hundred immigrants were landed at Ellis Island from the steamship Dresden, which sailed from Bremen on November 9th. Four hundred of these were Russian Jews, two hundred and eighty of whom were detained by the immigration authorities. They were penniless and are thought to have been sent over by the Russian charity societies.

Wage Scale Compromised.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 23.—At a secret conference between the Amalgamated association committee and the iron and sheet steel manufacturers, a compromise of the the difference on the wage scale was effected. Eight thousand iron workers, who were threatening a strike will continue at work, and idle sheet mills will resume operations at once.

Big Lockout.

WHEELING, W. Va., Nov. 23.—The Etna Standard iron and steel company at Martins Ferry locked out 2,000 employes this morning and shut down their mills. The lockout is the result of the refusal of the Amalgamated association to submit to a 10 per cent. reduction in the sheet iron scale.

Smallpox at Elizabeth.

ELIZABETH, N. J., Nov. 23.—On account of the smallpox scare here, the Union county court was adjourned until Dec. 12.

MOST SERVICEABLE COLOR

FASHION AND ECONOMY BOTH APPROVE BLACK CLOTHING.

The Easy Way of Home-Dyeing—Cotton, Wool, Silk and Feathers Readily Colored a Handsome Black—Use Only Diamond Dyes, Absolutely Fast Black.

It is only within the last few years that it has been possible for an inexperienced person to dye a black that would not crock, fade or wash out. Even mill-dyed black goods were rarely absolutely fast.

The advent of three diamond dye fast blacks—for wool, for cotton and for silk and feathers—has changed all this. Now with a ten cent package of one of these dyes, the first trial gives perfect success.

The directions on the packages are so plain and simple that even a child can get better results than the experienced dyer could a few years ago.

The enormous quantity of these fast black diamond dyes sold every year, show how popular they are and what perfect satisfaction they give. Some of the larger wholesale druggists order 5,000 packages at one time, and even then they soon have to order fresh supplies.

The prevailing fashion for black stockings, feathers, gowns and cloaks is undoubtedly responsible for some of this large sale, but the fact that anything can be colored with diamond dyes a black that will not crock or fade, explains their almost universal use.

The economy of these dyes is shown by the fact that a package of the fast stocking black for cotton will dye five pairs of cotton stockings a rich black; a package of the fast black for silk and feathers will dye ten feathers a glossy color; and a package of the fast black for wool will dye from one to two pounds of woolen goods.

The peculiar way in which the diamond dye fast blacks are made gives them a great superiority over all other methods of home dyeing.

There are some forty other colors of diamond dyes, each of which is thoroughly reliable, and as superior to imitations as sunlight is to moonlight.

LAST REGULAR PRACTICE.

Yale Eleven Will Leave for Springfield To-morrow at Noon.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 23.—The Yale coachers treated the candidates for the team to a hard day's work yesterday. It was, however, the last regular practice of the eleven before the Harvard game, and with two day's rest every man will be in prime condition.

This afternoon some light work will be done, but no more bucking the centre will be attempted until Yale faces Harvard.

At the game Saturday two Yale men in each section will be selected to lead the cheering. Several hundred students will sit together and sing the new football songs which are being rehearsed at "The Fence" nightly.

The eleven will leave for Springfield about noon to-morrow, 30 players being taken along. A special car will transport the team. Old graduates are beginning to return to New Haven to take part in the move on Springfield to witness the game there and also that at New York.

HARVARDS ARE CONFIDENT.

Ready for a Kicking Game if Ever Any Eleven Ever Were.

BOSTON, Nov. 23.—Yesterday afternoon the Harvard football eleven took its final work before the great game of Saturday. It was of much the same order as usual, though of shorter duration.

In the morning the members of the team went out for a short practice in punting, drop-kicking and catching. It was muddy and they cut it short. In the afternoon the teams went down to the field at the usual time, where they were put through the final work. In the first place the two elevens lined up apart from one another and went through their own plays.

It is well understood that Beale will play the quarter-back, having been chosen for his remarkable good work the past few weeks.

In kicking and catching the Harvards have wonderfully improved, and there is no fear among those who have seen their practice that the eleven will prove weak on those points.

Harvard is ready for a kicking game if any eleven ever were in the world. Her second eleven is noticeably strong and every member a reliable player.

ROANOKE RIOTERS CONVICTED.

The Light Sentences Imposed Meets With General Disapproval.

ROANOKE, Va., Nov. 23.—The jury in the riot cases returned a verdict last night after nearly five hours deliberation.

James G. Richardson was given thirty days in jail and fined $100. S. W. Fagus and D. D. Kennedy were given one day in jail, and Abe Perry was acquitted. The jury stood ten to two for giving the accused the full penalty of the law, 12 months in jail and $100 fine.

The verdict is generally condemned by all who desire law and order maintained because of its leniency.

The case of ex-Chief of Police Terry and Police Sergeant Griffin, charged with murder in the first degree as accessories before the fact to the lynching of Smith, were called, but delayed to await a decision on a technical point raised by the accused's counsel.

Heavy Fines for Policy Men.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Nov. 23.—J. D. Carpenter, Andrew Farrell, Charles Kelly, George Barclay, Thos. Flint and Harry Flint, proprietors of policy shops raided Tuesday evening, were fined $100 and costs in the city court yesterday. The slip-writers were fined $50 and costs, and the players forfeited $18 bonds each.

Move Against Theatrical Posters.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., Nov. 23.—An ordinance making it a misdemeanor to post posters of girls in tights was introduced in the city council last night and will probably be adopted at the next meeting in December.

Madison Square Bank Dissolved.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—Judge Beach has signed an order dissolving the Madison Square bank. This action makes the temporary receivers, Miles M. O'Brien, and James J. Cameron permanent receivers.

THE DAILY PRESS.

THE WEATHER.

A NEWSPAPER, NOT AN ORGAN.

(From The Westfield Standard.)

The Standard congratulates and applauds the Plainfield Press for its enterprise in getting out by daylight a post-election edition telling in manly terms of the defeat of its own candidates and dealing with facts without stint, partiality or reserve. This is being a newspaper, which is much better than being an "organ".

DEMOCRATIC PRIMARIES.

The Democratic electors of the City of Plainfield will meet at the following places Thursday evening, Nov. 23, at 8 o'clock, to elect delegates to the City Convention to be held at the Democratic Headquarters Friday evening, Nov. 24, at 8 o'clock, to nominate candidates for the city offices. Each ward will elect delegates to the convention as follows:

First ward, 5 delegates, Hoagland's office.
Second ward, 5 delegates, Bryant School.
Third ward, 3 delegates, Blair's stable, Sixth street.
Fourth ward, 8 delegates, Democratic Headquarters, Front street.

J. E. MARTINE,
President Democratic Asso'n.
L. F. WADSWORTH, Sec'y.

As that anti-poster ordinance now reads, any prude taking offense at any picture displayed, either on bill-board or in art or book store, may put an entirely innocent man to the annoyance and injustice of arrest and trial before the City Judge. If such an ordinance is to pass, it should specify just exactly what may not be displayed, in no unmistakable language. This is not a matter in which discretion should be left open as to just what is indecent and what is not. Specify, gentlemen, specify—or else kill the ordinance.

"If there's one thing that more than another I detest in a man,"—says honest Jim Martine—"it's perfidy." What then must he think, and what must all honest men think, of the latest base treachery of which the local Republican organ is guilty? Freeholder Vanderbeek has been in the service of the people on the county Board eleven years. He has been a most active and faithful representative, free from partisanship, and satisfactory to Republicans and Democrats alike. But some one in the ring which rules the organ has an axe to grind, and so starts the organist turning the stone. And the burden of the effort is to grind down Freeholder Vanderbeek and grind in some other as his possible successor. The Republican candidacy for Freeholder belongs by all the rights of political precedent and performance to Mr. Vanderbeek, and the honest-minded Republican delegates in City Convention tonight should administer a fitting rebuke to this attempt to belittle his record and to retire him from office. As a newspaper and not an organ, The Press insists that the Republican nomination for Freeholder belongs to Mr. Vanderbeek.

DR. PARKHURST OF PLAINFIELD.

Fortunately for the self-respecting city of Plainfield, it is not to have after this year a clerk who will wilfully falsify the facts as recorded in the actual doings of the Council for the small and mean purpose of bolstering up his "moral" campaign of personal abuse and misrepresentation. The present City Clerk lobbied in the ante-room of the Council last night for the passage of the anti-poster ordinance. He evidently flattered himself that he had pulled enough wool to cover the eyes of the City Fathers. But the Plainfield Councilmen are a set of fair-minded and honorable men, and they were not to be fooled by the antics of the local Dr. Parkhurst. Like The Press, they are in favor of all honest efforts to extend the influence of law and order, but they declined to be drawn into any hasty legislation. They recognized that the ordinance as introduced was unfair to the legitimate business of bill-posting, unfair to the legitimate advertising of perfumes and what-not in drug stores, unfair to all dealers in art works and illustrated literature, all of whom would by its terms be in constant menace of arrest at the instance of anyone in whose opinion any poster, art work or piece of literature was "indelicate". And inasmuch as they did not wish to be a party to any unfairness and injustice they declined to act until a committee of good and true citizens should have investigated the matter.

That is the truth, as any Doubting Thomas may learn from the lips of Councilman Fisk, who made the motion as adopted, or any other of the Councilmen who voted for it.

That is the truth. But what does Mr. City Clerk say about it?

Actuated by impulses which have already been exposed in these columns as despicable, he deliberately invents the following malicious perversion of facts:

> An ordinance fitting the cases had been drawn up by the Corporation Counsel which was not quite strong enough in its denunciation of the saucy posters to suit the Council, and so it was referred to a committee to be corrected. The matter will be settled at the first meeting in December.

"Not quite strong enough"! On whose authority does he make the statement? On none other than his own troubled mind. "To be settled at the first meeting in December"! Everyone familiar with the routine of municipal legislation knows that that is impossible. Dr. Parkhurst's own experience as City Clerk should have taught him that an ordinance cannot be settled at one fell swoop. Can it be that he is so far gone as not to remember that?

This particular bit of misrepresentation on the part of the pretending moral crusader is only one of the many fanciful webs he has woven. It was published in the New York World of today, and City Clerk Parkhurst is the accredited (or discredited) World correspondent from Plainfield. It is not quite so bad as some other of his misrepresentations in the same World and in The Herald, but it is bad enough. It is just so bad, and there has been so much of similar work before, that the City Council quietly made known to Dr. Parkhurst that he might save himself disagreeable consequences by declining to stand for City Clerk another term. It is just so bad, and there has been so much unfaithful work preceding it, that the New York World and New York Herald, when they learn that he is misrepresenting facts in their columns for the gratification of his own personal spite, will doubtless do as the New York Sun has done already, remove him from the staff.

The Press repeats its warning of a week ago:

> The path of pretension and hypocrisy ends at the precipice of shame.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Dr. Searles and bride are home again.

F. L. C. Martin has returned from his trip to Boston.

Miss Suydam of Brooklyn is visiting the Misses Currie of Arlington avenue.

The Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Jones, of Elizabeth, were in town yesterday, visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. James C. Field, of Somerville, were greeted by many old friends in town yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. George P. Dupee are spending the week at Lakewood. They are quartered in the Laurel House.

The next dinner of the Cooking Club will be given next Wednesday, at the home of Miss Corlies, Road Ending.

Miss Cecilia Staats, daughter of Postmaster Peter C. Staats of Dunellen, will spend Thanksgiving with friends in Clinton, Pennsylvania.

Margaret Quin passed away yesterday at her home, 750 East Second street, aged 48. Funeral services will be held tomorrow morning at 9, and half an hour later at St. Mary's church.

The Rev. J. M. D. Gardiner, of St. Paul's College, Tokyo, will lecture on "Japan", in Grace church chapel, Friday evening, December 9, at 8, under the auspices of the Helping Hand Society.

Mrs. Selina Chamberlain, widow of Thomas Chamberlain, died yesterday at the age of sixty-one. The funeral will take place Saturday afternoon from the home of her son James, 663 West Third street.

Mrs. Craig, widow of the late Adam Craig, died yesterday afternoon at the residence of her nephew Morgan Turton. Mrs. Craig was step-mother of James and William Craig of Dunellen, and of Mrs. Ramsey Blair of this city. She had been a sufferer from rheumatism for years, and her death had been looked for several days.

Beautiful Tributes.

The floral tributes at the funeral of the late Mrs. Emma L. Rider, of Dunellen, this afternoon, were most elaborate. They were arranged and furnished by Miss Lincoln, the Park avenue florist, under her personal supervision. They consisted of a representation of the badge of the Plainfield Lady Cyclers, with the letters "P. L. C." inscribed, a pillow of violets, with three ribbons made of violets, a cross of white flowers, trimmed with bride and Perle roses, a maltese cross of white and Perle roses bearing the inscription "Dorcas". This came from the society of King's Daughters of this city. There were also several handsome branches of callas, each filled with tea buds.

They Were First Cast Off by The Press.

A New York publisher asked The Press to print a "grand Thanksgiving premium" coupon which with six cents would entitle a reader to a copy of a "magnificent" picture, entitled "An American Beauty". The Press looked at a copy of the picture and declined the offer. The picture is a cheap chromo of a rose, bears an advertisement on the back, and is not worth six cents. It is the same "grand Thanksgiving premium" which is now being offered by another paper. The public is warned of its worthlessness. The "Home and Country" offer also advertised by that journal was previously rejected by The Press for similar reasons.

A Meritorious Performance.

The Paterson Morning Call speaks in praise of "The Oath", to be produced in Music Hall tonight. The Call says:

> A large audience gathered at the People's Theatre last night to witness the production of the new comedy drama, "The Oath". An enthusiastic reception was given the really meritorious performance, which abounds in thrilling climaxes and has several brilliant scenic and mechanical effects, foremost of which is the scene of "the burning of the mill". Many thought the entire stage was on fire, so clever has the artist perfected his handiwork. The cast embraces a host of leading artists, all worthy of special mention.

Resolutions of Condolence.

At the prayer meeting in the First Baptist church, last evening, Deacon Rufus K. Case read resolutions of condolence to be presented to the family of the late Wm. White. All the members voted to convey the resolutions to the bereaved ones.

Not the Same; Not the Same.

The "Summer in Jersey" about which the Rev. Edward Hale is to lecture in the Unitarian church tonight, is not the kind of summer known in this State, but one spent on the famous and delightful Isle.

Great Shooting.

Henry Coddington returned today from Delavan, Illinois, where he has been stopping with relatives for some weeks. He reports the finest sort of prairie shooting, and tells great stories of the sport to be had with the quail and prairie chickens.

I have not used all of one bottle yet. I suffered from catarrh for 12 years, experiencing the nauseating dropping in the throat peculiar to that disease, and none bleed almost daily. I tried various remedies without benefit until last April, when I saw Ely's Cream Balm advertised in the Boston Budget. I procured a bottle, and since the first days use have had no more bleeding—the scene is entirely gone.—D. B. Davidson, with the Boston Budget, formerly with Boston Journal.

COUNCILMEN IN NO HURRY.

THEY WANT TO INVESTIGATE BEFORE THEY ACT.

Action Deferred on That Anti-Poster Ordinance — Councilman Fisk Heads It Off, and Corrals It in Committee Enclosure.

The special meeting of the Common Council last night was attended by Councilmen Bird, Erickson, Fisk, Frazee, Ginna, Millington and See.

The call was read by the Clerk, a number of bills were referred for payment, and the ordinance to widen West Front street two feet from Madison avenue to Central avenue was adopted on final passage.

Communications from the Plainfield Ministers Association and the W. C. T. U. were read, asking the Council to take what action lay in their power to prevent the posting of "indelicate" pictures.

Mr. Fisk presented an ordinance from the Corporation Counsel, drawn in response to the communications. It provided for the licensing of bill-posting, and prohibited the displaying by anybody of any obscene, vulgar or indecent picture, advertisement or sign, on any bill-board, fence, post, tree, the surface of any building or structure, or in any window, show case, or any other place. The fine specified for each offense is $20.

Mr. Fisk said: "No doubt the petitioners are perfectly sincere, but I don't think it well to take any hasty action. It is easy to pass laws, and not so easy to undo them. We're all in favor of law and order, and opposed to having anything posted of an immoral tendency, but we ought to take time to look into this matter. I therefore move that this ordinance, together with all communications on the subject, be referred to the Committee on Laws and Ordinances."

This was unanimously adopted.

Corporation Counsel Marsh reported various city cases. The suit of Charles K. Moore, for $12,000 damages on water-works-contract, he reported as in process of being discontinued of record. The Peace-street-opening case of Jacob Miles, in which Miles had attacked the act as as unconstitutional and fought his $1,600 assessment, had been argued and decision was expected in the February term. The case of Adaline Brock, H. B. Lounsbury, Ira Munday and Firman A. Long, also on the Peace street matter, was now being argued. John Cahill had been adjudged guilty on appeal, and his bondsman, Frank Schuck, was to be prosecuted for not paying the appeal. Lorenzo Paoli was to be tried Nov. 23, for Sunday selling. The report was received and filed.

Council adjourned after paying the bills.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—The King's Daughters give an entertainment in Hope chapel this evening.

—Willett has a full line of slippers and patent-leather pumps for both men and boys.

—Frisbie has a black and white English greyhound, with its right hind leg injured. It wears a nickel collar. Whose is it?

—They asked J. P. Laire if he would contribute a cake to the "Green Tea". "Put me down for a Layer cake"—he answered.

—"The Divinity of Christ" will be the subject of the Rev. Mr. Crane's last Bible reading at the Y. M. C. A. rooms tomorrow at 3:30 p. m.

—The Plainfield public schools close this afternoon to permit the teachers to attend the county institute in Elizabeth tomorrow and Saturday.

—Uncle Peter Wooden is nothing if not generous. A few days ago he drove about the borough distributing squashes and pumpkins among the poor.

—Terrill & Cole, funeral directors, removed today into their handsome and convenient new building, West Second street, next to Trinity church.

—Andrew M. Vanderbeek has taken charge of the stock in Harper's store, 411 Park avenue, to sell for the assignee. The store is now open, and the bargains are great.

—Those long-expected, much-sought-after patent cork-sole boots have arrived in town and are sold only by Doane & Edsall, the West Front street shoe dealers.

—W. H. Combs, the Linden avenue grocer, has made a number of improvements on his premises. Noticeable among them is a brand-new coat of paint on his store and barn.

—For family parties on the trip to Spain, commutation rate is made. The price of a single ticket (50 cents) is low, but in blocks of 3 they are sold 3 for $1. Be sure to take a fan.

—The new Westervelt avenue bridge is now open to traffic, and it's a beauty. It should have been built at a higher elevation, but the Somerset Freeholders would n't agree to that.

—Spain the romantic, Spain the wonderful, Spain the scene of so many delightful tales like Irving's "Alhambra": will all be pictured to the delight of every sense, by H. H. Ragan in Music Hall Saturday night. Be sure to take a fan.

History and Baptism.

Next Sunday morning the Rev. Dr. Yerkes will preach an historical sermon of interest to the members of the First Baptist church. In the evening there will be baptism.

Have They Seen Any Such?

The W. C. T. U. has petitioned the Board of Managers of Music Hall "to interdict all dramatic presentations of an indecent and immoral character" in that theatre.

THAT'S ALL THE TOWN MR. PENFIELD FOUND.

But Plainfield Christian Endeavorers Learn that Even on Fallow Ground the Gospel Seed May Be Made to Flourish Like a Green Bay Tree.

The Y. P. S. C. E. and their friends gathered in large numbers in the First Presbyterian church last evening to listen to an address from the Rev. Mr. Penfield of New York on the subject of "Home Missions". Mr. Penfield told of his experience in Dakota, and said that on one occasion he arrived, after dark, on a Saturday evening, in the town of Scota, which consisted of one dwelling and a school-house. Next morning three young men started out to secure an audience, and after a time so many people assembled together that it was necessary to hold an outdoor meeting, and they manifested the utmost eagerness to hear the Gospel. He described the weak churches in the West, and told how soon as a rule they became self-supporting. Last year no less than fifty churches had become self-supporting, and had begun to aid other churches, and also to contribute toward the cause of Foreign Missions. There were two great problems confronting the Board of Home Missions, namely: how to reach the immense foreign population that were pouring in upon us, and how to evangelize the cities. As to the first problem he said that the Board now had 20 missionaries preaching to foreign element in their own language—a foreign mission work right in our own midst. He also spoke of the fact that in a prison in Illinois he had found that 75 per cent. of the convicts were either of foreign birth or the children of emigrants, so that it seemed clear that we must Christianize these people or they would destroy our land. As to the second problem they were working hard to reach the cities by various missions. He urged the young people to work and pray, for only thus could our liberty and our religion be preserved.

The Y. P. S. C. E. expected in 1895 to hold a great convention in San Francisco, and would go on to Portland, Oregon, and perhaps to Alaska, and he advised all to save up money for the trip and be ready to go.

Mr. Penfield's remarks were listened to with deep interest, and he made a most favorable impression on his audience.

Good Shooting by the Climax Club.

The members of the Climax Gun Club held their regular monthly shooting meeting yesterday. In addition to the regular club event, several minor sweepstakes and team races were shot with the following results:

CLUB SHOOT.	HANDICAP ALLOWANCES.
J. Darby	10 birds allowance, broke	20
Scott	7 " " "	23
Goodman	10 " " "	27
Manning	4 " " "	26
W. Terry	10 " " "	21
Williams	4 " " "	16
C. Smith	scratch, shooting at 25, broke	24
Brantingham	" " 25, "	22
Keller	" " 25, "	19
D. Terry	" " 25, "	18

As a preliminary event an interesting team race was shot. Keller and Brantingham being pitted against Smith and Manning, the first mentioned team winning, each breaking 12 out of 15 targets shot at, Smith breaking 11 and his partner 12, making a total of 23.

Event No. 3 was a sweep at 10 targets per man. Smith and Brantingham won first place with clean scores of 10. Keller, Scott and Gardner divided second, and Manning won third place.

The closing event was a "miss and out" affair. Scott dropped out on his first round, D. Terry on his second, Mack on his third, Smith on his fifth. Squier fouled on his tenth, and Keller won by a clean score of 10 successive breaks.

Class in Applied Mechanics.

A class in applied mecdanics will be organized by W. S. Timmis at the Y. M. C. A. rooms on Saturday evening, Nov. 25, providing a sufficient number desires the instruction. The course will consist of an introduction in the laws governing motion, embracing a study of mensuration, leverage, inclined plane wedge, screw, windlass, pulley blocks, strength of materials, measurement of force, work of agents, motion of falling bodies, impact modulus of elasticity, determination of centre of gravity, momentum, hydraulics and kinetic energy. A two dollar membership entitles to the privileges of instruction in all classes, except short-hand.

All men interested are requested to meet Mr. Timmis on that evening.

Good Dog Joe's Narrow Escape.

Joe, the bright and affectionate pug which the shoppers in Howell's grocery so much admire, narrowly escaped serious injury this morning. With his master he was passing Hotel Grenada when a timber from the scaffolding fell. He scampered from the spot just in time.

The Genuine And The Sham.

Every good thing has its host of imitators; every genuine article it counterfeits. The imitators always choose the most valuable and popular article to counterfeit, so that when they claim their sham to be equal, or as good, or the same as "So-and-So's the public may depend upon it that "So-and-So,s article is the best of the kind. The sham proves the genuine merit of the thing it copies and never has this been better illustrated than by the imitations of ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS.

ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTER is the standard of excellence the world over, and its imitators in their cry that theirs is "as good as ALLCOCK'S" are only emphasizing this fact and admitting "ALLCOCK'S" to be the acme of perfection, which it is their highest ambition to imitate. The difference between the genuine and the these imitations, which copy only general appearance, is as wide as that between copper and gold.

The only safe way for purchasers is to always insist upon having ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS. They are the only perfect plasters ever produced.

With Ely's Cream Balm a child can be treated without pain and with perfect safety. It cures catarrh, hay fever and colds in the head. It is easily applied into the nostrils and gives immediate relief. Price 50 cents.

THEY 'LL ALL WEAR A BIG GREEN T.

NOVEL ENTERTAINMENT PLANNED BY THE MEN OF TRINITY.

Fred MacDonald Will Boss the Refreshment Reserve and Dan Adams Will Administer Pepsin Pills to His Victims.

That "Green Tea" planned by the men of Trinity church for tomorrow evening is going to be a gigantic triumph, and as a result no doubt large profits will be turned over by the male managers to the Ladies Christian Work Society for the benefit of the Sunday-school building fund. It will be a unique and amusing entertainment. The managers will be known by a big green T on a white badge. The 50 men met last night and completed arrangements. The programme committee is headed by Chas. P. Leggett Street Commissioner Meeker is superintending the decorations, and they are a sight to behold. J. F. MacDonald is at the head of the refreshment reserve who have designs on the public's digestive apparatus, and Dr. D. C. Adams will be on hand with pepsin pellets to administer to those who have eaten to their regret. superintendent E. E. Anthony is Grand Mogul.

All will be cordially welcomed by a reception crew with F. A. Church at the head; and no one can get away without paying, for giant Bert Demarest will have charge of the funds.

WHAT'S BEST IN NEW YORK.

Attractions in the Metropolis for Plainfield Theatre-Goers—"1492"—Eden Musee Specialties—Salvini's Return.

"1492", the reigning success in Palmer's Theatre, is rich in new specialties. John H. Keefe has scored such a hit as a hayseed that Messrs. Jones and Tayon must look to their laurels. The new "Daily Hints" are both pretty and graceful. Theresa Vaughn becomes a greater favorite every day. To all lovers of mirth and music and delightful spectacle, "1492" will be an attraction for many weeks to come.

The Eden Musee may now fairly be regarded as the metropolitan home of strictly up-to-date stage dancing. No less than three famous dancers are now appearing there, and crowded houses greet them every afternoon and evening. Delmore, the serpentine dancer, has no rival in America, and won an international reputation in London, Paris and other European cities. Lola Yberry, the Spanish dancer, has been pronounced greater than even Carmencita. She is as graceful as she is supple, and, what's more, she is both young and pretty. Ottillie, the French dancer, came to the Musee fresh from the Paris cafes chantants, and infuses a truly French vim and animation into all her songs and dances. Besides this remarkable dancing trio, the programme includes the wonderful magician, Delprade, and Miles Sara and Marietta, who perform all sorts of wonderful feats, Danko Gabor and his far-famed Royal Gypsy Band, and various artists of acknowledged standing in their several lines. Several notable additions will soon be made to the collection of wax-works, for which the Musee is famous the world round.

The management of the Star Theatre announces the engagement of Alexander Salvini at that house to begin next Monday night. The popular romantic actor will present for the opening bill Du mas's exhilarating and exciting romance "The Three Guardsmen". Salvini's production of this and other plays of the same school in the Manhattan Opera-House last spring aroused popular enthusiasm. A return engagement, therefore, with the same acceptable repertoire will be looked on with great favor. The dimensions of the Star Theatre stage, its earlier associations with the drama of romance, and the regular clientelle of the house being in such hearty sympathy with the robust actor of the Salvini type, give every promise that the elaborate productions to be presented by this ever-growing favorite, will keep up the extraordinary prosperity this house has enjoyed of late. Among the artists in the supporting company are William Redmund, John A. Lane, at one time prominent in the Booth-Barrett company, William Harris, from the Boston Museum, Eleanor Moretti, well-known in connection with the Boston Theatre and John Stetson companies, Miss Augusta de Forrest and Miss Maude Dixon. Regular matinees will be given Saturdays only, but there will be a special matinee Thanksgiving Day.

A WRECK

of the physical constitution often comes from unnatural, pernicious habits, contracted through ignorance or from excesses. Such habits result in loss of manly power, nervous exhaustion, nervous debility, impaired memory, low spirits, irritable temper, and a thousand and one derangements of mind and body. Epilepsy, paralysis, softening of the brain and even dread insanity sometimes result from such reckless self-abuse.

To reach, reclaim and restore such unfortunates to health and happiness, is the aim of the publishers of a book written in plain but chaste language, on the nature, symptoms and curability, by home treatment, of such diseases. This book will be sent sealed, in plain envelope, on receipt of ten cents in stamps to pay postage.

HYMENEAL.

HUFF—LORTON.

The marriage of Miss Ida Lorton to Horace Huff took place yesterday afternoon at 5, at the home of the bride, 436 West Fifth street, before a very large gathering of friends and relatives.

The wedding march was played by Mrs. Clinton Mosher, a cousin of the bride, as they proceeded to the parlor, where they were met by the Rev. C. L. Goodrich, who performed the ceremony.

The bride wore a costume of white silk and brocade satin, trimmed with Duchesse lace, and carried a beautiful bouquet of white chrysanthemums. The bridesmaid was Miss Grace Phillips, of Evona, who wore a dress similar to the bride's; she carried a bouquet of pink rose-buds and maiden-hair ferns. Joseph Hankinson, of Newark, was best man. The ushers were Thaddeus Doane, Jr., and E. Victor Lorton.

It was a charming wedding, and the entire affair was carried through with promptness and precision.

Both the bride and groom have a large circle of friends who join in wishing them a very happy journey through life.

The groom holds a lucrative position with Garret Q. Packer, the furniture merchant. The presents were numerous, their many friends having remembered them handsomely.

Mr. and Mrs. Huff left on the 8:49 train for New York. Where they will spend their honeymoon, is known only them. Some of the wedding guests attached a lighted lantern and a pair of old boots to the carriage which conveyed them to the North Avenue station. This joke was not discovered till they reached the station.

Among those present were:

Mrs. Avis Laing and son, Mr. and Mrs. James Morrison, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Stryker, Mrs. Rachel Bogert, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Palmer, Mrs. John Linbarger, and family; Mr. and Mrs. Peter Bogert, Mrs. Jennie Hawkins and family; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mosher, Miss Hannah Bogert, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dunham, Mr. and Mrs. Elias Mosher, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. FREIGHT BLOCKADE BROKEN.

LEHIGH CARS ARE MOVING UNDER STRONG GUARD.

Preparations for Resuming Normal Traffic—A Slight Attempt to Wreck a Locomotive—Perishable Freight Now Received—Pinkerton Men on Guard at Jersey City Yards.

(Special to The Press.)

JERSEY CITY, Nov. 23.—From the appearance of things in the freightyard of the Lehigh Valley Railroad in this city this morning the company is in a fair way to keep its promise to put the line in running order by the end of the week. Pinkerton men are on guard in the yards, and traffic is brisk.

All of the passenger trains on the Lehigh Road went out on time this morning. Each one carried two special officers in the cab of the engine, and the engines which arrived were guarded in the same way. A special officer on one of the through trains, which arrived at 8:55, a quarter of an hour late, reported some trouble at Whittaker, a small station not far east from Scranton. While the engine was stopped there several strikers came up and attempted to disable it by injuring the crank pin. The officer and his assistant interfered, and had no difficulty in driving the mischief makers away.

FREIGHT TRAINS GUARDED AT ELIZABETH.

ELIZABETH, Nov. 23—The first eastbound freight-train of the Lehigh Valley Railroad over the Central Road since Sunday passed through Elizabeth at 9:25 a. m. today, hauled by engine No. 639. The train was made up at Phillipsburg last night. Eight men armed with clubs stood about the engine when the train stopped for signals. The caboose of the train was crowded with armed men, some of whom were uniformed. Armed men patrolled along the length of the train until it left the Elizabeth station. The cars appeared to be light. They were sealed. A crowd of men gathered at the station and jeered the crew as the train passed.

A Lehigh Valley train, west-bound, passed Elizabeth at 11:09 this morning. On the top of each car sat a man with a club. The train passed Bergen Point without molestation.

A Lehigh freight passed through Elizabeth, going west, at 7:30 o'clock last night, protected by armed men. Railroad men at Elizabeth say that the men now running the trains are chiefly officials of the road.

DISASTROUS ATTACK ON THE INSURGENTS OF THE BRAZILIAN REBELLION.

(Special to The Press.)

LONDON, Nov. 23—President Peixoto has telegraphed to the Brazilian minister in this city that the insurgent ironclad Javary had been sunk by the fire of one of the batteries at Niotheroy and that the crew perished.

NO CHANGE AT HONOLULU.

(Special to The Press)

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 22.—The steamer Alameda arrived here at 7:35 a. m. today from Honolulu. She brought no news of special importance. Up to the time of her departure there had been no attempt to restore Queen Lilioukalani.

Helping the Poor.

Three poverty cases were heard by Justices Moore and Nash in Fanwood yesterday. Ex-Judge W. R. Codington was present as township counsel. Overseer-of-the-Poor Hezekiah Hand presented the cases for consideration.

Congretta Jenimo's case, for want of an interpreter, was adjourned till next Monday morning, to be heard then in W. R. Codington's office.

In the case of William R. Roulstone, a deaf and blind man, temporary relief was ordered by the Justices. This is a particularly sad case. Roulstone stated that could he see a little bit he would be willing to work and knew he could get sufficient to supply his few wants.

The third case, that of John Lynch, who stated he had relatives in New York who would take care of him could he find them, resulted in the decision that sufficient help should be given him to find his relatives, and $10 was ordered for that purpose.

Lynch, who is an old sailor, has been in Muhlenberg Hospital, but has lately been supported by Robert Walpole.

The Judges stated their satisfaction with Overseer Hand's handling of the unfortunates and his evident desire to save the township all unnecessary expense.

POWDERLY IS ON TOP

Re-elected Master Workman of the K. of L.

The Hayes Faction, However, Gave Him a Sharp Brush—Hayes, if He Decides to Run To-day for His Old Office, Will Probably Be Defeated.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 23.—The anticipated test of strength between the Powderly and anti-Powderly factions in the general assembly of the knights of labor materialized at yesterday afternoon's session, and as was expected, Mr. Powderly came out on top, being re-elected General Master Workman by a vote of 26 to 20.

This, it is claimed, foreshadows the defeat of Powderly's enemy, Secretary-Treasurer Hayes, an election for whose office will be held to-day. It is not certain, however, that Hayes will be a candidate for re-election.

After adoption of the finance committee's report, exonerating Mr. Powderly, A. W. Wright and Devlin, a resolution was adopted declaring the general offices vacant.

Then came the election of Powderly. Congressman Davis, Mr. Powderly, T. B. McGuire and J. R. Sovereign, of Iowa, were placed in nomination. McGuire and Davis immediately withdrew.

Gave Powderly a Close Brush.

Sovereign, who was not present, was nominated by the Hayes people and his popularity was shown by the close brush he gave Powderly, he polling 19 votes and McGuire one.

The Powderly people claim that Mr. Sovereign is a close friend of Mr Powderly and that he would not have allowed the use of his name had he been present.

Mr. Powderly's victory gives him the privilege of naming eight candidates, four of whom are to be elected members of the general executive board. It is certain that he will press the re-election of Wright, Devlin and Davis of the present board. There is a possibility of T. B. McGuire being the fourth man.

If Mr. Hayes does not run for secretary-treasurer it is expected their candidate will be J. G Schonfarber of Baltimore. Charles Martin of Tiffin, O., will probably be the Powderly candidate.

There will be no opposition to the re-election of General Worthy Foreman Cavanaugh.

IT HITS THE MASSES.

Some Strong Remarks by a Well-Known Man.

EVIDENTLY HE KNOWS WELL WHAT HE IS TALKING ABOUT.

And We Only Trust That His Advice Will Be Followed.

The majority of people who are ailing do not call themselves exactly sick. They are run down in vitality of blood or their nerves have become weak or their stomach, bowels, liver or kidneys are out of order. They complain of being weak, nervous, tired, out of sorts; they do not eat or sleep well and wake mornings with dull head and languid feeling.

Such persons are not in reality sick, but they are in a fair way to become so if they neglect themselves. These feelings and symptoms show that the system is out of order and common sense should indicate that something must be done to prevent these conditions running into absolute disease.

A young man of our acquaintance, Mr. Louis Dahl, of Andover, Mass., speaks strongly upon this subject and speaks also out of his own experience.

"I had been troubled greatly," he said, "with pains through the chest and heart, causing constant distress and difficulty in breathing. After taking Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy for a short time, I commenced to steadily improve and now I am entirely cured. My nerves are completely under control, and the pains about my heart and difficulty of breathing have entirely left me. I consider myself entirely cured by Dr. Greene's Nervura. I recommend it highly to persons suffering from similar complaints."

LOUIS DAHL.

We can heartily endorse what Mr. Dahl says. If you are troubled in any way, use at once Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. It is purely vegetable and harmless and it will put you in good health, give you sound sleep and make you strong and vigorous again.

Physicians prescribe and recommend it in all such cases. It is the discovery of a famous physician, Dr. Greene, of 35 west 14th street, New York, who is undoubtedly the most successful specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases. He can be consulted in all cases without charge, personally or by letter.

NEITHER WON NOR LOST

Situation of the Lehigh Strike To-day.

More Freight Moving Than Yesterday, and the Strikers Still Successful in Getting New Men to Come Out—First Violence at Auburn—Both Sides Assert Confidence and Appear Cheerful.

WILKESBARRE, Nov. 24.—Of 80 non-union men who were employed and reported for duty at the company's office yesterday 71 of them have been induced by the strikers to return to their homes. Many of them left last night and others this morning. In spite of all this the officials say freight and coal will be moved as fast as they can get at it, and nothing but violence can prevent resumption of business, as there are too many applications for work coming in from all parts of the country.

A Jersey Central man says that they received two cars of slate and one car of cranberries billed for points along the Lehigh Valley railroad, but when they attempted to transfer the cars over the road they were informed that for the present the Valley would accept no freight from the Jersey Central, as it could not be handled in a proper manner.

Chairman John R. Rice was seen and asked about having a conference with some of the shippers of coal. He would not either affirm or deny the report. He replied, however, that he did know that there was a heavy influence being brought to bear on President Wilbur to have him call the grievance committee together for another conference.

Coxton seems now to be the seat of war, Superintendent Esser who has been there for several hours, says that while he was there 52 cars were moved east over the Mountain Cut-out branch with seven locomotives manned by non-union crews. There was no trouble or any signs of trouble.

While yesterday there were indications of a possibility of the strike being terminated within 24 or 36 hours, the firm stand taken by President Wilbur has rather made the men more determined, and the final issue of the strike and its discontinuance is difficult to outline.

The officials of the Wyoming division claim that in a short time there will be sufficient force to man the division which is acknowledged to be the most difficult one on the whole line on which to place new men.

The Lehigh Valley collieries are still idle and scarcely any coal is being moved, which is a hardship for the miners and laborers, thousands of whom are thus enforced to idleness.

Passenger trains are running, some on nearly schedule time, and there is more freight and coal moving than there was yesterday. This, of course, presents a better showing for the company.

On the other hand strikers have induced a number of new men to leave at different points, and there is fast growing a bond of friendship between the strikers and non-union men. If this can be kept up and gang after gang of the new men taken away from the company there is no denying that the road will have a hard time getting in shape without the old men.

ACTIVITY AT JERSEY CITY.

Claims, However, That the Strike is Ended, a Little Premature.

JERSEY CITY, Nov. 24.—The past 24 hours were the busiest the Lehigh Valley yards have seen since the strike was inaugurated, but the company's claim that the strike is ended seems a little premature at present.

Three trains, each made up of twenty-eight freight cars, were sent out to Easton, Buffalo and Chicago. All passenger trains went out on time, but those coming in were half an hour late, one an hour in fact, and only one freight train arrived. It consisted of twenty-five cars and came from Easton.

There was no trouble anywhere within the city limits. Captain Farrier and thirty-two men camped on the ground at 7 a. m., and were speedily reinforced by a detachment of state detectives. One of these detectives was posted on each freight car, making, with the captain, twenty-nine officers in addition to the conductor, fireman and train hands, so that the trains were amply protected.

Agent Rundis said he had not heard of a proposed settlement, and he did not believe it. He said that when President Wilbur's ultimatum expired at noon Wednesday without the men coming back it was determined that no strikers would be taken back. He said there were plenty of men to be had.

Expect Trouble at Perth Amboy.

PERTH AMBOY, N. J., Nov. 24.—James Donnelly, superintendent of the New Jersey division of the Lehigh Valley railroad, is here with 30 deputy sheriffs. An attempt will be made by the company to run their coal and freight trains to-day with new hands. In an interview Supt. Donnelly stated that he was prepared to listen to any grievance any employe might have but would not entertain a committee with a grievance from any organization. The company anticipate trouble when they attempt to move their freight and coal trains. No one is now allowed in the yard without a pass.

Encouragement From Central Men.

SOMERVILLE, N. J., Nov. 24.—At a meeting of the Central railroad brotherhood at Mauch Chunk, at which three hundred men attended, much was done toward making the men firm and in getting those who ran the Lehigh Valley trains to go out. They decided to switch the Valley trains until it was positive that nothing else could be done. It was said that no less than twenty men who ran yesterday over the Valley had been induced to-day to stop work. The public seems to be in sympathy with strikers here and are doing everything in their power to aid them. At Weisport none of the merchants will sell anything to the "scabs." A "scab" operator there, yesterday, was ordered to leave his boarding place at Mauch Chunk.

Both Sides Claim Advantage.

BUFFALO, Nov. 24.—"Trains will be moving on the Lehigh road the same as ever within three days." That is the prediction of the officials of the road.

They say they have already hired new men enough to man the entire road, and that when they are ready to open the service again the trains will start with a rush.

The strikers ridicule such statements as the above, and say the road is farther away from resuming traffic than it was the morning after the strike. They say there have been no desertions of any account; they are in good financial condition and can fight the road all winter, and that new men will be useless when the snow begins to make railroading a difficult matter.

Riot at Auburn.

AUBURN, N. Y., Nov. 24.—The belated train from Ithaca returned to Auburn late yesterday afternoon. As it was passing through the Lehigh yard it was assailed by a shower of stones. A deputy sheriff was hit on the arm.

The fireman jumped and fled, taking refuge in a near-by house.

The engineer was hit on the head by a large rock hurled with great force, cutting an ugly gash on the scalp and perhaps fracturing the skull. He was taken to a hotel for surgical treatment.

Hiring Men.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 24.—There is no change in the Lehigh Valley strike situation so far as Philadelphia is concerned. The labor leaders are as sanguine as ever, and the railroad officials reiterate the assertion that the road will soon be in operation. The hiring of non-union men by the Lehigh Valley was continued to-day. A motley crowd surrounded the recruiting office, 141 Swansick street, and one of the brotherhood officials, who was on the scene, declared that none of the applicants were at all fit for the service.

Joining in the Strike.

EASTON, Pa., Nov. 24.—The strikers are more jubilant to-day than they were 24 hours ago. This is because half a dozen old engineers on this division between here and Mauch Chunk have joined them, together with many passenger trainmen. They say they will have more of them soon. Some of the men who have been braking on coal trains will also quit. There is growing up a closer affilliation between the strikers and non-union men who worked side by side with each other before the strike.

LIVED IN A SMALL SHED.

Schilds Fed His Family on Cats and Dogs—He Will Work Now in Jail.

NEWTOWN, L. I., Nov. 24.—Bernhard Behling, of Maspeth, L. I., entered a complaint yesterday with the board of health of this place, stating that there was a family named Schilds living in the greatest squalor in a chicken-house at the rear of his residence. He also stated that he believed that the man fed his family on the flesh of dogs and cats. On one occasion Behling said a sick horse was killed and one of his hind legs was cut off by Schilds and taken home.

In the afternoon Town Clerk Robinson made an investigation and found a little shed 9 feet long, 6 feet wide and 6 feet high, in which lived a man, his wife and two children, age 3 and 5 years.

The woman and children were covered with rags.

There was no furniture of any description in the place.

Schilds was arrested, and his wife and children were given in charge of the overseer of the poor, who sent them all to a hospital in Brooklyn to be cared for.

Schilds admitted that he had eaten dogs, and also that he had not tried to obtain work.

He pleaded guilty and was sentenced to five months' hard labor in the Queens county jail.

WILD AND TURBULENT

Disgraceful Scenes in the Italian Chamber.

Giolitti's Impeachment Demanded by Excited Deputies — Repeated Cries of "Shame" and Hisses During the Reading of the Bank Scandal Report—A Crisis On.

ROME, Nov. 24.—There was wild scenes of disorder and excitement in the Italian chamber yesterday when the commission's report on the bank scandal was read. The report was more severe than had been expected upon the deputies, ministers and ex-ministers, blaming among others ex-Premier Crispi and others as prominent in Italian affairs.

Premier Giolitti was censured especially.

The reading of the report was repeatedly interrupted with cries of "shame," "you lie," and repeated hissing. When the part accusing Giolitti was read several deputies sprang to their feet and, pointing to Giolitti, shouted: "Shame upon you!" "Quit your seat!" "Leave the house!" "You are a disgrace!" "Resign!"

At the end of the reading of the report Matteo Imbriani sprang to a seat and, waving a paper at the President, shouted that it contained a motion to impeach the ministers. "We can discuss it to-morrow," said Zanardelli. "No, no! Now, to-night! We must discuss it now!" was shouted back from a hundred deputies. The tumult increased.

Men pressed forward towards the president and the ministers. After some hesitation Zanardelli suspended the sitting. As he and the ministers left the chamber the mob of deputies howled and cursed at them.

Disgraceful scenes followed the departure of the ministers. Rival deputies exchanged insults, and pushed and pulled each other over seats and desks. Acts of violence, unprecedented in the history of the chamber, were done on every side.

Eventually, at 10 o'clock, the electric light was turned off. The scuffing and vilifying in the chamber ended abruptly and the deputies hastened to the street.

Fredrico Colajanni, a socialist leader and the most determined mover for an investigation of the bank scandals, was received with wild enthusiasm by a tremendous mob which had gathered in the neighborhood.

In reply to the acclaims of the great crowd, he shouted from the steps:

"You are faint hearted! You have no convictions. If you had, you would put the torch to this parliamentary hovel!"

Premier Giolitti, immediately after leaving the chamber, reported the events of the day to King Humbert. A council of ministers will be held to-day. The resignation of the cabinet seems to be inevitable. The situation is, indeed, critical.

IN VERY BAD SHAPE.

American Casualty Company in the Hands of Receivers.

NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—At a meeting of a special committee which has been looking into the affairs of the American Casualty company this statement of the company's affairs was given by Yalder, Brooks & Walker, public accountants and auditors: "We regret to say that the company has not only lost the whole of the capital, $1,000,000, and its surplus of $500,000, but is further impaired to the extent of nearly $200,000.

Cash on Hand.

NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—A statement made late yesterday afternoon by Assistant State Superintendent of Insurance Shannon, is to the effect that the American casualty company has on deposit $500,000 cash at Albany, $200,000 cash deposited in Maryland and $50,000 in Virginia. This half million of cash was in safe hands and would be turned over to the authorized receivers. A receiver will be appointed to-day.

Liabilities in Boston.

BOSTON, Nov. 24.—It is stated that the liabilities in Boston of the American Casualty company will probably amount to $250,000. Several of the railroads have policies securing them against accident claims.

Receiver at Baltimore.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 23.—The Mercantile Trust & Deposit company, of Baltimore, and Edward Austen have been appointed receivers of the American casualy insurance company, and possession has been taken by them.

Postoffice Inspector for New England

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—Thomas J. Boynton, of Vermont, has been appointed postoffice inspector in charge at Boston. The division embraces the New England states. Mr. Boynton occupied the position to which he has just been appointed under the former Cleveland administration, but resigned early in Mr. Harrison's term.

Mrs. Halliday Again Causing Trouble.

MONTICELLO, N. Y., Nov. 24.—Mrs. Halliday the alleged murderess attempted to set fire to her cell yesterday afternoon. She was discovered in the act however, and taken to another cell. She refused to eat anything, and food was forced into her stomach by the prison physician with a pump

TWO JUMPED TO DEATH

Five Others Perish in a Fire at Detroit.

Terrible Scenes at the Burning of a Big Dry Goods Store—Employes Penned in on the Fifth Floor—Windows the Only Exit.

DETROIT, Nov. 24.—By the burning of the five story iron front brick building, Nos. 195 to 202 Jefferson avenue, occupied by Edson Moore & Co., wholesale dry goods, yesterday afternoon, seven employes lost their lives, a fireman was badly injured, and the monetary loss will reach in the neighborhood of $800,000.

The dead are:

James McKay.

Bradley A. Dunning.

Ed. Genther, entry clerk, single; 28 years old.

Edward N. Viot, order clerk, 144 Catherine street.

Pat. Markey, 33 years old, wife and three children.

Daniel A. Baker, clerk, 569 Clinton avenue.

Henry Rider, packer, 436 Theodore street.

The fire, started between the fourth and fifth floors at the rear of the building and spread with frightful rapidity.

Those who were first on the scene saw a frightful sight. The upper floors were a mass of flames. On the window sill of the fourth and fifth floor stood Bradley Dunning; two windows south of him stood James McKay.

"Don't jump; wait for the hook and ladder," shrieked the crowd.

Limp and Mangled.

But before the ladder could be raised the flames rolled to the window-ledge where Dunning stood. He bowed his head, grasped the window-ledge with his hands, and then dropped. The people watching him had just time to throw a bale of jute beneath him, and it was no sooner in place than Dunning struck it. He bounded up like a rubber ball and then fell to the sidewalk, limp and mangled. He died in the hospital.

The falling of James Mckay followed in a few minutes. When he appeared at the window he made no sign that he was staring death in the face.

Hurled Through the Air.

After a short hesitation he threw his feet out of the window and slid down until he was holding on with only one of his hands to the sill. He hung this way for several seconds. The blazing fire was bursting out through the window, when the terrified man gave up all hopes and slipped loose from his hold. He struck on the casement of the second window and partly turned over. This threw him so far out of the window that part of his body struck on the electric wires below, which partly turned him over again. He struck on the sidewalk within a few feet of the building. He was terribly mangled, but lived for a couple of hours after being removed to the hospital.

Sank Back in the Flames.

The awful spectacle of McKay's and Dunning's descent was hardly over when the spectators saw another man creeping toward the upper window nearest the corner. He was evidently on his hands and knees, blinded and suffocating in the dense smoke. He reached the sill, laid one arm out it and, as he endeavored to shield his face from the fierce heat with his hand, tried to drag himself to open air just beyond. He was to far spent. A sudden burst of flame closed around him and the horror-stricken beholders saw his head drop, his arm drag slowly back and his body sink from view in the flames within.

Meantime a general alarm had been turned in and nearly all the companies in the department responded.

The flames resisted the work of the firemen stubbornly and it was not until after the walls had fallen in that that they were finally subdued.

Theo. D. Weld's 90th Birthday.

HYDE PARK, Mass., Nov., 24.—Theodore D. Weld, one of the last of the anti-slavery agitators, spent his 90th birthday yesterday in an interesting way at his residence here. He received many callers and among them was a daughter of John Brown, the martyr. The sons of William Lloyd Garrison also called and there were many other out-of-town people and hosts of Hyde Parkers by whom he is held in the highest veneration.

One Crank Pronounced Sane.

NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—George A. Roeth the drunken crank who fired several shots into Delmonico's windows on Thursday of last week, has been pronounced sane by the Bellevue experts. He has been held in $1,000 for trial for carrying concealed weapons and doing malicious mischief.

May Open a Non-union Shop.

DANBURY, Conn., Nov., 24.—The situation here between the trades union and manufacturers is unchanged, secret conferences being in progress. It is probable that the factories will close to-morrow, discharge their employes and open Monday as non-union shops.

Death of Emily Ellsworth Ford.

NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—Emily Ellsworth Ford, the widow of the late Gordon S. Ford, died here yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Ford was the granddaughter of Noah Webster, the lexicographer, and was 68 years of age. She herself was an authoress of considerable ability.

Directum and Saladin Matched.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 24.—A match race, $5,000 to $2,500, has been arranged between the trotter Directum and the pacer Saladin, to take place November 27 at the Point Breeze track, the Philadelphia driving park association to add $2,000.

A Son of O'Donovan Rossa Dead.

NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—The son of O'Donovan Rossa, James Maxwell O'Donovan Rossa, aged 29 years, died at his father's home in Brooklyn last night.

LOSS OF THE JAVARY

She Was Mello's Second Best Warship.

Sunk By Peixoto's Battery at Nictheroy and All on Board Go Down. Her Propelling Gear Was Crippled and She Was Being Towed by a Tug—Believed That a Chance Shot Did the Work—Mello Hemmed In.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—The navy department is in receipt of a cipher cable message from Admiral Picking at Rio Janeiro conveying intelligence of the sinking of the insurgents' warships Javary by the battery of the fort at Nictheroy. The entire crew of the vessel went down with the ship. Nictheroy is a suburb of Rio.

The sinking occurred on the 22 inst.

The Javary, although previously disabled, has been of great service to Admiral Mello, because of her heavy armor and guns.

She was designed for a speed of 11.2 knots, but it is understood that, owing to the disablement of her machinery, it was necessary to tow her about the harbor with a tug.

Probably a Chance Shot.

In this way she was used effectively as a floating battery, but of course it was difficult for her to so manoeuvre as to escape severe punishment at times from the heavy Krupp guns in the loyal forts.

From the meagre statement of fact contained in the cablegram, it is supposed that her sinking was the result of an accidental shot, probably a shell, finding its way through a weak spot and bursting in the interior, rather than as the outcome of a severe and prolonged attack on her.

Minister Mendonca Speaks.

NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—Brazilian Minister Mendonca, who is now in this city, spoke as follows concerning the sinking of the monitor Javary.

"Its importance lies in the fact that the Javary was the second best vessel in the possession of Mello. It was next to the Aquidaban, and on it were the heaviest guns in the Brazilian navy. The sunken monitor was of 3,000 tons displacement. Her guns could carry nine miles distance. She has been doing most of the destruction in the city of Nictheroy, and well merits her fate. She had done damage to the extent of millions. Like the Aquidaban, she, too, had been crippled.

"By a dispatch to the London Times from Rio, dated on Nov. 17, it was stated that the heaviest gun at San Joan had been dismounted. It was also said that Mello's forces had captured Fort Lage.

"If the heaviest gun of Fortress San Joan has been dismantled it is evident that the smaller ones have been sufficient to send to the bottom a vessel second only the Aquidaban and carrying heavier guns than the latter.

"Fort Lage is a small barbette fortress standing on a rock in the harbor. It is a fortress of little importance, except on account of its central position.

Could Not Run the Forts.

"The good work done by San Joan shows that even the Aquidaban will not be safe should she attempt to leave Rio harbor by running between the forts. She would have to pass almost directly beneath Fort Santa Cruz and though her deck is a sloping one, like most modern men-of-war, it is not protected as are her sides. A terrific rain of projectiles could be hurled down upon her.

"Besides the guns in the fort's barbettes there are mortars and even dynamite could be brought into play. Though not a military expert, I do not think that, with the crippled condition of her machinery, she could successfully run the forts. She could pass all but the Santa Cruz, but would be sunk by the latter.

Brazil's Treasury Not Empty.

"In regard to the statement in a London dispatch that the financial position of Brazil is difficult, as the treasury is empty, I would say that the treasury cannot be easily emptied with $5,000,000 each month coming into it from the custom house from coffee and other exports, upon which there is a duty. The coffee exports have not been materially interfered with. Why, it has taken but about a week's revenue, say $1,500,000, of the custom house at Rio de Janeiro to pay for the entire fleet fitted out at New York.

"As to an intention of Mello to take a vote in regard to the restoration of a monarchy, he could have made an appeal to the country, without having gone into a rebellion, at the elections, to have been held Oct. 3, but which have been postponed.

America to Sail To-day.

The America will sail from this port for Brazil this evening. This afternoon I will be present at the ceremony of raising the Brazilian flag. It is untrue, as reported, that either the Nictheroy or America will sail for France instead of the south."

Pugilists Convicted.

LAWRENCE, Mass., Nov. 24.—George Dixon, the colored pugilist, and Pat Hennessey, a local boxer, were convicted of assault yesterday in the police court as a result of their bout last Monday, when Hennessey was knocked out in one round. Dixon was fined $100 or three months in jail and Hennessey $20 or one month. Bonds were given and an appeal taken.

Will Go Slow With Changes.

AMSTERDAM, N. Y., Nov. 24.—State Treasurer-elect Colvin to-day denied the statement that he has notified directly or indirectly the attaches of the treasury department that their services will be dispensed with Jan. 1. He says that he proposes to go slow in regard to making changes.

Princeton Chess Winners.

PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 24.—The winners in the prize handicap chess tournament, which was begun soon after the opening of the college, were announced last night. E. P. Roberts, '94, tied with L. R. Ewing, '94, for first place. The prizes are gold tiger pins.

A NEWSPAPER, NOT AN ORGAN.

(From The Westfield Standard.)

The Standard congratulates and applauds the Plainfield Press for its enterprise in getting out by daylight a post-election edition telling in manly terms of the defeat of its own candidates and dealing with facts without stint, partiality or reserve. This is being a newspaper, which is much better than being an "organ".

The Press would recommend for consideration by the Democratic City Convention tonight the candidacy J. A. Smith for Freeholder, J. M. Harper for Tax Collector, and C. P. Bull for School Trustee.

The Democrats of the Fourth Ward did themselves credit last night when they renominated Councilman Frazee for the office he has filled in so thoroughly a conscientious and satisfactory a manner, Mr. Frazee will be re-elected on his record.

School Board extravagance received its first public rebuke last night, when the Rev. Dr. Richards, the retiring member, was refused renomination by his own party. The people are extremely sensitive about that purchase of the Wadsworth property, which many deem a waste of public funds, and they are waiting patiently for the terms of other present members to expire.

What shall be said of a paper which because a number of workmen from infected Elizabeth are hired to work on a Plainfield real estate contract publishes as its leading article a sensational claim that the city is probably on the verge of a smallpox epidemic? The issue of The Evening News last night, with its picture of a death-head, and its glaring headline "Is Smallpox Here?" is the foulest blow ever aimed at Plainfield's public safety. In case of actual epidemic, a good newspaper's duty is to endeavor to keep the public mind free from alarm, yet here is a journal striving to create alarm when there is no cause whatever for it.

The turning-down of Freeholder Vanderbeek is attributed by Republicans to the fact that he, a man of possessions, held two offices, that he had been a Freeholder long enough to make good money from its income, and that he ought to give someone else a chance. Then what's the matter with giving someone else a chance at the office of Tax Collector? Mr. Johnson was orignally elected because he needed the income. Now that he too has accumulated profitable possession, why shouldn't some of the poorer and just as worthy men of the town have a show? What's sauce for Vanderbeek should be sauce for Johnson. Voters will remember this election day.

The Pythians Are Backing Him.

(From The Jersey Knight.)

The many Knights dispersed throughout the State will learn with pleasure that our popular Past Grand Chancellor, John Ulrich, is being strongly urged for the position of State Comptroller. The Republican party of New Jersey might look around the State for some time before it would find an abler young man to fill this important office. Should the party desire any proof of this statement they can find it in almost any city or town in this State where a Lodge of Knights of Pythias is established. As a thorough painstaking and competent officer he had no superior when he presided at the head of the Order of New Jersey. He is a man of exceptional executive ability, of varied experiences and a close student in all matters in which he has an interest. The thousands of Knights in New Jersey would hail his election with pleasure and pride.

The Man From Maine.

The Columbian Dramatic Association, of Elizabeth and New York, will produce in Music Hall, next Tuesday evening, the charming new comedy "The Man From Maine". The association established its reputation last season, and the amusement-loving public of Plainfield will be glad of this opportunity of enjoying a performance by these talented artists. The play is highly dramatic, and the cast exceptionally strong.

Game Held Up by the Strike.

Advices from Charles Burnet, Fred Hui, and Will Meeker, who went to Pike county, Pa., on a hunting expedition, Monday, report that the gunners have captured 20 partridges, 11 rabbits, and they are now on the trail of a bear. The box of game promised George W. Moore fell into the hands of the Lehigh Valley Railroad strikers and failed to materialize.

And They Call the Plainfield Prices "Cut"!

Consul Demarest writes from Brockville, Ont.: "I wish you could have been down to the market here this morning: Young hen turkeys, 8 cents a pound; dressed! Spring ducks, 25 cents each, dressed. Celery, 25 cents a dozen bunches."

He Was Unmarried, Reason Enough.

Arthur Stephens, a Plainville farmer, hanged himself yesterday in his own barn. No adequate reason is assigned for his act. He was well-to-do. His age was 68. He was unmarried.

The American Catarrh Cure

Is the result of twenty-six years' study and treatment of the disease. One bottle convinces the most skeptical. It is always ready for use, needing neither douche nor atomizer. It restores the hearing, cures the hawking cough and expectorating, removes the headache and nose bleeding, increases the appetite, produces sound sleep, invigorates the whole system and increases the vitality. Prepared only by W. B. Jones, M. D., No. 1336 South Eighth street, Philadelphia. For sale by I. W. Randolph, 21 West Front street. Price $1.

TWO CANDIDATES TURNED DOWN.

FREEHOLDER VANDERBEEK AND SCHOOL TRUSTEE RICHARDS FAIL OF RENOMINATION.

Republicans Complete Their Ticket—J. B. Dumont, E. N. Erickson and Wm. A. Westphal Nominated for Councilmen at Large—Dr. Jenkins for School Trustee—John Tier for Freeholder—Other Officials Renominated.

The Republican City Convention last night was very harmonious save over the nomination of School Trustee and Freeholder. The following officers were elected without opposition:

Chairman—Ernest R. Ackerman.
Secretary—Roger F. Murray.
Judge—C. B. Corwin.
Inspectors—E. E. Anthony, William Newcorn.

The ticket nominated is as follows:
For Councilmen at Large—John B. Dumont, E. N. Erickson, Wm. A. Westphal.
For Assessor—J. A. Hubbard.
For Collector—John Johnson.
For Treasurer—Alex. Titsworth.
For Commissioners of Appeal—Wm. C. Ayres, J. F. MacDonald.
For Chosen Freeholders—J. F. Hubbard, J. H. Tier, Sr.
For School Trustee—O. L. Jenkins.

The voting for most of these was unanimous, and in such cases Clerk Murray cast one ballot as the voice of the convention.

There were three candidates, however, for Freeholder, and only two were to be chosen. There was no discussion of the candidates. The vote was as follows:

J. Frank Hubbard	52
John H. Tier	34
A. Vanderbeek	21

The candidacy for School Trustee was earnestly discussed.

Rufus K. Case made a happy reference to its being a case of D. D. vs. M. D.—and "How happy we could be with either, were t'other dear Doctor away". He dwelt on Dr. Richards's special qualifications for Trustee and argued that he should be continued in the office.

John B. Dumont and A. L. Titsworth also spoke warmly in favor of Dr. Richards.

E. E. Anthony argued that Dr. Jenkins should be rewarded with the nomination, for having withdrawn manfully and voluntarily for the sake of another man in a previous convention; and Wm. Newcorn made a most telling appeal to the Fourth Warders to stand by Dr. Jenkins because it was for the Fourth ward candidate that he had previously stepped aside. He held that the ward owed Dr. Jenkins a debt of gratitude. Dr. Jenkins he held to be a man of zeal and fidelity, and one who would favor just economy in the administration of public funds. Furthermore, he held that there should be less sectarian representation on the School Board; it was better for the people at large that neither Jewish rabbi, Roman priest, nor Protestant clergyman, should be elected to guard such a cosmopolitan interest.

The reading of the ballots was close and exciting. The result:

Jenkins	31
Richards	24

On motion of J. W. Murray, the Chairman and the chairman of each ward delegation were authoried to fill vacancies.

They Can't Lose Smith.

In shooting for a shot gun and first money, yesterday, at Paterson, Charles Smith killed all his birds, tieing three others. The champion wing shot, J. E. Elliot, of Kansas City, Mo., being one of the four making a straight. The gun was sold at auction on the grounds after the shoot, bringing $28, which made the first money, including what the gun brought, $78. This was divided between the four. The entrance money was $7.50, 10 live birds each.

See These Sights Tomorrow Night.

"Spain, the Patron of Columbus", will be the topic of Mr. Ragan's delightful and concluding lecture of the season, in Music Hall tomorrow night. He will picture, among many other romantic scenes, the royal palace in old Madrid, the thrilling bull fight, the forest of marble, the cloisters, Gibraltar, the Moorish palaces, the Court of Lions, and the famed Alhambra. Ragan's Spain is a poet's dream.

Great Work by a Great Man.

The Visitor says that the Rev. Dr. J. L. Hurlbut is very busy this winter. In addition to his out of town engagements he expounds the Sunday-school lesson to three large classes of teachers, having taken Dr. Scheuffler's place in the Broadway Tabernacle, Ralph Wells's in the Presbyterian church on Fourth avenue and Twenty-second street, and a large class in Brooklyn.

Wrecked One Wheel.

An elderly man with his family was driving on Front street, yesterday afternoon. When near Somerset street, the rear wheels of the wagon caught in the car tracks and one of them was demolished. With the assistance of Chief Grant and Sergeant Kiely the party reached terra firma, and the damaged vehicle was taken to J. P. Homan's carriage shop for repairs.

Lord Ullin's Daughter a Hit.

A excellent programme is in preparation for the M. E. church sociable Dec. 15. The young people have been invited to repeat "Lord Ullin's Daughter" for the Dunellen chapter of the Epworth League, and a Flushing chapter is anxious to reproduce it. That's how fame spreads of the Plainfield Methodists.

—Snowflakes fell today in Plainfield.

I have not used all of one bottle yet. I suffered from catarrh for 12 years, experiencing the nauseating dropping in the throat peculiar to that disease, and lose bleed almost daily. I tried various remedies without benefit until last April, when I saw Ely's Cream Balm advertised in the Boston Budget. I procured a bottle, and since the first days use have had no more bleeding—the soreness is entirely gone.—D. G. Harrison, with the Boston Budget, formerly with Boston Journal.

WILLING WORKERS PROVIDE A TREAT

Social and Financial Success by Young People of Hope Chapel.

The Willing Workers of Hope chapel gave an entertainment last night which proved a success both financially and socially, as is always the case when these young ladies have anything in charge.

The entertainment opened with a song by a chorus of the entire talent of the evening. They sang "The Morning Invitation". "The Clothes-Pin Drill" was done to perfection by the following little girls dressed in white:

Laura Ayers, Laura V. Ayers, Carrie Hoffman, Maggie McComas, Fanny Cose, Retta Nash, Jennie Adleman and Edith Roseberry. The comic farce, "The Wrong Man", kept the people in an uproar of laughter. The parts were well impersonated by W. A. Leland, Alexander Muir, Bert Tallamy, and Miss Ada Nash, Mrs. Walter Mague and Miss Agnes Reid. The tableau, "Pocahontas and John Smith", with William A. Leland, Clarence Leland and Miss Lucy Westphal as characters, was a success; as was also "Over the Garden Wall", by Miss Agnes Reid and Alexander Muir; and the last tableau "Forgiven", by Miss Lena Cose and Margaret M. Page, was a most affective spectacle, enhanced as it was by the glare of red light.

Miss Florence Smith told "What they do at the Springs" and Harry Turner sang "The Girl I Left Behind Me", which was heartily encored. "Coming Through the Rye" was very well done by little Ray Roseberry and Anna Higgins.

The farce "Getting Ready", by Walter Mague, Wm. A. Leland, Mrs. Clarence Lelany, and Miss Fanny and Lucy Westphal, was very amusing. A dialogue "Genius of Christianity", with Miss Olive Wyckoff as Genius, Laura Wyckoff as the Indian, May Williams as another Indian, Minnie Wyman as a Hindoo, Edith Huff as a Chinese, Miss Eva Lance as a Mohammedan, and Miss Maude VanDyke as a Hebrew, was well rendered. After the other entertainment, refreshments were served in abundance. The young ladies composing the Willing Workers deserve great credit for the way they managed the entertainment. Following are the members: Mrs. C. A. Leland, Miss Ada Nash, Miss Margaret M. Page, Misses Fanny and Lucy Westphal and Agnes Reid.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Mrs. W. E. Hinkson is visting her parents in Princeton.

Miss Fanny Rafferty, of Park avenue, attended a whist party in Elizabeth last evening.

Moses Carney has purchased from J. S. Garretson the property corner of Central avenue and Third street.

J. S. Garretson and family are now domiciled in their new home, 502 Lee place, corner of Fifth street.

Mrs. Aaron Hoffman of Readington returned home today after a pleasant visit with Mr. and Mrs. Corra Ryno, 11 Grandview avenue.

George M. Bittenhouse is engaged in his semi-annual business trip through the dairy regions of the central west. He goes as far as Iowa.

Louis S. Darling, who is engaged in business in Detroit, Mich., is town for Thanksgiving. He is staying with his people in Netherwood.

Pupils of the Crescent Riding Academy and members of the Young Folks Riding Club enjoyed a cross-country ride yesterday afternoon. The ride will be repeated next Thursday, starting from the academy at 3.

Mrs. Julia Ward Howe, who was to have spoken in All Souls church next Tuesday, will be unable to be in Plainfield on that date. Her place will be taken by T. B. Elwell who will speak on "The Ethics of Shakespeare", with illustrations from the tragedies.

It Is Not a Congregational Affair.

Everybody will be welcome at the Green Tea given by the men of the Trinity Reformed church tonight. The only thing expected of those attending is a voluntary offering for the benefit of the new Sunday-school fund.

A VETERAN'S VERDICT.

The War is Over. A Well-known Soldier, Correspondent and Journalist Makes a Disclosure.

Indiana contributed her thousands of brave soldiers to the war, and no state bears a better record in that respect than it does. In literature it is rapidly acquiring an enviable place. In war and literature Solomon Yewell, well known as a writer, as "Sol." has won honorable position. During the late war he was a member of Co. M, 2d. N. Y. Cavalry and of the 13th Indiana Infantry Volunteers. Regarding an important circumstance he writes as follows:

"Several of us old veterans here are using Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, Heart Cure and Nerve and Liver Pills, all of them giving splendid satisfaction. In fact, we have never used remedies that compare with them. Of the Pills we must say they are the best combination of the qualities required in a preparation of their nature we have ever known. We have prone buy words of praise for Dr. Miles. They are the outgrowth of a new principle in medicine, and tone up the system wonderfully. We say to all, try these remedies."—Solomon Yewell, Marion, Ind., Dec. 5, 1892.

These remedies are sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee, or sent direct by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of prone. $1 per bottle, six bottles $5, express prepaid. They positively contain neither opiates nor dangerous drugs.

Sold by A. D. Hallenan, 206 North Avenue, opposite Station.

SHALL ELECTION BE CHANGED?

SUCH A REFORM RECOMMENDED BY CHAIRMAN MARTINE.

Democrats Make Excellent Ward Nominations—W. L. Gloak, C. P. Hall and V. L. Frazee the Councilmanic Nominees.

The Democratic primaries were held last night as follows:

FIRST WARD.

In the First Ward the officers and nominations were as follows:

Chairman—L. F. Wadsworth.
Judge—C. Kaerth.
For Councilman—W. L. Gloak.
For Justice of the Peace—L. F. Wadsworth.
For Constable—Thomas Callahan.
Delegates to City Convention—L. F. Wadsworth, C. Loughlin, W. L. Gloak, John Rafferty, John Angleman.

SECOND WARD.

The Second Ward primary was held in the Bryant school building last evening, and resulted as follows:

Chairman—J. E. Martine.
Secretary—L. G. Timpson.
Judge—James Morrison.
Inspector—L. M. Stover.
For Councilman—C. P. Hall.
For Justice of the Peace—George N. Cortwright.
For Constable—Wm. Callahan.
Delegates to the City Convention—W. K. McClure, DeWitt C. Ivins, W. W. Myers, J. B. Guttridge, L. G. Timpson.

Chairman Martine favored changing the time of holding the city election from December to April or thereabouts. He said the heat of one ballot had hardly died out when another one had to be engaged in. The delegates were authorized to bring the matter before the Convention tonight, with a view of having suitable resolutions adopted and presented to the Council, asking that body to apply to the Legislature for a change in the time of holding the charter elections.

The delegates were empowered to fill vacancies, and the meeting adjourned.

THIRD WARD.

Only four voters attended the Third Ward primary, which was officered by Chairman F. M. Bacon and Secretary William O'Connor.

A. Saltzman, W. O'Connor and George Mehl were elected convention delegates. No nominations were made.

FOURTH WARD.

The Fourth ward primary was called to order by Vincent L. Frazee. Joseph Sheppard was chosen chairman, T. A. McCarthy secretary, William Smith judge, and Peter Flynn and Peter Blimm inspectors.

The following delegates were chosen to represent the ward in the City Convention to nominate candidates for city offices: Ira Hulbert, Frank Cullen, T. A. McCarthy, P. J. Reville, E. J. Harding, V. L. Frazee, Nicholas Kelley, W. L. Bowman. The delegates were instructed to fill vacancies.

These nominations were made:

For Councilman—Vincent L. Frazee.
For Justice of the Peace—Levi Hetfield.
For Constable—Edward E. Vail.

A resolution was offered by V. L. Frazee that the delegates be instructed to confer with the delegates of the different wards of the city with the view of forming a permanent City Democratic organization and to report to the ward next Tuesday evening, November 28. The resolution prevailed. Mr. Frazee thanked the meeting for the honor bestowed on him, and assured them that if elected he would do his utmost for the welfare of the city of Plainfield and particularly for the Fourth ward. He recalled to them the strong opposition he had to contend with, he being the only Democrat in the Council, to ten Republicans; and stated that he always voted for the best interest of the workingman.

He reminded them of the struggle he made to establish the nine-hour day for the city employes, and spoke in very glowing terms of the part taken by Councilman Weber in trying to have the measure passed.

Mr. Frazee also told of how the other councilman tried to have the bill killed in the hand of the committe, and the struggle he had to have a vote taken on the bill by roll call, and how it stands on the record, two in favor of the bill and seven in opposition. He states that the man that is not in favor of nine hours a day for the poor man who gets such small pay for the labor performed, is not entitled to the working man's vote, and he hoped that his friends would stand by him on election day.

A motion prevailed to adjourn until next Tuesday evening at the same place, at 8.

The Jerry McAuley Mission.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Ballan, formerly with Dr. Parkhurst, in Mission work, now superintendent of the Jerry McAuley Cremorne Mission, will have with them two young converts and will hold services in the First Presbyterian church Tuesday evening, Nov. 28, at 7:45. All who attend, are assured of hearing an interesting talk of the great work now being done to reclaim fallen humanity. Several solos will be rendered during the evening.

Why Hen Roosts Have Been Depleted.

[New Market Correspondence of The Sabbath Recorder.]

Our pastor was treated to a "hen" party not long since. We had heard of hen parties before, but think this one must have been an original idea, as every family was expected to carry a live hen to stock the parson's poultry house.

PRESBYTERIAN SCOTTICISM.

Caledonian Sociable by the Rev. Herring's People.

The Scotch sociable given by the women of the First Presbyterian church in the Sunday-school room, last night, attracted a a large audience, who thoroughly enjoyed the excellent and novel programme prepared. It was an informal affair, and a general atmosphere of sociability prevailed.

The young people of the church took an important part in the entertainment, and provided all with amusing selections from the Scotch.

Mr. Lounsbury officiated, and introduced the various numbers in a very happy way.

Miss Josephine Petrie opened the programme with a piano solo, "Scotch Melodies", which was followed with a recitation by Harry Messerschmidt.

A piano duet entitled "Tam O'Shanter" was very well rendered by Olive Newell and Edith Huribut. A burlesque on "Young Lochinvar" was given and hugely enjoyed. Miss Jessie Mackellop read the selection, and the following young people acted the parts: The Misses Cave, Searing, Maggie Vermeule, Nora Williams, Lottie Messerschmidt, Helen Boice and Pansy Herring, and Messrs. Charles Hazeltine, John Petrie, Frank Flannery, G. Searing, Guernsy Nevins.

"Bonnie Dundee" was sung as a chorus, concluding part first.

After a few minutes of intermission, Willie Mackellop rendered an excellent violin solo of Scotch melodies, accompanied by Miss Remsen on the piano. "Cuddle Doon" was recited by Miss Jessie Mackellop in true Scotch fashion. "Comin' thro' the Rye" was an amusing sketch, given with the aid of a dark room and large white sheet, and a lamp behind it to represent the characters in shadow to the audience. Miss Remsen followed with a piano solo, "Bonnie Doon". "A Gude Cup o' Tea" was the title of a pretty Scotch song, rendered by Miss Pansy Herring, Miss Flora Petrie, John Petrie and Charles Hazeltine.

The programme concluded by all singing "Auld Lang Syne". Refreshments were served.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—In town next week—"The Man From Maine".

—Frazee still leads, and is selling Pillsbury's flour at cut prices.

—J. J. Sharp does excellent workmanship in wagon repairing, at 306 Liberty street.

—Plans are in preparation for another paper chase, to start from the Crescent Academy.

—The "S. A. C." of 30 Norwood avenue will give a dime entertainment Friday evening, Dec. 1.

—Better get up a 3 for $1 party for the trip to Spain tomorrow night. And do n't forget your fan.

—Frank Wolff, of Grandview avenue, has gone in business for himself at 249 Market street, Newark.

—The board walk leading from the First M. E. church building to the Vincent chapel is being replaced with flag-stones.

—The roadbed in front of Bethel chapel on East Fifth street is in a bad condition. After a rain, deep pools of water stand there.

—"The Oath", a stage production of sensational realism, was vigorously applauded by a gallery house in Music Hall last night.

—The ceiling and side walls in the audience room of the Bryant school building are badly discolored, evidently because of a leakage in the roof.

—Winfield Scott Post, No. 73, G. A. R., will meet December 11 and nominate officers for the ensuing year. The election is to take place December 25.

—Do n't think for one moment that the hams that MacDonald sells for 11½ cents are picnic hams, for they are not. They are genuine hams. Go and examine them.

—Shall it be home or Spain tomorrow night? Home you have always. Spain is conveniently near only this once—and it's full of wonders and delight. Be sure to take a fan.

—The little son of Charles Hand fell from a stoop near the Riding Academy yesterday afternoon and was bruised. In consequence a rumor was started that there had been a serious accident.

—Seats for Spain in blocks of 3, are sold by Leggett. You can get a single ticket for 50 cents, but you 'd better get two others to join in the trip and save money. 3 for $1, you know. Be sure to take a fan.

—The wintry blasts, fair maiden, cannot rob your hands of their softness, nor mar the velvet of your cheek, as long as Leggett's demulcent cream of witch hazel is your safeguard. And it 's just as good for a man!

—Nothing more delightful is in store for Plainfield amusement-lovers this season than the trip to Spain to start from Music Hall at 8 tomorrow night, under H. H. Ragan's guidance. Be sure to take a fan.

—Nearly 500 premium cards were given out last Saturday at J. F. MacDonald's, and it is no wonder they are going so rapidly, for the sample crayons he has in his store will make any one want one especially since it does not cost anything.

PIERCE Guarantees a CURE.

In all Bronchial, Throat and Lung troubles Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery beings relief and a permanent cure. The way is open to the germs of Consumption if you suffer from Asthma, Bronchitis or Catarrh. Begin early with "Discovery" and a cure is certain.

MRS. SARAH M. KYKER.

English, Cocke Co., Tenn.
DR. R. V. PIERCE:
Dear Sir—My wife was afflicted with asthma for twenty years; as she grew older she grew worse. Her case was treated by three eminent doctors, but all failed; they told me there was no cure for it. Discouraged as I was, I resolved to try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery; she used five bottles and two vials of your "Pleasant Pellets," which has made a permanent cure. She has gained twenty pounds in weight since the cure was effected.

METHODISTS PREPARE A FEAST.

"PAST AND PRESENT SUPPER" PLANNED FOR VINCENT CHAPEL.

The Profits Will Be Wisely Expended for Needs of Church and Sunday-School—The Working Forces of the Entertainment Well Organized.

Vincent chapel will be the scene next Tuesday evening of an entertainment bearing the odd title "Past and Present Supper". It will be under the direction of the Ladies Aid Society of the First M. E. church, and the funds raised will be applied towards a carpet and piano for the Sunday-school. In connection with the supper, cake, candy and lemonade will be on sale. The candy is all to be home-made, by such deft fingers as those of Mrs. Lyman, Miss Pangborn, Miss Morrison, Miss Mary E. Brown, Miss Teale, Miss M. Barnes, Mrs. Joy, Miss Douglas, Mrs. P. M. Smith and Mrs. Collen S. Pond. The lemonade will be poured by Mrs. Clark, Miss Minnie French and Miss Whitney. Cakes will be distributed, for a consideration, by Mrs. J. W. Jackson, Mrs. H. A. McGee, Mrs. G. Evans, Mrs. Rogers, Mrs. Howell, Miss Chandler and Miss Barnes. The supper will of course be the main feature of the evening, and it is sure to be a success, under the guidance of the following workers: Mrs. Pike, Mrs. Packer, Mrs. Salmon Baker, Mrs. Lyons, Mrs. Love, Mrs. Humble, Mrs. Horne, Mrs. Peck, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. L. M. French, Mrs. Lucky, Mrs. Hyde, Miss S. Jackson and Miss Sharp.

The Ladies Aid Society is also preparing for a dime sociable Dec. 8. A committee of ten will supply refreshments.

A CREDIT TO THE TOWN.

Terrill & Cole Move Into the New Cole Building and Engage in a New Venture.

A handsome addition to Plainfield's business blocks is the new building just completed by Geo. W. Cole, owner and now occupied by the firm of Terrill & Cole, funeral directors, formerly of 128 East Front street.

The building, situated at 200-204 West Second street, adjoining the house of Engine Company No. 1 and Trinity Reformed church is a three-story brick structure trimmed with gray stone and having a two-story addition in the rear. The first story is occupied by two stores having heavy plate-glass show windows and convenient entrances.

The east store is used by Terrill & Cole for a show room and office, and is equipped for the undertaking business in the most approved modern style. Back of these rooms is the livery stable and office. A large elevator lifts the coaches and carriages of the firm to the second floor. The stable is situated on the ground floor, with easy entrance on Exchange alley, and contains stalls for seventeen horses. The livery department is a new venture of the firm, and an elegant new outfit has been provided.

Two five-room flats are in each of the upper floors. The rooms are handsomely finished, and have all the modern improvements. One is being furnished for George Cole and his family. Both gas and electric fixtures are in use throughout the premises.

The designer of the building is William H. Clum, architect. The carpenters were Pierson & Gayle, the mason was Charles Burnett, and the plumbing by I. L McVey.

The building is a great improvement to real estate of the neighborhood, driving out as it did the old frame tenement and store.

BAPTIST CONUNDRUMS.

Amusing Questions and Answers Circulated at a Church Social.

A "Conundrum Social" was given by the Christian Endeavor society of the First Baptist church last evening, and a large audience was present to solve its mysteries. As each entered, he was handed a check, and each was supposed to find the duplicate which existed for it. One had a question written on it, the duplicate held the answer. The results were very amusing.

During the evening an excellent programme of music was rendered, consisting of vocal solos by Miss May Grant, a vocal duet by Will Runyon and George Stevens, also vocal solos by Will Runyon. Wm. MacClymont was the accompanist. Refreshments were served at the conclusion of the programme.

Mr. Crane's Last Address.

Mr. Crane's last address to men will be given in the Y. M. C. A. rooms this evening. Every man in Plainfield should hear this closing discourse. Mr. Crane is an evangelist of rare qualities, and his addresses appeal to a man's reason, rather than his emotions. His illustrations are well chosen and striking.

Thanksgiving Sermon by Dr. Lewis.

The Congregational, Park Avenue Baptist, Seventh-Day Baptist and Crescent Avenue Presbyterian churches will unite in a union Thanksgiving service in the Crescent Avenue church at 11 a. m. Thanksgiving Day. The Rev. Dr. A. H. Lewis will preach the sermon.

No School in the Borough Next Week.

The North Plainfield public school will be closed all next week. The Teachers Institute of Somerset county, in Somerville, Nov. 27, 28 and 29, is to be attended by the corps of instructors, and Thanksgiving Day comes the 30th.

PROGRESSIVE EUCHRE DOVE PARTY.

Delightful Entertainment Conducted by a Charming Hostess.

One of the pleasantest events of the opening was a "Progressive Euchre Dove Party," given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Eugene Gross of West Seventh street, in honor of her niece Miss Alice Crowther of Cincinnati, whose visit to the last is drawing to a close.

Mrs. Gross was assisted in entertaining Miss Slevin of Franklin place, and the efforts of both hostesses in giving pleasure were more than successful.

The game enjoyed was "blind euchre," a variation of the old stand-by which especially invokes the aid of the blind goddess. To the delight of all present the very handsome first prize was won by the recipient of the party, Miss Crowther, whose golden stars were rewarded by a silver jewel stand. The second prize, a beautiful silver-cornered pocket-book, was won by Miss Honegar.

A delicious repast, followed by music closed an afternoon which everyone voted one of the pleasantest possible.

The guests were:

Miss Alice Crowther, of Cincinnati, the Misses Holly, the Misses Miller of Park avenue, Miss Annie Slevin, Miss May Dumont, Miss Negley, the Misses Lord, Miss Annie Boone, Miss Florence Hopegar, Miss Grace Langdon, Miss Marion Taggart, Mrs. James L. Slevin and Mrs. Conway of Ridgewood, N. J.

Birthday Dance at Dunellen.

Twenty-two young people had a merry-making at the home of John Powers, near Dunellen, Wednesday night, in celebration of the birthday anniversary of his daughter Miss Nellie. Music, games and refreshments made fleet the hours, and everyone was surprised how quickly the time came for regretful good-byes. Besides the favorite hostess, the following enjoyed the good things:

Miss May Day, Miss Sarah Sharkey, Miss Nellie Casey, Miss Lizzie Flanagan, Miss Kittie Flanagan; Miss Lizzie Casey, Miss Mamie Powers, Miss Annie Powers, Miss Kittie Flynn, James McLean, Bert Tallamy, Werner Pierson, Ivan Pierson, Daniel Force, Daniel Guinee, Willie Schaefer, Harry Milligan, Compton Vail, Arthur Sherman, Samuel Goff, Fred Sutton.

The Lyceum in the League.

The Diocesan Bowling League of Newark held a meeting in Newark last night to arrange a schedule of the games to be bowled. The C. Y. M. L. of this city, of which J. J. Lynch is captain, was represented. The following is the schedule of games to be bowled between the C. Y. M. L. and the various teams:

Dec. 12, C. Y. M. L. and St. Joseph Lyceum of Jersey City, at Plainfield.
Dec. 19, C. Y. M. L. and Institutes of Newark, at Newark.
Dec. 20, C. Y. M. L. and Institutes of Newark, at Plainfield.
Dec. 22, C. Y. M. L. and T. A. B. of Newark, 2 games, at Plainfield.
Jan. 5, C. Y. M. L. and St. Paul of Jersey City, at Jersey City.
Jan. 8, C. Y. M. L. and St. Joseph Lyceum of Jersey City at Jersey City.
Jan. 16, C. Y. M. L. and St. Paul of Jersey City, at Plainfield.

Capt. King Writes Again.

The complete novel in the December number of Lippincott's is "Sergeant Croesus", by Captain Charles King. It is one of his most interesting tales of army life and Indian fighting in the wild West, and makes a new departure in having a private and a foreigner for its hero.

The tenth and last of Lippincott's Notable Stories, "When Hester Came", will be found to be one of the very best, as it is the longest, of the series. It is by an entirely new and very promising writer, Mrs. Bride Neill Taylor, of Texas.

There are many other attractive features. Lippincott's leads.

Sweet Singers Entertained.

The men of Holy Cross church choir were the guests of the Rev. T. Logan Murphy and Mrs. Murphy at the Rectory, Washington avenue, last evening, and a delightful time was divided between games, music and general good humor. The guests were Messrs. George Westervelt, Arthur Horton, Edward Smith, Geo. Taggart, Max Honeyman, Edward Clark, Charles Western, Edward Mackey and Choirmaster Frederick Cheeswright.

Big Shipment From Pond's.

The Pond Machine Tool Company yesterday shipped to the Midville Steel Works of Philadelphia, one lathe bed weighing twenty tons and two lead screws for lathe five inches in diameter and seventy-two feet long. These are the largest ever built in this country. A neat piece of mechanicism was arranged on the cars by the workmen of this company for carrying this heavy load around curves on its destination.

Field's Assignment Set Aside.

Justice Dykman yesterday handed down a decision at White Plains setting aside the assignment made by Edward M. Field of the firm of Field, Lindley, Wiechers & Co. He considers the assignment fraudulently made.

No Question About It.
As Sam'l of Posen says, "All we want is a chance." Give us that and we will show you goods and prices that will make you customers of ours as long as you need dry goods.
For Proof of It,
Are you one of the lucky ones that don't have to buy underwear this winter? If you're not, just try us; we can save you money. Ladies' vests 50c kind for 38c; men's col. white shirts and drawers 50c kind for 38c; men's camels hair shirts and drawers $1 kind for 68c; child's natural wool shirts and drawers 15c up; child's white 10c. 15c up.
We will offer this week a 5-hook Foster lacing kid, regular $1 quality for 72c.
Hear about the big silk handkerchief sale in New York? We were there and can sell children's silk handkerchiefs for 10c.
An immense assortment of ladies' and children's coats to select from, and we want to sell them bad. Late season has made a big difference in the price of them.
Have you one of our purchasing cards that entitles you to a book rack, cutting table, a music rack? If not just ask for one when you are in. The articles are worth having and they cost you nothing.
You know we have everything you want in housefurnishing goods of all kinds—crockery, tinware, glassware, etc., at the right prices.
Our Shoe Business Grows.

Ahead of a Year Ago.
Nothwithstanding the great cry of "Hard Times," our trade up to the present date is considerably in excess of last year.
The result we believe of FAIR DEALING—giving the very best goods possible for the least money. In other words, REAL MERIT.
The people of Plainfield have found out that in the filling of a memorandum of a dozen or more articles in our lines, they can do just as well at EDSALL'S in price, quality, style and variety as in any one store in New York.
Patrons often remark in our store: "Well, if I can't get it here, there is no use of my looking for it in Plainfield, for I will have hard work to find it in New York."
We have now so many good things to advertise that it is impossible to mention them in our space, and urge buyers to call at our store and see for themselves the many new things we offer.
EDSALL'S
-:- LIKE HOT CAKES! -:-
On a frosty morning, that's the way those CORK SOLE BOOTS are going: They are not the old fashion clumsy boot, but just as NEAT AS THE LIGHTEST SUMMER BOOT. Just the thing for DAMP or COLD days; when you do not want to wear rubbers.
Ladies HEAVY SOLE CALFSKIN BLUCHER BALS, $3 and $4 a pair. Ladies Over Gaiters, 300 a pair and up.
DOANE & EDSALL,
The largest Boot and Shoe House in Central New Jersey.
WISE WOMAN
Is she who fortifies herself against Jack Frost with that exquisite new formula,
Demulcent Cream of Witch Hazel.
It's the daintiest and most soothing toilet preparation on the market for chaps and roughness.
LEGGETT makes and sells it—no one but Park avenue and Front street. LEGGETT.
Feel of her skin—how Smooth, Soft and Sweet. Demulcent Did It.
Just as good for a man!
"Seeing is Believing."

Simple, Beautiful, Good—
these words mean much, but to see "The Rochester" will impress the truth more forcibly. Its marvelous light is purer and brighter than gas light, softer than electric light, and more cheerful than either. The choicest bric-a-brac in the palace of a Vanderbilt reveals nothing finer. We have 2,700 artistic varieties, in brass, bronze, silver and black iron.
Ladies often like to go down among the large wholesale houses and buy of first hands. They will find at our salesrooms (the largest in the world) a rare collection of art in lamps. A catalogue to send you if you cannot come.

ORDERED NEW COURT ROBES.

Hawaii's Ex-Queen Expected to be Restored Last Tuesday.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 24.—According to a letter received from a prominent resident in Honolulu yesterday by the steamer Alameda, which brought news that there was no change in the situation in Hawaii and that Minister Willis had made no move that would lead to his intentions, the queen expected to be restored on the 21st inst.

Orders Court Robes.

The correspondent states that the queen has given orders for full train gowns for the ladies of her court and a magnificent purple robe for herself. These gowns are to be used at the restoration which the letter states is to take place next Tuesday. (Nov. 21).

"New uniforms," the letter goes on to say, "have been made for the queen's guards and everything is ready for an imposing display when the provisional government has to step down and out.

Military Companies Astir.

"The military companies continue to drill and the city is on a war footing.

"On the men-of-war, liberty has been stopped and the indications are that something will drop in a few days. Admiral Irwin is ready to act at a moment's notice and judging from what we have seen of him there will be no 'monkeying' when he makes a move.

"If the United States has determined to restore the queen the provisional government will be powerless to prevent. Everybody is in a state of suspense and all we can do is to await developments."

Royalists Boastful.

The United Press correspondent at Honolulu writing under date of the 16th inst. says: Three days ago the ex queen made a brief call upon the American minister merely to pay her respects as Mr. Willis subsequently stated. Up to this time Mr. Willis has not returned her visit. On the same day a committee of the American league tendered a reception to Minister Willis at which he delivered an address in diplomatic but agreeable and encouraging terms. A phrase implying that his action was limited by specific instructions was construed by royalists adherents as meaning that he had positive orders to restore the queen and the royalists appeared on the streets in a more boastful and aggressive mood.

NEW TARIFF BILL.

Practical Agreement, But Nothing Conclusive in Any Case Yet.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—The Democratic members of the ways and means committee are making rapid progress on the new tariff bill. They have devoted ten hours a day during the current week to a consideration of the measure and it is said to-day that their labors are well-nigh completed.

While the greatest secrecy is maintained regarding the details of the committee's work, enough is known to warrant the statement that every feature of the bill has been informally discussed; that a number of the schedules have been modified in accordance with the party pledges to reduce the burden of taxation as low as possible, but that nothing conclusive has yet been accomplished in any case.

In other words, while a practical agreement has been reached regarding a number of important schedules even these are liable to change until all the different parts have been carefully revised and so adjusted as to make a complete and well rounded bill.

Rev. Dr. Gaston Arrested.

NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—Rev. Dr. Gaston, colored, the duly accredited agent of the president of Liberia in the work of assisting American negroes to emigrate from this country to the republic of Liberia, on the west coast of Africa, was arrested last evening on a telegram from Atlanta, Ga., on the charge of grand larceny. The charge, it is thought, is flimsy and will not amount to anything.

Horses Wreck an Entire Train.

ELMIRA, N. Y., Nov. 24.—Elmira, Cortland and Northern train No. 4, struck and killed two horses about two miles from this city last evening, and the whole train, consisting of engine, baggage car, smoker and coach were derailed. The cars were well filled with passengers but not a single one was hurt.

Ellison is Now Known as Convict 807.

SING SING, N. Y., Nov. 24.—Frank Ellison arrived at the prison late yesterday afternoon in charge of Deputy Sheriff Burke. He was taken to the clerk's office and his pedigree taken. Afterward he donned his prison garb and was assigned to the "Idle Company" for the present. He will occupy cell 807.

Mill Owner Assigns.

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., Nov. 24.—William Whitaker, proprietor of the Warbukton mills, Westbrookville, Sullivan county, has assigned to John F. Bradner, of Middletown. Nominal assets, $14,630; actual assets, $7,859; liabilities, $7,040.45.

Scoffs at the Report.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—The published story that after a recent cabinet meeting President Cleveland severely lectured Secretary Hoke Smith, is scoffed at by Assistan Secretary of the Interior Reynolds.

A Mother's Letter:—

"Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"Last winter I did not think my little ones would have a mother long. I suffered terribly with female troubles.

"I could keep nothing on my stomach, and got so 'poor' my friends hardly knew me. I suffered with severe headaches, dizziness, faintness, backache, and 'the blues.'

"Thanks to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I am now as fat as ever, and have no female troubles.

"If you use my letter I hope it may be the means of saving some other poor mother's life as it did mine."—Mrs. Ella Van Buren, Brazil, Ind.

COOPER'S FLORAL DENTINE.

SO popular with the Ladies for rendering their teeth pearly white. With the gentlemen for cleansing their teeth and perfuming the breath. It removes all traces of tobacco smoke. Is perfectly harmless and delicious to the taste. Sent by mail for 25c. At all dealers. Send 2c. stamp for sample to

F. COOPER & HARDENBURGH, Chemists, Kingston, N. Y.

It cures Colds, Coughs, Sore Throat, Croup, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis and Asthma. A certain cure for Consumption in first stages, and a sure relief in advanced stages. Use at once. You will see the excellent effect after taking the first dose. Sold by dealers everywhere. Large bottles 50 cents and $1.00.

COTTO-COTTO-COTTO-LENE.

Notice the name—COTTOLENE. Not Vegetable-lene, nor Animal-lene, nor Mineral-lene, nor any other "lene" but COTTOLENE.

COTTOLENE

Is the new vegetable shortening, recognized as far superior to lard for every cooking use. The other "lenes," and "ets," and "oles," are imitations—made to sell on the merits of COTTOLENE, and to be "worked off" by sleight of hand, or the "just as good" game.

If you want good cooking and good health, get COTTOLENE—it's the only 'lene' worth having.

Sold in 3 and 5 pound pails.

THE STRUGGLE GOES ON

No Break in the Lehigh Strike Yet.

The Men Apparently Not at All Disheartened at the Success of the Company in Moving Freight—Little Change Since Yesterday.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 25. — Passenger trains running, with few exceptions on schedule time, over the entire Lehigh Valley system, and freight and coal moving in greater volume than yesterday, many more applicants for positions than can be given places—such is the roseate hue placed on the strike situation by the Lehigh officials to-day.

On the other hand, the strikers admit that passenger trains are running, and that probably more freight is being moved to-day than yesterday, but, they assert that this does not indicate by any means that the cause of the men is lost or that the strike has been a failure. They say, and this is truthful, that they gave little attention to the passenger service, but concentrated their efforts to the freight and coal business, the "bread and butter" of the road as one man termed it. While it is true that freight and coal is being moved, this is accomplished only with the greatest difficulty and expense and not at all in a satisfactory manner, the strikers assert. They also claim that the new men are damaging the road's property, endangering life in many instances and in many cases are only induced to remain by extravagant promises.

Prospects of a Long Struggle.

From a disinterested point of view it looks as if the road had the best of the fight to-day, but there are rumors in the air of extending the strike to other roads if necessary, so the outcome is still a question. Evidently there is prospect of a long and bitter struggle unless a compromise is reached.

Rumors of arbitration are occasionally heard and it would not be surprising to some if this plan was adopted, although officials of the road declare that there is nothing to arbitrate, and that they know the strikers no more, and will not again deal with them except as new men.

Wilbur Retreats.

Mr. Wilbur, in an interview, said that he was pleased with the situation. "We do not want to convey any impression that we are assuming a high and haughty attitude. Our position being that within the lines of bulletins published, we are, or you may say I am, ready to see anybody that comes to us." This mild statement shows that Mr. Wilbur has retreated from his former position, when he said: "We will not see anybody, neither committee nor employes, until we are again in possession of our property." Individually Mr. Wilbur remarked that he had been correctly quoted.

At Bethlehem the company has begun moving coal trains from the mines to Packerton. The engineer of the local shifter struck last night. He had been doing good service.

Reports from Mauch Chunk say that the several coal trains this morning out of Coxton and Weatherly yards, off the Mahoney division, that passed through there, were all manned by new men. Two freights went through, one with an old crew. The strikers are as firm as ever. Meetings were held at Lehighton and Weatherly. Only about 50 out of 200 men at Weatherly are on strike.

Bitter Feeling at Wilkesbarre.

At Wilkesbarre the situation is unchanged. Chairman Youngson, who is still there, said last night that he very much regrets that the hopes they cherished of an early adjustment of the difficulties had about vanished. It looked like a long fight, but they are prepared for it. The men who are out can be seen in groups on all corners of the city. They appear to be more bitter against the officials than any day since they were ordered out. They are firm in the matter, and it now looks as though the strike will be a long and continued one.

The board of trade met last night and after discussing the strike passed the following resolutions:

Resolved, that while we deeply deplore the existing state of affairs between the Lehigh Valley railroad company and its employes we do not see that at this present time that any action on our part as a board would be of any avail in the settlement of these difficulties.

Situation at Easton.

At Easton this morning the company reports that it has put half a dozen new crews at work since yesterday; that it has moved freight at all points on the Lehigh and on the New Jersey divisions, and that the trains are heavy and are making good time. The new men are becoming familiar with the road and this greatly assists in making the runs. More coal has been brought down to-day than yesterday and more freight sent west.

The men on the other hand claim that the new men are not doing their work properly and that they have already burned several of the company's best engines.

Sayre the Pivotal Point.

There is no doubt that Sayre is the pivotal point in the strike. All the general officers of the road are assembling there and preparing for a determined fight. Over 700 men are out on strike there, and 310 new men have been brought in there to take their place. The most perfect order prevails and all is quiet there. Five freight trains were made up and sent out this morning. Nearly all these trains were manned entirely by new hands.

The keepers of boarding houses in Sayre have refused to receive the new men and the company is caring for them under difficulties. Some of the strikers have threatened to boycott merchants or others who threaten to do anything, even for profit, to benefit the condition of the "scabs."

Quiet at Auburn.

Nothing startling has occurred at the Lehigh yards at Auburn since last report. The three trains sent out this morning are proceeding toward their destinations without trouble. Return trains are expected here soon after 3 o'clock. An attempt will be made to move freight to-day.

Caused a Wreck, Then Deserted.

At Sugar notch a Lehigh Valley engine ran into a coal train at the Jersey Central crossing, mistaking the signals of the latter road. The Lehigh Valley crew deserted the engine. No person was hurt.

At Perth Amboy the strikers have not interfered with the new men in their work, but have attempted to intimidate the boarding house keepers into refusing them board and lodging. A greater portion of the men are housed at the company's bunk-house and Hind's boarding house, the latter property also belonging to the company. The 50 deputies have little to do.

At Jersey City freight is being sent out with an armed guard on every train. Only one freight train arrived this morning. Passenger trains were on time up to noon.

Wilbur Will Retire.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 25.—At the next annual meeting of the stockholders of the Lehigh Valley railroad company, which will be held in this city Jan. 16, 1894, Elisha P. Wilbur will decline a renomination to the presidency, if indeed, he does not resign before that time. This can be authoritatively stated. The present labor troubles, it can also be stated, are in no sense connected with Mr. Wilbur's intentions, but ill health is the supposed cause.

BIG MINE STRIKE THREATENED.

All Depends on the Action of the Convention at Pittsburg Next Week.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 25.—The strike of the railroad coal miners of two years ago is likely to be repeated. Several hundred men are out now, and unless the district convention called for next Wednesday, in this city, orders otherwise, they will stay out.

Work will cease in dozens of mines today and the number of idle men will reach nearly 10,000. No more work will be done at any of the mines until after the convention next Wednesday.

The operators have notified the miners that, commencing to-day, the price for mining will be sixty cents a ton, a reduction of nineteen cents. The workmen regard this cut as excessive, as there has been no change in the selling price of coal.

The convention next Wednesday will decide upon a price to be maintained throughout the Pittsburg district, by a strike if necessary.

A Jury at Last to Try Coughlin.

CHICAGO, Nov. 25.—The twelve men necessary to constitute the jury for the trial of Daniel Coughlin, on the charge of aiding in the murder of Dr. Patrick Cronin, were secured yesterday afternoon. Two of them are street car conductors, two clerks and there is a brakeman, a tailor, an inventor, bookkeeper, clothing cutter, furniture dealer, machinist, supply agent and a cigar maker included in the make-up. The court adjourned until Monday when the taking of evidence will begin.

May Look, But Not Participate.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—Lieut. Carden, of the revenue marine service, who, it was reported, had vainly applied for leave of absence in order to serve in the new Brazilian navy, has been ordered to duty on the revenue cutter Grant, now at New York under orders to proceed to Portland, Oregon, by way of Cape Horn. So the lieutenant will have an opportunity to look at the struggle also as he goes around, although he may not participate.

500 Hands to Be Laid On.

ALBANY, Nov. 25.—Capitol Commissioner Perry will to-day lay off 500 of the 1186 men employed in the construction department of the capitol. He says this is necessitated on account of the appropriation running low.

Earnings of the West Shore Railroad.

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—The gross earnings of the New York, Ontario & Western road for the third week of November were $65,728, an increase of $3,487.

OUTLOOK OF BUSINESS

Symptoms of a Revival in Certain Lines.

Cold Weather Has a Stimulating Effect in Many Quarters Which Promises to Mark the Opening of the New Year—Review of the Week.

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—A feature of the business situation for the week just closing, as noted by Bradstreet from a summary of private telegrams, has been the stimulus to sales of seasonable staples by colder weather at Chicago, Kansas City, Omaha, Milwaukee, Minneapolis, Duluth and St. Paul, at all of which centres winter clothing, flannels, shoes, hats, and in some instances hardware, have been in great demand by country merchants. Inquiry in the city trade is smaller. Second only in importance are improved collections at Atlanta, Chattanooga, Louisville, St. Paul and Duluth.

Symptoms of Revival.

A tendency to make terms for purchases of iron and steel for future delivery at Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis constitute additional symptoms of a revival in those industries, the beginning of which promise to mark the opening of the new year. There is no advance in prices of commoner grades of iron or steel, both selling at lowest figures on record. The nominal advance in rails is because leading makers have renewed their agreements.

Pig iron production is increasing slowly, and the total output for the year promises to reach 7,540,000 gross tons, a total 7 per cent. smaller than in 1892.

The relatively stiff prices for wool at western centres places that staple there above a parity with eastern quotations and checks the movement.

Dry Goods Trade Moderate.

Leading dry goods jobbers at larger distributing points report only a moderate volume of business, but take encouragement from the unexpectedly brisk demand and good prices realized at the auction sale of staple and fancy cotton goods at New York. New England cotton mills report sales slow and the demand for woolens dull, yet woolen manufacturers have a few orders ahead and more are starting up.

Bradstreet's estimate of domestic wheat available for export during the remaining months of the cereal year indicate that nearly 2,000,000 bushels of wheat are likely to prove available for export weekly, if needed, notwithstanding our having exported more than 80,000,000 bushels to the middle of November. Exports of wheat and flour as wheat, both coasts, this week, aggregate 2,784,000 bushels, contrasted with 2,645,000 bushels last week, 3,465,000 bushels in the third week of November last year, and 4,082,000 bushels in the week of 1891.

Business Failures.

Business failures number 358 in the United States in the past week, against 370 last week, 185 in the like week a year ago, and 242 in that week of 1892. A rise in bond prices is the real feature of the New York securities' market, indicating that the idle money represented by the bank surplus is finding an outlet in this direction. The demand and advance in the prices of all classes of railroad mortgages is marked, the only exception being bonds of companies liable to a reorganization process. The speculative share market is affected by this situation, as well as by the ease of money and the overgrowth of short interest.

General trade is quiet at Boston, but merchants are more hopeful. Shoe factories are more active and sales of leather are larger. At Philadelphia wool is dull; many textile plants are idle, but the outlook for the shoe and leather trade is better. At Baltimore there is only a moderate trade in general merchandise, although reports from the south point to improvement. The large tobacco crop has depressed prices. Almost all markets at Pittsburgh are dull, except Bessemer iron and steel, for which the demand is better.

South and West.

At the south improvement is noted in collections as well as demand in various lines at Atlanta, Savannah, Chattanooga, and Birmingham. Fertilizer debts are being paid more promptly than in previous years, although easier money at these points affects only best name paper. There is some improvement reported from Cincinnati, where manufacturers are increasing outputs. Christmas trade at Chicago is smaller than expected, but seasonable staples are in better demand, particularly leather, and tanneries which have been long idle are starting up. St. Louis reports demand for shoes and hardware good, except in states where silver mining has been checked and that dry goods and hats are also moving in larger volume. Colder weather and good roads have stimulated the country trade throughout most of the western states.

Fatally Scalded While Scalding Hogs.

KINGSTON, N. Y., Nov. 25.—Constantine Burho while scalding hogs yesterday afternoon fell into the cauldron of boiling water. He was so terribly scalded that pieces of flesh dropped from his body. When hauled out he asked for a knife with which to kill himself. He cannot recover.

Anarchists Placards Seized.

PARIS, Nov. 25.—The police in Orleans have seized many placards which bear the signature of foreign anarchists now in London. The placards eulogize the Barcelona anarchists, and exhort anarchists to continue using [illegible]

"The [illegible] greed."

BOSTON, Nov. [illegible] jury disagreed in the case of M. H. Fay vs. Old Colony railroad, an action to recover $15,000 for personal injuries.

Mackerel Season Closed.

GLOUCESTER, Mass., Nov. 25.—The last of the mackerel fleet arrived to-day, closing the season.

A PLEASING PLUMPNESS

MRS. CLAUD CLARY IS NOW AS WELL AS WELL CAN BE.

The Unreasonable Demand of Modern Housekeeping—Irritability and Nervousness are Results to Be Avoided.

The evils of excessive housekeeping must be squarely met if one values the future happiness of her home.

The number of women who are becoming victims of nervous ailments from this strain on nerves and brain is alarmingly on the increase.

It is not many steps from over tired nerves, to discouragement, a complaining tongue and final collapse. Excessive nervousness or irritability is the most common result of over work. As a well-known physician has expressed it, what pain is to the broken limb, such is nervous irritability to the exhausted brain.

MRS. CLAUD CLARY.

The remedy for this condition is not hard to find. Paine's celery compound supplies the tired system with all it needs in the way of food for the nerves and nourishment for the blood. Depression of spirits, bad temper and melancholy disappear with pure blood and stronger nerves.

Paine's celery compound makes sound health a permanent condition.

A very short time after taking celery compound there is an unmistakable feeling of increased vitality, clearer brain, stronger powers in every direction.

Mrs. Claud Clary, today one of the handsomest women in Topeka, writing to Wells, Richardson & Co., says:

"I have been a sufferer from nervousness and have tried several remedies, none of which did me any good. This season I tried Paine's celery compound. I used one bottle and it gave me immediate relief; I used two bottles and am as well to day as I ever was. I have recommended the compound to several of my friends and am sure they are satisfied with it." This is the experience of women everywhere.

WILL MAYNARD TAKE ACTION?

Rumors of Action Against Alleged Libelers.

ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 25.—Judge Maynard has arrived in town from his home in Stamford, where he has been hard at work on his opinions in the cases assigned to him during the recess of the court of appeals. He is now attending the consultations of the judges previous to the convening of the court on Monday, and will finish out his term, although it has been stated that he would not again sit on the bench of the court of appeals.

A close friend of Judge Maynard's said that "after the judge retires from the bench on Jan. 1 the New York city newspapers and those lawyers in the New York city bar association who were active in the persecution of the judge during the recent campaign might be given an opportunity to prove their charges in the courts."

Judge Maynard himself has nothing to say for publication.

Out of the Way.

LONDON, Nov. 25.—Colonel the Right Hon. Sir J. West Ridgeway, who was under secretary for Ireland, was recently sent on a mission to Morocco. Upon the conclusion of his labors in that country he returned and made application for reinstatement in the office of under secretary. He is a unionist, and John Morley, chief secretary for Ireland, opposed his being reinstated, with the result that Mr. Gladstone has now appointed Colonel Ridgeway governor of the Isle of Man.

Scotch Strikers.

GLASGOW, Nov. 25.—Nineteen-twentieths of the Scotch coal miners are idle in consequence of the strike growing out of the masters' refusal to increase wages a shilling a day. A meeting of the strikers was held here to-day; and it was decided to continue the strike. The men expressed themselves as willing to agree to the appointment of a board of conciliation to settle the differences between them and the mine owners.

New Postmasters.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—Among the latest appointments of fourth-class postmasters are the following:

New York—Barryville, J. A. Ozenbaugh; Eldered M. B. Eaton, Jeffersonville, U. A. Rauft; Howardville, Chas. W. Cole; Jeddo, Julia Fitzgerald; Kendals, Amos Crane; Lewbeach; J. D. Davidson; Romulus, C. Y. Crane; West Brookville, Eugene Rhodes; Urlton, Malbone W. King.

Election Troubles.

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—The Herald's Montevideo correspondent cables: The foreign residents here are alarmed at the prospect of serious disorders on Sunday, when the legislative elections will be held. Some persons predict that the restriction on independent opinion at the election by the government, so as to secure the success of the official candidates, will cause a revolution.

A NEWSPAPER, NOT AN ORGAN.

(From The Westfield Standard.)

The Standard congratulates and applauds the Plainfield Press for its enterprise in getting out by daylight a post-election edition telling in manly terms of the defeat of its own candidates and dealing with facts without stint, partiality or reserve. This is being a newspaper, which is much better than being an "organ".

The attention of the Parkhurst editor is respectfully directed to that naughty statue over on the Park Club grounds. Has n't he an old coat and a pair of trousers that he can give it?

The impression which obtained at the Republican City Convention that Dr. Richards was a member of the School Board at the time of the purchase of the Wadsworth property, is erroneous. He was not chosen to fill Dr. Huribut's place till after that purchase. But he was so unfortunate as to be included in the general condemnation of the Board for its extravagant notions and doings, inasmuch as he like the other Trustees has shown no disposition to undo that which Mayor Gilbert and the Council condemned.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—The usual notices of Sunday services are unavoidably crowded out of this issue.

—A grand list of Thanksgiving Week attractions is advertised by Music Hall today.

—Be sure to take a fan, and enjoy two hours of romantic travel through Spain, in Music Hall tonight.

—By a collision with Edward Allen's stage, one of the Somerset street cars was damaged last evening.

—Fulper says he's still in the flour fight, and in proof of the fact has cut the price to $4 65 a barrel, Pillsbury's.

—Car No. 2, of the North Plainfield line broke a cable this morning and was hauled off the line for a little while.

—The horse of Wm. C. Smith, of 48 Grandview avenue, ran away this morning and went home. No damage was done.

—The three Elizabeth Italians who were working in the outskirts have been forbidden to enter Plainfield again while Elizabeth is infected.

—A branch of the New York Consolidated Exchange will open an office for the sale of stock, at 193 North avenue, opposite the station, in a few days.

—Before you purchase a doll for your little girl, go look at Rand's stock and prices. His show window has a sample only of the large stock he is offering.

—The ladies of the Relief Association specially request that all Thanksgiving donations be sent to the rooms by Tuesday afternoon or early Wednesday morning.

—The Y. M. C. L. A. of Elizabeth bowled 1658 against the Elizabeth Field Club Thursday night. If the Plainfield boys want to win the Journal League they must brace up and roll a better game.

"WE KNOW OUR BUSINESS."

The Park Club Bowlers Labored So Over Their New Cry that They Didn't Succeed in Downing the Jersey Boys.

The champion bowling team of the State, the New Jersey Athletic Club ten, had a hard struggle to defeat the Washington Park Club team, last night, and only succeeded in over-scoring the Plainfield boys by 14 pins. The local team put up a fine game from first to last, and if all the members had bowled their average game the visitors never would have defeated them. The two clubs ran neck and neck from start to finish, and at one time it looked as if the Parks would score a victory, but the pins did n't fall for their wishbone, but rather for their opponent's.

The Jersey boys are splendid fellows, with a slogan long enough to reach to Bergen Point and back, and they yelled it loud enough to awaken the Father of his Country were he asleep in his park. And the new yell of the Parks is not unhandy, but it didn't read right last night. "We know our business"—was the cry, but the score took the edge off its significance. Its author, therefore, concealed his identity.

A large number of club members and guests were present, and enjoyed to the fullest extent the club's well-known hospitality.

The score of the bowlers is as follows, Worth bowling for Chapman:

Wrecked in a Runaway.

A team belonging to Baker Henry A. Voehl of North Plainfield ran away near Mt. Bethel yesterday afternoon. The wagon was overturned at the bottom of the hill near the old saw mill and badly wrecked.

I have not used all of one bottle yet. I suffered from catarrh for 12 years, experiencing the nauseating dropping in the throat peculiar to that disease and nose bleed almost daily. I tried various remedies without benefit until last April, when I saw Ely's Cream Balm advertised in the Boston Budget. I procured a bottle, and since the first days use have had no more bleeding—the soreness is entirely gone—D. G. Davidson, with the Boston Budget, formerly with Boston Journal.

DEMOCRATS TO ORGANIZE.

THEY INTEND TO DO GREAT WORK IN THE FUTURE.

A Most Excellent Lot of Nominations—D. C. Ivins, R. L. Burnett and P. Casey for Councilmen—E. C. Perkins for School Trustee—J. A. Smith and J. McCarthy for Freeholders—Other Nominees.

At the Democratic City Convention held in the headquarters, 204 West Front street, last night, the local ticket was completed, and arrangements were made for a meeting to form a permanent organization of city Democrats. With two exceptions the nominations were made unanimously.

L. F. Wadsworth called the meeting to order, and was chosen chairman. He said that the Democratic party had always risen after defeat and that after the recent adverse election care should be taken that well-known men of the best character should be nominated. L. W. Stover was elected secretary, and Cornelius Loughlin, William K. McClure, A. Saltzman and Ira Huriburt were appointed a committee on credentials. W. L. Gloak, William W. Myers, Joseph W. Yates and T. A. McCarthy represented the wards as tellers.

Delegates not being present from the Third ward, J. W. Yates, Frank Voeseller and Samuel Wright were elected to fill the vacancies.

Three candidates for Councilmen-at-Large were chosen from the several nominations by the following vote:

DeWitt C. Ivins	18
Robert L. Burnett	18
Patrick Casey	16
Rowland Cox	5
Benjamin O. Bowers	1

Ira G. Huriburt was mentioned as a candidate for Assessor, but declined. William E. Gardner and Henry Liefke were then named for the office. James E. Martine having stated that Mr. Liefke would probably not accept a nomination, Mr. Gardner was chosen by the vote of 18 to 2.

The following nominations were made unanimously:

For Collector—Joseph M. Harper.
For City Treasurer—Aaron W. Rand.
For Commissioners of Appeal—Jeremiah Manning, the Rev. J. P. Taylor.
For Chosen Freeholders—J. Augustus Smith, James McCarthy.

A discussion followed the suggestion of Edward C. Perkins, Peter Flynn, Jr., and the Rev. Wm. R Richards for School Trustee.

W. K. McClure said that he believed the meeting was a Democratic Convention, and as Mr. Richards, being a Republican, had no vote in the primaries, the delegates had no right to put him on the ticket. W. W. Myers remarked that Mr. Richards had stated that he was a Democrat, and Mr. McClure said that Mr Richards had been in bad company for a good follower of Jefferson.

J. W. Yates then spoke at length in favor of Dr. Richard's candidacy. He considered himself as old and faithful a Democrat as anyone present except the chairman, and felt hurt by the intimation that he had offered the name of a Republican. At any rate, it was time for Democrats to feel that their party was weakening when they could not nominate a man for such an office as school trustee solely for his character and ability. He believed the party should choose men who would bring strength to the minority and safety to a public institution.

Mr. Yates, on nominating Mr. Richards, stated that he had no direct authority from the gentleman himself.

The vote stood:

Perkins	15
Richards	5
Peter Flynn, Jr.	1

On motion the chair appointed John Bofferty, W. Myers, F. Vosseller and Edward J. Harding a committee to fill vacancies.

Vincent L Frazee stated that the delegates of the Second and Fourth wards had arranged for a meeting at headquarters for the purpose of arranging for the forming of a permanent Democratic organization in the city.

Chairman Wadsworth spoke of the need of such an organization, the date of the meeting was made next Monday evening, and the meeting was adjourned, all the delegates being requested to attend on that night.

They'll Urge Short Hours for Workingmen.

Watchung Lodge, No. 167, International Association of Machinists, will give a free entertainment in Red Men's Hall, next Wednesday evening. Councilmen Herman A. Weber and V. L. Frazee will speak on the nine-hour question.

Plainfield Talent to Entertain.

An entertainment will be given in Voorhees Hall, Bound Brook, December 2, under the auspices of the Washington Guards. J. H. Carney, Carl Rudolph, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Vegiard, and the Mendelssohn Sextette will participate.

The American Catarrh Cure

Is the result of twenty-six years' study and treatment of the disease. One bottle convinces the most skeptical. It is always ready for use, needing neither douche nor atomizer. It restores the hearing, cures the hawking cough and expectorating, removes the headache and nose bleeding, increases the appetite, produces sound sleep, invigorates the whole system and increases the vitality. Prepared only by W. B. Jones, M. D., No. 1336 South Eighth street, Philadelphia. For sale by J. W. Randolph, 21 West Front street. Price $1.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

The wife of Dr. Probasco is very ill.

F. M. Hulett is confined to his bed by illness.

Jacob Jennings, of West Second street, is severely ill.

The veteran bill-poster, Charles Sylvester Cook, is sick abed.

Hugh Boyd will speak in the Mt. Pleasant school-house tomorrow evening.

Mrs. C. F. Cadmus of Philadelphia Pa. was visiting friends in this city yesterday.

The Rev. Arthur Crane will speak in the Memorial chapel at Washingtonville tomorrow evening.

A small whist party was given by Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Timpson last night at their residence, Grace Court.

The family of Charles Hyde will leave town the first week in December to spend the winter in New York.

J. M. Bettman, of Willow avenue, North Plainfield, is laying a stone walk in front of his property facing Mercer avenue.

The Park Club will give an informal holiday dinner under the management of the Junior Entertainment Committee, Friday evening, Dec. 1.

David M. Moore will address the young men's meeting in the Y. M. C. A. rooms tomorrow at 4:15 p. m. The double quartette will sing as usual.

Pending zero weather, Mr. Evans will have a fishing bee for a select few of the Park Club members on his new lake, back of the club-house, that is, as soon as he can get it to hold water.

Orville T. Waring, son of E. J. Waring, of Willow avenue, who was recently stricken with diphtheria, as mentioned in these columns, has so far recovered that he is now able to be out.

Contractor Finton Hibbitts was recently awarded the contract by the Somerset County Board of Freeholders to tear down and replace the old arch bridge in front of the Hillman property on Somerset street.

General Eli Long and family will return next Monday to their home on Grove street, after spending the summer and fall at Bluff Point, Yates county, N. Y., where the General has extensive vineyards.

A Fact is Worth Volumes of Theory.

It should be known by the residents of Plainfield, that instruction which is given free at a large institution in New York city, costs more than equal or better instruction, obtainable in Plainfield, for which a small charge is made. A case in point is; a young man going to the Cooper Institute two evenings a week for one hour's practice in Free-hand drawing and perspective, being one of a class of thirty scholars he received two minutes instruction each lesson at a cost of one dollar and fifty-five cents car fare, and the inconvenience of being out until midnight twice a week in all weathers. He hears of the Plainfield Manual Training School, 309 East Front street, and enquiry elicts the information, that he can obtain ten hours tuition in fifteen branches of study, connected with the minor arts, or two dollars per week, between the hours of two and four o'clock five days each week, learning his evenings free and receiving constant oversight and direction in his studies. It is a wonder that he is delighted with the progress he is making? John Dalziel has this work down fine.

The Genuine And The Sham.

Every good thing has its host of imitators; every genuine article it counterfeits. The imitators always choose the most valuable and popular article to counterfeit, so that when they claim their sham to be equal, or as good, or the same as "So-and-So's the public may depend upon it that "So-and-So,s article is the best of the kind. The sham proves the genuine merit of the thing it copies and never has this been better illustrated than by the imitations of ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS.

ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTER is the standard of excellence the world over, and its imitators in their cry that theirs is "as good as ALLCOCK'S" are only emphasizing this fact and admitting "ALLCOCK'S" to be the acme of perfection, which it is their highest ambition to imitate. The difference between the genuine and the these imitations, which copy only general appearance, is as wide as that between copper and gold.

The only safe way for purchasers is to always insist upon having ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS. They are the only perfect plasters ever produced.

ALL WENT MERRY AT THE BIG GREEN T.

ENTERTAINERS WERE A SIGHT TO SEE.

Young Men and Old Boys, Jolly Fine Chaps, in Green Mother Hubbards and White Lace Caps.

The big T that was hung in front of MacDonald's store in 1856 had never been taken from its conspicuous abiding-place till yesterday, when it was removed to grace the Green Tea given by the men of Trinity church. The exposure of thirty-seven years had robbed its paint of lustre, so it was ornamented with a fresh coat of green, flecked with gold. Then it was suspended from the ceiling in the centre of the main Sunday-school room, and streamers of green were swung from this focus to every corner and side-wall. Long broad sashes of green were also draped along the walls, and every pillar was a graceful column of evergreen.

The idea of a Green Tea given by men only had been treated as a good deal of a joke, but the decorations were not a joke but an artistic success. A good job had been expected from Robert A. Meeker, with whose excellent work as Street Commissioner everyon was so familiar. And it was a good job. Mr. Meeker is modest about his own share in the matter, and insists that his assistants Alburtus Swalm and A. W. Demarest are entitled to most of the credit, but his helpers give him praise for his management and good taste.

The personal decorations of the men who ran the Tea were the most unique, however. Big bows of green, some plain and some spangled with gilt, hid nearly every shirt-front from view. Backs bent beneath the weight of big green T's. Ben LaVere wore a fanciful pale-blue coat with sweeping tails and big yellow buttons. The climax of adornment was the supper committee, but of that more later.

The gathering of guests was a large and sociable one. Many other congregations were well represented. Wraps were discarded on entering, and all were cordially welcomed by representatives of the reception committee, which comprised every male member of the congregation, headed by F. A. Church.

Sunday-school Superintendent E. E. Anthony, grand supervisor of the Tea, fled before the congratulations showered upon him, and took refuge on the platform, in front of a pretty display of ferns, chrysanthemums and other autumnal flora. He held up his hand in mock deprecation of the noise of the big crowd of people, and the hum of voices ceased. Mr. Anthony said he wanted to put the committees on display, and so called them up before the people. A good deal of fun was occasioned by his remarks and the comment on them. He said at the outset that as a foreman of the job of getting up the Tea they had wanted the greenest man in town, so spotted him. The choice of Chairmanship for the reception committee had been made as announced, because it was a Churchly affair. The warbling of birds was in itself an entertainment, so the programme committee had been made up of birds—there was a Martin, and another Bird, and Chipple Leggett. Bert Demarest staggered under the combined weight of a huge bouquet of paper waterlillies and the cash that voluntary contributors had bestowed on him as cashier for the Sunday-school fund. He looked his prettiest, and spoke his wittiest. Mr. Anthony called for A. Leader, and A. J. stepped forward. Mr. Anthony was at his best, and won great applause. His statement, when the Street Commissioner appeared, that they had sought for one as meek as Moses but had found one Meeker, brought down the house. The supper room was thrown open, on such a sight! A long table bore fruits and nuts and cakes, arranged most temptingly. The fruits and nuts were stacked up on crystal foundations. The cakes were a myriad, "with no two alike". A border of olive-green ribbon, its stiffness broken by sprays of evergreen, and standing out in relief against the snowy cloth, framed this attractive display. The effect was strikingly artistic. Surrounding this well-laden board was the funniest group of men that ever made the walls of a church ring with laughter. At the head was P. M. Demarest, his sedate dignity adding to the humor of his costume. His rotund form was buried in a big green apron, and a waiting-maid's cap was perched jauntily on his brow, its strings tied demurely beneath his dashing sidewhiskers. Peter A. Emmons was fully as grotesque, at the other end; his cap was surmounted by a vigorously vibrating T. Wm. A. Woodruff's green apron had gigantic shoulder bows, and his rakish beard combined to give him the aspect of a comic-opera pirate. Some of the aprons were as loose and flowing as Mother Hubbards; others were as abbreviated as a chorus dancer's. But all, from Elder VanEmburgh to Fred MacDonald, wore some such apparel; and when the sliding doors were first moved back disclosing them to view, their ill-at-ease grimaces started roars of laughter. But how they did serve supper! In that they got right down to business, and whisked about like the hustlers that they are. The paper napkins were of a pale-green tint; the coffee was poured from a giant teakettle by P. M. Demarest; cream flowed from kerosene cans (new, of course), and Burt Swalm had to stand good-natured chaffing about "working the can"; the ice-cream was in white bricks with a green T in the centre. Everyone got his fill of the good things, but there was such an attendance that as the people took turns the supper room was crowded six or seven successive times.

Those waiting their turn were well entertained by music. There was good quartette singing by Robert Clark, Edward Clark, Horace Martin and A. J. Moore. Tenor Clark sang enjoyable solos. Will Runyon, George Stevens and Thomas King sang comical ditties, and Mr. Runyon made the hit of the evening with his funny college songs. Mr. Runyon played his own accompaniments, and Charles Leggett was accompanist for the others. Young Albert Ford was heartily applauded for his recitations, and responded most gratifyingly to an encore. The profits of the Tea were about $80. It was a most creditable triumph.

The Thirteen Feeders, who ought by all means to have had their photographs in costume, for publication in The Press, were as follows: F. C. Adams, P. M. Demarest, P. A. Emmons, George L. Van Emburgh, A. Swalm, J. K. Arnold, Edward VanWinkle, J. H. Tier, Jr., J. F. MacDonald, chairman; Harry Marshall, B. D. Newell, Fred Smith, W. A. Woodruff.

GRIST OF THE CITY COURT.

Michael Fox Saw Plainfield for the First Time in 17 Years, and Brought Up in Jail in a Dazed Condition.

Three cases were disposed of in the City Court this morning by Judge Coddington.

Michael Fox, who was arrested for being drunk and disorderly on North avenue late last night, said that he had returned from Connecticut to visit Plainfield after an absence of 17 years; and that he remembered but little of his actions although he could not have been very drunk. His sentence was $3 or ten days in jail, but was reduced to a $2 fine on promise to make his visit short.

Frederick Durand was charged by the manager of the Sherman Outfitting Company with using profane language on November 14, and breaking the plate-glass window of the store at 241 West Front street two nights later. The first complaint was dismissed on the ground of insufficient evidence. On the second the plaintiff had no direct evidence, and Durand proved an alibi and was discharged.

The case of Mrs. David McLernon against Mrs. Mary English and Mrs. Ellen Hulebach, who were charged with calling her names and otherwise abusing her, was apparently the result of a general neighborly quarrel. After a long examination of the witnesses and the parties concerned, the Judge imposed a fine of $5 each, stating that although the charge had not been fully proved a disturbance had been created by the defendants. All of the participants were reprimanded.

THE MAN ON THE CARS.

HE DISCUSSES THE MORAL ASPECT OF THE BILL BOARD BUSINESS.

Says a Spade Cannot Masquerade as a Shovel and Thinks the St. Gaudens Diana Would Never Do for Plainfield.

"Speaking of absurdities"—said The Man on the Cars the other night as the conversation dropped from the sublime to the sub-cellar, and the train slid over the Elizabeth marshes—"I think this crusade against the gentle art of bill-posting as seen in Plainfield is one of the most remarkable instances of inspired idiocy that ever struck town. It is seldom of any use to attempt a moral reformation in such matters, for the one great reason, if no other, that the thing is certain to be turned to ridicule. The New York papers have been funny about our late local queerness, and so it will always be.

"As to the merits of the case, I don't know. It seems from the ordinance proposed at the last meeting of the Common Council that no obscene or indecent pictures must be displayed upon our dead-walls, in our shop windows or anywhere else, which goes pretty far. Who is going to judge what is moral and what is immoral, and who is going to care for his decisions? Who is to come to me and say I must call in the picture that ornaments my hall bedroom because it doesn't suit his fancy? There is a medium somewhere between that ordinance and common-sense which should be discovered at once. For my part, I have never seen a picture of any sort in our town that has been able to shock me, but I am aware that I am quite bad and hopeless, and therefore no criterion.

"One may generalize, however. Never, to my knowledge, has there appeared on our fences or in our shop windows (the kick was about these in particular, you know) anything so flagrant as to bring a blush to the cheeks of anyone but a fanatic. I presume that if St. Gaudens's beautiful, chaste but much undressed Diana of Madison Square Garden were put out here it would shock people, yet to me it is one of the loveliest, purest works of art that ever graced a city. I also infer that the Apollo Belvedere, the Venus di Milo, the Colossus of Rhodes, and all the other mighty and immortal, but undeniably unparalled works of man, would cause the blushes to mantle and the pulses to beat in Plainfield. The Paris Salon would, of course, be here considered so scandalous that it would give up the ghost in contemplation of its own hitherto undiscovered wickedness.

"'Evil to him who evil thinks', is the gist of the whole argument, and ever will be. False modesty is one of the greatest curses of our times, but ideas, thank goodness, are better in this respect now than they were ten years ago, and the emancipation will go on, I hope, until we may call a spade a spade and not be constrained to term it a shovel or a wheelbarrow under penalty of excommunication from society. What is, is; we all know it, and why not say so? Man, if we are to believe Genesis, was made in the image of God, and yet we are asked to hold up our conventional hands in holy horror at the thought of God's image and handiwork? The whole thing is absurd, and makes me tired indeed. The only expression that seems both comprehensive and apropos is—pardon me—'rats!'"

And he arose and slipped away as the train stopped.

FITCHBURG AND WEST SHORE RAILROAD'S EMPLOYES UNITE.

Engineer Huston of the West Shore and E. A. Palmer of the Fitchburg Give Advice to Their Overworked Brethren.

There is no body of men, taken as a class, who labor more hours continuously than railroad men. Whether it is the trustworthy engineer, the conductor or the men employed at clerical and office work, so constant and tiring are their responsible duties that there are few who do not suffer from overwork and nervous troubles, that arise from too much brain work, care and anxiety. These troubles at first steal on one so unconsciously that it does not take long before the strongest constitution gives way to the ravages of disease. Dyspepsia, rheumatism, urinary and kidney troubles have incapitated many a man from pursuing his daily duties that could have been saved if the proper precaution had been taken.

Engineer William Huston, of the West Shore railroad, in speaking to a reporter of the disposition of people to neglect their physical condition, said: "For years I suffered from an aggravated kidney trouble and dyspepsia, and at times I was in so much pain I thought I would have to give up my engine. I had been under the treatment of various physicians, but derived no benefit. Finally one day conductor Frazer, of our road, said to me, 'Huston, you get a bottle of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, and it will do you more good than all the doctors in existence.' I followed this advice, and had taken it but a few days when I began to feel better and a little further use of it cured me, and I have been well ever since."

E. A. Palmer of the Fitchburg railroad's freight department of Troy, N. Y., in speaking of the great good he had received from using Favorite Remedy said: "I was troubled with a great difficulty for a long time. My attention was called to Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, I began its use and soon commenced getting better, and in a few weeks was cured of the trouble. I have since used it as a family medicine with splendid results, especially in cases of constipation and stomach difficulty."

Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy is a natural antidote for all diseases arising from an excess of uric acid in the blood, in cases of scrofula, eczema, sleeplessness or nervousness, it cures where all else fails. Physicians are prescribing it now instead of the old-time methods.

Read and Reflect.

The great mass of mankind lose their health through inattention to catarrh of the head and throat. This insidious disease was considered incurable until the discovery of the American Catarrh Cure For sale by L. W. Randolph, 21 West Front street. Price $1.00.

My catarrh was very bad; for 30 years I have been troubled with it—have tried a number of remedies without relief. A druggist advised Ely's Cream Balm. I have used only one bottle and I can say I feel like a new man. I make this voluntary statement that others may know of the Balm.—J. W. Matheson, lawyer, Paw-nalee, B. I.

Princeton Concert in the Casino.

It is now definitely arranged that the Princeton University Glee, Banjo, and Mandolin clubs will give a concert in the Casino Thursday evening, Dec. 7. The Princeton Alumni of Plainfield have been actively engaged in arranging for the concert and everything will be done to make it an undoubted success both as to its musical and vocal features. A list of the patronesses will be published in the Press in a few days. The glee club this year contains many voices of exceptional quality and among the singers Plainfielders will be pleased to recognize Alfred E Holmes of this city. The music of the mandolin is always one of the features of Princeton musical performances as Princeton was the first college in America to have a mandolin club and it is today unrivalled by any organization of the kind in other colleges. Tickets will be placed on sale in about a week.

Free Passes for All.

Next Saturday, Dec. 2, the great sale of Aaron D. Thompson's property in White House will take place. 160 acres of fine land has been cut up into building lots 50x150 feet, and these will be sold at public auction Saturday at 1. Mr. Thompson has improved this property wonderfully, and a large number of buyers will undoubtedly be attracted to the sale. There will be good music and refreshments for those who attend. The Central railroad will run special trains to the sale. The terms on which the lots are to be sold are $10 cash and the balance $5 per month. For free railroad passes apply to Aaron D. Thompson, North avenue.

Chiefs and Braves to Visit.

At the meeting of Miantonomah Lodge, Improved Order of Red Men, last night, three warriors were raised to chiefs. The lodge will visit the Omeme tribe at Elizabeth next Tuesday.

Camera Slides Selected.

After the meeting of the Board of Directors of the Camera Club last night additional lantern slides were examined, and twenty-five were selected for the interchange series.

Killed by the Cars.

The body of Stephen Murphy, aged 27, who was killed in a railroad accident near Chicago, was brought here for burial this afternoon. The funeral will be held tomorrow.

UNIMEPACHABLE TESTIMONY!

A WONDERFUL STORY BY AN IRVINGTON WOMAN.

Fearful Failure of Fifteen Physicians—Serious Surgical Operation Suggested.

For four years I have suffered from a complication of diseases which physicians said were dyspepsia, liver and kidney complaint, nervous prostration and womb disease. No words of mine can describe the terrible pains and distress I have experienced—the dizziness, trembling fears of evil, chills, fever, melancholy, restlessness and numerous other dreadful sensations which I am unable to describe. Have been treated by fifteen physicians, some of whom were sure they could cure me within two or three months, and all of whom have had from two months to three, four or more, as they said was needed. One I tried for a whole year until last May I found myself disappointed, discouraged and about ready to give up altogether, as, after treating me for a year my physician told me I would be obliged to undergo a surgical operation before I could commence to get better. Just at this time I was advised by friends to consult Dr. Starkweather of No. 105 Halsey street, Newark, as they knew of some very remarkable cures which he had performed.

I followed their advice and visited the doctor on May 5. How glad I am that I took this step no one can realize who has not been similiarly situated. The doctor gave me a complete history of my case, describing with surprising accuracy the conditions and symptoms which I had endured for years, but what gave me the greatest surprise and pleasure was when he assured me that there was no need of any surgical operation. Proper means, he said, would overcome my troubles without any surgery. I commenced at once to follow Dr. Starkweather's directions and treatment. Having gradually and steadily improved since that time, as he stated I would, until now I am the wonder of all my friends, while rejoicing in renewed health, strength and spirits. Am constrained by a sense of duty and gratitude to accord the praise due Dr. S. for his gentle, soothing and skillful treatment of my case, and advise all sufferers from whatever cause to consult this eminent physician. MRS. WM. R. MANSER.
Smith street, Irvington, N. J.

Thousands praise the day they came to us for treatment. There is no guess work, no experimenting, no painful operation. No matter how difficult the case, no matter how much of the physician's time it may consume the diagnosis will not only be thorough, it will be absolutely free. There is no taint of quackery or deception; no claim or statement is made that is not born out by facts and living witnesses.

Any person, rich or poor, old or young, is welcome here and receives examination and advice without charge. The rapidity with which this popular system has grown into public favor is without a parallel. The number of new applicants increases daily, and the remarkable results of the treatment they receive both surprise and gratify.

There is not a penny to pay for the fullest medical advice. Dr. Starkweather is a graduate of the Berkshire Medical College, Massachusetts, and of the Medico-Chirurgical College of Philadelphia; endorsed also by the College of Physicians and Surgeons and Bellevue Medicel College of New York. We invite all sufferers from whatever cause to call at our office, No. 105 Halsey street, Newark, where Dr. Starkweather is in attendance daily to give examination and advice entirely free of charge. It matters not what the disease, or how many years you have suffered, in spite of means adopted in your behalf, a visit to this office and the privileges of the same will cost you nothing, and may be the means of saving your life. We prepare all our medicines and prescribe the remedies indicated. This plan enables the patient to receive directly from us such remedies as will produce the results promised.

Our office is open daily from 10 a. m. to 9 p. m. Sundays, 4 to 6 p. m.

Those living at a distance can consult the doctor by letter. Send or call for our book of testimonials.

Nothwithstanding the great cry of "Hard Times," our trade up to the present date is considerably in excess of last year.

The result we believe of FAIR DEALING—giving the very best goods possible for the least money In other words, REAL MERIT.

The people of Plainfield have found out that in the filling of a memorandum of a dozen or more articles in our lines, they can do just as well at EDSALL'S in price, quality, style and variety as in any one store in New York.

Patrons often remark in our store: "Well, if I can't get it here, there is no use of my looking for it in Plainfield, for I will have hard work to find it in New York."

We have now so many good things to advertise that it is impossible to mention them in our space, and urge buyers to call at our store and see for themselves the many new things we offer.

POWDERLY-HAYES ROW

Another Exciting Day in the K. of L. Assembly.

The Hayes Faction Show Considerable Strength—Motion to Declare Powderly's Office Vacant Tabled. Fight to Go on To-day.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 25.—When the general assembly convened yesterday Mr. Powderly amended his list of candidates for the general executive committee presented the day before by allowing A. W. Wright, John Devlin, Hugh Cavanaugh and John Costello to stand, and presenting J. P. Lucas, J. P. Robertson and P. H. Quinn, as new candidates.

This list was distasteful to the anti-Powderly faction, but Powderly refused to change the list again and Daniel McLeon, a socialist of New York city, then presented a motion to declare Powderly's office vacant.

Row Lasted All Morning.

This caused a row that lasted the rest of the morning session. The air was exchanged several times and the speakers indulged in abuse and ridicule. The fight ended at the noon recess, when the motion was laid on the table by a vote of 31 to 15.

The voting began at 2 o'clock.

On the first ballot, the only candidate elected was P. J. Maguire, this being a defeat for the Powderly faction.

Voted for Straw Men.

The Hayes faction voted for three straw men. On the second ballot, one of these straw men, H. B. Martin, was the only candidate elected.

The Hayes faction demanded that his name be put on the official list of candidates.

Powderly refused and another storm consumed the rest of the day's session.

The balloting, which ended in this deadlock, will be resumed to-day.

What Are Powderly's Intentions?

It is said that the anti-Powderly men have a combination controlling 27 votes and that they will force him to give in.

Another rumor is that Powderly will resign and withdraw with his friends and several powerful allies, leaving the order powerless.

ON FIRE AT SEA.

A Portion of a Cattle Steamer's Cargo Jettisoned to Save the Vessel.

LONDON, Nov. 25.—The steamer Dominion, just arrived at Avonmouth, from Montreal, with a cargo of cattle, was discovered a fire at noon, Nov. 14, and burned until the morning of the 15th.

The fire broke out through the main deck, aft. All the crew were set to work to extinguish the flames. Two lines of hose were kept constantly playing on the flames until the decks began to buckle, when it was found necessary to jettison a portion of the cargo.

Car Load of Hogs Starving.

NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 25.—A car load of hogs has been standing on the track of the Pennsylvania railroad for several days past and it is claimed that they have not been fed since they were side-tracked. They are almost wild and fight and tear each others flesh with their tusks. No one seems to know who owns the animals. It is thought the car was side-tracked by employes of the Lehigh Valley railroad.

Appealed to Mgr. Satolli.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—Rev. Father Henry B. Murphy, late curate of St. Joseph's Catholic church, Paterson, N. J., yesterday personally presented his appeal to Archbishop Satolli, apostolic delegate, against the action of the rector, Rev. Dr. Smith, dismissing him. It is understood that the delegate referred Father Murphy back to his court of first resort, the bishop of his diocese.

The Report Denied.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 25.—The report that the Carnegie steel company, Bethlehem steel company, Cambria iron company and Lackawanna iron and steel company had combined to lease the big plant at Sparrow's Point, is denied by the officials of the Maryland steel company and also by those of the Pennsylvania steel company.

Department Reports.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—The latest information is that the department annual reports will be given out as usual this year. Secretary Lamont's report, it is understood, will be sent out for publication next Monday morning, and Postmaster-General Bissell's on Tuesday morning.

The New Steel Combine.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Nov. 25.—General Manager Felton said to-day that the Pennsylvania steel company is in the new steel combine but that he knows nothing of the alleged lease of the plants of the company at Steelton and Sparrows Point, Maryland.

Will Appoint His Brother-in-Law.

ALBANY, Nov. 25.—State Treasurer-elect Colvin has tendered the appointment of deputy state treasurer to his brother-in-law, J. Ledlie Hees, cashier of the National Mohawk river bank of Fonda. Mr. Hees is considering the offer.

Gen. Carlin's Retirement.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—The secretary of war has issued a general order placing Gen. William P. Carlin on the retired list of the army, in which Gen. Carlin's record is most highly eulogized.

Grip in Ohio State Prison.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 25.—There were 80 new cases of the grippe in the state prison yesterday. All the convict nurses in the hospital are down with it and most of the officials are ill.

Treasury Balance Increasing.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—The treasury balances took an upward turn yesterday, reaching $97,175,000, a gain of more than $1,000,000 since Wednesday.

THE BRIDGE OF SIGHS.

It Was Dreaded More Than Death.

THEY WHO CROSSED IT NEVER RETURNED TO THE SUNLIGHT.

What Connection Has It With the Present Generation?

The celebrated Bridge of Sighs has always been looked upon as the acme of suffering and misery. With what a feeling of horror we think of the thousands of victims who have crossed it never to return. But there is another bridge, almost as old as the world itself, and which is as prolific of suffering today as in the early ages. There is a bridge connecting health and disease which has caused more sighs in the history of the world than any structure built by the hand of man. It is a subject of universal sadness when we think how many are daily crossing this bridge. Can we return, or must we leave the sunlight of health forever behind us? This is indeed a fearfully important question. It interests us as it interested a young lady of our acquaintance named Miss Jessie McVey, who resides in Irvington, Ind.

"I had always been rather robust and well," she said, "until the last two or three years, when it so happened that I overtaxed my strength in trying to do too much work. I had a spell of nervous prostration and was so weak all the time I could scarcely get around.

"I have also been troubled with rheumatism more or less for a long time which grew worse after my nerves became weak. Of a morning I would feel more tired than when I went to bed, and on going upstairs I would give clear out by the time I reached the top, and my heart would flutter and feel as though it was up in my throat.

"My head also troubled me a great deal. My face would flush up in a moment and my eyes would burn and hurt and my head would feel as though it would burst; at the same time my feet and hands would be cold. I was also troubled with catarrh for several years.

MISS JESSIE McVEY.

"I got medicine from several doctors, but it seemed as though it helped me some at the first, but in a little while I would feel as bad, if not worse than ever. I began to be discouraged when I saw an advertisement of how Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy helped others who were worse off than I was, and I concluded to give it a trial. Before taking half a bottle I began to feel better. I did not feel so tired and nervous. My head felt better and my appetite improved. I have taken three bottles and keep on improving. I think this wonderful medicine cannot be praised highly enough, for it makes the weak strong and the old feel young again."

There have recently come within our knowledge facts like the above which prove the great and wide-spread confidence of this remedy both among public and private institutions. In the first place doctors prescribe and recommend it as it is the discovery and prescription of an eminent physician. This, together with the fact of its wonderful cures, has led many dispensaries, hospitals and institutions to adopt the remedy as a stand ard medicine.

Of course all these facts give the people everywhere the greatest confidence in the medicine, and their confidence is well placed. Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy does cure. It makes the sick well. It is furthermore purely vegetable and perfectly safe to give to infants, children or the most delicate invalid. These facts make it the most popular remedy of the day, and druggists say that no remedy has ever equaled it either in its enormous sales or the complete satisfaction it gives those who purchase and use it.

Dr. Greene, the great specialist in curing all nervous and chronic diseases, can be consulted at his office, 35 West 14th street, New York, free of charge, personally or by letter.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report.

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

BOTH SIDES CONFIDENT

Honors Equally Divided in the Lehigh Strike.

More Men Desert the Company, but Their Places Are Being Filled By New Men—The Strikers Determined and Hopeful—No Trouble Anticipated By Gov. Pattison.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Nov. 27.—This is the ninth day of the strike on the Lehigh Valley railroad, and an unprejudiced observer would say that the honors were about equally divided. The company claim—and their claim is substantiated—that all their mail and passenger trains are running on schedule time. Last night and early this morning a great deal of freight for the east was moved out of the Coxton yards, but little or no coal was transported. Supt. Esser says that he has enough crews to fill all vacancies to-day and that coal shipments will begin in earnest.

Yesterday afternoon the Lehigh Valley station was crowded by idlers brought there through curiosity. Supt. Esser notified the chief of police that an angry crowd had gathered at the depot and he was requested to disperse them. The chief despatched four officers to the station and with the aid of the company's detectives dispersed the crowd.

At Sugar Notch, three miles from Wilkesbarre, there was more or less excitement. A motley gang of men and boys gathered and made all sorts of threats against the men who were at work. The more unruly of the crowd threw stones through the windows of the station and compelled the operator to flee for his life As Sugar Notch is an important junction of the road this episode delayed the running of trains for quite a time.

Last night two long freight trains were signalled to stop at the Hazle street crossing in this city. A large crowd of people in sympathy with the strikers assembled at the crossing and when the trains came to a stop the two engineers, firemen and crew were hooted and the crowd yelled "Get off the engines you scabs; give honest workmen a show." No violence, however, was offered and the trains pulled out in safety on their northern journey.

To a reporter Mr. Esser said passenger and freight traffic was in excellent condition, three trains left the Coxton yard in the morning for the east and two for the west. The company officials have notified their attorney that they will not tolerate any further interference on the part of the strikers or those in sympathy with them.

Sheriff Walter will have to take decided action to-day to protect the company's property. So far as can be learned Col. M. J. Keck, of the Ninth Regiment, has received no intimation from the authorities at Harrisburg to order out the militia.

The strikers held a large and enthusiastic meeting yesterday afternoon. No desertions were reported, but four non-union men joined the ranks and signified their intention of standing by the strikers until the end. The Brotherhood men now realize that this is a battle to the death. If they cannot win this contest, with all the brotherhoods united, it will be useless to continue the various organizations. Brotherhood men from all over the country are pouring in money to the local treasury and the strikers will be well provided for the next three months.

At Pittston the strikers' pickets were out last night again. They report that eighteen more engineers and firemen will join the order this afternoon, after which they will leave for their homes. They are said to be men who have heretofore worked on the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern and New York Central roads.

An attempt was made by an unruly crowd to drive a shifting crew from their engine on one of the Lehigh Valley branches, near the Hillman vein breaker. The excitement ran high for a time and stones and clubs were thrown at them until a posse of deputy sheriffs sheriffs arrived, who dispersed them. Many of these illers are breaker boys and slate pickers, and some of them are known to the officials and arrests may be made.

Trains Running Regularly.

AUBURN, N. Y., Nov. 27.—Trains have run as regularly on the Lehigh Valley road to day as if a strike had not been declared. A larger crowd than usual assembled in the yards yesterday when a freight train was sent north, but this action on the part of the company did not provoke the slightest outbursts. It was the first attempt to raise the freight blockade in this city and trouble had been expected, but the strikers or their sympathisers made no demonstrations whatever. Orders have been issued for the regular movement of passenger and freight trains.

An Authority on Tariff Reform.

ERIE, Pa., Nov. 27.—Nelson Baldwin, appointed collector of customs here, has acquired considerable prominence as a worker on tariff reform in accord with President Cleveland's ideas. He was appointed upon the recommendation of Congressman Sibley.

Knows Nothing of His Appointment.

CHICAGO, Nov. 27.—Editor Hesing, of the Illinois Staats-Zeitung, denies all knowledge of the reported appointment of himself to the postmastership of Chicago.

DAN COUGHLIN'S JURY.

Watched By Detectives as a Cat Watches Mice.

CHICAGO, Nov. 27.—Never was jury watched with more care and persistence than is being exercised in handling the twelve men upon whose verdict hangs the future of Dan Coughlin. All of life they will see from now until the great trial is ended will be centered in two places—the criminal court building and the Revere house.

In the latter they are fed and housed, and precautionary measures are being taken day and night to prevent the slightest opportunity for communication with the outside world.

Court bailiffs watch their every move; their cigars are bought by proxy; their meals furnished in a private dining room by special waiters; and detectives are nearly as numerous about the lobby as the jurors themselves.

Two bailiffs are with the jurors constantly. Under no circumstances do they both leave the little body of men at the same time. Men known to be in the employ of the secret service keep constant watch over the doors leading to the jurors' rooms. Visitors are not permitted to approach these doors no matter how urgent their mission, but all communication is made through bell boys.

KILLED IN A GRAVE.

Singular Death of a Man at His Stepdaughter's Funeral.

ROCHESTER, Pa., Nov. 27.—There was a most singular occurrence at the funeral of Mrs. William Shell, in the Beaver cemetery yesterday. The grave was dug by Walter W. Fish, stepfather of the deceased lady. It was necessary, however, for Fish to go to the grave in advance of the funeral to set the rough pine box in position. Just as the funeral procession arrived at the cemetery, James Brotherton curiously looked into the grave and saw Mr. Fish lying in the rough box. Upon an investigation it was discovered that Fish was dead.

Undertaker Heno, who was on the hearse, was notified, and kept the mourners in the carriages in ignorance of what had occurred. Aided by the pall bearers, Fish's remains were removed from the grave and taken away. The funeral then proceeded without the wife or family knowing of the father's fate. Upon their return home they were apprised of the facts.

At the coroner's inquest it was discovered that Fish's neck was broken. The accepted theory is that Fish stumbled and fell into the open grave, fracturing his spinal column. Mr. Fish was 60 years of age.

EMPLOYES STILL HOPEFUL.

Assistant Chief Wilkins Says the Men Are Well Satisfied.

WAVERLY DEPOT, N. Y., Nov. 27.—Assistant Chief Wilkins in an interview said that the men along the line are more determined and hopeful than at any previous time during the strike and and are well satisfied with the situation. "We do not deny," he said, "that the company is getting many new men, but we are getting many of the best ones away from them, leaving them the incompetent men. We shall use every lawful means in our power to keep men from going to work, but under no circumstance will we countenance or allow violence. If the company can operate the road with the class of men that they are engaging and stand the damage to rolling stock we shall not interfere with them."

Asked as to the plans of the brotherhood and as to the probability of a general tie up the chief declined to express an opinion.

All passenger trains are running regularly at Sayre.

BISMARCK'S ENEMIES

Interest in the Cause of His Fall Revived.

The Result of an Intrigue, and Herr Von Boetticher Accused of Being the Chief Conspirator—Very Close Friends of the Emperor Aid in the Overthrow of the "Iron Man."

(Copyright, 1893, by the United Press.)

BERLIN, Nov. 27.—The old interest in Bismarck's fall will be revived by the statement of his semi-official organ, the Leipsic Neueste Nachrichten, that he demands the publication of his memorial to the emperor in which he contended that he should not and would not resign, except at the emperor's command. "This memorial," says the writer, "belongs to the German nation." Other unpublished papers prove that it was an intrigue led by Herr von Boetticher, who owes all he has to Bismarck, that caused the prince's retirement. Boetticher is the man who originally fanned the differences between the emperor and Bismarck to the white heat of anger.

Boetticher knew the young emperor's enthusiasm for the Grand Duke of Baden's and Dr. Hinzpeter's social-political ideas and he worked upon the emperor's mind against the prince. Boetticher also trimmed his sails in good time and voted in the cabinet council against the prince on the labor reform proposals. General Verdy du Vernois, war minister, voted with Bismarck but afterwards ran after the emperor and on the staircase gave him the false assurance that Bismarck had pledged every minister on his honor to vote against the emperor.

This erroneous statement at once roused the emperor's wrath and gave Boetticher the first victory over his chief. Dr. Hinzpeter, Count Douglass and Herr von Heyden, the artist, all close friends of the emperor, joined the plot to overthrow the chancellor. Ludwig Windthorst's memorable visit to Bismarck was a trap laid for the prince. It was intended to make the emperor believe that the chancellor was negotiating for support in resisting the imperial plans.

The prince's enemies kept the emperor well informed of his every movement. Hence the emperor's early visit to the prince on the morning following the evening on which Windthorst made his call.

Count Botho zu Eulenburg also was a special foe of the prince. He, with Lohmann and Minister Thielen, joined the conspirators in preparing the final coup. This was arranged at the house of Mme. de Lebbien, who once hoped to marry Count von Caprivi. There Caprivi and Herr Schwabacher, Bleichroeder's partner in the banking business, met in conference several times. It was soon after the last conference that the emperor violently ruptured his relations to the Prince."

These revelations are stamped with the seal of genuine information which could have come only from Bismarck's most intimate friends. They are certain to cause a stir throughout the empire and to evoke envenomed explanations from the persons implicated.

Issued Fraudulent Vouchers.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 27.—At the instance of the Indianapolis police E. D. Fufford, superintendent of construction of the American long distance telephone company, was arrested at Syracuse, N. Y., to-day and will be brought back to this city. He is charged with embezzling a sum estimated at from $40,000 to $50,000 from the company by issuing fraudulent vouchers.

The Duty on Sugar.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—The proposed tariff bill provides for a duty of one-fourth of a cent per pound on refined sugar and retains raw sugar on the free list. The bounty given American sugar producers by the McKinley bill is to be reduced at the rate of one-eighth each year for eight years, so that at the end of eight years it is to cease entirely.

Asphyxiated by Gas.

CRESTON, Ia., Nov. 27.—A. H. Child, an old resident and prominent business man of Creston; Ed Carver, foreman of the Advertiser job rooms, and his wife, were asphyxiated by gas from a hard coal stove during the night. Mr. and Mrs. Carver soon recovered, but Child's condition is critical.

Catholic Church Dedicated.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Nov. 27.—St. Cecilia's Catholic church, in this city, was dedicated yesterday. The cornerstone of the church was laid Sep. 27, 1891, by the late Bishop Loughlin. The cost of the building, it is said, will amount to $300,000 when fully completed.

Dead After a Long Illness.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 27.—Dr. Henry Bronson, died at his home in this city yesterday after a long illness. The doctor has been a confirmed invalid for 25 years. Dr. Bronson was born in in Waterbury in January 1804 and came to this city in 1845.

CAMPOS IN COMMAND

Hurried Off to Melilla to Fight the Riffs.

Accompanied by Several Generals and 7,000 Troops—Complimented by the Queen-Regent—The Riffians Are Said to Be Strongly Intrenched.

MADRID, Nov. 27.—At a meeting yesterday the ministers agreed to patch up their differences for the present and work harmoniously until the government's difficulty with Morocco should be settled.

The ministers decided that when preparations at Melilla should be complete and all the 24,000 troops should have been landed there they would give the chief command to Gen. Martinez de Campos. The negotiations between the government and Sultan Muley Hassan will be continued meanti me.

General Martinez de Campos has been hurried off to Melilla in much greater haste than was at first expected. He left for Malaga last night and sailed for Melilla to-day. He is accompanied by several generals and 7,000 troops will sail with him. There was an imposing display of military and popular enthusiasm at the station when Campos left.

On Saturday Muley Araaf, Muley Hassan's brother, sought another interview with General Macias, now in command at Melilla. He made the familiar requests for a truce and received the same refusal as previously. General Macias communicated to Muley Araaf also Spain's unfavorable reply to his first proposal and advised him to withdraw the imperial troops from the country near Melilla, as operations would be renewed the moment the tribesmen made the slightest attempt to interfere with the fort works.

The work on the forts at Melilla is proceeding rapidly. General Macias telegraphs that all the garrisons have water, food and amunition for ten days. Several new batteries have been completed. Nanser rifles have been given out to eight regiments. The troops are in high spirits and eager to advance.

It was reported in Madrid last evening that Muley Araaf would return to Tangier by sea, as he fears the Riffs will massacre his party.

General Campos had an interview with the queen-regent before he started for Malaga. She complimented him on the modesty and patriotism he had shown in rejecting overtures to place the government in his hands and in choosing the post of peril and honor at Melilla.

General Campos proposes to form two corps of 10,000 men each, one of them to be commanded by General Cirinchilla. Macias will be second in command at Melilla.

From a native source General Macias has learned that the Riffs are strongly entrenched between Cape Tres Forcas and the Algerian frontier.

May Save Her Life.

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—Mary Hooker, aged 23 years, while at the dumbwaiter shaft in the apartment house, 101 West Seventieth street, fell through the shaft from the third floor to the cellar. She was removed to the Polyclinic hospital. Dr. Dawbarn, who is the professor of surgery in the New York Polyclinic, performed an operation which, it is thought, may result in saving the girl's life.

New Jerseys Race Track.

NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 27.—If the anti-winter race track law, which was passed on the last day of the last legislative session, has any merit, the gates of the three all-the-around race tracks will close on Friday next. At that time the three months close season for race tracks begins, and before March it is expected that the race track laws will all be repealed.

Meat Warehouse Destroyed.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 27.—The Pittsburg establishment of the Home pressed meat company, with the exception of one small cold storage warehouse, was destroyed by fire yesterday. It was located on south Twenty-first street. The loss on building and machinery will amount to about $100,000, on which there is $50,000 insurance.

Burglars Reap a Harvest.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 27.—Our burglars have been reaping a fat harvest at East Buffalo this fall. Within the last week or two they have been especially active. The police say there are between 30 and 40 men in custody at present on the charge of robbing freight cars.

12,000 Killed By an Earthquake.

LONDON, Nov. 27.—A dispatch from Teheran to the Times says that 12,000 persons were killed in Kushan, Persia, by the earthquake last week. Ten thousand bodies have been recovered from the ruins. Fifty thousand cattle were killed. Shocks are still felt daily.

Anxious About the Navarch.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Nov. 27.—The non-arrival of the New Bedford steam whaler Navarch at San Francisco from the Arctic ocean, is causing a great deal of anxiety in this city, there her commander, Capt. J. C. Whitehead, resides.

A NEWSPAPER, NOT AN ORGAN.

(From The Westfield Standard.)

The Standard congratulates and applauds the Plainfield Press for its enterprise in getting out by daylight a post-election edition telling in manly terms of the defeat of its own candidates and dealing with facts without stint, partiality or restraint. This is being a newspaper, which is much better than being an "organ".

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—Lederer's store is crowded with buyers. The bargains he offers merit a large trade.

—The New York World today caricatured Plainfield's Dr. Parkhurst, and put wings on him.

—The City Market, 134 North avenue, is selling native turkeys for 16 and 18 cts. a lb. Their ad is interesting.

—All good Democrats should attend the great organization meeting in headquarters, West Front street, tonight.

—There will be initiation at the Royal Arcanum meeting tonight, in the lodge rooms, Coward Building, Park avenue.

—A consecration meeting will be conducted by the Christian Endeavor Society in the Trinity Reformed church tonight at 8.

—D. D. G. M., Anthony Schoder will pay his official visit to Anchor Lodge tomorrow night at 8. All Masons are invited.

—Work has been resumed on the new Y. M. C. A. building. The cornices and other outside metal work are being painted.

The engagement is announced of Miss Maude James Chilton, the Jersey City novelist, to Lemuel W. Serrell, Jr., of this city.

—Hotel Albion has been closed temporarily, pending repairs. Col. King and family will remain in the hotel, to book guests for the renewal of the season.

PROVED HIS POINT.

Crescent Avenue's Congregation Emphasizes Dean Murray's Sermon.

The Rev. James O Murray, D. D., Dean of Princeton College, preached yesterday morning and evening in the Crescent Avenue church, large audiences greeting him on both occasions. The Rev. Dr. Murray is the father of Dr. Wm. H. Murray of this city.

During his morning discourse the Rev. Dr. Murray paid a high compliment to the Christian fortitude of women, and asserted impressively that Christianity always proved the superiority of woman's bravery over that of man's, and of her patient courage over his easygoing faith. If, when making this assertion, the Rev. Dr. Murray had glanced over his congregation, he would have seen all the comfortable ends of the pews occupied by men, while in the less comfortable seats in the middle of the pews were seated the women of the congregation.

DR. BOONE INJURED.

He Will Sue Carl Kaerth for His Driver's Carelessness.

Dr. W. C Boone had a rib broken and was otherwise seriously injured, Saturday, at Fourth street and Central avenue. One of Carl Kaerth's wagons crashed into his buggy from the rear. Driver Stewart's carelessness is held by the physician to be responsible, and suit will be begun against Mr. Kaerth. Dr. Boone is suffering much pain.

The Women Have Something to Say.

The Plainfield Branch Alliance of Unitarian and other Liberal Christian Women will hold its monthly meeting in All Souls church tomorrow at 3 p. m. The subject will be "Books and Reading", and among the sub-topics will be "Impure Literature and Offensive Placards". At 4 Mrs. J. D. Elwell will lecture in place of Mrs. Howe, who will come later on Ethics of Shakespeare", illustrated by the tragedy of Othello.

Saved from Damage.

As Clarkson Mundy, sexton of Trinity Reformed church, was preparing to leave his house on Pearl street at 6 last evening, he discovered that the chimney was on fire. Mr. Mundy, assisted by John MacDonald, finally succeeded in extinguishing the flames without the aid of the firemen. Had it happened later in the evening, considerable damage would have resulted.

Contesting the Brand Will.

Charles A. Reed as Master in Chancery this morning took the deposition of M. Marvin Dunham in the contest over the will of the late James Brand. Mr. Dunham was one of the witnesses to the will. The proponent of the will was represented by William M. Stillman, and the caveator by Jackson & Angleman.

To Join at Christmas-Tide.

It has been arranged that the First Baptist church and the Mt. Olive and Third Street missions will have a joint Christmas entertainment in the church.

Great Trampers.

Young Hervey Doane and Clinton Mosher walked to Morristown and back, Friday, accompanied by their dog.

I have not used all of one bottle yet. I suffered from catarrh for 12 years, experiencing the nausea fog dropping in the throat peculiar to that disease and sore-headed almost daily. I tried various remedies without benefit until last April, when I saw Ely's Cream Balm advertised in the Boston Budget. I procured a bottle, and since the first days use have had no more bleeding—the sores are entirely gone.—D. G. Davidson, with the Boston Budget, formerly with Boston Journal.

KILLED BY A RUNAWAY TEAM.

JOHN OVERLAND'S CHEST CRUSHED BY A WAGON WHEEL.

Part of His Load of Baled Hay Slipped Off and Started the Horses.—He Was a Soldier in the Salvation Army.

A fatal runaway accident occurred near the freight-house, about 9. this morning.

John Overland, an employe of P. M. French, loaded the double truck of French Bros. with baled hay from a car on the side track. In going down the hill to East Fourth street the load slipped partly off, and one of the bales falling upon the team started them on a run.

Overland was thrown forward to the ground, the wagon wheel passing over him and crushing his chest. The horses ran on and were caught on Park avenue.

Charles VanNess and Charles Cooper, employed by Albert Hedden, carried the injured man into C. F. French's feed store and summoned Dr. M. B. Long of Park avenue. Overland died twenty minutes later. The body was taken to Undertaker Runyon's establishment.

Overland was nearly thirty years old, was unmarried, and had a brother residing on Grove street. He had been in Mr. French's employ about six months, and formerly drove a water wagon. He was one of the early converts of the Salvation Army. He spoke and sang earnestly in three of the Army meetings yesterday.

Edward M. Thorn, carpenter, of 616 East Second street, who is distinguished from Edward P. Thorn by the name Big Ed Thorn, made the courageous stop of the runaway team. As they swung from East Fourth street into Park avenue the horses tumbled more of their load into the street. Several men grabbed unsuccessful at the reins, but in front of the coal office of Boice, Runyon & Co. Mr. Thorn clutched the bridle, stopped them, and turned them over to Sergeant Kiely, who came running up. The spectacle of the old man in his plucky act won admiration from all eye-witnesses.

Overland was insured for $654 in the Metropolitan Insurance Company.

CIGARETTES MADE HER ILL.

She Inhaled the Smoke on the Street, and it Gave Her Lung Trouble.

There are at present thirteen patients under treatment in the Muhlenberg Hospital.

Miss Bella Magraft, living with Mrs. Havens at 118 Watchung avenue, was brought to the hospital last evening, suffering from hemorrhage of the lungs, the result of a fit of coughing caused by inhaling cigarette smoke on the street. Dr. E. W. Hedges attended her and her condition was much improved this morning.

Nathan Crook, colored, underwent a successful operation for intestinal strangulation, at the hands of Dr. G. W. Endicott yesterday. While his condition is still very critical, it is thought he will recover.

A Case for North Plainfield.

The case of Corzetta Jenimo, a poor person of Fanwood township, was heard by Justices Moore and Hetfield at the office of W. R Codington, this morning.

Mrs. Ida Margentino acted as interpretess in a most satisfactory manner, and expedited the trial by her clearness of expression and fluency of language.

The Justices found that the party in question with her two children were a proper charge upon the township of North Plainfield, and ordered her removal to the overseer of the poor of that township.

To Serenade the Councilman.

The Independent Fife and Drum Corps will go to Dunellen this evening for their new overcoats of navy blue with corn-colored trimmings. Returning on the 8:43 train they will march to the Democratic headquarters on West Front street and serenade V. L. Frazee, Fourth ward candidate for Councilman, at the organization meeting.

To Organize Charity Tomorrow Night.

A meeting to consider the question of organized charity, and to devise ways and means for the prevention of suffering among the large number who, owing to the prevailing business depression, will be unemployed during the winter, will be held in the parlors of the Crescent Avenue church, tomorrow evening at 8.

Thanksgiving Offerings.

The Young Ladies Missionary Society of the First Baptist church will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2, to receive gifts for the Baptist Old Folks Home, in which the church has two members.

Will Walk Again.

Andrew Mantz, who, it will be remembered, lost his hands and feet several months ago, has received artificial members and expects soon to be able to walk unaided.

Bowling Postponed.

The game between the Elizabeth Field Club and the C. Y. M. L., scheduled for tomorrow evening on the Young Men's alleys, has been postponed to the night of Dec. 4.

A MOTHER'S SHOCKING DEATH.

MRS. MARY ENGLISH KILLED WHILE PICKING COAL.

Driven by Hard Times to Gather Fuel Along the Tracks, She Meets a Cruel Fate.

Mrs Mary English was instantly killed on the Jersey Central track near the Netherwood station at 8:40 this morning.

Mrs. English was gathering coal from the tracks when she was struck by train 517, bound west. The body was taken to Casey's morgue on West Third street, and the County Physician was notified.

The deceased was the wife of J. W. English, an employe in the Scott Press Works, and resided on North avenue, near Netherwood. She was about thirty-three years of age, and leaves four young children. The woman became confused by the approach of two trains. She stepped from in front of one directly in front of the other.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

George H. Babcock is greatly improved today.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Huff returned from their wedding trip Saturday evening. They were in Chappaqua, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. James McFadden and their daughter Nellie, of New Brunswick, were guests of John Rafferty on Park avenue, yesterday.

Mrs. Charles H. Schermerhorn returned from Lake Saranac Saturday, leaving her son Charles greatly improved. He will remain there during the winter.

IN CHINESE WATERS.

Our Fleet of War Ships to be Largely Increased.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—Within three weeks the United States will be represented in Chinese waters by a naval force stronger than this government ever had in that part of the world.

One of the largest and fleetest vessels of the new navy, the cruiser Baltimore, has arrived at Colombo, Ceylon, and she will proceed without delay to Hong Kong, stopping a few days en route to coal at Penang and Singapore. On her arrival, the United States vessels in Asiatic waters will number six, exclusive of the Baltimore, namely: the flagship Lancaster, the old men-of war Monocacy and Marion and the new gunboats Concord and Petrel. The Baltimore will take the place of the Lancaster as flagship, the latter starting for home immediately after the transfer of Admiral Skerritt's flag. She is expected to arrive in this county in March next.

The increase in the force attached to the Asiatic station is due principally to the unsettled state of the diplomatic relations of the governments of China and the United States over the Chinese exclusion law.

The extension of the period for registration has in some degree lessened the apprehension of this government of trouble over the presence of American missionaries and other Americans in China, but vessels will be kept in the vicinity of places where there is a large American contingent.

At least one of the three new gunboats for which bids were recently opened at the navy department will be sent to China. These gunboats are to be constructed on plans especially adopted for their service in Chinese rivers and harbors.

A WONDERFUL BOAT.

Official Report on the Trial Trip of the Cruiser Columbia.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—The official report of the board appointed to conduct the trial of the new cruiser Columbia, the swiftest vessel of the navy, shows that the mean speed of the ship for two runs over the measured course from Cape Ann to Cape Porpoise, under forced draft, with an average air pressure of nine-tenths of an inch, carefully calculated and corrected for tidal flow, was at the rate of 22.80 knots per hour.

In making the report the board "begs to express the opinion that in the Columbia the service and the country has a vessel that as a type of superior construction, advanced engineery and great speed, marks an epoch in our modern cruiser design and building."

Another Hawaiian Statement.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—The department of state has given out another volume of the Blount report. It consists of a number of affidavits, a long list of statements and interviews, the correspondence relative to the landing of the Boston; the protest of Governor Cleghorn, the letters that passed between the queen and the provisional government, and statistics of the products of the islands, area and population and its composition. The book contains 409 pages.

Mail and Wheelbarrow Disappeared.

HILLSBORO, O., Nov. 27.—John Beards, an employe of a water works company, while wheeling twenty pounds of dynamite on a wheelbarrow, let it fall off. An explosion followed, and Beards and wheelbarrow disappeared. Beards' brains were found in a tree, and his skull in a yard near by; that was all found of him. No one else was seriously hurt. Glass was broken in all the houses on the street where the accident occurred.

Mexican Troops Slaughtered.

DEMING, N. M., Nov. 27.—Two Mexican refugees up from the scene of the revolutionary territory say that a battle occurred in Boca Grande county last Thursday. The Mexican troops, numbering several hundred, were surrounded by the rebels in ambush and, officers and men alike, were shot down like sheep. Those who escaped did so by fleeing. The Yaqui Indians have joined the rebels.

Fifteen Years for Wife Murder.

BALLSTON, N. Y., Nov. 27.—The trial of Patrick King at Saratoga Springs, who was indicted for murder in the first degree for killing his wife, Catharine, September 1, was ended by the jury finding a verdict of guilty of manslaughter in the first degree. Judge Houghton sentenced the prisoner to hard labor in Dannemora prison for fifteen years.

75 YEARS A CHURCH.

LOCAL BAPTISTS HAVE A JOYOUS CELEBRATION.

Stirring Historical Address by the Pastor, the Rev. Dr. D. J. Yerkes.

Yesterday was the seventy-fifth anniversary of the First Baptist church, and in celebration an appropriate service was held in the morning. The music was adapted to the event, and the following interesting and valuable historical discourse was given by the Rev. Dr. D. J Yerkes, pastor.

To the Church of God which is at Corinth—1 Cor. 1-2.

The word rendered "church" means strictly an assembly—and if one reads ("The assembly of God which is at Corinth" it will perhaps be more apparent that the persons referred to constituted a body unique in itself and different from all other congregations of people in the world. The church at Corinth was an assembly of God. It was not a body—like the Areopagus of the Athens, nor the Senate of Rome, nor a synagogue of the Jews. A church of God, in all that distinguishes it as such, has nothing in common with other associations in the world. It is divine in its origin, for every true member of it is born of God. The supplies which sustain its life are spiritual, and are communicated by the Spirit of God. The constitution of the church is written in the word indited by the Holy Spirit, and He himself is the expounder and interpreter of the word. The aim of the church, as set forth by its founder, is the strengthening and extension of the kingdom of God on earth by the conversion of men and the establishing of its members by holy living and by the proclamation of the gospel. Such was the church of God at Corinth, and of like character were all the churches planted by the apostles of Jesus Christ. And these are the characteristics which mark a church of God in all time. These ancient churches planted by the apostles furnish a pattern as to many things. They were organized through the preaching of the word. Persons were converted and baptized, and they assembled for worship, and observed the ordinance of Christ—and that was a church of God. It came into existence by no summons of earthly authority, by no impulse born of mere human motive or purpose—but by the anointing and unifying spirit of God in the hearts of the members. These early churches were composed only of such as had believed in Jesus and been baptized in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost. The only Bishops known to these churches were the pastors of the separate churches. These churches were separate and independent bodies. There was no universal authority centred in one man or body of men to legislate for them. If such authority existed it was in the inspired apostles. And if they had such authority it was as inspired men, and it could not have been delegated to successors, for they had no inspired successor. The great and special functions of the apostles' office ceased with the apostles. And these separate churches were self-governing bodies. Paul's epistles show unmistakably that the reception and exclusion of members, the management of its internal affairs were lodged in the church itself. Sometimes he wrote to the churches and often with great earnestness, but only in the way of instruction and correction. It is very clear to the careful reader of his epistles to the churches, that he regarded the churches themselves as bodies to whom belonged the authority and responsibility of action.

And to these churches were committed the keeping of the ordinances of Christ, baptism the Lord's Supper, to be observed and maintained as witnesses of truth. There are fraternities and associations, bound together by bonds of interest, with aims in agreement with the interests which unite their members together; and we have religious organizations, missionary societies, Bible and tract societies and other associations to promote work in behalf of morals and religion, but not one of them is a church of God. The church is where the ordinances of Christ are maintained and observed in the spirit of them. The spirit and power of the churches ought to work out in manifold directions, but they themselves are the divinely constituted witnesses of Christ in the world, and organs through which the Great Head of the church dispenses spiritual blessings to men from age to age. What a sublime spectacle is that of a church here on earth fulfilling the services committed to her by Jesus Christ. Informed by the spirit of God, sustained by the divine life of Christ in the members, supported by the power of faith in the risen Christ, moved by the impulse of constraining love to Christ and for the lost for whom he died, cheered by the promises of God which she holds to be more unbreakable than the ordinances of heaven that bind the stars together, she goes forth in her labors, through evil report and good report, unchanged by the changes which occur about her, ever praying Thy kingdom come, ever holding forth the wand of life, The banner given her to display because of the truth is handed down from generation to generation, and through all her face is set toward that day when the glory of the Lord shall fill the earth.

And now we come to speak concerning this church of Jesus Christ. We say church of Christ, for though we confess her failure to fill out aright the elements of the divine pattern the Lord has put upon her the seal of His high approval by the manifestations of His presence and power in the midst of the people.

On the 12th of January, 1818, a meeting of the citizens of Plainfield was held to consider the propriety of erecting a house of worship, here, there being at that time no place of worship in the town except the Friends Meeting House, located on the corner of Third street and Broadway. As the result of that meeting a frame building 42x48 feet was erected on lands owned by John Manning and John Wilson, at a cost of $3,500. The site of that building is the one occupied by our present church edifice. At a meeting held Feb. 23, 1818, it was decided by vote of the subscribers to the building fund that whenever a religious society legally organized should occupy the house the deed to the property should be given to the trustees of said society upon their assuming responsibility for all contracts expressed or implied.

In response to the above action a presentation was made at a meeting of the subscribers, Oct. 23, on behalf of members of the Samptown Baptist church living in this vicinity and who were about to organize a Baptist church in Plainfield. The request of these persons was unanimously granted.

On the 5th of November a meeting was held in the house of the Rev. Jacob F. Randolph for the purpose of organizing the church. The church, as at first organized, was composed of 34 persons regularly dismissed from the churches of Samptown and Piscataway. At this meeting Jacob F. Randolph was chosen pastor, Daniel F. Randolph and John Manning deacons, and Drake Dunn church clerk. On Wednesday, the 25th of November, 1818, 75 years ago today, the church was publicly recognized as an Independent Baptist church by appropriate services. The sermon on that occasion was preached by the Rev. Daniel Dodge of Piscataway.

The names of the constituent members of the church were as follows: Elder Jacob F. Randolph and wife, Sarah Randolph, Daniel F. Randolph, Rosanna Randolph, Benjamin Laing, Sophia Laing, John F. Randolph, Elizabeth Randolph, William Lupardus, Mary Lupardus, Samuel Estil, Elizabeth Estil, John Manning, Jane Manning, Abraham Lane, Margaret F. Randolph, Elizabeth Manning, Rachael Dunham, Mary Dare, Mary F. Randolph, Janette Corlel, Elizabeth F. Randolph, Hetty F. Randolph, James Dare, Anna F. Randolph, Mary F. Randolph, Sarah Flatt, Nancy Mollinson, Rachel Soper, Mary Stites, Anna Meads, Peter Laing (colored). All of the above had been dismissed from the Samptown church. Besides these were Drake Dunn and his wife, Nancy Dunn, from Piscataway.

At a public meeting of the church and congregation held in the meeting-house Dec. 14, 1818, the first Board of Trustees was elected and the call of Elder Randolph as pastor was confirmed, at an annual salary of $250.

It is worth while at this point, in speaking of the origin of this church, to refer to the ancestry of some of its constituent members and of a number who afterward united with it. These were liberty loving people. Their history is linked with the history of the men who defended the rights of conscience against the intolerance of the standing order in the early days of New England. It is familiar to most readers of that early history that in 1635 Roger Williams was summoned before the general court at Boston to answer for the immortal principle which he had proclaimed—that the "civil power has no jurisdiction over the conscience". The sentence of the court was that he be banished from the province. To avoid transportation he sought shelter in the territory of Narragansett.

Having secured a liberal charter from Chas. II, he with others of "like views" formed a colony and named the town which he founded Providence, in recognition of divine goodness, and here in 1638 he founded the First Baptist church in America. In 1651 Obadiah Holmes, who dissented from the standing order and united with the Baptists was convicted for denying the validity of infant baptism, and was sent to prison and besides received 30 strokes with a three-corded whip.

These familar instances are selected from many to show the spirit of religious intolerence which existed in New England at that time. It was the spirit of the times which almost everywhere prevailed among those in authority and was due to a misconception of the principles of the New Testament rather than to the spirit of cruel persecution. And we refer to those who were persecuted for conscience sake, not to lay reproach on New England. New England today must condemn the acts which imposed suffering on godly men. But we make the reference to honor the men who through obloquy and suffering stood by their consciences and gave witness to the principle of religious liberty. Another fact in this connection. As early as 1638 a settlement had been made near Dover, N. H., in the district of Piscataqua on the left side of the Piscataqua river. We do not know that a church had been organized here at this early date, but the body of this people were Baptists and suffered hardship from the measures of the Massachusetts Bay Company. About this time a young man, afterward the celebrated Hanserd Knollys, who had been ordained by the Bishop of Peterboro, a minister of the established church, and who subsequently united with the Baptist, having been persecuted on account of his dissent, took passage in an emigrant ship for Boston. Here he was ostracized by the civil and ecclesiastical authorities as an Anabaptist and a dangerous person, not fit to remain in the Patent. It happened that he fell in with some persons from Dover who came to Boston on business, and accompanying them on their return he ministered to the people there until 1641 when at the request of his friends he returned to England. If not before, a church must have been constituted in this locality during the ministry of Hanserd Knolleys. I recall a fact stated by the Rev. Dr. Heman Lincoln, in an account of New England Baptists given in a Boston paper, in which he stated that these people of Piscataqua had suddenly disappeared from that region and that no trace was left of their church and worship. The truth of history is that soon after the departure of Hanserd Knollys they emigrated to Long Island then under the Dutch Government and remained there until 1664, when the government passed into the hands of the English. Here new trials assailed them, but providence opened to them a door of hope and in this wise: In 1664 Charles II made a grant of territory including the province of New Jersey to his brother, the Duke of York, who transferred so much as now comprises New Jersey to Lord Berkeley and Sir George Carteret. These gentlemen, having become the sole proprietors of New Jersey, as an inducement to settle in their territory, issued a Constitution entitled "The Concessions and Agreements of the Lord Proprietors of New Jersey to and with all and every of the adventurers, and all such as may settle and plant there". Among the provisions of that document it was agreed "that no person qualified as aforesaid within the said province at any time shall be in anywise molested, punished, disquieted or called in question for any difference of opinion or practices in matters of religion. This constitution was signed Feb. 10, 1664. Here was the open door for our distressed friends now on Long Island, and they gladly entered it. Selling their property on Long Island they came to New Jersey and made a permanent settlement and named it Piscataway, after their old home in New Hampshire. Here they and descendants of theirs have lived for more than 200 years We are not warranted in saying that these people were all Baptists, but many of them were, and later others of like mind joined the settlement. Meetings were held in this community before a church was organized. This took place in 1689. Now note the names of the persons who formed this early settlement: Smith, Drake and Dunham in 1668; Fitz Randolph in 1669; Sutton, Manning and Smalley in 1670, '75; Runyon in 1683; Giles, Dayton, Mollison, Laing, Corlell in 1680, '85; Blackford and Pyatt in 1693; Stelle and Clarkson in 1705.

Not a few of the members of our church are the lineal descendants of these liberty-loving men, who were as true and robust as any of the Puritans and far in advance of them as to the doctrine of the rights of conscience. This church strikes its roots down into the lives of the men and women, and through them it claims as its spiritual ancestry the old Baptists of Holland, so long denounced as seditious and schismatic, just because they refused to bow to the authority of church and State, but whom impartial history is vindicating today—to the earliest champions of religious liberty—many of whom sealed their faith with their lives.

Our first pastor, Jacob F. Randolph, was born in Middlesex county in 1756. He was baptized and united with the Baptist church at Scotch Plains in 1786. His first pastorate was that of Mt. Bethel church. In 1793 he became pastor of the newly-formed church at Samptown, where he labored with marked success for 25 years. For some time he had resided in Plainfield, and when the church was organized he was called to the pastorate, and continued with the church until his death, January 18, 1828. He was a man of sound judgment, clear perceptions of truth, ardent piety and great zeal. Not long since one of the old members of the church who had listened to his preaching and who knew him well, said that he was a man of a singularly gentle disposition and of winning ways. During his pastorate 22 persons united with the church by baptism; others from sister churches united by letter. The membership at the time of his death was 44.

The successor of Elder Randolph was Daniel T. Hill, the father of Dr. David Hill President of Rochester University. It has been said of Mr. Hill that he had an active mind, a fluent speech, tenacious memory and a popular delivery. These qualities rendered his preaching attractive, and though he had not the advantages of a thorough education his natural endowments earned for him the reputation of being one of the most able divines of our denomination in New Jersey. During his pastorate an addition was built to the rear of the church at an expense of $1,400. His labors were greatly blessed in the increase of the membership to the church. The additions by baptism and letter were 285; 55 died, leaving a membership of 254.

Mr. Hill served the church eleven years, resigning May, 1836. The church soon after called the Rev. Simeon J. Drake who was serving the Baptist church at Rahway. His acceptance followed and he began his labors on Sunday, August 4, of the same year. His ministry was a rich blessing to the church both in the winning of souls and in the building of saints up in sound doctrine. Mr. Drake was born in the city of New York in 1804, and after a course of study in Columbia College he entered his father's store. In 1832 he was baptized by the Rev. William Parkinson into the fellowship of the First Baptist church of New York. He was licensed to preach in 1834, and was called the following year to the Baptist church at Rahway. At this time he held an important position in the Fulton Bank of New York, which he resigned with its ample salary to become the pastor of a Baptist church. Mr. Drake was a man of noble qualities both of mind and heart, of sound judgment, of an admirably rounded character, faithful and earnest as a servant of Christ. The Rev. Dr. Webb said of him "Taking him all in all he was the best man I ever knew", and the memory of him is cherished in the hearts of all the living to whom he ministered as pastor of the church." During his ministry in 1842 the meeting house was again enlarged and improved at an expense of $2,350. This was the building occupied by the church until the present edifice was erected. In this same year 56 members were dismissed to form the Second Baptist church. Subsequently 21 others withdrew to unite with this new church. During his ministry 406 united with the church, and 275 of these by baptism. The decrease during this pastorate was 476. The number of dimissions was unusually large on account of the dimission of a number to form the Second Baptist church. At his death the membership was 264. After a pastorate of 23 years pastor Drake closed his labors on earth April 13, 1852, and entered into rest. His funeral sermon was preached by his life-long friend the Rev. William Hague, D. D. Many of you remember that day when you carried all that was mortal of your loved and honored pastor to his burial and made great lamentation over him.

The present pastor commenced his ministry with you in the fall of 1863. The church then numbered 254 members. It was my privilege to begin my ministry here among as true and noble a body of men and women as I have ever known. The Lord has since then granted many times of refreshing and large increase. To meet the growing needs of the church the present church edifice was projected. At a parish meeting held April 10, 1866, it was decided to proceed toward the erection of a new church edifice. The following gentlemen were named as a Building Committee: Elston Marsh, William White, Levi Hetfield, N. Webster, D. F. Randolph, Evan Jones, A. J. Hodenpyl. Some of these declined to serve and others were chosen to fill their places among whom was Henry Smith who acted as Chairman of the Committee. The building was begun in 1867 and finished in 1869 at a cost of about $75,000. The dedicatory services were held November 25 of that year. The sermon on the occasion was preached by Dr. Ide, of Springfield, Mass. Prominent among those who helped to carry forward the building enterprise was the late William White, but he was supported by others of like mind, whose influence and liberality were the important factors in completing the enterprise. The large debt incurred in the erection of this building through the energy and liberality of the trustees and the large liberality of their brethren was resumed.

During the present pastorate 1,369 persons have united with the church, 804 by baptism and 565 by letter. The number of names dropped from the church roll on account of dismissions, death, and exclusion and erasues, is 798. Our present number is 825. The number on the church roll from the constitution up to date is 2,200.

It will be seen that the church throughout the long period of 75 years has been served by only four pastors. The pastorate of Elder Randolph extended over a period of 10 years until his death in 1828.

Mr. Hill was with the church 11 years, resigning in 1839.

Mr. Drake served the church 23 years and until his death in 1862.

The present pastor has been with the church 30 years from 1863 until November. During the whole history of the church it has been blessed with almost uninterrupted peace. Wisdom, kindness, forbearance, large heartedness have prevailed in its councils. The Spirit which has ruled the great body of the members has been of Him who prayed "Peace be within thy walls and prosperity within thy palaces. For my brethren and companions sake I will now say peace be within thee."

The early records of the church show that the church experienced no little trouble in connection with singing in the public service. At almost every church meeting for more than twenty-five years it enjoyed the attention of the church. The chief difficulty appears to have been to secure persons to lead the singing. For about forty years we have been favored in this respect, for which we should be profoundly thankful. During that time we have had only two leaders. A. Vancerbeek led our worship of song for fifteen years. For twenty-five years that part of our worship has been under the direction of our present leader. At first there was considerable opposition to the use of an organ in the service. That was so far overcome that in 1855 it was resolved "That in the judgment of the church the use of a musical instrument in connection with our singing aids essentially in promoting the harmony of that branch of our service." This resolution was simply an approval. The object contemplated was caused through the liberality of Elston Marsh and a few other brethren. That organ then purchased was in service until the present edifice was occupied in 1868.

A curious item is found on the minutes of 1843. A brother charged the pastor with writing and reading his sermons. The matter was brought before the church. The charge was found to be false and the brother was excluded for assailing the pastor. It is not likely that the church would have condemned the good pastor if he had occasionally written and read his sermons. And yet a good many people in that day did look upon the reading of sermons as a device of Satan. Happily that view is not very current now—else I might take heed to what I am doing this morning.

Of the constituent members of the church none are now living—nor are there any living who united with the church during the pastorate of Elder Randolph. Among the sheaves gathered by the labors of that saintly man—Jefferson Dunn and Wife and James C. Ayers were the last to be garnered.

Only five of those who united with the church under Mr. Hill are with us now—Zeruiah Stead widow of Deacon Stead, now in her 95th year; Mahala Sims, Mrs. Hetty Johnson, Jerome Pack, by baptism; and William C. Ayers, by letter.

The members now living who joined the church during the pastorate of Mr. Drake number 60: Agnes Parborn, Margaret A. Randolph, Elizabeth M. Cadmus, Abby J. Hillman, Levi Hetfield, Martha J. Drake, Hattie Experience Jobs, Betsey French, Ann Stead Allen, Isabella R. Boice, Daniel F. Randolph, Lewis E. Barkalew, Elizabeth Allen, Cornelius Leonard, Julia R. Stelle, Sarah F. Jennings, Gussie Runyon, Emma D. Compton, Mary E. Ayers, Anna O. Marsh, Emma V. French, Catherine F. Randolph, Lizzie Manning, Calvin Boice, Joel Manning, Mrs. Joel Manning, Sardinia C. Miles, Emma B. Manning, Mary J. Elliott, Juliet Runyon, Betsey Manning, Lewis V. F. Randolph, Jane Waldron, Oliver B. Leonard, Lizzie M. Leonard, Rufus Case, Mary E. Shreve, Andrew Vanderbeek, Eliza S. Vanderbeek, Rachel Runyon. The above-named persons were received by baptism.

The following were received by letter under Mr. Drake: Mary F. Randolph, Halstead C. Compton, Jennie S. Lenox, John A. Thickstun, Mary J. Thickstun, Lewis J. Denton, Clarence Denton, Violetta Stein, Elijah Smock, Esther Allen, William C. Butler, Emily M. Butler, Caroline P. Ayers, Margaret Brokaw, Lebbeus Manning, William L. Smalley, Phebe Smalley, Isabella Mallinger, Jemima Hillyer.

Deducting the 60 persons from the number of our present membership, the remaining 760 represent the number now on our roll who united with the church during the present pastorate. Forty-six persons have served the church as Trustees including the present Board: Daniel F. Randolph, John Wilson, John Manning, John Allen, Wm. Lupardus, John F. Randolph, Wm. B. Leonard, Freeman Cole, Drake Dunn, John Stein, Daniel Drake, Aaron Osborn, Jacob Manning, Benj. Stelle, Noah Drake, James Leonard, Alfred Berry, Joel Dunn, Wm. P. Williamson, Joseph Nelson, Nelson Webster, Moses H. French, James M. Dunn, Levi Hetfield, Wm. White, Corra O. Meeker, Thompson E. F. Randolph, Halstead C. Compton, Martin Giles, Manning Stelle, Wm. C. Ayers, Henry Smith, Elston Marsh, Jeremiah Manning, Wm. R. Clarkson, D. J. Boice, Nelson W. Gardner, Theo. T. French, Lemuel W. Serrell, E. J. Chaffee, Alex. Gilbert, Geo. H. Chapman, Frank Gardner Francis E. Marsh, Morgan S. Taylor, Martin I. Cooley, E. J. Waring, Samuel St. John, McCutchen.

The brethren who have filled the office of Deacon are: Daniel F. Randolph, John Manning, Thos. Stead, Drake Dunn, William Lupardus, Benjamin Stelle, Manning Stelle, James T. Dunn, Elston Marsh, Oliver Runyon, Manning Vermeule, Daniel F. Randolph, Insley Boice, Peter Balen, Stephen H. Burr, John Baldwin, Lemuel Serrell, Geo. F. Brown, H. E. Needham, E. Bonny, Rufus K. Case, Dr. Probasco, Wm. White.

The following persons have served the church in the capacity of Church Clerk: Drake Dunn, Benj. Stelle, Jefferson R. Dunn, John Wilson, James C. Ayers, Elston Marsh, O. B. Leonard.

The Superintendents of the Sunday-school have been as follows: Jefferson Dunn, Benj. Stelle, Jacob A. Wood, James C. Ayers, David Lenox, Oliver Runyon, Levi Hetfield, Elston M. Dunn, O. B. Leonard, Wm. White, Wm. H. Gray, S. H. Burr, Charles W. McCutchen, Rufus K. Case.

The church has sent forth the following persons to herald the Gospel: Lucius Atwater, Jacob A. Wood, William J. Leonard, Myatroh Pohung, J. Judson Pierson, Alexander Truatt, Everett Burr, Prof. Rush Rhees. Besides these, two others who were baptized into the fellowship of this church entered the ministry, Albert Vail and Prof. W. C. Wilkinson, of Chicago.

MONIES RAISED.

During the first 45 years the church raised for benefcence, $10,108; current expenses, $38,500; building and repairs, $12 500. The sums raised during the last 30 years were: for beneficence, $115,513.67; current expenses, $187,238.65; building and repairs, $102,409.00; sundries, $15,000. Total raised by church, $481,270.92.

These statistics reveal but little and the most insignificant part of the churches history. There is an unwritten history which cannot be gathered of that hidden life of souls, of joys and sorrows, of fellowship with the unseen Lord, of travail and prayer for the conversion of men and all these have gone into the life of the church. Herein was the hidden power of Christ out of which sprang all that has told for goodness and power and usefulness by the church. This record is on high. We may read it when the secrets of all hearts are revealed.

We would not in recalling the past fail to remember that it has been marked by many things which ought to humble us. But the Lord has been good and precious and we here raise our Ebenezer.

It would have been a most grateful task to me to present many details in referring to men and events, that have had a part in the history of the church, but time would not allow this. But as we take a backward glance there rise before us the forms of many noble men and women who have finished their course and gone to be with the Lord. Their lives are a precious memory and ought to inspire us with faith and courage to carry on the work which they have laid down. The loss of so many men and women who were so true and steadfast and strong to us is a loss of power. But the work was not theirs nor is it ours but the Lord's. They were his servants to do his will. They fulfilled their work only as he endued them with the power of the Holy Spirit. And the men and women of the church today with the help of the Spirit will not lack power to do the work to which God calls them. May he grant more and more abundantly of his Spirit to the church that she may hold forth the Word of Life. Instead of the fathers shall be the children. We are cheered and encouraged to hope for large results from the zeal and activity of our Young People's Christian Endeavor Society and from their work in the Third Street Mission. May our young people abound more and more and grow in grace, so as to step into the places made vacant as one and another soldier of the cross drops out of the ranks of the living.

Brethren and sisters, these 75 years are witnesses of God. They are prophecies and promises. They are the leaves of a Bible written by the Spirit of God upon the souls of men and women to whom this church has been a sanctuary of God.

They tell us that God is as faithful as when he led his people up through the wilderness. That he still hears prayer as when he answered the prayer of the prophet on Carmel. That the gospel is the power of God unto salvation as on the Day of Pentecost. That Jesus in his love will save sinners now as when from the cross he said to the dying thief, "this day shalt thou be with me in Paradise".

But let what the Lord has wrought in the past give us courage and faith for the future. While the past is to us a blessed memory and an assuring fact if faithful, let us remember that our way and work lie in the future—to-morrow—ext day and until the end. The past lives in the present. The present cannot live in the past. It must face the future. The church exists for the future. Like Israel she must go a way which she has not passed hitherto. New conditions, new opportunities, new responsibilities and new methods must confront her. But as of old let her cleave to Christ, as of old let her altar's fires be kindled with coals from the altar of God. Let the Spirit that rested upon the fathers anoint their children that they too may serve their day and generation in the fear of God.

We mourn the dead! But they and we are one family in the Lord. They are at home in the Father's House with Christ the Lord. We shall be with them soon. Let us work while it is day.

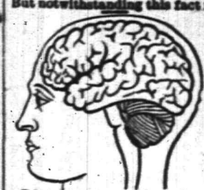
MYSTERIES!

The Nervous System the Seat of Life and Mind. Recent Wonderful Discoveries.

No mystery has ever compared with that of human life. It has been the leading subject of professional research and study in all ages. But notwithstanding this fact it is not generally known that the seat of life is located in the upper part of the spinal cord, near the base of the brain, and so sensitive is this portion of the nervous system that even the prick of a needle will cause instant death.



Recent discoveries have demonstrated that all the organs of the body are under the control of the nerve centers, located in or near the base of the brain, and that when these are deranged the organs which they supply with nerve fluid are also deranged. When it is remembered that a serious injury to the spinal cord will cause paralysis of the body below the injured point, because the nerve force is prevented by the injury from reaching the paralyzed portion, it will be understood how the derangement of the nerve centers will cause the derangement of the various organs which they supply with nerve force.

Two-thirds of chronic diseases are due to the imperfect action of the nerve centers at the base of the brain, not from a derangement primarily originating in the organ itself. The great mistake of physicians in treating these diseases is that they treat the organ rather than the nerve centers which are the cause of the trouble.

DR. FRANKLIN MILES, the celebrated specialist, has profoundly studied this subject for over 20 years, and has made many important discoveries in connection with it, chief among them being the facts contained in the above statement, and that the ordinary methods of treatment are wrong. All headache, dizziness, dullness, confusion, pressure, blues, mania, melancholy, insanity, epilepsy, St. Vitus dance, etc., are nervous diseases no matter how caused. The wonderful success of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine is due to the fact that it is based on the foregoing principle.

DR. MILES' RESTORATIVE NERVINE is sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee, or sent direct by Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, six bottles for $5, express prepaid. It contains neither opiates nor dangerous drugs.

Ahead of a Year Ago.

Nothwithstanding the great cry of "Hard Times," our trade up to the present date is considerably in excess of last year.

The result we believe of FAIR DEALING—giving the very best goods possible for the least money. In other words, REAL MERIT.

The people of Plainfield have found out that in the filling of a memorandum of a dozen or more articles in our lines, they can do just as well at EDSALL'S in price, quality, style and variety as in any one store in New York.

Patrons often remark in our store: "Well, if I can't get it here, there is no use of my looking for it in Plainfield, for I will have hard work to find it in New York."

We have now so many good things to advertise that it is impossible to mention them in our space, and urge buyers to call at our store and see for themselves the many new things we offer.

KILLED ON THE LEHIGH.

Engineer Mallory's First Trip Resulted in His Death.

PERTH AMBOY, N. J., Nov. 27.—The Pennsylvania market freight from Jersey City, bound south on the Central railroad, collided with a coal train at the Washington street crossing, in this city yesterday morning and Engineer Warren Mallory, of the Lehigh train was killed.

The coal train was heavily loaded and ran up to the Central crossing against a red signal. The momentum of the train on the down grade was so great that the engineer miscalculated the distance and ran into the crossing.

The Pennsylvania train had a clear track signal and was running thirty miles an hour. The Lehigh locomotive was struck squarely in the centre and turned over. Engineer Mallory was rolled beneath the engine and crushed to death. The fireman escaped with a few bruises as did the engineer and fireman of the Pennsylvania engine. Both locomotives and four freight cars were wrecked.

It was Engineer Mallory's first trip over the Lehigh road. He had been out of work for the past six months and had taken the place of one of the strikers. He was married and lived 215 West Eighty-eight street, New York city.

Big Meeting at White Haven.

WHITE HAVEN, Pa., Nov. 27.—There was an immense mass meeting held here at which prominent labor leaders from Pittsburg, Cincinnati and eastern points were present. All of the speakers who addressed the meeting counseled the men to remain firm and spoke encouragingly of the result. Three more engineers joined the strikers to-day. The men are firm and confident of success. There has been no disorder and no trouble is expected.

Will Receive Freight for All Points.

BUFFALO, Nov. 27.—The Lehigh Valley officials notified all connecting lines at this point that they would accept freight for all points on the Lehigh Valley road and claim the strike to be a thing of the past.

MGR. SATOLLI'S HOME.

To Make It Church Property $60,000 Will Be Needed.

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—Roman Catholics in the archdiocese of New York will on Sunday, Dec. 3, contribute their quota towards the purchase of the residence of the apostolic delegation in Washington, which is the official home of Mgr. Satolli, the apostolic delegate.

Yesterday, at the request of Archbishop Corrigan, a circular was read in all the churches of the diocese, directing that a general collection be made next Sunday, the first Sunday in Advent, to pay off the share of the diocese in the purchase of the residence.

The tone of the circular shows that Archbishop Corrigan is in no doubt as to the result of the call he makes. He expects the response will be a sum so far in excess of that necessary that he explains what he intends to do with the surplus. It will be sent to Pope Leo XIII., to be devoted to propagation of the Roman Catholic faith in the Orient and for the support of the mission seeking to suppress slavery in Africa.

Is It Wrong to Economize?

In some ways perhaps it is, but it is a good thing to economize to the extent of making wearable, a garment that has been cast aside because faded or soiled. The modern process of cleaning or dyeing work wonders in the way of rejuvenating all kinds of apparel.

We Clean or Dye Almost Anything.

Try this form of economy.

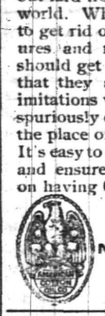
All that's Yellow is not Cottolene

There's hardly a housekeeper in the country but has heard of Cottolene the new vegetable shortening. It is a strictly natural product; composed only of clarified cotton seed oil, thickened for convenience in use, with refined beef suet, pure and sweet. So composed,

COTTOLENE

Was bound to win, and to drive out lard from the kitchens of the world. When housekeepers wish to get rid of the unpleasant features and results of lard, they should get Cottolene, taking care that they are not given cheap imitations with vegetable names, spuriously compounded to sell in the place of Cottolene.

It's easy to avoid disappointment and ensure satisfaction. Insist on having Cottolene.



Sold in 3 and 5 pound pails.

Made only by

N. K. FAIRBANK & CO., CHICAGO, AND PRODUCE EXCHANGE, NEW YORK

It cures Colds, Coughs, Sore Throat, Croup, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis and Asthma. A certain cure for Consumption in first stages, and a sure relief in advanced stages. Use at once. You will see the wonderful effect after taking the first dose. Sold by dealers everywhere. Large bottles 50 cents and $1.00.

SWEEPING REDUCTIONS

Made By Democrats in the New Tariff Bill.

Wool, Coal, Iron Ore and Lumber on the Free List—Reciprocity Law is Repealed—Nearly All Duties Ad Valorem Instead of Specific—Mr. Wilson Not Promised a Judgeship in Case He is Not Re-elected.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—The tariff bill of 1893 was born yesterday. But little of the excitement which has attended its advent throughout the country at large was manifested at the capitol. The committee was slow in getting together. When the members were called to order by Chairman Wilson at 11:30 a. m., half an hour behind the time for meeting, all the democratic members except Mr. Stevens, of Massachusetts, were in their seats. The republican minority was represented by ex-Speaker Reed and Messrs. Burrows, Dalzell and Hopkins. Mr. Payne, another of the republican members, arrived a few minutes before the committee adjourned.

More Data Promised To-day.

The proceedings were very informal. A copy of the bill was presented to each member and Chairman Wilson briefly stated that he would probably be able to-day to furnish additional data, which would include a comparison of the new bill with the present law, printed in parallel columns, so that the changes would be apparent at a glance. Then followed a little desultory talk and the session ended. It barely occupied fifteen minutes.

The republicans, under the rules, will have ten days in which to prepare their report, at which time the majority report will be finished and the bill will be then presented to the house.

Internal Features Not Completed.

The internal revenue features of the bill have not been completed. Commencing with to-day they will be considered by the full committee. It is expected that they will be made public on Thursday of this week. If not, at the earliest date thereafter.

It is manifestly the belief of the committee that the reduced revenues caused by the changes in the tariff schedule will be fully met by the receipts resulting from the income tax. The details of this tax are yet to be worked out. It is not likely that any conclusion will be reached regarding that for several days.

Faith in the Income Tax.

Such is the faith in the income tax on the part of some of its friends in the committee that they asserted to-day that it will not be necessary to raise internal receipts from any other source. If their judgement is followed it is unlikely that the whiskey tax will be increased or if it is, the increase will not exceed ten cents a gallon.

Explanation by Mr. Breckinridge.

Mr. Clifton R. Breckinridge, of Arkansas, one of the prominent majority members of the committee, explained the main features of the bill as follows:

"The revenue difficulty, caused by the recent panic, is temporary only, and it will doubtless be provided for by a temporary expedient. We cannot generalize upon this. But, taking matters at a more normal state, it may be said that we must provide for $50,000,000 or possibly less, in ways not expressed in the new tariff. This will follow very soon, in time to be incorporated with the present bill.

"But this is not expected to be of a character to materially affect manufacturing and trade, and as the people were extremely anxious to know what we proposed doing in regard to the tariff, we concluded to make the new bill public as soon as it was finally completed.

Nearly All Duties Ad Valorem.

"To a very great extent we have substituted ad valorem for specific duties. This seems indispensable if we are to equalize the tariff and the burdens of the people. Many irregularities which are corrected are astonishing.

"We have struck out from the tariff all those features that distinguished it as a 'combine,' and placed what are usually known as 'raw materials,' such as wool, coal, iron ore, wood, and the like on the free list. A few chemicals are added to the free list, and the cruder forms of manufactures, such as pig iron and similar articles are greatly reduced from their extremely high duties. We refuse the extraordinary protection that is now given to transportation. That is, we do not grant rates that will enable an article, especially a crude or bulky article, that is produced in one part of our vast country to overcome the great cost of transportation to remote localities, beyond the range of its reasonable or natural market.

What is Promised.

"The present rates make the cost of such articles oppressive to both the remote and reasonably near-by localities, while a less rate will relieve both peoples, and as consumption increases when extortion is prevented, the trade will be maintained, if indeed, it be not greatly improved. With free raw materials and the tariff stripped of its most odious and oppressive features, we give to consumers and producers alike a larger field for the employment of labor, better returns and a more abundant participation in the rewards and comforts of life."

Mr. Breckinridge illustrated by referring to the woolen schedule, where, with free raw material, the specific or compensatory duties were taken off. Under the old system, yarns worth not over 40 cents a pound were taxed 120 or 135 per cent. Under the new bill they were put down to 35 per cent. He continued:

Sweeping Reductions.

"On cloths, shawls, knit fabrics, etc., the rate now is from 87 per cent. on costly goods to 143 and 162 per cent. on cheaper goods. Of course the rate is much higher on still cheaper goods. We reduce and equalize this by making it 40 per cent. On blankets, hats of wool, and flannels for underwear, the present rate is from 77 to 104 per cent. and on other grades still higher and prohibitory.

"We make them from 25 to 35 per cent. Women's and children's dress goods are now taxed from 34 to 105 per cent., we make them 40 per cent. ad valorem.

"Ready-made clothing is now taxed from 82 pre cent. to prohibition of imports. We make it 45 per cent. Carpets we reduce all along the line.

Graduated Reductions.

"In addition to this, it is provided that on the woolen schedule, excepting carpets, these shall come off 1 per cent. every year for five years. This will bring all those duties five points lower in the scale. In other words, what is left at 35 per cent. will become 30 per cent., etc. This is left temporarily in order to give our woolen manufacturers time and opportunity to become accustomed to the use of foreign wools.

Iron and Cutlery.

"In the metal schedule, with free ore, coal and coke, we bring down pig iron of all kinds from an average of 30 per cent. and fix all iron and steel in slabs, blooms, loops or other forms more advanced than pig iron and less finished than iron in bars, at 25 per cent. Then, all such plain forms as bar iron we make 30 per cent. On thin sheets and structural iron we make the rate 35 per cent. On tin plate, 40 per cent. Steel rails 25 per cent. Castings and various articles in which we have reached great perfection are placed at 25 per cent. Cotton ties are made free.

"Pocket cutlery, in which there was a most unconscionable increase in the McKinley law, is reduced from over 90 per cent. to 35 per cent on knives or parts thereof, costing not over 60 cents a dozen, and 45 per cent. on all costing more than 60 cents a dozen.

"Table cutlery, another great increase in the McKinley law, is brought down from 54 per cent. to 35 per cent.

Linens Cut in Half.

"Linens, etc., are brought down from 60 per cent. to 30 per cent., with 35 per cent. on special articles, like collars, cuffs, etc. Gill netting, etc., which we export, is now 113 per cent. We bring it down to 20 per cent. Flax and hemp in their primary conditions are nearly free.

"Vegetables, except fresh, which only come in when ours are out of season, and which are mostly made free, are placed at approximately 20 per cent. They now average about 37 per cent.

"Glassware is materially reduced on the grades that are now taxed out of proportion.

Reciprocity Repealed.

"The reciprocity law is repealed.

"Silks are reduced from 50 per cent. to 45 per cent only.

"Cotton goods are reduced on the lower grades, say one-half. We export them, and yet they were taxed to prohibition. The higher grades are left at 35, 40 and 45 per cent.

"As to 'coverings,' we provide that they shall be taxed, as the omission to do so leads to many frauds. We exempt only such as are destroyed in the using, such as boxing for machinery, which, for transmission by sea, is very expensive.

"Tourists returning from abroad are not permitted to bring in over $500 of effects free of duty.

Binding Twine Free.

"Binding twine is free. Cotton bagging is cut from 40 per cent. to 15 per cent., with a provision for a drawback on all cotton bagging imported and subsequently exported, as is the case upon tin-plate, etc."

The statement is made at the request of Chairman Wilson, that there is no truth in the report that President Cleveland has offered to provide Mr. Wilson with a lucrative judicial appointment if he should be defeated for congress in the autumn as a result of placing coal on the free list.

Mr. Wilson, speaking of the new measure, said:

"The bill we were called upon to reform is a vast and labyrinthian system of class taxation, the culmination of 80 years of control of the taxing power by a few great interests, gathering on in their train a host of petty toll gatherers.

"It was carefully framed to prevent, as long as possible, what its author called 'Any monkeying with the tariff," by which he meant any successful effort of the people to undo or to lessen the bounties which its beneficiaries were permitted to write therein in their own words and their own figures. It transferred to the free list proper and fruitful revenue articles, where most of the taxes paid by the people were received by their government, and greatly increased the rates on those articles where all or most of the taxes paid by the people went into private coffers. And it was burthened about by many defences, chief among which are a swept and garnished treasury and a swollen and colossal scale of permanent expenditure. Such are the conditions that confronted us at the threshold of our work."

CANADIAN RECIPROCITY.

The New Tariff Bill May Render it More Feasible.

OTTAWA, Ont., Nov. 28.—Deputy Finance Minister Courtney, who was sent to Washington by the Dominion government to watch and report the progress of the ways and means committee, has been authorized to make proposals by which Canada will make certain modifications upon American products if met in a reciprocal spirit by congress. The placing of coal on the free list is one of the concessions the Dominion government is willing to make.

Daily correspondence is kept up between the government here and the agent at Washington, and it is reported in quarters whence reliable information should come that the Canadian government is greatly encouraged over the outlook for a reduction of the American duty on Canadian products, which a member of the cabinet says is the first step toward a fair reciprocity treaty.

Foreign Press Comment.

LONDON, Nov. 28.—The Daily News says of the tariff bill given out by the ways and means committee in Washington:

"This tariff is in no sense a free trade one. It deals tenderly with protection. It carries out to some extent the democratic idea of a tariff for revenue. This is the kind of reform to which the president and his party are pledged, and it is both their duty and policy to carry it out and give the country cheaper goods."

TO GREAT A RISK.

A Lehigh Valley Engineer Resumes Work for His Family's Sake.

AUBURN, N. Y., Nov. 28. — David Hatch, of this city, one of the striking Lehigh engineers and a member of the brotherhood went back to work last night and took the regular train south to Sayre, working with a scab fireman. Hatch said, "Gentlemen, I am sorry, but there are too many men out of work. I've got a little family here and a nice home, and if I lose this job I'd probably have to work elsewhere for 90 cents a day, if I could get it. I dare not risk it any longer." Three more striking engineers reported for duty this morning, and the strike may be considered in a state of collapse. All is quiet at the yards and all freight and passenger trains will soon be moving on schedule time.

Voorhees Promoted.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 28.—President Wilbur, of the Lehigh Valley, has appointed Theodore Voorhees to the office of general manager. Mr. Voorhees has heretofore been the acting general manager and his promotion is believed to presage his election to the presidency at the annual meeting of the board of directors on Jan. 15, as it is generally accepted that Mr. Wilbur will resign.

Additional Police Appointed.

HARRISBURG, Nov. 28.—Gov. Pattison has appointed 21 additional coal and iron police for the Lehigh Valley railroad company on the request of that corporation.

AN OLD LANDMARK GONE.

The Famous Howard House at Niantic Burned.

NEW LONDON, Conn., Nov. 28.—The famous old Howard house at Niantic was destroyed by fire yesterday. There were but few guests in the house and they managed to escape, taking only what clothing they wore. The house was owned by Charles Babcock, treasurer of the town of East Lyme. He saved the town's books.

The Howard house was well-known to Connecticut people and was the favorite resort of nutmeg state dignitaries each year during the encampment of the Connecticut national guard. The loss is $10,000, with little insurance.

The house was built in 1800, and during most of the 93 years of its existence has been a hotel.

Mulcted in the Sum of $12,000.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—Edward Swan, jr., received a verdict of $12,000 yesterday in the supreme court against the Long Island railroad company, as damages for injuries sustained by him in 1890 by the explosion of one of the engines of the road at Oyster Bay. He sued to recover $25,000.

Montreal After the Chess Contest.

MONTREAL, Nov. 28.—There is now a strong probability that the great chess contest between Steinitz and Lasker, the brilliant young Hungarian, will take place in Montreal. Over $1,000 has been subscribed by the local players.

Mexico Railroads Paying.

BOSTON, Nov. 28.—A City of Mexico special says: Every railway in the country shows improved local earnings. Foreign earnings have not increased owing to the enormous cost of foreign exchange limiting importations.

Six Days Overdue.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—The steamship Robinia, with 15,000 boxes of lemons, is six days overdue. She has a crew of twenty men. No anxiety, however, is felt for her safety.

Newspaper Office Damaged By Fire.

WORCESTER, Mass., Nov. 28.—Fire yesterday afternoon damaged to a considerable extent the composing room of the Telegram newspaper.

EARTHQUAKE SHOCKS

New York, New England and Canada Shaken.

The Disturbances Very Perceptible in Parts of Vermont and Canada—At Many Places People Fled in Terror From Houses—No Damage Done.

BURLINGTON, Vt., Nov. 28.—At seven minutes before noon yesterday a severe earthquake shook the buildings throughout the city. The duration of the shock was about fifteen seconds and it was accompanied by a low rumbling noise.

Reports from Montreal are that the shock was very severe, people there rushing with fear into the streets. It was felt as far south as Albany.

Telegrams and telephone messages from surrounding towns report the shock as having occurred simultaneously throughout western Vermont.

Felt All Over Canada.

Dispatches from Montreal say that business on the board of trade was entirely suspended for ten minutes, telegraph operators left their keys open and rushed into the streets, while the "upper cases" in many printing offices were piled by the shaking.

The shock was felt all through the province of Quebec and as far west as Perth, Ontario.

BARRE, Vt., Nov. 28.—Inhabitants of this city were startled at noon yesterday by a rumbling sound, which at first appeared to be the sound of a moving train, but upon investigation it appears to have been an earthquake. Buildings shook, dishes rattled and doors flew open in all directions. Reports from surrounding towns indicate that the shock has been heard in all parts of the Green Mountain state.

The shock was very perceptibly felt at many points in New Hampshire and Massachusetts.

In Eastern New York.

WHITEHALL, N. Y., Nov. 28.—The towns of Rouse's Point, Plattsburg, Au Sable Forks, Keeseville, Peru, Fort Henry and Ticonderoga all report that they felt an earthquake, lasting from 8 to ten seconds, commencing at 11:57 yesterday.

No damage is reported.

At Keesseville the clerks left Prescott's furniture store, fearing the building would fall. Similar reports come from the small towns on the west side of Lake Champlain.

Throughout this town windows and crockery rattled for several seconds. Reports received show that the shock was generally felt in Washington county and the Champlain valley.

Caused Great Alarm at Malone.

MALONE, N. Y., Nov. 28.—At 11:45 yesterday two distinct shocks of earthquake were felt here. They followed each other in quick succession and the strongest buildings trembled as if about to fall. People ran bareheaded into the streets, thinking an explosion had occurred in the vicinity. A clock was knocked from a shelf in William Robarge's house and smashed to pieces. A chimney on the residence of A. R. Lewis was split and partly shattered. It is also reported that one of the walls of the Academy building was somewhat sprung. The teachers and children fled from the building, thinking that the boilers had exploded.

The shocks were like two successive blasts of dynamite, the motion being apparently upward, at first, followed by a lateral swaying. All nearby towns felt the shock. The upheval seems to have traveled from northwest to southeast.

Frightened School Children.

CLAYTON, N. Y., Nov. 28.—An earthquake shock was felt here about 11:40 a. m., yesterday. No damage resulted from the shock. It was noticed particularly in the public school building where the school children became quite alarmed when they felt their seats shaking.

Suicide of Scriba.

PEEKSKILL, N. Y., Nov. 28.—A reporter of the United Press called on Mrs. Scriba at her residence this morning in regard to her husband's suicide in San Francisco, but she could not be seen and would not be interviewed. She was prostrated by the sad news. From letters afterward shown the reporter it was quite evident that his relations with Mrs. Mary A. Garrigan, who for seven years worked at Scriba's, was the probable cause of his downfall.

Hatmakers Flocking to Newark.

NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 28.—The hat lockout at Danbury is more than likely to make itself felt in Newark before many days. This morning there was an influx of hatters here from Connecticut looking for work. There is no work for them and the men in the trade in this city are writing to their friends in Danbury to give Newark a wide berth.

Directum Defeats Saladin.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 28.—Directum, the champion trotter, record 2:05 1-5, defeated Saladin, the pacer, record 2:05 1-4, yesterday afternoon in a match race on the Point Breeze track of the Philadelphia driving park association. Saladin, in a fine burst of speed, won the first heat in 2:10 1-4. Directum took the next three and the race in 2:10 1-4, 2:11 1-4, 2:12.

A NEWSPAPER, NOT AN ORGAN.

(From The Westfield Standard.)

The Standard congratulates and applauds the Plainfield Press for its enterprise in getting out by daylight a post-election edition telling in manly terms of the defeat of its own candidates and dealing with facts without stint, partiality or reserve. This is being a newspaper, which is much better than being an "organ".

The Daily Press will not be published Thanksgiving Day.

As an exponent of true Democratic principles, The Press views with satisfaction the promise made by the local Democracy of effective organization. That is the one thing needful to make the Democratic party a power in Plainfield.

J. A. Smith, who as one of the leading men of the Board of Trade is aiding largely in the inauguration of a new era of prosperity for Plainfield, would make a most zealous and influential representative on the county Board of Freeholders.

The nominations made by the Democratic party for the coming charter election are most excellent, and deserving of the fullest support. The name of Henry B. Ely, who was chosen last night, adds weight to the ticket at large. Mr. Ely is a lawyer of marked ability, and just the sort of a clear-headed and clean-minded man that a city like Plainfield should have in its municipal government.

It is not improbable that the voters of Plainfield will decide next Tuesday that it is time someone else worthy of the emolument and competent to undertake the duties should have a chance to amass property through the income of the Tax Collectorship. Mr. Johnson has made his lands and houses, and ought to be satisfied. Mr. Harper would creditably fill the office, and it would put him on his feet again, where all good citizens would like to see him.

Councilman Frazee's success in business is the envy of the journal in which he declines to advertise. By low prices, honest dealing, and Daily Press advertising, Mr. Frazee has achieved a commercial standing, gratifying and deserved. His business is so great that he and his men cannot get through their work till long after many other stores are closed. But his men get paid just wages for their full time, and as long as they are satisfied to make overtime money nobody has a right to criticize. Mr. Frazee is the workingman's best friend in the Common Council today, and his business experience and ability make him a most valuable member.

Major Pond 'Phones to Plainfield.

When a Plainfield newspaper man was called up on the 'phone a few days ago by Major J. B. Pond, the supreme authority on high-grade entertainment artists, he took occasion to ask of the Major what he thought of the booking of Miss Jean Wilson for the Casino Dec. 18.

The gallant Major was in raptures at once.

"Don't you make any mistake:"—he said emphatically—"Jean Wilson is bound to fill the Casino with the best society of the town. She's great, is Jean Wilson—simply and truly great."

Severely Hurt in a Runaway.

Harley Apgar, driver for Neumann Bros., grocers, of Watchung avenue, was severely injured in a runaway accident at 10 this morning.

He drove up to a house on Central avenue and left the horse standing in front. As he came out the horse became frightened at some unknown disturbance and started to run away just as Apgar was stepping in. The wagon was overturned, and the driver badly injured, although no bones were broken.

Apgar—Kitchen.

At the residence of the Rev. George Kennedy Newell, last evening at 7, took place the marriage of Miss Lilla L. Kitchen of Bound Brook to George H. Apgar of Evona.

The happy couple left town on the 8:17 train to spend a week in travel, after which they will reside at the home of the groom in Evona.

They were the recipients of handsome gifts, and have the best wishes of their many friends.

Songs and Music.

The public meeting of Watchung Lodge, No. 167, International Association of Machinists, has been postponed from tomorrow evening until December 6. V. L. Frazee and Herman Weber will speak, and an entertainment of recitations and vocal and instrumental music will be given.

Henry B. Ely for Councilman.

After the Democratic meeting last night the withdrawal of Patrick Casey, candidate for Councilman-at-Large, was announced. The committee on vacancies met and nominated Henry B. Ely in Mr. Casey's place.

Another Telephone Enterprise.

A telephone has been placed in and a pay station established at the pharmacy of H. L. Freeman, 202 South Second street.

I have not used all of one bottle yet. I suffered from catarrh for 12 years, experiencing the nauseating dropping in the throat peculiar to that disease, and nose bleed almost daily. I tried various remedies without benefit until last April, when I saw Ely's Cream Balm advertised in the Boston Budget. I procured a bottle, and since the first days use have had no more bleeding—the soreness is entirely gone—D. G. Davidson, with the Boston Budget, formerly with Boston Journal.

STRONG CANDIDATES FOR COUNCILMEN.

BURNETT AND RALLI SURE TO MAKE A STIRRING FIGHT.

The Gallant Major and His War and Grand Army Record—Mr. Ralli Risked the Loss of English Possessions for the Sake of American Citizenship.

The Republican party is fond of dwelling on the war records of its candidates all over the country, and is wont to assert that the Democrats never put up a soldier candidate for election because there are no soldiers in their party. The followers of the elephant in his devious paths have reasserted this statement to such lengths that many people believe it.

As a matter of fact, the Union Army in the War of the Rebellion had in its make-up a large percentage of Democrats. The Irish regiments that rendered such magnificent service were Democrats to a man, and great numbers of men whose fathers and grandfathers were American-born were of the same persuasion.

In Major Robert L. Burnett, a Democratic candidate for Councilman at Large, is seen a man of the latter class. A solid Democrat, believing thoroughly in the principles of the Democracy, he has a war record of which anyone might be proud.

Major Burnett was born in Newburgh, N. Y. Previous to the war he resided in Philadelphia. He was among the first to respond to President Lincoln's call for 75,000 men. As First Lieutenant of the Twelfth U. S. Infantry (regulars), he served through the entire campaign with McClellan in the Army of the Potomac. He was Acting Aide-de-Camp to Generals Hannibal H. Day and Romeyn B. Ayres. He was breveted Captain U. S. A. June 27, 1862, for gallant service at the Battle of Gaines's Mill, and breveted Major U. S. A. July 2, 1863, for gallant services at the Battle of Gettysburg. In 1863 he was sent with his regiment to New York to quell the draft riots. He was Post Commander, Fredericksburg, Va., 1868, and Military Commissioner of the counties adjacent thereto under the Reconstruction Acts of Congress, superintending all civil affairs, conducting elections, appointing all civil officers, etc., under said laws. In 1868 he was ordered to the Pacific coast, and commanded a post in Arizona, where the Apache Indians were giving much trouble. He resigned from the Army Sept. 2, 1870.

Major Burnett is a companion of the Loyal Legion of the U. S. Commandery of New York, and a comrade of George Washington Post, No. 103, G. A. R.

Every Grand Army man in Plainfield, no matter what his politics, should therefore cast a ballot for Major Burnett. His wide experience and knowledge of local government would be a valuable addition to the Common Council.

In nominating Constantine P. Ralli for Councilman the Second ward Democrats displayed much wisdom. Mr. Ralli is a strong man in the ward. He is, like his opponent, Mr. Frost, a naturalized citizen of the United States. He is an Englishman by birth, and took out his naturalization papers not only against the wishes of his people on the other side of the water but in spite of the threat of a large pecuniary disadvantage which his action involved. America and American institutions were dearer to him than all else.

Mr. Ralli was educated in England, going through the prescribed school and university course at Harrow and Oxford.

Mr. Ralli believes in advancing the city's interests in the way of improvements in every possible way. He is strongly in favor of a sewerage system. Improvements in the Second ward above Ninth street have been practically unknown under the government of previous councils, though the tax bills of this part of the ward form a very large proportion of the money received by the city. Every voter in the Second ward who believes in having the taxes of the city pay for improvements should support Mr. Ralli. Taxpayers are growing tired of putting their hands into their pockets and paying for this and that while their taxes are applied to improvements in other parts of town. Vote for Ralli, and get some good from your taxes.

Strong and Artistic Troupe Tonight.

S. Howell Evans and company will present a powerful play, "The Man from Maine", in Music Hall tonight. This is a strong and artistic troupe, and the play is a new and striking product from the talented pen of the successful playwright, Charles Townsend. "The Man from Maine" is a drama of city life, full of rapid action and strong dramatic interest. Carroll Johnson, the famous comedian, accompanies the troupe. The Pittsburg Press says that in that city "The Man from Maine" packed the house from dome to pit, and that many were turned away unable to obtain admission. "Those who secured seats"—adds The Press—"were well repaid, for the piece and the characters were worthy of all praise."

LOCAL DEMOCRACY TO ORGANIZE.

REPRESENTATIVE COMMITTEE APPOINTED TO PERFECT PLANS.

Each Election District Elects a Member, Showing the Widespread Interest of the Awakened Leaders of the People's Party.

Substantial steps towards effecting a permanent organization of the Democrats of the city were taken last night at a meeting in the party's headquarters on West Front street.

The meeting was called to order by Judge L. F. Wadsworth, who was elected chairman. William Wright was chosen secretary of the meeting.

A motion was made that the chair appoint a committee, made up of one from each ward, to make plans for organizing and to report at a public meeting after the charter election. After some discussion the motion was carried, but was immediately afterwards reconsidered.

An amended motion was then carried, increasing the number of the committee to one member from each voting district, and permitting them to be selected representatively by the men present from each ward.

In accordance with the motion the following were chosen:

First ward, first district, John J. Kenney; second district, Wm. L. Gloak.

Second ward, first district—Frank Voseler; second district, C. P. Ralli.

Third ward, William O'Connor.

Fourth ward, first district, Peter Flynn, Jr.; second district, Ira G. Hurlbut.

Henry B. Ely moved that in order to avoid misunderstanding the committee be instructed to draft a plan of organization which they should submit at a public meeting of Democrats to be called by the committee before January 1. The motion was carried, and the meeting was then adjourned.

Jollification Next Saturday.

FLEMINGTON, Nov. 28,—Since the Central Railroad of New Jersey recently built its handsome station at the thriving town of White House in this county of Hunterdon, the property values in that place have been steadily rising, and extensive improvements recently completed in the village bid fair to make it one of the most beautiful country summer resorts in northern New Jersey. Aaron D. Thompson, of Plainfield, who was largely interested in building up the town of Lorraine, several months ago became interested in the growth of White House, and entered heartily into the work of improvement. Wide avenues and connecting streets were built in a thorough manner, connecting the station with the town proper, which is now some distance from the handsome new structure. The remodeling of the town is now about completed, and its rapid growth is assured. Next Saturday, December 2, the Central Railroad of New Jersey will run special trains to and from White House, as on that day there will be a public sale of the new town lots, and a jollification with music and refreshments, which will be participated in by people from all parts of Hunterdon county.

The World's Fair Exactly Reproduced.

An educational event interesting to old and young, will be in Music Hall Thanksgiving Day. This consists of 100 magnificent scenes, introducing marvelous mechanical, dioramic and electrical effects and presenting, with wonderful fidelity to nature, in color and contour, the beautiful buildings, exteriors and interiors, the exhibits of America and of the foreign nations; also a complete tour of the Midway Plaisance, an interesting spectacle, showing the reproduction of noted buildings of the classic Old World, and the quaint manners and customs of the people from the oriental countries; also England, Ireland, Sweden, Lapland, Africa, Austria, Germany, etc. Don't miss this grand Thanksgiving attraction in Music Hall, Thursday, Nov. 30. The grand matinee at 2:30 p. m. will be for school children, to whom tickets will be sold for 10 cents; adults will pay 25 cents. The evening entertainment begins at 8, and tickets are 25, 35 and 50 cents.

Heffernan Was Too Frisky.

Policeman H. C. Corsa brought Michael Heffernan before Judge Coddington in the police station court room this morning. Heffernan was charged with disorderly conduct, consisting principally of sparring and dancing, in and round the North Avenue station last night. He explained that he was not a professional boxer and that he had caused but little disturbance by his dancing. He was fined $3. Complaints are to be made against others who have been disorderly in the station.

Remedying Crop Reports.

Interesting as the crop reports are this year, they seem to be defective in one essential: they give no record of the number of mosquitoes garnered for utilitarian purposes. This defect has been in a measure remedied at Collier's, 103 Park avenue, where they ladle out fac-similes of these New Jersey phlebotonists in souvenir coffee spoons.

The Genuine And The Sham.

Every good thing has its host of imitators; every genuine article it counterfeits. The imitators always choose the most valuable and popular article to counterfeit, so that when they claim their sham to be equal, or as good, or the same as "So-and-So's the public may depend upon it that "So-and-So,s article is the best of the kind. The sham proves the genuine merit of the thing it copies and never has this been better illustrated than by the imitations of ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS.

ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTER is the standard of excellence the world over, and its imitators in their cry that theirs is "as good as ALLCOCK'S" are only emphasizing this fact and admitting "ALLCOCK'S" to be the acme of perfection, which it is their highest ambition to imitate. The difference between the genuine and the these imitations, which copy only general appearance, is as wide as that between copper and gold.

The only safe way for purchasers is to always insist upon having ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS. They are the only perfect plasters ever produced.

Best of All——Whitman's Philadelphia Confectionery

The packages are not gaudy, but for solid merit the candies are UNEQUALLED. For example, compare Whitman's Almonds with any other make and mark the great difference. WHITMAN'S SUPERFINE MIXED in pounds, 65c; WHITMAN'S FINE (almost as good) in pounds, 42c; WHITMAN'S HOREHOUND AND FLAXSEED DROPS for coughs and colds.

The Laundry Problem Solved

When you put on a new collar or pair of cuffs you wonder why re-laundried work doesn't have the same dull finish and the pliable stiffness of the new, don't you?

We'll tell you. To give stiffness without that brittleness which causes linen to crack, wheat starch must be used, but as it costs three times as much as corn starch, the average laundryman won't use it.

WHEAT STARCH ONLY

Used in our laundry. We produce a dull finish equal to that of new work. Try us and see.

Simple, Beautiful, Good—these words mean much, but to see "The Rochester" will impress the truth more forcibly. Its marvelous light is purer and brighter than gas light, softer than electric light, and more cheerful than either. The choicest bric-a-brac in the palace of a Vanderbilt reveals nothing finer. We have 2,700 artistic varieties, in brass, bronze, silver and black iron.

Ladies often like to go down among the large wholesale houses and buy of first hands. They will find at our salesrooms (the largest in the world) a rare collection of Art in lamps. A catalogue to send you if you cannot come.

PICKED UP ON A MUGGY DAY.

THE BOROUGH STROLLER GLEANS ALONG THE HIGHWAYS.

Electric Light Improvements the Chief Theme of His Report, But He Also Records Bits of Gossip Afloat.

SPENCER'S GROCERY,
NORTH PLAINFIELD, Nov. 28.

"Dore" Vroom and "Dolph" Sanger are frescoing the walls of the Saengerbund Hall.

A small gathering of Socialists meets in the Borough, frequently. They belong in the city of Plainfield.

Wm. Waldron, of the Edison Electric Light Company, has moved to Pearl street from Watchung avenue.

Decorator James Hensey has painted Peter-Hansen's Emily street residence in the "yallereest" style of the art.

Mrs. Rhinehart and family have taken up their residence in the borough and now live in the house lately vacated by Edward Gallay.

A big red poster from the New York Tribune now hangs up in the Cracker Barrel Club, seeking new subscribers for that "dark" sheet.

Aleta Spencer, of Rahway, a bright two-year-old, and a great-granddaughter of Grandma Spencer, is visiting the Spencers of Somerset street.

The two new marshals tread the streets with the mien of Napoleons. Both have gained 12 pounds and have only been on duty a trifle over a week.

The new bridge that is to take the place of the little culvert over the small stream that passes through Somerset street just above Uhrhahn's place, is about finished.

Everybody, including even the contractor, refuses now to say when they think the school-building will be finished. But then it's only three months late "already as yet"!

The proper caper with the borough girls just now is to work their male friends' initials in the corner of handkerchiefs with their hair. Quite cute! Herbert Schutt has eight different designs.

On one of the registry lists of the late election there were two persons registered from asylums, while in the Third ward of Plainfield one person, Charles Blanchard, was registered from the graveyard. And they all voted the Republican ticket.

Watchung avenue is now opened from Jackson avenue to Regent street. Mr. Coddington, who owns the Hillman property, intends to open up that; and Mrs. Samuel Hudson will do likewise on her place, thus opening up the street from Jackson avenue to the edge of the mountains, considerable more than half.

The Edison Electric Light Company of the borough have a gang of men at work putting their lines in first-class shape for the winter, and when the marshals succeed in catching the boys who break the lamps no one will have cause to complain of the service. The brilliancy of the commercial light causes frequent comment, and they are constantly taking on new business. They are now furnishing light in Dunellen and Bound Brook, and have poles set in New Market. There is talk of large additions to the plant next year, and when completed application will undoubtedly be made to the Plainfield Council for an underground franchise in the city.

Delightful Tours Arranged to Washington by Way of the Pennsylvania Railroad.

A more economical or pleasant way to spend three days could scarcely be devised than that offered by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company in its personally-conducted tours to the Capital. $13 from New York, $11 from Philadelphia, and proportionately low rates from intermediate or contiguous points, will cover transportation and hotel expenses during the period of the trip.

The historic and contemporaneous associations of this beautiful city are numberless and render a visit replete with interest. The first tour leaves New York at 11 a. m. and Philadelphia 1:50 p. m., November 30. Other dates are December 14 and 28, January 18, February 8, March 1 and 22, April 12, May 3 and 24. A tourist agent and chaperon will accompany each party and materially aid in the general welfare of the participants.

Brit Martin's Promotion.

Under the energetic direction of Assistant Superintendent Alfred Norbury, the Plainfield business of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company has assumed such large proportions that no one man can handle it all, and so J. Brit Martin has been chosen as additional Assistant Superintendent to work in team with Mr. Norbury. The selection of Mr. Martin for this important office was made on the strength of his unexcelled record in the company's employ. Mr. Martin assumes his new duties next Monday.

John Bishop has been engaged to take Mr. Martin's place as collector.

His Plainfield Converts Will Follow Him There.

The Rev. Arthur Crane, who has been evangelizing Plainfield, has been secured by the Y. M. C. A. State Committee of New Jersey to give Bible readings and to address the men's mass-meetings, at the State Convention to be held in Montclair Feb. 8 to 11, inclusive.

The American Catarrh Cure

Is the result of twenty-six years' study and treatment of the disease. One bottle convinces the most skeptical. It is always ready for use, needing neither douche nor atomizer. It restores the hearing, cures the hawking cough and expectorating, removes the headache and nose bleeding, increases the appetite, produces sound sleep, invigorates the whole system and increases the vitality. Prepared only by W. B. Jones, M. D., No. 1336 South Eighth street, Philadelphia. For sale by I. W. Randolph, 21 West Front street. Price $1.

THE OFFERING OF THE SCHOOLS.

Complete List of the Donations Made by the Children to the Poor

Press readers will be interested in the list of provisions brought in by the school children Monday as a Thanksgiving offering to the poor of the city. There has been much enthusiasm among the children over their offering, and they have enjoyed deeply the pleasure of giving, some even going without butter that they might be able to give.

The gifts at the Irving school were distributed in that district by a committee of ladies from the chapels there. Some families were supplied by the other schools, and the rest were collected and delivered to the Relief Association free of charge by Lewis B. Coddington. Here is the list:

HIGH SCHOOL.

13 bags of flour, 30 pounds rice, 40 to 50 pounds sugar, 16 boxes cereals, 15 pounds tea and coffee, 50 cans of fruit, vegetables and meat, 2 bushel apples, 7 bushel potatoes, 10 bushel miscellaneous vegetables, a ham, and cabbages, herrings, prunes, crackers, cookies, meal and clothing unnumbered, besides $4.71 in silver and 36 pounds beef.

IRVING SCHOOL.

About 7 bushel potatoes, 1-2 bushel apples, 1-2 bushel turnips, 8 cabbages, 9 squashes, 43 cans vegetables and fruit, 1 pound butter, several packages oatmeal, 60 pounds sugar, 7 pounds tea and coffee, 3 dozen oranges, two packages of clothing, several large bunches celery, 2 cakes soap, 1 package macaroni, 2 barrels vegetables, dried fruits, crackers, etc., 6 bags flour, 3 bags salt.

BRYANT SCHOOL.

20 baskets vegetables, 43 cans jelly, fruit, etc., 24 packages cereals, eggs, chickens, cabbages, oranges, meal, salt, cake, in quantities unestimated.

FRANKLIN SCHOOL.

1 ton coal, 6 bushels potatoes, 1 bushel apples, 2 bushel vegetables, 11 quarts cranberries, 52 pounds sugar, 29 pounds tea and coffee, 40 packages cereals, 15 pounds rice, 17 cabbages, 13 squashes, 5 loaves bread, 4 quarts beans, 22 cans fruit, 26 cans vegetables, 3 cans salmon, 1 can corn beef, 19 glasses jelly, 5 dozen oranges, 1-2 dozen lemons, 1 package crackers, 2 packages gingersnaps, 2 packages cornstarch, 1 package macaroni, 5 pounds prunes, 32 pounds grapes, 1-2 dozen bananas, 1 basket mixed fruit, 2 ppunds mixed nuts, 2 boxes candy, 3 bunches celery, 75 cents in money.

WASHINGTON SCHOOL.

25 pounds sugar, 5 baskets potatoes, 1 basket mixed vegetables, 1-2 basket apples, 10 pounds rice, 6 pounds tea and coffee, 30 cans jelly, fruit, vegetables and meat, and a goodly amount of cabbages, pumpkins, flour, clothing, oranges, crackers, cake, prunes, raisins, beans and cranberries, 30 lbs. cereals.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—The mountains were afire last night.

—Sebring of Park avenue has reduced the price of his $18 business suits to $12.

—The Plainfield public schools will close tomorrow afternoon and re-open next Monday morning.

—Seats for the Choral concerts will be on sale at the box office of Music Hall the evening of Dec. 14.

—The several Boards of Registration are in session this afternoon and evening, from 1 to 9, to revise the original registry list.

—The case of Fredman against Nightingale was brought before Justice Nash this morning. The summons was made returnable Dec. 7.

—Stoutenburgh & Co., Newark clothiers, will remain open this evening until 8; tomorrow till 9 p. m., and on Thanksgiving until 12 noon.

—Call on Demarest for your Thanksgiving supplies. He has the finest line of fresh vegetables, fruits, new nuts, and table delicacies in town.

—The Commissioners of Appeal in cases of taxation are in session this afternoon. All cases of unjust taxation should be brought to the notice of the board.

—A. G. Vogeler has a very sore hand, from blood poisoning, resulting from a neglected cut by a saw. His arm is badly swollen. Mr. Vogeler had a similar accident a year ago.

Business Change.

George A. Hallock and James W. Davis dissolved partnership today. Mr. Hallock continues the men's furnishing business at 109 West Front street, and Mr. Davis devotes his energies to the hustling young coal firm of Davis & Stevens.

The Wheel Lighted and in Motion.

The Ferris Wheel actually revolving, with its myriad of brilliant lights illuminating the fantastic scene, will be one of the novelties of Hart's Cosmorama in Music Hall Thanksgiving Day, matinee and evening.

The Hour Changed for Thanksgiving Day.

The Thanksgiving services in the Church of the Heavenly Rest, Clinton avenue, will commence at 10, instead of 11 as usual. The Rev. Dr. Page of New York will officiate.

That Serenade Next Week.

The new overcoats for the Independent Fife and Drum Corps were not ready last night, and the serenading of V L. Frasee, candidate for Councilman for the Fourth Ward, was postponed until next Monday evening.

Students to Eat Tonight.

The Senior class of the High School will hold their annual Thanksgiving supper in the school this evening.

AS A CLEANSER

of the blood, nothing sweeps as clean as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It attacks all scrofulous skin and scalp diseases in the right way—by purifying the blood. Scrofula in all its various forms, Eczema, Tetter, Salt-rheum, Erysipelas, Boils, Carbuncles, Enlarged Glands, Tumors and Swellings, and every kindred ailment, are perfectly and permanently cured by it.

PIERCE Guarantees a CURE.

DR. PIERCE: Dear Sir—I write in regard to your great Golden Medical Discovery. I had Eczema and ulcers on the legs. Previous to this affection I had had Dropsy after the Grip. I now feel perfectly well since I took the "Discovery." My legs are all healed up and I feel like a new man. I cannot be thankful enough to you for your "Golden Medical Discovery" has saved my life.

SOCIAL EVENT IN THE CASINO.

ARTISTS OF EXCEPTIONAL TALENT ENGAGED FOR DECEMBER 18.

Eminent English and American Society Entertainers Preparing to Gratify Plainfield With a Programme of Their Unexcelled Work—This a Forerunner of Other Delights to Come.

In recognition of the dearth of high-grade amusements in this city, and the demand for elevating entertainment, booking has been made of exceptional artists to present in the Casino the night of Monday, December 18, a programme such as will appeal with especially directness and force to all lovers of that which is choice and cultured in music and literature. The management decided at the outset that the refined people of the town would appreciate a few select artists in a programme giving scope to their powers, in preference to a large array of mediocre talent; and after careful pruning of the lists Miss Emilie Jean Wilson and Messrs. Philip Ray and Wilbert E. Lewis were chosen; and they three are now at work on a most exceptional programme such as shall completely captivate the large audience that is sure to greet them in the Casino the night of Dec. 18.

Philip Ray, the eminent English society entertainer, humorist and impersonator, who has won encomiums from royalty as well as thunders of applause from the people, is now on his second American tour. He is a remarkably original and versatile artist, and draws tears or laughter at his will. In dramatic recital or laughable anecdote he is equally at home; and his delightful satires on social functions have scored him triumph everywhere. He has traveled twice round the world making people happy, and it is indeed time that Plainfield was favored with his coming.

Wilbert E. Lewis is a distinguished soloist and artistic accompanist. That he is a pianist of exceptional talent is attested by his prominent office as director of the Sexton Conservatory of Music in Denver. He possesses an exquisite touch, great breadth of style, and a keen susceptibility to the varied effects of tone gradation. His playing is free from technical embarrassments; and from the delicate pianissimo to the sustained and powerful climax it reveals every shade of emotion which it is his design to express. As a special favor to Plainfield admirers of Paderewski, he will give during the coming entertainment that composer's great Minuet, in his own faultless execution.

Miss Emilie Jean Wilson is a great social favorite in Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington, and has for the past few years delighted the most select and fashionable audiences. The finish and naturalness of her style, the melody of her rich tone, the grace and ease of her manners, her facial expression, flexibility in motion, and distinctness in enunciation, are a continual delight to her listeners. The character of the selections chosen by Miss Wilson varies through a wide range, but it is in the ideal and beautiful that she surpasses.

Miss Wilson and Mr. Lewis, accompanying Mr. Ray, are sure to give Plainfield a programme that all will delight to applaud; and the management hope that the success rewarding the effort to afford such rare amusement will be so gratifying as to encourage other entertainment enterprises in the same commendable line.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

W. E. MacClymont will be assisted by Raymond W. Smith, tenor, in his free organ recital in the First Baptist church tonight.

Ex-Congressman Russell G. Hoar of Michigan was in town yesterday. It is probable that he will settle in Plainfield in the spring.

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Darby will celebrate their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary Saturday, Dec. 23, from 3 to 10, at their home in Alton.

Frank H. Bailey and Edward D. Schenck of North Plainfield were drawn as petit jurors on the panel of the Somerset County Court at Somerville today.

J. E. Cobb having closed his school for Thanksgiving week, he and Mrs. Cobb are spending a most enjoyable week with Mrs. Cobb's father, Joseph B. Hurlburt, of the borough.

Col. Theodore B. Hamilton, formerly of East Fifth street, died at the home of his son Thomas, Staten Island, last Friday. He was an old war veteran, and for years in the Custom-House, New York.

Precaution Taken Against Possible Smallpox.

The North Plainfield Board of Health met last night at Dr. Carman's home. Those present were P. M. French, Dr. J. H. Carman, the Rev. W. E. Honeyman and Frank Curtis, the new member, who gives indication of being a most excellent official. Andrew Love was absent. The Board received the official report of Marshal Pangborn concerning the emptying of sewage from a Plainfield store into the raceway, and it was found that the nuisance had been abated. The report was made that a building had been engaged for a pesthouse if necessary, and provision made for nurses in case smallpox should be brought from any infected district.

Plainfield Talent in Comedy Drama.

The Ivy Leaf Dramatic Circle intends to give a comedy drama of western life in four acts, entitled "Trias; or, Beyond the Rockies", in Bound Brook Hall, at an early date.

Shiloh's cure is sold on a guarantee. It cures incipient consumption; it is the best cough cure only 1c a dose; 25c, 50c, $1. Sold by A. D. Mallinson, 205 North ave., opp. station.

SUDDEN DEATH.

Mrs. Thomas Rutledge Found Lifeless in Her Bed.

Mrs. Catherine M., wife of Thomas Rutledge, ex-Marshal of the borough, died suddenly at her home on Warren street, last night.

Mrs. Rutledge was apparently in her usual good health yesterday, and attended her husband, who was ill. At 10 in the evening she wrote a letter to an old friend residing in Newark, and retired at 11:30.

About 3:30 this morning Mr. Rutledge heard his child cry several times without being quieted by its mother, and arose and found his wife dead.

The family physician, Dr. M. B. Long, was summoned, and decided that death had resulted from apoplexy; this was also the opinion of County Physician Reid.

The deceased was 36 years and six months old. Her parents, Joseph and Catherine Newman, both died suddenly from the same disease.

The funeral will be held from Grace M. E church on Park place, Thursday afternoon at 2:30.

PLAINFIELDERS CONCERNED IN THIS.

An Inquiry Into the Sanity of Lavinia A. Voris, Aged 80 Years.

Mrs Lavinia A. Voris, who is 80 years of age and resides at the Hotel Brunswick, where she has lived for some time, is alleged to be insane, and Judge Beach has appointed John Delahunty, Thomas S. Robertson and Theodore E. Smith commissioners to inquire into her sanity. The proceedings are taken upon the petition of Elizabeth R. Cock of Plainfield, a first cousin of the old lady. The other relatives are Mrs. Victorine La Chaise-Bourgeoise, who married a native of Switzerland, and has not resided in this country for twenty-five years, being a niece, and Thomas F. Cock, M. D., of this city, and Eliza F. Parsons of Litchfield, half brother and sister of the petitioner, and William R. Cock of Plainfield, a brother of the petitioner. Mrs. Voris has personal property of the value of $55,000 and owns a farm in New Jersey which is valued at $25,000. Dr. Alfred E. M. Purdy of 304 Madison avenue and Mary Churchill both make affidavits to the fact that the old lady is erratic, has hallucinations, and does not at times recognize her friends. One day she imagined she saw a little white dog running around the room. Another delusion, it is alleged, is that she "must move on". She keeps looking out the window for a carriage to go away with her.

THE BOOK CLUB.

Annual Meeting and Election of a Unique and Successful Organization.

The Book Club held their fourth annual anniversary and business meeting at the residence of Mayor Gilbert last evening.

After the transaction of the regular business, John M. Whiton was elected presiding officer and J. Parker Mason secretary and treasurer, and committees for the coming year were selected. Following adjournment, refreshments were served and a pleasant social evening was enjoyed.

The Club was started by J. Parker Mason, and now has enrolled twenty-two members. Each member receives $200 worth of reading during the year in return for the annual fee, which has been reduced by the fines collected to $5.

As many monthly magazines are taken as there are members, so that each person has the first reading of one each month. In addition, numerous weekly publications are subscribed for, besides one bound volume of the latest literature every week.

The society has not only been successful in accomplishing the purpose for which it was organized, but has also become a flourishing social influence.

Revival in Washingtonville.

The revival in Washingtonville promises a large and lasting work. The attendance has been very large, and many already have accepted Christ. All alike seem very much moved by the words of power spoken by Evangelist Crane, who is such a devoted and consecrated servant of God.

Thanksgiving Turkey Shoot.

The Independent Shooting Club of North Plainfield will have a turkey shoot at 10, Thanksgiving morning, on their grounds on Charles Hyde's property.

FEARED HE WOULD PEACH.

Murder in Dublin Last Night Attributed to Dynamiters.

DUBLIN, Nov. 28.—Three men fought last night in a lonely street near Sir John Rogerson's quay on the Liffey. One of them drew a revolver and fired. His companion, afterwards identified as Patrick Reid, fell dead with a bullet in his heart. The other two men ran away. The one who used the revolver was caught and recognized as the man who was arrested on suspicion that he was connected with the recent dynamite explosions here, but was released owing to lack of positive evidence.

Patrick Reid, who was murdered, was arrested with Sheridan yesterday morning, but was discharged because nothing to justify his detention could be learned.

The general belief here is that the gang answerable for the explosion feared that Reid might divulge their secrets.

Late accounts of the affair are much confused. While the Daily News says the murderer was captured, the Central News says that he escaped.

Italian Bank Scandal.

ROME, Nov. 28.—The parliamentary commission which investigated the bank scandals reported that the national bank had lent the Banca Romana 9,000,000 lire for a few hours on a day of government inspection in order that the deficit in the latter institution might be concealed from the examiners. An effort will now be made to carry the investigation into the criminal courts.

HE IS MELLO'S PRISONER.

The United States Government Powerless to Aid Robert Grant.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—The department of state knows officially that Robert Grant, United States consular agent at Desterro, was taken prisoner by the insurgents in Brazil and confined on board a man-of-war. Moreover, Mr. Grant is likely to remain a prisoner for some time to come if the attainment of his liberty is conditional upon any act of this government.

The consular agent, unfortunately for himself, is not an American citizen, so that it is difficult to see any reasonable pretext for interference by our government. The immunities of a consular agent are even less than those of a consul, which do not compare with the immunities of diplomatic officers, and even were Mr. Grant an American citizen it would not be easy to secure his release if it should appear that he had been meddling without warrant and unofficially in Brazilian affairs.

It further complicates the situation and diminishes the consular agent's chances of speedy release that any peaceful move made by this government in that direction might be regarded as a recognition of the belligerancy of Mello, while, if the attempt were made to deal forcibly with the rebel admiral he must first be denounced as a pirate, and it is not expedient to commit the United States government to either of these courses at present. When the status of affairs in Brazil becomes more clearly defined, however, it is probable that our government will take some action in Grants behalf if he is not sooner released.

SENT AN INFERNAL MACHINE.

Bastardly Attempt to Kill Chancellor Caprivi.

BERLIN, Nov. 28.—It is reported that the infernal machine, sent to Chancellor von Caprivi, yesterday was from Orleans, France, as was shown from the postal mark on the box. It was posted shortly after midnight on Sunday. The box was six inches long, two wide and two deep.

A letter accompanying it informed the chancellor that the box contained a sample of a "remarkable kind of turnip seed." The police decline to give further details concerning the affair.

When the package was received, Colonel Ebmeyer, the chancellor's aid, began to open the parcel, when he noticed a few grains of gunpowder falling out of it. He immediately despatched the parcel to a police station, with an intimation that he thought it was an infernal machine.

The police placed the parcel in water and gave it a thorough soaking, after which they examined it. When the wrappings were removed a striking cap was found attached to what proved beyond a doubt an infernal machine.

One report states that this cap exploded while the police were examining the machine, but, owing to the contents of the parcel being saturated with water, failed to cause an explosion.

Ahead of a Year Ago.

Nothwithstanding the great cry of "Hard Times," our trade up to the present date is considerably in excess of last year.

The result we believe of FAIR DEALING—giving the very best goods possible for the least money. In other words, REAL MERIT.

The people of Plainfield have found out that in the filling of a memorandum of a dozen or more articles in our lines, they can do just as well at EDSALL'S in price, quality, style and variety as in any one store in New York.

Patrons often remark in our store: "Well, if I can't get it here, there is no use of my looking for it in Plainfield, for I will have hard work to find it in New York."

We have now so many good things to advertise that it is impossible to mention them in our space, and urge buyers to call at our store and see for themselves the many new things we offer.

MR. POWDERLY IS OUT

His Resignation as Master Workman Accepted.

Practically a Unanimous Vote—J. R. Sovereign of Iowa Elected in His Stead—The New General Executive Board Anti-Powderly.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 28.—The general assembly of the Knights of Labor yesterday by a vote of 18 to 18, refused to accept the resignation of General Master Workman Powderly.

Action on the proposition to declare his chair vacant was then deferred until late in the afternoon, when it was expected the Hayes forces would accomplish this and elect Labor Commissioner J. R. Sovereign, of Iowa, to the office.

At the afternoon's meeting Mr. Powderly's resignation, however, was taken from the table and accepted by a practically unanimous vote. This was done after that gentleman had explained to the convention that he had tendered it in good faith and that his action was final.

Powderly's Successor.

J. R. Sovereign, of Iowa, was then elected to succeed Mr. Powderly, the vote being Sovereign, 23; James Campbell, of Pittsburg, 8; T. B. McGuire, 1; Powderly, 2.

The vacancies on the general executive board were filled by the election of the following:

C. A. French, of Boston; H. B. Mastin, of Minneapolis; J. I. Kenney, of Omaha, all anti-Powderlyites.

Sovereign Will Come East.

DES MOINES, Ia., Nov. 28.—James H. Sovereign, commissioner of labor of Iowa, received many telegrams yesterday from delegates in the general assembly of the Knights of Labor at Philadelphia asking if he would accept the office of general master workman, and urging him to do so. These came from the delegates and from the district assemblies in Minnesota, Denver, New York city, Brooklyn, Long Island, Troy, Chicago, New Jersey and Massachusetts.

Warned By Powderly.

Grand Master Workman Powderly telegraphed to Sovereign, warning the latter that he was being made a tool of by those who were using unfair means to beat him (Powderly).

"But I replied," said Sovereign, "that he must be in error, for the requests for me to take the office came from Powderly's friends."

Wants the Headquarters Moved West.

"If I am elected," Sovereign said to the correspondent, "I will go at once to Philadelphia and will try and have the property the order owns there sold and the headquarters removed west, probably to Des Moines.

"The $80,000 worth of property the order owns there is of little use to the order. We can do just as well with a $20,000 building adapted to its purposes out west."

Sovereign is state master workman of the Knights of Labor. He was elected delegate to this general assembly, but did not go. He has been labor commissioner four years.

MINES AND MILLS RESUME.

Pennsylvania Industries Giving Work to Many Men.

SCRANTON, Pa., Nov. 28.—All the mines of the Hillside coal company and of the Erie railroad, north of this city, have been ordered to work full time, beginning to-day.

The Scranton glass company to-day started its No. 2 factory after five months' idleness, giving employment to 300 additional men.

Van Allen & Co.'s rolling mill and nail factory at Northumberland to-day went on double time, employing 300 men and boys. The puddlers and helpers have agreed to work at a $2 per ton scale.

Constant Firing at Rio.

LONDON, Nov. 28.—The Times has this dispatch, dated last Thursday, from Rio de Janeiro: "The desultory firing continues day and night. A small party of sailors landed at Armacao on Monday and were attacked by Peixoto's men. The latter lost two officers and thirty men killed. During the past week more than 200 troops have been killed by the artillery fire on the Nictheroy side of the harbor.

TROUBLE WILL FOLLOW

It Should be Understood and Looked After Now.

SOME THINGS WHICH PEOPLE CANNOT WELL EXPLAIN.

This May Be Absolutely New to the Average Reader.

Many people wonder what it means when there is a tingling or pricking sensation with a more or less numb feeling in the hands, feet or limbs. It means that there is a condition of the nerves which predisposes toward paralysis. If in addition to the above sensations there is a pain in the head, a general bad feeling with weary or excessively tired feeling in the limbs it may be taken as certain that paralysis will result if something is not immediately done to avert this terrible disaster.

All should remember that in such cases it is the neglect of these first symptoms which results in the fatal and dreaded shock of paralysis. If a person will use the right remedy when the above feelings and sensations appear, all danger of a shock can by warded off.

It is a fact that paralysis and kindred nervous diseases are increasing at an alarming rate, thousands about us neglecting to realize what these symptoms, so apparently trivial, really mean until they become prostrated.

A very interesting story is told by Mr. G. W. Ryerson, who is a well-known business man, residing at 261 8th ave., New York city.

"In March, 1892," he said, "I had a slight stroke of paralysis of the left side, which was followed in about two weeks by a second attack, which completely paralyzed the left side of my body.

G. W. RYERSON, ESQ.

I treated with different physicians without any benefit whatever, until December of the same year, when I was induced to try Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, and now after three months' use of the remedy, I am almost completely restored to health. I have the full use of my speech and limbs and work hard all day. I know that this wonderful medicine has saved my life.

"I have also been troubled with rheumatism more or less for a long time which grew worse after my nerves became weak. Of a morning I would feel more tired than when I went to bed, and on going upstairs I would give clear out by the time I reached the top, and my heart would flutter and feel as though it was up in my throat.

It is endorsed and recommended by physicians as the greatest blood and nerve remedy; indeed it is the discovery of one of our best known physicians, Dr. Greene, of 35 W. 14th st., New York, the successful specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases. The doctor can be consulted free, personally or by letter.

MR. BISSELL'S REPORT

Operations of Uncle Sam's Postal Department.

Deficiencies for the Past and Current Fiscal Years Far Greater Than Estimated—Numerous Recommendations By the Postmaster-General.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—The annual report of Postmaster-General Bissell, just made public, shows in the briefest space consistent with a proper understanding of the subjects treated the operations of the department during the fiscal year.

The financial statement shows that the deficiency for the year ended June 30, 1893, was $5,177,171.74, instead of $1,538,-328.17, as estimated by Mr. Wanamaker; and that instead of a surplus of $372,243.-71 for the current fiscal year, as estimated, there will be an estimated deficiency of $7,830,478.07.

The postmaster general estimates the gross revenue for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1895, at $84,427,748.44, and the gross estimated expenditures at $90,899,-885.33, leaving an estimated deficiency of $6,971,736.89, which, however, will be decreased $1,250,000 from funds taken from the unpaid money order accounts.

No Money for More Free Delivery.

Although there are 98 additional post offices now entitled to the free delivery service, the absence of appropriation for extension renders impossible the establishment of the system in even one of these towns.

The postmaster-general adopts the recommendations previously made public adverse to the extension of the experimental free delivery system. The estimated free delivery deficiency amounts to $69,000.

Claims for carriers' overtime, amounting to nearly $1,000,000, were on file in the department when Mr. Bissell assumed his duties. Under his order of April 4, however, postmasters have been held so strictly accountable for the time of carriers that the making of overtime has practically ceased.

Wants Postal Notes Abolished.

He suggests that postal notes be abolished, and that the rates charged for all domestic money orders should be reduced and the form of order simplified.

Great improvement is noticeable in the star, railroad and steamboat transportation service, the length of routes being 453,832.83 miles. The amount disbursed for the transportation of mail was $45,-597,997.65 and the number of miles travelled, 381,499,085.75. The length of routes was increased last year by 6,241.90 miles.

The postmaster-general is in favor of utilization of electric car lines for mail transportation, and states that his desire is that wherever the general service can be advanced use should be made of rapid transit city and suburban car lines.

More Employes Needed.

He pays particular attention to the railway mail service, and the requirements of this year will, he estimates, call for an increase of employes from 6,645 men to 7,000 men.

He urges such legislation as will provide a reasonable sum to be paid to the widows and minor children of railway mail clerks killed while on duty, and estimates that $20,000 annually will be sufficient for this purpose.

Regarding ocean mail subsidy, the postmaster-general says that he is unable to ascertain that any positive advantages have accrued, from either a mail or commercial point of view, by reason of the contracts thus far put in operation under the act of March 3, 1891, and that, therefore, no new contracts have been entered into.

The department carried last year, 801,-000,000 pounds of second class matter, an increase of 14 per cent. Concerning this, the postmaster-general remarks that he is afraid that this indicates not so much a healthy growth in the periodical literature of the country as the success of enterprising publishers in securing the entry of many publications into this favored class that are not really entitled to the privilege.

Hard Times Felt.

Mr. Bissell states that the financial depression greatly diminished the value of postal receipts. He does not think, however, that the large deficiency should have a deterrent effect upon the general development of the service, nor indicate an increase of postal rates.

He also recommends the enactment of a law which will permit postmasters, with the consent of the postmaster general, to suspend employes for ten days without pay for violation of the rules and of an act which will permit the postmaster general to grant leave of not more than three months with full pay to any carrier or clerk disabled by casualty while in performance of duty.

The postmaster-general makes special mention of the needs of the ten larger postoffices of the country, to-wit:

New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Boston, St. Louis, Cincinnati, San Francisco, Baltimore and Pittsburg, which yield one-third of the total postal revenue, and he recommends that these offices be placed in a class by themselves and appropriations made for them by congress direct and without the intervention of rules and methods that are applicable to other postoffices

Election Results at Dover.

DOVER, N. H., Nov. 29.—Alonzo M. Fox (rep.) was yesterday re-elected mayor by 609 majority, over Robert J. Shaw (d. m.), an increase of 183 over last year. The board of aldermen comprises eight republicans and two democrats, and the council twelve republicans and three democrats, same as last year.

Dead at the Age of 102.

JERSEYVILLE, Ill., Nov. 29.—David H. Ames died here, yesterday aged 102 years. His remains will be taken to Holland Patent, Oneida county, N. Y., where he was born. His father lived to be 102 years old.

SETTLED OUT OF COURT.

Squire Abingdon and His Big Check for Mrs. Langtry.

LONDON, Nov. 29.—The queen's bench division of her majesty's high court of justice was filled with a large and expectant crowd eager to hear the evidence in what they believed would be a celebrated case, which grew out of a check given by the late Abington Baird, better known as Squire Abington, to Mrs. Lily Langtry. The check was for the sum of £30,000. Shortly after Baird had given this princely gift to Mrs. Langtry the two had a quarrel, and Baird determined that if it was possible he would prevent Mrs. Langtry from enjoying the money. He knew that to demand the return of the check himself would result in refusal, so he thought he would use diplomacy. He went to Mr. Seaton, a well known racing man, and employed him to get the check or the money back, promising to give him one-third of the amount. Seaton quietly went to work, and after some delay he secured the money and turned it over to Baird. The latter gave Seaton a check for £10,-000, but when it was presented for payment Seaton was surprised to find that payment had been stopped. He learned that Baird had become reconciled with Mrs. Langtry, and this enlightened him as to why he could not obtain the money his check called for. Efforts to get Baird to pay his debt failed, and after his death Seaton brought suit against the executors of Baird's will to recover the commission claimed. The case was withdrawn from court and will be settled privately.

BAD FAILURE.

Mortgage Company Without Assets Enough to Pay the Receiver.

DENVER, Col., Nov. 29.—Hundreds of stockholders of the defunct Western Farm Mortgage trust company, in New York, Pennsylvania and New England, are interested in following the present investigation going on before Judge Allen in the district court in this city. Certain creditors objecting to the report of the receiver, G. W. E. Griffith, recently filed a bill of objections specifying mal-administration of the assets. Ira W. Hicks, of Lawrence, Kan., for a long time confidential secretary to the receiver, testified to matters wherein Griffith had used his position to advance his private interests. Receiver Griffith on the stand stated that at present all of the available assets of the once great corporation amount to less than $5,000, and his salary as receiver will exceed that sum.

TRIED TO KILL THE KAISER.

He Receives an Infernal Machine Similar to the One Sent Caprivi.

BERLIN, Nov. 29.—Baron Manderole, chief of the political police, has been charged to investigate into the attempt to assassinate Chancellor von Caprivi.

Further excitement has been added to that already prevailing in official and other circles by the fact becoming known that Emperor William received a box similar to that received by the chancellor and a letter worded almost the same as the one given above.

British Chartered Co. Denounced.

LONDON, Nov. 29.—In the house of commons last night Mr. Buxton, replying to inquiries made by Mr. Labouchere, said the Mashonas were not allowed to kill the Matabeles who were wounded during the battles. He also said that the wounded Matabeles were carried to the British lagers and given the same attention by the surgeons as was given to the Chartered company's wounded. He refused further information unless Mr. Labouchere furnished proof with his charges, at which the latter gentleman denounced the Chartered company as a set of "wretched, rotten, bankrupt marauders and murderers."

Football Pays.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Nov. 28.—Manager Moore, of the Harvard team, who is settling up the bills of Saturday's game, says that the number of paid admissions was over 21,800. These, with the newspaper men, substitutes, coaches, medical attendants, police, and those who stole in would make the crowd which saw Saturday's game nearly 25,000. The total receipts were over $39,000, and the expenses about $12,000.

New Postmasters.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—Among the latest appointments of fourth-class postmasters are the following:

New York—Chateaugay Lake, G. D. Keyser; Morley, W. L. Whitney; Thayers Corners, Mrs. L. K. Thayer; Transit Bridge, M. W. Ayers; Tribes Hill, J. B. Bailey.

Pennsylvania—Saint Joe Station, W. J Andre; Stoutsburgh, I. L. Moyer

New Gold Field.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Col., Nov. 29.—A new gold field is just being opened up seventy miles west of this city at Buffalo Sloughs, eight miles from a small station on the Midland railroad called Hartzel. The new district covers an area of twenty miles square. About 200 men are at the camp and others are rapidly thronging in.

Tariff Legislation Cannot Be Rushed.

March 1st Next, When Many Provisions of the Bill are to Take Effect, May Find the Measure Still in Congress—Outline of the Work.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—The republican members of the committee on ways and means will not meet their democratic committee associates until Friday of this week. At that time the tabular statement showing the rates in the present and the proposed new law will be completed. With this data in hand, the minority committeemen will be better able to understand the nature of the changes made by the majority.

About the middle of next week the bill will be taken up for discussion in the committee. It will be read by paragraph and the republicans will then offer their amendments. After the bill has been thoroughly considered by the full committee the republicans will prepare their report and present it to the house.

Early Debate Doubtful.

The expectation that debate will commence upon the measure shortly after the meeting of congress is not likely to be realized.

It is doubtful if the democrats will finish their report in time to present it to the full committee before next Monday. Under the rules the republicans will have ten days in which to prepare their report, which will delay matters until the 14th of December.

As the house will probably adjourn Friday Dec. 22 for the holiday recess, it may be fairly presumed that only a few days' debate, if any, can be had, under the most favorable circumstances, during the first month of the session.

If the house does not reassemble before the 4th of January the bill is not likely to be sent to the senate before February. There it may remain in committee a fortnight, and if a month be given to its consideration in open senate, which is regarded as a moderate estimate, it will be seen that even under favorable circumstances the day named in the bill for many of its provisions to take effect, the 1st of March, 1894, will probably find the bill still in congress.

RHODE ISLAND ELECTIONS.

Republican Mayor at Providence—Big Majority for the Amendment.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 29.—The mayoralty election in this city yesterday resulted in the choice of Olney, republican, by about 400 majority.

The total vote was increased by over 1,000.

Mr. Olney will succeed a democratic mayor. The amendment to the constitution providing for plurality elections was carried by an immense majority.

In Bristol a republican was elected to fill a vacancy in the state senate. The result for other municipal officers in this city is very close, although Granger, (dem.) the nominee for city treasurer, ran ahead of his ticket.

At Newport 2,000 less votes were polled than in the municipal election last month. Of those voting 5-7 1, or more than the required three-fourths, voted in favor of the amendment. In the country there is an excess of 645 votes in favor, all country towns about here having gone strongly in favor of the amendment.

Close Call for a Trolley Car.

JAMAICA, N. Y., Nov. 29.—A trolley car on the Brooklyn & Jamaica electric road, going to Jamaica last night crashed through the gates at the Richmond Hill crossing of the Long Island railroad and ran into a passenger train that was passing. The front of the trolley was demolished and the glass in the car windows shattered. The motorman saved himself by jumping. The steps of two of the Long Island cars were torn off. No one was injured.

To Investigate Reports of Starvation.

MADISON, Wis., Nov. 29.—Gov. Peck sent the following telegram yesterday to W. J. Shumway, chairman of the relief committee at Hurley: "It is rumored here that starving miners at Ironwood, Mich., are eating dogs. Have Dr. McLeod investigate, and if reports are found true lend them 100 barrels of flour and some meat until relief arrives from Michigan for them."

Was Wanted in the Eno Case.

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—United States Assistant District Attorney Mott admitted to-day that Augustus M. Scriba, whose suicide was reported from California, was to have been subpœnaed to testify in the Eno case before the grand jury on Dec. 11. Scriba examined the accounts of the second national bank at the time Eno defaulted.

SORRY FOR STANTON

All the Foreign Admirals Saluted Mello.

The American Officer's Recall Created Great Surprise and Universal Regret in Brazil—No Grounds for Harsh Criticism.

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—The steamer Mackelyne, Captain Gregory, has just arrived from Brazilian ports. She left Rio Janeiro on the 5th of November, and brought as one of her passengers a sailor of the United States steamer Charleston, which was anchored in the harbor when Admiral Stanton dipped his flag to Mello, and received the Brazilian revolutionist aboard his ship.

The Charleston man said he was tired of a yellow fever country and came here on leave of absence to breath pure air once more.

The Charleston, he said, was in the harbor of Rio when Admiral O. F. Stanton committed the breach of national etiquette for which he has been recalled.

All Foreign Vessels Saluted Mello.

The Charleston "tar," who said his name was James Letford, states that there can be no question as to the American admiral's action although he did nothing more than every other foreign vessel that entered the bay. But that he did salute the revolutionary commander with full knowledge of what he was doing, says the sailor, there can be no doubt.

As he steamed down the bay, the American colors were sent to the peak, and his guns belched forth.

According to the man-of-war's man there was no other boat in the river which flew the Brazilian flag, that did not belong to, or was not under the command of Mello, so an error could not have been committed.

Surprised at His Recall.

No comment was created there, he says, as other foreign warships had done the same thing, and Admiral Stanton's recall created the greatest surprise to the Brazilian city and to the commanders and men on other vessels stationed there.

According to the officers of the Mackenzie, who were told of the sinking of the Aurary, her loss would not occasion Mello much inconvenience, for they say she had been floating about the harbor for some time partially disabled, something apparently being wrong with her machinery.

Mello Generally Favored.

A passenger, who refused to give his name, came up on the Maskelyne from Pernambuco and stated that Mello was generally favored in the city from whence he came, not because the people opposed a republican form of government, but for the reason that they hated Peixoto, personally for his despotic manners.

He said that it was also generally believed in Brazil that Mello was receiving support from Europe and that his fleet was met off shore by European steamers and supplied with fuel, provisions and ammunition.

Sympathize With Stanton.

In commenting upon the Stanton affair, the Rio News of Oct. 31 contains the following leading editorial:

"The telegrams received here on the 26th of the recall of Admiral O. F. Stanton, commander-in-chief of the United States naval forces at this station, occasioned a general surprise. It was not known that the Brazilian government had complained of him, nor was it known that any breach of etiquette had been committed. We have no disposition to discuss a question which can only be settled by the authorities at Washington; we have besides only one side of the case, and the other cannot be known until Admiral Stanton makes his official reply to the charges made. All that can be said is that he is accused of receiving and returning calls which were of the briefest character and were devoid of all political interest.

No Ground for Harsh Criticisms.

"The relations between the officers of other nationalities and the insurgent chief probably led to the impression that no importance was attached to these calls. Whether an error was made, or not, we do not presume to say, but in view of the fact that an officer of long experience, unblemished character and good judgment is concerned, there can certainly be no ground for the harsh criticisms on his conduct which some of the partisans of the government have seen fit to make. That no intentional slight or offense was committed, no one can dispute, for Admiral Stanton had only just arrived and could have formed no opinion in the conflict."

Universally Regretted.

"We are glad to say that his recall, not his 'dismissal,' as some of the native journals say, is universally regretted, not only by Americans, but by foreigners of every nationality. He had already won the confidence and esteem of a large number of residents, who not only sympathize with his misfortune, but who deeply regret his departure."

French View of the New Tariff Bill.

PARIS, Nov. 29.—The Journal des Debats contains in its editorial columns today an analysis of the new United States tariff bill. The article, in concluding, notes that France will profit little by the bill, but expresses the hope that President Cleveland's energy and courage will ensure the adoption of the measure.

No Change in Price of Coal.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 29.—The eastern and western sales agents of the anthracite coal roads met here yesterday, and after adjournment General Sales Agent Richards said that there would be no change in the price of coal this month.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—Leggett today received a large fresh stock of Huyler's candies.

—G. A. Hallock the hatter is showing handsome styles of men's hats.

—The druggists of Plainfield will close their shops tomorrow from 1 to 6.

—The Coachmen's Benevolent Association will give a dance in T. A. B. Hall tonight.

—Choicest confections from Huyler's are having a special Thanksgiving sale at Leggett's.

—Times do not appear to be hard with Edward Love. Some of his men are working nights of late.

—The Rev. J. W. Mitchell today booked Sissieretta Jones, "The Black Patti", to sing in Reform Hall Dec. 6.

—James Guttridge of Netherwood is erecting an extensive new hennery, and in the spring expects to raise fowls by wholesale.

—The cause of one blow on the fire-alarm whistle this morning was the changing of poles by the Electric Light Company.

—Any school child of Plainfield or vicinity may see the World's Fair for 10 cents tomorrow, on application to Music Hall box office.

—A. Lusardi & Co. have on hand an unusually large supply of grapes, oranges and other fruits, suitable for dressing Thanksgiving dinner tables.

—Four strangers were arrested this morning for stealing chickens at Dunellen. Two were caught within the city limits, and two near Cranford.

—Samuel D. Frazee, the musician, will play at a large party at Berkley Heights this evening, and tomorrow evening at a private dance at Mr. Carman's residence, Dunellen.

—The World's Fair will never come to Plainfield again after tomorrow. Take advantage of the extraordinary prices and see the famous Midway Plaisance in all its glory.

—Because of disgraceful charges against him, Janitor Walker, of the Irving school, has resigned, and Henry P. Pugh has been appointed by the Board of Education to fill the vacancy.

—It will cost you nothing to attend A. D. Thompson's real estate sale at White House, Saturday. Mr. Thompson is giving away railroad passes at his North avenue office.

—You'll be happier one year from today, and have more to give thanks for, if you invest a trifle in A. D. Thompson's White House real estate boom. The auction sale on Saturday is advertised in another column.

—St. Andrews and Thanksgiving Day services will be held in the Church of Our Saviour, by the Rev. S. P. Simpson, pastor. There will be Holy Communion for St. Andrew at 7:30 a. m., and Holy Communion and sermon for Thanksgiving at 10:30.

—The new barn being erected at Netherwood for Mr. Hinrichs, at a cost of $2,500, is about completed, and when finished will reflect credit on both the architect and builders. The masonry was completed last week, and the carpenters are now fitting up the interior.

—The Epworth League will hold its regular monthly business meeting in Vincent chapel, Friday evening, Dec. 1, after which Dr. Barnes will give the second of a series of Bible talks on "The Tabernacle". This was much enjoyed before, and was instructive. All are invited.

Thanksgiving Sermon on the Nation.

The theme of Dr. Lewis in the Crescent Avenue church tomorrow will be "Facts, Fears, Hopes and Prophecies Concerning the Future of the Nation."

I have not used all of one bottle yet. I suffered from catarrh for 12 years, experiencing the nausea-ing dropping in the throat peculiar to that disease, and nose bleed almost daily. I tried ways-us remedies without benefit until last April, when I saw Ely's Cream Balm advertised in the Boston Budget. I procured a bottle, and since the first days use have had no more bleeding—the screaming is entirely gone.—D. G. Davidson, with the Boston Budget, formerly with Boston Journal.

A CREDIT TO THE TICKET.

HENRY B. ELY A MOST EXCELLENT NOMINEE.

This Talented and Progressive Lawyer Would Make a Most Earnest Champion of the City's Best Interests.

Henry B. Ely, candidate for Councilman at Large, was born in the city of New York in 1866, and until two years ago resided in that city. He received his education at Columbia College, from which institution he was graduated with the degree of A. B. in 1888; and two years later was admitted to the practice of law at the New York State bar, after completing the regular course at the Columbia Law School. Since that time he has been engaged in New York in the practice of his profession, having served his apprenticeship as a law clerk in the office of the well-known law firm of Carter & Ledyard.

Two years ago Mr. Ely took up his residence in Plainfield, and since that time has been actively identified with Plainfield affairs. In the campaign of 1892 he was Chairman of the Cleveland and Stevenson Club of Plainfield. This organization did great service in furnishing a live and interesting campaign to the voters of this city, by means of frequent mass-meetings which were addressed by prominent speakers in the Democratic ranks.

Mr. Ely is also a member of the Plainfield Council of the Royal Arcanum.

He is a most sincere citizen and accomplished gentleman, and all who favor the election of a talented and progressive young man to the municipal counsels should vote for him.

A ballot for Henry B. Ely is a ballot which any voter of any political creed should be proud to cast.

BOOKS AND READING DISCUSSED.

A Third Class of Book Handlers Discovered, the Book Returners.

A meeting of the Branch Alliance of Unitarian and other Christian women was held in the lecture room of All Souls church yesterday afternoon. The subject under discussion was "Books and Reading."

A paper on devotional reading by the Rev. Hobart Clark was read by Mrs. Clark.

Miss M. B. Brown read an excellent review of recent events in the religious world. A discussion of "Book Lending" followed, in which the point was made that the ordinary classification of borrowers and lenders should be supplemented with a third class—the book returners.

Mrs. A. M. Powell presented a paper on impure literature and offensive placards. Other members spoke on the same subject. The general feeling expressed was that the society realized the necessity of some means of suppressing the displaying of offensive placards.

Poets of the liberal faith were talked about in an interesting paper by Mrs. Henry B. Wells. Another most excellent paper was that of Miss E. L. Reynolds, on the hymn writers and their works.

At 4, Mrs. J. D. Elwell gave a lecture on "The Ethics of Shakespeare" as illustrated in the tragedy of "Othello". Her able way of treating the subject showed careful study and keen appreciation of the peculiarities of the different characters. The speaker brought out strongly the contrast between the natures of Othello and of Iago; and agreed with most critics that Othello was not the victim of jealousy but of a desire for revenge. Her address was greatly appreciated by the audience.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

The Park Club will give another delightful informal dance Friday night.

Justice J. E. Mosher returned this morning from a business trip to Boston.

W. J. Tunison will eat Thanksgiving dinner with his parents, in Covert, Seneca county, N. Y.

Miss Mazie C. Jones, of the Bryant school, will spend the Thanksgiving vacation at Red Bank.

C. S. A. Davis and daughter, of Watchung avenue, left today for Edenton, N. C., for the winter.

Miss Hester E. Marsh, teacher in the Bryant school, will spend Thanksgiving with friends in New York.

Halstead Compton leaves Saturday morning, by the Old Dominion Steamship Line, for Norfolk, Va., and goes thence by rail to Newberne, where he expects great shooting at wild turkeys.

At their future residence, 64 Manning avenue, at 8 Thursday evening, will take place the marriage of Miss Emma Herlich and Rudolph Kersting. The Rev. Mr. Klonka will officiate. S. H. Schleif will be best man, and Miss Katie Williams bridesmaid. A reception will follow.

Delighted Audience.

Superior to those exhibited by Ragan are the views of the World's Fair to be shown in Music Hall tomorrow. The Fitchburg Sentinel says of the entertainment:

Bright scenes, unique mechanical and dioramic effects and brilliant illuminations are characteristic features of Hart's Cosmorama of the World's Fair, which was given at the Opera House last night to a delighted audience.

The Victims Went Shivering Home.

At the close of the supper at the High School last night it was discovered that a bicycle and several articles of clothing belonging to the guests were missing. The police were notified and started a search for the thieves. This morning the missing property was found in a closk room where it had been hidden by some "practical joker."

—Fresh candies direct from Huyler's make a nice display at Leggett's.

—At Caspar's Hotel all day tomorrow roast turkey or stewed rabbit will be served for ten cents a plate. This evening clam chowder will be served free from 8 to 10.

RED MEN ON THE TRAIL.

Solid Silver Tomahawk Presented by the Plainfield Tribe.

A delegation from Miantonomah Tribe of Red Men visited the Omeme Tribe at Elizabeth last evening.

The visitors were met by the following great chiefs: G. C. Sachem A. A. Cunningham of Paterson. G. C. of Records D. M. Stephens of Camden, Great Junior Sagamore William J. Forsyth of Jersey City, Great Representative N. C. Magee of Plainfield, and by members of Nenemoeha Council, Elizabeth, of the degree of Pocohontas.

An address of welcome was made by Sachem Bauermann of Omeme Tribe, and the regular business began.

After the council fires had been quenched the evening's programme was begun by remarks by G. S. Cunningham, G. J. S. Forsyth, G. C. of R. Stephens, Dept. G. S Stiglitz, P. S. Ennes and Dept. Magee.

The programme included a violin and banjo solo by paleface Minch and Zimmerman, songs by Senior Sagamore Holstein, Brother Holland, G. S. Dept. Stiglitz, and Messrs. Zimmerman and Minch. Sachem Carney, 118, made a hit with his German stories and sayings, W. A. Westphal spoke in choice Irish dialect, and Brother Neal recited.

An elaborate repast was partaken of in the banquet hall during an intermission in the programme.

On behalf of Miantonomah tribe Sachem Carney presented a solid silver tomahawk to Omeme Council, which was accepted by Sachem Bauermann.

COMPETITION FOR COMMANDER.

Grand Army Nominations—New Overcoats Ordered.

Winfield Scott Post, No. 73, G.A.R., met in regular session last evening and placed in nomination the following officers, the election to take place Tuesday Dec. 12:

Commander—M. C. Dobbins vs. S. W. Reese.
S. V.—Charles Stephens.
J. V.—Chas. Westphal vs. Wm. R. Moore.
Sergeant—Wm. Hand.
Chaplain—John Goodman vs. Chas. Graves.
Officer of Day—I. McVoy.
Quartermaster—Andrew Cox.
Officer of the Guard—Henry Drake vs. L. V. F. Randolph.
Drum Major—J. Bogert.
Council of Administration—W. C. Smith, John E. Stewart.
Delegate to National Encampment—W. E. Alpaugh.

Some discussion took place on the subject of procuring dark-blue military overcoats for the members of the Post, and as to whether the cost of the same should be borne individually or the money taken from the Post funds. It was decided to purchase the coats, and nine members signified their willingness to pay for their own.

Thankful to the Editors.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE PRESS:—At the last meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary Board of Muhlenberg Hospital the following resolution was passed:

Resolved, To extend a vote of thanks to all who have lent their generous assistance at the fair recently held by the Woman's Auxiliary Board of Muhlenberg Hospital.

We feel especially grateful to the editors of our daily papers for their kind words expressed in behalf of our good cause, also to our merchants for their liberal contributions and to our many friends who have encouraged us with words and deeds and money, and to all others who have aided in accomplishing the result which by far exceeds our expectations.

Our treasurer reports that the net receipts amount to $1,519 18, but by the sale of some of the dolls which were left over and are now being sold at reduced prices we shall probably add a further small amount. EMILIE SCHIPPER,
Corresponding Secretary.

Hard Luck for the Ex-Policeman.

Ex-policeman Patrick Bergen, of this city, started in the early morning, a day or two ago, with a singled-barreled shotgun for the purpose of killing all the game in Union and Passaic counties. He took along about one dollar's worth of ammunition, both wet and dry, and after tramping through Scotch Plains, New Providence, Summit and Passaic all day reached home at nightfall leg-worn and weary, not even getting a chance to shoot at a sparrow. Mr. Bergen says this is the first and last hunting experience he wants this season, as besides his other ill-luck he had to come into town by the back way, on account of torn pantaloons.

Mind Reading Tonight.

Besides Mind Reader Neuman himself, there will be song, dance and sketch artists in Music Hall tonight, in an excellent programme. Billy and Mamie Williams, Miss Kitty Rose the French dancer, and Miss Lillian Melbourne, are among the talent. Mr. Neuman will find articles hidden on the stage or in the audience while he is absent from the house, and will do any mind-reading act requested of him. The Newark News speaks of his performances as quick and successful.

Back From Their Bear Hunt.

Fred Hul, Mill Meeker and Charles Burnett are back from a week's hunting in Pike county, Pa. They report game plentiful, but it was all left on a reserve of 45,000 acres to eighteen persons, fourteen of whom are voters. They did see three deer and a bear, and it is a matter of conjecture whether the hunters or the game got away first.

His Friends Will Welcome Him.

Ed Marble, the author of "Tuxedo", is with that organization, directing the stage and appearing as "Columbus" in the World's Fair first part, given by Hughey Dougherty's minstrels. Mr. Marble's friends will doubtless give him a flattering reception in Music Hall Saturday night.

Free, and Drew a Crowd.

W. E. MacClymont's free organ recital in the First Baptist church last night was as usual favored with a large audience. The talented organist provided a good and not too lengthy programme, well rendered. He himself played with his customary excellence, and Raymond W. Smith of Newark sang with good expression and in a voice of baritonic quality.

The Laundry Problem Solved
When you put on a new collar or pair of cuffs you wonder why re-laundried work doesn't have the same dull finish and the pliable stiffness of the new, don't you?
We'll tell you. To give stiffness without that brittleness which causes linen to crack, wheat starch must be used, but as it costs three times as much as corn starch, the average laundryman won't use it.
WHEAT STARCH ONLY
Used in our laundry. We produce a dull finish equal to that of new work. Try us and see.

ORGANIZING A CHARITY SYSTEM.

PROGRESS MADE IN THE MATTER OF SYSTEMATIC GIVING.

Local Philanthropic Workers Discuss the Situation—Influential Committee Appointed to Further the Cause.

The condition of the poor of Plainfield during the present business depression, and the best means for relieving the suffering existing among them, were thoroughly discussed at a meeting in the parlor of the Crescent Avenue church last night.

The Rev. Dr. W. R. Richards called the meeting to order shortly after 8. Mayor Gilbert was chosen chairman, and George Goddard secretary.

In explaining the reasons for calling the meeting the Mayor said there was great need of an awakening of public interest in the relief of the suffering prevailing among the poor by reason of the hard times. He believed that the people would be willing to contribute liberally during the winter if they were assured that the money would be wisely disbursed. Money was not lacking so much as system. The Ladies Relief Association had done and was doing excellent work, but their efforts should be supplemented by an auxiliary organization. It was practically impossible for the city to care for all the poor. Besides being controlled by the laws, the Overseer of the Poor has but a limited amount of money at his command. The appropriation is made by the Council at the beginning of the year, when any special need caused by sickness or commercial depression cannot be anticipated and provided for.

Mayor Gilbert further spoke of several schemes for providing work for the unemployed poor. The city had no public improvements under way, but many citizens could find odd jobs about their houses which they could have done by needy persons. He suggested the forming of an association to raise money to be expended by the Ladies Relief Association.

Rowland Cox proposed a committee of three to consider a plan carrying out Mayor Gilbert's suggestion and to report at the meeting.

Dr. Richards and Chas. W. McCutchen thought the sense of the meeting could be ascertained by debating the question at once.

L. N. Lovell favored a committee including the chairman of the meeting to arrange the details of organizing. The Relief Association had the means of disbursing money properly; the new society should simply investigate the cases brought before them.

The Chairman stated that the movement had been started to raise funds immediately and place them at the disposal of the Ladies Association.

Mr. McCutchen spoke of the necessity of immediate action and advocated consolidation or a system of supervision of the different societies.

William D. Murray thought that money should be raised at the meeting, and favored any system by which the funds could be properly disbursed, so that the different societies would not conflict by several giving to the same applicant.

L. W. Serrell advised the appointment of a committee to confer with one representative of each church charities society, the Overseer of the Poor and the Relief Association.

William T. Kaufman said that the Union County Country Club had recently taken steps to raise money for charity and were having circulars prepared to be generally circulated asking for contributions of a certain sum each week during the winter. The Mayor of Plainfield, the Mayor of North Plainfield, Pliny Fisk, the Rev. P. E. Smyth, and the Rev. G. K. Newell had been selected a committee to receive contributions and superintend the distribution.

Upon request, Mrs. Alexander Gilbert, President of the Relief Association, gave an account of the methods of the society. Applications are referred for investigation to "visitors" who report weekly to the Executive Committee. Cases requiring immediate relief are usually provided for personally by one of the officers. Records are kept of all the information obtainable in regard to persons so aided and are open for inspection by any who may desire to know if the society has already assisted an applicant for aid. The managing board contains two members from each of the church organizations in the city.

S. A. Ginna advocated the employment of the Relief Association as a means of reaching the destitute.

Charles Fisk advocated the raising of money at once and the appointment of the same committee as that of the Country Club to receive funds and disburse them through the different societies, and afterwards to consider plans of an investigating organization.

His motion to this effect was amended by D. C. Tiffany to confine the committee to the use of the Relief Association in expending money. The motion and the amendment were carried.

A. S. Patterson moved a reconsideration of the motion on the ground that the double duties of the committee might conflict, but the motion was lost.

The meeting then adjourned.

THANKSGIVING TOASTS.

High School Seniors Have a Merry Time in Assembly Hall.

The Class of '94 of the High School held a Thanksgiving supper in Assembly Hall yesterday evening. Thirty-five were present.

The toasts of the evening and those who responded were: "Thanksgiving", the class orator, Miss Florence Smith; "Board of Education", Mr. Maxson; "Class of '95", Miss Delano; "High School Athletics", Mr. Travell.

A poem was read by the class poet, Miss Emma Fish. The history of the class was given by the historian, Miss Mabel Mitchell, and the class prophecy by Prophet Henry C. Wells.

"Absens Saluto", by Ellery Leonard, formerly class president but now residing in Massachusetts, was read by the president, Miss Phœbe Lovell.

After the supper and the programme had been disposed of, games and other social amusements were enjoyed.

The committee in charge were:

On menu—Champlain Reilly, Norman Probasco and Miss Ethel Holmes.

On seating—Albert Woltman and Misses Mabel Mitchell and Alice Needham.

On toasts—Toastmaster Fred Goddard and Misses Bessie Cornwell and Edith Lane.

Tuxedo's Talent.

The company which will appear in Music Hall Saturday night in "Tuxedo" is an exceptionally strong one, and includes Hughey Dougherty, Burt Shepard, Arthur Rigby, Ed Marble, Chas. Guyer, formerly of the Madison Square Garden, New York; G. W. Dukelan, F. W. Oakland and J. W. Thompson, late of Primrose and West's minstrels; J. B. Martin the famous basso, Sam'l Compton, Miss Bonnie Goodwin the well-known soubrette, Miss Ida Fitzhugh the American nightingale, May Montfort the operatic contralto, J. Reyer West and Alice Montague the famous musical duo, S. C. Blair, Alf Carroll, A. W. VanAnder, and a host of others, including the Grenadier Concert Band, which gives an open-air concert, with selections by well-known soloists. One of the distinctive features will be the Columbian Exposition first part, given by Hughey Dougherty's World's Fair Minstrels, representing every nation under the sun in a picturesque stage setting.

For the Cremorne Mission Cause.

Services were held in the First Presbyterian church last evening by workers from the Jerry McAuley Cremorne Mission.

The speakers were introduced by the Rev. C. E. Herring. Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Ballou, mission superintendents, spoke of the methods they pursued. Two converts gave the stories of their lives, and Miss Wright, Mr. Ballou's niece, sang a solo and made an address.

An appeal was made for contributions of money and clothing to aid in carrying on the work.

Race Officials Tomorrow.

The racing committee of the Crescent Wheelmen met last night and appointed officers for the Credenda road race to be held tomorrow. They were as follows:

Clerk—Judy Fritts.
Judges—Dr. Fritts, A. Kline, C. Teel.
Timers—C. Vail, D. Stevens.
Starter—A. T. Hinrichs.
Scorers—C. P. Leggett, G. Tobin, G. Stevens, J. Buckle.

To Study Political Economy.

A class of women for the study of political economy has been formed to be conducted by Mrs. Maria Huntington Elwell. There will be five lessons all at the house of Mrs. J. K. Myers, 137 East Seventh street, beginning December 7. Members of the class are requested to study the opening chapters of the book recommended by Mrs. Elwell.

Mrs. Howe to Come Later.

Holders of commutation tickets for the course of lectures in All Souls church are notified to preserve their tickets after all the admission numbers have been cancelled. A ticket, even if so punched, will admit one person to the lecture of Mrs Julia Ward Howe, postponed from yesterday on account of her absence.

Army and Endeavorers to Attend

The funeral of the late John Overland, who was killed Monday, will take place from his late home, Coontown, Friday at noon, and from the Coontown church an hour later. Members of the Plainfield Salvation Army and Christian Endeavor society of Warren chapel will attend in a body.

Hope Chapel Service.

A Thanksgiving service will be held in Hope chapel tomorrow morning at 9:15 The service will last three-quarters of an hour. All are cordially invited by the pastor, G. Kennedy Newell.

An Enviable Name.

When the London Era says that "Mr. Ray has within the past two years made an enviable name for himself as a society entertainer," it means the Mr. Ray who is to delight the Casino audience Dec. 18

Pronounced Hopeless by Physicians.

VIRGIL, N. Y.—With no motive other than to do good, I write this letter with the hope that it may reach the eye of the sick and suffering.

"I was very sick about two years ago; physicians said I was suffering from female complaints. Their prescriptions failed to benefit me, for I gradually grew worse until finally I was told that I could not live. At this critical period my mother persuaded me to try Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, which I did, and I began to improve steadily, and continued its use until I was completely cured. I now weigh 140 pounds, and never enjoyed such good health as at present. I prize Favorite Remedy higher than gold.

Mother is 83 years old and has been kept alive for years by the use of this great medicine. MISS JENNIE BENNIE.

In speaking of Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, one of our local physicians said: "It is undoubtedly the best medicine we have for renovating the entire system; it eliminates all poisons from the blood, whether of scrofulas or malarial origin; for chronic dyspepsia, rheumatism, nervousness, all of which arise from an excess of poisons in the blood, it never fails to cure where a cure is possible.

THE SEASON'S SOCIAL PROSPECTS.

NOT MUCH AMUSEMENT IN A THEATRICAL WAY.

Dearth of Projects Commented on by Free-Lance Pen—Congratulations that "As You Like It" Was Not Performed—Other Society Topics.

"What has become of all the theatricals that we were to have had this season?"

That is the question one hears on every side when the prospects of the winter's amusements are being discussed. It would puzzle, I think, even those concerned in the proposed plays to answer it. There are several significent facts, however, which for persons who are adept at that mental process commonly called putting two and two together, may furnish a more or less satisfactory explanation.

In the first place it may be remembered by some that the erewhile propagator and manager of theatrical affairs of the Country Club swore a dreadful oath after his reception as a funny man last spring never to play or manage in Plainfield again.

This was really too bad as the aforesaid gentleman was a good coach an efficient manager and a pleasant fellow withal. That he should have made the mistake that he did last spring in his choice of stories and horse play was a mystery to every one as he had had an excellent demonstration of what would go down before a Plainfield audience when a very near relative of his played to a large and fashionable gathering in Music Hall. On that occasion one might have heard a pin drop when every one should have been laughing.

Deprived of their manager and coach the company began looking around for a substitute and found an excellent substitute in Charles Noe Daly, but Mr. Daly went to Canada this fall for Uncle Sam and is now coaching with a four-in-hand instead of leading ambitious Thespians through the intricacies of the drama. Added to these difficulties there has been the inevitable theatrical row and in that, of course, was concerned the best talent in the company; so take it all together we need not expect any performances in the immediate future.

We still have something for which to be thankful however. "As You Like It" was not performed. That catastrophe was barely averted as the parts had been assigned and the soaring ones had already succeeded in committing a few lines to memory. The reason given for "calling it off" was, as usual, the lack of anyone to take hold and run the thing as it should have been run.

It is rather early to say anything about it, but there is really some promise of a play in Easter week. Whether the propagators of the scheme have gone outside of French's catalogue, I know not, but it is consoling to know that the boards of the Casino stage will be walked at least once during the season.

The Melopoia Society is to be congratulated in making every possible effort to get Henri Marteau to perform at one of its concerts. It is a very pleasant thing for the subscribers to look forward to. But there are a great many music-loving people who do not care to subscribe to the series of concerts but who would take every opportunity possible to hear so distinguished a virtuoso as M. Marteau. They say that the Melopoia lost money last year and if that be true they will certainly lose it this season.

Now here is a very good chance for the society to add a few honest shekles to the treasury. Let its managers sell extra single tickets for the concert at which M. Marteau is to play. If there is not room in the Casino, there are larger halls in town that are used for musical purposes than the club playhouse. It would certainly pay if the fact were advertised a little, and many people would take that opportunity of hearing one of the greatest living violinists. I realize that the Melopoia is proud but we must all sacrifice that much maligned virtue in hard times.

Anyone from Plainfield chancing to drop in at the Waldorf during horse show week would have been surprised at the number of faces, familiar at home, that greeted him in that prince of all hostelries No less than seven Plainfield and Netherwood families were stopping there for periods of from a day or two to two weeks, and one might imagine himself at home, so many nods and smiles would he receive in going into the dining room. Plainfielders are becoming more and more wedded to New York. And it is natural that it should be so. Many of them are Gothamites by birth and upbringing, and it would be strange indeed did they not long at times for the flesh pots of Egypt. Now that the horse show is over the opera will claim the attention of everyone, and a large delegation from Plainfield will undoubtedly be present at the first matinee of the season on Saturday when Faust will be presented by a company that is probably the finest that New York has ever heard.

There have been several attempts made to arrange another paper chase, the first on election day was so very successful. The beauty of the election day ride was in having it from such a charming house and among such pleasant people, and as no one seems to come forward and act as host I fear that the ride that has been arranged for tomorrow will not be as pleasant as the initial effort.

It may be remarked incidentally that the Yale-Princeton football game has in former years proved rather an attraction on that date and that many of the best and most enthusiastic rides will be watching the struggle on Manhattan Field, instead of tracking their way through the wilderness of the surrounding country by means of some rags tied on trees.

THE LOUNGER.

—A praise service will be held in the First Presbyterian church tomorrow at 10 a. m.

A PLAINFIELD FIANCEE.

Miss Maude Chilton and Her Engagement to the Junior Lemuel W. Serrell.

(From The Jersey City Democrat.)

Perhaps, among the many engagements which it has been my special privilege to announce, there has not been one that will occasion more surprise than that of Miss Maude James Chilton, daughter of Bruce Chilton, to Lemuel William Serrell, Jr. To make the announcement certainly gives me pleasure, and at the same time gives a subject of discussion to the circle to which both parties belong. Although Mr. Serrell is a resident of Plainfield, he is well-known in Jersey City, and during the past year has been one of the shining lights at many of the prominent social functions. He is the son of Lemuel William Serrell, Sr., the celebrated patent lawyer of New York city. With the Class of '87 of Stevens Institute, of Hoboken, he graduated with honors. Having a taste for the study of electricity, he at once began to pursue it and is now one of the best of electrical engineers.

It seems quite unnecessary to tell much about Miss Chilton, for I think there are few maidens in Hudson county better known or more popular. That she is one of the most ambitious young women in society at present cannot be denied. It is generally understood she is clever in everything she undertakes. For several years she has been a powerful acquisition to all the amateur theatricals, and within the last year shone considerably in the literary kingdom. There is no disputing that this last year has been an eventful one in the history of Miss Chilton's life. Besides writing a serial which is being published in a local county magazine, she has also written a novel to be ready for publication early in January. The book will be known by the title of Society's Protege. It will contain one hundred and fifty pages and be published by the Cleveland Publishing Company, of New York. Miss Chilton's object in writing it is to show up society in all its phases. The characters are all realistic, and some of the fashionable set of Jersey City need not be surprised to find themselves vividly portrayed between its covers.

Miss Chilton positively declares being engaged will not end her literary career. She says she loves the work and her success as a novelist has spurred her on to greater efforts. It is her intention to write another society novel after her first attempt has been circulated. There has been no date set for the marriage, but Miss Chilton does not deny that it may possibly take place in the spring.

The Democrat being the paper preferred among the many local ones to publish the announcement, offers congratulations to the happy young couple and wishes them a bright future.

PAST AND PRESENT SUPPER.

Meals Served in Vincent Chapel in Both the Good Old Way and the New.

The women of the First M. E. church gave a most creditable old-fashioned supper in Vincent chapel last evening, and styled it "Past and Present". A faithful representation was given of days gone by and days that now are.

One room was furnished in the old-fashioned way, with rag carpet on the floor, and with a display of other old-time accessories, such as spinning wheel, open fire-place, bright wood fire, and string of peppers and pumpkin rinds hanging from the mantel, while the entire room was illuminated with candle light. Within this room were several pieces of old-fashioned furniture, books and valuable papers, all of which had a history of deep interest. In this room supper was served in the old-time way, and a good old-fashioned meal was prepared, including such homely but wholesome food as pork and beans, veal, ham, biscuit, rye bread, crullers, cider, apple sauce and pumpkin pie.

In the other room supper was served in the present style, and the difference was marked, everything here being up to date. Both rooms received large patronage, and the tables were constantly being relieved of the good things provided. In the main room fresh home-made candies and lemonade were sold, to ready purchasers.

The church will realize well from this unique and successful affair.

In Justice Nash's Court.

In Justice Nash's court yesterday the case of Waldron against Hooley was adjourned until December 6. Jackson & Angleman appeared for the plaintiff, and C. A. Marsh for the defendant.

In the case of McIntyre against Terry, judgment was entered for $44 31 and costs.

Judgment was reserved in the suit of Boyce against Jahn concerning a violation of contract.

A warrant of removal was issued in the case of Hetfield against Seguine.

Brilliant, and Coming to Plainfield.

"A brilliant young pianist" remarks the St. Louis Globe-Democrat. "A pianist of much delicacy and expression"—adds the Chicago Inter-Ocean. They were speaking of Wilbert E. Lewis, who is one of the artists booked for the Casino Dec. 18.

A FEEBLE WOMAN

—suffering from nervous prostration, excitability, or dizziness, the result of weakness, derangement, or displacement of the special organs—will find health regained after using Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. In every case of "female complaint"

PIERCE Guarantees a CURE OR MONEY RETURNED.

About two years ago I was so sick with womb trouble that I could not cross the room without fainting away. The doctors could do me no good and told me I must die, but my mother gave me "Favorite Prescription," and in one week I began to feel stronger. After taking a dozen bottles I am as well as I ever was; free from all pains and aches and all due to Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. LIZZIE H. MURPHY, Miss McMurphy. New Dorp, Richmond Co., N. Plainfielders at Its Head.

The annual meeting of the New Jersey Woman Suffrage Association was held yesterday in Newark. The old board of officers was re-elected, with one exception, Aaron M. Powell, of Plainfield, being chosen for Auditor. Mrs. Florence Howe Hall, of this city, was re-elected President.

It was decided to hold a memorial meeting in remembrance of the late Mrs. Lucy Stone, in Newark, in December.

A Reader of Grace and Finish.

Among the artists engaged for Dec. 18 at the Casino is Miss Jean Wilson, of whom the New York Times says:

Miss Jean Wilson is a Washington elocutionist whose appearance in New York has been cordially greeted. At a recent gathering of women Miss Wilson recited several pieces, the rendition of which roused her listeners to the pitch of enthusiasm. Adelaide Proctor's "Message" and a song of the "Spinning Wheel" were exquisitely given. Miss Wilson brings out every shade of the author's meaning with grace and finish.

DEMOCRATS, REPUBLICANS AND PROHIBITIONISTS

HAVE for years been voting to send others to the WHITE HOUSE. I have solved the problem; and can, for a very little money, arrange it that no change of administration will remove you from that coveted position. I

Will Offer 160 Acres of Land,

In Plots 50x150, Property of Aaron D. Thompson,

At White House,

N. J.,

AT PUBLIC AUCTION,

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 2, 1893,

FROM 1 TO 4 P. M.

No Underbidding. Every lot bid on will be sold.

TERMS--$10 cash. Balance $5 per month. 10 per cent. off if lot is paid for in 30 days.

WHITE HOUSE, Hunterdon county, N. J, is situated on Central R. R. of N. J., 44 miles from New York. Population, 1,000; has churches, school, post-office, stores, and the elevation of the land and commanding views of mountain scenery will compare with any similar scene in any country. The nature of the soil, and the nearness to New York market, would enable one to buy a small piece of this property and make a comfortable living raising fruit, truck, etc.

ATTEND THIS SALE. GOOD MUSIC AND REFRESHMENTS.

Special trains will be run on day of sale. A branch N. J. Building Loan and Investment Co., of Trenton, will be formed to furnish money to anyone wishing to build houses. Arrangements are being made to locate a number of manufactories near this property.

Ahead of a Year Ago.

Nothwithstanding the great cry of "Hard Times," our trade up to the present date is considerably in excess of last year.

The result we believe of FAIR DEALING—giving the very best goods possible for the least money. In other words, REAL MERIT.

The people of Plainfield have found out that in the filling of a memorandum of a dozen or more articles in our lines, they can do just as well at EDSALL'S in price, quality, style and variety as in any one store in New York.

Patrons often remark in our store: "Well, if I can't get it here, there is no use of my looking for it in Plainfield, for I will have hard work to find it in New York."

We have now so many good things to advertise that it is impossible to mention them in our space, and urge buyers to call at our store and see for themselves the many new things we offer.

K. of L. Assembly Thus Adjourns to Meet Next Year at New Orleans.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 29.—The general assembly of the Knights of Labor, after a session lasting nearly four hours, finished the business before it last evening and finally adjourned to meet next year in New Orleans.

General Worthy Foreman Bishop occupied the chair.

Ex-General Master Workman T. V. Powderly was not present, but a resolution was adopted before adjournment thanking him for his services in the fifteen years he has been at the head of the order and complimenting him upon his fair decisions.

It also expressed the hope that his friendly relations with the Knights would not be severed and that much prosperity would attend his future life.

Several matters relating to boycotts, etc., were disposed of and Secretary Schonfarber read the telegram from the newly elected general master workman sent from Des Moines to General Secretary Hayes. It was greeted with cheers, and, after the final adjournment, there was a short jollification over the settlement of the difficulties.

DEATH OF CAPTAIN WILD.

One of the Oldest and Best Known Advance Agents in the Country.

PORTLAND, Me., Nov. 29.—Captain Marshall Perry Wild, known to almost every actor of note in this country, died yesterday very suddenly. He was 62 years old. He was in the employ of the Portland steam packet company as advertising agent. He was both manager and advance agent at different times, and advertising agent for many companies.

He was one of the strongest friends the late "A. Ward" had and a year ago made what he termed "a loving pilgrimage" to the grave of his friend. For some time he was Ward's advertising agent and manager and was strongly urged to go with him to England.

When Charles Dickens made his American tour, reading from his own works, he asked the late James T. Fields to find him a proper man to go with him and to take the management of the thousand and one minor details. Mr. Fields suggested Captain Wild. An arrangement was made and so well was Mr. Dickens satisfied that he sent him a personal letter at the close of the tour and added a very handsome check to the salary he was to pay him.

DISCREDITS THE REPORT.

Minister Mendonca Does Not Believe That Para Has Revolted.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—The report in the London Times, to the effect that the state of Para had joined the revolutionary forces in Brazil is not credited at the Brazilian legation in this city.

Senor Mendonca, the Brazilian minister, said to-day that no dispatch which he had received from his government made mention of the defection of Para and if such had been the case, he would certainly have been notified. Senor Mendonca was asked whether or not there was anything in the political condition of affairs in Para that would lead him to believe such a movement in that state probable. He said: "On the contrary, the republican sentiment in Para is stronger than that of any other state in Brazil."

TRACED TO THE DYNAMITERS.

Dublin Police Get at the Facts in the Murder of Reid.

DUBLIN, Nov. 29.—The police have obtained evidence connecting the dynamiters with the murder of Reid. The dynamiters doubted Reid's fidelity and asked him to go to America, giving him £7 to leave.

Monday evening two comrades went with him to the North Wall quay to see him aboard the Liverpool boat. There he suddenly changed his mind and refused to leave the country. His companions quarreled with him, and the quarrel was kept up in the streets until they reached the lonely spot where Reid's body was found by the police.

Congressman O'Neill's Funeral.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 29.—The funeral of Congressman Charles O'Neil took place yesterday and was largely attended. For two hours the remains lay in state at the late congressman's home and were viewed by a large concourse of people. The only floral tribute was one presented by the congressional delegation which attended the obsequies. It was a magnificent bank of immortalles, bordered with smilax, and bearing the inscription "Father of the House."

Another Suicide Club.

LAPORTE, Ind., Nov. 29.—The coroner has completed his investigation into the death of William Ozier, who committed suicide at Whiting a few days ago and it has been brought to light that a suicide club is in existence in Lake county. At stated intervals a drawing occurred and the member who drew the fatal ballot was to be the next victim.

Dr. Graves' Will Probated.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 29.—The will of Dr. T. Thatcher Graves, made by him at West Campton, N. H., July 30, 1890, has just been admitted to probate in the municipal court here. The deceased left all of his property to his widow, Emma Jane Graves, who was appointed administratrix of the estate.

Arms and Ammunition for Hawaii.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 29.—It is learned that the steamer Australia, which sailed for Honolulu last Saturday, carried among her cargo five cases of arms and ammunition. The schooner Annie Johnson has just cleared for Honolulu with 50 cases of dynamite, billed as giant powder, on board.

Mannering Murder Trial.
